Nanking, March 12 (AP)—Liu Chieh, vice minister of foreign affairs, said today the action of United States Secretary of State Marshall in blocking a Soviet proposal to discuss Chinese affairs at the Moscow conference fulfilled earlier assurances to the Chinese that they would not be subject to big four discussion.

The only Nanking newspaper to comment so far on the Russian proposal, which brought quick protest from Government officials here yesterday, was the official Central Daily News. It attacked the proposal as a violation of the spirit of the United Nations charter.

"We warn our allies," the paper said, "that the Chinese people cannot overlook attempted interference in Chinese politics by foreigners. If the Chinese people had been willing to subject themselves to foreign interference, there never would have been a war of resistance against the Japanese."

Says He Was Warned After School Paper Published Anti-U. S. Speech by a Communist Leader.

Tokyo, March 12 (A. P.).—A frightened young editor revealed today that he had been threatened by communists because his Japanese school paper published an account of an anti-American, anti-British speech by a member of the Japanese Communist party executive committee. The editor, Soichi Kato, said he first was offered a bribe to drop the story and then was threatened when it was published.

United States Army headquarters said that the case was being investigated, but declined further comment.

The story quoted Japanese Communist leader, Ritsu Ito, as telling students of the Tokyo Institute of Technology that "we must make the working masses of all Asia understand that their enemy is the imperialism of the United States and Great Britain." The story was published under the heading, "Enemy of Asia's Masses Is American Imperialism."

Another Communist leader, Sanzo Nozaka, denied that Ito had made such remarks and attributed the story to anti-Communists at the school. However, Masamichi Takatsu, Social Democrat party official who spoke on the same program, said the story was substantially correct and that Ito had said that "Asia must unite to fight United States and British imperialism."

Kato said that seventy students who heard the speech signed statements that his story was correct, but that fifty others said it was not. The statements, Kato said, were obtained after a United States Army counter-intelligence officer had visited the school to check on Ito's talk.

U. S. Journalists in Tokyo

TOKYO, March 12 (AP)—Dr. Frank Luther Mott, dean of the University of Missouri School of Journalism, and Frederick Melcher, New York and Boston editor of the Library Journal and Publishers' Weekly, arrived today to serve as consultants to occupation information and education authorities. They will spend about two months here assisting in the publishing fields.

Railway Suicides Up

Tokyo, March 12 (AP)—The Transportation Ministry reported today that leaping in front of railway trains had become a favored form of suicide in the last year, and that of 1,241 who jumped, 970 were killed.

In Postwar Japan

Food Before Love

Tokyo, March 12 (AP)—Japan's public-opinion poll takers report that the pangs of hunger out-tug the pangs of love.

Among 506 single Japanese women between 18 and 26 in Tokyo, the poll found that most of them, instead of love, wanted in the way of a husband a man who had enough money to buy anything he desired in the black market.

U.S. Tanker Breaks In Two In Pacific

Honolulu, March 12 (AP)—The Maritime Commission tanker Fort Dearborn, with 43 men aboard, sent out an S O S today that she had broken in two approximately 800 miles northwest of Honolulu.

Six ships and a Navy search plane sped to the scene.

The tanker, with 110,000 barrels of diesel oil aboard, left San Francisco 4 for Shanghai.

[Tanksrs of her class normally carry a crew of 25 to 40.]

Lieut. Com. George P. Unmacht, operations officer of the Hawaiian Sea Frontier, said a general message had bee nsent to al lships within a 500-mile radius of the Dearborn to converge on the scene.

Typhoon Should Be First

The U.S.S. Typhoon was reported within 195 miles of the Dearborn and should reach the spot first. The U.S.S. El Dorado, U.S.S. Benevolence, the freighter Bald Eagle, the Army transport Gen. E. T. Collins and the DCE 900 also headed for the stricken ship from greater distances.

A Navy search plane was sent from Midway.

The Bald Eagle relayed the S O S which was picked up by Globe Wireless.

The 503-foot Fort Dearborn was built at the Kaiser yards in Portland in 1943 and is operated by the Keystone Shipping Company, of Philadelphia. The tanker's master was given as R. J. Mahoney, of Corpus Christi, Texas. Her cargo was loaded by the Associated Oil Company for Navy delivery.

JERUSALEM PUT UNDER CURFEW

British React Swiftly To Commando-Like Raids

Jerusalem, March 12 (AP)—Britain's Palestine Government reimposed a dusk-to-dawn curfew on Jewish quarters of Jerusalem tonight in swift reaction to a new series of commando-like attacks attributed to the Jewish underground.

With more than half of the Holy Land's 700,000 Jews already under modified martial law, the new regulation placed some 50,000 others under nightly house arrest, and banned all vehicular traffic in the predominantly Jewish north coastal plain.

The British action came after a series of events which included a daring predawn bombing of a military depot in Jerusalem by raiders in which one soldier was killed and eight others injured."

Immigration Ship Beached

Developments included the beaching on the southern coast near Gaza of the illegal immigration ship Susanna, 400 tons, largest vessel ever to run the British blockade successfully.

Eluding a pursuing British destroyer in the darkness, the Susanna ran straight for the beach, and about 700 of the nearly 1,000 passengers apparently got ashore, dispatches from the scene reported.

The army intercepted six busses and two trucks which had been drawn up to carry the refugees away from the beach, and about 500 of the immigrants were rounded up, the dispatches said. About 200 were believed to have escaped into surrounding fields, however, and the army threw a cordon around a 40-mile-square area in an effort to intercept them.

Three British Drowned

Two British seamen and an officer were drowned in the surf when their whaleboat was overturned in an effort to overtake some of the immigrants who had sailed from Italy.

An official announcement said most of the refugees who had waded ashore were rounded up and would be transferred to Haifa in a heavily guarded truck convoy.

The announcement said all would be deported to detention camps on Cyprus.

Palestine officials denied rumors that a British naval party had attempted to board the vessel before it ran ashore but was repulsed by the immigrants. The British also denied that there had been skirmishes between Arabs living in the area and some of the passengers.

The Jerusalem blast, which punched open the wall of an army pay corps barracks in a converted Syrian orphanage, was described by British Brigadier Edmund F. Davies as just like a commando attack.

A communiqué said a party of "Jewish attackers" stormed the building under cover of heavy machine-gun fire, after blasting a 15-foot hole in a stone wall surrounding the structure. Four explosions rocked the building, ripping out a section of the wall and extensively damaging the barracks.

The attackers, believed to number five or six, left behind them two rucksacks filled with 150 pounds of gelignite.

Irgun Admits Bombing

The underground organization Irgun Zvai Leumi, in a telephone call to the Associated Press office here, took responsibility for the bombing, and said "all our soldiers returned safely to base."

One British soldier was seriously injured when his jeep was blown up, apparently by a road mine, near the Sarona police encampment on the outskirts of Tel Aviv.

Four other minor incidents also were reported by police, but only one soldier was injured in these affrays.

Court Backs Martial Law In Palestine

Jerusalem, March 12 (AP)—The Jerusalem Supreme Court rejected today an application for an order nisi requiring the country should not be cancelled.

A Tel Aviv resident petitioned the court to act against Sir Henry Gurney, Palestine chief secretary charging that martial law was a "violation of the bill of rights, the Magna Carta and all previous jurisdiction."

Sir William Fitzgerald read the court decision which held that Lieutenant General Sir Alan Cunningham, the high commissioner had the right to impose martial law "whenever and wherever in Palestine he deemed it necessary to preserve order."

200 Jews Flee Ship, Escape Into Palestine

Jerusalem, March 12 (AP)—Two hundred illegal Jewish immigrants disappeared into southern Palestine near the Barren Negev (Southern Desert) early today after escaping from a refugee ship which ran the British blockade and drove aground near Gaza.

The British Army announced that 400 of the estimated 800 refugees aboard the vessel were rounded up on the beach and placed in a hastily erected compound near Ashdud, a few miles from Gaza, while another 200 were said to be still aboard the craft, identified as the 400-ton Susanna, out of Italy.

To Be Taken To Cyprus

Authorities said those held would be taken by truck to Haifa during the day and transshipped tonight to Cyprus detention camps. Extraordinary precautions were taken to guard the route to Haifa in order to prevent a possible attempt to free the immigrants.

Unofficial sources said every Jewish settlement in the area bordering on the desert had been cordoned off to prevent the refugees still at liberty from finding their way into those settlements. The army was continuing its search for those who escaped.

Deny Ship Overtaken

There were reports that the British Navy had overtaken the vessel at sea during the night and put a boarding party on her, only to have it thrown off by the passengers, but this was denied officially. Also denied was a report that there had been skirmishes between Arabs living in the area and some of the escaped Jews.

Five or six Jews using machine guns and revolvers attacked headquarters of the Jerusalem martial-law area an hour before dawn killing a British soldier and wounding eight, three of them seriously

Four other incidents occurred during the night, in which another soldier was injured.

Army Camp Fired On

Police reported that "two or three armed Jews fired tommy guns into an army camp at Karkur," midway between Haifa and Tel Aviv, just before midnight. Two hand grenades were tossed and sentries fired, but there was no casualty.

The communiqué said three riflemen fired on an army truck near Tulkarm. Another vehicle was attacked by Bren gunners south of Haifa and it was there that the soldier was injured. A military jeep was blown up near Sarona, on the outskirts of Tel Aviv.

Authorities searching the Sanhedriya quarter of Jerusalem arrested eighteen Jews in quizzes concerning terrorist activities. One was a woman.

Troops "Protect" Them

The Susanna was reported to have run aground at 8 A.M. on a lonely stretch of beach. Troops rushed to the scene from near-by army camps to round up the refugees, who had poured ashore from the beached craft, and, according to one officer, to "preserve order" in case the Arabs started to round them up."

Gaza is an all Arab town, the principal coastal city of southern Palestine. The whole area around it is heavily dotted with military installations.

British Soldier Killed

The beaching of the Susanna followed by only a few hours the latest outburst of violence in Jerusalem.

A party of five or six Jewish undergrounders, striking in a commando-like raid under cover of heavy machine gun and revolver fire an hour before dawn, blasted the headquarters of Jerusalem's martial-law area, killing a British soldier and wounding eight, three of them seriously.

Danger Is Seen In Bid To Curb Reds In U.S.

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach's proposal to outlaw the Communist party in America stirred Congress today.

Representative Kersten (R., Wis.) heartily seconded the idea after Representative Hartley (R., N.J.), chairman of the House Labor Committee, had promised to introduce a bill to kill the party.

But a member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities said there might be two objections:

1. Delicate dealings with Russia might be upset.

2. Outlawing the party might merely drive it underground, instead of keeping it at least partly in the open where its enemies can fight it more easily.

In answer to questions by Kersten, Schwellenbach told the House Labor Committee yesterday:

"I think Communists should be excluded from any type of public activity, including the right to run for office, to sit in chambers of commerce and to hold office in trade unions.

"Advocated Overthrow"

"They have advocated the overthrow of our Government and they should not be allowed to have any part in government."

Many members of the committee have been considering a labor-law provision either to forbid unions to have Communists for officers or to bar Communists as union members.

Hartley said he saw no reason why the committee should point only to unions as objectives for an anti-Communist campaign.

In New York, Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party in the United States, declared that Schwellenbach had "openly joined forces with the ultra-reactionary GOP and its Parnell-Thomas-Rankin un-American committee."

'46 Election Forgotten

He added that the Democratic party and the Truman Administration "seem to have forgotten what happened to them in the 1946 elections, when they tried to compete with the GOP reactionaries in Red baiting."

Schwellenbach, testifying on assorted bills intended to change the labor laws so as to curb some union practices said some of the changes would encourage industrial "chaos" instead of wiping it out.

He recommended that Congress leave collective bargaining processes pretty much alone.

Similar testimony came from Paul M. Herzog, National Labor Relations Board chairman, who was called back for today's session.

Russ Results Cited

The member of the Un-American Activities Committee remarked that the first nation to get a Communist Government was Russia, where the party was banned and operated underground.

"By outlawing the party in this country," he said, "we might not accomplish what we want to."

In the international field, he said he believes in "dealing very tough with Russia."

But, he said, it might make negotiations with the Soviets more difficult if we insist that Americans have an opportunity to move freely and speak freely in their country while at the same time curbing in this country those who see things as the Russians do.

Truman Gets Appropriations Bill Killing OPA June 30

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Legislation to close out OPA by June 30 cleared Congress today and only the signature of President Truman is necessary to schedule the end of the wartime rationing and price-control agency.

Actually, OPA may cease operations well before June 30 for agency officials claim the slightly more than $14,000,000 finally provided for its liquidation will last at most through April. That sum is all available for operation between now and July 1, for paying off OPA employés, and closing its business.

Rider Directs Liquidation

Final congressional action came when the Senate passed the Senate-House conference report on a deficiency appropriation providing $179,645,668—including OPA's final allotment—and a rider directing OPA to liquidate.

Approval was on a voice vote, but not before Democratic Senators Pepper, of Florida, and Taylor, of Idaho, protested what they characterized as killing off an agency by indirection—through withholding of funds.

Chairman Bridges (R., N.H.) of the Appropriations Committee assured them provision would be made to administer through another Government agency whatever form of rent controls Congress may adopt.

Sugar and rice controls may be transferred to the Agriculture Department under legislation pending before congressional committees now.

Contends 14 Millions Enough

Bridges asserted the $14,000,000 should be enough to last OPA through June 30.

Going out of business along with OPA will be the Civilian Production Administration, the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion and the Office of Temporary Controls.

Included in the deficiency appropriation measure—which the House passed yesterday and sent to the Senate—are funds for a number of Government agencies. The Veterans Administration gets the biggest amount, approximately $15,000,000.

Defenders Guarantee Peace, Says Patterson

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Secretary of War Patterson declared today that "peace in these uncertain times is guaranteed by our armed defenders."

Patterson expressed this view in a brief statement on the forthcoming occasion of Army Day, April 6. That day, he said, will "find American soldiers stationed in the far places of the world, striving to bring order and enduring peace out of the tragic conditions attendant on the conclusion of the most destructive war in the history of mankind."

Grain Exports Top 50 Million Bu. In Month

Washington, March 12 (AP)—The Agriculture Department reported today the United States exported 50,588,00 bushels of grain and grain products to shortage areas during February.

This brought total shipments for the eight months, July through February, to 299,417,000 bushels.

Exports are expected to reach the Government's 1946-47 marketing year goal of 400,000,000 bushels by the end of April.

However, plans are being made to ship additional quantities—largely corn—during May and June.

Large scale exports of wheat will not be resumed until this year's wheat crop become available late in June and in July.

About one fourth of the February exports went to the occupied zones of Europe and Asia, one fourth to the UNRRA countries and the remainder to cash-paying governments.

Sabath Requests Probe Of D.C. Arab Office

MAR 1947

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Representative Sabath (D., Ill.) said today that he has asked the State Department and the FBI to investigate the seven-nation Arab office here "to find out who is behind them."

He said he assumed it was his action which led to an FBI search of the office Monday.

Sabath said the office purports to be supported by the governments of Arab nations opposed to making Palestine a Jewish national home.

Wonders About Financing

"But I'm not sure who actually is behind it and where the financing is coming from," the lawmaker added. "They are continually putting out statements down there and they seem to have unlimited funds for propaganda. I think we should find who the real backers of this office are."

Cecil Hourani, secretary of the Arab office, disclosed that two FBI agents with search warrants spent almost all Monday examining the files and papers.

Co-Operated, He Said

Hourani said he had no idea what the agents were seeking.

"We were very glad to co-operate in the search because we have nothing to conceal," he added.

A Justice Department official said yesterday "we had a complaint they were engaging in activities in violation of the Foreign Agents Registration Act."

Later T. Lamar Caudle, Assistant Attorney General in charge of the criminal division, said the search "contains no implication whatever with respect to the activities" of the office.

He said the Foreign Agents Registration Act provides that agents must keep books and records open to United States inspection.

Soviet Medals Bestowed On 7 American Generals

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The Soviet Embassy flowed today with warm good will, caviar and fine liquors in a lavish party for American generals.

There was a certain stiffness and uncertainty among the milling array of Army brass and Russian gold braid at the occasion, the presentation of Russian medals to the American generals for "valor and heroism" in the delivery of lend-lease airplanes to Russia and bombs to Germany during the war.

Nobody talked of the President's sharp challenge to Communist expansion.

It was, apparently, one of those ill-timed parties, scheduled weeks before the Greek developments and today's climax. Only a few minutes before the arrival of the first general, the host, Nikolai Novikov, the Russian Ambassador, had to rush off to catch a train for New York and thence to Moscow, recalled, presumably, to report on the Greek situation.

S. K. Tsarapkin, Charge d'Affaires, a young, bushy-haired diplomat in a dark suit, took over for his chief.

The American generals who received medals from the Russians today are Major General James H. Burns and Brigadier Generals Charles W. Lawrence, Dean C. Strother, Archie J. Old jr., August W. Kissner, Donald P. Booth and Irl D. Brent.

DR. BUTLER OPPOSES HAWAII STATEHOOD

MAR 1947

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Six territorial legislators from Hawaii asked the House Public Lands Committee today to permit Hawaii to become the forty-ninth State.

Representative Herbert K. H. Lee, Democrat, of Honolulu, declared that "Statehood must not be lost in the shuffle over any subsidiary question such as the of Hawaiian public lands.

The Interior Department has recommended an amendment to the Statehood Bill to retain Federal ownership of 1,600,000 acres of Hawaiian Public Lands.

Territorial Senator William H. Heen, Democrat, opposed the amendment, saying:

"We did not come here to bargain away our birthright for Statehood."

Later he said that "Statehood is the paramount question."

The first opposition to Statehood during the hearing came from Nicholas Murray Butler, president emeritus of Columbia University, in a letter to J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, which was put into the record by Representative Dean P. Taylor, Republican, of New York.

"Under no circumstances, should Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico or any other outlying island or territory be admitted as a State in our Federal Union," Dr. Butler wrote. "To do so, in my judgment, would mark the beginning of the end of the United States as we have known it.

"To add outlying territory hundreds or thousands of miles away, with what certainly must be different interests from ours and very different background, might easily mark the beginning of the end."

Truman's Plane Made Ready

Washington, March 12 (AP)—President Truman ordered his plane, the "Sacred Cow," in readiness today for a flight to Key West, Fla., and a four-day rest prescribed by his personal physician.

The Chief Executive planned to leave Washington after delivering a foreign policy address to a joint session of Congress.

It was the developing Mediterranean crisis which forced Mr. Truman to cancel his plans for a takeoff last Saturday on what had been planned as a fifteen-day absence from the capital.

In announcing the shortened version of that trip, Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters today:

"The President is in tiptop shape but needs a rest."

Ordered By Physician

Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, the President's doctor, added that he had ordered the vacation to give the Chief Executive "sunshine, swimming and relaxation."

"Today's speech is his third major address in ten days," Ross said, adding that the President's three-day visit to Mexico last week had been planned in the expectation it would be followed by the rest in Florida.

Graham, who ordered the trip reinstated after Mr. Truman completed work on his message to Congress yesterday, said it would be the forerunner of frequent brief excursions.

Plans for the longer trip called for a cruise to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands and a visit to the Atlantic fleet maneuvers in the Caribbean. All of these are omitted from the new schedule.

Mr. Truman will return to Washington either Sunday night or Monday morning.

Truman Plans Trip To Mississippi

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP).—President Truman will go to Cleveland, Miss., May 8 to attend and address the annual meeting of the Delta Cotton Council.

The White House said today that details of the trip remain to be worked out, but the President probably will fly from Washington to Memphis, Tenn., and motor south to the little Mississippi town where he will attend a noon barbecue before addressing the council.

Whether the speech will be a brief informal one or a formal address is not known at this time. He probably will start back to Washington the same day.

SNYDER SEES TAXES MEETING YEAR'S BUDGET

Reports Current Collections Are Exceeding All Expectations.

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said today that Government tax collections are exceeding expectations and expressed hope of a balanced budget for the current fiscal year.

Snyder also told a news conference:

1. He opposes any "broad cuts—that is, general cuts"—in taxes at this time. He maintains the Government cannot yet afford to reduce revenues. The House Ways and Means Committee starts hearings tomorrow on legislation to slash levies 20 per cent.

2. He favors reducing the rate of interest paid by the Government on tax refunds from 6 per cent to 3, although he believes the 6 per cent interest charged delinquent taxpayers should be maintained.

3. The Internal Revenue Bureau is setting a new record for speed in paying refunds to individuals on 1946 income tax returns. It has refunded, he said, $304,080,000 to 7,068,000 persons—an average of more than $40 each.

Snyder said that tax collections are coming in better than anticipated last January when it was estimated that Government receipts for the fiscal year would amount to $40,230,000,000. He attributes this showing to the high rate of production in recent months.

Asked, however, if receipts would go as high as $43,000,000,000—or more than $2,750,000,000 above the January estimate—Synder said that figure is over optimistic because later receipts probably will taper off. He said it will be June before it will be known definitely whether the goal of balancing the budget has been achieved. The fiscal year ends June 30.

To Testify Tomorrow.

Snyder will get a chance to amplify his views tomorrow as the first witness before the Ways and Means Committee hearing on the tax-cutting proposal—which has touched off one of the biggest controversies of the Eightieth Congress.

Representative Knutson (R.-Minn.), the committee chairman, announced the hearings will last only two days. This promptly brought a cry of "steamroller" from Representative Forand (R.-R. I.).

HOOVER RULES OUT U. S. RELIEF POST

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—Former President Herbert Hoover said today that "under no possible circumstances" would he accept the job of administrator and co-ordinator of United States relief abroad.

"At my time in life, I have reached the stage of advice and consultation," he told White House reporters after conferring with President Truman.

The former President said that his talk with Mr. Truman was confined to questions of administration of relief. In response to a specific query he said they had not discussed the particular problems of Greece and Turkey.

In answer to another question, he said, that the overall estimate for direct relief amounted to $1,250,000,000.

$10,000,000 Credit Granted Denmark

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—The Foreign Liquidation Commission announced today that Denmark has been granted a $10,000,000 credit for the purchase of American surplus property located overseas.

Britain Draws $200,000,000 More

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—Great Britain has drawn another $200,000,000 from her $3,750,000,000 United States loan, Treasury records showed today.

One effect of the withdrawal was to send budgetary expenditures sufficiently higher than receipts to drop the Government's operating surplus below $1,000,000,000 for the first time in many weeks.

British Navy Cadets Plan To Leave Today

Annapolis, March 12 (AP)—British Royal Navy cadets joined the officers and crew of their training ship, H.M.S. Frobisher, today in preparations for embarking on the remainder of their winter cruise tomorrow.

The light cruiser has been here since last week while 180 British cadets have paid their first visit in history to the Naval Academy.

Italian War Bride Asks For Separation

Kansas City, March 12 (AP)—Less than a year since she arrived in the United States, Mrs. Elena Bosse, 24-year-old daughter of the Baroness La Lomia of Rome, is seeking a legal separation from the small-town American soldier she wed.

Mrs. Bosse filed a petition in Circuit Court here for separate maintenance against her husband, Richard Bosse, 25. Bosse was a private when he met Elena Calasanti in Naples. They were married August 12, 1945.

Mrs. Bosse, in her suit, charged it no longer was possible for her to live with her husband and asked the court to grant her $100 a month support.

Mexico to Acquire 14 U. S. Warships

Mexico City, March 12 (A. P.).—The Mexican Navy Department reported late yesterday it would acquire fourteen warships from the United States during the year—eight destroyers, two torpedo boats, two transports, and two cruisers.

Canada Raising Sugar Ration

OTTAWA, March 12 (AP) — Finance Minister Douglas Abbott announced today an increase of 14 per cent in the individual sugar ration effective April 1. He said the standard consumer ration of seven coupons each quarter would be increased to eight coupons. Each coupon is good for one pound.

Isle Trustee Plan Near U.N. Vote

Lake Success, N.Y., March 12 (AP). The United States hoped to win final indorsement by the United Nations Security Council today of its Pacific defense plan based in Japanese-mandated islands now under American military occupation.

The only remaining obstacles to ratification of American trusteeship over the Marshall, Caroline and Marianas chains were minor modifications offered by Russia and Britain.

One Change Opposed

Australia was not completely satisfied that the interests of all the Pacific countries had been taken into account, but was not expected to offer any serious objections.

America, after compromising with Russia on two minor details, stood firm against a third Soviet amendment intended to give the Security Council alone the power to change or terminate the trusteeship agreement.

The United States held that, as sole trustee for the United Nations, it would, in effect, act as an equal party in a treaty relationship with the world organization and could not be compelled to yield unilateral rights to the United Nations.

Subject To U.S. Veto

In any case, since strategic areas are within the province of the Security Council, any effort to amend the American status in the islands could, in a showdown, be vetoed by the United States.

Britain has taken the position that the trusteeship proposal should be amended only to bring its terms in line with United Nations Charter provisions: (1) The United States should be required to give notice when an area is closed for security reasons, and (2) all members of the United Nations should share in commercial rights.

Jap Isle Decision Delayed By U.N.

Lake Success, N.Y., March 12 (AP). The United Nations Security Council delayed a decision on the Japanese-mandated islands in the Pacific today after New Zealand and India came forward with surprise requests to be heard in debate.

The appeals were approved quickly and resumption of discussion was set for next Monday. At that time Canada, the Netherlands and the Philippines, other members of the Far Eastern Commission not sitting on the council, also will be given the opportunity to speak.

Requests for extended hearings came just as it appeared the council was ready to approve an American proposal to take over the Marshall, Caroline and Narianas chains in a "strategic area" trusteeship under sole United States administration.

Terms of the agreement provide authority to close the islands at will for security reasons, ban foreign aircraft and erect fortifications, and in general almost amount to annexation. The United States has made it clear that it will remain on the islands regardless of any delays in the council consideration.

President Truman first announced the United States plan last fall and notified all the Governments concerned, including those now asking to speak. The case has been discussed at several council meetings since then.

"The New Zealand Government considers that the disposition made for these islands is an essential part of any plan for the control of Japan and the peace settlement with that country," Prime Minister Peter Fraser said in a note. "It is, therefore, a matter of interest to those states who took an active part in the war against Japan."

Gromyko Listens to Speech

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister and Soviet representative on the United Nations Security Council, told reporters today that he had heard the broadcast of President Truman's speech, but had no comment.

Eisler Loses Fight Against Deportation

New York, March 12 (AP)—Gerhardt Eisler, who was named by a congressional committee as the No. 1 Communist agent in the United States, lost his Federal Court fight against deportation today.

Judge Francis G. Caffey, dismissing habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Eisler, ruled he was a "native, citizen, denizen or subject of Germany" and could be excluded from the United States without judicial review.

Eisler, a veteran of the Austrian army in World War I, had contended that he was a citizen of Austria, although born in Leipzig, Germany, because he inherited Austrian citizenship from his parents.

Eisler, held by immigration authorities on a presidential warrant since his arrest February 4, probably will be turned over to the Department of Justice to face an indictment returned by a grand jury in Washington charging him with contempt for refusing to testify before the House Committee on Un-American Activities February 6.

NIGHT LEAD AMBASSADORS (3SO)

BY WILLIAM B. KING

LONDON, MARCH 12-(AP)-SOVIET RUSSIA SUDDENLY CALLED HER AMBASSA-DORS HOME FROM WASHINGTON AND LONDON WHILE THE BIG POWERS WERE WRITING
THE FUTURE OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA IN MOSCOW FOR AND JUST A FEW HOURS
BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS ASKED CONGRESS FOR MONEY AND MILITARY ADVISORS TO COMBAT ANY COMMUNIST "SUBJUGATION" OF GREECE AND TURKEY.
SOVIET EMBASSY SOURCES IN PARIS SAID THE SOVIET ENVOY THERE, ALEXANDER BOGOMOLOV, MIGHT ALSO LEAVE FOR MOSCOW "IN A FEW DAYS."
THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF THE DEPARTURE OF AMBASSADOR
NIKOLAI V. NOVIKOV FROM WASHINGTON AND AMBASSADOR GEORGI ZARUBIN FROM LONDON EXCEPT THE GENERAL DIPLOMATIC PHRASE THAT THEY WOULD "CONSULT WITH THEIR GOVERNMENT."
THERE SEEMED LITTLE DOUBT, HOWEVER, THAT THE SOVIET ACTION WAS CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH ONE OR BOTH OF THE DAY'S TWO HISTORY-MAKING EVENTS--THE FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE IN MOSCOW AND THE DECLARATION OF THE NEW UNITED STATES POLICY IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN.
UNOFFICIAL SOVIET SOURCES HERE SAID THE ENVOYS WERE WANTED IN MOSCOW "FOR CONSULTATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE."
IT WAS NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT NEITHER NOVIKOV NOR ZARUBIN IS AN EXPERT ON GERMAN OR AUSTRIAN AFFAIRS. THE ONLY QUESTIONS SO FAR ON THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' AGENDA, CONSEQUENTLY THERE WAS SPECULATION
THAT THEIR TRIP MIGHT HAVE TO DO WITH MEDITERRANEAN AFFAIRS.
AN ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH FROM MOSCOW SAID THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF

THE TRUMAN POLICY PROBABLY WOULD CREATE "CONSTERNATION" IN THE SOVIET CAPITAL. INFORMED DIPLOMATIC QUARTERS WERE QUOTED IN MOSCOW AS SAYING THE TRUMAN MESSAGE PROBABLY WOULD BRING ABOUT A NEW PHASE IN AMERICAN-RUSSIAN RELATIONS, BUT THAT SUCH A DEVELOPMENT PROBABLY WOULD AWAIT THE ARRIVAL OF THE AMBASSADORS.

BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SOURCES, WHO SAID THEY HAD NOT BEEN INFORMED IN ADVANCE OF ZARUBIN'S DEPARTURE, ALSO HAD NO EXPLANATION OF THE ACTION.

HOWEVER, THERE WERE OTHER QUESTIONS ON WHICH SOVIET OFFICIALS MIGHT WANT TO CONFER WITH THEIR REPRESENTATIVES TO THE OTHER POWERS.

A MAJOR QUESTION IS THE PROPOSED FOUR-POWER TREATY TO KEEP GERMANY UNDER 40-YEAR-CONTROL. THIS PACT WAS PROPOSED BY THE UNITED STATES AND IS BACKED BY BRITAIN. MAR 1947

ANOTHER MATTER IS THE NEGOTIATION BETWEEN BRITAIN AND RUSSIA FOR REVISION OF THEIR PRESENT 20-YEAR ALLIANCE.

BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SOURCES SAID IT WAS "NOT UNUSUAL" FOR A DIPLOMAT TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY TO WHICH HE WAS ACCREDITED IN THE ABSENCE OF THE FOREIGN MINISTER. ZARUBIN WAS TRAVELING BY SHIP AND TRAIN, IT WAS NOTED, AND APPARENTLY IN NO SPECIAL HURRY, ALTHOUGH NOVIKOV WAS MAKING THE LONGER JOURNEY FROM WASHINGTON BY PLANE.

WITH FOREIGN MINISTERS (140)

LONDON, THURSDAY, MARCH 13-(AP)-THE ACCOUNT CARRIED TODAY BY TASS, OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, OF YESTERDAY'S FOREIGN MINISTERS' COUNCIL MEETING SAID SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV DESCRIBED AS "ABSURD RUMORS" REPORTS THAT RUSSIA WAS HOLDING 3,000,000 GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR.

TASS SAID MOLOTOV READ THE FIGURE FROM BRITISH AND AMERICAN REPORTS TO THE BERLIN CONTROL COUNCIL. MOLOTOV SAID HE WOULD MAKE THE RUSSIAN FIGURES AVAILABLE AT THE SAME TIME AS THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE. MAR 1947

"AS REGARDS MR.MOLOTOV'S PROPOSAL THAT ALL FOUR GOVERNMENTS SUBMIT INFORMATION ABOUT GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR, NONE OF THE MINISTERS MADE ANY STATEMENTS," TASS SAID. "THIS QUESTION REMAINS UNSETTLED."

LONDON, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE MOSCOW RADIO ANNOUNCED TONIGHT A RESHUFFLING OF OFFICIALS HEADING THREE MINISTRIES ESPECIALLY CONCERNED WITH RUSSIA'S VAST RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM.

BY DECISION OF THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, THE BROADCAST SAID, LAZARM KAGANOVICH HAS BEEN FREED FROM HIS JOBS OF MINISTER OF THE BUILDING MATERIALS INDUSTRY AND DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE U.S.S.R. COUNCIL OF MINISTERS.

THE BROADCAST DID NOT MENTION KAGANOVICH'S PSOTION AS A MEMBER OF THE ALL-POWERFUL COMMUNIST PARTY POLITBURO BUT SAID HE HAD BEEN FREED FROM THE OTHER TWO POSTS "IN CONNECTION WITH HIS GOING OVER TO OTHER WORK."

THE PRESIDIUM NAMED S.Z.GINSBURG TO SUCCEED KAGANOVICH AS MINISTER OF THE BUILDING MATERIALS INDUSTRY.

OTHER CHANGES MADE BY THE PRESIDIUM, THE BROADCAST SAID, FREED M.I.SALTYKOV AS MINISTER OF THE TIMBER INDUSTRY AND APPOINTED G.M. ORLOV, PRESENT MINISTER OF THE CELLULOSE AND PAPER INDUSTRY, TO THAT POST.

LONDON, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE MOSCOW RADIO REPORTED THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE DISCUSSED GERMANY'S DISARMAMENT TODAY WITH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT OF FRANCE AS CHAIRMAN.

"AT THE CONTINUATION OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING TODAY, MR.BEVIN, REFERRING TO DATA QUOTED YESTERDAY BY MR.MOLOTOV ON THE PRESENCE OF GERMAN MILITARY FORMATIONS IN THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONES, ADMITTED THAT THESE FORMATIONS EXISTED," THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID, "BUT HE DISPUTED THEIR MILITARY CHARACTER."

THE REPORT SAID BEVIN, THE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY, DECLARED THE UNITS WERE LABOR CORPS USED FOR WORK SUCH ASSWEEPING MINES. MAR 1947

"AT THE SAME TIME MR.BEVIN ADMITTED THAT A DEFINITE ORGANIZATION WAS REQUIRED FOR THESE FORMATIONS, SO THAT CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THAT ORGANIZATION COULD ENJOY AUTHORITY OVER OTHERS," THE RADIO SAID.

BEVIN SAID THAT THE FORMATIONS WERE UNDER BRITISH SUPERVISION AND, "HE DECLARED THAT THIS QUESTION WAS OF NO IMPORTANCE IN MOSCOW," THE BROADCAST SAID.

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL "ONLY SAID THAT THE AMERICAN DELEGATION AGREED WITH MR. BEVIN'S STATEMENT," THE BROADCAST ADDED.

FRANCE'S GEORGES BIDAULT TOOK THE STAND THAT DEMILITARIZATION "WAS LINKED UP WITH THAT OF WAR POTENTIAL AND THE LEVEL OF GERMAN INDUSTRY," THE BROADCAST SAID, ADDING THAT BIDAULT "PROPOSED THAT THE QUESTION OF GERMANY'S WAR INDUSTRY BE REFERRED TO THE MINISTERS' DEPUTIES."

LS&W304PES

THE ENGLISH-LANGUAGE TRANSMISSION SAID "THE EXPRESSION OF SUCH A VIEW CAME AS A SURPRISE, SINCE MR.BEVIN HIMSELF HAD STATED THAT THESE MILITARY FORMATIONS COMPJISE 81,000 MEN WHO HAD SERVED IN THE ARMED FORCES OF HITLERITE GERMANY.

"REALIZING THE WEAKNESS OF HIS POSITION, MR. BEVIN TRIED TO DISTRICT THE ATTENTION OF THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE MEETING BY SUDDENLY RAISING THE QUESTION OF THE FATE OF GERMAN WAR PRISONERS," THE BROADCAST SAID.

BEVIN "HAD TO AGREE WITH MR. MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT THAT THE AMOUNT OF INDUSTRIAL WAR EQUIPMENT REMOVED FROM THE WESTERN OCCUPATION ZONES WAS NEGLIGIBLE AS COMPARED WITH THAT REMOVED FROM THE SOVIET ZONE," IT SAID.

BEVIN "OBJECTED TO HAVING THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL ISSUE ANY DIRECTIVES ON DEMILITARIZATION TO THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL OF GERMANY UNTIL THERE WAS A COMMON AGREED OPINION ON ALL SECTIONS OF THE REPORT OF THIS COUNCIL," IT SAID.

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL "ONLY SAID THAT THE AMERICAN DELEGATION AGREED WITH MR. BEVIN'S STATEMENT," THE BROADCAST ADDED

TRUMAN REACTION (270)

LONDON, THURSDAY, MARCH 13-(AP)-THE BRITISH PRESS TODAY BANNERED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STATEMENT ON UNITED STATES AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY AND HAILED IT, IN THE WORDS OF LORD BEAVERBROOK'S DAILY EXPRRESS, AS "AN UNPARALLELED EXTENSION OF AMERICA'S RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE WORLD."

THE EXPRESS SAID EDITORIALLY THAT AMERICA'S NEW INITIATIVE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN AND THE MIDDLE EAST MUST "BRING INTO THE OPEN A SOURCE OF DISCORD IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS WHICH HAS FOR LONG EXISTED BENEATH THE SURFACE."

THEREFORE, BRITAIN'S NEW ROLE, THE EXPRRESS SAID, SHOULD BE THAT OF AN "HONEST BROKER" BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION TO MAKE "A SOUND AND LASTING RESETTLEMENT OF THIS TROUBLED WORLD."

THE COMMUNIST DAILY WORKER SAID MR.TRUMAN "IS GIVING WAY TO THE WORST IMPERIALISTS, THE ATOMANIACS AND THE REST OF THE WILD CREW WHO DREAM OF WORLD DOMINATION." THE NEWSPAPER ADDED:

AMERICA'S REAL PURPOSE, SAID THE DAILY WORKER, "IS TO SAVE THE TOTTERING RULERS OF GREECE AND THE DICTATORS OF TURKEY AND TO DRIVE BACK THE ADVANCING FORCES OF DEMOCRACY."

THE LABORITE DAILY HERALD SAID MR.TRUMAN'S "FRIENDLY GESTURE TO TURKEY WILL INEVITABLY BE SEEN IN MOSCOW AS A HOSTILE GESTURE TO RUSSIA." THE PAPER CONTINUED:

IF AMERICANS BELIEVE THE WORLD'S WELL-BEING RESTS ON AMERICAN MIGHT AS A COUNTER-FORCE TO RUSSIA'S, "THE PROSPECT OF AN ARMED CLASH BETWEEN THE TWO GREATEST POWERS ON EARTH BECOMES FRIGHTENINGLY CLEAR."

"AND SUCH A CLASH, IN THE ATOM AGE, WOULD FINALLY DESTROY OUR SICK CIVILIZATION," THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY TELEGRAPH SAID THAT IF THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT "HAD ONLY SPOKEN WITH THE SAME FORTHRIGHTNESS IN 1944 THE DECISION WHICH CONGRESS HAS BEEN CALLED UPON TO MAKE TODAY MIGHT HAVE BEEN AVOIDED."

COMMONS (520)

BY ROBERT HEWETT

LONDON, MARCH 12-(AP)-LABOR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT LAID ASIDE INTRA-PARTY FUNDS TODAY TO FORM A UNITED FRONT AGAINST A VOTE OF "NO CONFIDENCE" IN THE GOVERNMENT SOUGHT BY CONXERVATIVE LEADER WINSTON CHURCHILL.

LABOR'S BIG MAJORITY IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS HAS BEEN SPLIT RECENTLY BY A SHARP CONFLICT OVER PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE'S DECISION TO KEEP MORE THAN 1,000,000 MEN IN THE ARMED FORCES, BUT ONE OF THE CHIEF CRITICS SERVED NOTICE LAST NIGHT THAT THE PARTY RANKS WOULD BE FIRM ON A SHOWDOWN VOTE.

THE DEBATE IS SCHEDULED TO RESUME AT 2:30 P.M. (9:30 A.M. EST), WITH CHURCHILL AND ATTLEE BOTH TAKING THE FLOOR. THE VOTING IS EXPECTED ABOUT 10 P.M. (5 P.M. EST).

THE EXTENT OF THE REVOLT OF SOME 160 LABOR "BACK BENCHERS"--RANK AND FILE MP'S--WHO OPPOSE ATTLEE'S ARMED FORCES POLICY, WAS SHOWN DURING THE DEBATE LAST EVENING WHEN LEONARD CALLAGHAN, FIERY WELSH LABORITE, CHARGED THAT THE MAINTENANCE OF BIG MILITARY FORCES DURING THE GRAVE MANPOWER SHORTAGE WERE "CRIPPLING BRITAIN'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY."

WHEN A CONSERVATIVE MEMBER SHOUTED "WELL, THEN VOTE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT," CALLAGHAN RESPONDED:

"WE SHALL SUSTAIN THE GOVERNMENT WITH OUR VOTES AND CRITICIZE THEM WITH OUR SPEECHES."

NOT EVEN CHURCHILL'S CONSERVATIVES EXPECTED THE "NO CONFIDENCE" VOTE TO PASS IN THE FACE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S MAJORITY OF NEARLY 200 MEMBERS. THEY HAVE USED THE THREE-DAY DEBATE ON THE 1947 ECONOMIC POLICIES TO CHARGE THE GOVERNMENT WITH FAILING TO ANTICIPATE A DRASTIC COAL SHORTAGE CRISIS AND HAVE DEMANDED A HALT TO NATIONALIZATION OF INDUSTRY DURING THE RECOVERY DRIVE.

ALL DURING THE THREE-DAY DEBATE GOVERNMENT LEADERS HAVE SAID THEY INTEND TO PRESS THE NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM.

LABOR MINISTER GEORGE ISAACS YESTERDAY POINTED TO INCREASED COAL PRODUCTION SINCE THE MINES WERE NATIONALIZED ON JAN.1 AND SAID HE HOPED TO ATTRACT 100,000 ADDITIONAL MEN TO THE PITS BY BETTER WORKING CONDITIONS.

DEFENSE MINISTER A. V. ALEXANDER EVOKED A STORM FROM THE CONSERVATIVE BENCHES LAST NIGHT WHEN HE CHARGED THAT "WE WERE LED INTO THE WAR BY THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY."

TURNING TO THE LABOR CRITICS WHO DEMANDED STEEPER REDUCTIONS IN THE ARMED FORCES, ALEXANDER SAID "IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT THE FRUIT OF SEVEN YEARS INTENSIVE WAR EFFORT SHOULD NOT BE THROWN AWAY BY AN ILL-CONSIDERED JETTISONING OF DEFENSE RESPONSIBILITIES."

ONE OF THE DIRECTOR'S FIRST TASKS WILL BE TO LAUNCH A NATION-WIDE PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN. FLYING SQUADS OF SPEAKERS ALREADY ARE TOURING BRITAIN'S FACTORIES EXPLAINING THE NECESSITY OF MEETING GOVERNMENT PRODUCTION TARGETS.

IN HIS BITING ATTACK ON THE GOVERNMENT, CHURCHILL SAID THE LABORITES "DEEMED IT THEIR MISSION TO IMPOSE THEIR PARTICULAR IDEOLOGICAL FORMULAS AND THEORIES UPON ALL THE REST OF THEIR COUNTRYMEN REGARDLESS OF THE PERIL IN WHICH WE ALL STOOD, REGARDLESS OF THE URGENCY OF THE WORK TO BE DONE."

MAR 1947

"THIS," HE SAID,. "WAS A CRIME AGAINST THE BRITISH STATE AND PEOPLE, THE CONSEQUENCES OF WHICH HAVE HAMPERED OUR RECOVERY, DARKENED OUR FUTURE, AND NOW ENDANGERED OUR VERY LIVES."

RANGING AFIELD TO ALL THE GOVERNMENT'S DOMESTIC AND COLONIAL POLICIES, HE SAID THE NATION'S FOOD, FUEL AND HOUSING ALL HAD BEEN GROSSLY MISHANDLED. THE AMERICAN LOAN WAS BEING MISSPENT, HE SAID, THE ARMY PADDED WITH INEFFECTIVES, AND BLUNDERS COMMITTED IN PALESTINE, EGYPT AND INDIA.

"SCUTTLE IS THE ORDER OF THE DAY IN INDIA, EGYPT AND BURMA, BUT THE ONE THING AT ALL COSTS THAT WE MUST PRESERVE IS THE RIGHT TO KEEP OURSELVES WORLD MOCKED AND WORLD HATED OVER PALESTINE AT A COST OF 82,000,000 POUNDS ($328,000,000)," HE SAID IN A MOCKING VOICE.

"IN LESS THAN TWO YEARS OUR COUNTRY HAS FALLEN FROM ITS PROUD AND GLORIOUS POSITION IN THE WORLD TO THE PLIGHT INTO WHICH IT LIES TODAY."

"THERE WAS NO NEED FOR A FOOD SHORTAGE AND THERE WAS NO NEED FOR A BREAKDOWN IN COAL," HE DECLARED, HAD THE GOVERNMENT NOT PLACED PARTY ABOVE NATION AND BUSIED ITSELF "PLANNING UTOPIA."

"LET US PUT UP A FIGHT FOR JOHN BULL'S FOOD, ANYHOW," HE CHALLENGED. "TO RUN HIM DOWN AS LOW AS THIS IS A SCANDAL."

NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN MINISTERS

BY WES GALLAGHER

MOSCOW, MARCH 12-(AP)-A SPIRITED COUNTER-ATTACK BY ERNEST BEVIN EVOKED SURPRISINGLY CONCILIATORY CONCESSIONS TONIGHT FROM V.M. MOLOTOV IN THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS JUST AS NEWS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECLARATION OF SUPPORT TO GREECE AND TURKEY REACHED MOSCOW.

IT WAS NOT BELIEVED THAT THE SOFTENING OF THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER'S POSITION WAS DUE TO MR. TRUMAN'S STATEMENT OF POLICY ON THE TWO MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES, HOWEVER, THE RETURN OF THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADORS FROM WASHINGTON AND LONDON WAS TAKEN AS AN INDICATION THAT THE RUSSIANS KNEW THAT THE PRESIDENT'S MOVE WAS IN THE OFFING.

THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL RUSSIAN EXPLANATION ON THE RETURN OF THE AMBASSADORS. AMERICAN CORRESPONDENTS WHO HAVE LIVED IN RUSSIA FOR SEVERAL YEARS POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT SINCE THE FOREIGN SECRETARIES OF BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES ALREADY WERE IN MOSCOW, IT MIGHT ONLY BE NATURAL FOR THE AMBASSADORS TO THOSE COUNTRIES TO BE SUMMONED HOME.

THE THIRD SESSION OF THE MINISTERS, AT WHICH MOLOTOV AGREED TO DISCLOSE THE NUMBER OF GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR HELD IN RUSSIA AND TO FIX A DATE FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF CERTAIN RUSSIAN-HELD GERMAN SHIPS, REFLECTED NO INCREASE IN TENSION, DESPITE THE NEW UNITED STATES POLICY AND THE RECALL OF THE AMBASSADORS.

THERE SEEMED TO BE NO DOUBT, HOWEVER, THAT THE DEVELOPMENT OF A MUCH TOUGHER UNITED STATES POLICY WOULD INFLUENCE FUTURE SESSIONS THERE WAS EVERY INDICATION HERE THAT U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL INTENDED TO CONDUCT AMERICAN DIPLOMACY ON THE BASIS THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS A REAL POWER.

SOME DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID MR. TRUMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT WAS TIMED TO COINCIDE WITH MARSHALL'S PRESENCE IN MOSCOW, AND THAT THE EFFECT WAS TO LET THE RUSSIANS KNOW THAT IF THEY WANT TO DO BUSINESS UNDER THE NEW POLICY, NOW IS THE TIME TO GET TO WORK--OTHERWISE THE OUTLOOK MAY BE GLOOMY.

(MR. TRUMAN, IN AN ADDRESS TO A JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS, URGED THAT THE UNITED STATES SEND $400,000,000 TO GREECE AND TURKEY, AND ASKED FOR AUTHORITY TO DETAIL CIVILIAN AND MILITARY PERSONNEL TO SUPERVISE DISTRIBUTION OF THE AID FURNISHED. HE DID NOT MENTION RUSSIA BY NAME, BUT HE SAID THAT "COMMUNISTS" WERE LEADING "TERRORIST ACTIVITIES" AGAINST THE GREEK GOVERNMENT. THE PRESIDENT SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD "SUPPORT FREE PEOPLE WHO ARE RESISTING ATTEMPTED SUBJUGATION BY ARMED MINORITIES OR BY OUTSIDE PRESSURE."

(WASHINGTON OBSERVERS SAID RECALL OF THE SOVIET AMBASSADORS TO THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN MIGHT BE INTERPRETED EITHER AS A DESIRE BY PRIME MINISTER STALIN FOR A FIRST HAND REPORT ON THE BRITISH-AMERICAN ATTITUDE TOWARD THE MEDITERRANEAN, OR AS A DESIRE TO HAVE THE TWO ON HAND DURING THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING.

(A DISPATCH FROM PARIS QUOTED THE SOVIET EMBASSY THERE AS SAYING THAT THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE, ALEXANDER BOGOMOLOV, ALSO MIGHT LEAVE FOR MOSCOW "IN A FEW DAYS.")

THE EXCHANGE BETWEEN THE RUSSIAN AND BRITISH MINISTERS CAME ON

30. 24 - 8449

THE QUESTION OF THE DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY, AND DOMINATED TODAY'S MEETING. MARSHALL SUPPORTED BEVIN, AND FRENCH FOREIGN SECRETARY GEORGES BIDAULT, WHO PRESIDED, STAYED OUT OF THE DISCUSSION.

MOLOTOV AGREED TO DISCLOSE TO THE CONFERENCE THE NUMBER OF GERMAN PRISONERS HELD IN RUSSIA, ON CONDITION THAT OTHER POWERS DO LIKEWISE. HE CONCEDED THAT RUSSIA HAD BEEN TARDY IN CARRYING OUT POSTDAM COMMITMENTS TO DESTROY CERTAIN GERMAN NAVAL VESSELS, AND PROMISED TO FIX A DATE SOON FOR THEIR DESTRUCTION.

THE VESSELS TO BE DESTROYED COME UNDER CATEGORY "C", AS SPECIFIED AT POTSDAM. RUSSIA HAS SEVERAL SHIPS IN THIS CATEGORY, INCLUDING THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER GRAF ZEPPELIN AND CAPITAL SHIPS.

A18

MAR 1947

BEVIN, IN AN HOUR AND A HALF LONG STATEMENT, ANSWERED MOLOTOV'S CHARGES OF YESTERDAY CONCERNING BRITAIN'S ALLEGED FAILURE TO DEMILITARIZE HER ZONE OF OCCUPIED GERMANY, AND THEN LAUNCHED THE ATTACK OF HIS OWN.

THE BRITISH SECRETARY ACCUSED RUSSIA OF FAILURE TO REPORT THE NUMBER OF PRISONERS OF WAR WHICH SHE HOLDS; FAILURE TO GIVE INFORMATION ABOUT THE DESTRUCTION OF GERMAN SHIPS; AND FAILURE TO CARRY OUT AGREEMENTS ON THE LEVEL OF GERMAN INDUSTRY.

BEVIN AND MARSHALL BOTH MAINTAINED THAT FACTORIES CLAIMED AS REPARATIONS IN THE WESTERN ZONES COULD NOT BE COMPLETELY DESTROYED AS LONG AS THE RUSSIANS FAILED TO CONSIDER GERMANY AS AN ECONOMIC UNIT AS AGREED UPON AT POTSDAM.

BEVIN DESCRIBED MOLOTOV'S CHARGE THAT THE BRITISH WERE MAINTAINING GERMAN MILITARY UNITS IN THE BRITISH ZONE AS A "BOGY OF WHICH NOBODY NEED BE FRIGHTENED."

THE BRITISH SECRETARY REPEATED HIS ASSERTION OF YESTERDAY THAT 81,350 GERMANS WERE ENGAGED IN REMOVING MINES AND PERFORMING OTHER DANGEROUS TASKS IN THE GERMAN ZONE, FOR WHICH HE WAS UNWILLING TO USE ALLIED SOLDIERS.

BEVIN ADDED THAT THE SO-CALLED ROYAL YUGOSLAV ARMY IN WESTERN ZONES HAD BEEN DISBANDED AND ITS MEMBERS WERE NOW DISPLACED PERSONS.

"BEFORE LEAVING THE HUMAN SIDE OF THIS QUESTION, I MUST AGAIN REFER TO A MATTER WHICH CAUSES ME A GREAT DEAL OF CONCERN," HE SAID. "THIS IS THE QUESTION OF PRISONERS OF WAR HELD OUTSIDE OF GERMANY.

"SO FAR AS THE UNITED KINGDOM IS CONCERNED, I AM PREPARED TO (PLACE ON THE) TABLE COMPLETE FIGURES OF OUR HOLDINGS AND TO DECLARE OUR PLANS FOR THEIR REPATRIATION. WE HAVE NO RELIABLE INFORMATION AS TO THE NUMBERS HELD BY THE SOVIET UNION. IT HAS BEEN REPORTED THAT THEIR NUMBER RUNS INTO MANY MILLIONS. I SHOULD LIKE TO REFER TO REPORTS THAT A NUMBER OF THEM HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO SERVE WITH THE SOVIET ARMED FORCES."

BEVIN SAID HE WANTED TO KNOW WHEN AND AT WHAT RATE THESE PRISONERS WERE BEING REPATRIATED, AND ADDED THAT GERMANY HAD "BEEN DENUDED BY WAR OF HER YOUNG MEN."

A19

"THE SITUATION HAS BEEN FURTHER AGGRAVATED BY THE TRANSFER OF VAST NUMBERS OF GERMANS, OF WHOM AN EXCEEDINGLY HIGH PROPORTION ARE NEITHER YOUNG NOR FIT FOR WORK, FROM THE EASTERN TERRITORY," BEVIN DECLARED. "SOMETHING MUST BE DONE TO REDRESS THIS UNBALANCED POSITION, AND THE RETURN OF PRISONERS OF WAR IS AN OBVIOUS STEP IN THIS DIRECTION."

BEVIN THEN WENT ON TO DEAL WITH RUSSIAN CHARGES THAT THE WESTERN POWERS HAD FAILED TO DISMANTLE FACTORIES IN THEIR ZONES.

BEFORE REPLYING, MOLOTOV ASKED FOR THE VIEWS OF THE UNITED STATES AND FRANCE. MARSHALL SAID THE UNITED STATES WAS "IN SUBSTANTIAL AGREEMENT" WITH BRITAIN ON THIS SUBJECT. BIDAULT REPEATED FRANCE'S POSITION ASOUTLINED YESTERDAY.

MOLOTOV OBSERVED DRILY THAT THE OTHER THREE POWERS APPEARED TO BE IN AGREEMENT. THEN HE SURPRISED THE CONFERENCE BY UNEXPECTEDLY OFFERING TO SUPPLY INFORMATION ON THE PRISONERS OF WAR, IF THE OTHER POWERS WOULD DO THE SAME.

SINCE THE OTHER THREE POWERS ARE PREPARED TO SUPPLY THEIR FIGURES AT ONCE, IT WAS EXPECTED RUSSIA WOULD MAKE KNOWN HER TOTAL SHORTLY.

REFERRING TO BEVIN'S STATEMENT ON THE ECONOMIC UNITY OF GERMANY, MOLOTOV SAID THIS POSITION WAS NOT RELATED TO DEMILITARIZATION.

THE COUNCIL THEN AGREED TO HEAR ALL PHASES OF THE GERMAN QUESTION BEFORE SENDING THE PROPOSALS BACK TO THE DEPUTIES FOR RECONCILIATION.

CONFERENCE SEPARATE (350)

MAR 1947

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE PRINCIPAL SPECTATORS DRAWN TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL ARE SMALL BOYS AND THEY DO NOT SEEM VERY EXCITED AT WHAT THEY SEE.

ONE REASON WHY THE CONFERENCE HAS BEEN A CROWD-DRAWING FLOP--LESS THATN 50 SIGHTSEERS ARE USUALLY ATTRACTED--IS THAT THERE IS NOT MUCH TO SEE.

LIKE OTHER HISTORIC FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETINGS IN PARIS AND NEW YORK THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE IS BARRED TO SPECTATORS. ONE RUSSIAN OBSERVER REPORTED: "I HAVE BEEN HERE TWO DAYS AND ALL I'VE SEEN ARE SOME WELL-DRESSED MEN GETTING OUT OF AUTOMOBILES AND GOING IN A DOOR."

THE MOST EXCITING EVENT FROM THE SPECTATORS' VIEWPOINT TODAY WAS THE SIGHT OF SECRETARY MARSHALL AND U.S. AMBASSADOR WALTER BEDELL SMITH RUSHING UP TO AVIATION HOUSE AT 50 MILES AN HOUR, TIRES SCREAMING.

THEN CAME ANOTHER LONG BUT NOT SO NEW AMERICAN PACKARD AT 20 MILES AN HOUR--SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV, DRESSED IN BACL CARACUL CAP AND BLACK COAT, WHO WALKED STIFFLY INSIDE.

"NASHA," SAID A RUSSIAN AT THIS SIGHT. THIS IS THE RUSSIAN WORD FOR "OURS."

A LONG BLACK RUSSIAN ZIOS DREW UP BEARING FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER BIDAULT, WHO WORE NO HAT AT ALL.

"THOSE FRENCH," SAID A RUSSIAN BYSTANDER. "ALWAYS NEW STYLES."

FINALLY BRITAIN'S HEAVY-SET FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN ARRIVED BEFORE THE FRONT DOOR. IT TOOK HIM 15 SECONDS TO UNROLL FROM THE DEPTHS OF HIS CAR, ANOTHER BLACK RUSSIAN ZIS. HE WORE A BLACK HOMBERG AND BLACK OVERCOAT.

"JUST LIKE AN ENGLISHMEN SHOULD LOOK," COMMENTED A RUSSIAN WOMAN, "ONLY HE SEEMS WELL FED. NOT LIKE THE NEWS I'VE BEEN READING ABOUT FROM BRITAIN."

"HE HAS PROBABLY BEEN FILLING UP SINCE HE GOT TO MOSCOW," HER

FRIEND REJOINED.
PUFFING, BEVIN MOUNTED THE STEPS AND GOT INSIDE JUST AS THE HANDS OF THE CLOCK STOOD AT 4 P.M., TIME FOR THE MINISTERS TO MEET.
"BEVIN IS ALWAYS LAST," SAID ONE OF THE SMALL BOYS. "I HAVE BEEN HERE THREE DAYS. BEVIN IS ALWAYS LAST."
"THE AMERICAN IS ALWAYS FIRST," OFFERED HIS SMALL FRIEND. "HE HAS BEEN FIRST EVERY DAY."
POLICE WERE THICK, NOT ALL OF THEM IN THE HOODED OVERCOATS OF THE NEW BLUE POLICE UNIFORMS. AT THE PARKING LOT WHERE I LEFT MY CAR, I TOOK OUT A CIGAR.
"WHAT HAVE YOU GOT THERE," ASKED A SUSPICIOUS MAN IN BLACK BOOTS AND BLACK OVERCOAT.
"CIGAR," I REPLIED.
"ALL RIGHT," HE SAID, SUSPICION MOUNTING. "WHY DON'T YOU SMOKE IT?"
"BECAUSE," I REPLIED, "LIKE A LOT OF OTHER PEOPLE I DON'T HAVE A MATCH."
"I DON'T HAVE ONE EITHER," HE SAID, WALKING OFF AND APPARENTLY SATISFIED.
FOLKS, THAT IS SECURITY.

CONFERENCE SIDEBAR (500)
BY WES GALLAGHER
MOSCOW, MARCH 12-(AP)-AT THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE IT IS DINNER AT MIDNIGHT AND LUNCH IF ANY IN MID-AFTERNOON.
IF A UNION ORGANIZER CAME ALONG WITH A PLAN FOR A 60-HOUR WEEK HE WOULD FIND PLENTY OF CANDIDATES READY TO JOIN.
THOSE DELEGATION MEMBERS WHO CAME TO MOSCOW EXPECTING TO GO SIGHTSEEING ARE FINDING THAT THE INSIDE OF THEIR HOTEL ROOMS AND THE INSIDE OF THEIR EMBASSIES ARE ABOUT THE ONLY SIGHTS THEY SEE. THE MOST WELCOME SIGHT OF ALL IS A BED.
THE LIMITED SIZE OF THE DELEGATIONS HAS MADE EVERYONE DOUBLE UP IN DUTIES. EVEN SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, WHO IS KNOWN FOR HIS HABIT OF GOING TO BED EARLY, IS STAYING UP WAY PAST HIS REGULAR HOURS. AFTER THREE DAYS OF THE CONFERENCE SOCIAL LIFE HAS BEEN NIL.
THE SCHEDULE OF A DAYS WORK IS LIKE THIS:
IN THE MORNING THE DEPUTIES FOR AUSTRIA AND GERMANY MEET, ACCOMPANIED BY ADVISORS. THIS TAKES VIRTUALLY ALL THE TOP MEN AND MOST OF THE SECRETARIES OF EACH DELEGATION. THESE MEETINGS LAST UNTIL 1 OR 1:30 P.M.
AS SOON AS THESE TWO MEETINGS ARE OVER FLEETS OF HIGH-POWERED CARS RACE FROM AVIATION HOUSE, WHERE THE CONFERENCES ARE HELD, DOWN LENINGRAD HIGHWAY TO GORKI STREET AND THE HOTEL MOSKVA WHERE THE DELEGATIONS ARE HOUSED.
AFTER A QUICK WASH THE VARIOUS DELEGATIONS, INCLUDING STENOGRAPHERS, AMBASSADORS AND GENERALS, DESCEND ON THE HUGE DINING ROOM WHERE THEY TRY TO PERSUADE THE WAITERS, TO WHOM TIME IS SO MUCH LESS IMPORTANT, THAT THEY WANT LUNCH IN A HURRY.
LUNCH ENDS AROUND 3 OR 3:30 P.M. FOR MOST OF THE WORKERS. THEN THE SLEEK CARS BEGIN THE RACE BACK TO AVIATION HOUSE, MILES AWAY, WITH THE CHAUFFEURS DRIVING LIKE FRUSTRATED FIGHTER PLANE PILOTS.
COMMITTEE MEETINGS BEGIN SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE AFTERNOON SESSION OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL AT 4 P.M., BUT THE COMMITTEE MEETINGS CONTINUE LONG AFTER THE BIG FOUR BREAKS UP THREE OR FOUR HOURS LATER.

3125 (Q)
AFTER THE COMMITTEE MEETINGS WIND UP THE DELEGATIONS RACE BACK TO THE EMBASSIES TO PREPARE REPORTS ON THE DAYS BUSINESS, WHILE THE RUSSIANS RETIRE TO THE KREMLIN TO DISCUSS THE HAPPENINGS.
IF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS HAVE A TIFF--AND THEY USUALLY DO--ONE OR THE OTHER OF THEM WANTS NEW MATERIAL PREPARED FOR THE NEXT DAY. THE ADVISORS, AFTER PREPARING THEIR COMMITTEE REPORTS, USUALLY ARE GIVEN THE TASK OF FRAMING THESE PAPERS. THEY ARE LUCKY IF THEY LEAVE THE EMBASSIES AND ARRIVE AT THEIR HOTEL BY MIDNIGHT FOR SUPPER.
THE BIG DINING ROOM REMAINS OPEN FROM 8 A.M., UNTIL 3 A.M., BY MIDNIGHT OR AFTER THE DELEGATES ARE TOO TIRED TO TALK, BUT THEY COULDN'T IF THEY TRIED FOR IN THE MIDDLE OF THE ROOM IS A HIGH BANDSTAND FROM WHICH A LARGE BAND PLAYS LOUD AND OFTEN.
THE SOLE EXCEPTION TO THESE 8 A.M., TO 2 A.M., HOURS IS ENJOYED BY THE SMALL STENGRAPHIC "POOLS." THE GIRLS ARE DIVIDED INTO TWO EIGHT-HOUR SHIFTS. BUT THIS IS ONLY BECAUSE THERE IS NOT ROOM ENOUGH IN THE EMBASSY BALLROOMS FOR ALL OF THEM TO WORK AT ONCE.
EVEN SUCH TOP-RANKING MEMBERS AS U.S. AMBASSADOR ROBERT MURPHY HAVE FIVE OR SIX DESKS WITH WORKERS CROWDED INTO ONE SMALL OFFICE.
ONE OF THE EIGHT CRACK SERGEANTS BROUGHT FROM THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION CONSTABULARY IN GERMANY TO SERVE AS EMBASSY GUARDS AND COURIERS, SUMMED UP HIS OPINION THUS:
"THIS IS MORE LIKE A SWEATSHOP THAN A CONFERENCE."

IT SHOULD BE ADDED THAT DEFINITE ECONOMIC INTERVENTION BY THE UNITED STATES IN CERTAIN KEY AREAS OF THE WORLD WILL NOT COME AS ANY SURPRISE TO THE RUSSIANS. THEY ALREADY ARE ACCUSING THE UNITED STATES OF SUCH ACTION AND HAVE BEEN USING THE PHRASE "DOLLAR DIPLOMACY" FOR A LONG TIME.

(THIS DISPATCH WAS WRITTEN BEFORE THE CONTENTS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS BECAME PUBLIC, BUT AFTER MUCH AUTHORITATIVE SPECULATION THAT THE PRESIDENT WOULD CALL FOR LOANS TOTALLING $400,000,000 TO GREECE AND TURKEY AND INDICATIONS THAT THE NEW AMERICAN POLICY WOULD BE AIMED AT LIMITING RUSSIAN AND COMMUNIST EXPANSION.)

SOVIET AUTHORITIES MAY DO NOTHING ABOUT THE NEW AMERICAN POLICY UNTIL THE ARRIVAL IN MOSCOW OF NIKOLAI V.NOVIKOV, RUSSIA'S AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON, BUT IN THE MEANTIME IT IS HELD HERE THAT THE SESSIONS OF THE FOUR-- POWER CONFERENCE HAVE PALED IN IMPORTANCE BESIDE THE BIG ISSUE RAISED IN WASHINGTON.

(NOVIKOV HAS BEEN RECALLED TO MOSCOW FOR "CONSULTATION," AS HAS GEORGI ZARUBIN, SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN.)

THE INFORMED SOURCE QUOTED ABOVE SAID THE AMERICAN POLICY WAS NOT AIMED AT BREAKING DOWN THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE BUT WAS MEANT TO INDICATE TO THE RUSSIANS THAT THE UNITED STATES IS TAKING A NEW LINE AND THAT SHOULD THE SOVIET UNION WANT TO DO BUSINESS ALONG THIS LINE "THE BOY TO TALK TO IS ATTENDING THE CONFERENCE"---THAT IS MARSHALL.

THIS INFORMANT SAID MARSHALL AND HIS FELLOW DELEGATES KNOW ABOUT WASHINGTON'S NEW LINE, BUT REFUSED TO SAY HOW LONG THEY HAVE KNOWN ABOUT IT. (MARSHALL LEFT WASHINGTON ON MARCH 5, TWO DAYS BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN CANCELLED HIS PLANNED CARIBBEAN VACATION BECAUSE OF THE GREEK CRISIS.) THE NEW POLICY, THE INFORMANT SAID, WAS EXPECTED TO BE ANNOUNCED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

A217

IT WAS NOT KNOWN, OF COURSE, HOW THE NEW POLICY WAS GOING TO BE RECEIVED BY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV IN THE CONFERENCE, BUT SOME OBSERVERS SAID THE ANNOUNCEMENT PROBABLY WOULD HAVE A DEFINITE EFFECT ON THE FOUR POWER MEETING.

THE INFORMED SOURCE AND OTHER OBSERVERS SAID THE POLICY WAS BOUND TO HAVE A "PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECT." THIS CORRESPONDENT'S OBSERVATIONS OF THE RUSSIANS LEADS HIM TO BELIEVE THAT BECAUSE OF THEIR DISLIKE OF CONFUSING TWO DIFFERENT QUESTIONS THEY PROBABLY WOULD KEEP A PERFECTLY STRAIGHT FACE IN GOING THROUGH THE CONFERENCE ROUTINE.

INASMUCH AS THE NEW POLICY MAY BE CONSIDEREFPRIMARILY AN AMERICAN-SOVIET QUESTION, IT IS DIFFICULT TO SEE HOW IT COULD BE INJECTED INTO THE CONFERENCE. (BRITAIN, HOWEVER, IS DEEPLY INVOLVED, SINCE THE SO-CALLED "NEW POLICY" MEANS THE TAKING OVER BY THE UNITED STATES OF EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN COMMITMENTS HITHERTO SHOULDERED BY BRITAIN.)

BUT MANY OBSERVERS WERE CONVINCED THAT THE NEW AMERICAN LINE WOULD HAVE AN EFFECT THAT WOULD BE REFLECTED AROUND THE CONFERENCE TABLE IN CERTAIN ATTITUDES AND ACTIONS, BUT PROBABLY NOTHING MORE DEFINITE.

NEITHER THE SOVIET PRESS NOR RADIO HAS PUBLISHED ANYTHING ON THE UNITED STATES' "NEW POLICY," BUT WHEN THEY DO THE NEWS CAN BE EXPECTED TO CAUSE SOMETHING LIKE CONSTERNATION.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, MARCH 12-(AP)-AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES HERE WERE AGREED TODAY THAT THE FOOD SITUATION IN BOSNIA, HERZEGOVINA AND OTHER SECTIONS OF YUGOSLAVIA HAD BECOME SO CRITICAL THAT, WITHOUT OUTSIDE AID, 5,000,000 PERSONS WITHIN 30 DAYS WOULD FACE THE PROSPECT OF STARVATION.

OFFICIAL SPOKESMEN WERE NOT WILLING TO BE QUOTED BY NAME, BUT SO OF THEM SAID THEY HAD CONCLUDED THAT, AFTER TWO DROUGHTS WHICH CUT FOOD STOCKS TO A MINIMUM, THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT HAD HANDLED THE SITUATION BADLY ON SEVERAL COUNTS.

THESE SOURCES ATTRIBUTED SUCH ERRORS TO INADEQUATE COMMUNICATIONS, LACK OF EXPERIENCED TECHNICAL PERSONNEL, CONFUSION TO THE POINT OF CONTRADICTION IN STATISTICS, AND MISDIRECTION IN THE USE OF INTERNAL PROPAGANDA ALONG POLITICAL LINES.

IT WAS LEARNED HERE THAT THE U.S. EMBASSY HAD SENT RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE UNITED STATES, FOLLOWING THE DISCLOSURE THAT THE YUGOSLAV FOREIGN MINISTRY HAD ASKED FOR AMERICAN AID, BUT U.S. EMBASSY COUNSELLOR JOHN M. CABOT SAID HE COULD NOT REVEAL WHAT THE RECOMMENDATIONS WERE.

IT WAS LEARNED, THROUGH UNRRA FIGURES AND FROM UNRRA MISSION CHIEF MIHAIL SERGEICHIC, THAT EVEN WHEN THREATENED WITH SHORTAGES, THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT HAD MAINTAINED THE HIGHEST BREAD RATION IN EUROPE DURING THE SUMMER AND FALL OF 1946; THAT CONSIDERABLE UNRRA GOODS WERE DISTRIBUTED TO RICH SERBIAN AREAS WHICH, AFTER A YEAR OF RECONSTRUCTION, HAD MADE THEMSELVES VIRTUALLY SELF-SUFFICIENT.

THE CONTROLLED YUGOSLAV PRESS HAS PUBLISHED MANY ARTICLES SAYING THAT FOOD STOCKS WERE SUFFICIENT. BUT THESE ARTICLES WERE WRITTEN AS PROPAGANDA, AIMED AT CONVINCING THE PEOPLE THAT THE SYSTEM OF CONTROL AND DISTRIBUTION WAS SUCCESSFUL. WHEN THE CRISIS CAME, THE GOVERNMENT REPUDIATED THE ARTICLES.

AMSTERDAM, MARCH 10-(AP)-THE SELLING OF AMERICAN STOCKS ON THE AMSTERDAM STOCK EXCHANGE WAS AUTHORIZED TODAY FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 1941, BUT NOT A SINGLE TRANSACTION WAS CONCLUDED BECAUSE FORMAL PREPARATIONS HAD NOT BEEN FINISHED.

THE FIRST SALES ARE NOT EXPECTED BEFORE WEDNESDAY.

ALL DEALINGS WILL BE ONE-WAY TRANSACTIONS, AS ONLY SELLING AND NO BUYING WILL BE ALLOWED SO FAR AS INDIVIDUALS ARE CONCERNED.

HOLDERS OF THE APPROXIMATELY 180 AMERICAN SECURITIES THAT WILL BE ADMITTED TO TRADING, WILL BE ALLOWED TO SELL ONLY TO AUTHORIZED ARBITRAGE HOUSES WHICH ARE MEMBERS OF THE AMSTERDAM STOCK EXCHANGE. THESE HOUSES IN TURN MUST DISPOSE OF THE STOCKS WITHIN A LIMITED PERIOD OF WEEKS IN NEW YORK.

INDIVIDUAL SHAREHOLDERS WHO SELL THEIR AMERICAN STOCKS WILL BE PAID IN GUILDERS BY THE NETHERLANDS BANK AT THE RATE OF 2.63 GUILDERS TO THE DOLLAR.

DEALERS SAID TODAY THEY DID NOT EXPECT MUCH SELLING FOR THE MOMENT, EVEN CONSIDERING PREVIOUS GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENTS THAT SELLING MIGHT BE ENFORCED IN ORDER TO GIVE THE GOVERNMENT BADLY NEEDED DOLLARS.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY, MARCH 12-(AP)-QUALIFIED INFORMANTS HERE SAY THAT TURKEY MUST HAVE AMERICAN FINANCIAL AID IF SHE IS TO KEEP HER ARMY OF NEARLY 1,000,000 MEN FULLY MOBILIZED AS A BARRIER AGAINST POSSIBLE RUSSIAN ENCROACHMENTS.

TURKEY HAS BEEN ON A FULL MOBILIZATION STATUS FOR SEVEN YEARS AND MORE THAN 60 PERCENT OF HER TOTAL NATIONAL INCOME GOES TOWARD MAINTENANCE OF THE ARMY--MOST OF WHICH STANDS GUARD ALONG THE TURKISH-RUSSIAN BORDER EAST OF THE BLACK SEA AND ON THE TURKISH-BULGARIAN FRONTIER.

THE TURKS SAY THE COST OF KEEPING SO MANY MEN UNDER ARMS IS SO HEAVY AND SUCH A DRAIN UPON THE NATION'S FISCAL RESOURCES THAT HER WHOLE ECONOMIC STRUCTURE IS IN JEOPARDY. EVEN SO, THE TURKISH ARMY ADMITTEDLY IS NOT WELL EQUIPPED.

"A WEAK TURKEY COULD ONLY INVITE TROUBLE," ONE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN COMMENTED TO NEWSMEN LAST NIGHT. "IT WOULD BE MORE FARSIGHTED AND MUCH LESS COSTLY IN THE LONG RUN TO HELP HER TODAY THAN HAVE TO TRY TO RESCUE HER ON SOME LATER DAY."

OTHER TURKS SAY THAT THE DRAIN ON THEIR FINANCES BY THE ARMY HAS CAUSED THEM TO ABANDON ALL PLANS FOR DEVELOPMENT OF INDUSTRIES WHICH THE NATION MUST HAVE IF SHE IS TO DEVELOP A "DECENT ECONOMIC ORDER." THE BUILDING OF HIGHWAYS, RAILROADS, HOSPITALS AND SCHOOLS ALSO HAS BEEN NEGLECTED AND INSUFFICIENT REVENUE HAS BARRED A NEEDED HEALTH PLAN.

THE TURKS MAINTAIN THAT THEY ARE THE ONLY NEIGHBOR RUSSIA HAS THAT HAS CONSISTENTLY AND EMPHATICALLY RESISTED ALL SOVIET PRESSURE WHICH THEY FELT TENDED TOWARD EXPANSION. THEY HAVE STEADFASTLY REFUSED TO ALLOW RUSSIA A SHARE IN DEFENSE OF THE VITAL DARDANELLES.

MEANWHILE, THE TURKISH NEWSPAPER VATAN, QUOTING DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID BULGARIA AND YUGOSLAVIA NOW WERE IN THE FIRST STEP OF ORGANIZING A SOUTHERN SLAV BROTHERHOOD INTO WHICH ALBANIA WOULD BE BROUGHT LATER. THIS WOULD INVOLVE A CUSTOMS UNION AND A UNIFIED MONETARY SYSTEM, THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

GAZA, PALESTINE, MARCH 12-(AP)-A SMALL BOAT TODAY IS NOSED HARD IN THE SAND ON A DESOLATE BEACH NEAR THIS ARAB VILLAGE.

IN HER ROTTEN BOTTON. IN A MILITARY CAMP ENCLOSURE AND HIDING AMONG DUNES AND ORANGE GROVES ARE ALMOST 1,000 JEWISH REFUGEES WHO, BRITISH ARMY OFFICIALS SAID, ALMOST SUCCEEDED IN THE "FIRST WELL ORGANIZED SCHEME" TO RUN THE JEWISH IMMIGRATION BLOCKADE.

THE VESSEL--WHICH A BRITISH NAVAL OFFICER SAID "PLAYED HIDE AND SEEK WITH A DESTROYER FOR TWO DAYS"--RAN STRAIGHT FOR THE BEACH IN A RAINSTORM BEFORE DAWN. TWO AND A HALF MILES FROM THE BEACH SIX BUSES AND TWO TRUCKS WAITED IN DARKNESS.

THE VEHICLES, SAID A SUSSEX CAPTAIN WHO HAD THEM IN CUSTODY, WERE MANNED BY YOUNG JEWISH SETTLEMENT WORKERS WHO "CAME TO WELCOME REFUGEES."

ONE OF THE WORKERS WAS INSIDE THE CAMP WITH THE ROUNDED UP REFUGEES. "I WAS IN THE AMERICAN NAVY DURING THE WAR," HE TOLD NEWSMEN. "I CAME HERE TO HELP OUR CAUSE."

A MILE AND A HALF AWAY ACROSS SAND DUNES WHITE CAPS WERE TOSSING ABOUT THE BEACHED SHIP AND HER DECKS WERE LINED WITH REFUGEES. EIGHT BOYS IN SHORTS SLIPPED DOWN A ROPE INTO THE SEA AND SWAM TO THE BEACH WHERE TOMMYGUNNERS HERDED THEM TOWARD THE CAMP.

ONLY A FEW MINUTES EARLIER IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT ALL THE REFUGEES ALREADY HAD LANDED.

ON A RAISED BOW A YOUNG GIRL TESTED THE TRAILING ROPE, FASTENED ON A LIFE BELT AND EMBRACED ANOTHER GIRL. SHE LOOKED AT THE SEA THEN UNFASTENED THE BELT AND FADED BACK INTO THE CROWD.

A BRITISH POLICEMAN, DRIPPING SEAWATER, HIS TEETH CHATTERING FROM THE COLD WIND, SAID: "THERE ARE STILL HUNDREDS OF THEM ON THERE. THEY'RE PACKED IN THREE TIERS DEEP. MOST OF THEM ARE SICK WOMEN."

TWO DAMAGED WHALEBOATS AND HUNDREDS OF UNITED STATES NAVY LIFE PRESERVERS WERE PILED ON THE BEACH. THREE HUNDRED YARDS AWAY A BRITISH DESTROYER RODE AT ANCHOR.

A69

NO RESCUE WORK WAS IN PROGRESS THIS AFTERNOON.

SEARCHING SOLDIERS AND POLICE, IN ARMORED CARS AND AFOOT, WERE SCATTERED FOR MILES THROUGH ORANGE GROVES, WHEAT FIELDS AND THE DESERT. AN ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THAT PROBABLY 200 REFUGEES "STILL WERE AT LARGE." MORE THAN 500 OFFICIALLY WERE ESTIMATED TO BE HELD IN THE ARMY CAMP AND 200 ABOARD THE SHIP.

THE JEWISH "WELCOME SCHEME" FAILED "ACCIDENTALLY," AN ARMY OFFICER SAID.

"THIS CAMP IS ONLY HALF COMPLETED" THE OFFICER SAID. "NEARBY CAMPS WERE OVERCROWDED WITH MANY MEN LIVING IN TENTS. WE MOVED A FEW UNITS HERE ONLY THREE DAYS AGO."

THE OFFICER SAID MOST OF THE REFUGEES WHO SWAM ASHORE HEADED STRAIGHT FOR THE WAITING BUSES AND "WALKED RIGHT INTO OUR TROOPS."

AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE EMPOUNDED REFUGEES WOULD BE MOVED TO HAIFA TONIGHT FOR TRANSSHIPMENT TO CYPRUS.

SHANGHAI, THURSDAY, MARCH 13-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CALL TO AMERICA TO HALT THE WORLD MARCH OF COMMUNISM WAS EXPECTED BY CHINESE OBSERVERS TODAY TO BOOST MORALE IN GOVERNMENT AREAS OF CHINA.

THEY BELIEVED, HOWEVER, THAT THE UNITED STATES STILL WOULD HESITATE TO HELP CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT, NOW AT CIVIL WAR WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, UNLESS THE GOVERNMENT IS DEMOCRATIZED.

OBSERVERS PREDICTED THAT THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH TO THE CONGRESS WAS LIKELY TO STIMULATE AN IDEA NOW SLOWLY CRYSTALIZING OF FORMING AN ANTI-COMMUNIST COALITION IN CHINA UNDER CHIANG'S LEADERSHIP.

SOME BELIEVED IT MEANT THAT THE U.S. MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP IN CHINA WOULD NOT BE DISSOLVED WHEN THE MARINES WITHDRAW, AS PREVIOUSLY PREDICTED.

MANILA, MARCH 12-(AP)-PRESIDENT MANUEL ROXAS CALLED ON FILIPINOS TODAY TO UNITE FOR A "DYNAMIC FUTURE" OF THE NEW PHILIPPINE REPUBLIC, IN WHICH EQUAL ECONOMIC RIGHTS FOR AMERICANS IS NOW A PART OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

LATE RETURNS FROM THE OUTLYING PROVINCES IN YESTERDAY'S NATIONAL PLEBISCITE ON PARITY FOR AMERICAN CAPITAL SHOWED THAT THE PROPOSITION HAD CARRIED BY MARGINS RANGING FROM FOUR TO ONE UP TO NINE TO BNE OVER THE REPUBLIC. IN THE PRESIDENT'S HOME TOWN OF CAPIZ THE MARGIN WAS 30 TO ONE.

IN MANILA, THE LATEST COUNT WAS 46,000 IN FAVOR OF PARITY AND 17,000 OPPOSED.

BRIG.GEN.CARLOS ROMULA, FILIPINO SOLDIER-STATESMAN, ISSUED A STATEMENT SAYING THE VOTE HAD AFFIRMED THREE BASIC FACTS: (1) THE FAITH OF THE FILIPINO PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES, (2) THE LEADERSHIP OF PRESIDENT ROXAS, AND (3) THE ABILITY OF THE FILIPINO PEOPLE TO SETTLE VITAL QUESTIONS BY FREE DISCUSSION AND BALLOTING.

THE MANILA STOCK EXCHANGE JUMPED SHARPLY FROM ONE-HALF TO 10 POINTS.

ROXAS WARNED THE NATION THAT "THE ROAD AHEAD TO REHABILITATION AND SOCIAL JUSTICE AND PROSPERITY FOR OUR PEOPLE IS HARD AND LONG, BUT WE HAVE BROKEN THE ROADBLOCK."

"EVERY EFFORT IS MADE TO CREATE TROUBLE WITHIN THE HOME. ANONYMOUS LETTERS AND PHONE CALLS REACH THEIR WIVES, HINTING THAT ABSENCES FROM HOME ARE NOT REALLY ON MATTERS OF UNION BUSINESS.

"COMMUNIST WOMEN ARE PREPARED TO SEDUCE ANY OPPONENT WHO IS WEAK ENOUGH TO FALL FOR THEIR WILES.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A STATEMENT BY SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S APPEAL TO CONGRESS FOR $400,000,000 TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY: (ABOUT 350)

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FACES FACTS AND SO MUST CONGRESS. THE INDEPENDENCE OF GREECE AND TURKEY MUST BE PRESERVED, NOT ONLY FOR THEIR OWN SAKES BUT ALSO IN DEFENSE OF PEACE AND SECURITY FOR ALL OF US. IN SUCH A CRITICAL MOMENT THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS MUST BE UPHELD. ANY OTHER COURSE COULD BE DANGEROUSLY MISUNDERSTOOD. BUT CONGRESS MUST CAREFULLY DETERMINE THE METHODS AND EXPLORE THE DETAILS IN SO MOMENTOUS A DEPARTURE FROM OUR PREVIOUS POLICIES.

THE IMMEDIATE PROBLEM MAY BE TREATED BY ITSELF. BUT IT IS VITALLY IMPORTANT ALSO TO FRANKLY WEIGH IT FOR THE FUTURE. WE ARE AT ODDS WITH COMMUNISM ON MANY FRONTS. WE SHOULD EVOLVE A TOTAL POLICY. IT MUST CLEARLY AVOID IMPERIALISM. IT MUST PREMARILY CONSULT AMERICAN WELFARE. IT MUST KEEP FAITH WITH THE PLEDGES TO THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS WHICH WE ALL HAVE TAKEN.

WE SHOULD PROCEED AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS. BUT THAT IS NOT PRACTICAL AT THE IMMEDIATE MOMENT BECAUSE UN HAS NO RELIEF FUNDS; AND IT HAS NOT YET CONCLUDED AGEEMENTS WITH MEMBER NATIONS FOR MILITARY SUPPORT. WE SHOULD IMMEDIATELY INSIST IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT THESE LATER PLANS BE CONSUMMATED. WE SHOULD ALSO SEEK IMMEDIATE REPORT FROM THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION INVESTIGATING ALLEGED EXTERNAL INVASIONS OF GREEK SOVEREIGNTY.

THE PLAIN TRUTH IS THAT SOVIET-AMERICAN RELATIONSHIPS ARE AT THE CORE OF THIS WHOLE PROBLEM. EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE TO TERMINATE THESE CONTROVERSIES. THIS EFFORT MUST OCCUR IN PLAIN UNDERSTANDING OF BASIC PRINCIPLES WHICH WE SHALL NOT SURRENDER.

I REPEAT MY OWN BELIEF THAT IT OUGHT TO BE POSSIBLE FOR MOSCOW AND WASHINGTON TO "LIVE AND LET LIVE" SINCE NEITHER WANTS ANYTHING LIKE WAR. YET WE FIND OURSELVES IN CONSTANT DISAGREEMENT RESPECTING OUR MUTUALLY PLEDGED OBJECTIVES. THERE SHOULD BE FRANK CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN US--WITH ALL THE CARDS FACE UP ON THE TABLE--IN FINAL SEARCH FOR MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING. NOW, IF EVER, WE MUST SAY WHAT WE MEAN AND MEAN WHAT WE SAY. OUR PERSISTENT OFFER OF AN ANTI-NAZI ALLIANCE CLEARLY PROVES OUR OWN GOOD FAITH.

B13WX

WE CANNOT FAIL TO BACK UP THE PRESIDENT AT SUCH AN HOUR--EVEN THOUGH MANY CRITICAL DETAILS REMAIN TO BE SETTLED IN CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS.

MEANWHILE, WE MUST REVIEW OUR OWN FOREIGN POLICY IN OTHER DIRECTIONS AND MAKE IT CONSISTENTLY EFFECTIVE. WE MUST PROCEED WITH CALM BUT DETERMINED PATIENCE TO DEAL WITH PRACTICAL REALITIES AS THEY UNFOLD. WE MUST EITHER TAKE OR SURRENDER LEADERSHIP.

GREECE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES ALREADY HAS GRANTED GREECE, DIRECTLY AND INDIRECTLY, MORE THAN PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED FROM CONGRESS TODAY.

SINCE V-E DAY DIRECT AMERICAN AID TOTALS $125,000,000, INCLUDING CREDITS OF $25,000,000 FROM THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK, $45,000,000 FOR PURCHASE OF SHIPS THROUGH THE MARITIME COMMISSION AND $55,000,000 TO ACQUIRE SURPLUS PROPERTY.

THE UNITED STATES HAS PAID 72 PER CENT OF OUTLAYS OF THE UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND REHABILITATION ADMINISTRATION WHICH ALLOTTED SUPPLIES COSTING $354,000,000 TO GREECE.

THIS GOVERNMENT IS REPRESENTED OFFICIALLY IN GREECE BY AMBASSADOR LINCOLN MACVEAGH AND HIS EMBASSY STAFF. AN ECONOMIC SURVEY MISSION OF ABOUT A DOZEN MEMBERS HEADED BY FORMER OPA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL A. PORTER HAS BEEN ON THE SCENE SINCE JANUARY AND IS EXPECTED BACK IN MID-APRIL.

POSTWAR AMERICAN AID TO TURKEY HAS BEEN FAR LESS. AN EXPORT-IMPORT BANK CREDIT OF $5,000,000 WAS EXTENDED TO FINANCE THE PURCHASE OF LOCOMOTIVES IN THIS COUNTRY.

IN NEITHER COUNTRY IS THERE AN AMERICAN MILITARY OR NAVAL MISSION. PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED CONGRESS LAST YEAR FOR AUTHORITY TO SEND SUCH MISSIONS TO ANY FOREIGN COUNTRY REQUESTING THEM AND THE REQUEST IS EXPECTED TO BE SUBMITTED AGAIN AT THIS SESSION.

RUSSIA (180)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-SENATOR BROOKS (R-ILL) TOLD THE SENATE TONIGHT THAT THE UNITED STATES NOW MUST "FIGHT RUSSIA" AFTER POURING OUT BILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF LEND-LEASE AID FOR THE SOVIET DURING THE LAST WAR.

BROOKS SAID THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD ASKED $400,000,000 "TO STOP RUSSIA IN GREECE AND TURKEY" AND SUGGESTED REPUBLICANS MIGHT HAVE BEEN WISE TO PREVENT LEND-LEASE AID TO THE SOVIET DURING THE RECENT WAR.

MAR. 1947

BROOKS MADE HIS REMARKS IN A SHARP EXCHANGE WITH SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA) AS PEPPER WAS LAUDING THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND OPPOSING A LIMIT UPON PRESIDENTIAL TENURE.

PEPPER WAS CHIDING REPUBLICANS FOR VOTES AGAINST LEND-LEASE, EXTENSION OF SELECTIVE SERVICE, REVISION OF THE NEUTRALITY ACT AND OTHER PRE-WAR MEASURES IN 1940 AND 1941 ASKED BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

BROOKS, ASKING PEPPER TO YIELD THE FLOOR SAID HE VOTED AGAINST BOTH LEND-LEASE AND AID TO RUSSIA AND THAT RECENT DEVELOPMENTS INDICATE HE WAS RIGHT.

AFTER POURING OUT $340,000,000,000 OF LEND-LEASE AID, BROOKS SAID, "NOW WE'VE GOT TO FIGHT RUSSIA."

BROOKS SAID IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN WISE TO LET GERMANY OVERRUN AND "EAT UP RUSSIA" RATHER THAN AID THE SOVIETS AND FACE THE MENACE OF WORLD COMMUNISM NOW.

HARRIS J.BOORAS, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL "JUSTICE FOR GREECE" COMMITTEE, WHICH HE SAID INCLUDES 15 NATIONWIDE ORGANIZATIONS, WIRED THE PRESIDENT "OUR GRATITUDE AND ADMIRATION" AND SAID IN AN INTERVIEW:

THE YUGOSLAV PLEAS HAVE BEEN REGARDED WITH RESERVE THUS FAR SINCE MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT HAS STATED PUBLICLY THAT FOOD SUPPLIES WERE ADEQUATE AND LAST FALL YUGOSLAVIA WAS ABLE TO EXPORT GRAIN TO NEIGHBORING RUMANIA AND ALBANIA PRIOR TO ELECTIONS IN THOSE COUNTRIES.

"WE THINK THAT A NEW AMBASSADOR TO POLAND WOULD BE ABLE TO GATHER MORE FACTS," HE COMMENTED.

HE ADDED THAT STEWART DID NOT OPEN THE PACKAGE WHILE HE WAS THERE.

THE TALL, RED-FACED FORMER DIPLOMAT, ADDED THAT PRIOR TO MEETING STEWART HE HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED BY DR. HANS THOMSEN, FORMER CHARGE D'AFFAIRES AT THE GERMAN EMBASSY TO ARRANGE PUBLICATION OF MAGAZINE TO COUNTERACT SOVIET RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA IN THE UNITED STATES AND PREVENT UNITED STATES ENTRY INTO THE EUROPEAN WAR.

THE MONEY HE TOOK TO NEW YORK, VON STREMPEL SAID, WAS "TO FINANCE A DUMMY OF THE MAGAZINE"--A SAMPLE COPY. HE ADDED THAT HE GOT THE MONEY FROM THE CASHIER OF THE GERMAN EMBASSY.

U.N.-TRUMAN

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 12-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S APPEAL TO CONGRESS TODAY FOR AMERICAN AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY WAS CONSIDERED "TOO HOT" FOR COMMENT BY TOP UNITED NATIONS AUTHORITIES AND WAS MET HERE BY WHAT ONE INFORMED QUARTER DESCRIBED AS "APPREHENSIVE" SILENCE.

MANY LISTENED TO THE BROADCAST FROM WASHINGTON AND OTHERS SENT URGENTLY FOR TEXTS AND ABSTRACTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH. SECRETARY GENERAL TRYGVE LIE, WHO LISTENED TO THE BROADCAST, HAD NO COMMENT.

THE ATTENTION OF U.N.SECRETARIAT LEADERS WAS CENTERED PARTICULARLY ON ONE PARAGRAPH IN WHICH MR.TRUMAN SAID:

"WE HAVE CONSIDERED HOW THE UNITED NATIONS MIGHT ASSIST IN THIS CRISIS, BUT THE SITUATION IS AN URGENT ONE REQUIRING IMMEDIATE ACTION AND THE UNITED NATIONS AND ITS RELATED ORGANIZATIONS ARE NOT IN A POSITION TO EXTEND HELP OF THE KING THAT IS REQUIRED."

IMMEDIATE REACTION WAS LACKING IN HIGH SECRETARIAT CIRCLES BUT ONE INFORMED SOURCE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SUCH AID AS PROPOSED BY MR.TRUMAN WAS BEYOND THE SCOPE OF THE UNITED NATIONS AT PRESENT.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDRE A.GROMYKO TOLD REPORTERS HE HAD HEARD THE BROADCAST OF THE SPEECH BUT HAD NO COMMENT.

AN AMERICAN DELEGATION SPOKESMAN SAID THE PRESIDENT'S PLANS WOULD NOT CONFLICT IN ANY WAY WITH THE EFFORTS OF THE U.N.SECURITY COUNCIL'S BALKAN INQUIRY COMMISSION NOW STUDYING FRONTIER CONDITIONS IN GREECE, ALBANIA, BULGARIA AND YUGOSLAVIA.

THIS SPOKESMAN POINTED OUT THAT THE COMMISSION INQUIRY HAD BEEN PROPOSED ORIGINALLY BY THE UNITED STATES, HAD BEEN VETOED BY RUSSIA LAST FALL AND HAD BEEN REVIVED AND APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY IN THE COUNCIL LAST DEC.19.

HE SAID THE INQUIRY, WHICH BEGAN IN GREECE EARLY LAST MONTH, WOULD TEND TO SUPPORT THE AMERICAN PROGRAM FOR GREECE.

THE PRESENCE OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S COMMISSIONS WOULD HAVE A "STABILIZING INFLUENCE" IN THE BORDER REGIONS AND WOULD TEND TO THWART PROPAGANDA AGAINST MEMBERS OF AMERICAN MISSIONS WHO WOULD BE SENT TO GREECE UNDER THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN, THE AMERICAN SPOKESMAN SAID.

ONE SOURCE POINTED OUT THAT THE UNITED NATIONS, WITH A 1947 OPERATING BUDGET OFS$26,000,000, WAS OBVIOUSLY INCAPABLE OF OFFERING FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO ANY NATION AND THAT IT HAD NO MILITARY FORCE TO UNDERTAKE POLICE DUTIES EVEN IN THE HIGHLY IMPROBABLE EVENT THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL COULD DETERMINE ON ANY COURSE FOR FORECUL ACTION TO KEEP PEACE.

TWO MAIN FACTORS STOOD OUT AS BARRIERS TO ANY U.N.EFFORTS TO TAKE POSITIVE ACTION IN THE BALKANS AT THIS TIME:

1--THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S MILITARY STAFF COMMITTEE HAS YET TO COME UP WITH EVEN A NEBULOUS PLAN FOR THE POLICE FORCE WHICH EVENTUALLY WOULD BE READY FOR QUICK AND DECISIVE ACTION.

2--THE WESTERN POWERS AND RUSSIA COULD BE EXPECTED TO DISAGREE ON ANY EFFORT TO HALT THE AMBITIONS OF THE SOVIET-SUPPORTED BALKAN STATES IN THE BORDERLANDS OR WITHIN THE WOBBLING GREEK GOVERNMENT.

COMMUNISTS

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAID TONIGHT THAT "WE MAY BE IN FOR" AN ERA OF COMMUNIST-LED STRIKES SPRINGING FROM DIFFERENCES WITH RUSSIA ON FOREIGN POLICY.

THE CHAMBER TOOK THIS VIEW IN A REPORT ENTITLED "COMMUNISTS WITHIN THE LABOR MOVEMENT." IT URGED BOTH EMPLOYERS AND WORKERS TO WORK TOWARD OUSTING COMMUNISTS FROM UNION LEADERSHIP.

"CLEANSING OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT OF COMMUNISM," THE REPORT SAID, "WILL LEAD TO SOUNDER, MORE PEACEFUL AND MORE REASONABLE LABOR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS.

"FURTHERMORE, IT WILL HURT THE COMMUNISTS BADLY IN THEIR FIFTH COLUMN WORK FOR THE SOVIET UNION."

THE CHAMBER'S REPORT WAS PREPARED AND RELEASED BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH OF TODAY WAS MADE PUBLIC.

THE REPORT SAID AMERICAN COMMUNISTS GET THEIR DIRECTIONS FROM MOSCOW AND PENETRATE LABOR ORGANIZATIONS IN WAGING "A WAR TO THE FINISH WITH THE (AMERICAN) BUSINESS COMMUNITY AND OUR WAY OF LIFE."

IT SAID THAT "POSSIBLE FUTURE EVENTS" MAY MAKE 1946 "SHORTAGES, INCONVENIENCES AND SUFFERINGS X X APPEAR TRIVIAL" BECAUSE:

"IF THE FOREIGN POLICIES OF THE UNITED STATES CONTINUE TO DIVERGE FROM THOSE OF THE SOVIET UNION, WE MAY BE IN FOR AN ERA OF THINLY DISGUISED POLITICAL STRIKES. MAR 1947

"STRIKES OF THIS NATURE ARE BASICALLY SABOTAGE. THEY WILL NOT BE SETTLED IN ANY EASY FASHION."

NOTING THAT MANY UNIONS NOW ARE FIGHTING DOWN COMMUNIST ELEMENTS WITHIN THEIR RANKS, THE REPORT SAID THAT EMPLOYERS SHOULD HELP THE ANTI COMMUNIST BLOCS ALL THEY CAN WITHOUT "RUNNING AFOUL OF THE WAGNER ACT." IT SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE ANTI-RED JOB WAS "MAINLY A TASK FOR THE WORKERS THEMSELVES."

THE WAGNER ACT FROWNS ON INTERFERENCE IN A UNION'S AFFAIRS.

"IN THIS STRUGGLE, THE EMPLOYER CAN HELP SUBSTANTIALLY, EVEN THOUGH INDIRECTLY," THE CHAMBER MAINTAINED. "IF HE IS ALERT TO COMMUNIST TACTICS, VIGILANT IN AVOIDING THEIR TRAPS, AND CAREFUL NOT TO GIVE THEM HELP, HE WILL ENCOURAGE THE DECENT ELEMENT IN THE UNION TO REMOVE SUBVERSIVE LEADERS."

THE REPORT SAID EMPLOYERS OFTEN MAKE A MISTAKE OF BRANDING "HARD-BARGAINING" UNION LEADERS AS COMMUNISTS WHEREAS "DECENT OFFICIALS ARE NOT OF NECESSITY DOCILE OR PLIANT TO EVERY COMPANY WISH."

"OFTEN THE EMPLOYER HIMSELF IS AT FAULT THROUGH THE FAILURE TO GRANT OPPORTUNE AND FACE-SAVING CONCESSIONS TO OPPONENTS OF THE COMMUNIST FACTION," THE REPORT SAID.

"THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD DOES NOT ALLOW DIRECT INTERVENTION IN UNION AFFAIRS. BUT IF THE EMPLOYER IS NOT FREE TO PICK THE (UNION) OFFICERS HE LIKES, THE LEAST HE CAN DO IS ABSTAIN FROM ACTIONS WHICH HURT THEM. HE DOES NOT NEED TO EMBARRASS AND PUNISH THE DECENT ELEMENT JUST TO PROVE THAT HE IS IMPARTIAL."

THE CHAMBER SUGGESTED A PRIVATE DINNER TOGETHER BETWEEN EMPLOYER AND UNION LEADER "CAN BE PRODUCTIVE OF REAL CANDOR." IT SAID READING OF THE "DAILY WORKER" AND OTHER COMMUNIST PUBLICATIONS WILL HELP "SHARPEN AN EXECUTIVE'S PERCEPTION OF KEY COMMUNIST ISSUES AND PERSONNEL."

THE REPORT SAID THAT:

(1)"WHERE A COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED UNION ATTEMPTS TO ORGANIZE A PLANT THE EMPLOYER SHOULD USE "EVERY LEGITIMATE STEP" TO PERSUADE WORKERS OF THEIR POSSIBLE DANGER;

(2) WHERE COMMUNISTS SEIZE A UNION ALREADY UNDER CONTRACT TO A PLANT THE EMPLOYER'S "SILENCE NORMALLY IS THE BETTER RULE." BUT HE SHOULD INSIST ON A "TIGHT CONTRACT" WITH "AS LITTLE AS POSSIBLE LEFT TO GOOD WILL OR THE APPLICATION OF COMMON SENSE."

IN DEALING WITH A UNION WHICH AN EMPLOYER MAY FEEL SURE HARBORS COMMUNISTS THE CHAMBER ADVISED:

"CONCURRENT WITH A FAIR BUT STRICT POLICY IN NEGOTIATIONS SHOULD BE CONSTANT EFFORTS TO BUILD UP GOOD WILL AMONG THE WORKERS.

"IF THE EMPLOYER REMOVES REAL CAUSES OF GRIEVANCES, HAS WELL-TRAINED SUPERVISORY PERSONNEL, AND A REASONABLE ATTITUDE TOWARD THE WORKERS, COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA AGAINST HIM WILL EVENTUALLY BOOMERANG.

"THE UNION MEMBERS WILL REALIZE THAT THE EMPLOYER IS TRYING TO DO THE RIGHT THING, AND THAT THEIR OWN LEADERS ARE HINDERING THE PROCESS."

U.N. STAFF (500)
BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 12-(AP)-WHEN BYRON PRICE REPORTS FOR WORK HERE NEXT WEEK AS AN ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS HE WILL INHERIT A SERIES OF MANAGEMENT HEADACHES THAT HAVE BEEN PILING UP FOR SEVERAL MONTHS.

PRICE, TAKING OVER A $22,000 POST UNDER SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE, WILL HANDLE THE DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL SERVICES REPLACING THE RESIGNED JOHN B. HUTSON.

THE BULK OF THE U.N. DIFFICULTIES WITH ITS STAFF STARTED LAST FALL WHEN AN ECONOMY-MINDED GENERAL ASSEMBLY SLASHED THE BUDGET FROM $30,000,000 TO $27,000,000. WITH STAFF EXPENDITURES EATING UP A BIG SHARE OF THE FINANCIAL OUTLAY, THIS MEANT THE BURDEN OF THE CUT WOULD FALL ON THE NEARLY 3,000 EMPLOYES. MAR 1947

LIE HAS NOW TAKEN TWO DRASTIC STEPS TO SAVE MONEY. HE LET IT BE KNOWN THAT UP TO 500 PERSONS WOULD BE DROPPED FROM THE PAYROLL AND THAT PER-DIEM ALLOWANCES WOULD BE CUT SHARPLY.

THE GENERAL UNREST CAME TO A CLIMAX LAST NIGHT WHEN NEARLY 2,000 STAFF MEMBERS HELD A MASS MEETING. THERE LIE FLATLY REJECTED A DEMAND FOR AN IMMEDIATE PAY INCREASE IN THE LOWER BRACKETS. HE ALSO PUT ASIDE TWO OTHER "MINIMUM DEMANDS" OF THE ASSOCIATION FOR THE STAFF OF THE UNITED NATIONS (CAPS), AN EMPLOYEE ORGANIZATION, FOR UPWARD

REVISION OF THE WHOLE SALARY SCALE AND INCREASED ALLOWANCES BY JUNE 15.

LIE THEN LITERALLY DUMPED THE WHOLE PROBLEM INTO PRICE'S LAP WITH THIS STATEMENT:

"I HOPE BYRON PRICE CAN TAKE OVER ALL YOUR PROBLEMS."

IN MOVING TO CUT THE STAFF, LIE SAID HE WAS FOLLOWING ORDERS FROM THE ASSEMBLY FOR A "30 PER CENT REDUCTION." HE ALSO SAID THAT FRANCE AND BELGIUM SPECIFICALLY HAD OBJECTED TO THE OVERWHELMING NUMBER OF AMERICANS ON THE PAYROLL. MOST OF THE DISMISSALS WERE SCHEDULED IN THE LOWER-PAY BRACKETS WHERE AMERICANS ARE PREDOMINANT, IT WAS LEARNED.

PERSONNEL ALLOCATION ON A GEOGRAPHIC BASIS HAS BEEN DIFFICULT FROM THE FIRST BECAUSE IT WAS VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO GET PERSONS TO COME HERE FROM OTHER COUNTRIES FOR THE LOWER PAID JOBS. HOWEVER, THE U.N. HAS SUCCEEDED IN REDUCING THE PERCENTAGE OF AMERICANS ROUGHLY FROM 70 TO 40.

THE COMPLAINTS OF THE STAFF INCLUDE THESE:

1-SALARIES ARE TOO LOW AND HAVE NOT KEPT UP WITH ADVANCING LIVING COSTS IN THIS COUNTRY.

1947
MAR

3-TRANSPORTATION CONDITIONS ARE POOR TO THE HEADQUARTERS HERE, WHICH IS NOT ON THE RAILROAD OR REGULAR BUS LINES.

4. THE WORKING CONDITIONS ARE POOR IN THE SPRAWLING FORMER FACTORY BUILDING, WHICH IS WITHOUT DAYLIGHT.

5-THE SOLE CAFETERIA IN THE BUILDING IS NOT SATISFACTORY.

6-HOUSING CONDITIONS ARE INADEQUATE BECAUSE U.N. EMPLOYES CAN'T AFFORD TO LIVE IN THE APARTMENTS BEING MADE AVAILABLE UNDER U.N. AUSPICES.

7-THERE IS NO WORKABLE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE.

8-AN ACCEPTABLE PROMOTION SYSTEM NEEDS TO BE ESTABLISHED.

IN DEFENDING HIMSELF AT THE RALLY, LIE MAINTAINED THAT HE HAD FOUGHT "ALONE" IN VAIN AGAINST THE REDUCED BUDGET AND APPEALED FOR A HALT TO "CORRIDOR RUMORS ABOUT THE SECRETARY-GENERAL."

"I AM NOT A TYRANT," HE SHOUTED. "WE HAVE 55 EMPLOYERS. IF YOU ATTACK ME YOU WILL NEVER SUCCEED."

LIE SAID THE MANAGEMENT PROBLEMS HAD BEEN TAKING UP SO MUCH OF HIS TIME THAT HE HAD NEGLECTED SUCH ISSUES AS PALESTINE AND OTHER PRESSING POLITICAL MATTERS. HE ADDED HE HAD "BEEN CRITICIZED IN THERE" (POINTING TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL CHAMBER).

LIE SAID HE HOPED ALL THAT WOULD BE OVER WITH PRICE'S ARRIVAL AND SUGGESTED THAT THE EMPLOYES IMMEDIATELY ARRANGE A MEETING WITH HIS NEW ASSISTANT.

THE STAFF TOOK ONE FORMAL STEP AT THE CLOSE OF ITS MEETING, ASKING LIE TO ADVISE THE 55 MEMBER GOVERNMENTS ABOUT THE CURRENT SITUATION.

JR353AES

NASH, DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, COMMENTED THAT NEW ZEALAND WOULD AGREE TO THE WHOLE PROPOSAL WITH PERHAPS SOME MINOR CHANGES.

PAUL HASLUCK OF AUSTRALIA THEN PROPOSED AN AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD MAKE ANY COUNCIL DECISION SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION BY THE POWERS AT WAR WITH JAPAN.

WARREN R. AUSTIN, UNITED STATES DELEGATE, SAID THAT HIS GOVERNMENT DID NOT AGREE WITH SOME OF THE STATEMENTS IN FRASER'S NOTE AND INDICATED HE WOULD SPEAK MORE FULLY LATER. HE REJECTED AUSTRALIA'S CONFIRMATION SUGGESTION.

GREAT BRITAIN TOSSED IN TWO MORE AMENDMENTS TO THE PROPOSED AGREEMENT. ONE WOULD REQUIRE THE UNITED STATES TO NOTIFY THE SECURITY COUNCIL WHEN IT WAS CLOSING THE ISLAND. THE OTHER WOULD ALLOW ALL MEMBERS OF THE U.N. TO SHARE IN COMMERCIAL RIGHTS TO THE ISLANDS.

STILL HANGING WAS AN OLDER RUSSIAN AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD GIVE THE SECURITY COUNCIL ALONE THE POWER TO CHANGE OR TERMINATE THE AGREEMENT. UNDER PRESENT TERMS THE UNITED STATES, AS SOLE ADMINISTERING AUTHORITY, HAS THAT RIGHT.

MEANWHILE, A THREE-NATION COUNCIL SUB-COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING BRITISH MINE-LAYING CHARGES AGAINST ALBANIA SAID IT WOULD HAVE ITS REPORT READY TOMORROW. IT THEN WILL BE CIRCULATED TO DELEGATES AND GO BEFORE THE FULL COUNCIL NEXT WEEK.

ANDREI A.GROMYKO OF RUSSIA, CHAIRMAN OF THE 12-NATION ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, SAID THAT BODY MIGHT BE CALLED INTO SESSION NEXT WEDNESDAY TO TAKE UP THE ATOMIC REPORT RECENTLY TOSSED BACK BY THE COUNCIL.

MAR 1947

B18 (Q)

NASH SAID HE HAD BEEN READY TO SPEAK TODAY IF THE COUNCIL HAD REQUESTED HIM.

"I'VE STUDIED THE TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL OF THE UNITED STATES VERY CLOSELY AND I SEE NO OBJECTION TO IT," HE SAID.

POINTING OUT THAT NEW ZEALAND FELT IT WAS PERHAPS PREMATURE TO ACT BEFORE THE PEACE SETTLEMENT IS MADE, NASH SAID "WE ARE SATISFIED THAT THE UNITED STATES IS THE POWER THAT OUGHT TO BE THE TRUSTEE OF THOSE AREAS."

NASH SAID NEW ZEALAND HAD MADE ITS REQUEST BECAUSE NEW ZEALANDERS FLET THEY HAD THE RIGHT SINCE "WE WERE FAIRLY ACTIVE BELLIGERENTS AGAINST THE JAPANESE IN THE WAR."

Marshall Confronts Molotov With Charge of Aiding Nazis

MAR 47

Bares Report Hitlerites Are Acquitted if They Join Red Party in Eastern Zone —Bevin Names 5 in High Jobs.

Moscow, March 13 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall, speaking on de-Nazification, declared before the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers today that the United States has "been disturbed by frequent reports in the Soviet zone of Germany that former active Nazis may be cleared by joining the Socialist Unity (Communist) party."

Intending, apparently, to forestall an expected Soviet attack on de-Nazification in the American zone, Marshall read a three-page statement asserting that 12,000,000 persons have been registered for investigation, 200,000 tried and 370,000 removed from office in the American zone, and that de-Nazification there has gone far beyond the directives of the Allied Control Authority. "There is nothing to conceal," the statement bluntly added.

The Allied Control Council, however, has not received full reports on de-Nazification in the Soviet zone, Marshall continued, and "my Government opposes the use of de-Nazification in favor of any political party." Lack of uniformity in de-Nazification procedure and practices, he said, led to distrust among the occupying Powers. He therefore recommend that the Foreign Ministers direct the Allied Control Council to adopt uniform laws on de-Nazification.

Bevin Backs Up Attack.

Foreign Secretary Bevin then told the council that the British have a list of forty high Nazis who are holding important positions in the Soviet zone. He named five of these, adding that he desisted from naming the rest in order to show Allied unity. This evoked some laughter and a witness said that even the Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov grinned.

All the ministers made statements on de-Nazification and democratization. Molotov expressed general dissatisfaction with the progress of both programs in the Western zones. He specifically denied Marshall's reference to Nazis in political parties, declaring that he knew of no case where a Nazi had been permitted to join the Socialist Unity party.

Mainly, however, Molotov assailed the principle of mass de-Nazification as it was carried out in the American zone, adding that he thought this system worked hardships on the people generally and let some big Nazis slip through. In the Soviet zone, he said, the authorities concentrate on removing Nazis from public and private offices, and 390,478 persons have been removed from such positions there. This was more, he said, than in any other zone.

Molotov said that Nazis were working throughout the judicial system in all three western zones. He asserted that judicial officers in the American zone are 35 per cent Nazi, in the British zone 43 per cent, and in the French zone 50 per cent. He thereupon listed five persons whom he described as holding important positions in the British zone. Since Molotov spoke first, this presumably was what gave Bevin his basis for reading five and only five names from his list.

Molotov Still Agreeable.

Molotov called upon the council to direct the control authorities in Berlin to grant democratic parties and free trade unions the right to organize on a national basis and to operate with central organizations, with newspapers and with representation through all zones without any barriers.

Referring to Marshall's proposal to make uniform all de-Nazification procedures throughout Germany, Molotov said in the agreeable manner characteristic of his attitude throughout this conference, that he thought Marshall's proposition was acceptable in principle but that he wanted to think it over.

In the main, all four Ministers restated familiar positions on de-Nazification and demilitarization and urged that the work be advanced.

Persons present at the conference said that there was no mention of President Truman's speech on Greece and Turkey, and that there was no evidence of its having had any effect on the council or the ministers themselves.

Marshall on the Offensive.

Earlier today top-level American diplomats here said that Marshall was determined to put American foreign policy on the offensive and keep it there from here on in.

There can no longer be any doubt that the highest American officials—acting on their declared belief in the existence of a Soviet expansionist and aggressive attitude toward the rest of the world—are now moving to pit American power and prestige against Russian power and prestige in an effort to check that expansion.

Marshall's Statement at Moscow on De-Nazification Policy

MAR

MOSCOW, March 13 (AP).—The complete text of a statement by Secretary of State George C. Marshall today at the Foreign Ministers' conference:

Since the beginning of the occupation of Germany, de-Nazification has been a basic objective of the United States government.

In their determination to stamp out Nazism in the United States zone, American officials went far beyond the requirements laid down by the Control Council directive. Every possible effort is being taken to apprehend war criminals and other persons who have committed crimes against peace and humanity and to bring them to trial. Five thousand suspects are now being held by the United States Military Government for investigation. No members of organizations convicted by the international military tribunal have been released pending final determination of their cases by de-Nazification tribunals. At present, 48,000 or more members of the S. S., the corps of political leaders, the Gestapo and other Nazis are interned awaiting trial.

German law for the liberation from National Socialism and militarism by the three Laender, or provinces, of the United States zone is just as strict and comprehensive in its scope and application, we think, as the de-Nazification procedures in other zones. The law is administered by some 450 tribunals, staffed with persons known to be anti-Nazis, who to date have tried more than 200,000 persons. It is enforced by more than 14,000 persons and closely supervised by the United States Military Government officials. Under this law, about 12,000,000 persons were registered for investigation.

The law observes the principles of justice by providing for fair and effective procedure for judging every individual according to the degree of his responsibilities for wrongs committed during the Nazi regime; imposes definite sanctions designed to prevent persons found guilty from holding any position other than that of ordinary labor; and it grants opportunities for rehabilitation of lesser offenders and reintegration into the community of merely nominal participants in the Nazi movement.

No exceptions are made because of individual administrative efficiency or reasons of political expediency; the number of persons removed and excluded from public and important private offices because of Nazi affiliations exceeds 370,000; screening of the entire adult population insures that no active Nazi can escape the punishment he deserves.

In the United States zone, former Nazis are not allowed to join political parties, nor are exceptions allowed for former Nazis who now are willing to co-operate actively with the present system in Germany. Furthermore, all members of the Nazi party have been removed from public office and positions of influence in private enterprise.

The law is supported in our zone by all political parties and by the trade unions; it was cited as a model of justice by the international military tribunal and its substantive provisions were adopted by all four powers of the occupation, embodied in Control Directive No. 38.

American policy has been consistent, and the program severe but just. Amnesties recently enacted in the American zone did not constitute a relaxation in our efforts to stamp out Nazism. These measures apply only to youths, invalids and other people of the lowest income group who did not profit from the Nazi movement and cannot be regarded as Nazis in the meaning of the Control Council directive.

There is nothing to conceal. Monthly reports submitted to the Control Council analyze in detail the progress made in the field of de-Nazification in the United States zone. In addition, United States zonal directives and instructions were furnished to the other powers. The Control Council has not received complete information regarding the implementation of quadripartite directives in the eastern zone, nor full reports regarding results of de-Nazification in that part of Germany.

My government is opposed to the use of de-Nazification as a political instrument to favor any German political party. In the American zone, active Nazis are prohibited from joining political parties, but we have been disturbed by frequent reports that in the Soviet zone, former active Nazis may be cleared by the process of joining the Socialist Unity party.

The Control Council report to the Council on Foreign Ministers on De-Nazification reveals that de-Nazification laws and directives have been varyingly implemented in the zones of occupation and in accordance with each zone commander's interpretation of quadripartite policies and pronouncements upon the subject. This has resulted in a lack of uniformity, both in procedures and in the severity of the sanctions and restrictions imposed. Under the circumstances there is distrust among the occupying powers as to the sincerity of the de-Nazification efforts of the others, a reluctance to give full faith and credit to de-Nazification decisions made in other zones and a tendency for incriminated persons to migrate from one zone to another in which de-Nazification is believed to be less strict.

To remedy the situation the United States delegation wishes to submit the following resolution for adoption by the Council of Foreign Ministers:

"The Council of Foreign Ministers notes the report of the Control Council on De-Nazification and concludes that uniformity of de-Nazification practices and procedures throughout Germany is imperative. It instructs the Allied Control Council to direct appropriate German authorities to enact a uniform German law based upon Control Council Directive No. 38 to assure equal and just treatment of all persons in accordance with the degree of their responsibility, said German legislation to be effective unless disapproved by the Allied Control Council."

Not Yet Published In Moscow

By Eddy Gilmore

Moscow, March 13 (AP)—Neither Pravda nor Izvestia, the Soviet Union's two principal newspapers, today published President Truman's speech or any excerpts from it.

The papers did carry, however, two Tass dispatches from Washington concerning the proposed financial and other aid for Greece and Turkey. One story concerned statements by Senator Jenner (R., Ind.) on the subject.

[Jenner, commenting in Washington last night on the President's speech, said: "Where are we going next? Is it to be recurring? The President failed to tell the whole story. This is an entirely new departure in our foreign policy."]

May Publish It Later

The second dispatch concerned the attitude of Senator Johnson (D., Col.) and said he had "censured" Truman's plan.

[Johnson was quoted in Washington last night as saying that the speech "sounded to me like an undeclared declaration of war."]

This does not mean that the Russian papers will not later carry the President's speech and there is nothing unusual in the fact it was not published today. It may be published tomorrow, or may take still another day.

Broadcast Reception Poor

The broadcast of the Truman statement by the United States station in the Russian language was hardly understood, if even heard here.

Three Russian sources, when queried by this correspondent, replied that atmospheric conditions were so bad they were unable to listen to much of what was being said and when it did come through in parts it was hard to tell what was being said.

In other words, the Russian people know practically nothing about the President's speech at the moment, but it most surely will be laid before them before long.

Reaction Still Unpredictable

There can be no doubt about the fact that Soviet officials, including Prime Minister Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov, have by now read Truman's speech. It also can be safely assumed that the President's words are now known to the Politburo of the Communist party.

[The Politburo is the powerful policy-making bureau of the party headed by Stalin.]

There has been no public or official reaction and it is difficult at present to say what form reaction may take.

Molotov may talk over the statement with Secretary of State George C. Marshall in private, or Stalin may even discuss it with Marshall when he sees him.

Tass Says U.S. Control of Greece Is Indicated in Truman Speech

First Russian Reaction Is Given; Broadcast From America Full of Static

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 13.—The first Soviet reaction to President Truman's proposal to bolster Greece and Turkey against Communist pressure came tonight in a Tass dispatch which described the President's message as "frankly directed against the democratic elements in Greece."

Tass, Soviet official news agency, also declared that Mr. Truman "let Congress understand that assistance offered the Greek government would be followed by establishment of American control over Greece.

More than twenty-four hours elapsed after Mr. Truman spoke before the agency circulated its account to Russian newspapers. It was assumed that the Tass account, which on the whole was a comprehensive news report, would be published in morning papers and would be accompanied or followed by full editorial reaction.

The part of the Tass story dealing with Turkey was devoted entirely to quotations from the President's message.

Mr. Truman spoke before the official Soviet news agency circulated its account to Russian newspapers.

It was assumed that the Tass account, which on the whole was a comprehensive news report, would be carried in the morning papers and would be accompanied or followed by full editorial reaction.

Then for the first time the great mass of the Russian people will learn of Mr. Truman's outline of a new foreign policy for the United States.

Broadcasts Not Understood

Broadcasts of Mr. Truman's message by the United States station in the Russian language were hardly understood if they even were heard in Moscow. Three Russian sources said atmospherics were so bad they were unable to listen to much of the broadcast and when it did come through in parts it was hard to tell what was being said.

It was difficult to say what form further Russian reaction to the speech would take. Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Foreign Minister, may talk over the statement with Gen. George C. Marshall, United States Secretary of State, in private or Stalin may even discuss it with Marshall should he see him.

HIS ADDRESS RELEASED TO SOVIET PRESS

Agency Calls It 'Directed Against Democratic Elements' There

Moscow, March 13 (AP)—The first official Soviet reaction to President Truman's proposal to bolster Greece and Turkey against communist pressure came tonight in a Tass dispatch which described the President's message as "frankly directed against the democratic elements in Greece."

Tass also declared that Mr. Truman in his speech to the United States Congress "let Congress understand that assistance offered the Greek Government would be followed by establishment of American control over Greece."

Notes Message Liberally

Quoting liberally from the President's message, the Tass story began with a simple news statement of his request for funds and the right to send civilian and military personnel into Greece and Turkey.

Then it said:

"Mr. Truman's message was frankly directed against the democratic elements in Greece, which are defending democratic institutions in that country and which were described in the message as 'a military minority.' "

MOSCOW ASSAILS TRUMAN PROGRAM

Izvestia Accuses United States of 'New Interference' in Other Nations' Affairs

'CONTROL' OF GREECE SEEN

Soviet Broadcast for Athens Charges American 'Threat to Greek Freedom'

MOSCOW, Friday, March 14 (AP)—Foreign delegates to the Council of Foreign Ministers read in Izvestia today a front-page editorial attack on President Truman's speech, in which the United States was accused of "new interference in the business of other states."

"Claims of the United States for leadership in international affairs," said the Soviet Government newspaper's editorial, "grow in keeping with the appetites of interested American circles."

"However," it continued, "American leaders, acting on a new historical situation, do not take into consideration that the old methods of colonizers and hard-headed politicians have already outlived this century and are doomed to failure. In this is the principal weakness of Truman's speech."

Izvestia said "Truman did not take into consideration either the international situation or the sovereignty of Greece."

As to 'Greece's Sovereignty'

"And really, what will be left of Greece's sovereignty after the American military and civilian personnel will sit on the heads of the Greek rulers and when this personnel commences the direction of Greece with the aid of 250,000,000 imported American dollars," it asked.

United States and British delegations rolled translators out of bed to do the full text of the editorial.

The Izvestia comment was the first real editorial reaction to President Truman's request for financial and other aid for Greece and Turkey. Izvestia probably is more of a Government organ than any other paper in Moscow.

Last night the first Soviet press reaction to President Truman's address to Congress had come in a Tass dispatch, which described the President's message as "frankly directed against the democratic elements in Greece."

Tass also declared that Mr. Truman in his address to the United States Congress "let Congress understand that assistance offered the Greek Government would be followed by establishment of American control over Greece."

[Mr. Truman in his message defined the purpose of his plan as to "assist free peoples to work out their own destinies in their own way."]

"Mr. Truman's message," Tass went on, "was frankly directed against the democratic elements in Greece, which are defending democratic institutions in that country and which were described in the message as 'a military minority.' "

[Referring to the war damages suffered by Greece, Mr. Truman said: "As a result of these tragic conditions, a militant minority, exploiting human want and misery, was able to create political chaos which, until now, has made economic recovery impossible."]

Supporting its assertion regarding "establishment of American control over Greece," Tass cited Mr. Truman's appeal for authority to send administrators and technicians and others into the country.

The section of the Tass story dealing with Turkey was devoted entirely to quotations from the President's message.

"Subservient to American Capital"

The Moscow radio in a broadcast to Greece last night denounced President Truman's message, the British Broadcasting Corporation said in a broadcast monitored here by the National Broadcasting Company.

The Russian broadcast, beamed to Greece and picked up by British monitors, said the President's proposal covering United States aid to Greece was "a danger to the reestablishment of peace and harmony among the nations of the world." Moscow called it "an attempt to keep in power the present reactionary regime and make Greece subservient to American capital." It characterized the Truman proposal as "a direct threat to Greek freedom and independence."

The Truman speech, Moscow continued, was the signal for a new "wave of pro-fascistic Government terror against the democratic elements." It charged that "in the last few days the [Greek] Minister of Public Order, Gen. Napoleon Zervas, a reactionary Fascist well known for his collaboration with the Germans, has arrested 600 Greek democrats," and indicated that the alleged arrests were continuing.

RUSSIA INSISTS POWERS DISCUSS CHINA QUESTION

U. S. Seen Willing to Confer if Nanking Government Participates.

BRITAIN SILENT

Big 4 Ministers Clash on Problem of Denazification in Germany.

MOSCOW, (Friday), March 14—(AP) Russia sent notes to the American and British foreign secretaries last night asking for a discussion of the Chinese situation, and authoritative sources said early today that the United States would engage in such informal discussions if the Chinese government likewise participates.

It was believed that British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin also would agree to Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's note. Official word from the British was lacking, however.

According to informants, U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall had not yet formally replied to Molotov's note up to an early hour today.

Note's Wording Vague

The somewhat vague wording of the Russian note left in some doubt exactly when the meeting would be held, and it was not clear whether the Chinese government had yet been invited.

The Chinese embassy said that no invitation had been received by China. For these reasons there was a strong probability that some sort of interim note would be returned by the United States asking Molotov to make his proposal more explicit.

There was no doubt, however, that regardless of how the note was worded Molotov intends the meeting to take place during the present foreign ministers' council in Moscow.

Molotov's insistence on the controversial China question after he was rebuffed on the same issue on Monday was interpreted by conference observers as another gun in the Soviet propaganda campaign against the foreign policy of the United States.

The development on the Chinese situation came as Tass, the official Soviet News Agency, circulated to the Russian press the first account of President Truman's speech on Greece and Turkey. Mr. Truman's message to Congress, Tass declared, "frankly is directed against democratic elements in Greece."

"Mr. Truman let Congress understand that assistance offered the Greek government would be followed by establishment of American control over Greece," Tass said.

Clash on Denazification

The visiting foreign ministers engaged with Molotov yesterday in a series of exchanges in which they sought to pluck dirty Nazi linen out of one another's closets for a public washing.

Assuming the initiative on the question of denazification in Germany, apparently to forestall an expected Soviet attack on that subject, Marshall read a three-page statement citing progress in the American zone and raising the question of the entry of active Nazis in the Soviet-sponsored party.

"My government opposes the use of denazification in favor of any political party," he declared.

Marshall then proposed that a directive be issued to the Allied control council to make denazification policies uniform throughout Germany. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, in an agreeable manner characteristic of his attitude throughout the session, said he thought the proposal was acceptable in principle, but wanted time to think it over.

Molotov denied the reports cited by Marshall, saying he knew of no case where a Nazi had been permitted to join the Socialist unity party, which is a coalition of Communists and Social Democrats in the Soviet Zone.

Stalin Talk With Parley Chiefs Seen

Moscow, March 13 (AP)—Speculation increased today among delegates to the four-power Foreign Ministers Council as to when Prime Minister Stalin would receive the three visiting statesmen. Some, basing their guesses on past procedure, predicted it would be the coming week end.

[Such a meeting might give United States Secretary of State Marshall an opportunity to discuss with the Soviet leader the new policy of the United States as outlined by President Truman yesterday in his declaration on aid to Greece and Turkey.]

Delegates recalled that at the Big Three Foreign Ministers meeting of December, 1945, James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State, and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin were here nine days before they were received by Stalin at the Kremlin.

Bevin has been in Moscow five days now; Secretary Marshall and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault four days.

Moscow, March 13 (AP) — Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, told the Council of Foreign Ministers tonight that a Mr. Augustin, designer of the famed German tiger tank and a leading personality in the German army's weapons department, now is deputy head of the technical office of the automobile department for the U.S.S.R. at Malsdorf, Berlin.

Britain Hails Truman Speech

MAR 1947

Foreign Office Stresses Own Parallel Views —Greeks and Turks Express Joy.

London, March 13 (A. P.).—Britain today officially welcomed President Truman's declaration on Greece and Turkey. At the same time the President's urgent recommendations to Congress were received in Greek and Turkish official circles here with expressions ranging from "profound satisfaction" to "extreme joy."

Mr. Truman's message to the joint session of Congress yesterday was discussed at today's regular weekly Cabinet meeting, official spokesmen disclosed, and that Defense Minister A. V. Alexander and Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, the Chief of the Imperial General Staff, will meet with their advisers shortly to study the short-range and long-range implications of active American participation in the Mediterranean.

On the other hand, a Foreign Office spokesman told a crowded news conference: "The British Government welcomes Mr. Truman's statement . . . the views he expressed on the question of governments being imposed on sovereign States in Europe are very much in accord with our own views, and, on a number of occasions, we have conveyed those beliefs to certain governments whose elections have not been carried out in line with their pledges."

In the fifteen months ending March 31, Britain will have granted Greece $72,000,000 for the maintenance of her Army and $44,000,000 for stabilization of the Greek currency, and in addition also, the spokesman said, to wiping off the books about $184,000,000 worth of war debts. British aid to Turkey, the spokesman said, included a 1939 loan of $60,000,000 in gold and armaments credits of $100,000,000

Athens Is Grateful.

Meanwhile, today the Turkish Premier, Recep Peker, declared in Istanbul that the President's "American and human speech" indicates that the United States has awakened to the world situation. He believes the speech reflects American public opinion in a day when security is no longer a local problem, the Premier added.

In Athens, political spokesmen said that the recommended financial and indirect military aid, coupled with the obvious intention of preserving Greece and Turkey from Communist dictatorship and Slav intervention in domestic affairs, comprised a most welcome milestone along Greece's rocky road to recovery.

On the other hand, Communist spokesmen in Greece expressed no pleasure, and the Communist London Daily Worker declared that the real purpose of the United States "is to save the tottering rulers of Greece and the dictators of Turkey and to drive back the advancing forces of democracy." This newspaper added: "Greece and Turkey are now to become colonial appendages of the United States."

The influential Yorkshire Post of Leeds said that Mr. Truman's speech was of the utmost importance, adding: "This is straight talking at a time when straight talking is urgently necessary."

In Rome, Il Messagero declared the President's message was "the most important one" since the promulgation of the Monroe Doctrine in 1823. "It took more than 100 years and two great wars for the United States to abandon its isolationism so resolutely, proclaiming that henceforth its policy assumes worldwide scope," Il Messagero added.

Truman's Policies Hailed

London, March 13 (AP)—Greek and Turkish spokesmen voiced relief and gratitude today at the proposal of President Truman to throw America's economic weight behind those countries against any subjugation.

Britain's official spokesmen hailed the Truman policy as "very much in accord with Britain's views."

Leslie Hore-Belisha, former British War Minister, said "this is the most constructive step that could be taken" and suggested that the United States might also consider taking over "our responsibilities" in Egypt and India.

News Parley Crowded

The official British reaction was given at a crowded Foreign Office news conference when the spokesman said:

"The British Government welcomes Mr. Truman's statement to Congress. The views he expressed on the question of governments being imposed on sovereign states in Europe are very much in accord with our own views, and on a number of occasions we have conveyed these beliefs to certain governments whose elections have not been carried out in line with their pledges."

He said he could not immediately state whether the United States State Department had specifically asked Britain to retain her 15,000 troops in Greece until American instructors have completed reorganization and strengthening of the Greek Army. Reporters at the Foreign Ministers Council in Moscow said such a request had been made.

War Debt Canceled

In the last fifteen months, he said, Britain had granted or loaned Greece $156,000,000, plus the canceling of a war debt of $148,000,000.

Premier Demetrios Maximos of Greece told Lincoln MacVeagh, United States Ambassador in Athens, that the Greek Government and people were fully conscious of the historic significance of the American action and expressed gratitude for assistance in Greece's struggle to preserve her independence and integrity.

The spokesman at the office of EAM, Leftist Greek political organization, in London, declared, however, that Greeks would "continue to resist United States intervention just as they resisted British intervention in the past" and that congressional approval of the Truman proposal would mean "the death warrant of the United Nations."

"Mediterranean Beachheads"

Leftist organs in Athens said Mr. Truman's message was "undisguised preaching of American imperialism" and aimed at establishing "beachheads in the Mediterranean."

In a statement, Premier Recep Peker of Turkey hailed the President's "realistic and fully humanitarian" speech as the end of American isolationism."

The prospect that Greece, too, will get help, he said, "moves Turkey deeply."

The President's ideas, he declared, would "inspire the peace and freedom-loving peoples of the world" and spread a deep influence beyond the Mediterranean, Middle East and Near East.

Roosevelt Speech Cited

Reaction came from Iran, involved recently in a dispute with Russia over Azerbaijan. The Persian newspaper Keyhan described the Truman statement as the "greatest political event since September, 1939."

"The speech resembles very much Roosevelt's speech at the beginning of the war over nazism and openly declares war on communism," said the newspaper.

Influence Of Interests

The Rome independent newspaper Il Messagero went even farther back and said the speech was the most important American pronouncement since promulgation of the Monroe Doctrine in 1823.

"The speech and program it represents are important and impressive because behind the respectable arguments of general policy are the influence of colossal economic interests—industrial, banking and commercial—which, united and fused with the principles of democracy, constitute that formidable mechanism of global expansion which is American imperialism," said Il Messagero.

The Madrid newspaper A.B.C. said the speech had the effect of a diplomatic bomb and the Foreign Ministers hardly had any reason now for meeting in Moscow.

"Had a similar address been made ten years ago the World War would not have broken out," A.B.C declared.

The Dublin Irish Independent said the speech stated clearly the role of the United States as "protector of democratic freedoms in every part of the world."

London, March 13 (AP)—Britain today officially welcomed President Truman's declaration on Greece and Turkey, and the President's recommendations to Congress were received in Greek and Turkish official circles here with expressions ranging from "profound satisfaction" to "utter joy."

A British Foreign Office spokesman told a crowded news conference:

"The British Government welcomes Mr. Truman's statement to Congress. The views he expressed on the question of governments being imposed on sovereign states in Europe are very much in accord with our own views. And, on a number of occasions, we have conveyed those beliefs to certain governments whose elections have not been carried out in line with their pledges."

Mr. Truman's message to Congress yesterday was discussed today at the British Cabinet's weekly meeting, official sources disclosed.

These sources said Defense Minister A. V. Alexander and Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, chief of the imperial general staff, would meet with their advisers shortly to study the short-range and long-range implications of active United States participation in the Mediterranean.

Greek Faults Conceded

Replying to questions from European corerspondents, the Foreign Office spokesman said Britain was conscious of the "imperfections" of the Greek Government mentioned by the President, and never had denied the existence of imperfections.

A correspondent asked him if Russia intervened in Paraguay's current army rebellion, would that be comparable to United States "intervention" in Greece and Turkey. The spokesman retorted that "the question is hypothetical."

He said he could not state now whether the United States had asked Britain specifically to retain troops in Greece until American instructors completed reorganization and strengthening of the Greek Army. Britain, he added, proposed to continue reducing the number of her troops in Greece, now estimated at 15,000, and to complete the withdrawal "as soon as practicable."

Labor party sources said Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin last month told a private meeting of the Parliamentary Labor party that all British troops would be out of Greece by June.

Aid To Greece Revealed

In the fifteen months ending March 31, Britain will have granted Greece $72,000,000 for the maintenance of the army, $44,000,000 for the purchase of military equipment and a loan of $40,000,000 for stabilization of Greek currency, the spokesman said. In addition, he said, about $184,000,000 worth of war debts were wiped off the books.

Aid to Turkey, the spokesman said, included a 1939 loan of $60,000,000 in gold and armaments credits of $100,000,000 to help sustain Turkey's Army of 600,000 men. France, he said, was party to the armaments credit, but after June, 1940, was unable to fulfill her commitments, so Britain provided the bulk of the loan.

The spokesman said he knew nothing of a reported intention of the United States to make a new loan to Hungary.

Eddy Gilmore, chief of the Associated Press bureau in Moscow, said that when the Russians did speak "it is to be expected that President Truman's request for $400,000,000 to help Greece and Turkey will be branded here as United States interference in the internal affairs of other nations."

"Causes Concern" To Russia

"Russians unquestionably will take a serious view of the American President's proposal," Gilmore's Moscow dispatch said. "It can be said that no single action by the United States in many months, perhaps years, has caused such concern among the Russians as this one will. It is sure to be regarded as aimed at Russia."

London's Communist Daily Worker declared flatly that the real purpose of the United States "is to save the tottering rulers of Greece and the dictators of Turkey and to drive back the advancing forces of democracy."

The Worker said "Greece and Turkey are now to become colonial appendages of the United States."

Greek Gratitude Expressed

Premier Demetrios Maximos told United States Ambassador Lincoln MacVeagh in Athens that Greece had heartfelt gratitude for President Truman's assistance.

Left-wing EAM and KKE newspapers refrained from comment but printed the speech under such headlines as "Undisguised Preaching of American Imperialism, Abolition of Greek Independence, Establishment of Beachheads in the Mediterranean and Premeditated Provocation to Soviet Russia."

Government and conservative newspapers were jubilant. MacVeagh visited Maximos to hand him a copy of Mr. Truman's address. Calling for loan of $400,000,000 to Greece and Turkey, military advisers and equipment.

Tsaldaris's Appreciation

In Athens, Constantin Tsaldaris, the Greek Foreign Minister, dispatched a message to President Truman in which he said:

"With a feeling of true relief, the Greeks heard your momentous message to the American people and Congress. At this historic hour I recollect with profound emotion our personal contact in December last and the assurances which you were kind enough to give when, on Greece's behalf, I laid before you her great problem.

"Those assurances of yours are now becoming reality. And the Greek people, who had been so sorely tried, can confidently look forward to a better future, which they are entitled to.

"At the start of this new epoch of my country we anticipate with equal optimism a development in international relations through the policy which you are inaugurating by your inspired message.

"I venture to forecast that, like that historic Lend-Lease Act which marked the starting point toward final victory, so your today's message will prove equally decisive in winning the peace and democracy."

Most sections of the British press took a sober view of the newest development, with the Laborite Daily Herald expressing the view of many:

"If Americans believe the world's well-being rests on American might as a counterforce to Russia's, the prospect of an armed clash between the two greatest powers on earth becomes frighteningly clear. And such a clash, in the atom age, would finally destroy our sick civilization."

The Times of London commented that, in referring to totalitarianism, President Truman meant "Communism; when he speaks of coercion he means coercion by governments allied to Russia. His challenge is issued on behalf of traditional western democracy and may not go without reply."

Guardian Chides President

The Manchester Guardian chided President Truman for not waiting for the United Nations Balkan investigating commission to report to the Security Council before he made his plea for financial bolstering of the Greek and Turkish regimes.

"President Truman dismissed the United Nations as unable to help in this situation," said the Guardian.

The Yorkshire Post, published by the family of Conservative Deputy Leader Anthony Eden, said Mr. Truman's speech was of the "utmost importance."

Greek Premier And King Send Truman Thanks

MAR 1947

Both Voice Confidence Aid to Greece Will Further Cause of World Peace

ATHENS, March 13 (AP).—King George II and Premier Demetrios Maximos of Greece both addressed messages to President Truman today expressing confidence that his requested aid for Greece would further world peace. They expressed their "profound satisfaction" and "sincere thanks."

Mr. Maximos said Mr. Truman's message to Congress "is destined to have a decisive influence on the world's future and that of Greece." The President's words, the Premier continued, "constitute for the Greek people encouragement in their just and noble struggle for the principles of freedom and democracy.

"That is why we defied the Axis forces . . ., and are now facing a subversive movement of an armed minority which is supported from abroad and which is seeking to impose its will upon a majority of the people by force and terrorism," he continued.

Turk Premier Is Pleased By Truman Talk

Istanbul, Turkey, March 13 (AP)—Premier Recep Peker said today that President Truman's "American and human speech" to Congress urging aid to Turkey and Greece indicated that the United States had awakened to the whole world situation.

Turkey feels deep gratitude, he said in a statement. The Premier said he believed the speech reflected American public opinion in a day when security had become a problem for the entire world and not a local matter.

The President's declaration, the Premier added, marked the end of any American isolation by espousing that opinion of security, and thus gave to all nations the hope for freedom within their own borders.

"Like a microbe in the finger spreading throughout the body, trouble in Greece and Turkey could spread," the Premier said.

He asserted that, while Turkey escaped the havoc of war visited upon other countries, the Turkish nation came out of the world conflict in worse condition than many nations caught in its path. The economic, social, agricultural and communications phases of her existence today are so bad, he said, that they cannot be compared to those of other nations.

Expanding orally on his prepared statement, Peker said Turkey's economic situation was brought on by the burden of maintaining a large army—"we are obliged to spend half our yearly income on national defense."

THE PREMIER'S STATEMENT

ISTANBUL, March 13 (AP)—The text of Premier Peker's statement

News agencies have not yet reported the full text of President Truman's speech, but, according to abridged versions, the President of the United States, by making his propositions for help to Turkey and Greece has not confined himself to an understanding of world-wide strategy, but has also been inspired by a point of view both fully realistic and fully humanitarian.

The deep influences of the ideas asserted in these words will reach beyond the Mediterranean, the Middle East and the Near East. The ideas of the President, which have been applauded by both Houses, represent a complete awakening of American public opinion and a complete view of the difficulties and imposed tendencies which surround the world.

This point of view will emphasize the belief that world security is an indivisible whole and will inspire peace and freedom-loving peoples of the world with guarantees of living prosperously, independently and honorably within their own borders.

We are deeply moved by the prospect of Greece getting help. We have lived with her through the sufferings she had during the period of occupation and now we share the sufferings of her bitter days. We will be very glad to see a return of happy days to Greece, with whom we are united with bonds of unity and common destiny.

Turkey has been spared the destruction of the last war. But, even in the outlook of a country which has been spared devastation, we are not in a better position than are European countries which went through the evils of war.

Our fatherland, under the influences of a historic destiny, is deprived of the possibilities of coping with the needs of civilization. We are obliged to face our industrial and economic duties with energetic steps and we are obliged to rebuild our roads and means of transportation and especially our social institutions.

American help, which will satisfy the broad demands of these needs of our fatherland, will leave us very grateful.

All the Turkish nation will know how to defend the honor, rights and frontiers of the fatherland when it is necessary. In preparation for this duty we are obliged to spend half our yearly income on national defense.

Within the idea of the indivisibility and inseparability of world security, which was very well defined by President Truman, it was a very proper thing, for practical purposes a perfect necessity inspired by the actual situation, which made our ally, England, call on America for help and to grant this was a noble and correct action.

How China Reacts.

Shanghai, March 13 (A. P.).—President Truman's call to America to halt the world march of Communism was expected by Chinese observers today to boost morale in the government areas of China. They believed, however, that the United States still would hesitate to help Chiang Kai-shek's government, now at civil war with the Chinese Communists, but they predicted that the President's speech was likely to stimulate an idea now slowly crystalizing of forming an anti-Communist coalition in China under Chiang's leadership.

Generally expressed here was the view that the United States will take a stronger stand in the future against any form of Russian encroachment anywhere in China, including Manchuria and Sinkiang.

New York, March 13—NBC said tonight the British Broadcasting Company had heard the Moscow Radio, in a broadcast beamed to Greece, denounce President Truman's proposal for American aid for Greece and Turkey as "a danger to the peace and harmony among the nations of the world."

Mr. Truman's speech, the Moscow Radio continued, was the signal for a new "wave of pro-fascistic government terror against the democratic elements" and it charged that "600 Greek democrats" had been arrested on Greek Government orders in the past few days.

Editorial Comment On Talk

American newspapers took varying attitudes toward President Truman's proposal for aiding Greece and Turkey, but most editorial columns agreed on the importance of what the Omaha World-Herald termed "the most breath-taking statement ever made in time of peace by any American President or statesman."

"With restraint but great clarity, President Truman explained the responsibilities thrust upon the United States by the rise of an aggressive Communist state in Russia and the coincident decline of Great Britain as a world power," said the Detroit Free Press.

Issue "Wide And Serious"

The Boston Globe said "the issue is wide and serious with commitments in a region where America has not had them before. Congress and the country will do well to approach the question in a spirit which assures earnest deliberation, vigorous study and thorough debate."

The New York Times expressed the belief that "the American people stand behind this warning" to Russia "to desist from the physical aggression and the diplomatic attrition that have characterized her policy ever since the war and to abide by the Charter of the United Nations as the only safe basis of a tolerable peace."

The Ohio State Journal, in Columbus, said that "through the tangle of these developments may be discerned a vast shifting of the burden of power and responsibility, chiefly from England to us. . . . For the United States to continue on this road will only drag us down with all the rest."

Viewed As "War Speech"

President Truman, the Chicago Tribune said, "made as cold a war speech yesterday against Russia as any President has ever made except on the occasion of going before Congress to ask for a declaration of war."

The Boston Herald said the President "undoubtedly performed a great service for Secretary Marshall who surely needed this strong backing at home. . . . But Congress and the people will want to know a great deal more about this new departure in American foreign policy."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer said: "The inference which runs through the President's talk that the present governments of Greece and Turkey are safely democratic both in name and in fact, and that we can promote the broad aims of democracy by supporting them, is hardly supported by the facts."

"This Blunt Challenge"

The New York Herald Tribune said the President was willing to make "this blunt challenge" as "the best means to that settlement between Russia and the West on which the future hangs."

"He means," said the New York Daily Mirror, "that this country says to Soviet Russia that this war was not fought to make Russia master of Europe."

The San Francisco Chronicle said the President "was correct in making common cause between the American people . . . and other countries of the world where our kind of freedom still seems to have a fighting chance to pull through."

"Direct Intervention"

The Baltimore Sun called the speech "the most candid official description that we have yet had of the present lamentable state of relations between Soviet Russia and the United States."

The Richmond Times Dispatch said: "The American people are not being told what is involved in this matter over the long pull."

"It is a sweepingly new American foreign policy," observed the Miami (Fla.) Herald. "It commits us to direct intervention in the affairs of foreign governments."

The St. Louis Globe Democrat said: "It is either a free world or a world dominated by totalitarianism—and the United States is the only country that can tip the scales for a free world."

Democratic Or Fascist?

The Chicago Sun asked for assurances "that we are really helping a free and democratic Greece and not a Fascist Greece."

"Let the Congress back him to the limit," said the Portland Press Herald.

The President's policy, said Frank E. Gannett, publisher, in the Rochester (N.Y.) Democrat and Chronicle, "might conceivably mean ultimately war with the Soviets. . . . We must check the spread of communism."

"Which do you prefer?" asked the New York Daily News, noncommittally, after presenting the President's proposal and another which would let communism spread unimpeded so that "the peoples of these Red laboratory countries will find in a few years that communism is a fraud and a phony." It credited the latter suggestion to Joseph P. Kennedy, former Ambassador to Great Britain.

"Our Own Interests"

"The United States," said the Philadelphia Inquirer, "is not called upon to support commitments of the British Empire indiscriminately . . . but we are called upon in our own interests to lead the hosts of human freedom and democratic government."

The situation calls for "fighting fire with fire," said the Portland Oregonian.

The Portland (Ore.) Journal said: "Russia is not given cause of war by American effort to save the majority government in Greece and Turkey from imposition of the will of armed minorities."

The Jacksonville (Fla.) Times expects debate on the matter "to clarify America's postwar foreign policy, something that has been needed throughout the Truman Administration."

MAR 1947

Might Prevent War

The Buffalo Courier-Express said the President's plan might prevent war "in the region where the danger of war is greatest right now."

The alternative to the President's proposal, said the Atlanta Constitution, is "allowing the slow flood of communism, which thrives on political chaos and national hunger and insecurity, to have its free way."

The St. Louis Post Dispatch said the President's address "committed the nation to all-out diplomatic action, just as a declaration of shooting war must necessarily follow when the President asks for it."

Financial aid for Turkey and Greece, said the Los Angeles Times, "would be a down payment, the first premium on an insurance policy."

The Memphis Commercial Appeal agreed with the President that while his proposal was serious, "the alternative is more serious."

Third World War Seen

An editorial in PM, of New York, written by Max Lerner for the editors, said the President's proposal would "make America the underwriter of every unstable government in the world which is capable of going Communist" and added that "President Truman asks us to engage in a course which can only mean unforeseeable military adventures and, even, in the end, a third world war."

The Christian Science Monitor of Boston said: "In making so far-reaching a decision as the President now calls for, Americans will do well to examine all the possibilities of aiding democracy. One of these is to hold strategic areas within the democratic world's global defense system. . . .

"But another and quite as important is to assure that the presence of American influence will help rather than hinder internal reforms where these can lead to more freedom and genuine representation of the people."

"Distinction Is Vital"

The Washington Post said Mr. Truman had avoided throwing down the gage to Russia "by advancing the universal principle—the principle of freedom—by way of opposing the forces of disruption. . . .

"Russia is not singled out, nor is communism. In the context of our key policy, the aggression we will oppose is totalitarian, not specifically communism. The distinction is vital."

The Washington Evening Star, however, viewed the situation as primarily a test between this country and Russia and said the things Mr. Truman asked "should be granted, and without delay. But . . . we should not beguile ourselves with the belief that $400,000,000 for Greece and Turkey can buy what we are seeking."

The New York World Telegram referred to President Truman's address as "brave and admirably candid" and added:

"Yet his proposal will and should be debated in Congress and in the country before the decision is made. We hope the debate will develop a maximum of light and a minimum of heat. . . .

May Decide Our Destiny

"This is a question as grave as any that ever has confronted the American people, and the answer to it may, for better or worse, decide our own ultimate destiny as a free people."

Congress "cannot refuse to grant the aid which the President recommends," the New York Post said. "That, on the facts, is its duty. It is also the duty of Congress to ensure that this aid will be given in the way best suited to achieve its purpose."

The New York Sun said that "if the people of the United States are to walk a new road only the beginning of which is open to view, their representatives in Congress are certain to insist upon fuller disclosure of how we came to set foot upon this road, how long a march is proposed, what stopping place there is, if any."

Big 4 Deputies Bar Austrian 'Brass'

London, March 13 (AP)—The Moscow radio said the Big Four Foreign Ministers' deputies agreed today to bar from Austria's peacetime army any officer who had held the rank of colonel or higher in the wartime army.

The deputies met to continue drafting an Austria peace treaty.

The broadcast said Britain and the United States opposed a French proposal to bar Austrian officers "who served in the Fascist army and were more than twice promoted."

Soviet Deputy Feodor Gousey, supporting the plan, said it would contribute to the democratization of the Austrain forces, the report said.

The British deputy, Viscount Hood, was quoted as saying it was impossible to divide the Austrains into bad and good.

The French deputy, Jacques Camille Paris, presided.

The deputies for Germany "continued their discussion of the procedure for the preparation of the peace treaty with Germany," the Moscow radio reported. Their chairman was Maurice Couve de Murville, of France.

The radio said Russia had renewed a plea for Albanian participation in drafting the German peace treaty.

British Credit to Poles Is Issue in Trade Talks

LONDON, March 13 (AP).—A spokesman for the Board of Trade said today that current trade negotiations with Poland had reached a "rather delicate stage" and that the leader of a Polish delegation had returned to Warsaw to consult his government.

Dr. T. Lychowski, head of the Polish trade delegation to London, is expected to return to the trade talks soon, he said. Meanwhile, discussions are continuing.

"The chief difficulty," the spokesman said, "is that the Poles need credit. They hope to import more from Britain than they can export—and to pay the difference, they need credit."

"Britain won't say whether she will give credit, and it has been agreed there will be no statement from either side until a decision is reached on this," he added.

SEVEN NATIONS ACCUSE SOFIA

MAR 1947

British Say U. S. Joins in Diplomats' Protest.

London, March 13 (A. P.).—A Foreign Office spokesman said tonight that seven countries, including Britain and the United States, today filed a strongly-worded joint protest with the Bulgarian Government against the behavior of its militiamen toward liplomats in Sofia.

The British Government took a very serious view of Bulgarian interference in the internal affairs of the British mission in Sofia, the spokesman said. Britain, the United States, France, Sweden, Switzerland, Italy and Turkey complained individually, he continued, after their diplomats had been ordered to hand over their Bulgarian currency to the National Bank and militiamen had surrounded their missions, apparently to see that the order was carried out. The Bulgarian replies to these several complaints were received in Sofia today and were thoroughly unsatisfactory, the spokesman added, whereby the representatives of the seven countries met and drafted their new joint protest.

Britain recognized the new Bulgarian Government only last month.

Scrip Court-Martial Postponed

PARIS, March 13 (AP).—A special court-martial of three War Department civilians charged with transactions in counterfeit American military scrip was postponed today until March 18. The reason given was the "unavailability of a witness." The defendants are Alfred A. McLennon of the Bronx, Louis G. Rouniker of Milwaukee and John W. Chandler, for thirty years a resident of Paris.

2 Delegates Fight In Paris Assembly

Paris, March 13 (AP)—Two members of the French National Assembly engaged in a slugging match on the legislature's floor today during a rectic session marked by the discovery of three Viet Nam agents among the visitors' gallery crowd.

Maurice Schumann, leader of the Popular Republican Movement (MRP.), and Radical-Socialist Deputy Romanet leaped to their feet and traded several blows.

Earlier, the session was thrown into tumult when the Viet Nam's delegate in Paris and chief of Insurgent President Ho Chi-minh's propaganda services in France, Dyung Bac-mai, was spotted in the gallery with two aides.

Guards held Dyung and the other Viet-Namese while assembly executives debated whether Dyung should be arrested, expelled from the gallery or permitted to remain. The session, meanwhile, was suspended.

The executives decided to permit Dyung to remain, evoking an uproar leading to the fisticuffs between Schuman and Romanet.

After Schuman and Romanet were separated, Presiding Officer Herriot interrupted the session a second time while colleagues endeavored to patch up the quarrel between the two. Finally, both men consented to shake hands and the sesion was resumed.

Spaak To Form Belgian Cabinet

Brussels, March 13 (AP)—Paul-Henri Spaak, president of the United Nations General Assembly, was charged by Prince Regent Charles today to form a new government.

Spaak, a Socialist, is a former Premier and former Foreign Minister.

The coalition Cabinet of Camille Huysmans resigned this week after its Communist members withdrew.

Germans In Denmark

Copenhagen, March 13 (AP)—Military authorities in the United States zone of Germany have notified Denmark they are willing to absorb 12,000 Germans who took refuge in this country, it was announced officially tonight.

Governor of Carinthia Resigns

KLAGENFURT, Austria, March 13 (AP)—Hans Piesch, Governor of Carinthia, who was accused by Yugoslavia in the council of deputy Foreign Ministers in London of being a fomer Nazi, resigned yesterday. The Western powers refused to accept the Yugoslav protest. Herr Piesch, in resigning, reiterated that he never had been a member of the Nazi party.

M'NARNEY SAYS WORK IN REICH HAS JUST BEGUN

Sees 4-Power Agreement on Unification of the Nation as Solution.

CITES PROGRESS IN U.S. ZONE

Stresses Remaining Tasks for Stabilization of Germany in His Final Report.

Frankfurt, March 13 (A. P.).—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney declared today that after two years of military occupation "the major tasks are only begun" in Germany and cannot be completed without Four-Power agreement on unification of the country.

In his final report as Military Governor of the American Occupation Zone, McNarney emphasized that one of the chief remaining tasks was to "re-educate the German people to cause them to desire to live and govern themselves by democratic principles." Another task, he said, was to "establish a peaceful and stable German economy which will allow the German people to exist free of the constant fear of hunger and cold now prevalent. We must work ceaselessly for a quadripartite agreement on all issues which will contribute toward this end," he added.

The recent economic merger of the British and American zones is "a step in the right direction," McNarney declared, "but the rehabilitation of a peaceful Germany has and will be seriously impeded as long as four-Power agreement in the basic political, economical and financial fields is lacking.

Replies to Molotov.

"Experience to date," McNarney continued, "has demonstrated that such an agreement is beyond the power of the Allied Control Authority in Germany. Our basic disagreements can only be resolved on a governmental level."

McNarney, who will retire as military governor on Saturday and be succeeded by Lieut.-Gen. Lucius D. Clay, told a news conference today that he "completely rejects the accusation" of Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov that the United States was maintaining German military formations in its occupation zone.

No Troops for Greece.

McNarney also said that the American Army in Germany could furnish no troops to Greece should soldiers be sent there as a result of President Truman's address.

"We can furnish none," he said. "Our authorized troop strength is only what is considered essential for this area."

Although asserting that substantial industrial recovery has been achieved in the American zone, McNarney said that even "the maximum possible industrial progress in the United States zone alone would not mean the revival of the German economy to the level envisaged by the Potsdam Declaration to be the lowest on which Germany could survive peaceably. That level will be achieved only when Germany is treated as a single economic unit," he said.

"The lack of Four-Power agreement on basic financial reforms has also impeded the economic recovery of Germany," he added. "There has been no common financial policy to control inflation, to revise the debt structure and to place the nation on a sound financial footing.

"The negative aspects of our occupational policies—demilitarization, deNazification, decartelization and decentralization—are well on the way toward accomplishment," McNarney said.

Cites Major Achievements.

He listed these among major achievements of the American Zone:

"During 1946 military government fulfilled its policy of turning back to the Germans themselves responsibilities for self rules, until now only minimum supervision and control is exercised.

"We have introduced democratic processes into the civil service; we have encouraged the free and extensive growth of trade and labor unions.

"We have restored to the Germans the basic freedoms which have long been lost to them—freedom of thought and the freedoms of discussion and expression.

"The German school system has been partially re-established with nearly all children of compulsory school age again enrolled, despite lamentable overcrowding of classrooms and serious difficulties with regard to fuel, trained and acceptable teachers and suitable textbooks.

"No underground movements of more than local importance were discovered," McNarney said in reporting a "satisfactory security situation."

"However," he emphasized, "these are only the preliminary measures. The major tasks are as yet only begun. We must remain in occupation until a freely elected German government has demonstrated not only its desire but its ability to create a new Germany, one which can take its place among the peace-loving nations of the world," concluded McNarney.

He recently estimated that another ten to fifteen years of occupation would be necessary.

for labor, but all but a few prisoners of war will be released by the end of this month. All will be discharged by July 1." McNarney said 1,000,000 war prisoners had already been released.

McNarney, who will be succeeded by Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, said the rehabilitation of Germany had only started and would be impeded "as long as a four-power agreement in the basic political, economic and financial fields is lacking."

He said experience had demonstrated that "such an agreement is beyond the power of the Allied Control Council in Germany" and must be achieved on a governmental level.

He predicted the American and British zones of Germany would be "self-sustaining" by 1950, but said Germany should be occupied for ten to fifteen years.

No GI's In Germany Available For Greek Aid: M'Narney

MAR 1947

Frankfurt, March 13 (AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, who retires Saturday as United States commander in Germany, said today that the American Army in Germany could furnish no troops to Greece, should soldiers be sent there as a result of President Truman's address.

"We can furnish none," he said. "Our authorized troop strength is only what is considered essential for this area."

He sharply disputed charges made by Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the foreign ministers' conference Tuesday that the United States was maintaining German military formations in its zone.

No PW's After July 1

"We maintain no auxiliary formations in Germany," he told his parting news conference. "We use certain German prisoners of war to Greece if American soldiers are ordered there as a result of President Truman's plea to Congress for aid to Greece and Turkey, General Joseph T. McNarney said today. In response to a question at a news conference he declared: "We can furnish none. Our authorized troop strength is only what is considered essential for this area."

General McNarney, who will be replaced Saturday by Lieutenant General Lucius M. Clay as American military governor in Germany, said also that he "completely rejects the accusation" of Soviet Foreign Minister Viacheslav M. Molotov that the United States was maintaining German military formations in its occupation zone. Mr. Molotov made the charge

Tuesday at the Moscow meeting of the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers.

"We maintain no auxiliary formations of Germans," General McNarney said. "We use certain German prisoners of war for labor, and all but a few of the prisoners of war will be released by the end of this month. All will be discharged by July 1."

MAR 1947

Million P. W.s Released

Since the end of the war, he said, the United States has discharged 1,000,000 German prisoners of war, placing it "far ahead of the other Allies."

Asked about the thousands of Polish displaced persons who have been trained as guards and for labor squads, he replied: "We have every intention of maintaining as many Polish guard units as we need, subject to one thing—that any individual guard can be repatriated any time he asks."

He predicted the economically unified American and British occupation zones in Germany would be self-sustaining by 1950. He described the discipline and morale of the American occupation troops as satisfactory, and said they are rapidly approaching the quality of the peace-time regular army.

German newspaper men present were told the Germans were to be "commended for the way they endured shortages and the severe winter."

"But," General McNarney added, "the German people cannot expect the occupying powers to continue feeding you unless you put forward your utmost efforts."

Issues Final Report

Prior to the news conference, he issued a final report as military governor in Germany in which he declared that two years of Allied Control Council rule had demonstrated the powerlessness of the council to achieve peaceful rehabilitation of Germany without a four-power accord on basic political, economic and financial policies.

"Our basic disagreements can only be resolved on a governmental level," he said.

Socialists in U. S. Zone Cool to Red Unity Bid

BERLIN, March 13 (AP)—American Military Government political officials said today that leaders of the Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity party (S. E. D.) from the Russian occupation zone had met with little success in efforts to promote a Social Democratic-Communist party merger in the American zone.

The officials said that Wilhelm Pieck and Otto Grotewohl, Communist co-chairmen of the Socialist Unity party, who are now on a speaking tour in the American zone, had sought to arrange conferences with Social Democratic leaders to discuss deals for a merger and for co-operation with the Communists. The officials said: "Everywhere they have been given the cold shoulder by responsible Social Democrats."

The Socialist Unity party was formed in the Russian zone by a fusion of the Communists and Socialists. The party is not authorized in the western zones.

American officials said they had no objection to a Communist-Socialist merger in their zone but would insist, if one ever was attempted, that it be with the consent of the party membership as freely expressed at caucuses.

German Carrier Said To Be At Swinemuende

Berlin, March 13 (AP)—Persons who have visited the Baltic port of Swinemuende said today the Graf Zeppelin, 32,000-ton former German aircraft carrier which the Russians have agreed to destroy, is lying at anchor off that port.

These informants said the Luetzow, German pocket battleship, also was at the port, which is in the Soviet zone of occupation. Both vessels are in the class referred to in the Foreign Ministers Council meeting in Moscow yesterday by Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary.

Heads W. A. C.'s in Europe

FRANKFURT AM MAIN, March 13 (AP).—Captain Sue Lynch, of San Francisco, became deputy director of the Women's Army Corps (W. A. C.) in the European theater today, succeeding Major Ruby E. Herman, of Newburgh, N. Y., who was named an assistant inspector general in the United States Army headquarters here.

Rumors Of Bulgar Crisis Circulate In Turkey

Istanbul, March 13 (AP)—Rumors of a crisis in Bulgaria circulated in Turkey today in connection with reported movements of foreign diplomatic personnel.

Usually reliable sources said a United States diplomatic courier, stopped at the Bulgarian frontier, was told by a guard, "There is a terrific crisis—I can't say more."

Unconfirmed reports meanwhile said the French diplomatic mission to Sofia had left that Bulgarian capital and might reach Istanbul today. News dispatches earlier had reported a French protest against Bulgarian treatment.

U.S. Courier Barred

The United States courier, informants said, was refused admission to Bulgaria, despite his visa, by authorities who declared they were under instructions in his case.

These sources said that a Pole on the same train, identified as a member of the Tehran Polish legation, was allowed to enter Bulgaria with his wife and child after authorities had telephoned Sofia.

They said the American returned here from Svilengrad, where the incident had occurred early this week, and left last night for Cairo.

Turk Border Closed

Bulgaria closed her frontier with Turkey for ten days beginning last Thursday. Sofia dispatches two days later said the step was to forestall money smuggling.

Vatan, Istanbul newspaper, quoted diplomatic sources today as saying that Bulgaria and Yugoslavia were forming a southern Slav brotherhood which would later be extended to take in Albania.

Second Team Blocked

ATHENS, March 13 (AP)—A United Nations investigating team was reported to be encountering difficulty today in keeping a secret rendezvous with "General" Markos Vifiades, reputed guerrilla chieftain, in the mountains of northern Greece. Dispatches from the north said Greek troop movements were preventing contact and expressed doubt the team would be able to meet the guerrilla leader to get his side of the story.

The team seeking out General Vifiades reached Kozane, but its next scheduled stop was not known. En route the commission's twenty-three-vehicle train passed a 100-truck convoy escorted by a light tank, armored cars and soldiers on the road skirting guerrilla territory.

Press reports of guerrilla activities said a band of 500 isolated in the Mount Vermion district was being machine-gunned by aircraft, and two bands totaling twenty-five had been wiped out near Larissa and Xanthe. Twenty-six more were reported to have been killed east of Kilkis.

Two guerrilla attacks on trains were reported. One train was mined near Karditsa and two persons killed and thirty-seven wounded. Gendarmes were reported to have been killed in another guerrilla attack on a train between Drama and Alexandropolis.

Slavs Relent, Let In U.N. Probe

Athens, March 13 (AP)—Dispatches from northern Greece said the Yugoslav liaison officer had notified the United Nations Balkan Investigating Commission today that permission had been granted for one of its teams to enter Yugoslavia, from which the team had been barred yesterday.

The commission was reported to have held an emergency session last night in which United States, British and French delegates protested at what they termed "sabotage" of the commission's task.

No Order, Slavs Say

A report from Phlorina said yesterday that Yugoslav authorities refused to let the team into the country on the ground the Government had not instructed them in regard to it.

The team waited almost two hours, this report said, and then gave up plans to visit the village of Draga, about a mile inside the Yugoslav frontier, for an investigation of charges that guerrillas had formed there for raids into Greece.

Meanwhile, Kozane dispatches reported that another United Nations team traveling west toward the Macedonian Mountains was getting an enthusiastic reception in towns and villages along the way.

YUGOSLAV BAR EASED FOR U.N.

Belgrade Reported Admitting Inquiry Commission

Athens, March 13 (AP)—Yugoslav authorities were reported to have relented today and permitted a United Nations inquiry commission team to enter Yugoslavia in pursuit of its investigation of conditions on Greece's northern frontiers.

Another team was reported encountering difficulty, however, in keeping a secret rendezvous with "General Markos," reputed guerrilla chieftain, in the mountains of northern Greece. Dispatches from the north said Greek troop movements were preventing contact and expressed doubt the team would be able to meet the guerrilla leader to get his side of the story. Markos is wanted on murder charges by Greek authorities.

Had Been Barred At Border

Yugoslav border officials yesterday refused to permit the Yugoslav-bound team to cross the border despite the heated protests of team officials.

The commission held an emergency session at Salonika last night at which American, British and French delegates declared the Yugoslav refusal was "sabotage" of the United Nations work.

Today, Salonika dispatches said, the Yugoslav liaison officer notified the commission that permission for entry had been granted.

500 Machine Gunned

The team seeking out Markos reached Kozane, but its next scheduled stop was not known. En route the commission's 23-vehicle train passed a 100-truck convoy escorted by a light tank, armored cars and soldiers on the road skirting guerrilla territory.

Press reports of guerrilla activities said a band of 500 isolated in the Mount Vermion district was being machine-gunned by aircraft, and two bands totaling 25 wiped out near Larissa and Xanthe. Twenty-six more were reported killed east of Kilkis.

Two guerrilla attacks on trains were reported. One train was mined near Karditsa and two persons killed and 37 wounded. Five gendarmes were reported killed in another guerrilla attack on a train between Drama and Alexandropolis.

Premier Cites Friendly Interest Of Poland

Warsaw, March 13 (AP)—Premier Joseph Cyrankiewicz declared today that Poland "has a deep desire to have the best possible relations with the United States and Britain, and all who know us understand our slow, difficult but steady way to democracy."

"We have nothing to conceal from our foreign friends here in Poland. We did not conceal political difficulties from you nor shall we conceal economic ones," the Premier told his first press conference.

The Premier said he had not yet seen the text of Truman's address asserting a totalitarian regime had been forced upon the Polish people.

Cyrankiewicz said he intended to observe "good manners" in commenting on statements of the heads of other governments, but that he would comment "on the margin" that the "semi-Fascist" Polish regime that existed from 1939 "did not hamper political and economic relations with the United States."

Two China Political Factions Deadlocked

MAR 1947

Nanking, March 13 (AP)—The struggle between Conservatives and Moderate Liberals for control of the Kuomintang's policies is expected to reach a showdown Saturday.

On that date the central executive committee of Chiang Kai-shek's governing party holds its annual plenary meeting.

Latest developments indicate that the Moderates are temporarily on top, but political observers report that the military group is teamed solidly with the arch-Conservative wing led by the Chen brothers, Li-fa and Kuo-fu.

The apparent selection of Gen. Chang Chun as the generalissimo's right-hand man and suspension of the Chen clique's mouthpiece, the newspaper Ta Kang Pao, indicate that the Moderates have the upper hand.

Chang is not a part of the military group but is bracketed among the Moderates along with Sun Fo, son of the republic's founder.

Observers say the two factions forgot their fight temporarily and concentrated on ousting T. V. Soong as Premier last month, then resumed their struggle for control of the Kuomintang.

The Government must present its record for the year to the Kuomintang committeemen, and it is an unhappy one.

It has failed to achieve even a token reorganization of the National Government, due partly to the hesitancy of Democratic Socialist leaders to commit themselves, informed sources said.

On the battlefronts capture of the Shantung province rail city of Kiaohsien by Communist forces was reported by the Chinese press as Red troops in Manchuria again threatened strategic Tehhwei.

Meanwhile, a delegation returning from Formosa reported anarchy in all of the island except Taihoku, the capital, which was described as a "dead city" as residents huddled in their homes.

Kiaohsien lies 45 miles northwest of the port of Tsingtao, where Government troops rushed preparations to meet an expected Red assault.

CHINESE REDS CAPTURE CITY

eNw Offensive Reported Directed At Tehhwei

Nanking, March 13 (AP)—Resurgent Communists were credited by the Chinese press today with capture of Kiaohsien in Shantung province and a new offensive directed at Tehhwei in Manchuria.

Previous Government reports had described the Communists' Shantung drive as slackening while National troops pursued the Manchurian enemy northward in a route from Tehhwei.

Kiaohsien, 45 miles by rail northwest of the important Shantung port of Tsingtao, has been the scene of confused fighting for a fortnight.

Tawenkou Battleground

Other Chinese press reports said that deeper in Shantung the town of Tawenkou, 50 miles south of Tsinan, had changed hands eight times and still was in the midst of heavy battle.

Government circles blamed the spread of fighting in that province on national commanders who, they said, had employed poor strategy despite their superiority in men and equipment.

The Manchurian turnabout followed Government claims of a major victory at Tehhwei on March 3.

Tehhwei would be a useful

30. 24- 8467

jumping-off point for a later attack on Changchun, Manchurian capital, 50 miles to the southwest.

Formosa Reports Negative

Reports from Formosa, troubled island province off the east coast of China, were largely negative. A five-member delegation of Formosans who took a quick air trip there returned to Nanking and told correspondents that Government authorities had confined them to hotel rooms on the grounds of personal safety.

They said there was "anarchy" all over the island except in Taihoku, the capital, which was a dead city.

Chinese Reds Capture City

NANKING, March 13 (AP).—Capture of the Shantung Province rail city of Kiaohsien by Communist forces was reported by the Chinese press today, as the Communists in Manchuria again threatened strategic Tehhwei, where the government claimed a great victory on March 3.

Kiaohsien, which had been under Communist attack for days, lies forty-five miles northwest of the port city of Tsingtao, where government troops rushed preparations to meet an expected Communist assault.

Government circles attributed the spread of fighting in Shantung to poor strategy by Nationalist commanders, who had superiority in numbers and equipment.

Nationalist commander at Peiping appeared surprised at the speed and intensity of Communist General Lin Piao's switch from retreat to attack in Manchuria. The Communists, who only a few days ago had been in swift retreat northward, wheeled sharply and advanced to the approaches of Tehhwei, fifty miles northeast of Changchun, Manchuria's capital. Capture of Tehhwei, a key point on the Changchun-Harbin rail line, would provide them with a springboard for an attack on Changchun.

Portuguese Envoy Sees Chiang

NANKING, March 13 (AP).—Jaoa Debarros Ferreira, Portugal's first post-war Minister to China, presented his credentials to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek today and exchanged felicitations upon the long friendship between the two nations, which dates from the sixteenth century.

2 TRAINS WRECKED IN PALESTINE BY TERRORIST BOMBS

Crewman Killed, British Officer Injured in New Violence Outbreak.

2 JEEPS BLASTED

Troops, Underground Gang Engage in Brief Battle in Tel Aviv.

JERUSALEM, Friday, March 14—Explosions wrecked two trains and two jeeps in various parts of Palestine last night, killing one railroad crewman and injuring a British officer.

Authorities also reported a brief battle between British troops and a Jewish underground gang in the Tel Aviv martial law zone.

Official reports said that both the reported casualties were the result of the derailing of a freight train seven miles south of Jerusalem on the Jaffa line. There were unconfirmed reports that a second crewman had died from injuries received in the wreck.

Oil Train Derailed

A short time earlier, an oil train was derailed by an explosion on the Jerusalem-Haifa main line near Petahtikvah, about 53 miles north of Jerusalem. The explosion occurred on a hill, derailing half the train and sending the other half plunging down the grade.

There were no casualties in the wrecking by roadmines of the two jeeps assigned to British army public relations near Tel Aviv and the attackers of the military cordoned area near Ramatgan fled before the British guards could counter attack, an official report stated.

The derailed oil train also was under brief small arms attack, but its crew and guards escaped injury.

(An official announcement at Nicosia, Cyprus, today said five Jews and one British soldier were injured in a demonstration by illegal Jewish immigrants being held at a camp near there last night.

The announcement said that two Jews were arrested on charges of attempted escape and handed over to civil police and that shortly afterward about 200 of the illegal immigrants, who had been permitted to pass from their own camp to another nearby for a social visit, demonstrated on the road and stoned the British military guard. The Jews withdrew when the troops opened fire, wounding five of the demonstrators.)

78 Terrorists Seized

The Palestine government announced today that widespread police and military operations in the past fortnight had netted 78 "known terrorists," including 15 members of the Stern gang and 12 members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi underground.

A police official said one of those arrested was a "man we have sought for a long time" but denied any were of the Stern gang or Irgun high commands.

78 Terrorists Held

Last night the Palestine Government announced that widespread police and military operations in the past fortnight had netted 78 "known terrorists," including fifteen members of the Stern Gang and twelve members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi underground.

A police official said one of those arrested was a "man we have sought for a long time" but denied any were of the Stern Gang or Irgun high commands.

Notable in the announcement was the statement that "a member of the Jewish community" helped bring about some of the arrests, and that "similar co-operation" by Jews had aided in the detention of others.

The communiqué slapped the wrists of the Jewish Agency and Jewish National Council, who recently refused to "inform" on terrorists, however.

An officer of Hagana asserted it had "planned and executed" the attempt of the refugee ship Susanna to foil the British immigration blockade and added it was only the first of an "armada" of such ships headed for Palestine.

700 Deported

The officer said that 300 of the passengers of the Susanna who made their way safely ashore after it was beached off the southern Palestine coast were now a part of the Jewish community in the Holy Land.

The British, however, said the deportation ship Empire Rival left at noon for Cyprus with more than 700 refugees from the Susanna aboard, including three stretcher cases. Approximately 800 were reported aboard the ship when it ran aground off Gaza yesterday.

Reliable informants said that the British put 210 Palestinian Jews aboard the Empire Rival and held them for two hours while they examined their claims to being rightful Palestinian residents. They were among hundreds of Jews in southern Palestine who rushed to the beaching scene and tried to help the refugees ashore. Military authorities said they "deliberately mixed" with the refugees, and were thus rounded up.

Jews Who Fled Ship Reported Uncaptured

Jerusalem, March 13 (AP)—An officer of Hagana, largest and most moderate of the Jewish underground groups in Palestine, declared today that 300 passengers from the beached refugee ship Susanna had made their way safely ashore "and are now members of Yishuv," the Jewish community in Palestine.

The claim was issued while the British Army was busy in Haifa transferring approximately 400 other illegal immigrants from the Susanna to the deportation ship Empire Rival, which is to take them to Cyprus internment camps.

Moving 100 By Breeches Buoy

At the same time, a Government announcement said about 100 other Susanna passengers—most of them old and sick—were being brought off the beached vessel near Gaza, in southern Palestine, by breeches buoy.

The Hagana officer said in a clandestine interview that his organization had "planned and executed" the beaching of the small ship on the barren coastline of southern Palestine and that, "except for a disastrous piece of bad luck, we would have gotten them all ashore."

Explains Bad Luck

He explained that an unexpected shift of an army installation thwarted plans "which had been made for months." Army officers at the scene yesterday said many of the passengers ran squarely into the army's arms on landing yesterday.

The Hagana officer declined to elaborate on details of the plans used and refused to comment on how the tiny vessel managed to elude the British Navy's blockade of Palestine waters. He said only: "We were able to help them some by keeping them advised of conditions here."

"This is the first of many," he added: "You can expect an armada and they'll all try to reach shore."

Probing Gun Smuggling

Toronto, Ontario, March 13 (AP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police officials here said today that a reported plot to smuggle Bren machine guns from Canada to Palestine by way of the United States was "a possibility" under investigation here and at Niagara Falls, Ontario.

They said the investigation stemmed from the arrest last month of two men alleged to have had gun parts hidden in their automobile when they sought to cross the border into the United States. The men now are in the United States, awaiting trial on charges of smuggling the parts across the border.

The RCMP said nothing in the investigations in the Toronto area had linked the War Assets Corporation, which one report said sold the guns to a Toronto man, with the case.

Tel Aviv Bank Robbed

Tel Aviv, March 13 (AP)—Five men robbed a Jewish credit bank in the heart of Tel Aviv today. The loot was unofficially but reliably set at £14,000 ($56,000).

Border Villages Raided Again In The Punjab

Lahore, India, March 13 (AP)—Villages in the Punjab near the border of the predominantly Moslem northwest frontier province were raided again today, according to an official communiqué, which described conditions in the strife-torn Punjab as still "unsettled and unsatisfactory."

Raids by armed bands from the northwest frontier province into the Punjab began last week when communal clashes of Hindus and Sikhs against Moslems spread from Lahore throughout the province.

Despite strong reinforcements of troops and police, houses were set afire in the Rawalpindi and Campbellpur districts near the Kashmir border in the north and looting and raiding continued in three out of seven divisions in the Multan district, the communiqué said.

Australia Acts on World Bank

CANBERRA, Australia, March 13 (AP).—Prime Minister J. B. Chifley introduced in the Australian House of Representatives today a bill proposing that this country become a member of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank.

200 Quartered In Kenya

Nairobi, Kenya Colony, March 13 (AP)—The Government of this British colony announced today that 200 Jews, transported here from Eritrea, were now safely quartered in Camp Gilgil, 80 miles northwest of Nairobi.

The Kenya Government agreed to admit the detainers after secret consultations of the Executive Council and new legislation was adopted in a special fifteen-minute session of the Legislature.

The Jews arrived on the British transport Empire Heywood. A British steamer which has been used for transporting uncertified Jewish immigrants from Palestine to Cyprus.

[The identity of the 200 Jews was not specified.]

McNutt to Sign Pact Today

MANILA, Friday, March 14 (AP)—The long-debated agreement granting military bases to the United States for the next ninety-nine years will be signed today. Vice President Elpidio Quirino will sign for the Philippines and Ambassador Paul V. McNutt for the United States. The agreement calls for twenty-three bases. Mr. McNutt plans to leave by plane tomorrow via India and Europe for the United States, where he will retire from the diplomatic service.

SENATE LEADERS SEEK ACTION ON PLAN BY MARCH 31

House Group Blocks Sending of Lend-Lease Shipment to Russia.

CALLED 'APPEASEMENT'

Dirksen Offers Bill Curbing Mailing Privileges of Red Organizations.

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP) Senate Republican chiefs signalled today for a speedy decision on President Truman's proposal to bolster Greece and Turkey against Communism. They will seek action by March 31, when the British plan to retrench.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), chairman of the GOP policy committee, told reporters March 31 is "a firm date" by which the administration wants Congress to complete action, although the President mentioned no deadline yesterday in his message. That date is the end of the British fiscal year.

March 31 Deadline

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, also set March 31 for a deadline in announcing plans for his group to hold public hearings. He suggested that the House Foreign Affairs Committee hold hearings as well.

Open Hearings Sought On Greek Aid to Keep Public Fully Informed

The plan is for the House to act first, however, on the proposals—providing $400,000,000 cash and authorizing indirect military help. What the House does, therefore, will largely determine whether the deadline is met, despite the plans laid by the Senate leaders.

Three other issues in the field of foregn affairs claimed attention in the House today:

1. Rep. Taber (R-NY), chairman of the Appropriations committee, announced it has rejected a State Department request for authority to send Russia $25,000,000 worth of oil refining equipment procured for the Soviets under the lend-lease program but not yet shipped. The department held the United States is required to make good on the contract but Taber told newsmen that "we can't do such a thing—that's appeasement."

2. A bill to repeal the act which set up the civilian atomic energy commission for domestic control of atomic developments and operations was introduced by Rep. Landis (R.-Ind.). He would restore full control to the military in view of the foreign situation.

3. Rep. Dirksen (R.-Ill.) offered a bill to remove mailing privileges from organizations found by the attorney general to be Communist fronts unless they label their literature and other mail for what it is.

Taft, without expressing his own views on the President's proposal, said the policy group agreed to lay before a conference of the 51 Republican senators tomorrow morning a program which would allot the last week in March to its consideration.

Seeks Open Hearings

With no bill yet completed, Vandenberg told a news conference after a meeting of foreign relations committee members with the Secretaries of State, War and the Navy that he is insisting that "every bit of information" about the proposed intervention in Greece and Turkey be given to the public through open House and Senate committee meetings.

"The President has courageously faced the problem of Communist aggression and I would expect Congress to support him," he said. "As to the methods and details of how this will be done, I expect Congress to reserve its right to pass its own judgment."

Taft said the policy group voted to include another international proposal—that for American adherance to the international refugee organization—in the list of legislation to be piled on a crowded calendar which will call for daily meetings of the senate, with some night sessions.

Thus far the senate has been meeting only on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, although it held the first of scheduled late sessions last night.

Portal Bills Up Today

Under the revised schedule, Taft said, the senate will take up portal pay legislation tomorrow and Saturday, the nomination of David E. Lilienthal to the atomic commission next week and the Greek-Turkey proposal the following week. He said the refugee measure and a bill to continue sugar controls would be sandwiched in.

Vandenberg said the foreign relations members considered with Secretaries Patterson and Forrestal and Acting Secretary of State Acheson questions that are likely to arise concerning the president's proposal. Presumably these involved the extent of American military aid to be extended to the Greeks and Turks, as well as provisions to be made for American supervision of expenditures in the two countries.

There already have been indications of plans to write into the authorization some restrictions on the use of the funds and men.

These may include prohibition against the use of troops other than officers as instructors, a proposal to limit aid solely to relief, and some restriction which would make the granting of aid to Greece contingent on the removal of King George from the throne.

G.O.P Policy Body Orders Daily Sessions to End Task by March 31 1947

TAFT MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

Vandenberg for Anti-Red Stand but Asks Open Hearings—Service Heads Heard.

Washington, March 13 (A. P.).—The Senate Republican policy committee today ordered daily sessions of the Senate to speed action by March 31 on legislation authorizing aid to Greece and Turkey, as well as other bills.

Senator Taft of Ohio, the chairman, told reporters that the group decided on daily meetings because he understood it is imperative for Congress to act on the proposed $400,000,000 loan to Greece and Turkey before the end of the month. The Senate has been meeting thrice weekly.

Taft added that night sessions would be held on Wednesday.

As yet, Taft has not indicated whether he intends to support President Truman's proposal for assistance to Greece and Turkey.

Vandenberg Issues Call.

Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.) earlier had called on Congress to back the President to combat "Communist aggression."

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee held a news conference after a closed meeting with secretaries Patterson and Forrestal of the War and Navy departments and Under-Secretary Acheson of the State Department.

He said he was insisting that every bit of information concerning the proposed extension of credits to the Mediterranean nations be made available to the public through open congressional hearings.

To Pass Own Judgment.

"The President has courageously faced the problem of communist aggression and I would expect Congress to support him," Vandenberg said in commenting on Mr. Truman's appeal yesterday for $400,000,000 in cash aid and indirect military help to Greece and Turkey. "As to the methods and details of how this will be done, I expect Congress to reserve its own right to pass its own judgment."

For that reason, the Senator said, he wants every question that might arise about American intervention into the trouble Mediterranean scene to be answered fully at hearings.

Congress must act, he said, because the United Nations is not prepared at this time to consider such a situation as has arisen.

Stressing that no United Nations military force has been formed which could undertake the preservation of peace, he ascribed this largely to a failure of the United States and Russia to agree.

"The difficulty has been to find common ground with Soviet representatives in this matter," he added.

Personally, Vandenberg said, he thought that "all possible emphasis" should be placed now on an attempt to get an early agreement, so that such a force could be set up.

Questioned About U. N.

When a reporter asked whether American aid to Greece and Turkey might not result in eventual destruction of the United Nations, Vandenberg said that he was glad to explain his views on that situation. He was a delegate to the San Francisco conference, which drafted the U. N. charter.

"The United Nations organization was never set up as a relief organization," he said. "It has no resources and never was expected to have any resources for such purposes. To meet such it would have to reassemble another meeting of its General Assembly, make another assessment and invoke procedures totally foreign to those for which it was set up—namely to keep the peace."

Two Ultimate Functions.

He said U. N. had "two ultimate functions.:

"First, to exhaust all Pacific measures and means.

"Second, in event of international threats to peace and security—if all pacific measures fail—that United Nations military forces will be available."

The Senator said that the charter "calls for agreements between the U. N. and member nations to create this military potential," but the "agreements never have been made because it was impossible to get action in the U. N. committee which is charged with drawing the agreement."

Vandenberg said that while he personally believed that every effort should be made to complete the United Nations organizations as contemplated by the charter, "the fact remains the U. N. does not have its second function (military force) implemented at the present time and even if it did, its use would confront the speculation of action by the Security Council."

This was a reference to possible use of a veto in Security Council action.

Hopes for Quick Action.

Today's discussion with the War, Navy and State Department officials, Vandenberg said, was in general terms, because no detailed bill yet had been offered. He again expressed hope that Congress can complete action on legislation by March 31.

To report on the military aspects of the President's proposal to help train and sustain Greek and Turkish troops, Forrestal had Vice-Admiral F. P. Sherman, deputy chief of naval operations, with him. Under-Secretary of War Kenneth C. Royall and Brig.-Gen. Miles Reber accompanied Patterson.

Vandenberg said that the session was called "to canvass the whole situation," but that any action might be delayed for some time.

"It is my understanding," he said, "that the House will be asked to act first on this legislation." He referred to measures to carry out Mr. Truman's proposals.

"The plain truth is that Soviet-American relationships are at the core of this whole program," Vandenberg declared. "Every effort should be made to terminate these controversies. This effort must occur in plain understanding of basic principles which we shall not surrender."

Asserting that the independence of Greece and Turkey must be preserved "not only for their own sakes but also in defense of peace and security for all of us," Vandenberg added that in this critical moment "the President's hands must be upheld."

Restrictions Postponed.

Some of Vandenberg's Democratic and Republican colleagues made it plain that strenuous attempts will be made to write at least some restrictions into legislation to authorize loans to the two countries. These attempts will include:

1. An effort to insert a direct prohibition against the use of American troops in either country, beyond the relatively small forces needed to train Greek and Turkish soldiers and those needed to supervise the transfer of supplies.

2. A proposal to limit any help solely to relief, thus barring the transfer of military supplies as suggested in the President's personal address to the lawmakers.

3. A move to make any aid to Greece contingent on the removal of King George from the throne.

While he proposed none of these restrictions, Taft mentioned some of them in a statement which left him—unlike Vandenberg—undecided on the President's plan.

Declaring "I do not want a war with Russia," Taft said he was not fully advised whether intervention in Greece would make such a contingency more or less probable. There could be no objection to loans to Greece for food, rehabilitation and reconstruction, he said, adding that "in the case of Turkey apparently we are merely asked to finance the Army."

"If we assume this special position in Greece and Turkey," the Ohio Senator continued, "we can hardly longer reasonably object to the Russians continuing their domination in Poland, Yugoslavia, Romania and Bulgaria."

Observing that the loans "accept the policy of dividing the world into zones of political influence — communist and anti-communist," Taft said "perhaps there is no other course."

Reaction in House.

In the House, Representative Landis (R.-Ind.) asserted that Congress made a mistake in placing atomic energy control under a civilian commission. He said he had introduced legislation to return it to military control, the better to guard atomic secrets.

Representative Jackson (R.-Cal.) told his colleagues that democracy "must take a stand," preferably" at Istanbul or Athens than San Francisco or New York." He said that President Truman, in outlining the situation, "tiptoed through the tulips of diplomacy without crushing a single tender blossom of Soviet sensibility."

Representative Potts (R.-N.Y.) declared that communist "cells" already were at work opposing the President's program. He said he has received a message from a communist group in his district charging that Mr. Truman "betrayed" the American people.

Potts said he occasionally disagrees with Mr. Truman, but would "think 100 times before accusing my President of betraying the people." Democrats and Republicans applauded as he resumed his seat.

Representative Youngblood (R.-Mich.) said that President Truman's request "is equivalent to a declaration of war," since American military personnel as well as financial aid was asked. He also said in a statement that the President had asked Congress "for imperialistic powers which, in my opinion, should not be delegated to any one American citizen." He contended that "this is definitely a job for the United Nations."

U-E Aide Admits Union Has Some Red Members

Nixon Defends Right of Communist to Hold Office in a Labor Group.

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP) In a dramatic reversal of roles, a Harvard graduate quizzed his former teacher before the House Labor Committee today—and the result was a clash over Communism.

Rep. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), 29-year-old son of Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Britain, did the questioning. Russ Nixon, his former economics instructor, now legislative representative of the CIO United Electrical Workers, was on the receiving end.

Admits Red Members

Nixon had acknowledged that some Communists are members of his union and had defended the right of anyone to believe in Communism and of a Communist to be a union officer if properly elected. Then Kennedy began firing questions.

30. 24- 8469

"Do you think that Communism is a threat to the economic and political system of the United States?" Kennedy asked.

"I do not think it is a threat," Nixon replied. "What I do think is a threat is our failure to meet the economic needs of our people."

Kennedy drew from Nixon, however, the comment that "I know the purpose of the Communists is to supplant capitalism with a form of socialism."

Kennedy wanted to know whether Julius Emspak, the union's secretary-treasurer, was a Communist. The witness replied Emspak had testified to the Senate Labor committee that he was not.

"Well, for your information he was a Communist and documentary proof will be provided," Kennedy told Nixon.

Nixon earlier had testified that he opposed United States support for any regime under a king in Greece.

"Do you know of any time your union made any statement about the king of Romania?" Kennedy asked, referring to Romania's being under Soviet influence. Nixon said his union had not.

"Well, has the UE leadership ever at any time criticized Soviet Russia or Communism in any way?" Kennedy demanded.

"That's easy, no," Nixon said.

"Despite the questioning of his former pupil, however, Nixon listed Kennedy as among six committee members "friendly" to labor and declared the other 19 committee members "unfriendly." In addition to Kennedy he named as friends of labor Reps. Lesinski (D-Mich), Kelley (D-Pa), Powell (D-Y), Madden (D-Ind) and Klein (D-NY).

Demands for perjury indictments against two union officials and for the unmasking of a mysterious "Comrade Juniper" enlivened the inquiry into Communism in unions.

The House Labor committee held a closed session to consider the demands, Rep. Landis (R-Ind), acting chairman in the absence of Rep. Hartley (R-NJ), announced afterwards that nothing can be said until Hartley can be consulted but that an announcement of the committee's plans may be made tomorrow.

Rep. Kennedy (D-Mass), asked the committee to recommend perjury indictments against Robert Buse, president of Local 248 of the CIO United Auto Workers at Milwaukee, and Harold Christoffel, honorary president of the local. Several colleagues seconded the motion but acting chairman Landis (R-Ind) ruled it "out of order at this time."

The perjury indictments would be based, Kennedy explained, on previous testimony by Buse and Christoffel denying that they ever were Communists.

Kennedy acted after Louis Budenz, once high in the Communist party but now an anti-Communist, testified that both Buse and Christoffel had been Communists.

The identity of "Comrade Juniper," reputedly an important union leader, was sought by Rep. Kersten (R-Wis).

"That is a party name, not his actual name," Budenz replied in the public hearing. "I ask special permission to divulge his real name to the committee in executive session. After that, if the committee wants me to identify him publicly, I will do so."

The private session then was held. Committee members declined to comment afterwards and Budenz told newsmen that "it isn't wise" to make "Juniper's" identity public. Budenz said the disclosure would have "national political significance" nad describe dthe man as "a national figure in the news in labor and outside labor."

The hearing also found Kennedy firing questions at his former Harvard economics professor, Russ Nixon, who appeared before the committee as legislative representative of the CIO United Electrical Workers Union.

SNYDER APPEALS FOR YEAR'S DELAY IN INCOME TAX CUT

Slashes Now Might Increase Economic Instability, Treasury Head Warns.

HITS 'FLAT' REDUCTION

Knutson Voices Determination to Go Ahead with His 20 P.C. Plan.

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP) Secretary of the Treasury Snyder appealed to the House Ways and Means Committee today to delay any income tax cut to next year but Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) expressed determination to go ahead.

"If the inflationary pressures are off, I would favor tax reduction next year," Snyder said.

"That's election year," interposed Knutson.

Denies Political Implication

"I'm thinking of the economic conditions of this country," Snyder replied.

"I am in favor of these things at the proper time, but if we act prematurely on tax cuts we could easily contribute to still higher prices and to economic instability, the greatest enemy of business incentives and full-scale production."

Snyder also objected to the plan for a flat 20 percent cut for everyone. He put into the record a table intended to show that under Knutson's "across the board" bill a man with a wife and two children earning $2,500 would get a tax cut of $19 while a man with a $100,000 income would have his tax cut $12,460.

"The bill would give too little reduction to lower incomes," Snyder said.

While Republicans are bent on cutting taxes, there is a disagreement as to how it should be done. Rep. Engel (R-Mich) is leading a faction in opposition to Knutson's bill, contending it gives greatest benefits to the rich. He said the measure never would pass in its present form.

Tempers Flare

Tempers flared as the committee opened consideration of Knutson's bill. Democrats charged Republicans with "steamroller" tactics.

Committee Democrats apparently aligned themselves solidly behind President Truman in opposition to tax cutting until Congress gets a clearer idea of the income of the government and what it must spend. Republicans outnumber Democrats on the committee 15 to 10.

The committee session opened with Democrats protesting a Republican decision to limit hearings to two days. They contended this would deny the people their right to be heard.

Snyder pleaded that any government surpluses at this time be used to begin payment on the nation's $262,000,000,000 debt, rather than for tax cutting. He contended that tax reduction now would not help business, might contribute to further inflation and bring about new demands for wage increases.

Oil Equipment for Russia Is Vetoed by House Body

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 13—Representative John Taber of New York, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee said today that the committee had rejected a State Department request for authority to send $25,000,000 worth of oil-refining equipment to Russia.

The Senate Appropriations Committee earlier had turned down the request.

"We can't do such a thing—that's appeasement," Mr. Taber told reporters. He said that the equipment, mostly pipelines, was obtained for shipment to Russia under Lend-Lease agreement, but had not been transported prior to last Dec. 31. A provision in a 1946 Lend-Lease appropriation prohibited use of any administrative funds for shipments after that date.

$50,000,000 Credit To Norway Is Signed

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The Export-Import Bank today announced the signing of a $50,000,000 credit to Norway.

The credit was authorized in July, 1945, shortly after the liberation of Norway, but was not made effective before for "various reasons," William McChesney Martin, Jr., bank chairman, said.

It is to be used to finance purchases in this country, as follows: Iron and steel products, $12,000,000; machines and machinery, $6,000,000; automotive vehicles and tractors, $2,000,000; ship repairs, $3,000,000; cotton and cotton yarn, $3,000,000; chemicals, copper and various raw materials, $3,000,000; coal, $6,000,000; petroleum, oil and lubricants, $5,000,000; and freight, insurance and services, $10,000,000.

Arab Office Assails Investigation By FBI

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The Arab office said today that further examination of its activities by the Federal Bureau of Investigation "may have the most serious repercussions on relations between this country and the Arabs."

The office, which described itself in a statement as "the one mouthpiece which the Arabs have in this country," added:

"If the matter is not ended speedily and if a full explanation is not given of how such an incident could occur, the results may be most unfortunate."

The FBI has been probing Arab office records for several days in what officials described as a "routine" action. Representative Sabath (D., Ill.) said yesterday he had asked the State Department and the FBI to investigate the office "to find out who is behind them."

The Arab statement said the investigation "means to all intents and purposes the Arab office has been suspended by official action for two weeks, something which has, as far as we know, never happened before to an agency of friendly governments."

"The Arab Government and countries have extended complete freedom to American information agencies to carry on their work. This freedom has never been questioned or limited in any way.

"The least the Arabs expect is a reciprocal respect for their agencies in this country."

Prosecution Concludes Case Against Durant

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The prosecution completed its case today against Col. Jack W. Durant in the Hesse jewel theft.

The army court-martial directed attorneys for the 38-year-old officer to begin the defense next Wednesday, overruling their plea for more time to prepare.

Major Joseph Robinson, prosecutor, called the pleas of defense attorneys that they had not had time to examine the record or fully interview witnesses "subterfuge" and an attempt to "postpone the day of judgment."

50 Million '45 Credit To Norway Announced

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The Export-Import Bank today announced the signing of a $50,000,000 credit to Norway.

The credit was authorized in July, 1945, shortly after the liberation of Norway, but was not made effective earlier for "various reasons," Bank Chairman William McChesney Martin, Jr., said.

It is to be used to finance purchases in this country as follows: Iron and steel products, $12,000,000; machines and machinery, $6,000,000; automotive vehicles and tractors, $2,000,000; ship repairs, $3,000,000; cotton and cotton yarn, $3,000,000; chemicals, copper and various raw materials, $3,000,000; coal, $6,000,000; petroleum oil and lubricants $5,000,000, and freight, insurance and services, $10,000,000.

Three Months' Extension Urged On Draft Boards

Washington, March 13 (AP)—Unsettled world conditions today caused the Senate Armed Services Committee to slow down action on President Truman's proposal that local draft boards turn in their records on the nation's manpower.

Instead, Senator Gurney (R., S.D.), the chairman, said his committee decided to keep draft records at a local or county level for the next "three or four months" before consolidating them in state capitals as the President on March 10 recommended be done at the end of this month.

Patterson With Committee

Robert P. Patterson, Secretary of War, met with the committee in the closed session at which the decision was made.

"The Secretary will not object to our plan," Gurney said, although he added there had been no discussion of the Mediterranean situation.

The committee recommendation will not alter plans for allowing the wartime Selective Service Act to expire March 31. It applies only to the records kept in local draft offices.

Gurney estimated that retention of 5,000 of the present 7,200 paid employés of selective service for the additional period would cost an additional $2,000,000.

Cost Might Be Offset

But he said this added cost might be offset if it is necessary to re-establish the local boards because they have some $5,000,000 worth of desks and other office equipment. This is to be turned over to national guards or organized reserves when the boards are finally closed.

"We decided to keep county draft offices open in case the world situation gets more critical and we have to open them up again," Gurney said.

Other factors, he said, were possible need of local boards if Congress approves some system of universal military training, and aid to those states that have approved or are considering state bonus payments to veterans.

Gurney said the interim plan would retain at least one board in each county except in sparcely populated areas where one clerk could handle the records of several counties.

The Senate, and also the House, must pass on the proposal.

Unite, Koo Urges Democracies

MAR 1947

Charlottesville, Va., March 13 (AP)—V. K. Wellington Koo, the Chinese Ambassador, said tonight that if world powers cannot cooperate, "the international outlook cannot be anything but somber and grim."

"Peace is indivisible," he added in an address at the University of Virginia. "And so is prosperity. So is freedom."

Koo did not mention communism in his advance text, but did say that the world situation "is complicated by the presence of rival ideologies and the cause of cooperation is rendered difficult by different nations pursuing different modes of approach to a given question."

This only emphasizes the need of understanding that leads to cooperation, the Ambassador continued, saying:

"It should be added, however, that in the presence of highly organized and co-ordinated rival ideologies, the forces of democracy must be united. Their unity of action is necessary.

"No union is stronger than the union of democracy, for the strength of democracy lies in the fact that it is based not upon the will of the invisible state but upon the free consent of each individual.

"When the light of reason and argument, of discussion and debate, is brought to bear upon the merits of the different ideologies, there can be no doubt that democracy will triumph in the end."

U.S. Program For Aiding The Greeks

Lake Success, N.Y., March 13 (AP). President Truman's program to hold the line on communism in the eastern Mediterranean, as outlined by American experts today, would provide American military training and equipment for 100,000 Greek soldiers to combat roving Leftist bands officially estimated at more than 9,000 in the mountains of northern Greece. GRUMICH

The plan would also bolster a much more able Turkish military establishment to a point where, in the event Turkey's position on the Dardanelles should become jeopardized, the country would not fall overnight, these informants said.

Given At News Conference

Furthermore, economic boosters would be applied to both Greece and Turkey under close American supervision of expenditures on a scale which would amount to substantial aid to Greece for an indefinite time and a graduated, diminishing program of help for Turkey.

These bold outlines for procedure were given by American officials at a conference called to provide newsmen with the background of the long step taken by Mr. Truman yesterday.

The special conference was called in the midst of growing concern in United Nations circles over the President's decision to bypass the United Nations on the ground that it was inadequate to meet the urgent problems posed by infiltrations in Greece, continuing pressure on Turkey and economic rehabilitation in both.

Austin Issues Statement

Former Senator Warren R. Austin, the chief American delegate to the United Nations, issued a statement approved by the State Department which said:

"The United States is dedicated to the principles of the United Nations Charter and to the building up of collective security. Support of the freedom and independence of Greece and Turkey is essential to these purposes.

"Prompt approval by the Congress of the President's proposals would be new and effective action by the United States in supporting with all our strength our policy in the United Nations."

Austin did not attend the news conference.

Brazilian Breaks Silence

The "apprehensive" silence in which several United Nations delegations received the President's statement was broken during the afternoon by Dr. Oswaldo Aranha, of Brazil, president of the Security Council for this month.

"I believe this marks the first step of a long world task that the United States must undertake," Aranha said. "I remain optimistic over the success of the United Nations.

"The United Nations' function is to accommodate various and diverse opinions and attitudes in a common cause for world peace. In that it has not failed. Our work at this time is still in the co-ordinating stage, but the success of the organization has not been impaired by Mr. Truman's address."

Only one phase of official American thought on the Greek and Turkish crises was authorized at the conference as a statement that could be attributed to the State Department.

Greek Economic Chaos Cited

A spokesman said in effect that most of the $400,000,000 asked of Congress by Mr. Truman became necessary because Greece could not go to the International Bank for reconstruction and development in her present state of economic chaos and offer any substantial collateral for a loan.

Turkey, on the other hand, was on a sounder basis economically but still needed an initial economic boost from the only nation deemed capable of giving it at this time, and, anyway, could not wait for the bank to begin functioning, he said.

It has been suggested that Turkey would get, perhaps, $150,000,000 in credits and Greece $250,000,000 in the period limited by the President to June 30, 1948. However, there was no assurance that Greece would not need extended aid.

It was made clear at the conference that implementation of the program would have to await congressional action and that the details at this time were provided only as the present shape of official American thought.

Rightists Also Opposed

It was made clear that the American Government also hoped to have the Greeks suppress lawlessness by extreme Rightists.

On the basis of American official observations in the Greek election which reinstated King George II on the throne, it was estimated that the Communist elements constituted no more than fifteen per cent of the population.

However, it was said the Leftist guerrilla forces increased from between 3,000 and 4,000 men to 8,000 to 9,000 by last December and that these men received training and arms from the neighboring Soviet satellite countries—Bulgaria, Albania and Yugoslavia.

These countries and Greece herself presently are under investigation of a United Nations Security Council commission.

Porter's Return Awaited

An American suggestion for stabilization of conditions along the northern Greek frontiers through a permanent border commission under United Nations' sponsorship was mentioned in this connection. However, this would depend on agreement of Russia in the Security Council.

Details of the American economic plan for Greece will await the return of Paul Porter, who headed President Truman's economic mission there, and is expected back in Washington late this month.

It was hoped that some sort of income tax could be imposed under guidance of American experts and that the Greek Army's liberation of farmers from intimidating groups and the reopening of war-ravaged communications would restore production.

Truman Relaxes in Key West

Receives Telegrams Praising Anti-Red Talk —Has Not Heard From Marshall.

Key West, Fla., March 13 (A. P.).—President Truman loafed at this naval submarine base today while world capitals speculated on the implications of his foreign policy address to Congress yesterday.

Mr. Truman, who usually gets up anywhere from 5:30 to 6:30, slept until 8 o'clock, an hour later than his press secretary, Charles G. Ross.

"I think that it is something of a record for the President," Ross told reporters. "He's usually the first one up."

Ross said that Mr. Truman who arrived here last night in his plane, the Sacred Cow, had not talked with Secretary of State Marshall in Moscow since his speech calling on the United States to back "free peoples" in their resistence to Communist encroachment in Greece, Turkey and other trouble centers. It is expected, however, that Marshall will get in touch with the President before Mr. Truman returns to Washington, Sunday or Monday.

No Reaction From Capitals.

The President, Ross said, still has had no reaction from world capitals, including Moscow. Ross said that about twenty-five to thirty telegrams had been forwarded to Mr. Truman here from individuals commenting favorably on his message to Congress.

In Washington, the White House reported that the telegrams were mounting into the hundreds. Eben Ayers, assistant press secretary, described them as "generally favorable."

Asserting that the President, tired as a result of a strenuous two weeks, was "feeling better already" on his rest program prescribed by Brig.-Gen. Wallace H. Graham, his physician, Ross said: "He's the wellest sick man I ever saw."

"He ate a hearty breakfast, read the papers and joked with members of his staff," Ross asserted.

Lies on Beach in Sun.

Mr. Truman, occupying the big frame house of the commandant here, went to a nearby beach shortly before noon to swim and lie in the sun. An early morning caller was his old friend, Neal Helm of Caruthersville, Mo., on a vacation near Key West.

The presidential yacht Williamsburg docked here this morning. The President's plans to use it for a Caribbean cruise were canceled when the plight of Greece made it inadvisable for him to leave Washington for an extended period. The Williamsburg will remain at Key West until the President departs.

Mr. Truman plans to hear the radio debut of his daughter, Margaret, on Sunday night. He is not sure whether he will listen from Key West or Washington.

President Vacationing As Capitals Speculate

Key West, Fla., March 13 (AP)—President Truman loafed at this submarine base today while world capitals speculated on the implications of his foreign policy address to Congress yesterday.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman has not talked with Secretary of State George C. Marshall, at Moscow, since his speech calling upon the United States to back "free peoples" in their resistance to Communist encroachment in Greece, Turkey and other trouble centers.

Favorable Telegrams

Marshall is expected to get in touch with the President before the Chief Executive returns to Washington Sunday or Monday.

Ross said that about 25 or 30 telegrams have been forwarded to Mr. Truman here from individuals who commented favorably to the message to Congress.

The President, looking tired after a strenuous two weeks in which he delivered three major addresses and held conferences on the crisis in Greece and Turkey, left Washington in his plane immediately after addressing Congress.

He landed at the Boca Chica airport, five miles from here.

His physician, Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, has prescribed four days of rest and relaxation.

"It is better that the boss have frequent brief rests than a long vacation," Graham said. "He gets restless if he is confined at one place too long."

He weighs 173 pounds, only one pound more than when he visited Key West in November.

No Legion Stand Yet

Memphis, Tenn., March 13 (AP)—Paul Griffith, of Washington, national commander of the American Legion, said today that the Legion had not formulated a policy toward President Truman's proposed program for Turkey and Greece, but added:

"The Legion is on record as opposed to the spread of communism."

"I cannot say what the Legion attitude might be about sending men to Greece and Turkey," he said in an interview.

Griffith was scheduled to address the Chamber of Commerce and Legion members at noon today. He will speak at the auditorium tonight.

Balkan Border Group Seen For U.N.

Lake Success, N.Y., March 13 (AP). Authoritative sources said today that the United States may propose the establishment of a permanent United Nations boundary commission to watch over the trouble spots in the Balkans.

These sources said United States officials felt it may be advisable for such a commission to watch the borders of Greece, Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria for some time.

Such a step appeared to be tied in closely with President Truman's declaration on America's new foreign policy aimed at halting the world march of communism, especially in the Balkans.

Permanent Commission

There was no indication just how far the American delegation to the United Nations has gone toward drawing up a plan for a permanent United Nations boundary commission. But authoritative sources said it was under consideration.

An American delegation spokesman said the President's proposals to aid Greece would not conflict in any way with the efforts of the United Nations Security Council's Balkan inquiry commission now studying froniter conditions in Greece, Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia.

This spokesman pointed out that the commission inquiry had been proposed originally by the United States but was withdrawn when Russia threatened to veto it. Then last Decembed 19 it was revived and approved unanimously in the Council.

To Support U.S. Program

He said the inquiry, which began in Greece early last month, would tend to support the American program for Greece.

The spokesman said the presence of the Security Council's commission would have a "stabilizing influence" in the border regions and would tend to thwart propaganda against members of American missions who would be sent to Greece under the President's plan.

Meanwhile, top United Nations authorities considered President Truman's appeal to Congress for American aid to Greece and Turkey "too hot" for comment. It was met by what one informed source described as "apprehensive" silence.

Delegates, however, did not consider the President's reference to the United Nation's inability to extend material and financial help to these two countries as any implication of America's lack of confidence in the United Nations.

Strengthen Security

American sources said that on the contrary it showed that the United States was attempting to strengthen collective security by means presently unavailable to the United Nations.

One informed source acknowledged that such aid as proposed by Mr. Truman was beyond the scope of the United Nations at present.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko said he had heard the broadcast of the speech but had no comment.

ATTACKS U.S. ATOMIC POLICY

French Scientist Calls Bomb Principle Simple

New York, March 13 (AP)—Frederic Joliot-Curie, French high commissioner of atomic energy, declared tonight in an article that the principle of the atomic bomb is simple, but that France is directing extensive atomic research toward "new means of enriching life."

Joliot-Curie, writing in the magazine United Nations World, which is designed to cover United Nations affairs, speculated on the makeup of the bomb and attacked what he called the United States "iron curtain" on atomic affairs.

He gave a rough outline of his idea of the trigger mechanism of the bomb and advanced the theory that the atomic explosion might result from shooting a chunk of uranium weighing "say 30 kilos" (66 pounds) down a tube at a similar piece of unranium.

Citing the casualties in the atomic bomb blast at Hiroshima, Joliot-Curie said "the menace of sudden death, the terrifying possibility of having to burrow like ants beneath the soil and build cities in the caves of the earth, at present overshadow in the popular mind the benign potentialities of our new knowledge.

Cites Iron Curtain

"Nor is the sense of danger relieved by the decision of the United States that it must hide its technical and scientific advances in nuclear physics behind an American 'iron curtain.'"

Joliot-Curie said in the article that in 1939 French scientists had calculated in Paris the "critical mass," which is to say the "smallest amount" of the target material in which a chain reaction could be touched off.

"The principle of the bomb now becomes simple," he said.

Joliot-Curie's estimate of the possible weight of the two pieces of uranium he said figured in the bomb is the first from a high nuclear physicist.

American information on the amount of uranium needed, given in the Smyth report, placed it as between two pounds and 200 pounds. Anything less than the secret weight between these two figures is too small to explode.

Outlines Principle

scientist, Nobel prize winner and son-in-law of the Curies of radium fame, said the principle of the bomb could be along this line:

"Imagine a sphere of uranium 235 large enough to be susceptible to explosive chain reaction.

"Now divide it into two hemispheres each below 'critical mass' (the point at which they are dangerous).

"Place these hemispheres weighing, say, 30 kilos (66 lbs.) apiece, at the two ends of a cylindrical tube. One hemisphere is fixed, the other mobile, so that an explosive charge placed behind it can cause it to slide swiftly into contact with the other half.

"Between the two, a source of emission of rapid neutrons constantly bombards with neutrons the plane surface of the fixed hemisphere. Such a source would be a small amount of polonium, whose alpha rays act upon a sufficient quantity of glucinium. When the two hemispheres come together, the conditions for explosive chain reaction are fulfilled.

Gives Equivalent Force

"You can form some idea of the explosion of the two hemispheres weighing 30 kilos each when I tell you that the explosion of one kilo of uranium is equivalent to 300 tons of the most powerful explosive."

Joliot-Curie also said France was building on a wheat field at Saclay, 25 miles southwest of Paris, the first French "atomic village", to carry on experiments in atomic energy.

This village aroused the fears of peasants in the vicinity, for their lives and crops and they threatened to block the project. Joliot-Curie made a special trip to a meeting of the peasants March 8 to reassure them. They were impressed by his talk—but said they wanted to think it over.

Directs Research To Peace

Joliot-Curie said that while France has contributed so importantly to the knowledge which made atomic fission possible, his country is "directing her research in the atomic field, not to developing better instruments of mass killing, but to new means of enriching life."

Joliot-Curie in his estimate of the weight of the uranium in a bomb says in effect that 66 pounds is less than the minimum for the explosive amount.

If he is correct, that places the weight of an explosive piece of uranium as between 66 and 200 pounds. Plutonium apparently has about the same weight limits for explosiveness.

The French physicist also adds something new to atomic-bomb information in supposing that a source of neutrons is placed in the tube, or gun, between the two pieces of explosive metal. He has these neutrons bombard the face of the fixed piece of uranium, which is the target in the gun. He does not explain the purpose of this neutron bombardment.

But one effect is clear from the Smyth report. These bombarding neutrons would render the fixed piece of uranium easier to explode. Neutrons in sufficient numbers explode uranium.

Wallace Says Truman's Plan Will Bring World Nearer War

New York, March 13 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said tonight President Truman's proposed loans to Greece and Turkey "will bring the world nearer to war."

Insisting in a radio address that "it is not a Greek crisis that we face, it is an American crisis," the former Vice President and Cabinet officer asserted:

"As one American citizen I say: No loan to undemocratic and well-fed Turkey. No loan to Greece until a representative Greek Government is formed and can assure America that our funds will be used for the welfare of the Greek people."

Fears Effect On Relations

Wallace said he believed the program outlined yesterday by the President would worsen seriously American relations with the Soviet Union, and he declared both the present Greek and Turkish governments were undemocratic.

"How can we wage a war of nerves against Russia and expect her to take in good faith our proposals to the United Nations on atomic energy?" he asked.

"When President Truman proclaims the world-wide conflict between East and West, he is telling the Soviet leaders that we are preparing for eventual war.

"They will reply by measures to strengthen their position in the event of war. Then the task of keeping the world at peace will pass beyond the power of the common people everywhere who want peace."

Wallace, who was ousted as Secretary of Commerce by Mr. Truman last September after he had differed with James Byrnes, then Secretary of State, over American policy vis-à-vis Russia, declared: "To authorize the loans proposed by President Truman will bring the world nearer to war."

Predicts Increased Pressure

"Russia may be poor and unprepared for war but she knows very well how to reply to Truman's declaration of economic and financial pressure. All over the world Russia and her ally, poverty, will increase the pressure against us.

"Who among us is ready to predict that in this struggle American dollars will outlast the grievances that lead to communism? I certainly don't want to see communism spread. I predict that Truman's policy will spread communism in Europe and Asia. You can't fight something with nothing."

Wallace, now editor of the New Republic, declared that "in proposing this reckless adventure Truman is betraying the great tradition of America and the leadership of the great American who preceded him."

Critical Of Turkey

The former Vice President said Turkey was "a nation which fought against us in the first World War and which in this war refused to help the United Nations.

Wallace said "everyone admires the Greek people who fought on our side," but added:

"Three weeks ago Secretary of State General Marshall condemned many aspects of that (Greek) Government. He called for a political amnesty, substantial unity and many reforms in the Government as the conditions of American aid to Greece. Why did President Truman abandon the conditions set by his own Secretary of State?"

Russian Ambassador Leaves For Moscow

MAR 1947

New York, March 13 (AP)—Nikolai V. Novikov, Russian ambassador to the United States, left by plane for Moscow today after saying, "I hope something will be done" to improve Soviet-American relations.

"I tried to do my best," he said.

Novikov, who has been ambassador since last June 3, said he could give no "precise information" but that he expected to be consulted in Moscow on problems before the council of Big Four Foreign Ministers.

He said he had not read President Truman's address to Congress on aid to Greece and Turkey but waved a newspaper and remarked he would "try to read it when I get on the plane."

Asked about his plans to come back to the United States, he said, "Nobody knows this when he is called to the capital, but I hope to return as soon as possible."

Russ Envoy Leaves For Moscow

New York, March 13 (AP)—Nikolai V. Novikov, Soviet Ambassador to the United States, said before boarding a plane for Moscow today that he had not yet read President Truman's foreign policy speech to Congress but that he would "try to read it when I get on the plane."

Novikov has been recalled for consultation in connection with the Foreign Ministers' meeting.

Asked when he would return, Novikov said: "Nobody knows this when he is called to the capital, but I hope to return as soon as possible."

He told reporters he could not give them "any precise information."

Before boarding the plane Novikov was asked if the American people had been "friendly."

"Some were friendly and others unfriendly," he said. "Those who were friendly were very friendly and those who were unfriendly were very unfriendly."

Questioned on improvement of Soviet-American relations, he said: "I hope something will be done. I tried to do my best."

'No Yank Force To Greece'

New York, March 13 (AP)—The United States plans to equip the Greek Army of approximately 100,000 soldiers properly to enable it to protect its country's borders, an informed source said today.

This informant said that a military mission would form part of the aid to Greece envisioned in President Truman's message to Congress yesterday. He made it clear that plans do not call for sending American soldiers to Greece.

He said the United States does not desire Greek territory, that the main object of the proposed American aid is to put Greece in shape to be self-supporting so Greece can take its proper place in the family of nations.

U.N. Not Yet Prepared

Commenting on the relation to the United Nations of the United States move to aid Greece and Turkey, this source said it was felt that the United Nations was not sufficiently organized to deal with the situation at this time.

The United States has favored a "cordon sanitaire" under United Nations auspices around Greece as a means of stopping the border troubles which are being investigated now by a United Nations Security Council commission. With proper equipment, this source indicated that the Greeks probably could handle the border situation.

It was said that the United States would favor establishment of an income tax system in Greece as a means of raising money there for the Greek Government, and amnesty for political prisoners now held by the Government.

'Day Of Shame': Daily Worker

New York, March 13 (AP)—The Daily Worker, organ of the Communist party in the United States, said today in an editorial that President Truman's recommendation for financial aid to Greece and Turkey "marks a day of national shame for our country."

The newspaper described the President as "the willing mouthpiece of the Standard Oil trust in the Middle East" and declared that he was "selling the American people the 'fool's gold of empire' in complete abandonment of Roosevelt's vision of a stable postwar peace."

The editorial added: "We are being swindled into rushing American dollars and American ammunition to save a rotten and hated Greek monarchy. And to do this we will have to move in on Greece and make a quisling colony out of it, drowning in blood the democratic aspirations of the Greek people."

Turkish "Bribe"

Of the proposed aid to Turkey, the editorial said: "It is to bribe the present Turkish tyranny into acting as the quisling-police state for Wall Street investments and the Standard Oil empire in Arabia, Iran and Palestine."

The Daily Worker said the President's proposal "deliberately insults and bypasses the United Nations, where we are supposed to collaborate with the other powers to solve mutual problems."

"We do it deliberately to poison the Moscow negotiations and fling obstacles in the path of a peace settlement," the newspaper added.

"The empire grab," said the Daily Worker, "masked by anti-Communist hysteria, is doomed to failure."

Douglas Leaving Saturday

New York, March 13 (AP)—Lewis W. Douglas, newly-appointed Ambassador to Great Britain, is scheduled to depart for England by plane from La Guardia Field at 2.30 P.M. Saturday, American Overseas Airlines announced today.

Brewster Asks Why U.S. Shuns Aid to Chiang

Senator Inquires if Choice Before Americans Is to 'Be Slavs or Slaves'

"Are we compelled now to choose whether we shall be Slavs or slaves?"

United States Senator Owen Brewster, Republican, of Maine, asked that question last night, in an address following in the wake of President Truman's message to Congress calling for substantial assistance to Greece and Turkey to stem the tide of Communist infiltration. Senator Brewster delivered his address at the Waldorf-Astoria at the twenty-first annual dinner of the drug, chemical and allied trades section of the New York Board of Trade.

In answer to his own question, Senator Brewster asked another: "If that is the issue, how shall we best dispose our resources for the conflict?"

The first essential, he replied, is a "strong America united for the fray."

"To beware of the Greeks seeking gifts," Senator Brewster told his audience of more than 2,000 leaders of industry, "is not to challenge the crisis or the need but rather the capacity of America to carry on the world-wide responsibilities that are necessarily involved.

"A century ago, with Rio thirty days away, Monroe warned European dictators to stay out of America.

"Today, with Athens thirty hours away, we must decide our attitude toward European dictators of the present time.

"Let us be clear, however, that the Communist infiltration is not peculiar to Greece. Let us be consistent in our approach. Every tactic that concerns us in the Balkans has been equally evident in China.

"Why should we insist on Chiang embracing Communists in China at the same time we finance King George in fighting Communists in Greece? Here is surely an anomaly. China is a far more critical area as far as America is concerned. A stronger China under Chiang is the surest guarantee of peace in the Pacific and that may well mean peace throughout the world.

"Why is Communist infiltration so largely ignored in the Americas while it is viewed with alarm in the Mediterranean?"

America is profoundly and primarily interested in the preservation of peace, according to Senator Brewster. Advocating peace through strength, he said:

"No aggressor nation will ever again dare to strike without air power. America in the interest of world peace may wisely dedicate its still rich resources to the task of seeing to it that aggressor nations shall not again in this century be able to threaten the peace of all the world.

"This does not mean that America seeks to erect a world empire of trade or territory upon the shattered freedom of smaller nations nor to extend an ideology.

"America seeks simply in cooperation with freedom-loving people everywhere to prevent the development of military machines that shall once again seek to enslave the people of all the earth in a mad dream of world conquest."

LONDON, MARCH 13-(AP)-WHILE BRITAIN OFFICIALLY WELCOMED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MESSAGE ON GREECE AND TURKEY, SOME WHITEHALL SOURCES EXPRESSED SURPRISE THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD RECOMMENDED A SUBSTANTIAL CREDIT TO TURKEY.

THEY SAID RECORDS OF CONVERSATIONS THAT LORD INVERCHAPEL HAD HELD WITHTHE STATE DEPARTMENT, AS RECEIVED HERE, CONTAINED NO INDICATIONS THAT AID FOR TURKEY WAS CONTEMPLATED. THESE SOURCES SAID THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE APPEARED TO REPRESENT A RADICAL CHANGE IN UNITED STATES POLICY AS EXPRESSED TO BRITISH REPRESENTATIVES, BECAUSE THE LOANTO TURKEY, AS SEEN HERE, IMPLIED A DIRECT INTENTION TO RENDER "UNDISGUISED" POLITICAL HELP.

BY ROBERT HEWETT

LONDON, MARCH 13-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE WON A SOLID VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST NIGHT AFTER CALLING FOR "FULL COOPERATION OF INDUSTRY" WITH THE LABOR GOVERNMENT IN BRITAIN'S FIGHT FOR ECONOMIC SURVIVAL.

THE LABOR PARTY'S BIG MAJORITY CRUSHED -- 374 TO 198 -- CONSERVATIVE WINSTON CHURCHILL'S DEMAND FOR A "NO CONFIDENCE" VOTE, CLIMAX TO THREE DAYS OF SEARCHING DEBATE ON THE GOVERNMENT'S POSTWAR RECOVERY POLICY.

THEN, BY A VOTE OF 371 TO 204, THE HOUSE AGREED TO "SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT IN ALL PRACTICAL MEASURES" FOR RECONSTRUCTION AS OUTLINED IN A RECENT WHITE PAPER -- A RIGOROUS PROGRAM THAT CALLS FOR CONTINUED FOOD RATIONING, ELECTRICITY AND COAL RESTRICTIONS AND DETERMINED EFFORTS TO INCREASE PRODUCTION.

ATTLEE STRUCK BACK CALMLY AND CONFIDENTLY AT CONSERVATIVE ATTACKS ON THE LABOR PROGRAM--HIGHLIGHTED BY CHURCHILL'S ASSERTION THAT "THE GOVERNMENT CANNOT SAVE THE COUNTRY AND CARRY ON CLASS WARFARE AND A SOCIALIST PROGRAM OF NATIONALIZATION AT THE SAME TIME."

"NATIONALIZATION IS NOT BEING PUSHED FOR NATIONALIZATION'S SAKE," ATTLEE DECLARED. "IT IS MERELY A MEANS TO AN END -- A FINE LIFE AND STANDARD FOR ALL PEOPLE, PUTTING THE INTERESTS OF THE COMMUNITY BEFORE PRIVATE INTERESTS."

THE PRIME MINISTER SAID A LONG RANGE INDUSTRIAL PLAN WAS BEING PREPARED IN CONSULTATION WITH INDUSTRIAL LEADERS. THE GOVERNMENT, HE DECLARED, WANTS "THEMFULL COOPERATION OF INDUSTRY."

EARLIER, A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE CABINET SAID THE INDUSTRIAL PLAN, SUBJECT OF A WHITE PAPER NOW BEING DRAWN UP, WOULD BE DIRECTED BY A PRODUCTION CHIEF WITH BROAD AUTHORITY OVER INDUSTRIAL CONTRACTS AND OUTPUT. THIS SOURCE SAID AN INDUSTRIALIST WHO HAD HELD A BIG WARTIME JOB HAD BEEN CHOSEN FOR THE POST AND HIS NAME WOULD BE ANNOUNCED NEXT WEEK.

CHURCHILL HAD ACCUSED THE LABOR GOVERNMENT OF SACRIFICING BRITAIN'S PROSPERITY FOR "A SOCIALIST DREAM OR NIGHTMARE" AND OF UNDERTAKING TO IMPOSE "IDEOLOGICAL FORMULAS" ON THE COUNTRY IN WHAT HE TERMED "A CRIME AGAINST THE BRITISH STATE AND PEOPLE." HE SAID IT HAD MISHANDLED FOOD, FUEL AND HOUSING.

ATTLEE, HOWEVER, SAID THE DEBATE HAD SHOWN A "LARGER MEASURE OF AGREEMENT THAN MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECTED" ON BRITAIN'S SITUATION AND STEPS TOWARD RECOVERY.

THE NINE LIBERALS IN THE HOUSE, WHO HAD SUBMITTED A MILDER MOTION OF CRITICISM THAN CHURCHILL'S, ABSTAINED FROM VOTING ON HIS MOTION. HOWEVER, THEY VOTED AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT ON THE WHITE PAPER MOTION.

LAST NIGHT'S MOTION OF CENSURE WAS THE SECOND IN WHICH CHURCHILL HAD FAILED SINCE THE LABOR GOVERNMENT TOOK OVER IN MID-1945. HE LOST THE FIRST, ON NOV. 27, 1945, 381 TO 197.

LABOR PARTY LEADERS, WHO COMMAND A LARGE MAJORITY IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, HAVE SCOFFED AT THE IDEA THAT BRITAIN'S CURRENT ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES COULD LEAD TO THE GOVERNMENT'S RESIGNATION. ONLY LAST NIGHT THE GOVERNMENT WON A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE 374 TO 198.

PARIS, MARCH 13-(AP)-ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER PIERRE HENRI TEITGEN AND UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR JEFFERSON CAFFERY TODAY SIGNED A PROVISIONAL AGREEMENT ON GERMAN WAR PRISONERS BY WHICH 20,000 PRISONERS A MONTH WILL BE RETURNED TO THE REICH. THE SHIPMENTS WILL BEGIN THIS MONTH.
THE ACCORD, COVERING 450,000 PRISONERS CAPTURED BY THE AMERICAN ARMY AND LENT TO FRENCH AUTHORITIES TO EASE THE NATION'S MANPOWER SHORTAGES IN RECONSTRUCTION, IS TO BE REVIEWED AND COMPLETED WITHIN

THE NEXT THREE MONTHS. THE SIGNING CLIMAXED WEEKS OF NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN FRENCH AND AMERICAN EXPERTS.

FRANCE AGREED TO ALLOW ALL BUT ABOUT 55,000 OF THE PRISONERS TO CHOOSE, ON APRIL 1, WHETHER THEY WISH TO BE REPATRIATED OR REMAIN IN FRANCE AS FREE WORKERS. THE EXCEPTIONS ARE PRISONERS WORKING IN FRENCH COAL MINES, AND FORMER MEMBERS OF THE NAZI ELITE CORPS AND PRISONERS ACCUSED OF WAR CRIMES.

ACCORDING TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY, THE UNITED STATES AGREED TO MAKE EXCEPTION FOR MINERS BECAUSE OF FRANCE'S CRITICAL COAL SUPPLY SITUATION. IN RETURN, EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, ALL GERMAN PRISONERS WORKING IN THE MINTES WILL BE GIVEN THE SAME STATUS AS FRENCH WORKERS WITH REGARD TO SALARY, FOOD RATIONS AND WORKING CONDITIONS.

PRISONERS WHO ELECT TO REMAIN IN FRANCE AS FREE WORKERS WILL BE "LIBERATED" AT THE RATE OF 20,000 A MONTH DURING A TEST PERIOD, A FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN SAID. HE EXPLAINED THIS WAS TO DETERMINE HOW THE POLICY WAS WORKING OUT.8JS706PES

PARIS, MARCH 13-(AP)-ADM.GEORGES ROBERT, IMPLACABLE WARTIME FOE OF THE UNITED STATES AS VICHY'S HIGH COMMISSIONER TO THE FRENCH WEST INDIES, WAS ACCUSED BEFORE THE FRENCH HIGH COURT TODAY OF ESTABLISHING A DICTATORSHIP IN MARTINIQUE AFTER THE FALL OF FRANCE.

THE COURT CHARGED THAT HE PREVENTED FRENCHMEN THERE FROM JOINING GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE'S FREE FRENCH MOVEMENT. HIS ADHERENCE TO MARSHAL PETAIN'S PUPPET REGIME WAS SO STAUNCH THAT U.S.NAVAL VESSEL WERE DISPATCHED TO MARTINIQUE WATERS TO KEEP WATCH OVER SEVERAL FRENCH NAVAL CRAFT, TANKERS AND AN AIRCRAFT CARRIER IN THE HARBOR.

THE BEARDED ADMIRAL, NOW 72, DENIED THE CHARGES.

AFTER FRANCE SUCCUMBED, ROBERT BECAME VIRTUALLY AN INDEPENDENT RULER OF THE CARIBBEAN POSSESSIONS OF FRANCE, SAFE FROM HITLER BECAUSE OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN NAVIES. BUT HE ALIGNED HIMSELF WITH PETAIN'S RUMP GOVERNMENT.

HE WAS ACCUSED IN 1942 OF SPREADING ANTI-ALLIED PROPAGANDA IN MARTINIQUE BUT LATE THAT YEAR, RENOUNCED VICHY UNDER AN ECONOMIC SQUEEZE PROVOKED BY A VIRTUAL U.S. NAVY BLOCKADE. HIS REFUSAL TO ESPOUSE THE CAUSE OF EITHER DE GAULLE OR GEN. HENRI GIRAUD AFTER THE ALLIES INVADED NORTH AFRICA PROMPTED THE GERMAN RADIO TO HAIL HIM AS A HERO. A REVOLT OF HIS ARMY GARRISON FINALLY FORCED HIS RESIGNATION AS GOVERNOR OF MARTINIQUE IN JULY OF 1943 AND HE MADE HIS WAY TO VICHY. THERE HE BECAME DIRECTOR OF THE PERSONAL OFFICE OF PETAIN, NOW SERVING A LIFE TERM AS A TRAITOR TO FRANCE.

HE WAS ARRESTED IN SEPTEMBER OF 1944.

ATHENS, MARCH 13-(AP)-PREMIER DEMETRIOS MAXIMOS TOLD U.S. AMBASSADOR LINCOLN MACVEAGH TODAY THAT GREECE HAD HEARTFELT GRATITUDE FOR PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ASSISTANCE.

LEFTWING EAM AND KKE NEWSPAPERS REFRAINED FROM COMMENT BUT PRINTED THE SPEECH UNDER SUCH HEADLINES AS "UNDISGUISED PREACHING OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM; ABOLITION OF GREEK INDEPENDENCE; ESTABLISHMENT OF BEACHHEADS IN THE MEDITERRANEAN; AND PREMEDITATED PROVCATION TO SOVIET RUSSIA."

GOVERNMENT AND CONSERVATIVE NEWSPAPERS WERE JUBILANT. MACVEAGH CALLED ON MAXIMOS TO HAND HIM A COPY OF MR.TRUMAN'S ADDRESS CALLING FOR LOAN OF $400,000,000 TO GREECE AND TURKEY, MILITARY ADVISORS AND EQUIPMENT.

athens, march 13--(ap)--a press report said today that two persons were killed and 37 injured when a passenger train was mined near karditsa.

other dispatches said 10 guerrillas were killed near larisa and 15 others and three gendarmes slain near xanthe in western thrace.

"THE FORMULA OF DEMOCRACY FOR DEMOCRATS WILL BE USED HERE FOR ALL THOSE NOT PREPARING AN ATTEMPT AGAINST DEMOCRACY," THE PREMIER SAID.

COMMENTING ON U.S. AMBASSADOR ARTHUR BLISS LANE'S STATEMENTS IN NEW YORK THAT HE HAD BEEN DENIED INTERVIEWS WITH PRISONERS CLAIMING AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP, THE PREMIER OBSERVED THAT BEFORE LEAVING POLAND LANE HAD AGREED TO ESTABLISHMENT OF A MIXED COMMISSION TO DETERMINE THE NATIONALITY OF THE PRISONERS.

Madrid, March 13-(AP)-The newspaper ABC, which has monarchist tendencies, today described President Truman's speech as "transcendental" and said "had a similar address been made ten years ago, the world war would not have broken out."

ABC said the speech had the effect of a diplomatic bomb on the Moscow conference and asked:

"How can allies talk when one has been denounced by the chief of the state of the other as a violator of allied accords and an aggressor against the independence of various peoples?"

The account asserted that the time may come when U.S. financial help will be insufficient and that Truman might have to propose more drastic measures "to avoid new and open aggression with all its consequences."

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, MARCH 13-(AP)-RELIABLE SOURCES SAID TODAY THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN EMBASSIES HERE WERE BEING URGED FROM WASHINGTON BY MAJ.GEN.LOWELL W.ROOKS, UNRRA DIRECTOR GENERAL, TO RECOMMEND TO THEIR GOVERNMENTS A UNITED STATES GIFT OF GRAIN TO YUGOSLAVIA.

SOURCES CLOSE TO THE BRITISH EMBASSY, HOWEVER, SAID THAT ALTHOUGH A FULL REPORT WAS BEING SENT TO THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE CONCERNING THE FOOD SITUATION HERE, THE EMBASSY WAS MAKING NO RECOMMENDATIONS, SINCE THE BRITISH HAD NOT BEEN ASKED BY THE YUGOSLAVS FOR AID.

MIHAIL SERGEICHIC, CHIEF OF THE UNRRA MISSION HERE, SAID EARLIER IT WOULD BE UP TO THE INTERNATIONAL EMERGENCY FOOD COUNCIL, ON WHICH THE FOUR MAJOR POWERS ARE REPRESENTED, TO DECIDE ON UNRRA'S REQUEST FOR A GIFT OF 100,000 TONS OF GRAIN, AND THAT UNRRA ACTION COULD BE TAKEN ONLY AFTER THE COUNCIL'S APPROVAL.

HOWEVER, THERE WAS NO DOUBT THAT SOVIET OFFICIALS, INCLUDING PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV, HAD READ MR. TRUMAN'S SPEECH BEFORE THE TASS ACCOUNT WAS CIRCULATED. IT ALSO WAS ASSUMED THAT THE POWERFUL POLITBURO OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY ALSO HAD STUDIED THE MESSAGE.

IT WAS DIFFICULT TO SAY WHAT FORM FURTHER RUSSIAN REACTION TO THE SPEECH WOULD TAKE. MOLOTOV MAY TALK OVER THE STATEMENT WITH U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL IN PRIVATE OR STALIN MAY EVEN DISCUSS IT WITH MARSHALL SHOULD HE SEE HIM.

QUOTING LIBERALLY FROM THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE, THE TASS STORY BEGAN WITH A SIMPLE NEWS STATEMENT OF HIS REQUEST FOR FUNDS AND THE RIGHT TO SEND CIVILIAN AND MILITARY PERSONNEL INTO GREECE AND TURKEY.

THEN IT SAID:

"MR.TRUMAN'S MESSAGE WAS FRANKLY DIRECTED AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS IN GREECE, WHICH ARE DEFENDING DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS IN THAT COUNTRY AND WHICH WERE DESCRIBED IN THE MESSAGE AS 'A MILITARY MINORITY.'"

(REFERRING TO THE WAR DAMAGE SUFFERED BY GREECE, MR.TRUMAN SAID: "AS A RESULT OF THSX TRAGIC CONDITIONS, A MILITANT (CORRECT) MINORITY EXPLOITING HUMAN WANT AND MISERY, WAS ABLE TO CREATE POLITICAL CHAOS WHICH, UNTIL NOW, HAS MADE ECONOMIC RECOVERY IMPOSSIBLE.")

THE SECTION OF THE TASS STORY DEALING WITH TURKEY WAS DEVOTED ENTIRELY TO QUOTATIONS FROM THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

THE MAIN DEVELOPMENT THUS FAR WAS BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN'S INSISTENCE ON AND RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV'S AGREEMENT TO DISCLOSURE OF THE NUMBER OF GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR NOW BEING HELD IN RUSSIA AND ELSEWHERE.

MOLOTOV SAID HE WOULD GIVE THE FIGURES ON THE PRISONERS OF WAR, PROVIDED THE OTHER POWERS DID THE SAME. HE ALSO PROMISED TO FIX A DATE SOON FOR DESTROYING CERTAIN GERMAN NAVAL VESSELS AND AGREED THAT RUSSIA HAD BEEN DILATORY IN CARRYING OUT POTSDAM AGREEMENTS IN THIS REGARD.

THE VESSELS MENTIONED INCLUDE THE AIRPLANE CARRIER GRAF ZEPPELIN AND CAPITAL SHIPS.

THERE HAS BEEN MUCH SPECULATION SINCE THE WAR ENDED ON THE NUMBER OF FORMER ENEMY SOLDIERS IN THE SOVIET UNION, SOME ESTIMATES PUTTING THE FIGURE AS HIGH AS 3,000,000. BEVIN SAID THERE HAD BEEN REPORTS THAT SOME OF THESE HAD BEEN INDUCTED INTO THE SOVIET ARMY AND MOLOTOV MAY MAKE SOME REPLY TO THIS ACCUSATION IN A FUTURE EXCHANGE ON THE SUBJECT.

DESPITE THE SHARPNESS OF SOME OF BEVIN'S AND MOLOTOV'S ARGUMENTS LAST NIGHT, THE THIRD SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE GENERALLY RAN SMOOTHLY, WITH MOLOTOV DISPLAYING AN UNUSUALLY CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE ON THE PRISONER OF WAR QUESTION, AND OTHERS.

ONE QUESTION BEING ASKED BY WESTERN DIPLOMATS AT THE CONFERENCE WAS WHETHER THE SOVIET LINE AT FUTURE MEETINGS WOULD BE MORE OR LESS FIRM AS A RESULT OF THE AMERICAN MOVES IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND MARSHALL'S STERN AND AUSTERE APPROACH TO THE SESSIONS HERE.

CONCERNING THE RECALL OF THEIR AMBASSADORS--WHICH THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOT ANNOUNCED HERE--SPECULATION RANGED FROM THE POSSIBILITY THAT THEY WERE COMING HOME TO REPORT ON BRITISH AND AMERICAN POLICIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST TO A GUESS THAT THEY WERE RETURNING MERELY BECAUSE THE FOREIGN MINISTERS ARE HERE.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS LOCALLY REMAINED HOPEFUL OF CONSTRUCTIVE COOPERATION BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND MOSCOW IN LINE WITH MARSHALL'S EARLIER ASSERTION HERE THAT KEEPING GERMANY POWERLESS IN THE FUTURE DEPENDS ON THE UNITY OF THE BIG FOUR.

HOWEVER THAT MAY BE, IT WAS APPARENT THAT U.S. POLICY HAD SWUNG SLOWLY AND STEADILY UNTIL IT NOW STANDS A FULL 180 DEGREES FROM WHERE IT WAS WHEN CORDELL HULL AND ANTHONY EDEN CAME HERE IN 1943 FOR THE FIRST FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING IN MOSCOW, WITH HULL OPERATING ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT HIS MAIN TASK WAS TO ASSURE THE RUSSIANS OF AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP.

THERE WAS NO EDITORIAL COMMENT TODAY IN THE RUSSIAN PRESS ON DEVELOPMENTS AT THE CONFERENCE. HOWEVER, THE COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN PRAVDA PUBLISHED AN ARTICLE BY COMMENTATOR YURI ZHUKOV DECLARING IT WAS "IMPORTANT THAT A BUSINESSLIKE, TRANQUIL ATMOSPHERE CONDUCIVE TO CONSTRUCTIVE ACTIVITY PREVAIL AT THE SESSIONS."

ZHUKOV SAID HE HAD NOTED WITH REGRET THAT "CERTAIN CIRCLES OF SOME NATIONS ALREADY HAVE ESTABLISHED THE PRACTICE OF LAUNCHING FIERCE ATTACKS ON THE MAIN PRINCIPLES WHICH FORM THE BASIS OF CONFERENCE ACTIVITIES, PARTICULARLY THE GERMAN QUESTION."

HE ADDED THAT "ALL OBSERVERS ARE OF THE UNANIMOUS OPINION THAT THE SESSION WILL REQUIRE BIG EFFORTS FROM THE PARTICIPANTS."

"I FOUND THAT, INDIVIDUALLY, AMERICAN WOMEN HAVE MORE COMMON SENSE AND MORE EDUCATION THAN JAPANESE WOMEN. THEY ARE ALSO INTERESTING TO TALK TO.

"AMERICAN WOMEN ARE WELL-BUILT, NEAT, SMART-LOOKING, GAY AND KIND.

"NEAT LAUNDRY DRYING IN BACKYARDS GIVES US AN IDEA WHAT GOOD HOUSE-WIVES AMERICAN WOMEN MAKE.

"ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS ARE COMMON IN THE UNITED STATES.

"AT KANSAS CITY AIRFIELD, WHAT STRUCK ME WAS THE HUGE NUMBER OF PASSENGERS FLYING AT NIGHT.

BOMBAY, MARCH 11-(AP)-ALI MAHOMED MECKLAI, ONE OF INDIA'S LARGE BULLION TRADERS, SAID TODAY IN AN INTERVIEW THAT THE WORLD'S BULLION MARKETS ARE FACING PROBLEMS "WHICH ONLY SOME INTERNATIONAL AGENCY CAN SOLVE, AND I WOULD SUGGEST THE WORLD BANK AS THE LOGICAL AGENCY."

(IN NEW YORK THE PRICE OF FOREIGN SILVER DROPPED 5 3/4 CENTS AN OUNCE TODAY TO 78 CENTS, AND IN LONDON IT DROPPED 6 CENTS TO ABOUT 79 1/2 CENTS.)

MECKLAI CALLED INDIA'S EMBARGO ON GOLD AND SILVER IMPORTS AND THE BOMBAY BULLION MARKETS' FIXING OF PRICE CEILINGS ON FUTURES TRANSACTIONS "TEMPORARY EXPEDIENTS" THAT ARE "FAILING TO DO THE JOB."

MECKLAI PREDICTED THAT PRICES FOR UNREGULATED SPOT DELIVERY WILL GO STILL HIGHER, UNTIL THE CURRENT RUSH TO BUY SUBSIDES IN ABOUT TWO MONTHS WITH THE CLOSE OF THE "MARRIAGE SEASON," WHICH CALLS FOR HEAVY PURCHASES OF GOLD AND SILVER GIFTS AND ORNAMENTS.

THE COMMON MAN IN INDIA REGARDS POSSESSION OF SILVER AS SECURITY, IN THE SAME WAY AN AMERICAN FEELS SECURE IN THE POSSESSION OF LANDS AND HOME.

MECKLAI DESCRIBED THE EMBARGO ON IMPORTS AS AIMED AT CONSERVING DOLLAR CREDITS FROM THE METALS BLACK MARKET AND ALSO AS A HOPE OF THE GOVERNMENT THAT RESTRICTION OF SILVER SUPPLIES WILL ENCOURAGE THE PEOPLE TO INVEST IN INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISES INSTEAD OF IN HOARDED METALS.

"THE WORLD IS BEING VICTIMIZED TODAY BY THE FALLACIOUS THINKING THAT ECONOMIC LAWS CAN BE BENT AND TWISTED TO FIT THE NEEDS OF COUNTRIES," MECKLAI SAID.

"THE ALTERNATIVE IS A SERIES OF TEMPORARY EXPEDIENTS SUCH AS THOSE NOW BEING RESORTED TO IN INDIA, ALL OF THEM FAILING TO DO THE JOB."

ABOARD U.S.S.TACONIC,CARIBBEAN SEA,MARCH 12-(DELAYED)-(AP)-SKI'S BOYS SWAM IN UNDER THE ENEMY'S NOSE TODAY AND BLASTED A 70-YARD HUNK OF CORAL OUT OF THE REEF, OPENING A CHANNEL SO THAT OUR 5,000 MARINES COULD SAIL ONTO THE BEACH OF CULEBRA ISLAND TOMORROW AND THROTTLE THE IMAGINARY ENEMY.

THEY MADE A BEAUTIFUL EXPLOSION OF 1600 POUNDS OF TNT--INCIDENTALLY KILLING SOME MEDIUM SIZED RED SNAPPERS WHICH LATER WERE THOUGHTFULLY DELIVERED TO REAR ADM.R.O.DAVIS, COMMANDER OF AMPHIBIOUS FORCES, U.S. ATLANTIC FLEET.

SKI IS LIEUT.(JG) D.J.WRYSINSKI, 27-YEAR-OLD COMMANDING OFFICER OF THE NAVY'S UNDERWATER DEMOLITION TEAM NUMBER TWO, ATLANTIC FLEET. HIS TEAM IS COMPOSED OF YOUNGSTERS, 20 TO 21 MOSTLY, WHO SPECIALIZE IN SWIMMING IN BEFORE AN AMPHIBIOUS LANDING, SCOUTING THE BEACHES AND BLOWING UP ANYTHING THAT MIGHT IMPEDE AN INVASION.

THEY ARE JUST ORDINARY GUYS WHO HAVE TRAINED A LOT AND HAVE THE NERVES OF BRASS MONKEYS. THEY LOAD ABOUT HALF A TON OF TNT ON LITTLE RUBBER RAFTS AND TOW THEM UP IN DAYLIGHT OR DARKNESS, HEEDLESS OF BARRACUDA OR SHARKS. THEY WORK OVER JAGGED CORAL IN THE HEAVING BILLOWS FOR AN HOUR OR MORE, AND SET OFF THEIR CHARGES AS METHODICALLY AS IF THEY WERE BLASTING A QUARRY ASHORE.

THE CORRESPONDENTS FROM THIS VESSEL, THE FLAGSHIP OF THE FORCE WHOSE ASSAULT ON CULEBRA TOMORROW WILL WIND UP THE ATLANTIC FLEET MANEUVERS, WENT OVER TO WATCH THE UDT MEN AT WORK.

ABOARD THEIR SHIP, THE U.S.S.BURKE, A CONVERTED DESTROYER ESCORT, WE MET THE MAN WHO IS THE GUIDING GENIUS OF UDT WORK IN THE ATLANTIC FLEET, LIEUT.COM.FRANCIS D.FAND, A GIGANTIC, SOFT-SPOKEN MAN FROM ABERDEEN,SCOTLAND.

WE ZIG-ZAGGED AT TOP SPEED IN SMALL CRAFT TOWARD THE BEACH ABOUT NOON, CLOSELY FOLLOWED BY MANY ROCKET SHIPS WHICH SIMULATED FIRE AND KEPT OUR PHANTOM ENEMY UNDER COVER. WE SPUN AND SWERVED WITH SUCH ABANDON THAT WE CAME WITHIN ABOUT 100 YARDS AT ONE POINT OF COLLIDING WITH A ROCKET SHIP. WE REVERSED OUR ENGINE JUST IN TIME, THUS SAVING OUR 800 POUNDS OF TNT FOR THE REGULAR EXPLISION.

THE SWIMMERS WERE IN THE WATER ABOUT AN HOUR, SETTING THE CHARGE. THEN THEY LINED UP ABOUT FIFTY YARDS APART, AND WE SCOOTED ALONG PICKING THEM UP ONE BY ONE AS THEY GRABBED A LOOPED LINE. THE FUSE PULLERS REMAINED BEHIND, SWIMMING OUT ABOUT 400 FEET FROM THE CHARGE WITH THE DETONATING CORD AND MECHANISM AND AWAITING THE SIGNAL TO FIRE.

NORMALLY THERE IS A TEN MINUTE DELAY AFTER THEY PULL THE FUSE DURING WHICH THEY TOO ARE PICKED UP FROM THE WATER.

TODAY, HOWEVER, ONE MAN PULLED HIS FUSE FIVE MINUTES TOO SOON. THERE WERE SOME TENSE MOMENTS ABOARD OUR LITTLE CRAFT WHILE WE HUSTLED IN TO LOAD THE THREE MEN ABOARD AND STRIKE FOR THE OPEN SEA.

(300) FIRST LEAD HAWAII STATEHOOD MAR 1947

BY HARRISON HUMPHRIES
AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-COL.WILLIAM J.HUGHES,JR., OF THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL'S OFFICE SAID TODAY THE ARMY "THOUGHT IT MIGHT BE A GOOD THING" FOR THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO KEEP TITLE TO PUBLIC LANDS IN HAWAII IF IT BECOMES A STATE.

HE TOLD THE HOUSE PUBLIC LANDS COMMITTEE THAT UNLESS THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT RETAINS OWNERSHIP IT WOULD BE NECESSARY TO BUY OR LEASE LAND TO MAKE ANY EXPANSION OF MILITARY INSTALLATIONS IN HAWAII.

REP.BARRETT (R-WYO) ACCUSED THE ARMY OF WANTING TO "KEEP 1,600,000 ACORES ON THE CHANCE THAT THE ARMY MIGHT NEED 10 ACRES SOMETIME IN THE FUTURE."

COLONEL HUGHES SAID THE ARMY'S POSITION'S "TENTATIVE" AND THAT HE WILL DISCUSS IT FURTHER WITH SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON.

THE OFFICER WAS ASKED BY THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE AN AMENDMENT TO THE HAWAII STATEHOOD BILL, NOW UNDER CONSIDERATION, TO ASSURE FEDERAL JURISDICTION OVER MILITARY RESERVATIONS IN HAWAII, AND TO CLARIFY THE FEDERAL RIGHT TO ACQUIRE LANDS BY CONDEMNATION FOR MILITARY PURPOSES.

BARRETT AND REP.LEMKE (R-ND) QUESTIONED THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF WAR DEPARTMENT REQUEST THAT SOVEREIGNTY OVER MILITARY PROPERTY BE TRANSFERRED FROM HAWAII TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AS A CONDITION OF STATEHOOD.

THE COMMITTEE COMPLETED THE STATEHOOD HEARING TODAY. REP.WELCH (R-CALIF), CHAIRMAN, CALLED A MEETING FOR TOMORROW TO DISCUSS AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT, PARTICULARLY A CONTROVERSIAL RECOMMENDATION THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT KEEP TITLE TO THE PUBLIC LANDS IN HAWAII.

WELCH READ A TELEGRAM FROM CLEMENT GOMEZ, PRESIDENT OF THE HAWAIIAN TERRITORIAL SENATE, STATING THAT THE SENATE, HAD ADOPTED A RESOLUTION ASKING THAT HAWAII BE GIVEN THE SAME TREATMENT AS TEXAS, WHICH RESERVED ITS PUBLIC LANDS UPON ADMISSION TO THE UNION.

COL.KENDALL FIELDER, WHO WAS IN CHARGE OF MILITARY INTELLIGENCE IN HAWAII DURING THE WAR, CONFIRMED THE STATEMENTS OF EARLIER WITNESSES AS TO THE LOYALTY OF JAPANESE-AMERICANS IN THE ISLANDS.

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-THE WAR DEPARTMENT TODAY "TENTATIVELY" REQUESTED FEDERAL OWNERSHIP OF HAWAII'S PUBLIC LANDS AS A CONDITION FOR ADMITTING THE TERRITORY AS THE 49TH STATE.

COL.WILLIAM J.HUGHES, JR., SPEAKING FOR THE ARMY'S JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL, TOLD THE HOUSE PUBLIC LANDS COMMITTEE HE "THOUGHT IT MIGHT BE A GOOD THING" FOR THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO KEEP TITLE TO THE LANDS IN CASE MILITARY EXPANSION IS NECESSARY.

THE STATEMENT ADDED TO THE PUBLIC LAND CONTROVERSY, WHICH APPEARED TODAY TO JEOPARDIZE HAWAII'S CHANCES OF ACHIEVING STATEHOOD THIS YEAR.

SOME WESTERN MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE INDICATED FIRM SUPPORT FOR GIVING HAWAII THE TITLE TO ITS PUBLIC LANDS UPON ADMISSION TO THE UNION.

REP.LEMKE (R-ND) EXPRESSED THE OPINION AT THE CONCLUSION OF A WEEK OF HEARINGS THAT THE COMMITTEE "WILL NOT ACCEPT THE AMENDMENT" PROPOSED BY THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT TO RETAIN FEDERAL OWNERSHIP OF THE LANDS.

REP.CRAWFORD (R-MICH) RAISED THE POSSIBILITY OF A PRESIDENTIAL VETO OF THE STATEHOOD BILL UNLESS THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT'S POSITION IS SUSTAINED.

REP.POULSON (R-CALIF) DECLARED A "PRINCIPAL" IS INVOLVED AND HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE A "PRECEDENT ESTABLISHED" IN FAVOR OF HAWAII. THE GOVERNMENT RETAINED OWNERSHIP OF THE PUBLIC DOMAIN WHEN 17 WESTERN STATES WERE ADMITTED TO THE UNION.

THE COMMITTEE RECEIVED TODAY A TELEGRAM FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE HAWAIIAN TERRITORIAL SENATE STATING THAT THE SENATE HAD ADOPTED A RESOLUTION ASKING TO BE TREATED LIKE TEXAS. TEXAS, AN INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC, RESERVED ALL ITS PUBLIC LANDS WHEN IT CAME INTO THE UNION.

HAWAII WAS A REPUBLIC TOO WHEN IT WAS ANNEXED TO THE UNITED STATES AS A TERRITORY IN 1898. UNLIKE TEXAS, HOWEVER, HAWAII CEDED ITS PUBLIC DOMAIN TO THE UNITED STATES.

REP.BARRETT (R-WYO) CONTENDED THE UNITED STATES HOLDS ONLY THE "LEGAL TITLE" TO HAWAII'S PUBLIC LANDS, AND HAWAII NEVER SURRENDERED THE "EQUITABLE TITLE" SINCE ALL REVENUES FROM THE LANDS GO TO THE TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT.

"THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT MERELY HOLDS THE LANDS IN TRUST FOR HAWAII," HE DECLARED.

INVOLVED IN THE DISPUTE ARE 1,600,000 ACRES OF HAWAIIAN SOIL. HAWAIIAN SPOKESMAN SAY ONLY ABOUT 40,000 ACRES PRODUCE REVENUE--30,000 ACRES LEASED TO SUGAR PLANTATIONS, 1,300 TO PINEAPPLE PLANTATIONS, AND 8,000 FOR OTHER AGRICULTURAL PURPOSES. TOTAL REVENUE FROM THE LANDS AMOUNTS TO ABOUT $750,000 A YEAR.

THE COMMITTEE WILL BEGIN ITS FORMAL DELIBERATION OF THE QUESTION TOMORROW.

.. LOCAL 248, OF WHICH THEY ARE OFFICERS, HAS BEEN AT DIFFERENCES WITH THE ALLIS-CHALMERS COMPANY AT WHOSE WEST ALLIS,WIS., PLANT A LENGTHY STRIKE HAS BEEN IN PROGRESS.

KENNEDY MADE THE MOTION AFTER LOUIS F.BUDENZ, A FORMER MANAGING EDITOR OF THE COMMUNIST DAILY WORKER AND A ONE-TIME COMMUNIST, TOLD THE COMMITTEE BOTH BUSE AND CHRISTOFFEL HAD BEEN COMMUNISTS.

B11WX

BUSE AND CHRISTOFFEL, PREVIOUS WITNESSES BEFORE THE COMMITTEE, DENIED IN TESTIMONY THAT THEY EVER WERE COMMUNISTS.

KENNEDY'S MOTION WAS QUICKLY SECONDED BY SEVERAL COMMITTEE MEMBERS. HOWEVER, ACTING COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN LANDIS (R-IND) RULED THE MOTION "OUT OF ORDER AT THIS TIME."

BUDENZ HAS RENOUNCED COMMUNISM AND NOW IS A FORDHAM UNIVERSITY ECONOMICS PROFESSOR. HE SERVED FOR SIX YEARS AS A MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE UNITED STATES.

BUDENZ SAID THE COMMUNIST PARTY'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE ORDERED A STRIKE AGAINST THE ALLIS-CHALMERS COMPANY IN 1940.

BUDENZ TOLD THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE THE STRIKE ORDER, AS SUBSEQUENTLY CARRIED OUT, WAS GIVEN TO HAROLD CHRISTOFFEL. CHRISTOFFEL THEN WAS PRESIDENT OF LOCAL 248 OF THE CIO UNITED AUTO WORKERS UNION.

BUDENZ FORMERLY WAS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND A FORMER MANAGING EDITOR OF THE COMMUNIST ORGAN, THE NEW YORK DAILY WORKER.

HE DESCRIBED THE COMMUNIST PARTY AS "ONE OF THE WORST ENEMIES OF TRADE UNIONISM." HE SAID IT USES THE LABOR MOVEMENT AS A "PRIME INSTRUMENT FOR BRINGING ABOUT SOVIET DICTATORSHIP."

CHRISTOFFEL, A PREVIOUS WITNESS BEFORE THE COMMITTEE, HAS DENIED KNOWING BUDENZ OR ATTENDING A MEETING WITH HIM. HE ALSO HAS DENIED THE LEADERSHIP OF LOCAL 248 WAS COMMUNIST.

BUDENZ TOLD OF MEETING WITH CHRISTOFFEL AND OTHERS ON MANY OCCASIONS.

ASKED BY REP.KERSTEN (R-WISC) WHETHER CHRISTOFFEL WAS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, THE WITNESS DECLARED:

"HE WAS A MEMBER."

BUDENZ RECITED EVENTS WITHIN THE PARTY LEADING UP TO THE ALLIS-CHALMERS STRIKE CALL.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) CALLED ON CONGRESS TODAY TO SUPPORT PRESIDENT TRUMAN FULLY IN COMBATTING "COMMUNISTIC AGGRESSION," BUT FIRST ADVOCATED PUBLIC HEARING ON METHODS OF AIDING GREECE AND TURKEY.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HELD A NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER A CLOSED MEETING WITH SECRETARIES PATTERSON AND FORRESTAL OF THE WAR AND NAVY DEPARTMENTS AND UNDERSECRETARY ACHESON OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

A151WX

HE SAID HE IS INSISTING THAT "EVERY BIT OF INFORMATION" CONCERNING THE PROPOSED EXTENSION OF CREDITS TO THE MEDITERRANEAN NATIONS BE MADE AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC THROUGH OPEN CONGRESSIONAL HEARINGS.

"THE PRESIDENT HAS COURAGEOUSLY FACED THE PROBLEM OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION AND I WOULD EXPECT CONGRESS TO SUPPORT HIM," VANDENBERG SAID IN COMMENTING ON MR.TRUMAN'S APPEAL YESTERDAY FOR $400,000,000 IN CASH AID AND INDIRECT MILITARY HELP TO GREECE AND TURKEY.

"AS TO THE METHODS AND DETAILS OF HOW THIS WILL BE DONE," VANDENBERG CONTINUED, "I EXPECT CONGRESS TO RESERVE ITS OWN RIGHT TO PASS ITS OWN JUDGMENT."

A152WX

FOR THAT REASON, VANDENBERG SAID HE WANTS "EVERY QUESTION" THAT MIGHT ARISE ABOUT AMERICAN INTERVENTION INTO THE TROUBLED MEDITERRANEAN SCENE TO BE ANSWERED FULLY AT HEARINGS.

CONGRESS MUST ACT, VANDENBERG SAID, BECAUSE THE UNITED NATIONS IS NOT PREPARED AT THIS TIME TO CONSIDER SUCH A SITUATION AS HAS ARISEN.

STRESSING THAT NO UNITED NATIONS MILITARY FORCE HAS BEEN FORMED WHICH COULD UNDERTAKE THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE, VANDENBERG ASCRIBED THIS LARGELY TO A FAILURE OF THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA TO AGREE. HE SAID:

"THE DIFFICULTY HAS BEEN TO FIND COMMON GROUND WITH SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES IN THIS MATTER."

PERSONALLY, VANDENBERG SAID HE THINKS THAT "ALL POSSIBLE EMPHASIS" SHOULD BE PLACED NOW ON AN ATTEMPT TO GET AN EARLY AGREEMENT SO SUCH A FORCE COULD BE SET UP.

A153WX

TODAY'S DISCUSSION WITH THE WAR, NAVY AND STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, VANDENBERG SAID, WAS IN GENERAL TERMS SINCE NO DETAILED BILL YET HAS BEEN OFFERED. HE AGAIN EXPRESSED HOPE CONGRESS CAN COMPLETE ACTION ON LEGISLATION BY MARCH 31.

FOREIGN-FUTURE
BY EDWARD E.BOMAR

WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-WARTORN HUNGARY AND OCCUPIED KOREA LOOM BIGGEST TODAY ON ANY LIST OF POTENTIAL CANDIDATES FOR EXTENSION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECLARATION OF SUPPORT FOR FREE PEOPLES.

OFFICIALS OF SEVERAL GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS ALREADY ARE AT WORK ON PROPOSALS TO HELP THESE TWO NATIONS WHOSE PLIGHT--LIKE THAT OF GREECE AND TURKEY--HAS RESULTED AT LEAST IN PART FROM SOVIET RUSSIA'S EXPANSIVE PRESSURE.

THE FOREIGN HELP WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAS EXTENDED SINCE V-E DAY SUGGESTS THAT A GLOBAL PROJECTION OF THE POLICY MR.TRUMAN OUTLINED YESTERDAY TO CONGRESS MIGHT LATER INCLUDE CHINA AND ITALY AS WELL. BUT WHAT OTHER COUNTRIES ALONG THE DEMOCRATIC FRONTIER ULTIMATELY MAY CLAIM AMERICAN SUPPORT REMAINS FOR THE FUTURE TO DISCLOSE.

THIS GOVERNMENT MADE PLAIN ITS INTENT TO BOLSTER HUNGARY IN ANNOUNCING A $15,000,000 SURPLUS PROPERTY CREDIT LAST MONTH, AND STILL LATER BY VOICING A SHARP PROTEST AGAINST RUSSIA'S "DIRECT INTERFERENCE" IN AN ATTEMPT TO UPSET THE "FREELY ELECTED" DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN THE BUDAPEST PARLIAMENT.

HOWEVER, SIGNS THIS WEEK THAT LEADERS OF THE SMALLHOLDER PARTY MAJORITY MAY BE KNUCKLING UNDER TO THE COMMUNISTS AND LEFTIST BLOC HAVE RAISED QUESTIONS WHETHER THE FURTHER ASSISTANCE THAT WAS PROMISED FEBRUARY 15 MAY NOW BE TOO LATE IF NOT TOO LITTLE.

KOREA, A NATION DIVIDED BY AMERICAN AND RUSSIAN OCCUPATION ZONES, HAS A STATUS SOMEWHAT LIKE AUSTRIA, BUT THE KOREANS CAN QUALIFY AS A FREE PEOPLE UNDER FORMAL DECLARATIONS OF THE WARTIME ALLIES.

THE PROGRAM OF AMERICAN ASSISTANCE NOW BEING PUT INTO SHAPE IS AIMED AT REPAIRING RAILWAYS, FACTORIES AND OTHER PRODUCTIVE FACILITIES IN U.S.-OCCUPIED SOUTHERN KOREA. THE OBJECTIVE IS TO MAKE THAT AREA SELF-SUPPORTING REGARDLESS OF THE CONTINUING DISPUTE WITH RUSSIA OVER TERMS OF THE JOINT TRUSTEESHIP THAT WAS AGREED UPON AT MOSCOW IN 1945.

CONGRESS IS TO BE ASKED FOR ADDITIONAL FUNDS FOR KOREA, BUT THE AMOUNT HAS NOT BEEN DISCLOSED.

AMERICAN SUPPORT OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN SUSPENDED SINCE GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL ENDED HIS EFFORTS TO MEDIATE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE NATIONALISTS AND COMMUNISTS WHEN HE BECAME SECRETARY OF STATE IN JANUARY.

MAR 1947

A18WX

A $500,000,000 EXPORT-IMPORT BANK CREDIT STILL IS EAR-MARKED FOR CHINA, HOWEVER, AND NEGOTIATIONS HAVE BEEN IN PROGRESS FOR THE RELEASE OF AT LEAST PART OF THE LOAN BEFORE ITS JUNE 30 EXPIRATION DATE.

BY THE VERY FACT THAT HE MENTIONED SPECIFICALLY NO OTHER AREAS THAN EASTERN EUROPE AND TURKEY WHERE DEMOCRATIC AND TOTALITARIAN WAYS OF LIFE ARE IN CONFLICT, MR.TRUMAN POINTED UP THE GLOBAL EXTENT OF THE HEAD-ON CLASH OF INTERESTS BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND RUSSIA.

MOSCOW UNEXPECTEDLY HAS SUPPORTED THE AMERICAN CLAIM TO AN EXCLUSIVE UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP OVER THE FORMER JAPANESE-MANDATED ISLANDS IN THE PACIFIC, BUT EVEN HERE DIPLOMATS SUSPECTED AN ATTEMPT TO STRENGTHEN RUSSIA'S OWN CLAIMS TO TERRITORY ELSEWHERE.

OTHERWISE, AT ODDS DIPLOMATICALLY ON A SCALE PERHAPS UNMATCHED IN HISTORY, THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA DISAGREE AT THE MOMENT ON VIRTUALLY EVERY MAJOR ISSUE WHERE THEIR INTERESTS TOUCH.

LT336AES

FOREIGN-MILITARY
BY ELTON C.FAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEWLY ENUNCIATED FOREIGN POLICY CONFRONTED THE UNITED STATES TODAY WITH THE PROBLEM OF DECIDING QUICKLY WHETHER TO CONTINUE REDUCING ITS ARMED STRENGTH.

THE ADDRESS TO CONGRESS CARRIED NO IMPLICATION THAT AN ARMED CLASH IS EXPECTED OR CONTEMPLATED. HOWEVER, THE ARMED FORCES ARE MAINTAINED FOR THE SUPPORT OF FOREIGN POLICY IN TIME OF PEACE.

AT THE WAR AND NAVY DEPARTMENTS NO ONE WAS PREPARED TO SAY IMMEDIATELY WHAT IMPACT ANY NEW FOREIGN COMMITMENTS MIGHT HAVE ON THE PLANNED SIZE OF THE ARMED SERVICES. IT WAS POINTED OUT, NEVERTHELESS, THAT A CRITICAL TIME ELEMENT IS INVOLVED IN AT LEAST TWO PHASES OF THIS GENERAL QUESTION:

1--SHOULD THE PLANNED AVERAGE STRENGTH FOR THE YEAR BEINNING NEXT JULY 1 OF 1,070,000 FOR THE ARMY AND 571,000 FOR THE NAVY BE CARRIED OUT OR SHOULD THE RATE OF REDUCTION BE CHECKED TO STABILIZE THE ARMED SERVICES AT A HIGHER MANPOWER FIGURE?

2--IN THIS CASE, WILL CONGRESS AND THE WHITE HOUSE PROCEED WITH MR. TRUMAN'S RECOMMENDATION OF MARCH 3 THAT SELECTIVE SERVICE BE NOT RENEWED UPON ITS EXPIRATION DATE OF MARCH 31?

THE NATION'S MILITARY FORCES ARE OF DEFINITELY MODEST PROPORTIONS IN THE AREA WHERE THE NEW FOREIGN POLICY FOCUSES MOST SHARPLY, THE MEDITERRANEAN. THE SITUATION IN THAT AREA SEEMS TO BE THIS:

NAVAL FORCES--THREE LIGHT CRUISERS, THE DAYTON, PORTSMOUTH AND PROVIDENCE, AND SIX DESTROYERS. UNDER THE ROTATION PLAN, A CARRIER NORMALLY WOULD BE ON STATION IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, BUT ALL SUCH CRAFT IN ACTIVE SERVICE NOW ARE IN THE WESTERN ATLANTIC, MOST OF THEM ON MANEUVERS IN THE CARIBBEAN AREA.

ARMY GROUND FORCES--THE NEAREST ORGANIZED MILITARY FORCE (STRENGTH UNSTATED) IS HEADQUARTERS FORCE OF THE MEDITERRANEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS AT ROME. SOME TROOPS ALSO ARE ON OCCUPATION DUTY IN THE TRIESTE AREA, AT THE HEAD OF THE ADRIATIC.

ARMY AIR FORCES--VIRTUALLY NO AMERICAN MILITARY COMBAT PLANES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, ALTHOUGH SOME MILITARY TRANSPORT SERVICE IS MAINTAINED AND A FEW WEATHER STATIONS OPERATED BY THE AAF.

THERE ARE, OF COURSE, THE OCCUPATION ARMIES IN GERMANY AND AUSTRIA AND SOME AMERICAN NAVAL CRAFT BASED IN GERMAN OCCUPIED PORTS. HOWEVER, THE LAND FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES ARE PRESUMED TO BE FAR OUTWEIGHED BY SIMILAR FORCES OF OTHER NATIONS, INCLUDING RUSSIA WITH SEVERAL TENS OF DIVISIONS UNDER ARMS. RUSSIA'S SURFACE NAVAL FORCE IS BELIEVED TO BE NEGLIGIBLE, HER AIR FORCE PRESUMABLY OF NO MORE THAN MODERATE PROPORTIONS WITH EMPHASIS ON FIGHTER AIRCRAFT RATHER THAN BOMBERS.

A20WX

MAR 1947

(A RECENT PRESS DISPATCH FROM GERMANY REPORTED THAT THE AAF WAS RETURNING HOME ALL ITS HEAVY BOMBARDMENT AIRCRAFT, A REPORT WHICH AAF HEADQUARTERS HERE HAS DECLINED TO DISCUSS.)

ALL OF THIS RECALLS A RECENT ASSERTION BY A HIGH RANKING GENERAL OUTLINING EFFORTS TO GET THE INTERIM ARMY INTO SOME ORGANIZED FORM,

HE SAID:

"IF WE WERE FACED WITH A CRISIS TOMORROW, OUR FORCES OVERSEAS WOULD BE OVERRUN EXCEPT IN SOME ISOLATED PLACES."

ON THE GROUND THAT UNTIL THEY RECEIVE A DIRECTIVE FROM THE PRESIDENT THEY WILL NOT KNOW THE NATURE OR EXTENT OF ASSISTANCE THAT MIGHT BE GIVEN GREECE AND TURKEY, WAR DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS DECLINED TO DISCUSS PUBLICLY THE TERMS OF MR.TRUMAN'S SUGGESTIONS.

THE ARMY, IN LINE WITH USUAL DIPLOMATIC PRACTICE, ALREADY HAS MILITARY MISSIONS ATTACHED TO THE AMERICAN-DIPLOMATIC ESTABLISHMENTS IN GREECE AND TURKEY. THE RANKING MILITARY ATTACHES AT ATHENS AND ANKARA ARE BOTH COLONELS. TO A QUESTION WHETHER OTHER HIGHER RANKING OFFICERS ARE IN GREECE OR TURKEY, IT WAS EXPLAINED ONLY THAT PROTOCOL PROVIDES THAT THE RANKING OFFICER BE THE SENIOR MILITARY ATTACHE REGARDLESS OF WHO ELSE MAY BE IN THE COUNTRY TEMPORARILY.

PENDING FURTHER CLARIFICATION BY MR.TRUMAN, HIS RECOMMENDATION FOR "INSTRUCTION AND TRAINING OF SELECTED GREEK AND TURKISH PERSONNEL" IS ASSUMED TO SUGGEST A PRACTICE LONG FOLLOWED BY THE ARMY IN THE CASE OF SOME LATIN AMERICAN AND OTHER NATIONS. UNDER THAT PRACTICE, SELECTED ARMY AND AIR OFFICERS OF OTHER NATIONS COME TO THE UNITED STATES FOR ATTENDANCE AT ARMY SCHOOLS AND EXPERIENCE IN FIELD OPERATIONS OF OUR ARMY TO FAMILIARIZE THEMSELVES WITH AMERICAN EQUIPMENT AND OPERATIONS.

DURING THE WAR SUCH AID WAS EXPANDED TO INCLUDE, IN THE INSTANCE OF SUCH NATIONS AS BRAZIL, THE SENDING OF LARGE DELEGATIONS OF UNITED STATES ARMY PERSONNEL TO ASSIST OTHER REPUBLICS IN TRAINING AND BUILDING UP THEIR FORCES. THIS WAS ESPECIALLY TRUE OF AIR FORCE TRAINING.

BECAUSE THE ACTIVE MILITARY SUPPORT OF THE GREEK GOVERNMENT HAS INVOLVED THE PRESENCE OF BRITISH TROOPS AND THE USE OF QUANTITIES OF BRITISH MILITARY EQUIPMENT, ANY EFFORT TO SUPPLEMENT GREECE'S ARMAMENTS FROM AMERICAN STOCKS PRESUMABLY WOULD BE COMPLICATED BY DIFFERENCES IN GUN CALIBERS AND OTHER DIVERGENT STANDARDS. CONVERSATIONS ON THE MILITARY LEVELS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN IN THIS CONNECTION PRESUMABLY ARE FACILITATED BY THE FACT THAT THE COMBINED CHIEFS OF STAFF, A WARTIME ANGLO-AMERICAN STAFF ORGANIZATION, STILL FUNCTIONS HERE.

NEW YORK, MARCH 13-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A SPEECH BY HENRY WALLACE TONIGHT OVER THE NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY NETWORK (1,700):

YESTERDAY MARCH 12, 1947, MARKED A TURNING POINT IN AMERICAN HISTORY. FELLOW AMERICANS, IT IS NOT A GREEK CRISIS THAT WE FACE, IT IS AN AMERICAN CRISIS. IT IS A CRISIS IN THE AMERICAN SPIRIT. THAT WHICH I FEARED WHEN I WROTE PRESIDENT TRUMAN LAST JULY HAS COME UPON US. ONLY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE FULLY AROUSED AND PROMPTLY ACTING CAN PREVENT DISASTER.

YESTERDAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN, IN THE NAME OF DEMOCRACY AND HUMANITARIANISM, PROPOSED A MILITARY LEND-LEASE PROGRAM. HE PROPOSED A LOAN OF $400 MILLION TO GREECE AND TURKEY AS A DOWN PAYMENT ON AN UNLIMITED EXPENDITURE AIMED AT OPPOSING COMMUNIST EXPANSION. HE PROPOSED, IN EFFECT, THAT AMERICA POLICE RUSSIA'S EVERY BORDER. THERE IS NO REGIME TOO REACTIONARY FOR US PROVIDED IT STANDS IN RUSSIA'S EXPANSIONIST PATH. THERE IS NO COUNTRY TOO REMOTE TO SERVE AS THE SCENE OF A CONTEST WHICH MAY WIDEN UNTIL IT BECOMES A WORLD WAR.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALLS FOR ACTION TO COMBAT A CRISIS. WHAT IS THIS CRISIS THAT NECESSITATES TRUMAN GOING TO CAPITOL HILL AS THOUGH A PEARL HARBOR HAD SUDDENLY HIT US? HOW MANY MORE OF THESE PEARL HARBORS WILL THERE BE? HOW CAN THEY BE FORESEEN? WHAT WILL THEY COST?

TRUMAN SAYS THAT THE PEOPLE OF GREECE ARE HOMELESS, HUNGRY

AND RAVAGED BY THE LOSSES OF WAR. WE ALL KNOW THIS. IT IS NOT ONLY THE GREEK PEOPLE WHO ARE SUFFERING FROM THE WAR. IT IS THE PEOPLES OF ALL EUROPE, OF RUSSIA, OF CHINA, OF MANY LANDS.

AMERICANS AGREE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN THAT WE MUST AID THE PEOPLE BESIDE WHOM WE FOUGHT. AMERICANS ASK: IF AID TO THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD IS OUR OBJECTIVE, WHY DID THE PRESIDENT AND THE CONGRESS ALLOW THE UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND REHABILITATION ADMINISTRATION TO DIE? WHY ARE WE DOING NOTHING TO HELP THE MILLION DISPLACED PERSONS WITHOUT HOMES IN EUROPE? WHY ARE WE SPEAKING OF ONLY $400 MILLION WHEN THE NEED IS FAR GREATER? AND WHY IS $150 MILLION OF THOSE $400 MILLION TO BE GIVEN TO TURKEY WHICH WAS NO ALLY OF OURS AND WHICH IS IN NO URGENT NEED OF FOOD AND SUPPLIES?

B59 (Q)

ALL AMERICANS AGREE WITH TRUMAN THAT FREEDOM IS THE MOST CHERISHED OF HUMAN GOALS, AND SHOULD BE HELPED TO GROW IN ALL COUNTRIES. BUT THESE SAME AMERICANS ASK: HOW DOES SUPPORT GIVEN TO THE UNDEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS OF GREECE AND TURKEY AID THE CAUSE OF FREEDOM?

TURKEY IS A NATION WHICH FOUGHT AGAINST US IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR AND WHICH IN THIS WAR REFUSED TO HELP THE UNITED NATIONS. TURKEY FATTENED HERSELF OFF THE GERMANS AND THE ALLIES BY OFFERING HER VITAL SUPPLIES OF CHROME AND OTHER MATERIALS TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER. OUT OF THESE SALES SHE BUILT UP A GOLD RESERVE OF A QUARTER OF A BILLION DOLLARS. TURKISH NEUTRALITY LENGTHENED THE WAR BY MONTHS. TURKEY WAS A HAVEN FOR NAZI LEADERS AT THE WAR'S END. IT IS UTTER NONSENSE TO ASSERT TODAY THAT THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT IS REPRESENTATIVE OR DEMOCRATIC. TURKISH SOURCES STATE THAT THE $150 MILLION THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN PROPOSES TO GIVE TURKEY IS TO BE USED TO MAINTAIN HER ARMY OF A MILLION MEN,--EQUIVALENT TO 7 MILLION MEN UNDER ARMS IN TERMS OF THE UNITED STATES. IN WHAT SENSE IS THIS AN ARMY OF FREEDOM? MANY ALLIED DIVISIONS WERE IMMOBILIZED THROUGHOUT THE WAR BECAUSE WE NEVER KNEW ON WHOSE SIDE THIS SAME TURKISH ARMY WAS PREPARING TO FIGHT.

NOW EVERYONE ADMIRES THE GREEK PEOPLE WHO FOUGHT ON OUR SIDE. THEY URGENTLY NEED ECONOMIC AID. I WOULD BE STRONGLY FOR ECONOMIC AID TO GREECE. AS SECRETARY OF COMMERCE I WAS FOR A GREEK LOAN FOR SUCH PURPOSES WHEN MOST OF THE ADMINISTRATION WAS AGAINST IT. BUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS MADE IT CLEAR THAT VERY LITTLE OF THE $250 MILLION LOAN TO GREECE IS FOR ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION. IT IS A MILITARY SUBSIDY TO THE GREEK GOVERNMENT TO CONTINUE ITS EFFORTS TO STAMP OUT ALL OPPOSITION. IT IS UTTER NONSENSE TO SUGGEST THAT THE PRESENT GREEK GOVERNMENT IS A DEMOCRATIC ONE. THREE WEEKS AGO OUR SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL CONDEMNED MANY ASPECTS OF THAT GOVERNMENT. HE CALLED FOR A POLITICAL AMNESTY, SUBSTANTIAL UNITY AND MANY REFORMS IN THE GOVERNMENT AS THE CONDITIONS OF AMERICAN AID TO GREECE. WHY DID TRUMAN ABANDON THE CONDITIONS SET BY HIS OWN SECRETARY OF STATE? THE PRESIDENT ASKS THAT AMERICAN CIVILIAN AND MILITARY PERSONNEL SUPERVISE THE USE MADE OF AMERICAN SUPPLIES. WHAT DO THE ACTIVITIES OF AMERICAN ARMY OFFICERS IN GREECE HAVE TO DO WITH PEACEFUL RECONSTRUCTION?

B60

ONE YEAR AGO AT FULTON, MISSOURI, WINSTON CHURCHILL CALLED FOR A DIPLOMATIC OFFENSIVE AGAINST SOVIET RUSSIA. BY SANCTIONING THAT SPEECH TRUMAN COMMITTED US TO A POLICY OF COMBATTING RUSSIA WITH BRITISH RESOURCES. THAT POLICY HAS NOW PROVED TO BE SO BANKRUPT THAT BRITAIN CAN NO LONGER MAINTAIN IT. AND NOW PRESIDENT TRUMAN PROPOSES WE TAKE OVER BRITAIN'S HOPELESS TASK. TODAY AMERICANS ARE ASKED TO SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENTS OF GREECE AND TURKEY. TOMORROW WE SHALL BE ASKED TO SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENTS OF CHINA AND ARGENTINA.

I SAY THAT HIS POLICY IS UTTERLY FUTILE. NO PEOPLE CAN BE BOUGHT. AMERICA CANNOT AFFORD TO SPEND BILLIONS AND BILLIONS OF DOLLARS FOR UNPRODUCTIVE PURPOSES. THE WORLD IS HUNGRY AND INSECURE, AND THE PEOPLES OF ALL LANDS DEMAND CHANGE. AMERICAN LOANS FOR MILITARY PURPOSES WON'T STOP THEM. PRESIDENT TRUMAN CANNOT PREVENT CHANGE IN THE WORLD ANY MORE THAN HE CAN PREVENT THE TIDE FROM COMING IN OR THE SUN FROM SETTING. BUT ONCE AMERICA STANDS FOR OPPOSITION TO CHANGE WE ARE LOST. AMERICA WILL BECOME THE MOST HATED NATION IN THE WORLD.

RUSSIA MAY BE POOR AND UNPREPARED FOR WAR BUT SHE KNOWS VERY WELL HOW TO REPLY TO TRUMAN'S DECLARATION OF ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL PRESSURE. ALL OVER THE WORLD RUSSIA AND HER ALLY POVERTY WILL INCREASE THE PRESSURE AGAINST US. WHO AMONG US IS READY TO PREDICT THAT IN THIS STRUGGLE AMERICAN DOLLARS WILL OUTLAST THE GRIEVANCES THAT LEAD TO COMMUNISM? I CERTAINLY DON'T WANT TO SEE COMMUNISM SPREAD. I PREDICT THAT TRUMAN'S POLICY WILL SPREAD COMMUNISM IN EUROPE AND ASIA. YOU CAN'T FIGHT SOMETHING WITH NOTHING. WHEN TRUMAN OFFERS UNCONDITIONAL AID TO KING GEORGE OF GREECE, HE IS ACTING AS THE BEST SALESMAN COMMUNISM EVER HAD. IN PROPOSING THIS RECKLESS ADVENTURE TRUMAN IS BETRAYING THE GREAT TRADITION OF AMERICA AND THE LEADERSHIP OF THE GREAT AMERICAN WHO PRECEDED HIM.

COMING TWO DAYS AFTER THE OPENING OF THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH HAS UNDERMINED GENERAL MARSHALL'S ASSIGNMENT OF COOPERATING WITH GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA IN WRITING THE PEACE. THE UNITED NATIONS, OUR GREAT HOPE FOR PEACE, RESTS ON THE CONTINUED COOPERATION OF THESE NATIONS AND WILL BE GRAVELY WEAKENED IF AMERICA FOLLOWS THE COURSE THAT TRUMAN RECOMMENDS. THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION IS NOW IN GREECE INVESTIGATING THE THREAT TO GREEK SECURITY. IF GREECE IS IN DANGER LET THE UNITED NATIONS TELL US THE FACTS AND RECOMMEND ACTION. AMERICA WILL DO WHAT THE UNITED NATIONS RECOMMENDS. WHY SHOULD PRESIDENT TRUMAN UNDERCUT ITS ACTION? HOW CAN WE WAGE A WAR OF NERVES AGAINST RUSSIA AND EXPECT HER TO TAKE IN GOOD FAITH OUR PROPOSALS TO THE UNITED NATIONS ON ATOMIC ENERGY? WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN PROCLAIMS THE WORLDWIDE CONFLICT BETWEEN EAST AND WEST, HE IS TELLING THE SOVIET LEADERS THAT WE ARE PREPARING FOR EVENTUAL WAR. THEY WILL REPLY BY MEASURES TO STRENGTHEN THEIR POSITION IN THE EVENT OF WAR. THEN THE TASK OF KEEPING THE WORLD AT PEACE WILL PASS BEYOND THE POWER OF THE COMMON PEOPLE EVERYWHERE WHO WANT PEACE. CERTAINLY IT WILL NOT BE FREEDOM THAT WILL BE VICTORIOUS IN THIS STRUGGLE. PSYCHOLOGICAL AND SPIRITUAL PREPARATION FOR WAR WILL FOLLOW FINANCIAL PREPARATION; CIVIL LIBERTIES WILL BE RESTRICTED; STANDARDS OF LIVING WILL BE FORCED DOWNWARD; FAMILIES WILL BE DIVIDED AGAINST EACH OTHER; NONE OF THE VALUES THAT WE HOLD WORTH FIGHTING FOR WILL BE SECURE.

MOST AMERICANS FEAR THAT THE ACTIONS PROPOSED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN WILL LEAD TO DISASTER. THAT IS WHY CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS WERE PREPARED IN ADVANCE FOR THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. THAT IS WHY THE PROGRAM WAS PRESENTED PIECE BY PIECE, AND NOT AS AN OVERALL PROGRAM THAT AMERICANS COULD LOOK AT AND JUDGE AS A WHOLE. NO HYPOCRITICAL APPEAL TO THE GENEROSITY AND DECENCY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO DRAW US INTO A COMMITMENT FOR WHICH THERE IS NO END IN SIGHT. AMERICANS ARE FOR DEMOCRACY AND FOR ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION. BUT AS ONE AMERICAN CITIZEN I SAY:

NO LOAN TO UNDEMOCRATIC AND WELL-FED TURKEY; NO LOAN TO GREECE UNTIL A REPRESENTATIVE GREEK GOVERNMENT IS FORMED AND CAN ASSURE AMERICA THAT OUR FUNDS WILL BE USED FOR THE WELFARE OF THE GREEK PEOPLE.

TO AUTHORIZE THE LOANS PROPOSED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN WILL BRING THE WORLD NEARER TO WAR. TO DEFEAT THESE LOANS WILL NOT BRING PEACE. I RECOGNIZE THAT THERE IS GRAVE DANGER OF EVENTUAL WAR IN OUR PRESENT POLICY OF DRIFT. ALL NATIONS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS DRIFT TO WAR; ALL NATIONS MUST WORK TOGETHER FOR PEACE.

NO ONE WANTS WAR. IF WAR COMES, IT WILL BE BECAUSE WE HAVE FAILED TO THINK ON THE SCALE REQUIRED FOR PEACE. ROOSEVELT THOUGHT ON THAT SCALE. HE FORESAW GENERATIONS OF PEACE AND PLENTY. BUT TWO YEARS LATER TRUMAN ASKS US TO LOOK FORWARD TO GENERATIONS OF WANT AND WAR. TRUMAN HAS SUMMONED IN A CENTURY OF FEAR. I SAY THIS CAN BE THE CENTURY OF THE FULFILLMENT OF THE AMERICAN DREAM.

THIS IS THE TIME FOR AN ALL-OUT WORLDWIDE RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM FOR PEACE. THIS IS AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITY. THE PEOPLES OF ALL LANDS SAY TO AMERICA; SEND US PLOWS FOR OUR FIELDS INSTEAD OF TANKS AND GUNS TO BE USED AGAINST US. THE UNITED NATIONS IS WAITING, READY TO DO THE JOB. WE SHOULD START WITH AN ECONOMIC PLAN FOR THE NEAR EAST FINANCED BY THE INTEFN NLMN

EAST FINANCED BY THE INTERNATIONAL BANK, BACKED BY THE UNITED NATIONS. THE DOLLARS THAT ARE SPENT WILL BE SPENT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF GOODS AND WILL COME BACK TO US IN A THOUSAND DIFFERENT WAYS. OUR PROGRAM WILL BE BASED ON SERVICE INSTEAD OF THE OUTWORN IDEAS OF IMPERIALISM AND POWER POLITICS. IT IS A FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF LIFE THAT A STRONG IDEA IS MERELY STRENGTHENED BY PERSECUTION. THE WAY TO HANDLE COMMUNISM IS BY WHAT WILLIAM JAMES CALLED "THE REPLACING POWER OF THE HIGHER AFFECTION." IN OTHER WORDS, WE MUST GIVE THE COMMON MAN ALL OVER THE WORLD SOMETHING BETTER THAN COMMUNISM. I BELIEVE WE HAVE SOMETHING BETTER THAN COMMUNISM HERE IN AMERICA. BUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS NOT SPOKEN FOR THE AMERICAN IDEAL IT IS NOW THE TURN OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO SPEAK.

COMMON SENSE IS REQUIRED OF ALL OF US IN REALIZING THAT HELPING MILITARISM NEVER BRINGS PEACE. COURAGE IS REQUIRED OF ALL OF US IN CARRYING OUT A PROGRAM THAT CAN BRING PEACE. COURAGE AND COMMON SENSE ARE THE QUALITIES THAT MADE AMERICA GREAT. LET'S KEEP THOSE QUALITIES NOW.

MARSHALL DECLARES U. S. HOLDS CIVIL LIBERTY KEY TO DEMOCRACY

Marshall Gives U.S. Ideas On Democracy for Germany

(NY)

Makes Oblique Attack on Totalitarian Rule in Big 4 Talk.

MOSCOW, March 14 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall, in an oblique attack on totalitarian government, laid before the foreign ministers today a pointed outline of American concepts of democracy and how they should apply to Democratic Germany.

On the question of China, the United States acknowledged formally receipt of a note from Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov pressing for informal British-American-Russian talks but gave no answer.

Prospects dimmed for such talks with a representative from China present. An authorized source said the Chinese were almost certain to reject an invitation to attend. Molotov had asked originally that China be placed on the ministers' agenda, but Marshall refused unless China could participate.

China Protests Discussions

(A Nanking dispatch said the Chinese foreign office sent identical notes to the four powers in Moscow, objecting to any discussions of China's internal affairs, either officially or outside the foreign ministers' conference.)

Molotov urged the ministers to take immediate action on establishing central trade unions and central political agencies before taking up economic questions in Germany.

He was blocked immediately by British Foreign Secretary Bevin, who declared coldly that he did not come to Moscow to place his government in a costly position. He said the British were ready to lay figures on the table showing the amount of reparations taken from Germany, and that Britain expected the other powers to do the same.

Molotov evaded a direct answer to Bevin's request for reparation figures. The British consider the information essential to discussions of questions of a unified Germany.

Bevin's delegation was reported under explicit orders from the government to make no commitments involving expenditure of additional funds in Germany. The western delegations fear the Russians have taken so much from the eastern zone that an economic merger would bring additional financial burdens on the western powers.

Marshall Dominates Meeting

Marshall dominated the meeting with his proposals for a free press and radio, guarantee of civil rights to individuals, freely constituted political parties, free trade unions, and freedom of movement throughout Germany.

"To us a society is not free if law abiding citizens live in fear of being denied the right to work or deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," Marshall said.

Molotov acknowledged that Marshall's remarks were useful but he asserted specifically that the Russian view on freedom of speech and press did not mean freedom for propagation of Nazi and aggressive doctrines.

Molotov said the Soviet Union would have something further to say on the subject.

Americans at the conference placed special emphasis on Marshall's remarks, in view of President Truman's declaration against spread of Communism in Greece.

Today the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia attacked Mr. Truman's plea to congress to aid Greece and Turkey as an attempt by the United States to dominate those countries and side-step the United Nations.

Gives Views on Democracy

Marshall said bluntly that the United States does not consider a society democratic if men who "respect the rights of their fellow men are not free to express their own beliefs and convictions without fear that they may be snatched away from their home and family."

Americans believe, he added, that "the present control of Germany by the Allies gives us a unique opportunity to demonstrate to the world the sincerity of the democratic goal which was proclaimed in the Atlantic charter and the charter of The United Nations."

He mapped a program for political reconstruction of Germany based on these five points:

1. Adequate guarantees of basic rights and liberties of each individual should be contained in every German constitution. "So far there has not been uniformly effective guarantee of civil rights in all parts

Freedom From Fear U.S. Aim—Marshall

Moscow, March 14 (AP)—Secretary Marshall bluntly told the Conference of Foreign Ministers today that the United States does not consider a society democratic if men who "respect the rights of their fellow men are not free to express their own beliefs and convictions without fear that they may be snatched away from their home and family."

Marshall was speaking on the need for democratization of Germany, but his comment, coming on top of President Truman's declarations against totalitarianism in Greece, heavily stressed the American stand for other parts of the world.

"To us," said the American Secretary, "a society is not free if law-abiding citizens live in fear of being denied the right to work, or of being deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Liquidation Of Plants

Marshall also told the Council:

1. Eighty of 117 war-production plants in the American zone of Germany are 100 per cent liquidated.

2. The United States now holds only 15,103 Nazi prisoners of war, mostly in Italy, while 15,873 more are rapidly being discharged in the American zone of Germany.

Problem Of DP's

Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov announced that figures on prisoners of war held by the Russians would be circulated among the delegations tonight.

The Foreign Ministers agreed to take up tomorrow the thorny questions of displaced persons and territorial reorganization of Germany.

Molotov said the American Secretary's remarks of democratization were useful and the Soviet Union would have something further to say on that subject.

Not Freedom For Nazis

The Soviet Minister said specifically that the Russian view on the general doctrine of freedom of speech and press did not mean freedom for the propagation of Nazi and aggressive doctrines.

Marshall said Americans believed "the present control of Germany by the Allies gives us a unique opportunity to demonstrate to the world the sincerity of the democratic goal which was proclaimed to the world in the Atlantic Charter and the Charter of the United Nations."

The American Secretary outlined five things he said needed doing in the political reconstruction of Germany:

1. Adequate guarantees of basic rights and liberties of each individual should be contained in every German constitution, but "so far there has not been a uniformly effective guarantee of civil rights in all parts of Germany."

Free Elections

2. Free political parties should be insured to participate in a free and competitive election system "in which each is accorded full opportunity to present his views, win adherents and obtain just representation." Marshall said there had been no uniformity in political parties throughout Germany.

3. The right of "free and autonomous trade unions to carry on trade union activities, in accordance with the wishes of their members, should be clearly established."

4. All parts of Germany must be guaranteed "freedom of press and radio."

5. The uniform movement of persons and goods through Germany must be guaranteed as "essential to the Government's sound political and economic life in a peaceful Germany."

Press And Radio

Marshall dealt at length with the press and radio, saying:

"There is, in the opinion of the American Government and the American people, a connection between modern democracy and a free press and radio.

"Governmental domination, manipulation of information in the interest of a party, was a powerful weapon in the hands of the anti-democratic Nazi regime. If anti-democratic ideologies are to be forever eliminated from Germany we must certainly permit the people of that nation to enjoy unrestricted access to information obtained by means of all media of public information, including the press, radio, books, magazines, films, the theater and music."

Not Negative Progress

Marshall declared the Allies would never democratize Germany by "a mere negative process depriving Nazis of their positions and influence."

"We must rather take an active part in the establishment of the essentials which I have outlined and proceed to restore German economic and political life upon the foundation which they provide," he added.

At the outset of the meeting Marshall offered to eliminate the reading of his documents, to save time. French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and Molotov became involved in language difficulties over what Marshall meant. Marshall then said his attempt to save time apparently only was wasting time, and amid chuckles he began reading.

Extemporaneously Marshall replied to two criticisms raised previously by Molotov concerning the American occupation zone of Germany. To the Soviet charge that 35 per cent of the judges there are former Nazis, Marshall said that actually 35 per cent were former members of the German judicial system who had been cleared of any nazism.

To Molotov's assertion that 9,000 Germans were in military units of the American zone, Marshall replied that 8,000 were in labor units on January 1, 1947, and that an order had been issued for their prompt dispersement.

Figures On PW's

Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Bevin presented figures on prisoners of war held by their countries.

Bevin said Britain had 435,295 outside Germany, who were being repatriated at the rate of 17,000 monthly and up. He said the rate would be increased to 20,000 monthly on July 1.

Bidault said France had a total of 641,483 prisoners, including 593,267 in France.

Marshall's report said the prisoners held by the Americans included 103 sick or imprisoned in the United States, 1,175 in grave units and similar details in France, and 13,825 in Italy.

Meanwhile, prospects dimmed for Big Three talks concerning the Chinese crisis, with China present, despite Russian insistence. An authoritative source said China was not likely to agree to participate. (In Nanking, the Foreign Office announced refusal to participate.)

The Chinese maneuvers, starting with Molotov's written request for such conferences last night, shared keen interest among the western delegations with a whopping Izvestia editorial, which, in the first real Russian reaction to President Truman's message about Greece and Turkey, virtually accused him of breaking United Nations obligations and of trying to grab the two countries.

Power Diplomacy

The impression was growing strongly that Soviet and United States competition for world leadership was boiling down to naked power diplomacy in which China, Greece or Turkey are or may become points of conflict, such as Eastern Europe has long been.

The force of Soviet feeling was shown by the blunt words the editorial applied to Truman. It is very unusual for an official Soviet publication to talk harshly about the head of a state, no matter how they lambast lesser lights.

P. S. Foo, Chinese Ambassador to Moscow, called on Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Britain today.

Marshall's Statement on Democracy

MOSCOW, March 14 (AP)—The text of United States Secretary of State Marshall's statement to the Council of Foreign Ministers on the democratization of Germany follows:

The Berlin conference instructed the Allied Control authority "to prepare for the eventual reconstruction of German political life on a democratic basis, and for eventual peaceful cooperation in international life by Germany." We believe that the directive should be made more precise, so as to assure unity of procedure within the different German zones.

"I realize that the word "democracy" is given many interpretations. To the American Government and citizens it has a basic meaning. We believe that human beings have certain inalienable rights — that is, rights which may not be given or taken away.

They include the right of every individual to develop his mind and his soul in the ways of his own choice, free of fear and coercion — provided only that he does not interfere with the rights of others. To us a society is not democratic if men who respect the rights of their fellow men are not free to express their own beliefs and convictions without fear that they may be snatched away from their home or family. To us a society is not free if law-abiding citizens live in fear of being denied the right to work or deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Says Sincerity Is Tested

We believe the reconstruction of Germany on a democratic basis, as called for by the Berlin conference, requires that the basic law within each German state and the practice of occupying authorities should assure such rights to every individual and effectively prevent any government or group, however powerful or however numerous, from taking such rights from, or imposing such fears on any individuals, however weak or however few.

We believe that the present control of Germany by the Allies gives us a unique opportunity to demonstrate to the world the sincerity of the democratic goals which were proclaimed in the Atlantic Charter and the Charter of the United Nations.

Unfortunately the Allied Control Council has not yet been able to agree upon the guarantees necessary to assure political and economic freedom in all parts of Germany. In consequence there has been no uniform preparation of Germans in the different zones for political reconstruction of Germany.

In the first place, it seems clear that there has not been a uniformly effective guarantee of civil rights in all parts of Germany. The protection of the individual in a modern state rests upon constitutional guarantees of his basic rights and liberties. I assume my colleagues will agree that adequate guarantees of these basic rights of the individual should be contained in every German constitution.

In the second place, there has been no uniformly effective guarantee of the rights of political parties in all parts of Germany.

Urges Freedom in Politics

Freely constituted political parties should be insured the right to participate in a free and competitive election system in which each is accorded equal opportunity to present its views, win adherents and obtain just representation.

In the third place, there is no uniformly effective guarantee of the rights of free trade unions in all parts of Germany. The rights of free and autonomous trade unions to carry on the customary trade union activities in accordance with the wishes of their members should be clearly established.

In the fourth place there is no uniformly effective guarantee of freedom of press and radio in all parts of Germany.

There is, in the opinion of the American Government and the American people, a vital connection between modern democracy and a free press and radio. Governmental domination and manipulation of information media in the interest of the Nazi party were powerful weapons in the hands of the anti-democratic Nazi regime. If anti-democratic ideologies are to be forever eliminated in Germany we must certainly permit the people of that nation to enjoy an unrestricted access to information obtained by means of all media of public information, including the press, the radio, books, magazines, publications, films, the theatre and music.

Deplores Ban on Travel

In the fifth place, there is no uniformly effective guarantee of freedom of movement for persons and goods throughout Germany.

Such freedom is essential to the development of a sound political and economic life in a peaceful Germany. The original reasons for restricting the movement of Germans internally no longer exist. German military forces have been disbanded and the great majority of war criminals apprehended, Nazi organizations have been broken up, and active Nazis and subversive elements are under the necessary control and surveillance.

Since the reasons for restricting the free movement no longer prevail, it seems to us that the time has come to terminate any such restrictions that now exist.

I am sorry that the Allied Control Council has delayed in taking the necessary action to insure the observance of these prerequisites to the agreed political and economic objectives.

We will never democratize Germany by the mere negative process of depriving the Nazis of their positions and influence. We must, rather, take an active part in the establishment of the essentials which I have outlined and proceed to restore German economic and political life upon the foundation which they provide. To make substantial progress in this direction, a common agreement among us is essential.

The United States delegation regards the principles I have outlined as of fundamental importance. I shall later circulate a proposed directive on the subject, which I hope will have your sympathetic consideration.

CHINESE OBJECT TO RUSSIAN PLAN

Notes To Big Four Oppose Discussions Of Internal Affairs

Nanking, March 14 (AP)—The Chinese Foreign Office sent identical notes to the Big Four in Moscow today, objecting to any discussion of China's internal affairs, either officially or outside the Foreign Ministers' Conference.

Public protests and demonstrations against the Soviet proposal to discuss China were reported from Peiping, Tientsin and Shanghai, but the Chinese Communists heartily indorsed such a discussion, saying it was "necessary" and "reasonable."

The Chinese Foreign Office announced its stand in a press release, saying "It is authoritatively learned" that China refused to accept the proposal of Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Russian Foreign Minister, to consider reports on execution of the Moscow communiqué of December, 1945, regarding China.

Message To Big Four

It said the grounds were that China was not a party to the 1945 action and "because it involved China's internal problems."

Wang Shih-chieh, Foreign Minister, and Kan Nai-kwang, Vice Minister, told the People's Political Council and the Legislative Yuan that China's opposition to the discussions had been forwarded to the Big Four through the Chinese Embassy in Moscow.

Kan said China was not represented in the conference because of Soviet objections but that the Government was keeping in close touch with the Americans, British and French and would communicate its views if treaties with Germany and Austria were found to be unfavorable to Chinese interests.

Large Meeting In Peiping

In Peiping a crowd estimated to total 70,000 to 80,000 heard speakers protest international intervention in China and then held an orderly parade. There was a similar large meeting in Tientsin.

John Roderick, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, reported "the event lacked the air of indignation marked in the student anti-American demonstrations of January, when Americans were cursed and fists were shaken. Today demonstrators grinned at this correspondent, shouted hello, and some reached out and shook hands."

In Shanghai the Chamber of Commerce and four other public bodies sent a joint telegram to Moscow declaring that the Soviet proposal was an insulting infringement on Chinese sovereignty. Shanghai University busses bore anti-Soviet placards and caricatures of Premier Stalin.

Communist Wants Discussion

The Chinese Communist radio at Yenan, in a broadcast heard by the Associated Press, quoted Chou En-lai, Communist diplomatic negotiator, as heartily approving discussion of China at Moscow and demanding that Communist representatives sit in.

Chou was quoted as saying the 1945 statement on China called for an end of the civil war, reorganization of the Government and non-intervention by foreign powers.

China Formally Rejects Red Proposal

Nanking, March 14 (AP)—The Chinese Foreign Office said in a press release today that "the Chinese Government has refused, it is authoritatively learned, to accept" a proposal made at Moscow that the Big Three consider China's problems, with China participating.

A proposal to exchange reports on China in line with the Big Three's Moscow agreement of December 19, 1945, was said to be unacceptable because China was not a party to the agreement and because it involved China's internal problems.

Meanwhile, most Government officials indicated jubilance over United States policy outlined in President Truman's speech on Greece. Chinese observers, studying the text, said they were convinced it was written with one eye on Europe and the other on China.

Official reaction was limited to a Ministry of Information statement that Mr. Truman's proposal for aiding the Greeks was "heartening news whose statesmanlike quality is enhanced by the fact that he advocates a practical, positive program of economic and financial assistance to implement it."

[In Shanghai, the Chamber of Commerce and four other public bodies sent a joint telegram to Moscow charging that discussion of the Chinese situation would infringe on China's sovereignty and insult the nation. Shanghai busses owned by Chinese universities displayed placards protesting the Soviet proposal to take up China's affairs.

[In Hong Kong, Gen. Tsai Ting-kai, former head of the Chinese 19th Route Army, and Marshal Li Chai-sum, former military governor of Kwangtung and Kwangsi provinces, appealed to the Moscow Foreign Ministers Conference today not to interfere in China's internal affairs and asked a cessation of the sending of supplies to China.]

RUSSIA ATTACKS U. S. 'INTRUSION' IN GREEK CRISIS

E. GILMORE

MOSCOW, March 14—(AP) Izvestia, the most authoritative government newspaper in the Soviet Union, charged today that President Truman's proposals for aid to Greece and Turkey were a "fresh intrusion" threatening the independence of those two nations and short circuiting the United Nations.

The two-column editorial, which was the first extended Soviet reaction to the President's message to Congress asking for $400,000,000 to fight any totalitarian subjugation of Greece and Turkey, created excited interest among visiting delegations to the foreign ministers council in Moscow.

U. S. Action Rapped

Over their morning coffee, officials at the foreign ministers council read Izvestia's declaration that "The American government has not the least intention of acting in the Greek question as one might have expected of a member of the United Nations organization worried about the fate of another of the latter's members. It is obvious that in Washington they do not wish to take into account the obligations accepted by the government of the United States of America regarding the UN."

In his desire "to act over the head of the UN", Izvestia continued, Mr. Truman "did not even consider it necessary" to await the report of the special United Nations inquiry commission sent to Greece to investigate her troubles on her northern borders.

He also did not take into account the sovereignty and independence of Greece and Turkey, the paper said.

"In fact, what will remain of Greek sovereignty after American military and civilian personnel have sat on the heads of the Greek leaders and when that personnel begins administering in Greece with the aid of 250,000,000 American dollars brought into that country?"

Hit "American Imperialism"

"American 'assistance' to Turkey is obviously aimed at putting this country also under United States control, after which one would not be able to speak of the independence of the Turkish home and foreign policy, since this policy would be directly controlled by American imperialism," Izvestia went on.

Charging that talk of "American responsibility" in saving Turkey and Greece from "expansion on the part of the so-called 'totalitarian states'" was but a smokescreen to hide plans for expansion, Izvestia said such talk was not new.

"Hitler also referred to the Bolsheviks when he wanted to open the road to conquests for himself," Izvestia said.

"Now they try to take Greece and Turkey under their control and, by raising a din about 'totalitarian states,' attempt to disguise their plans of expansion.

"This seems the more attractive in that while elbowing themselves in, the United States is pushing non-totalitarian Great Britain out of yet another state or two."

Action Unexpected Of U.N. Member, Izvestia Says

Moscow, March 14 (AP) — The Soviet Government newspaper Izvestia accused the United States today of interfering in the internal affairs of Greece and Turkey and of behaving in a manner that could not have been expected from a member of the United Nations.

It was the first real Russian editorial reaction to President Truman's speech to Congress Wednesday urging United States aid for Greece and Turkey. Izvestia probably is more of a Government organ than any other paper in Moscow. "In Washington," said the editorial, which was eagerly read by foreign delegates to the Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference, "they obviously do not want to consider the obligations adopted by the United States Government before the United Nations organization.

Going Over Head Of U.N.

"Expressing unusual nervousness, President Truman did not even deem it necessary to wait for the results of the work of the Security Council's commission sent to Greece to determine the situation there."

Delegates, and this certainly must have included United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, read in this attack on the President's request for $400,000,000 to aid Greece and Turkey that the United States "desires to go over the head of the United Nations."

From one end of Moscow to the other this editorial, which in size alone was one of the longest to appear in many months—it stretched from the masthead to the bottom of the front page through two columns—was read with avid interest by all who could get a copy and read Russian or prevail upon the already burdened translators to read it to them.

Colonizers Doomed

Official translations were reported under preparation for the principal delegates.

"Claims of the United States for leadership in international affairs," the editorial said, "grow in keeping with the appetites of interested American circles.

"However," it continued, "American leaders, acting on a new historical situation, do not take into consideration that the old methods of colonizers and hard-headed politicians have already outlived this century and are doomed to failure. In this is the principal weakness of Truman's speech."

What Of Greek Sovereignty?

Izvestia said: "Truman did not take into consideration either the international situation or the sovereignty of Greece.

"And, really, what will be left of Greece's sovereignty after the American military and civilian personnel will sit on the heads of the Greek rulers and when this personnel commences the direction of Greece with the aid of 250,000,000 imported American dollars."

The paper asserted that "from such an" original defense of Greece, the sovereignty and independence of Greece would suffer first of all. It said the Greek people do not deserve such treatment.

One Master For Another

"If this is what Mr. (Foreign Minister Constantin) Tsaldaris wants to obtain, then the worst to Mr. Tsaldaris, who would lead Greece into such a position," it continued. "The long suffering Greek people are faced with the replacing of one master by another master, the United States.

"No matter how the American claims are covered up, it is impossible to justify these claims by alleged defense of the freedom and independence of the Greek people."

Hitler Used Same Idea

Turning to the situation of Turkey, Izvestia said:

"American aid to Turkey is obviously directed toward subordinating this country to the control of the United States after which one will not be able to speak of the independence of either Turkey's internal or external policies because policy will be under the subordination of American imperialism.

"Discussion of the subject of the United States being called upon to rescue Greece and Turkey from the expansion of a so-called totalitarian state is not new.

"Hitler also referred to the Bolsheviks when he wanted to blast himself a path of dissipation.

"At the present they want to subordinate Greece and Turkey and are endeavoring with making a great noise about a 'totalitarian state' to cover up their own expansionist plan.

"Truman's speech could not but fail to attract the attention of public opinion in the United States as well as outside of it. One cannot say that it did not encounter serious criticism even in the so-called circles of Congress.

Dissuasion Try Alleged

"A group of thirteen American congressmen tried to talk him out of the speech before he made it."

The article said Britain, because of her own hardships, was described as being unable to give Greece aid and therefore the reason was put forward that the United States, in Truman's opinion, should give the aid.

"This American Congress is offered the opportunity to sanction 'two good affairs' at once: The rescue of Greece from internal mishaps and to pay expenditures for the modernization of Turkey.

"There is no doubt that Tsaldaris's message to the United States, which is crying pleas for aid, is bright evidence of the bankruptcy of that internal political regime in Greece which unexpectedly got a flattering appraisal in the message of the President.

"But the cause is not so much the bribable Greek monarchists and their allies. . . . It is well known that the real masters of Greece were and are the English military authorities."

Izvestia accused British occupation and British interference of aiding the bankruptcy of Greece.

"The message of the American President avoids these completely obvious questions. The reasons for such delicacy are entirely understandable. The United States does not want to criticize the English procedure, as they themselves are inclined to follow the English example."

No Change In Policy

Izvestia said: "It is not for nothing that the London Times hails Truman's speech and the Daily Telegraph notes that his speech 'fully justifies British policy in Greece.'

"One can understand from Truman's speech that the United States is not going to change the course of British policy carried on in Greece, but that in such a case better results also cannot be expected."

'Izvestia' Editorial on Truman

LONDON, March 14 (AP).—The complete text of the "Izvestia" editorial on President Truman's speech regarding aid to Greece and Turkey, as broadcast today by the Moscow radio and recorded in London by the Soviet monitor:

On March 12 the U. S. President Truman addressed a message to Congress in which he asked that $400,000,000 be assigned for giving urgent aid to Greece and Turkey, and asking for permission to send to these countries American civilian and military personnel as well as the securing of the training and instruction of specially picked Greek and Turkish personnel by American personnel.

Giving as grounds for his proposal, Truman stated that Greece was in a desperate economic and political situation. Britain was no longer able to act as trustee for the Greeks. Truman added that Britain is faced with the necessity of reducing or eliminating her obligations in several parts of the world, including Greece.

Turkey in her turn requested speedy American aid. True, Turkey, differing from Greece, did not suffer from the second world war, but she needs the financial aid of Britain and the United States of America, said Truman, to carry out that modernization which is necessary for the maintenance of her national entity.

And in so far as the British government, as a result of its own difficulties, in the given case has not the capacity for offering financial or other aid to the Turks, then this aid, in Truman's opinion, must be furnished by the UnitedStates.

Thus it is proposed to the American Congress that it sanction two good deeds at once: To save Greece from internal disorders and pay for the cost of modernizing Turkey, upon which even her further existence depends.

There can be no doubt that the request of the Tsaldaris government to the United States of America with a tearful prayer for help is clear evidence of the bankruptcy of that internal-political regime which has unexpectedly received a flattering evaluation in the President's message to Congress.

But the matter not only, and not so much, lies in the venal Greek monarchists and their allies, who have been pleasantly presented to American Congressmen as direct descendants of the defender of Thermopylae, the legendary king Leonidas. It is well known that the real rulers of Greese up until now have been and are still the British military authorities.

Britishr troops found themselves on Greek territory from 1944. On Churchill's initiative, Britain took upon herself the responsibility for "stabilizing political conditions in Greece." The British authorities have not only helped to maintain at the helm reactionary, anti - democratic forces in Greece and demonstrated extreme unscrupulousness in the matter, supporting people who actively and consciously collaborated with the Germans, but also all the political and economic activities of the short-lived Greek governments, made up of the most varied combinations, have been carried on up to the present time under the vigilant British control and administration.

Today the result of this policy confronts one—complete bankruptcy. British troops did not bring tortured Greece the peace and quiet she so thoroughly deserved. The Greek people found itself thrust on to a path of fresh suffering, hunger and poverty. Civil war is not dying down but is taking on ever fiercer forms.

But has not the presence of foreign troops on Greek territory aided such a sad state of affairs? Does not Britain, who proclaimed herself Greece's guardian, bear responsibility for the bankruptcy of the country's trusteeship?

The American President's message by-passes these perfectly natural questions. The reasons for such delicacy are fully understandable. The United States does not wish to criticize the British practice since they themselves intend following the British example.

No wonder "The London Times" warmly greets Truman's statement while "The Daily Telegraph" notes that his speech fully justifies British policy in Greece.

From Truman's statement it may be understood that the United States does not intend altering the course of the British policy being carried out in Greece. In this case also, then, one cannot expect better results.

The American government has not the least intention of acting in the Greek question as one might have expected of a member of the United Nations organization worried about the fate of another of the latter's members. It is obvious that in Washington they do not wish to take into account the obligations accepted by the government of the United States of America regarding the U. N. O.

Displaying singular nervousness, Truman did not even consider it necessary to await the results of the work of the Security Council Commission specially sent to Greece to clarify the situation on the spot.

In vain did the American President remember that the United States had taken upon herself a leading role in the creation of the United Nations Organization. In any case there was no point in remembering this and expressing at the same time one's desire to act over the head of the U. N. O. Not taking into account the existence of an international organization and forgetting that a permanent international organ sits continuously in New York—the Security Council.

Truman did not take into account either the international organization or the sovereignty of Greece. In fact, what will remain of Greek sovereignty after American military and civilian personnel have sat on the heads of the Greek leaders and when that personnel begins administering in Greece with the aid of 250,000,000 American dollars brought into that country?

The sovereignty and independence of Greece will be the first to suffer as a result of such singular "defense." The Greek people, which waged an heroic struggle for its independence and liberty, do not deserve such treatment.

If this is what the Messrs. Tsaldaris were after, then so much the worse for the Tsaldarises who have brought Greece to such a pass.

The long-suffering Greek people face the prospect of having one "master," Britain, replaced by another "master," the United States.

Whatever pretexts are used to vindicate American claims to American domination in Greece, these claims cannot be justified by a defense of the freedom and independence of the Greek people.

The American arguments for rendering assistance to Turkey are based upon a threat to the integrity of Turkish territory, though no one and nothing threatens Turkey's integrity. American "assistance" to Turkey is obviously aimed at putting this country also under the United States' control, after which one would not be able to speak of the independence of Turkish home and foreign policy, since this policy would be directly controlled by American imperialism.

Certain American commentators admit this quite openly. Walter Lippmann, for example, frankly points out in the New York Herald Tribune that an American alliance with Turkey would give the United States a strategic position, incomparably more advantageous than any other, from which power could be wielded over the Middle East.

Commenting on Truman's message to Congress "The New York Times," in high-sounding words, proclaims the advent of "the age of American responsibility." The question is, however, what is such monopolistic "American responsibility" but a smokescreen for plans of expansion? Dilations to the effect that the United States "is called upon to save" Greece and Turkey from expansion on the part of the so-called "totalitarian states" are not new. Hitler also referred to the Bolsheviks when he wanted to open the road to conquests for himself.

Now they try to take Greece and Turkey under their control and, by raising a din about "totalitarian states," attempt to disguise their plans of expansion.

This seems the more attractive in that, while elbowing themselves in, the United States is pushing non-totalitarian Great Britain out of yet another state or two.

Truman's declaration could not but attract the attention of broad public opinion both within and without the United States. One cannot say that it did not meet serious criticism, even in circles of the United States Congress.

A group of thirteen American Congressmen tried to dissuade Truman from making his statement. Democratic Senator Taylor stated that they received with disgust the proposal to vote for the giving of financial aid to the monarchist government, which was persecuting those who fought against Nazism.

Democratic Senator Johnson repeated the same thought, that he approved aid in foodstuffs without political aims with all his heart but that the President had not made a distinction between foodstuffs and bullets, which was the reason for his, Johnson's, disillusionment. Senator Johnson said he did not approve the sending of American military personnel to Greece and Turkey, even as advisers. Military aid to Turkey and Greece could lead to military interference in other parts of the world. He was ready to give millions to aid hungry people but not a single cent to help decayed monarchies.

Democratic Senator Pepper stated that the recommendations made by Truman, put forward completely without consultation with the United Nations, created a threat for U. N. O. and would place upon the United States unknown obligations.

Also characteristic is the comment of the chairman of the Budget Committee of the House of Representatives, Republican Knutson, who said that supsupporters of Truman's program apparently would not be satisfied until the United States was bankrupt.

Henry Wallace and several other leading American figures came out with a sharply negative response to Truman's message.

We witness a fresh intrusion of the U. S. A. into the affairs of other states. The U. S. A. claims to leadership in international affairs grow parallel with the growing appetite of the American quarters concerned.

However, the American leaders, acting in the new historical circumstances, fail to reckon with the fact that the old methods of the colonizers and diehard politicians have outlived their time and are doomed to failure. In this lies the chief weakness of Truman's message.

Russia Puts Its German P. W.s At 890,532, With Million Freed

By The Associated Press

LONDON, March 14.—The Moscow radio broadcast tonight a report by Tass, Soviet official news agency, which said there are 890,532 German prisoners of war on territory of the Soviet Union.

The brief message listed the number of war prisoners reported at the meeting of the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers in Moscow by the United States, Great Britain and France, and added:

"In the territory of the Soviet Union there remain at present 890,532 German war prisoners. Since Germany's surrender 1,003,974 German prisoners of war have been freed and returned from the U. S. S. R. to Germany.

The agency said the figures were exchanged at a meeting of the Foreign Ministers today.

George S. Marshall, American Secretary of State, told the Council that the United States held 15,103 German prisoners, most of them in Italy, and that another 15,873 were being rapidly discharged in the American occupation zone of Germany.

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault said the French have 641,483 German war prisoners, and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin reported his country holds 435,295 war prisoners outside of Germany who are being repatriated at the rate of 17,000 a month.

Churchill Hails U.S. Greek Plan

BAYSHORE

London, March 14 (AP)—Winston Churchill said today that President Truman's appeal for military and dollar aid to Greece and Turkey was a "great event," but Leftwing Laborites angrily protested they would demand a probe of Britain's part in bringing about the projected American policy.

Addressing a Conservative gathering, the wartime Prime Minister said "no step that I have seen taken lately has more increased the chance of the maintenance of world peace and world freedom."

"If such a step had been taken by the United States before the last war it would have stopped it," he added. "If it had been taken after the first war, still more would it have stopped it. If it had been taken before 1914, peace might have been preserved and we should have all been living in a far happier world."

$76,000,000 Approved

Churchill's brief comment on President Truman's policy to oppose totalitarian subjugation of free countries was accompanied by action of the House of Commons in approving a $76,000,000 supplementary appropriation to wind up British aid to Greece, a program that is to end March 31. This sum was in addition to $156,000,000 granted or loaned Greece in the last 15 months.

Leftwing Parliament members served notice in Parliament that they would seek an investigation into the Government's role in the Truman policy. The President's plea for aid to Greece was precipitated late in February when Britain notified the United States she could no longer bear the burden of her economic and military commitments in Greece alone.

Third Of Members

Leftwing Laborites who have opposed the Government's foreign policy on the grounds that it followed the American line too closely make up about a third of the Labor party membership of the House of Commons.

Harry Pollitt, a leader of Britain's Communists, said his party would also call for emergency conferences of the Trades Union Congress and the Labor party "to impel the Government" to withdraw British troops from Greece and revise its foreign policy.

A number of Laborites indicated they wanted to know whether the British Government was informed in advance about the Truman statement, particularly the "political conditions to be attached to the grant of financial aid to Greece."

Meanwhile, in Paris, Alexander Bogomolov, Soviet Ambassador to France, boarded a plane to join Soviet Ambassadors from London and Washington in an unexplained rendezvous in Moscow.

Churchill Lauds Truman Plea

London, March 14 (AP)—Winston Churchill, commenting on President Truman's appeal for United States aid to Greece and Turkey, said today: "No step that I have seen taken lately has more increased the chance of the maintenance of world peace and world freedom."

He spoke at a Conservative party meeting.

"If such a step had been taken by the Untied States before the last war it would have stopped it," Britain's wartime Prime Minister declared. "If it had been taken after the first war, still more would it have stopped it.

"If it had been taken before 1914, peace might have been preserved and we should have all been living in a far happier world.

Sees Majority Pleased

"I am quite sure it is our duty and will be the opinion of the great majority of the people of this country to welcome the decisions which have been reached in the great republic across the Atlantic.

"I could not say this without also saying that our policy is one, as I do not doubt is the policy of the United States, of friendship for Russia, but friendship from strength, not appeasement from weakness."

Meanwhile, in messages to Mr. Truman, King George II of Greece, said United States assistance in "restoring free democratic institutions and expediting economic recovery" in Greece would help in "strengthening world peace."

A broadcast Tass dispatch, earlier distributed to Moscow newspapers, said:

"Declaring that Greece is experiencing desperate need of financial and economic assistance, Truman gives Congress to understand that granting of funds to the Greek Government will be accompanied by the establishment of American control over Greece."

Athens shops and stores planned to suspend operations for two hours today in appreciation of Mr. Truman's message.

Trade union and guild executive committees scheduled a joint meeting to lay a wreath at the American Philhellenes Monument and adopt a resolution of gratitude.

In Stockholm, the liberal Swedish newspaper Dagens Nyheter said:

"Nobody suspects the United States of aggression and few doubt that its efforts will serve a durable peace."

The Times of London predicted that United States support of the United Nations "will not be withdrawn or weakened" as a result of the proposed new policy, "but new and more direct channels for the exercise of American influence may now be shaped."

The conservative Daily Mail said that, in line with charges of Russian interference in Hungary, United States and British notes of protest had "proved of little avail" and commented: "Time will show whether, though the pen may be weaker, the purse is mightier than the sword."

Guardian Dubious

The liberal Manchester Guardian said "the United States may increase the tension with Soviet Russia to a point where peace itself is threatened. We cannot easily accept a balance of power which would leave Russia and the United States face to face in Europe and the Near East. . . . We badly need American help in Europe—but not too much of it. . . . If American troops went to Greece, we should never get Russian troops out of Bulgaria"

London's liberal News Chronicle said Mr. Truman's candor "may involve the State Department in unexpected difficulties."

Greek Communist's View

Also in the Greek capital, Nicholas Zachariades, leader of the Communist KKE, charged today that the United States was carrying on "imperialistic intervention, whose aim is to have a monarcho-fascist Greece."

Zachariades said in an article in the Communist newspaper Rizopastis that the assistance would "increase the number of graveyards and emasculate American honor." "Americans may come to Greece to win her," he wrote. "It will be one of the glories which morally neutralize the victory."

Poland Says Speech Might Curb Amnesty

Warsaw, March 14 (AP)—A Polish Foreign Ministry spokesman said today that President Truman's speech to Congress had not been printed in Polish newspapers "because at this time we are afraid it might hamper the process of amnesty and might cause many to change their minds and remain underground."

The Government has offered amnesty to its armed opponents who surrender. The spokesman said 4,000 already had laid down their arms and that the policy "definitely has brought appeasement within the country."

Arab Sees Conflict Between U. S., Russia

Jerusalem, March 14 (AP)—An Arab spokesman tonight interpreted President Truman's address to Congress concerning Greece and Turkey as a "sign of growing conflict between America and Russia," and added that the "Arabs will not choose between masters."

Emil Khouri, a member of the Arab Higher Executive, said Truman's speech "definitely shows America's increasing interest in the Middle East, and makes us suspicious of Mr. Truman's intentions toward Palestine."

"This speech is definite," Khouri declared. "There is growing conflict between America and Russia. America and the Western democracies obviously are afraid of communism's penetration farther south in this part of the world. That makes us more eager that Americans understand our point of view."

He said also that Palestine Arabs were "fully agreed" with Great Britain's move to take the Palestine case before the United Nations.

BRITISH VOTE CASH TO END GREEK AID

MAR 1947

London, March 14 (A. P.).—The House of Commons approved today a $76,000,000 supplementary appropriation to wind up British aid to Greece by March 31.

The additional appropriation will pay Greek Army costs and provide some civilian aid. Minister of State Hector McNeil said the money was being spent for the benefit of the ordinary people of Greece and to narrow the area of public disorder besetting the country. Britain, he added, is "most anxious that the United Nations Commission now in Greece make some recommendation of a permanent or semi-permanent kind" for Greece's future.

Replying to Leftist critics of the British role in Greece, he said: "Bulgaria has a very large army. It is not surprising that Greece, who fought on our side against the Germans, should feel that she ought to have an army if Bulgaria, who fought against us, has one."

British Coal Mines To Get 5-Day Week

Shorter Working Schedule To Begin on May 5

LONDON, March 14 (AP).—Great Britain will introduce the five-day week in her newly nationalized coal mines May 5.

Details of an agreement between the National Miners Union and the government Coal Board, announced today, include:

1. Five-day thirty-seven-and-a-half-hour week fo rface workers, exclusive of travel time from the pithead, and a work week of five days and forty-two and a half hours for surface employees.

2. Payment of a day's wage to hourly workers in lieu of the sixth day and of 16 per cent of their weekly average to piece workers to be called a "bonus."

The miners agreed that any man missing a day without good reason would lose his "bonus" for the week.

The 700,000 miners were promised the five-day week when labor came to power. The plan will cost $96,000,000 a year in pay, officials estimate. The miners agreed not to countenance any restriction of output.

LONDON MEETING FOR WHEAT CARTEL

London, March 14 (A. P.).—Representatives of twenty-six nations will meet here Tuesday to plan an ever-normal granary through international regulation of wheat supplies.

Two of the world's largest wheat growing countries—Russia and Argentine—will not be represented.

Alternative proposals for agreement will be studied by the conference, apparently due to the absence of Argentina. The United States, Canada, Australia and the Argentine are the four principal wheat exporting countries.

One proposal is contingent upon the governments of the four exporting countries entering an agreement with the principal importing countries.

The alternative scheme envisages agreement among the United States, Canada, Australia and six importing countries which would provide a strong enough foundation for successful operation of an international wheat council.

The principal aims of the conference are:

To promote stability of wheat prices, fair to both consumers and producers;

To assure availability of supplies adequate at all times for world consumption at reasonable prices;

To establish world wheat reserves through building up national stocks adequate to protect against crop failures, famine or other contingencies; and

To promote increased wheat consumption.

Poland Protests British Action On Vets

London, March 14 (AP)—A Government source said today that Poland had protested a British decision to deport 200 former members of Lieut. Gen. Wladyslaw Anders's Polish Corps to Germany.

The war office announced last week that Polish soldiers who had refused either to be repatriated or to join the British-planned Polish Resettlement Corps were being demobilized in Germany. The soldiers were part of the corps which fought in Italy under Anders, a foe of the present Warsaw regime.

The first Poles deported, a group of 36, were sent to Osnabrueck, in the British zone. They were given civilian outfits, grants of $40 and army releases and then were left to fend for themselves as part of the German community.

British Newsprint Hit by Fuel Cut

London, March 14 (A. P.).—Reduction of the coal allotment to Britain's paper mills to one-third of normal indicates the present newspaper licensing period ending July 5 "will be the most serious publishers have encountered so far," World's Press News, newspaper trade journal, declared.

The Board of Trade announced that the reduction from the previous allowance of 50 per cent of normal would be in effect at least six weeks.

Admiral Robert, A Vichy Aide, Sentenced To Ten Years

MAR 1947

Versailles, March 14 (AP)—A French high court today sentenced Vice Admiral Georges Robert, 72, Vichy's high commissioner to the French West Indies, to ten years hard labor and national degradation on charges of committing acts prejudicial to France's best interest.

The judge, in passing sentence, added, however, that the 25 parliamentary jurors desired to recommend clemency "in view of the services rendered by the defendant in the past."

Set Up Dictatorship, Charge

Robert was accused by the court of establishing a dictatorship in Martinique after the fall of France, and of preventing Frenchmen there from joining Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Free French movement.

The prosecution told the court that although the defendant could not be considered a "traitor" and had saved French warships anchored in Martinique harbor, he was guilty of hailing the rise to power of Marshal Petain (now serving a life sentence for treason).

[In July, 1943, after a revolt of his army garrison forced Robert to resign as governor of Martinique, he made his way to Vichy, where he became director of Petain's personal office.]

2 Soviet Envoys Fly Home

Ambassadors at London and Paris Take Plane at Le Bourget

PARIS, March 14 (AP)—Alexander Bogomolov, Soviet Ambassador at Paris, and Georgi Zarubin, Soviet Ambassador at London, boarded a plane at Le Bourget Airfield today for Moscow.

Mr. Zarubin was recalled "for consultations," Moscow announced, two days ago, after Nikolai Novikov, Soviet Ambassador at Washington, also had been recalled. Soviet Embassy officials here said at the time that it was not certain that Mr. Bogomolov would go, too.

Army Closes African Airports

Wiesbaden, Germany, March 14 (AP)—The United States Army Air Transport Command announced today the abandonment of three African airfields. They were Cazes Field, at Casablanca; Mallard Field, Dakar, and Roberts Field, in Liberia.

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—The Army Air Forces said today that all but two of the thirty major air bases in Africa had been shut down or turned over to the countries in which they are.

Still operated by the Air Transport Command are fields at Tripoli, Libya and Monrovia, Liberia. The Monrovia Field, 400 miles north of the Equator, is scheduled to go out of active service.

RED ZONE OPPOSES SALVATION ARMY

Berlin, March 14 (A. P.).—Soviet officials contend that the Salvation Army is a quasi-miiltary organization, and oppose its application to work in Germany, an American source said today.

The Russian legal section has delivered an opinion that the organization is quasi-military because its members wear uniforms and have military titles, the informant said. The Russians also were understood to have quoted a Russian encyclopedia defining the Salvation Army as a "danger to proletarian civilization."

When the Salvation Army first made its application, the Allied Control Council's internal affairs directorate held it up for opinions from the four Powers' legal directorates on the status of the organization.

The internal affairs directorate was expected to renew consideration of the issue next week. If it fails to reach agreement, the matter will go to the four Deputy Military Governors.

An American offcial said the Salvation Army had been permitted to operate in the American occupation zone; but that the Western powers had agreed that the organization's charter should be studied to determine whether it should operate as a religious body or a "public welfare corporation."

Former Nazi Guard Sentenced to Hang

Dachau, March 14 (A. P.).—Kurt Otto, former SS guard at a Nazi concentration camp, was sentenced by an American War Crimes Court today to be hanged for murdering at least six prisoners. The victims included four Russians, one Austrian and one Czech.

100 GERMAN DOGS JOIN U. S. ARMY

Bremen, March 14 (A. P.).—One hundred German shepherd dogs, who have joined the United States Army, embarked today on the first leg of a 14,000 mile trip to Korea. The new recruits will go first to the Aleshire Quartermaster Depot at Front Royal, Virginia, for a month of preliminary training and inoculations.

It was understood here that in Korea the dogs will be further trained by the American Occupation Forces and used largely for sentry duty, including the guarding of American dependents' homes.

Kesselring Tells Of Armistice Work

Venice, March 14 (A. P.).—Field Marshal Albert Kesselring testified today at his trial for war crimes that he had supported first steps toward armistice negotiations between the Allies and the Germans in Italy as early as the fall of 1944.

An armistice was concluded secretly in April, 1945, at Lugano, Switzerland, by representatives of the Allies and SS Gen. Kurt Wolff, representative in Italy of Heinrich Himmler. Wolff had previously conferred with the Allied representatives in March, 1945, at Zurich.

Kesselring, the former German commander in chief in Italy, told the British military court he had such confidence in Wolff "that I supported him in his political mission."

Allied Headquarters In Italy Abolished

Rome, March 14 (AP)—The Italian military affairs section of Allied Forces Headquarters in Italy was abolished today.

Its chief, Rear Admiral Ellery W Stone, USNR, 54-year-old forme president of Postal Telegraph wh formerly was chief Allied commis sioner in Italy, simultaneously wen on terminal leave.

The Italian military affairs sec tion of AFHQ was one of two branches into which the functions of the Allied Commission in Italy were divided when the commission was abolished January 31.

Stone said he would return to the United States before the end of his 60-day terminal leave. He plans to be married during his leave to Contessina Renata Arborio Mella di Santelia, whose family has close Vatican connections. Stone entered the Catholic Church last week.

The Admiral said he could not announce his business plans.

Guerrillas Fire (N) At U. N. Probers

Athens, March 14 (AP)—Guerrillas fired at a team of the United Nations Balkan investigation commission traveling to Kastoria in western Macedonia prior to crossing the Albanian border, the Government Press Office reported today.

The firing was at long range and no one was hit. Greek Army units dislodged the guerrillas from heights dominating the road and dispersed them, the report said.

Government and press reports said more than 150 guerrillas were killed in operations in the northern border areas. The general staff said 42 were killed in a clash near Larisa and 12 in another engagement. Press advices said 100 were killed and many more wounded or captured during mopping-up operations on Mount Krussia in central Macedonia where the Greek, Yugoslav and Bulgarian borders meet.

Greek Guerrillas (D) Fire At U. N. Inquiry Team

ATHENS, March 14 (AP).—The Greek Press Office announced today that a United Nations investigating commission team was fired at by guerrillas today while en route through western Macedonia to Albania. No one was hit.

The announcement said army units dislodged the guerrillas from mountain heights dominating the road into Kastoria and dispersed them.

The general staff said forty-two guerrillas were killed and two wounded in a clash between government troops and insurgents near Larisa and that twelve other guerrillas were killed and nine wounded in minor operations.

Press dispatches from central Macedonia said about 100 insurgents had been killed and many wounded or captured in mopping up operations there.

Bulgaria to Reopen Borders

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 14 (A —A Government official said toda that Bulgaria would reopen he borders Monday after a ten-da closure, which he said had bee aimed at illegal importation Bulgarian money at a time of co version of currency.

"Smugglers in neighboring cou tries possess large quantities levas and are trying to get illeg exchange in Bulgaria," the offici said. "There were no other reaso whatever besides financial for t closing of the frontier."

Dutch Reply Made To U.S. Protests

MAR 1947

The Hague, March 14 (AP)—The Dutch Government replied to United States protests against treatment of the American freighter Martin Behrman in Java today by asserting Dutch responsibility for the handling of internationally controlled products of the Netherlands East Indies, a Government spokesman announced.

The reply was handed to M. J. Webb Benton, the United States charge d'affaires here, with the notation that it was a preliminary answer, pending receipt of further details on the Martin Behrman case from the Dutch administration in Batavia.

The text of the reply was not published, but the spokesman, summarizing its contents, said it stressed Dutch international responsibility in East Indies economic affairs and asserted that bypassing Dutch economic control would increase war-born poverty which the United States had shown a desire to alleviate.

At Batavia, Capt. Rudy Gray, master of the Martin Behrman, and six members of his crew submitted today a 12,000-word protest to the United States consul for forwarding to the Dutch Indies Government. The protest asked damages totaling $10,000,000 for the ship's operators, the Isbrandtsen Company of New York, and members of the crew.

Poland, Facing Hunger Crisis, Cuts 4,000,000 Off Ration Lists

By The Associated Press

WARSAW, March 14.—The Polish government today ordered the slashing of at least 4,000,000 persons off its rationing lists in an attempt to conserve supplies in a food crisis. Persons on the lists have been obtaining essential foodstuffs at a government-fixed price far below the free market.

The crisis, it was said by United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration officials, would soon see the average Pole getting less to eat than the Germans. The officials said the primary hope for the Poles, whose food needs will become increasingly critical until harvest time, rests in the United States.

Agricultural experts said at least 20 per cent of the autumn sown wheat was killed by the severe winter.

Effective April 1, twenty-five classes of people will be deprived of first-category ration cards. These classes include 100,000 members of the militia, 150,000 members of the security police, 50,000 university students, all women without families, employees of food combines, state monopolies, former war prisoners, the Catholic clergy, pensioners, monks, nuns, youths in private schools, agricultural manufacturers, displaced persons and graphic industry workers.

Effective May 1, ration cards will be suspended for building industry workers, numbering at least 150,000, and all demobilized soldiers and those on indefinite leave.

The government took over all grain stocks in mills and in private hands. It forbade restaurants from serving more than one piece of bread or one roll with a single meal.

A score of U. N. R. R. A. ships bringing 30,000 tons of foodstuffs to wind up the major part of deliveries to Poland have been stalled in various European ports, unable to break through the ice-jammed Baltic.

Foreigners are finding that a fair meal in a restaurant these days costs around $12.

ADMITS WAR CRIMES

WARSAW, March 14—(AP) Rudolf Hoess, former Nazi commandant of the infamous Oswiecim concentration camp where 4,000,000 persons were gassed to death during the war, told the supreme national tribunal today "I'm responsible for all those who died." Hoess is on trial for war crimes before the Polish court.

ZIONISTS WEIGH (N) UN APPEAL ON PALESTINE ISSUE

J.C. GOODWIN

JERUSALEM, March 14—(AP) Amid continuing violence, a reliable source indicated today that the Zionists for the first time were entertaining plans for a direct appeal of the Palestine case to the United Nations.

Members of the Jewish Agency Executive met in Jerusalem.

The informant said a member of the executive had reported on his conferences with UN delegates in New York on "probable Jewish claims" against the British, whose military restrictions were declared to be causing the Jewish Palestine community losses estimated at $4,000,000 a day.

Third Rail Attack

A third attack in the past 24 hours on Palestine railways was announced tonight. A freight train set off two mines near Beer Yaakov, on the Lydda-Gaza line, tearing up the track but not damaging the train.

Five small bombs blasted an oil pipeline of the Iraq Petroleum company in Haifa this morning. Another informant said Hagana, largest and most moderate of the three Jewish underground groups, had admitted planting the explosives in protest against deportation of Jews from the refugee ship Susanna to Cyprus.

A Hagana officer said yesterday his group had planned the beaching of the Susanna off Gaza in an attempt to help 900 or more would-be immigrants smash the British coastal blockade.

Blast Causes Little Damage

Police said five Jews placed the bombs, then fled towards Haifa in a small truck. The blast caused "no serious damage," and flames that followed were quickly brought under control, an official report said.

In two attacks on railways last night, an engineer was killed and a fireman injured.

The Jewish Agency members had only restrained comment on President Truman's speech urging aid to Greece and Turkey.

But some members said they hoped the American government's increased interest in the Middle East would be reflected in its showing more interest in the Jews' problems in Palestine.

Jews May Take Case To U.N. (U)

C.L. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, March 14 (AP)—A reliable source said today that a Jewish Agency executive member had conferred with United Nations delegates in New York on "probable Jewish claims" against Britain for losses sustained by the Jewish community in Palestine under British martial law.

One agency official estimated the loss at about $4,000,000 a day. This was the first authoritative indication that Jewish leaders might be considering a direct appeal to the United Nations against Britain. Both Jews and Arabs have repeatedly voiced dissatisfaction over Britain's action in referring the Palestine problem to the world peace organization.

Oil Pipeline Blown Up

Violence continued in the Holy Land.

Official reports from Haifa said the oil pipeline within the refinery area there was blasted by five small bombs this morning, but the blaze was brought under control quickly. Officials reported no damage or casualties.

Police said the bombs were placed under the pipeline by five men they described as Jews, who arrived at the scene in a small truck and fled toward Haifa in the same vehicle.

Hagana Assumes Responsibility

The blast occurred on the Iraq Petroleum Company's property near the huge refinery. The pipeline was not in use at the time because of an eight-day strike of Arab laborers.

Reliable sources said Hagana, largest and most moderate of the Jewish underground organizations, was acknowledging authorship of the pipeline blast as "retaliation" for the deportation of refugees from the ship Susanna, beached in southern Palestine on Wednesday.

The blast followed a series of incidents yesterday, including the wrecking of two trains and two jeeps, the death of an engineer and injuries to a British officer and a fireman.

[An announcement from Nicosia, Cyprus, said five Jews and one British soldier were injured when Jewish internees held a demonstration at a camp there. It was reported the demonstration occurred after two Jews were arrested on charges of attempted escape and turned over to civil police.]

The Palestine Government announced last night that police and the military had arrested 78 "known terrorists," including fifteen members of the so-called Stern Gang and twelve members of Irgun Zvai Leumi, in the past two weeks.

Commenting on President Truman's Greek speech, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, of Cleveland, expressed gratification "that America seems now to realize that the mid-East cannot be treated piecemeal.

NEHRU IS IN PUNJAB IN INQUIRY INTO FIGHTS

LAHORE, India, March 14 (AP)—Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Vice President of the Indian Interim Government, arrived in Lahore today on a tour of Punjab troubled areas and received reports of clashes of army and police forces with raiding tribesmen from the northwest frontier.

A four-hour battle today in the Campbellpur district was reported by the Government, which said the situation was "exceedingly serious in several other areas." At least sixty-six persons were killed around Rawalpindi and fifty dead were reported in the Wal area.

One of the clashes yesterday on the northwestern and western edges of the Punjab was a two-hour battle in which heavy casualties were reported.

Nine Killed, 14 Hurt In Benares Rioting

Bombay, March 14 (A. P.).—Nine persons were killed and fourteen were injured in communal disturbances in Benares during the last thirty-six hours, an official report said today. The Government invoked a twenty-four-hour curfew. Rioters near the police station were fired on.

India Mission to Japan

Technical Group To Be Sent on MacArthur's Invitation

NEW DELHI, India, March 14 (AP).—I. I. Chundrigar, Commerce Minister in India's interim government, told the Legislative Assembly today that the government had received an invitation from General Douglas MacArthur, via the Far Eastern Commission at Washington, to send a technical mission from India to Japan.

The mission would consist of five persons, he said, and would be associated with India's representative at Tokyo in matters pertaining to reparation removals, identification, restitution of looted property and other such matters which otherwise would require a visit by a separate mission.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14 (AP) —The Chinese Communist radio, heard in San Francisco by The Associated Press, said today that twenty-five "American-made" Chinese Government bombers and pursuit planes raided Yenan, the Communist capital, for eight hours yesterday.

The planes came in waves, the Yenan broadcast said, bombing and strafing the city from early morning until afternoon.

The broadcast also reported that one Government plane dropped four bombs on a small town forty-five miles northeast of Yenan on Tuesday.

Chaplains Tour Japan

KURE, Japan, March 14 (AP).—Chaplain General C. Daws, representing the Methodist Church, and Chaplain General A. Stewart, representing the Presbyterian Church, have arrived in Japan by air, British Commonwealth occupation forces announced today. They will pass several weeks touring all B. C. O. F. components, at the request of the Australian Army Minister.

Jap Sailors Rescue Soldiers.

Kure, March 14 (A. P.).—British Commonwealth occupation officials announced today that a Japanese sailboat rescued four Australian soldiers whose disabled motorboat drifted for three hours in the stormy inland sea March 9.

Russian Ship Spurns Help

TOKYO, March 14 (AP)—The United States Navy today held up plans to go to the aid of the Russian merchant ship Maikop, fighting heavy swells in the Sea of Japan, after the ship reported it would attempt to reach Vladivostok without assistance. Earlier, the 6,000-ton ship had sent out a distress signal. She gave her location as 100 miles east of the Tsugaru Strait, between Hokkaido and Honshu.

Military Aid Agreement May Be Signed Today

S. DAVIS

Manila, Saturday, March 15 (AP)—After signing a 99-year agreement for United States military and naval bases in the Philippines, negotiators hurried today to finish an accompanying military assistance pact.

Paul V. McNutt, United States Ambassador, had planned to leave by plane today for the United States to retire from the diplomatic service, but he delayed his departure to help complete work on the assistance agreement.

The latter was expected to be signed either later today or Monday, depending upon word from Washington authorizing certain undisclosed revisions already agreed upon by negotiators in Manila.

Military Mission Waiting

A United States military mission, headed by Maj. Gen. Albert M. Jones, one of Bataan's defenders captured by the Japanese, has been here for several months awaiting completion of the treaties.

Jones told newsmen he would present to President Manuel A. Roxas on March 20 his conception of measures for defense of the Philippines.

Roxas at a brilliant ceremony at Malacanan Palace last night, marking the signing of the base agreement, declared:

"To meet our objections, the United States radically revised its entire construction program in the Philippines. It modified entirely the physical plans which had been laid for the defense of the Philippines."

In the base agreement, no provision is made for Corregidor, the famed rock fortress in Manila Harbor where the Americans and Filipinos made their last stand against the Japs in 1942. It is destined to become either a national memorial or a penal colony.

A provision in the agreement states that in the interests of international security any of the bases may be made available to the Security Council of the United Nations.

The Philippine government issued a statement saying the Americans had met "in every respect, the request of the Philippine government that no permanent bases, and especially no operating bases, be established in centers of population. There will be no bases in the city of Manila or its immediate environs."

McNutt read a statement from Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson that "the United States proposes to retain in the Philippines only such armed forces as required to man bases and to constitute a small military mission. Troops now in the Philippines not required for these purposes will be shifted to other areas to continue support of the occupation of Japan."

The Philippines retain the right to exercise jurisdiction over all offenses committed outside bases unless in the performance of specific military duty or in cases involving only Americans.

Bases Designated

The government announced that the principal American military establishment would be at Fort Stotsenberg military reservation in Pampanga Province, Central Luzon, with Clark Field practically contiguous.

The navy gets four operating areas, centered at Guiuan in the Leyte-Samar area; Subic Bay; Tawitawi; and Sangley Point, Cavite.

Ten other areas of limited size, designed as military bases, include Palawan air base; Camp John Hay, a leave and recreation center at Gabuio, Northern Luzon; a cargo terminal and training center on Bataan; an air force cemetery at San Francisco Del Monte, Rizal province; and a number of communications and navigational facilities.

Special provision is made for Army and Navy use of part of the Manila port area on the same basis as any private installation. Scheduled for later development are these Class B sites: Mactan Island, Florida Blanca, Pampanga Province; Aparri Naval Station and Camp Wallace, San Fernando, Pampanga.

Old military establishments such as Fort McKinley, now Thirteenth Air Force headquarters, and Nichols Field pass to Philippines control, but it was announced that there would be a transitional period in which such places would be considered temporary installations.

U.S., Philippines Sign Military Base Accord

Manila, March 14 (AP)—A 99-year agreement providing for five major American military bases and other minor posts in the Philippines was formally signed tonight.

The agreement contains a proviso that in the interest of international security any of the bases may be made available to the United Nations Security Council.

Ambassador Paul V. McNutt signed for the United States and President Manuel Roxas for the Philippine Republic.

Other Troops To Move

McNutt read a message from Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson saying that the United States "proposes to retain in the Philippines only such armed forces as required to man the bases and to constitute a small military mission."

"Troops now in the Philippines not required for these purposes will be shifted to other areas to continue support of the occupation of Japan," Acheson's message continued.

Four Navy Operating Areas

The Philippine Government announced that the United States Army will maintain its principal military establishment in the vast Fort Stotsenberg Military Reservation in Pamganga province of Central Luzon.

The Navy will maintain four operating areas, one in the Leyte-Samar area, centered at Guiuan, one at Subic Bay, Luzon; one at Tawitawi, near the southern end of the archipelago, and the fourth at Sangley Point, Cavite.

Ten other areas of limited size were designated as bases.

The agreement will end American use of such military landmarks as Fort McKinley, on the outskirts of Manila, and the big air installation at Nichols Field, likewise within the limits of greater Manila.

"This meets in every respect the request of the Philippine Government that no permanent bases be established in centers of population," a Philippine Government statement said. "There will be no base in the city of Manila or its immediate environs."

Isles Get Jurisdiction

The Philippines retained the right to exercise jurisdiction over all offenses committed outside bases by members of the United States armed forces, except when an offense is committed in performance of specific military duty or when both offender and offended party are members of the United States armed forces.

President Roxas said the pact "will ensure national defense of our territory and security of our independence, not only for today but for all time to come."

Navy Shells Blast 'Invasion' Path

Atlantic Fleet's Big Guns Pound Caribbean Island and 5000 Marines Pour Ashore.

Aboard U. S. S. Taconic, Caribbean Sea, March 13 (Delayed) (A. P.).—Sleepy little Culebra Island was jolted by the biggest guns in the Atlantic Fleet today as the Navy's Second Task Force made an amphibious assault upon its coral ringed beaches and concluded the fleet's annual exercises. As the ninety ships in the task force drew in for the kill the battleship Missouri and a line of cruisers and destroyers pounded the hilly island with live ammunition.

Rocket ships moving close to the beaches poured in their arsenal of deadly missives. Then the Marines landed—5,000 of them. Wave after wave fanned out over the hills, overrunning roads and strategic positions. Their commander, Major-Gen. T. E. Watson, landed and took command of shore operations.

Marine aircraft strafed and bombed the imaginary enemy when their fellow Leathernecks radioed for assistance.

Most of the Marines were seeing their first big operation. About four-fifths of them were recruits with only six or seven months' experience.

With the Marines went an impressive array of important observers including Vice-Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, Commander in Chief of the Atlantic Fleet; Lieut.-Gen. Keller E. Rockey, Commanding General Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, and three members of the House Military Affairs Committee, Cole (N. Y.), Hess (Ohio) and Short (Mo.).

PLAN WOULD GIVE PRESIDENT USE OF 400 MILLION

Public Hearings Set for Next Week in Effort to Speed Action.

FULL DATA DEMANDED

G.O.P. Gets Set to Quiz Truman's Aides on All Phases of Proposal.

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) A plan giving President Truman wide discretion in using the $400,000,000 he seeks for bolstering Greece and Turkey against Communism was studied today as both branches of Congress arranged for speedy action.

The House Foreign Affairs committee set public hearings for next week.

The Senate Republican conference approved a work schedule designed to produce a decision on the question by March 31, although leaders privately expressed doubts that action could be completed that soon.

Wide Powers For Truman

The bill still is being drafted. But congressmen reported that administration officials suggested flexible provisions which would permit the President to decide whether the money should be sent to Greece and Turkey as loans or as outright grants, and to parcel it out at intervals as needed.

Provisions for that purpose were reported discussed by House Foreign Affairs committeemen with Secretary of War Patterson, Secretary of the Navy Forrestal and Acting Secretary of State Acheson in a three-hour session behind closed doors.

Whatever form the bill takes in committee, however, it will be subject to amendments on the floor. By this means congressmen may seek to impose various restrictions, if the committee does not do so.

Rep. Eaton (R-N.J.), chairman of the committee, said he expects to have a bill ready for introduction Monday. Calling for its consideration on a non-partisan basis, he declared he is not worried about politics "but I am worried about the United States in a world that is full of hell."

Full Information Demanded

While waiting for the House to act first, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) began compiling a list of questions on all phases of the historic diplomatic move. He said cabinet members will be asked to answer them fully when they appear before the Foreign Relations committee which he heads.

One question, raised by Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Jenner (R-Ind.), is whether top government officials knew of the impending Mediterranean situation as long ago as last October.

The State department later issued a denial of this. Press Officer Lincoln White told reporters: "There is obviously a misunderstanding about what the British told us.

"The British have for many months indicated that they desired and proposed to withdraw troops from Greece as soon as they possibly could. Mr. Bevin and other British officials have said so publicly in commons, at the United Nations and elsewhere.

"However, the British note of Feb. 24 was the first notification received by this government that the British government was forced to withdraw financial and economic aid as of March 31 to the Greek government."

Jenner brought the question up in the Republican conference, saying it was generally reported that British Foreign Minister Bevin gave notice of it then to former Secretary of State Byrnes.

"If that is true," Jenner told newsmen, "I think Congress ought to know that this is not something that has just popped up overnight with a demand for immediate attention."

Taft told a reporter he had been informed by a visitor from London that this government was notified last October that the British would have to stop economic aid to Greece March 31, when their financial year ends. In any event, an examination of the British budget might have disclosed that it included no further funds for Greece, he said.

"I don't think this is a major point," Taft continued, "but Congress ought to know whether the administration knew about this situation all along and simply delayed acting until it had reached a crisis."

Byrnes declined to comment on the reports.

Britain Winds Up Aid

MAR

(In London, the House of Commons approved today a $76,000,000 supplementary appropriation to wind up British aid to Greece by March 31. It is to pay Greek army costs and provide some civilian aid).

The Greek crisis first was called to the attention of legislative leaders two weeks ago by the President at a White House conference. Previously Lord Inverchapel, the British ambassador, was reported to have discussed it with Secretary of State Marshall.

Vandenberg was quoted by Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) as having told the Republican conference that if any advance notice of British intentions was given to Byrnes or any other high diplomatic official, Vandenberg did not know about it.

Congress Urged to Give President Flexible Authority on Greek Loan

Top Administration Figures Said to Advise Granting Power to Parcel Out or Choke Off Fund on Basis of Developments.

MAR 1947 (D)

Washington, March 14 (A. P.).—Top administration figures were reported today to have suggested that Congress give President Truman broad powers to parcel out, or choke off, the proposed $400,000,000 to help Greece and Turkey combat Communist pressures.

Usually responsible informants said that this idea was discussed at a private conference of members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee with Secretary of the Navy Forrestal, Secretary of War Patterson and Under-Secretary of State Acheson. They said the thought was that the action by Congress should make no commitments to Greece or Turkey, but instead should give the President flexible authority to:

1. Decide whether the money should go to the two countries as loans or direct grants. (Mr. Truman did not say in his message to Congress Wednesday whether the money should be a grant or loan, or how much should go to each country.)

2. Apportion the money between the two countries on the basis of week-by-week or month-by-month developments.

3. Encourage Great Britain to retain some obligations in Greece, possibly by helping support British soldiers now in the country.

Many Favor Restrictions.

There were indications of considerable sentiment in Congress, however, for restricting the types of assistance the President could extend. The talk along that line sprang from his request for authority to send military advisers to Turkey and Greece. Several members said they wanted his discretion in that field pinned down tightly.

At a conference of Republican Senators, Senator Jenner (R.-Ind.) demanded to know whether Britain advised the administration as long ago as October of her intention to withdraw economic support from the Greeks.

After the closed-door meeting, Jenner elaborated to reporters: "It has been generally reported that Foreign Minister Bevin of Great Britain informed James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State, in October of the intended withdrawal. If that is true, I think Congress ought to know that this is not something that has just popped up overnight with a demand for immediate action."

Jenner said he wants the question answered before deciding whether to support President Truman's proposal for $400,000,000 financial and limited military help to Greec and Turkey.

Other Senators said Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, also mentioned reports that Bevin had notified Byrnes of Britain's contemplated action last November.

But, they said, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who served as an adviser to Byrnes at several international conferences, commented that if any such notification had been given Byrnes he never heard of it.

Vandenberg was reported to have said also that there was no indication of any such notification in American actions on foreign affairs in ensuing months.

To Put Questions.

The Michigan Senator was represented as having agreed to put Jenner's question on a list he is compiling to present to top ranking administration officials for public replies before Congress acts on the aid proposal.

(A White House conference on February 27, attended by a small group of top Republican and Democratic congressional leaders who were pledged to secrecy, presumably received first word of the problem posed the United States in the Mediterranean by Britain's withdrawal of support of Greece.

(Formal notice was reported to have been delivered to the State Department earlier the same week by Lord Inverchapel, the British Ambassador. Secretary of State Marshall, now in Moscow, attended the February 27 conference around Mr. Truman's desk.)

Another question raised at the Republican conference was possible demands on the United States if the present French Government should fall. Senator Millikin of Colorado, chairman of the conference, said that no conclusions were reached.

Meanwhile, the House Foreign Affairs Committee ordered public hearings next week—probably to start Tuesday—on President Truman's proposals for aid to Greece and Turkey.

Representative Eaton (R.-N. J.), the chairman, said the committee will meet Monday to consider another bill—one calling for the expenditure of $350,000,000 for relief in five European countries.

Vandenberg Questioned.

Vandenberg was said to have faced a barrage of queries about the foreign and domestic effect of President Truman's proposal to extend financial and indirect military help to the two countries at the Republican conference.

Senator Wherry (Neb.) told a reporter the questions ranged from future status of the United Nations to demands to know whether American troops are to be used in the Mediterranean area.

Later, Vandenberg, who has called for "top-rank candor" on the international situation, told reporters that "if anybody has any questions to ask about this proposal, I want them answered."

His demand for top-rank candor was being interpreted as a suggestion that Secretary of State Marshall discuss the crisis with Premier Stalin at the Moscow Foreign Ministers' meeting.

Milliken told newspapermen that Vandenberg expressed the opinion that there was "less risk involved in following the President's suggestion (for aid to the two countries) than in rejecting it.

A move developed today to combine Senate and House committee hearings and thus speed action on President Truman's program.

Messages Pile Up.

It was suggested by Representative Lodge (R.-Conn.) who said that he saw no reason why hearings should not be combined. But some other committee members expressed private doubt that the Senate Committee would agree. They said that the Senate group always had been reluctant to depart from the tradition of separate hearings.

At the White House, officials reported a continuing inflow of comment on the President's Wednesday speech. Eben Ayers, assistant press secretary, said about 200 telegrams arrived overnight.

He said there were many in opposition, but he called them "obviously inspired." Most of them came from New York. Outside of those that are "clearly propaganda," he declared, the overwhelming majority favor the President's recommendations.

Capitol Hill comment indicated that congressional opposition would be confined to narrowing the terms under which $400,000,000 of aid would go to the Greeks and Turks.

Representative Mundt (R.-S. D.), a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, told reporters that he thought the chief bone of contention would be Mr. Truman's request for authority to send military missions to the two countries.

"What it amounts to," he told a reporter, "is whether or not Congress should surrender to the President the right to declare war. If we send an unlimited number of military missions abroad, and they become involved in fighting, well . . . we just couldn't leave them there without doing something."

Broadcasts Reaction To Soviet

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The State Department broadcast to Russia today both favorable and unfavorable reaction to President Truman's proposal to aid Greece and Turkey in resisting communism.

The unfavorable included that of Henry A. Wallace, former Vice President. Wallace said the President is bringing the "world nearer to war."

TRUMAN SILENT ON WORLD NEWS

Hears No Official Word From Moscow on Proposals.

Key West, Fla., March 14 (A. P.).—President Truman was silent on world affairs today as news dispatches from Moscow told of Russian reaction to his foreign policy speech.

Charles G. Ross, the presidential secretary, said there was no news here on the international situation, nor any word from Moscow on Wednesday's speech to Congress in which Mr. Truman challenged the march of Communism.

Ross appeared in the press room and White House reporters who accompanied Mr. Truman to this vacation retreat grabbed for pencils and paper. The notes they made were hardly world-shaking news.

Mr. Truman arose at 7:30 A. M., said Ross. He had prunes, scrambled eggs and bacon for breakfast.

Repeating this menu for the reporters in the rear who couldn't hear very well, Ross then went on to relay the other developments.

"The President went for a walk after reading the morning papers flown in from Washington and writing a few letters," said the press secretary. "He is at this moment inspecting the submarine tender Howard W. Gilmore."

"He is going to the Fort Taylor beach and bask in the sun. He's feeling fine. He has made no plans for the afternoon other than to relax."

Capt. Crutchfield Adair, skipper of the seaplane tender, Greenwich Bay, entertained the President and his party last night with feats of magic, Ross said.

Gratified by Reaction.

Ross told reporters that Mr. Truman was gratified by American, including press, reaction to his speech before a joint session of Congress.

The present schedule calls for Mr. Truman's return to Washington Sunday afternoon or Monday.

Special arrangements are being made for the President to hear his daughter, Margaret, make her radio debut Sunday night.

Ross said the President was "feeling a lot better" since he arrived here, tired out from exertions of the past few weeks. Most of his fatigue, Ross said, appears to have vanished.

Time Of British Word On Greece Is Issue

MAR 1947

Washington, March 14 (AP)—A demand that the Administration tell whether Britain disclosed as long ago as October her intentions to withdraw economic support of Greece was made at a Senate Republican conference today by Senator Jenner (R., Ind.).

After the closed-door meeting, Jenner elaborated to reporters:

"It has been generally reported that Foreign Minister Bevin of Great Britain informed James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State, in October of the intended withdrawal.

"Congress Ought To Know"

"If that is true, I think Congress ought to know that this is not something that has just popped up overnight with a demand for immediate attention."

Jenner said he wants the question answered before deciding whether to support President Truman's proposal for $400,000,000 financial and limited military help to Greece and Turkey.

Other senators said Chairman Taft (Ohio) of the Republican Policy Committee also mentioned reports that Bevin had notified Byrnes of Britain's contemplated action last November.

Vandenberg Word

But, they said, Chairman Vandenberg (R., Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who served as an adviser to Byrnes at several international conferences, commented that if any such notification had been given Byrnes he never heard of it.

Vandenberg was said to have faced a barrage of queries about the foreign and domestic effect of President Truman's proposal.

Range Of Questions

Senator Wherry (Neb.) said the questions ranged from future status of the United Nations to demands to know whether American troops are to be used in the Mediterranean area.

"Senator Vandenberg is compiling these into a questionnaire which he said he will insist upon competent Government officials' answering fully in public hearings before the Foreign Relations Committee acts on the proposal," Wherry said.

"The questions have covered every conceivable phase of the effect of this move on American and international affairs."

Candor Urged

Later, Vandenberg, who has called for "top-rank candor" on the international situation, said that "if anybody has any questions to ask about this proposal, I want them answered."

His demand for "top-rank candor" was being interpreted as a suggestion that Secretary of State Marshall discuss the crisis with Premier Stalin at the Moscow Foreign Ministers' meeting.

U.N. Powerless To Aid Greece, Experts Say

New York, March 14 (AP)—The United Nations is powerless to intervene directly in Greek affairs to help stabilize that Government unless the beleaguered regime itself asks the United Nations for assistance.

Greece, in a dire emergency now and unable to wait for the still-young United Nations machinery to function, went directly to the United States for assistance.

The United States, as President Truman noted in his message to Congress, intends to help free peoples maintain their identity so as to realize the peaceful objectives of the United Nations.

Time Is Major Factor

The major factor cropping up in discussions of the case in United Nations circles here and at Lake Success is that of time.

Most of those authorities point out that Greece has had some experience with the Security Council, where the political situation is such that an appeal from Greece for help might bring on an extended debate and controversy while the Greek Government foundered.

Qualified observers insist that the United States is not bypassing the United Nations. They say it merely is shoring up a nation in trouble until the world peace machinery has come of age and can function effectively.

Indirect Help Possible

The United Nations might help Greece indirectly by setting up a commission to supervise the disputed border until the Greek Army was able to maintain the integrity of its own frontiers.

The United States is said to be considering recommending such a cordon sanitaire for Greece, but action must await the report of the Security Council's investigating commission now on that border.

The United Nations might assist Greece through the International Bank except for two factors: First, United Nations authorities say the bank has not been in operation long enough to be in position to help Greece immediately; and, secondly, in the opinion of some financial experts, Greece's credit now is not sufficient to back up a loan from the World Bank.

Trieste Step Weighed

Meanwhile, authoritative sources said today that Great Britain may ask the Big Four Foreign Ministers to intervene if the four-power delegates to the United Nations Security Council do not name a governor soon for internationalized Trieste.

A British source said that if Russia does not soon agree to one of the five names recently submitted or does not submit a candidate within the next few days British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin would "probably ask the Foreign Ministers in Moscow to take up the question."

No Progress Made

The job of naming a governor of Trieste was given to the United States, Britain, Russia and France, who in turn would submit their selection to the Security Council for approval.

The governor was scheduled to have been appointed by the middle of this month, but for the last two weeks no progress has been made by the Big Four Council members in reaching agreement on a candidate.

CLASH DELAYS NEW U.N. UNIT

U.S., Russia Argue On Freedom Of Information Group

Lake Success, N.Y., March 14 (AP). Russia and the United States clashed today over the question of whether the proposed United Nations subcommission on freedom of information should be composed of Government representatives or private individuals.

This appeared to be the only major point of difference in the way of putting this new agency into operation. In day-long debate on the report of the Human Rights Commission, which included recommendations on freedom of information, the Economic and Social Council was agreed that the subcommission should be set up as soon as possible.

It also was agreed that its first task should be to draft a program for an international conference which will be held either late this year or early in 1948 to consider the whole question of freedom of information.

Czech Supports Russian

Alexander P. Morozov, Soviet delegate, asserted during the discussions that the twelve-nation subcommission must be made up of Government representatives. He was supported by Jan Papanek, delegate from Czechoslovakia.

Most of the other delegates, however, including Leroy Stinebower, United States delegate, supported the recommendations of the Human Rights Commission, which provided that the Economic and Social Council elect the commission members "subject to the consent of the governments of which the persons are nationals."

Stinebower called freedom of information "one of the major guarantees for lasting peace" and called on the Economic and Social Council for prompt action in setting up the subcommission. He said the United States was prepared to present a list of nominees as soon as the Council was ready for it.

French Delegate's Plans

It became clear during the debate that a strong effort would be made at the proposed world conference to write into any international agreement on freedom of information provisions setting forth the obligations of the press, radio and films as well as privileges.

Pierre Mendes-France, French delegate, announced that he already had drafted proposals which included measures designed to prevent abuses of freedom such as "the spreading of harmful news."

He also said he would propose:

1. An international statute for journalists, setting forth the rights and obligations of newsmen.
2. An international organization of the press to see that the various measures were respected.

Referred To Committee

His views were supported by Papanek, who declared that if "the press enjoys great rights, it cannot be exempt from equally great responsibilities."

"Freedom without obligations," Papanek declared, "could very easily act against the very aims of the Charter of the United Nations."

After day-long discussion of the question the Economic and Social Council referred it to a committee for further study.

President Ruled Against His Top Men On Draft

Washington, March 14 (AP)—President Truman overruled his top military manpower experts in advising Congress to let the wartime Draft Act expire at the end of this month.

This became known today after Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) made available the transcript of a closed-door session of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Gurney had previously reported a committee decision to urge a delay of at least three months in the transfer of draft records from local boards to state capitals because of the troubled world situation.

Urged By Hershey And Paul

The recorded testimony of Tuesday's committee meeting disclosed that both Maj. Gen. W. S. Paul, army chief of personnel, and Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, conceded under questioning that they had recommended continuance of the draft even though there have been no induction calls since October

Senator Saltonstall (R., Mass.) asked Paul whether it would not have been better to have extended selective service itself, rather than set up an office of selective service records proposed by the President to keep draft files intact.

"As for me, I think personally it would be far simpler to have retained the skeleton organization, but the Commander in Chief did not see fit to do it, so I am in no position to say otherwise," Paul replied.

Differed On Extension

Senator Byrd (D., Va.) developed that Hershey and the President also differed about extension of the draft after Hershey testified the machinery would be badly needed for any "remobilization."

"The President did not agree with you on that danger because he would have recommended a continuance of selective service," Byrd observed.

"I think that is obvious," Hershey responded.

"One more question," Byrd said, "and do not answer if this is embarrasing—but did you recommend the continuance of selective service this year?"

"Two or three times, yes sir," was the reply.

Cited Recruiting Prospects

Mr. Truman told Congress in a message March 3 that because of "A recent brightening in recruiting prospects" he was recommending that there be no extension of the draft "at this time."

He added, however, that he wanted it understood that the Army and Navy would ask for a new act if they are unable to keep 1,641,000 men under arms.

The Mediterranean situation had not built up to the crisis stage when that message went to Capitol Hill.

The Greek-Turkey case was beginning to assume fateful proportions, however, when Mr. Truman a week later recommended that the Office of Selective Service Records be set up to keep all draft files intact by having each state assemble them in the capital, under Federal jurisdiction.

The shift was to be made at the end of March. But Gurney's committee proposed yesterday, after another closed-door session with Secretary of War Patterson that the records be left where they are, at least through June, even though this would cost an extra $2,000,000.

DOUGHTON URGES DELAY IN TAX CUT

Should Wait Until Foreign Commitments Known, He Warns.

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) Noting "dark clouds hanging over the world," Rep. Doughton (D-NC) called today for delay in tax cuts "until we know what our foreign commitments and expenditures will be."

But Rep. Jenkins (R-Ohio) declared that "just because of the scare the President gave us a few days ago, we are not at war with Russia."

Doughton, who managed tax legislation as ways and means committee chairman while the Democrats controlled congress, stepped into the leadership of the opposition as the committee closed two days of hearings.

20 P.C. Cut Urged

The final witnesses were two under-secretaries of the treasury in the Roosevelt administration who joined Republicans calling for a 20 per cent across the board income tax cut.

They were Roswell Magill, now a Columbia University law professor, and John W. Hanes, finance chairman of the Hearst enterprises and the U. S. Lines. Both testified before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Their position clashed head-on with that of the Truman administration. Secretary of the Treasury Snyder yesterday asked the committee to forget about tax cuts this year and apply any treasury surpluses to debt reduction.

The committee, under complete control of the Republicans, is bound to approve a tax cut bill, probably next week.

Magill and Hanes testified after a stormy session in which Democrats sought to open the committee hearings to witnesses from the general public.

Fight Over Open Hearings

On a strict party-line vote, the committee rejected 12 to 5 a motion by Rep. Lynch (D-NY) that anyone who desired to express an opinion on taxes be allowed to testify. Lynch contented the two-day tax hearings were being limited to witnesses "invited" by Chairman Knutson (R-Minn).

Russ Nixon, chairman of the economic subcommittee of the CIO legislative committee, circulated a statement in the committee room declaring that the hearing procedure had been adopted "to sneak over a soak the averageman tax measure."

Magill testified that a 20 per cent tax reduction retroactive to Jan. 1 "would reaffirm the faith of congress in the free enterprise system."

Hanes asked for action on Knutson's bill "as soon as possible." He advised congress to "forget the political considerations and the ideologies that have been written into too many of our recent tax laws and deal with the problem as objectively as it deserves to be dealt with."

"The theory of ability to pay, which underlies and justifies our income tax schedules, has been abused," he said. "Under the revenue acts of 1936 and 1938, for example, our concepts of taxation have been warped from purely revenue-raising purposes to the use of taxation for social ends."

Moreover, he said income tax rates, especially in the higher brackets, "have been framed as punitive instruments."

Flanders Would Stop Exports to Russia

Washington, March 14 (A. P.).—Legislation to embargo all shipments of goods to Russia until that nation fulfills "its obligations under the Yalta and Potsdam agreements" was introduced in the Senate today by Senator Flanders (R.-Vt.).

A similar measure in the House was offered on March 4 by Representative Bradley (R.-Mich.), chairman of the Merchant Marine committee. Bradley's bill, now pending before the Foreign Affairs Committee, would prohibit exports until the Soviets make "a satisfactory settlement" for nine-five American merchant ships received during the war.

Britain Cancels Import Curb on 34 U.S. Products

Items Include Pipe Tobacco, Cigarettes, Quick-Frozen Fruits and Safety Razors

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP).—Britain will now permit import of limited quantities of American cigarettes and American pipe tobacco, quick-frozen fruits and safety razors, the Commerce Department announced today.

These were among thirty-four groups of commodities added to 167 previously approved by Britain for receipt under the British "token import plan."

Others newly approved include women's and children's cotton and woolen stockings, men's socks, girdles, corsets, brassieres, laundry soap, windshield wipers and pots, loaded supporting cartridges and loaded shot-gun shells and artificial teeth.

Under the "token" import plan, individual American producers are permitted to ship to Britain each year an amount of each item not exceeding 20 per cent of the average annual value of his 1936-1948 shipments to Britain.

The remaining newly approved articles, none of which could be shipped to Britain during the war, were listed as:

Onion and garlic salt, hand-operated stropping machines and razor grinders and sharpeners, hand seeders for farm and garden use, dental equipment and instruments, spectacle frames not of gold or gold-filled, portable electric generators, aquarium equipment and belt fasteners for conveyor belts.

Also wood or cardboard filing boxes or trays, women's dresses of any material, garters, bone black, porcelain enamel frit, propriety or trade-name medicinal preparations, paper towels and napkins, snapshot mounting corners, adhesive labels, indexing or filing cards, automotive cables, chemical maintenance products for automobiles except oils and polishes, furniture casters and parts, ladies handbag and purse frames and certain additional office supplies.

Thomsen Says Nazi Pay To Stewart Was Ordered

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP). Hans Thomsen, former Charge d'Affaires at the German Embassy, testified today that in 1941 he ordered between $10,000 and $15,000 paid to a "propaganda" magazine in Wisconsin.

Under defense questioning in the perjury trial of Douglas M. Stewart, of Lake Geneva, Wis., in United States District Court, Thomsen said he directed propaganda matters in a general way but did not carry out the details.

Stewart is charged on four counts with having perjured himself when he testified before a Federal grand jury in 1943 that he did not know the source of two packets of $15,000 each which he had received.

Thomsen said he had told Heribert von Strempel, former First Secretary of the German Embassy, to turn over funds to Stewart, former publisher of "Scribner's Commentator," but insisted it "is difficult for me to remember all the details of this."

Thomsen frequently referred to what he termed his "little diary," which he withdrew from his pocket when asked for dates and places.

He asserted he was arrested Aug. 21, 1945, by the British when he returned to Germany from Sweden, was held for eight months and then turned over to the Americans, being taken to Camp Seibert near Frankfurt.

He said that he and Strempel had been questioned by American agents and that Strempel later told him he had been threatened "even to be shot as a spy—which I considered outrageous."

Continued Sugar Control Approved

Washington, March 14 (A. P.).—Legislation continuing sugar price control and rationing until October 31 wasapp roved today by the House Banking Committee. Under pr esent law, rationing expires March 31 and price control June 30.

As originally drafted by Representative Wolcott (R.-Mich.), the new measure would have extended control until October 31, and permitted the Secretary of Agriculture to extend it until March 31 of next year if he deemed that necessary. Wolcott said the committee's decision to extend the control until October 31 was unanimous.

SMALL PAPERS WILL BE AIDED

Publishers Appoint Body to Study Newsprint.

Washington, March 14 (A. P.).—Leading publishers will have their local associations do all in their power to help daily and weekly newspapers get news print.

In the case of religious, labor and specialized newspapers, the publishers have set up a committee to investigate the newsprint situation.

The publishers adopted the following resolution:

"This group of newspaper publishers unanimously decided that they will undertake so far as they possibly can, to have the local publishers' associations, which include the regional, State and city associations, examine all cases of distress of newspapers of general circulation, which includes weeklies as well as dailies under Section 520 of the postal laws and regulations and do all in their power to see that they are enabled to continue to publish. As to other publications which are classified under Section 521 of the postal laws and regulations they are appointing a committee to investigate the situation and that committee will report back to this Senate sub-committee in ten days."

Magazines Lack Paper.

Adrian B. Lopez, publisher of six magazines, testified today that he has been forced to pay up to $200 a ton for newsprint. Lopez, president of the Volitant Publishing Corporation, told a Senate Small Business sub-committee that this is $116 a ton over the regular market price. He added that "unless relief is found immediately, we will be forced to curtail from six to two publications."

Chairman Capehardt (R.-Ind.), a member of the sub-committee investigating newspritn shortage complaints, asked what legislation can be enacted to remedy the plight of small publications.

Lopez said he thought the provision of the anti-trust laws should be invoked to block what he called the monopoly of large publishers.

"During 1946, mills which were logical and potential sources of supply were sold to large publishers," Lopez said.

Labels Ripped Off Paper.

Lopez testified that in 1945 under newsprint rationing, his firm was receiveing a total of 2,000 tons of paper annually from two suppliers, but one of these has been unable to supply any paper since December. The other has cut his supply 25 per cent, he said.

Capehart asked names of the mills from which the $200-a-ton paper was shipped.

"I don't know," Lopez replied. "They take the labels off the paper."

Capehart instructed Lopez to furnish a list of all his paper brokers, because "we may want to subpœna those people."

Senator Ellender (D.-La.) wanted to know whether Lopez's suppliers are "regular brokers or fly-by-nights."

"I'd call them fly-by-nights," Lopez said, "but some of them are regular brokers."

Capehart told Lopez his case will be turned over to the committee of publishers set up to determine what aid can be given small papers.

Bradley Worried Over War Neurosis

Atlantic City, March 14 (AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley said today the Veterans Administration was "worried about the number of men showing up with a war-developed psychiatric neurosis condition"—nightmares of combat duty and a desire to kill "someone dear to them, a wife perhaps."

Here to address the National Postwar Conference, which is holding a "behind-the-doors" meeting, Bradley said in an interview that he could not estimate how many veterans were neuro-psychiatric cases, but that it was "a bigger number than we like."

"They've reported nightmares of combat duty some six months to a year after their discharges from service and one psychiatrist told me a number have a desire to kill someone—someone dear to them, a wife perhaps."

Made International Bank Head

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The nomination of Eugene R. Black, of New Jersey, to be United States executive director of the International Bank was confirmed by the Senate today. He succeeds Emilio Collado.

"GOVERNMENTAL DOMINATION, MANIPULATION OF INFORMATION IN THE INTEREST OF A PARTY, ARE POWERFUL WEAPONS IN THE HANDS OF AN ANTI-DEMOCRATIC NAZI REGIME," HE SAID.
"IF ANY ANTI-DEMOCRATIC IDEOLOGIES ARE TO BE FOREVER ELIMINATED
IN GERMANY WE MUST CERTAINLY PERMIT THE PEOPLE OF THAT NATION TO ENJOY
UNRESTRICTED ACCESS TO INFORMATION OBTAINED BY MEANS OF ALL MEDIA
OF PUBLIC INFORMATION, INCLUDING THE PRESS, RADIO, BOOKS, MAGAZINES, FILMS, THEATERS AND MUSIC."

A184 ADD-MOSCOW (MARSHALL (N)-GALLAGHER) XVXX GERMANY.

HE ASSERTED THAT THE ALLIES WOULD NEVER MAKE GERMANY A DEMOCRACY
BY "A MERE NEGATIVE PROCESS DEPRIVING THE NAZIS OF THEIR POSITIONS
AND INFLUENCE. WE MUST RATHER TAKE AN ACTIVE PART IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ESSENTIALS WHICH I HAVE OUTLINED AND PROCEED TO RESTORE THE GERMAN ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL LIFE UPON THE FOUNDATION WHICH THEY PROVIDE."

HE READ TWO OTHER PAPERS IN WHICH HE DISCLOSED THAT 80 OF 117 WAR
PRODUCTION PLANTS IN THE AMERICAN ZONE OF GERMANY WERE 100 PERCENT
LIQUIDATED, AND THAT THE UNITED STATES IS HOLDING ONLY 15,103 NAZI PRISONERS OF WAR, OF WHOM 13,825 WERE IN ITALY. ANOTHER 15,873 ARE BEING DISCHARGED RAPIDLY IN THE AMERICAN ZONE IN GERMANY, HE SAID.

MOLOTOV ANNOUNCED THAT FIGURES ON SOVIET PRISONERS OF WAR WOULD BE CIRCULATED AMONG THE DELEGATIONS TONIGHT.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER BIDAULT SAID THE FRENCH HAVE 641,483 GERMAN WAR PRISONERS, INCLUDING 593,267 IN FRANCE AND 19,601 IN AFRICA
AND 18,606 IN THE FRENCH ZONE OF GERMANY.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN SAID YESTERDAY BY MOLOTOV
435,295 PRISONERS OUTSIDE OF GERMANY. THEY ARE BEING REPATRIATED
AT THE RATE OF 17,000 MONTHLY, AND THE FIGURE WILL BE RAISED TO 20,000 ON JULY 1, HE ADDED.

MARSHALL ANSWERED TWO CRITICISMS RAISED YESTERDAY BY MOLOTOV.
REPLYING TO A SOVIET CHARGE THAT 35 PERCENT OF THE JUDGES IN THE U.S. ZONE WERE FORMER NAZIS, THE AMERICAN SECRETARY SAID ACTUALLY 35 PERCENT WERE FORMER MEMBERS OF THE GERMAN JUDICIAL SYSTEM WHO HAD BEEN CLEARED OF NAZISM.

MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT THAT 2,000 GERMANS WERE SERVING IN MILITARY

UNITS IN THE AMERICAN ZONE DREW THE REPLY THAT 8,000 WERE IN LABOR UNITS ON JAN. 1 OF THIS YEAR AND ORDERS HAD BEEN ISSUED FOR THEIR QUICKEST DISPERSION.

MAR 1947

THE DEVELOPMENTS ON CHINA AND THE REACTION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH OVERSHADOWED THE PLODDING PROGRESS OF THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS ON THE GERMAN PEACE TREATY; THEY COULD NOT SEEM TO SKIP OLD ARGUMENTS. GERMANY STILL APPEARED THE MAIN KEY TO BASIC EAST-WEST RELATIONS. ADD-MOSCOW-(MARSHALL-DAY)-XXY TODAY

A WRITER IN PRAVDA, COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER, TODAY URGED THE BIG FOUR TO MAKE A TREATY "WITH GERMANY" RATHER THAN DICTATE A TREATY "TO" GERMANY.

THIS LINE OF SOVIET POLICY, SEEKING EARLY CREATION OF A CENTRALIZED GERMAN GOVERNMENT, IS IN OPPOSITION TO BRITISH AND AMERICAN FEDERALIZATION PLANS.

ANOTHER COMMENTARY, IN IZVESTIA, THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, DECLARED THAT "ALL SINCERE PEACE LOVERS DESIRE SUCCESS" FOR THE MINISTERS' COUNCIL AND ASSAILED PESSIMISTS WHO FORESEE FAILURE.

MARSHALL, TOP AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID, HAD NOT REPLIED TO MOLOTOV A FEW HOURS BEFORE THE OPENING OF THE FIFTH SESSION OF THE COUNCIL ON THE SOVIET MINISTER'S REQUEST FOR INFORMAL DISCUSSION OF CHINA.

IF CHINA REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE IN SUCH TALKS, MARSHALL ALMOST CERTAINLY WOULD REFUSE, BECAUSE HE IS UNWILLING TO TAKE ANY ACTION WHICH THE CHINESE COULD CONSIDER AN AFFRONT.

THIS LEFT OPEN THE POSSIBILITY THAT HE COULD STILL GIVE MOLOTOV THE INFORMATION REQUESTED EITHER IN A SINGLE, BRIEF MEETING, OR WITHOUT ANY MEETING. BUT IT MEANT--EMPHATICALLY--THAT MARSHALL WOULD NOT ENGAGE IN ANY ACTUAL CONFERENCE ON THE MATTER WITHOUT CHINA'S PRESENCE.

THE FRENCH DELEGATION HELD THE VIEW THAT UNLESS THE AMERICANS, RUSSIANS AND BRITISH TOOK DECISIONS OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF THEIR 1945 BIG THREE ACTION ON CHINA, FRANCE HAD NO INTEREST IN PARTICIPATING IN THE NEW MEETING.

"THE QUESTION OF FAR EASTERN RELATIONS IS OF GREAT INTEREST TO FRANCE," AN OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN SAID, "AND IF ANY NEW DECISIONS ARE TO BE DISCUSSED, FRANCE WANTS A FULL SHARE IN THE CONFERENCE, BUT IF BRITAIN, THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA ARE JUST GOING TO EXCHANGE INFORMATION IN THE LIGHT OF THEIR LAST CONFERENCE IN MOSCOW, WE WILL NOT INSIST UPON PARTICIPATING."

ASTRALIA AND CANADA WERE REPORTED URGING BEVIN TO ABSTAIN FROM ANY DISCUSSION ON CHINA DURING THIS CONFERENCE.

THE TWO DOMINIONS WERE SAID TO HAVE TAKEN THE POSITION THAT THE CHINESE SITUATION WAS PART OF THE GENERAL EASTERN SETTLEMENT, WHICH THEY FELT SHOULD BE SEPARATE FROM THE EUROPEAN AND IN WHICH THEY BELIEVE AUSTRALIA AND CANADA SHOULD HAVE FULL VOICES.

A CHINESE EMBASSY SOURCE SAID TODAY THE EMBASSY HERE HAD NOT RECEIVED ANY INVITATION OR OTHER NOTIFICATION FROM THE SOVIET UNION REGARDING THE PROPOSED TALKS BUT HAD BEEN INFORMED OF THE PROPOSAL "THROUGH OTHER SOURCES."

MARSHALL, IT WAS LEARNED, PLANNED TO REPLY THAT HE WAS WILLING TO EXCHANGE REPORTS ON CHINA IN LINE WITH THE BIG THREE'S MOSCOW AGREEMENT OF DEC.19, 1945--BUT ONLY IF CHINA PARTICIPATED. BEVIN, PRESUMABLY, WOULD TAKE A SIMILAR LINE.

MOLOTOV, AFTER RECEIVING THE MARSHALL AND BEVIN RESPONSES, WAS EXPECTED TO INVITE CHINA TO DESIGNATE A REPRESENTATIVE TO TAKE PART IN THE TALKS, BUT WHETHER THE NANKING GOVERNMENT WOULD AGREE IN VIEW OF DECLARATIONS ALREADY MADE WAS HIGHLY UNCERTAIN, AND REJECTION OF SUCH AN INVITATION WOULD BE NO SURPRISE. 1/CNS

A SOVIET RADIO BROADCAST LAST NIGHT, CONFIRMING EARLIER REPORTS OF THE MOLOTOV NOTES, SAID NOTHING ABOUT AN INVITATION TO CHINA BUT DID NOT BAR SUCH A POSSIBILITY.

WHEN THE CONFERENCE BEGAN MONDAY, MOLOTOV PROPOSED A DISCUSSION OF CHINA IN THE LIGHT OF THE BIG THREE'S MOSCOW AGREEMENT FOR NON-INTERVENTION THERE, BUT MARSHALL ASKED FOR TIME TO THINK THE PROPOSAL OVER AND THE CHINESE QUESTION WAS NOT PUT ON THE CONFERENCE AGENDA.

MARSHALL WAS UNDERSTOOD TODAY TO BE UNDISPOSED TO GO INTO DETAILED DISCUSSIONS AND ARGUMENTS WITH THE SOVIET UNION OVER CHINA, AND IT WAS SAID HE MIGHT LIMIT HIS OWN PARTICIPATION IN SUCH TALKS AND SIMPLY GIVE BEVIN, MOLOTOV AND THE CHINESE REPRESENTATIVE, IF ANY, THE U.S. VIEW OF CONDITIONS THERE, INCLUDING A STATEMENT ON TROOP WITHDRAWALS.

SOME OBSERVERS SAW A LINK BETWEEN THE LATEST MOVE TO BRING UP THE CHINA QUESTION AND POSSIBLE SOVIET REACTION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST TO CONGRESS FOR $400,000,000 IN AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY. THE SITUATION IN CHINA, THEY SAID, MAY BE ATTACKED AS ONE OF THE MOST VULNERABLE POINTS IN AMERICAN WORLDWIDE DIPLOMACY IN VIEW OF MARSHALL'S FAILURE TO UNIFY THE FACTIONS THERE.

IN ALMOST A WEEK OF SESSIONS, THE CONFERENCE HAS MADE LITTLE SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS ON A TREATY WITH GERMANY--WHICH, WITH AN AUSTRIAN SETTLEMENT, IS ITS MAIN BUSINESS.

INSTEAD, THE BIG FOUR HAS BEEN EXCHANGING OLD, FAMILIAR ARGUMENTS LONG CURRENT IN INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATIONS ON GERMANY, HAVING TO DO WITH DENAZIFICATION, DEMILITARIZATION AND THE LIKE.

MARSHALL PLANNED TODAY TO TRY TO GET ACTION ON AN EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION ABOUT GERMAN PRISONERS. HE PREPARED A STATEMENT ON AMERICAN HOLDINGS WHICH HE INTENDED TO CIRCULARIZE TO THE OTHER DELEGATIONS PRIOR TO THE OPENING OF TODAY'S MINISTERS' SESSION (4 P.M.--8 A.M., EST). MOLOTOV HAS PROMISED DATA ON PRISONERS HELD BY RUSSIA.

MARSHALL YESTERDAY SUBMITTED TO THE MINISTERS A RESOLUTION THAT WOULD INSTRUCT THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL IN BERLIN TO DIRECT GERMAN AUTHORITIES TO ADOPT UNIFORM DENAZIFICATION PROCEDURE FOR ALL FOUR OCCUPATION ZONES OF GERMANY.

MOLOTOV SAID HE BELIEVED THE PROPOSAL ACCEPTABLE IN PRINCIPLE BUT WANTED TIME TO THINK ABOUT IT. BEVIN OBJECTED THAT EFFECTING UNIFORM PRACTICES WOULD TAKE TOO LONG.

IN SUBMITTING THE RESOLUTION, MARSHALL SAID HE HAD REPORTS THAT NAZIS IN THE SOVIET ZONE WERE BEING GIVEN A CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH IF THEY JOINED THE RUSSIAN-SPONSORED SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY. MOLOTOV REPLIED THAT HE KNEW OF NO SUCH CASES.

HONG KONG, MARCH 14-(AP)-GEN.TSAI TING-KAI,FORMER HEAD OF THE CHINESE 19TH ROUTE ARMY, AND MARSHAL LI CHAI-SUM, FORMER MILITARY GOVERNOR OF KWANGTUNG AND KWANGSI PROVINCES, APPEALED TO THE MOSCOW FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE TODAY NOT TO INTERFERE IN CHINA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS AND ASKED A CESSATION OF SUPPLIES TO CHINA.

IN A SIGNED STATEMENT, THEY PRAISED THE SOLIDARITY OF BRITAIN, THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA IN "RENDERING GREAT HELP" TO CHINA DURING THE WAR BUT SAID THAT SINCE THE WAR ENDED "THE UNITED STATES HAS COMMITTED SERIOUS ERRORS IN HER POLICY TOWARDS CHINA X X X. AS A RESULT THE CIVIL WAR IN CHINA HAS BEEN PROLONGED AND EXPANDED."

IF SUPPLIES ARE SHIPPED TO CHINA THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND REHABILITATION ADMINISTRATION "THEY WILL NOT BE USED FOR RELIEVING SUFFERING PEOPLE NOR FOR RECONSTRUCTION BUT WILL BE USED IN SWELLING THE CIVIL WAR CHEST OF A DICTATORIAL GOVERNMENT," SAID THE STATEMENT, ALSO SIGNED BY MME.LIAO CHUNG-KAI AND PENG TZE MIN.

GEN.TSAI COMMANDED THE 19TH ROUTE ARMY AGAINST THE JAPANESE AT SHANGHAI IN 1932 AND THEN AGAINST COMMUNIST TROOPS IN FUKIEN PROVINCE IN SOUTHEAST CHINA, WHERE HE SET UP A MILITARY REGIME IN LATE 1933 AND REMAINED UNTIL THE GOVERNMENT CHASED HIM OUT AS A REBEL. HE LATER RETURNED TO FAVOR AND LED THE 19TH ROUTE ARMY AROUND HONG KONG IN 1941. HE VISITED THE UNITED STATES ON A WORLD TOUR IN 1934.

LI WAS INVOLVED WITH HIM IN THE FUKIEN REVOLT AND SUBSEQUENTLY WAS EXILED. MME.LIAO, THEN ON THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT PARTY) CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, WAS LISTED IN 1938 AMONG LEFTIST-INCLINED CHINESE WHO CALLED FOR CONTINUED CHINESE RESISTANCE TO JAPAN AND FOR COOPERATION WITH RUSSIA.

DEPUTIES (200)

MOSCOW,MARCH14-(AP)-U.S.AMBASSADOR ROBERT D.MURPHY TOLD DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS TODAY THAT SMALLER NATIONS WHICH DECLARED WAR ON GERMANY AS WELL AS THOSE WHICH ACTUALLY FOUGHT THAT COUNTRY SHOULD HAVE A VOICE IN MAKING THE PEACE TREATIES.

AN INFORMANT WHO ATTENDED THE MEETING CONCERNING GERMANY SAID MURPHY SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED MEXICO AND OBVIOUSLY WAS PUTTING UP A FIGHT FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE PEACE DISCUSSIONS BY ALL LATIN-AMERICAN COUNTRIES WHICH DECLARED WAR, BUT DID NOT SEND TROOPS.

THE DISCUSSION AROSE IN CONNECTION WITH A FRENCH PROPOSAL FOR GIVING SMALLER NATIONS A PART IN THE TREATY MAKING. THE FRENCH ALSO ADVOCATED IMMEDIATE FORMATION OF A CONSULTATIVE BODY OF SMALL NATIONS.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY WAS REPORTED AS BEING FAVORABLE TO THE FORMATION OF SUCH A BODY AND URGING THAT IT INCLUDE 19 NATIONS, AMONG THEM ALBANIA.

MURPHY WAS NOT SPECIFIC ON HOW THE COUNTRIES WHICH HAD ONLY DECLARED WAR SHOULD BE BROUGHT INTO THE PICTURE, BUT ARGUED THAT THEY CERTAINLY SHOULD GET SOME RECOGNITION.

AT A SIMULTANEOUS SESSION, THE DEPUTIES ON AUSTRIA WERE BOGGED DOWN IN A LONG-TIME DISAGREEMENT OVER WHETHER THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT GAVE RUSSIA THE RIGHT TO SEIZE GERMAN ASSETS IN AUSTRIA.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITISH AND FRENCH MAINTAINED THAT THE AGREEMENT GAVE NO SUCH RIGHT AND THAT OTHER STEPS WOULD STILL HAVE TO BE TAKEN FOR THE SOVIETS TO GET LEGAL TITLE TO THE PROPERTIES THEY HAVE ALREADY ACQUIRED.

CONFERENCE SIDEBAR (400)

BY WES GALLAGHER

MOSCOW, MARCH 14-(AP)-WITH THE FIRST WEEK OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE ALMOST OVER, ITS RECORD OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS APPEARS TO STAND CLOSE TO ZERO.

THUSFAR THE MEETING APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN MORE A SOUNDING BOARD FOR PROPAGANDA THAN A POLICY-MAKING ATTEMPT TO WRITE THE PEACE TREATIES FOR GERMANY AND AUSTRIA.

ONE AMERICAN WHO HAS BEEN TO MOST OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCES SAID:

"THEY ALL START THIS WAY--ALL SOUND AND FURY. AS A MATTER OF FACT THIS ONE SO FAR HAS HAD PLENTY OF SOUND, BUT NOT MUCH FURY. IT WILL STOP PRETTY SOON, AND THEN EVERYTHING WILL HAVE TO BE DONE IN A RUSH BEFORE THE CONFERENCE ENDS."

BEFORE ANY PRINCIPLE CAN BE PROPOSED HERE--LET ALONE DISCUSSED--THE WESTERN POWERS GENERALLY HEAR A LONG EXPOSITION FROM SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M. MOLOTOV.

TO THESE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN USUALLY REPLIES AT LENGTH.

THE MINISTERS HEAR THE SAME ARGUMENTS ON DEMILITARIZATION, DENAZIFICATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION WHICH HAVE BEEN PUBLICIZED FOR MONTHS BY THE CONTROLLED PRESS IN MOSCOW AND THE SOVIET ZONE OF GERMANY, IN THE ALLIED COORDINATING COMMITTEE IN BERLIN, IN THE ALLIED CONTROL

COUNCIL AND THEN USUALLY IN THE FOUR MAJOR CAPITALS.

MOREOVER, THE CHARGES HAVE NOT CHANGED IN SIX MONTHS, AND NEITHER HAVE THE DENIALS. OFTEN, NOT EVEN THE WORDING IS CHANGED.

BOTH BEVIN AND U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL HAVE MADE PLEAS THAT THE COUNCIL ARGUE ON PRINCIPLES, FOREGOING PERSONAL ATTACKS ON DETAILS. FOR EXAMPLE, IN REALITY THERE ARE NO FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCES AMONG THE FOUR POWERS ON DENAZIFICATION AND DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY. ALL FOUR WANT THESE ACCOMPLISHED.

BUT THE RUSSIANS DO NOT LIKE THE WAY THE WESTERN ZONES ARE GOING ABOUT THE TASK. BEVIN AND MARSHALL CONTEND THAT SO LONG AS THE JOB IS DONE--AND THEY SAY IT IS BEING DONE--THE METHODS SHOULD NOT CONCERN THE FOREIGN MINISTERS, BUT SHOULD BE LEFT TO ADMINISTRATORS.

DESPITE THE VIRTUAL AGREEMENT ON DENAZIFICATION AND DEMILITARIZATION, CONSIDERED THE LEAST CONTROVERSIAL SUBJECTS ON THE AGENDA, NO ACTION HAS BEEN TAKEN AS YET.

VETERAN DIPLOMATS WHO CAME HERE PESSIMISTIC AS TO THE CHANCES OF REACHING A SUBSTANTIAL AGREEMENT ON GERMANY SAY THAT THE RUSSIANS MUST KNOW THERE IS NO CHANCE OF MAKING ANY PROGRESS ON THE IMMENSELY INTRICATE CHINESE PROBLEM AT THIS TIME. THEY SAY THE RUSSIANS BROUGHT UP THE SUBJECT ONLY TO AIR THEIR VIEWS. SUCH VIEWS, COMING FROM THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE, CREATE MORE OF AN IMPRESSION THAN THOSE DISSEMINATED THROUGH ORDINARY CHANNELS.

THE SAME DIPLOMATS FEEL, HOWEVER, THAT WHILE THE PROPAGANDA STORM PROBABLY WILL GET WORSE BEFORE IT GETS BETTER, IT MUST AND WILL SUBSIDE EVENTUALLY AND THAT THEN THE CONFERENCE CAN GET DOWN TO WORK.

"WE WITNESS A FRESH INSTRUSION OF THE U.S.A. INTO THE AFFAIRS OF OTHER STATES," IZVESTIA CONCLUDED. "U.S.A. CLAIMS TO LEADERSHIP IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS GROW PARALLEL WITH THE GROWING APPETITE OF THE AMERICAN QUARTERS CONCERNED.

"HOWEVER, THE AMERICAN LEADERS, ACTING IN THE NEW HISTORICAL CIRCUMSTANCES FAIL TO RECKON WITH THE FACT THAT THE OLD METHODS OF THE COLONIZERS AND DIE-HARD POLITICIANS HAVE OUTLIVED THEIR TIME AND ARE DOOMED TO FAILURE. IN THIS LIES THE CHIEF WEAKNESS OF TRUMAN'S POLICY."

IN THE INTRODUCTORY PHASES OF ITS EDITORIAL, IZVESTIA DECLARED THAT "VENAL GREEK MONARCHISTS" AND A "BANKRUPT" GREEK REGIME HAD BEEN PRESENTED TO THE AMERICAN CONGRESS AS "THE DIRECT DESCENDANTS OF THE DEFENDER OF THERMOPYLAE."

THE TRUTH, IZVESTIA ASSERTED, WAS THAT THE REAL POWER IN GREECE WAS THE BRITISH MILITARY, WHO HAD MAINTAINED AT THE HELM "REACTIONARY, ANTI-DEMOCRATIC FORCES" AND DEMONSTRATED "EXTREME UNSCRUPULOUSNESS" IN DOING SO.

THE UNITED STATES DID NOT PROPOSE TO ALTER THE BRITISH POLICY IN GREECE, IZVESTIA ADDED, AND THE ONLY CHANGE WOULD BE THAT THE GREEKS WOULD EXCHANGE BRITISH MASTERS FOR AMERICAN MASTERS.

"THE GREEK PEOPLE, WHICH WAGED AN HEROIC STRUGGLE FOR THEIR INDEPENDENCE AND LIBERTY, DO NOT DESERVE SUCH TREATMENT" AS THEY WOULD RECEIVE IN SUCH A "SINGULAR 'DEFENSE'", IZVESTIA COMMENTED.

DENYING AMERICAN ARGUMENT THAT THERE WAS A THREAT TO THE INTEGRITY OF TURKISH TERRITORY, IZVESTIA SAID THERE WAS NO SUCH THREAT, AND CITED WALTER LIPPMANN AS ADMITTING "QUITE PENLY" IN THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, THAT AN AMERICAN ALLIANCE WITH TURKEY WOULD

LONDON, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE GOT THEIR FIRST NEWS TODAY OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL FOR UNITED STATES AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY IN SOVIET PRESS AND RADIO REPORTS CHARACTERIZING THE MOVE AS "NEW INTERFERENCE IN THE BUSINESS OF OTHER STATES" DIRECTED AGAINST "DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS IN GREECE."

IZVESTIA, SOVIET GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, WAS REPORTED IN A MOSCOW DISPATCH TO HAVE PUBLISHED A PAGE-ONE EDITORIAL THIS MORNING CHARGING INTERFERENCE AND DECLARING THAT "TRUMAN DID NOT TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION EITHER THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION OR THE SOVEREIGNTY OF GREECE" IN HIS WEDNESDAY MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.

THE MOSCOW RADIO, HEARD HERE, CARRIED ON ITS MORNING NEWS BROADCAST IN RUSSIAN A WASHINGTON DISPATCH FROM TASS, SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, WHICH SAID, IN PART:

"TRUMAN'S MESSAGE IS OPENLY DIRECTED AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS IN GREECE WHO ARE DEFENDING THE DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS IN THE COUNTRY AND WHO ARE CALLED A MILITANT MINORITY IN THE MESSAGE."

IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT, NBC REPORTED THAT THE BRITISH BROADCASTING COMPANY HAD HEARD A MOSCOW RADIO BROADCAST BEAMED TO GREECE WHICH TERMED MR. TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL "A DANGER TO THE PEACE AND HARMONY AMONG THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD."

MEANWHILE, AN OFFICIAL BRITISH SPOKESMAN HERE YESTERDAY SAID THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH WAS "VERY MUCH IN ACCORD WITH BRITAIN'S VIEWS."

IN AN EARLIER STATEMENT, PREMIER RECEP PEKER OF TURKEY TERMED THE SPEECH "REALISTIC AND FULLY HUMANITARIAN," SAID IT MEANT AN END TO U.S. ISOLATIONISM AND DECLARED IT WOULD "INSPIRE THE PEACE AND FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLES OF THE WORLD."

UNITED STATES AND BRITISH DELEGATIONS TO THE MOSCOW BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE WERE REPORTED TO HAVE ROUTED TRANSLATORS OUT OF BED TO RENDER THE IZVESTIA EDITORIAL INTO ENGLISH.

THE EDITORIAL, FIRST MOSCOW NEWSPAPER REACTION TO THE TRUMAN ADDRESS, ASKED:

new delhi, march 14-(ap)-president truman's declaration on aid to greece and turkey [redacted] a mixed reception in india today.

the english-edited times of india commented in bombay that the statement "envisages the extension of direct and active responsibility on the part of the united states for european affairs above and beyond commitments which were the immediate legacies of the war, in the long run clarity and firmness will speed rather than delay final and stable agreements."

the hindu in madras, however, criticized the united states for [redacted] "taking unilateral action on ideological and strategic ground," adding that "it is to be regretted that her president now has made a move which conflicts with the basic principles of the united nations."

The evening call of new delhi said the president's action "seems

"it is surprising," the paper said, "that at a time when britain is

EIGHT LEAD MINERS (140)

LONDON, MARCH 14-(AP)-BRITISH MINERS WON THEIR LONGSTANDING DEMAND FOR A FIVE-DAY WEEK IN THE COUNTRY'S NATIONALIZED COAL MINES TODAY IN A MOVE AIMED AT ATTRACTING MORE MEN TO THE PITS DURING THE GRAVE COAL SHORTAGE.

UNDER AN AGREEMENT APPROVED BY THE GOVERNMENT APPOINTED NATIONAL COAL BOARD, MINERS WILL GET SIX DAYS PAY FOR A FIVE-DAY, 37 1/2-HOUR WEEK, STARTING MAY 5. THE MINERS NOW NORMALLY WORK FIVE AND ONE-HALF DAYS A WEEK.

CLAIMS IN SOME CIRCLES THAT SHORTER HOURS WOULD RESULT IN A SHARP DROP IN COAL PRODUCTION WERE COUNTERED BY MINE UNION LEADERS WHO SAID THE COAL OUTPUT ACTUALLY WOULD INCREASE BECAUSE THE FIVE-DAY WEEK WOULD CURTAIL ABSENTEEISM AND ENCOURAGE MORE MEN TO WORK IN THE PITS.

THE MINERS' AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGE UNDER THE PRESENT VARYING PAY SCALES HAS BEEN ESTIMATED BY WILL LAWTHER, MINE UNION OFFICIAL, AT $23.25. THE UNION IS SEEKING TO STANDARDIZE PAY AT $28 WEEKLY FOR MEN WORKING UNDERGROUND.

LONDON--FIRST ADD COAL MINERS (A129 DAY) X X X OF OUTPUT.
WILL LAWTHER, MINE UNION OFFICIAL, HAS ESTIMATED THAT THE MINERS' AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGE IS NOW $23.25 UNDER THE PRESENT HODGEPODGE SYSTEM OF VARYING PAY SCALES. THE MINERS ARE SEEKING TO STANDARDIZE THIS SYSTEM WITH A $28 WEEKLY MINIMUM FOR MEN WORKING UNDER GROUND.

AMERICAN COAL MINERS UNDER THEIR PRESENT CONTRACT WITH THE GOVERNMENT HAVE A BASIC, FIVE-DAY, 45-HOUR WEEK.

THE NINE-HOUR DAY IS FIGURED FROM THE TIME THE MINER ENTERS THE MINE ENTRANCE UNTIL HE LEAVES. THUS IT INCLUDES THE UNDERGROUND TRAVEL TIME WHEREAS THE BRITISH 37 1/2-HOUR WEEK EXCLUDES IT, BEING BASED ON WORK AT THE COAL SEAM FACE.

THE BASIC AMERICAN WAGE IS $1.18 1/2 AN HOUR WITH PAY AND ONE-HALF FOR HOURS OVER 40 A WEEK. THE 45-HOUR WEEK BRINGS $59.25 WITH THE BONUS RATE FOR THE LAST FIVE HOURS.

MANY MINERS ACTUALLY WORK SIX DAYS WHICH BRINGS THEM A WEEKLY PAY CHECK OF $75.25.

MUNICH, GERMANY, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE SOCIETY WOMEN OF THE NAZI HIERARCHY, THE WIDOWS OF ADOLF HITLER'S TOP HENCHMEN, TODAY FACE A SERIES OF TRIALS LIKE THEIR HUSBANDS BEFORE THEM.

THE WOMEN WHO SET THE FASHIONS OF THE NAZI REGIME ARE NOW FOR THE MOST PART REDUCED FROM RICHES TO RAGS, FROM HUGE MANSIONS TO UNHEATED FLATS AND COTTAGES.

NOW THE GERMANS WHO ONCE SAW THESE WOMEN LIVING IN GLITTERING, NEW-RICH SPENDOR, ARE PREPARING TO BRING THEM BEFORE DENAZIFICATION COURTS. IN AT LEAST TWO CASES, THEIR HUSBANDS WERE EXECUTED BY THE ALLIES AT NUERNBERG.

MOST OF THE NAZI WIDOWS LIVE AMONG THE HILLS AND FARMS OF THE AMERICAN ZONE OF BAVARIA. IT WAS OFFICIALS OF THE BAVARIAN DENAZIFICATION MINISTRY, WHO YESTERDAY ANNOUNCED THE NAMES OF THE WOMEN THEY PLAN TO BRING INTO COURT.

HEADING THEIR LIST IS FRAU HERMANN GOERING WHO LIVES WITH HER DAUGHTER AT NEUHAUS. OFFICIALS SAID HER INDICTMENT AS A "NAZI PROFITEER" WILL BE HANDED TO THE FORMER ACTRESS NEXT WEEK.

NEXT IS FRAU HANS FRANK, WIDOW OF THE FORMER GOVERNOR OF POLAND WHO WAS HANGED AT NUERNBERG. OFFICIALS SAID SHE WILL BE TRIED IN STARNBERG AS SOON AS HER INDICTMENT, ALSO AS A NAZI PROFITEER, IS COMPLETED.

OTHERS TO FACE TRIAL ARE FRAU WILHELM FRICK, WIDOW OF HITLER'S FORMER MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR, WHO WAS EXECUTED AT NUERNBERG; FRAU WERNER VON BLOMBERG, WIDOW OF THE LATE FIELD MARSHAL AND FRAU ERICH VON LUDENDORFF, WIDOW OF THE FAMOUS CHIEF OF THE GERMAN STAFF IN WORLD WAR I, WHOM THE PROSECUTOR SAID WOULD BE INDICTED THIS WEEK AS A NAZI PROPAGANDIST.

ANOTHER TO BE TRIED AS A PROFITEER IS FRAU DOROTHEA KEITEL, DAUGHTER-IN-LAW OF THE EXECUTED FIELD MARSHAL. HER HUSBAND IS IN A DENAZIFICATION CAMP.

Batavia, Java, March 14--(AP)--A high-ranking informant said today that an end to the Indonesian stalemate was near, with the Netherlands Commission General now willing to sign the Cheribon agreement as initialed last November.

The informant said the commission had decided not to press further for acceptance by the Indonesians of the interpretation of the agreement given by J. A. Jonkman, Netherlands minister for overseas territories, to the Dutch parliament.

The only important question remaining to be settled before signing is whether Indonesian diplomatic and economic representatives abroad would function independently or be attached to Netherlands embassies and consulates, the informant said.

Indonesian officials had previously stated their willingness to sign the agreement immediately on the form in which it was negotiated. Its terms called for recognition of the Republic of Indonesia--made up of Java, Sumatra and Madoera--which would be an equal partner with Holland in a perpetual Netherlands-Indonesian Union under the House of Orange.

Meanwhile, Capt. Rudy Gray, skipper of the American Liberty ship Martin Behrman which was seized by Dutch naval authorities a week ago, and six other persons submitted to the U.S. consul here a 12,000-word protest over the treatment to which the ship and her crew were subjected. The protest will be transmitted to the Netherlands East Indies Government.

Damages totaling $10,000,000 were demanded in the protest for the Isbrandtsen Company, of New York, operators of the ship, and members of the crew.

Others signing the protest included Third Mate Matthew W. Sailer of Milford, Conn.; Chief Engineer Bertarrius Osmundsen of Leonia, N.J.; First Asst. Engineer Robert A. Barris, Jr., of Lowell, Mass.; Second Engineer Leonard G. Simon of 8022 Ivey St., St. Louis; and Radio Operator Jean A. Vache, Jr., of Greensboro, N. C.

The NEI government contended the Martin Behrman was seized within Dutch territorial waters. The Dutch claimed only the cargo, saying that the ship was being held only while the cargo was being unloaded.

U.N. ATOMIC (750)

BY JOHN A. PARRIS, JR.

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 14-(AP)-FREDERIC JOLIOT-CURIE, RANKING FRENCH EXPERT ON ATOMIC ENERGY, IMPLIED TODAY THAT FRANCE, TOO, KNOWS HOW TO MANUFACTURE ATOMIC BOMBS.

IN A HIGHLY TECHNICAL ARTICLE WRITTEN FOR THE MAGAZINE UNITED NATIONS WORLD, THE FRENCH SCIENTIST, ONE-TIME ASSISTANT TO MME. MARIE CURIE, DECLARED THAT THE PRINCIPLE OF THE ATOMIC BOMB IS "SIMPLE."

WITHOUT SPECIFICALLY SAYING IN COLD, BLACK TYPE THAT FRANCE HAS THE "KNOW-HOW" TO BUILD ATOMIC BOMBS, JOLIOT-CURIE, NEVERTHE-LESS, GAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT FRANCE CAN TURN OUT ATOMIC BOMBS TOO.

"WE ARE THUS APPROACHING THE THIRD STAGE: THAT OF PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF ATOMIC ENERGY TO IMPROVE THE LIVING STANDARDS OF MANKIND."

30.24-8505

A DIGEST OF HIS ARTICLE ISSUED BY THE UNITED NATIONS WORLD SAID THAT "FRANCE TODAY HAS THE KNOW-HOW TO BUILD ATOMIC BOMBS, ACCORDING TO DR. FREDERIC JOLIOT-CURIE."

THE TEXT OF THE ARTICLE, HOWEVER, DOES NOT INCLUDE THAT SPECIFIC QUOTATION. YET, THE ARTICLE IS FILLED WITH OBVIOUS IMPLICATIONS THAT FRANCE KNOWS THE SECRET OF MANUFACTURING ATOMIC BOMBS BUT DOES NOT HAVE THE NECESSARY MATERIALS.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH SCIENTISTS WHO ARE EXPERT IN ATOMIC ENERGY DEVELOPMENTS ARE OF THE OPINION THAT ONLY THE UNITED STATES HAS THE REAL "KNOW-HOW" TO BUILD ATOMIC BOMBS AND THAT OTHER COUNTRIES ARE STILL IN THE EXPERIMENTAL STAGE OF ATOMIC RESEARCH.

YET, AMERICAN SCIENTISTS HAVE WARNED FOR MONTHS THAT THE UNITED STATES CAN NOT HOPE TO HOLD FOREVER THE SECRET OF THE ATOMIC BOMB. THERE HAVE BEEN RECENT INDICATIONS THAT GERMAN SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN EMPLOYED BY THE RUSSIANS TO SOLVE THE SECRET. HOW FAR THEY HAVE PROCEEDED IS ANOTHER SECRET. BUT IT IS A FACT THAT GERMAN SCIENTISTS WERE EXPERIMENTING WITH METHODS OF SPLITTING THE ATOM LONG BEFORE U.S. SCIENTISTS WENT TO WORK ON THE PROJECT.

JOLIOT-CURIE ALSO IS QUOTED IN THE DIGEST AS SAYING FRANCE'S DECISION TO TURN HER ATOMIC RESEARCH TOWARD PEACE IS "NOT BASED ON ANY LACK OF KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THE ATOM BOMB." THE TEXT ALSO FAILS TO DISCLOSE THAT PARTICULAR REFERENCE, ALTHOUGH JOLIOT-CURIE MADE IT CLEAR THAT FRANCE WAS A LEADER IN THE EARLY STAGES OF EXPERIMENTS ON ATOMIC FISSION. 1947

"I AM HAPPY THAT FRANCE HAS CONTRIBUTED SO IMPORTANTLY, NOT MERELY TO KNOWLEDGE WHICH MADE ATOMIC FISSION POSSIBLE," HE SAID, "BUT TO THE PRINCIPLES ON WHICH EVERY-DAY UTILIZATION OF ATOMIC ENERGY MUST BE BASED."

HE DECLARED THAT THERE IS "REASON TO BELIEVE" THAT ATOMIC POWER CAN BE BROUGHT TO A REASONABLE FIGURE, BUT JOLIOT-CURIE DOES NOT SAY WHEN THIS WILL BE. AMERICAN SCIENTISTS HAVE FIGURED THAT IT WILL BE AT LEAST 10 YEARS BEFORE ATOMIC POWER WILL EVEN BEGIN TO CAUSE DISPENSERS OF ELECTRIC POWER ANY WORRY.

CITING THE CASUALTIES IN THE ATOMIC BOMB BLAST AT HIROSHIMA, JOLIOT-CURIE SAID "THE MENACE OF SUDDEN DEATH, THE TERRIFYING POSSIBILITY OF HAVING TO BURROW LIKE ANTS BENEATH THE SOIL AND BUILD CITIES IN THE CAVES OF THE EARTH, AT PRESENT OVERSHADOW IN THE POPULAR MIND THE BENIGN POTENTIALITIES OF OUR NEW KNOWLEDGE."

"NOR IS THE SENSE OF DANGER RELIEVED," HE SAID, "BY THE DECISION OF THE UNITED STATES THAT IT MUST HIDE ITS TECHNICAL AND SCIENTIFIC ADVANCES IN NUCLEAR PHYSICS BEHIND AN AMERICAN 'IRON CURTAIN.'"

JOLIOT-CURIE SAID THAT IN 1939 FRENCH SCIENTISTS HAD CALCULATED THE "CRITICAL MASS," WHICH IS TO SAY THE "SMALLEST AMOUNT" OF THE TARGET MATERIAL IN WHICH A CHAIN REACTION COULD BE TOUCHED OFF.

A9

"THE PRINCIPLE OF THE BOMB NOW BECOMES SIMPLE," HE SAID.

THEN HIS ARTICLE BECAME HIGHLY TECHNICAL IN THE EXPOSE OF ATOMIC PRINCIPLES.

HE SPECULATED THAT THE ATOMIC BOMB EXPLOSION MIGHT RESULT FROM SHOOTING A CHUNK OF URANIUM WEIGHING "SAY 30 KILOS" (66 POUNDS) DOWN A TUBE AT A SIMILAR PIECE OF URANIUM.

HIS ESTIMATE OF THE POSSIBLE WEIGHT OF THE TWO PIECES OF URANIUM, [redacted], IS THE FIRST FROM A HIGH NUCLEAR PHYSICIST.

AMERICAN INFORMATION ON THE AMOUNT OF URANIUM NEEDED, GIVEN IN THE SMYTH REPORT, PLACED IT AS BETWEEN TWO POUNDS AND 200 POUNDS.

IN HIS ARTICLE, THE FRENCH SCIENTIST AND NOBEL PRIZE WINNER SAID: 1947

"IMAGINE A SPHERE OF URANIUM 235 (THE TYPE USED IN MANUFACTURING ATOMIC BOMBS) LARGE ENOUGH TO BE SUSCEPTIBLE TO EXPLOSIVE CHAIN REACTION. NOW DIVIDE IT INTO TWO HEMISPHERES EACH BELOW 'CRISIS MASS' (THE POINT AT WHICH THEY ARE DANGEROUS).

"PLACE THESE TWO HEMISPHERES WEIGHING SAY 30 KILOS (66 POUNDS) APIECE, AT THE TWO ENDS OF A CYLINDRICAL TUBE. ONE HEMISPHERE IS FIXED, THE OTHER MOBILE, SO THAT AN EXPLOSIVE CHARGE PLACED BEHIND IT CAN CAUSE IT TO SLIDE SWIFTLY INTO CONTACT WITH THE OTHER HALF.

"BETWEEN THE TWO, A SOURCE OF EMISSION OF RAPID NEUTRONS CONSTANTLY BOMBARDS WITH NEUTRONS THE PLANE SURFACE OF THE FIXED HEMISPHERE. SUCH A SHOCK WOULD BE A SMALL AMOUNT OF POLONIUM, WHOSE ALPHA RAYS ACT UPON A SUFFICIENT QUANTITY OF GLUCINIUM. WHEN THE TWO HEMISPHERES COME TOGETHER, THE CONDITIONS FOR EXPLOSIVE CHAIN REACTION ARE FULFILLED.

"YOU CAN FORM SOME IDEA OF THE EXPLOSION OF THE TWO HEMISPHERES WEIGHING 30 KILOS EACH WHEN I TELL YOU THAT THE EXPLOSION OF ONE KILO OF URANIUM IS EQUIVALENT TO 300 TONS OF THE MOST POWERFUL EXPLOSIVE."

JOLIOT-CURIE SAID FRANCE WAS BUILDING AT SACLAY, 25 MILES SOUTHWEST OF PARIS, THE FIRST FRENCH "ATOMIC VILLAGE" TO CARRY ON EXPERIMENTS IN ATOMIC ENERGY.

THIS VILLAGE AROUSED THE FEARS OF PEASANTS IN THE VICINITY FOR THEIR LIVES AND CROPS AND THEY THREATENED TO BLOCK THE PROJECT [redacted]

U.N.-GREEK (340)

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 14-(AP)-RUSSIA WAS EXPECTED TODAY TO PROTEST PROJECTED AMERICAN PLANS FOR TRAINING AND EQUIPPING 100,000 GREEK SOLDIERS TO COMBAT ROVING LEFTIST BANDS.

THE MOVE TO BUILD UP THE GREEK ARMY, AMERICAN EXPERTS SAID, WAS PART OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROGRAM TO HOLD THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNISM IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN.

THESE INFORMANTS SAID THE PLAN ALSO WOULD BOLSTER A MUCH MORE ABLE TURKISH MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT TO A POINT WHERE, IN THE EVENT TURKEY'S POSITION ON THE DARDANELLES SHOULD BECOME FATEFULLY JEOPARDIZED, THE COUNTRY WOULD NOT FALL OVERNIGHT.

INFORMED QUARTERS SAID IF THESE PLANS ARE PUT INTO EFFECT THEY EXPECTED RUSSIA TO PROTEST LOUDLY, FIRST IN THEIR OWN PRESS, AND THEN PROBABLY TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL.

THESE SOURCES SAID THEY CERTAINLY DID NOT EXPECT RUSSIA TO ACCEPT SUCH A MOVE WITHOUT A PROTEST.

AMERICAN EXPERTS SAID ECONOMIC BOOSTERS WOULD BE APPLIED TO BOTH GREECE AND TURKEY UNDER CLOSE AMERICAN SUPERVISION OF EXPENDITURES ON A SCALE WHICH WOULD AMOUNT TO SUBSTANTIAL AID TO GREECE FOR AN INDEFINITE TIME AND A GRADUATED DIMINISHING PROGRAM OF HELP FOR TURKEY.

THE REVELATION OF THESE PLANS ADDED TO THE ALREADY GREAT CONCERN AMONG DELEGATES OVER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH OF WEDNESDAY. MOST DELEGATES WERE STILL RELUCTANT TO COMMENT, SHOVING THE BURDEN ON THEIR FOREIGN OFFICES.

HOWEVER, DR. OSWALD ARANHA OF BRAZIL, PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL THIS MONTH, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT HE BELIEVED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH MARKED "THE FIRST STEP OF A LONG WORLD TASK THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST UNDERTAKE."

"I REMAIN OPTIMISTIC OVER THE SUCCESS OF THE UNITED NATIONS," HE SAID. "THE UNITED NATIONS FUNCTION IS TO ACCOMODATE VARIOUS AND DIVERSE OPINIONS AND ATTITUDES IN A COMMON CAUSE FOR WORLD PEACE. IN THAT IT HAS NOT FAILED. OUR WORK AT THIS TIME IS STILL IN THE COORDINATING STAGE BUT THE SUCCESS OF THE ORGANIZATION HAS NOT BEEN IMPAIRED BY MR. TRUMAN'S ADDRESS."

AS AMERICA'S POSITION REGARDING GREECE AND TURKEY WAS OUTLINED BY THE EXPERTS, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE WARREN R. AUSTIN ISSUED A STATEMENT APPROVED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT WHICH SAID:

"THE UNITED STATES IS DEDICATED TO THE PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER AND TO THE BUILDING UP OF COLLECTIVE SECURITY. SUPPORT OF THE FREEDOM AND INDEPENDENCE OF GREECE AND TURKEY IS ESSENTIAL TO THESE PURPOSES. WASHINGTON,MARCH 14-(AP)-THE WHITE HOUSE REPORTED TODAY THAT OVERNIGHT IT RECEIVED ABOUT 200 ADDITIONAL TELEGRAPHIC COMMENTS ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S GREEK-TURKISH AID APPEAL, MANY OF THEM IN OPPOSITION BUT "OBVIOUSLY INSPIRED."

UP TO THIS MORNING ABOUT 700 MESSAGES HAD BEEN RECEIVED. EBEN AYERS, ASSISTANT PRESS SECRETARY, SAID OUTSIDE OF THOSE THAT ARE "CLEARLY PROPAGANDA," THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY FAVOR THE PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATIONS. MESSAGES RECEIVED UP TO LAST NIGHT HE DESCRIBED AS MOSTLY "SPONTANEOUS."

AYERS BASED HIS "PROPAGANDA" INTERPRETATION ON THE OVERNIGHT OPPOSITION MESSAGES ON WHAT HE SAID WAS THE SIMILARITY OF PHRASES USED AND THE FACT THAT MANY CAME IN BATCHES FROM ONE PLACE. NEW YORK ORIGINATED MOST OF THEM, HE ADDED.

SOME OF THE PROTESTS, HE SAID, INVEIGHED AGAINST USING AMERICAN AID TO SUPPORT "AN UNPRESENTATIVE MONARCHIST GOVERNMENT" IN GREECE. OTHERS SAID THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE "MAKING A MOCKERY OF THE 300,000 AMERICAN LIVES GIVEN TO FIGHT FASCISM" IN THE WAR.

AYERS WOULD NOT NAME ANY OF THE SENDERS OF WHAT HE CALLED THE "CLEARLY INSPIRED" MESSAGES, ALTHOUGH HE SAID A FEW CAME FROM ORGANIZATIONS.

AMONG THOSE SUPPORTING THE PRESIDENT'S STAND WERE BOTH INDIVIDUALS AND ORGANIZATIONS. AN AMERICAN LEGION POST PLEDGED SUPPORT AS DID A CHAPTER OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION. #

WASHINGTON,MARCH 14-(AP)-REP.SABATH (D-ILL) SAID TODAY HE HAS EVERY INTENTION OF PRESSING HIS DEMAND FOR A FULL-SCALE INVE I ATION OF THE ARAB OFFICE HERE.

HIS COMMENT TO A REPORTER FOLLOWED A STATEMENT FROM THE ARAB OFFICE THAT FURTHER FBI DIGGING INTO ITS ACTIVITIES "MAY HAVE THE MOST SERIOUS REPERCUSSIONS ON RELATIONS BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND THE ARABS."

SABATH DISCLOSED EARLIER--AFTER THE OFFICE HAD ANNOUNCED AN ALL-DAY VISIT BY TWO FBI AGENTS--THAT HE HAD ASKED THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION TO INVESTIGATE THE OFFICE "TO FIND OUT WHO IS BEHIND THEM."

THE LAWMAKER SAID HE PROBABLY WILL HAVE MORE TO SAY ABOUT HIS REQUEST IN A FORMAL STATEMENT.

THE OFFICE, AN INFORMATION AGENCY SUPPORTED BY SEVEN ARAB GOVERNMENTS, HAS BEEN OPPOSING JEWISH IMMIGRATION INTO PALESTINE.

IN ITS STATEMENT LAST NIGHT, IT SAID IT IS "THE ONE MOUTHPIECE WHICH THE ARABS HAVE IN THIS COUNTRY" AND THAT THE INVESTIGATION "MEANS TO ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES THE ARAB OFFICE HAS BEEN SUSPENDED BY OFFICIAL ACTION FOR TWO WEEKS."

SAYING THAT IS "SOMETHING WHICH HAS, AS FAR AS WE KNOW, NEVER HAPPENED BEFORE TO AN AGENCY OF FRIENDLY GOVERNMENTSS," THE STATEMENT ADDED:

"IF THE MATTER IS NOT ENDED SPEEDILY AND IF A FULL EXPLANATION IS NOT GIVEN OF HOW SUCH AN INCIDENT COULD OCCUR, THE RESULTS MAY BE MOST UNFORTUNATE."

"WHAT COULD THEY DO?" SABATH SAID HE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

GEORGE HOURANI, SECRETARY OF THE ARAB OFFICE, SAID PREVIOUSLY HE HAD NO IDEA WHAT THE FBI AGENTS WERE SEEKING.

"WE HAVE NOTHING TO CONCEAL," HE COMMENTED.

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION LAID DOWN A POLICY TONIGHT OF RESTRICTING JAPANESE CONSUMPTION OF TEXTILES, HARDWARE AND OTHER GOODS IN ORDER TO INCREASE EXPORTS TO COUNTRIES INVADED BY JAPAN IN WORLD WAR II.

THE POLICY WAS DRAFTED AT A MEETING OF THE 11-NATION COMMISSION FEBRUARY 27 AND A DIRECTIVE BASED UPON IT SENT TO GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR. THE POLICY IS DESCRIBED AS A SHORT TERM ONE. IT IS TO TERMINATE AT THE END OF THIS YEAR UNLESS EXTENDED. IT DOES NOT APPLY TO REPARATIONS OR THE FUTURE LEVEL OF JAPANESE ECONOMIC LIFE.

IT STATED:

1. DURING THE PRESENT PERIOD OF WORLD SHORTAGES JAPAN SHOULD SUPPLY GOODS NEEDED IN AREAS DEPRIVED OF THEM DURING THE WAR AS A RESULT OF JAPANESE AGGRESSION. WHEREVER NECESSARY JAPANESE CONSUMPTION SHOULD BE RESTRICTED TO MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS.

2. SPECIFICALLY, CONSUMPTION SHOULD BE RESTRICTED ON TEXTILES, HARDWARE, RUBBER GOODS, POTTERY AND ELECTRICAL GOODS WHICH FOUND A READY MARKET IN CERTAIN COUNTRIES BEFORE THE WAR.

3. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE DETERMINED BY THE ALLIED SUPREME COMMANDER, JAPANESE TEXTILE CONSUMPTION SHOULD BE HELD TO 2 1/2 POUNDS PER CAPITA ANNUALLY FOR HOUSEHOLD USE AND CLOTHING. ADDITIONAL TEXTILES MIGHT BE PERMITTED TO INDUSTRIAL WORKERS OR FARMERS TO A MAXIMUM OF 50,000,000 POUNDS ANNUALLY.

4. MEASURES SHOULD BE CONTINUED OR TAKEN TO SPUR JAPANESE PRODUCTION OF EXPORT GOODS, PARTICULARLY COAL, TEXTILE MACHINERY, MILL STORES AND SIMILAR LIGHT EQUIPMENT IN ADDITION TO THE CONSUMPTION GOODS NAMED.

(NY) CINCINNATI, MARCH 14-(AP)-MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM M.HOGE, COMMANDER OF THE NINTH ARMORED DIVISION AT THE TIME IT PARTICIPATED IN ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FIRST BRIDGEHEAD ACROSS THE RHINE RIVER IN 1945, SAID TODAY HE DID NOT KNOW OF ANY RETREAT CAUSED THERE BY BACKFIRING OF A GERMAN TRUCK.

HOGE'S STATEMENT FOLLOWED PUBLICATION MARCH 7 OF A COLUMN BY HAL BOYLE, ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER AND WAR CORRESPONDENT, IN WHICH AN UNIDENTIFIED OFFICER OF THE 27TH INFANTRY BATTALION, NINTH ARMORED DIVISION UNIT WHICH SEIZED THE LUDENDORFF BRIDGE AT REMAGEN, WAS QUOTED AS SAYING U.S. FORCES WERE STARTLED INTO A RETREAT BY A GERMAN TRUCK'S BACKFIRES AND THAT ONLY TWO AMERICANS REMAINED ON THE EASTERN SIDE OF THE BRIDGE.

THE INCIDENT, ACCORDING TO THE OFFICER QUOTED BY BOYLE, TOOK PLACE THE NIGHT OF MARCH 7, 1945, A FEW HOURS AFTER ESTABLISHMENT OF THE BRIDGEHEAD, AND THAT AMERICAN FORCES DID NOT RECROSS UNTIL ABOUT DAWN THE NEXT MORNING.

HOGE, HOWEVER, SPEAKING AT A NEWS CONFERENCE BEFORE AN ADDRESS HERE, SAID A WITHDRAWAL TOOK PLACE AT REMAGEN THAT NIGHT BUT HE THOUGHT THAT AT LEAST ONE COMPANY OF 125 OR 135 MEN, PERHAPS REINFORCED BY REMNANTS OF OTHER COMPANIES, REMAINED ACROSS THE RHINE.

THE PURPORTED BACKFIRING INCIDENT, AS RELATED BY BOYLE, WAS BROUGHT UP AT THE NEWS CONFERENCE BY A STAFF MEMBER OF THE CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR. HOGE SAID HE HAD HEARD NOTHING OF IT, THEN GAVE THIS ACCOUNT OF THE WITHDRAWAL:

"WE FIRST CROSSED (THE BRIDGE) AT 4 P.M. THE BRIDGE WAS TORN UP AND WAS OPEN ONLY FOR FOOT TRAFFIC UNTIL ABOUT 9 P.M. I HAD RECEIVED ORDERS TRANSFERRING ME TO COBLENZ AND WENT BACK TO MY HEADQUARTERS SIX OR SEVEN MILES FROM THE BRIDGE TO OBTAIN NEW ORDERS. THE RETREAT OCCURRED AFTER DARK AT 8 OR 9 P.M.

KOO, WHO WAS A DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE AT SAN FRANCISCO IN 1945, MADE THE STATEMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE PRECEDING AN ADDRESS BEFORE THE UNIVRSITY OF CINCINNATI YMCA-YWCA GROUPS.

"RUSSIA, AS A VICTOR IN WORLD WAR II, PUT UP A LOT OF BLUFF TO TRY TO GET AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE OUT OF THE VICTORY," DR. KOO TOLD NEWSMEN. "NOW YOU MUST SHOW RUSSIA THAT WHILE YOU SYMPATHIZE WITH HER, SHE CAN'T GO TOO FAR."

KOO DECLARED THAT "RUSSIA TRIED TO DRAG THE CHINESE QUESTION INTO THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE JUST TO LET THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS KNOW THAT SHE IS STILL BEHIND THEM. RUSSIA HAS BEEN SUPPLYING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND RUSSIA SHOULD HAVE BEEN OUT OF DAIREN AND HARBIN BY DEC. 3, 1945---BUT IS STILL THERE."

CHICAGO,MARCH 14-(AP)-GEORGE N.SHUSTER, HISTORIAN AND PRESIDENT OF HUNTER COLLEGE, NEW YORK, TODAY ASSERTED THAT THE "FOREIGN POLICY OF THE VATICAN IS COOPERATION WITH PROTESTANT AND JEW ALIKE IF THE GOAL IS FREEDOM OF THE HUMAN INDIVIDUAL."

ADDRESSING THE CHICAGO COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS, SHUSTER, A ROMAN CATHOLIC, CONTENDED THAT THE POLICY OF THE HOLY SEE WAS THAT CHURCH AND STATE, WHILE SEPARATE, IMPINGE UPON EACH OTHER.

"THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE VATICAN," HE CONTINUED, "IS ONLY THIS: AN ATTEMPT TO MAINTAIN THROUGHOUT THE WORLD THE FREEDOM NECESSARY TO PERMIT MEN TO LIVE UP TO THEIR DOGMAS." HE DEFINIED DOGMA AS "A FIXED POINT OF BELIEF FROM WHICH MEN REGULATE THEIR LIVES."

"IN FURTHERANCE OF THIS POLICY, THE HOLY SEE EVEN WENT SO FAR AS TO CONSIDER COOPERATION WITH ONE WING OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN RUSSIA. A SCHOOL WAS SET UP FOR THE TRAINING OF CLERGY IN THE RUSSIAN CULTURE, BUT BECAUSE OF THE ABSOLUTE REFUSAL OF THE MEN IN THE KREMLIN TO GRANT ANY FREEDOM TO CATHOLICS, THIS WAS ABANDONED.

"TODAY YOU MUST EXPECT THE VATICAN ON THE ONE HAND TO STRENGTHEN THE CATHOLICS THAT HAVE SURVIVED THE WAR, AND ON THE OTHER TO FEAR ANY NEW MILITARY ADVENTURES WORSE THAN DEATH. IT KNOWS THAT A NEW WAR WOULD MEAN THE EXTERMINATION OF THE CATHOLICS IN EASTERN EUROPE.

"IF HITLER, IN A DESPERATE EFFORT TO SAVE HIS WAR, COULD VIRTUALLY EXTERMINATE THE JEWS OF EUROPE, CERTAINLY ANY NEW WAR ON AN IDEOLOGICAL BASIS WOULD MEAN THE EXTERMINATION OF THE REMAINING CATHOLICS.

France Asks Migration Of Germans To Cut Reich War Potential

MAR 1947

MARSHALL SAYS PLAN 'REALISTIC' IN BIG 4 TALKS

Secretary Expects Early Call From Stalin to Discuss Greece

Moscow, March 15—(AP)—France proposed tonight a startling modern day exodus of Germans from their defeated fatherland in order to lower the German war potential, and Secretary Marshall said the plan struck at the heart of the German problem.

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault told the Foreign Ministers Council that the Allies should undertake an organized reduction of the population through emigration from a thickly-settled Reich and said France was prepared to take the revolutionary step of absorbing Germans into her own population.

NIGHT

He said that France considered the German population, which is much denser than her neighboring states, a war potential that could be linked with the German industrial potential.

The day's developments found Marshall summoning Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay from Germany to consult on the German question, while the Chinese announced outright rejection of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's plea for informal Big Three discussions on China.

Stalin Parley Expected

Veteran Moscow observers expected that Marshall and the other foreign ministers would be called to the Kremlin shortly to see Prime Minister Stalin. These reports coincided with word that Republican senators in the United States were urging that Marshall explain America's policies in the Mediterranean to the Soviet leader.

Russia struck the first blow against plans of the Western Allies for a "federalized" Germany with criticism of Western land reorganization policies which the Russians viewed as paving the way for federalization.

At the opening of today's meeting, the longest of the conference, British Foreign Secretary Bevin repri-manded Deputy Soviet Minister Andrei Vishinsky for his insistence that Albania be permitted to participate in drawing up of the German peace pact.

Deputies Deadlocked

Earlier Vishinsky had deadlocked the deputy foreign ministers by demanding that the question be tossed into the laps of the ministers. Bevin said he thought it was entirely improper for one deputy to break up the work of the three others "just because he did not get his way" on one point.

Bidault made his sweeping proposal for Germany by explaining that with the return of expellees from former parts of the Reich Germany would have a density of population of 196 per square kilometer to 75 per square kilometer for France, and 62 for Poland. He said this would be 40 more per square kilometer than when Adolf Hitler raised his cry for "living space."

Sees Seeds of New War

This overpopulation, he contended, was laying the seeds of a new war and giving the Germans the strength to conduct it.

Marshall declared that Bidault's proposals, which included three other points, had gone to the heart of the matter in a very realistic fashion. The Frenchman's other points were:

1. No new transfer of German minorities from other countries into Germany would be permitted.
2. Any such transfers now in progress would be halted.
3. Any permanent settlement of displaced persons in Germany would be forbidden and their resettlement to other countries would be expedited.

Marshall read two prepared statements dealing with problems on displaced persons and territorial reorganization inside Germany.

He said the United States was fully supporting the International Refugee Organization of the United Nations and he did not think the foreign ministers should interfere on displaced persons, but leave the problem to the IRO.

Some Reorganization

On territorial reorganization he said there had been some administrative reorganization of states in the U. S. zone, but that these may be changed again when Germany becomes a single political unit.

He agreed tentatively with a suggestion from Molotov, as did the other ministers, that any territorial changes in the future should be made in accord with decisions of the Allied Control Council.

Molotov asserted that a number of territorial changes had been made which were wrong because they aimed at the federalization of Germany, which Russia opposes.

Marshall replied that the Potsdam pact called for decentralization of Germany and the United States felt free to act under this general policy in the absence of any specific agreements to the contrary.

Vishinsky took over in the discussion of displaced persons, declaring that the Russians had sent out of their Germany zone 24,524 British subjects, 22,479 Americans and 315,000 French. American sources said all the Americans were war prisoners liberated by Russian armies.

The Soviet deputy rehashed the familiar Russian argument of the past two years that Soviet citizens in the western zones had not been similarly treated, that they had been subjected to Fascist propaganda and that Soviet inspectors had been insulted and attacked when they visited camps where the Russians lived.

Vishinsky, urged a seven-point program which would assure officials of all countries free access to camps and records, halt propaganda against any Allied power, dissolve all camp committees hostile to any Allied power, prohibit recruiting men in camps for guard or other armed duty, place camp administration in the hands of citizens from the country of the internees, turn over war criminals immediately to the country of origin, and set up a four-power inspection commission.

Marshall's move in summoning Clay, American commander in Germany, to Moscow was in anticipation of vital discussions on American economic policies in Germany.

Russian attacks on American administration in Germany have made it necessary to have a United States representative in Moscow who is fully acquainted with the German situation. Clay has been the main author of U. S. economic measures in the Reich, and will be available to supply Marshall quickly with the information he will need.

China Rejects Talk

Molotov's attempts to hold informal Big Three talks on China were frustrated when the Chinese embassy formally notified Marshall and Bevin that the Chinese Government "cannot take part in, or agree to such a meeting."

In view of the official Chinese attitude Marshall and Bevin will probably agree only to an informal exchange of information with Molotov on China.

Earlier today at the deputies' meeting, Feodor Gousev, the Soviet representative, declared flatly that unless the Western powers recognize that German assets in Austria already acquired by the Russians have been legally transferred there will be no progress possible on this key issue in the Austrian peace settlement.

The French and British proposed that the Big Four define what constitutes German assets in Austria. Gousev replied that Russia would make her own decision as far as the Eastern zone was concerned and Lt. Gen. Mark Clark, the American deputy, agreed that this was proper under the Potsdam Agreement.

Moscow, March 15 (AP)—Russia and the Western powers were deadlocked today in the Deputy Foreign Ministers Conference on the issue of Soviet claims to German assets and Albanian participation in the framing of the German peace treaty.

DAY

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Marshall summoned the American military governor of Germany to Moscow at once as a chief adviser to the American delegation at the Council of Foreign Ministers sessions.

Chinese Shun Talks

Some Western diplomats speculated that Molotov might spring a surprise proposal on German economic issues when the subject comes before the Council early next week.

The situation brought about by Molotov's efforts to arrange talks on the Chinese crisis boiled again.

The Chinese Embassy formally notified Marshall and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin that "the Chinese Government cannot take in or agree to" Molotov's suggested meeting on the problem.

This evidently ruled out finally any formal talks on China to which Marshall has insisted he would not agree without Chinese participation.

The sixth session of the Council was adjourned at 8.10 P.M. (12.10 P.M., E.S.T.) after the longest gathering of the conference thus far.

Insists On Albanian Role

On the issue of Albania the Ministers deputies previously had agreed to turn the matter over to their principals immediately.

Soviet Deputy Andrei Y. Vishinsky insisted that Albania, with which Britain and the United States are at odds, must be included in any group of small powers invited to form a consultative panel on writing the German treaty.

Britain and the United States objected. American Deputy Robert Murphy indignantly told the deputies that he viewed "with embarrassment and shame" the fact that the deputies had spent so long a time on the issue of participation by the smaller allies and still were without agreement.

Even that much agreement—turning the matter over to the Council—was blocked by the Soviet Union in the matter of German assets in Austria. The Soviet insisted that each deputy be permitted to report only to his own principal, independently of the others.

Bidault Calls For Forced German Emigration

Clark Backs Russian

Russia's Feodor T. Gousev blocked a British-French proposal that the deputies define what constituted German assets in Austria.

Gousev said the Soviet Union would make its own definition where the Eastern zone was concerned, and Gen. Mark W. Clark, United States deputy, for the Austrian treaty, agreed that this was proper under the Potsdam agreement.

The Russian then blocked a French proposal to draft an Austrian treaty clause requiring Austria to recognize the validity of the Potsdam agreement and facilitate "legal transfer of title to German assets."

On this point, Gousev said that unless the Western powers recognize that German assets already acquired by the Soviet Union had been transferred legally, no progress was possible on the whole key issue.

Molotov Move Eyed

Speculation on the surprise move believed to be planned by Molotov on German economic problems was based on the fact that he delayed the discussions yesterday with the explanation that he wanted to recheck figures on reparations.

Marshall's summons to Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay also aroused speculation.

Although it is well known that Clay is fully occupied in Germany, where he assumed the duties of United States commander in chief only today, the urgency of the discussions in Moscow persuaded Marshall to request his presence here.

Soviet attacks on this country's German administration have made it necessary to have a United States representative at the council table who is fully acquainted with all the facts and who can quickly supply Marshall with the required answers.

In the meantime, a clash between Marshall and Molotov seemed to be shaping up over the basic principles of United States and Russian versions of "democracy."

The Council was scheduled to take up for preliminary discussion in today's session the problems of displaced persons and the territorial reorganization of Germany.

The question of democracy was brought up last night when the kind of political system and extent of individual freedom to prevail in Germany were at issue.

Marshall's Five Points

Marshall hurled a challenge at the Soviet Union by laying down antees, free political parties, free a five-point program he said the United States deemed fundamental if the new Germany were to be democratic: Individual rights guar- autonomous trade unions, a free press and radio and "uniform movement of persons and goods" throughout Germany.

Molotov, replying, called Marshall's remarks helpful but said the Soviet Union felt that freedom of the press did not mean freedom of Nazi propaganda. He said he would make a statement later.

Prisoner Data Given

Western diplomats predicted that the Soviet reply would highlight the differences between the American and Russian systems.

The first Soviet figures on German prisoners of war were made available to the delegates today in a Tass dispatch which said Russia had 890,532 Germans in Soviet territory and that 1,003,974 had been sent back to Germany.

Earlier prisoner figures, for others of the Big Four at the Moscow meeting, were:

UNITED STATES—Holding 15,103 prisoners, mostly in Italy. Rapidly discharging another 15,873 in Germany.

BRITAIN—Holding 435,295 prisoners "outside Germany"; sending home 17,000 a month.

FRANCE—Holding 641,483 prisoners, mostly in France. (600)

China Notifies Marshall, Bevin It Rejects Talks

MOSCOW, March 15 (AP).—The Chinese Embassy at Moscow formally notified George C. Marshall, American Secretary of State, and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today that "the Chinese government cannot take part in or agree to" a meeting on the Chinese situation, as suggested by Soviet Foreign Minister Viacheslav M. Molotov.

The embassy issued the following statement:

"With regard to the proposal made by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in his letter to the Secretary of State, Mr. Marshall, and the Foreign Minister, Mr. Bevin, concerning the calling of a formal meeting of the three ministers with the participation of a Chinese representative, for supplying of information regarding the Moscow communique of Dec. 19, 1945, relating to China, Dr. Wan Shih-chieh, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has today through the Chinese Embassy at Moscow expressed to Mr. Marshall and Mr. Bevin that the Chinese government cannot take part in, or agree to, such a meeting."

PRAVDA SCORES TRUMAN STAND AS IMPERIALIST

MAR 1947

Tone of Attack Sharper Than Izvestia's—U. S. Domination Charged

E. Gilmore

Moscow, March 15—(AP)—Pravda, Communist Party organ, made a bitter second Soviet attack on President Truman's Greek-Turkish policy today, declaring it did not serve the cause of peace and security and "renders valueless" United States declarations of faithfulness to the United Nations.

Echoing the same arguments as those advanced yesterday in Izvestia, the Government newspaper, but even sharper in some of its conclusions, Pravda declared the proposed economic and military aid to Greece and Turkey was "imperialist expansion under the guise of charity."

NIGHT

Now that the two chief newspapers in Soviet Russia have lashed out in two-column long editorials, it remained for official Soviet leaders to give their reaction. None has yet said a public word.

Stalin Frankness Expected

But it was expected that Joseph Stalin would receive United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall any time now, and that when he did he would speak his mind with utter frankness.

It could be stated with some certainty that if Stalin starts on the subject of President Truman he will say plenty. But Secretary Marshall, it is known, can be blunt, too, and such a meeting may turn into a lively evening.

Pravda made an apparent reference to Marshall when it said "the leaders of American policy could do worse than ponder over the fact that under contemporary conditions attempts to realize any plans for world domination are inevitably doomed to failure."

Hits Greek Regime

Pravda said that the assistance proposed by President Truman would strengthen "the same reactionary regime in Greece which led the country to bankruptcy," and that "the dispatch of American civil and military personnel, the program of training specially selected, obedient executors of the will of foreign capital in Greece mean in fact the liquidation of the state of independence of Greece and a gross imposing upon her of American domination."

As for Turkey, Pravda said, the country "as is known, has by no means suffered from the war. How, then can one explain the necessity to grant urgent assistance to that country?"

Declaring the American plan was really to "extend the Monroe Doctrine to the Old World," the newspaper asked why, if Greece and Turkey were really threatened, the United States did not apply to the United Nations organization.

Pravda, like Izvestia, charged that the Truman plea that it was necessary to defend "free peoples against the threat from totalitarian regimes" was borrowed from Hitler.

"Hitler also referred to the Bolshevik danger when he prepared for the seizure of one state or another," Pravda said.

"In Mr. Truman's message to Congress, however, the game of nobleness was spoilt somewhat by the fact that it could not but resort to the money-lending strength so familiar to certain American circles. Mr. Truman asked Congress to accept his proposal on Greece and Turkey in the name of the defense of the financial contribution made by the United States to World War II.

"The figure of $341,000,000,000 named by Mr. Truman appears to be specially meant to convince the American Congress that it is necessary to insure the realizations of this contribution by means of securing control over the weaker States by the United States."

The paper cited comment of a British Labor party Member of Parliament, Capt. S. Swingler, that Britain must disavow the Truman policy because it would make the British-Soviet alliance a "farce" and could only result in a "division of the world into two blocs."

Pravda said that the Truman "adventurist" course had evoked favorable response chiefly from such sources as Franco circles in Spain and Winston Churchill in England, while raising questions of its wisdom from "sober-minded American circles."

Some delegates to the Foreign Ministers Council interpreted this as a reference to the radio attack on the Truman policy by Henry A. Wallace, former Secretary of Commerce. The Soviet press and radio made heavy use during the day of Mr. Wallace's address. The Wallace speech was read twice over the Moscow radio before 9 A. M. and was carried prominently in the newspapers.

Russ Term U.S. 'Charity' Cloak For 'Expansion'

MAR 1947

E. Gilmore

Moscow, March 15 (AP)—The Soviet press today renewed its attack on proposed United States aid to Greece and Turkey in a Pravda editorial which said that in President Truman's plan, "a policy of imperialist expansion is revealed under the guise of charity."

Delegates to the Big Four Foreign Ministers' conference here read in the newspaper—organ of the Communist party's Moscow central committee—the declaration that the Truman policy did not serve the cause of peace and security.

Pravda said leaders of United States policy presumably including Secretary of State George C. Marshall, had better realize that under current conditions efforts to accomplish plans for world domination were doomed to inevitable failure.

"Pretends To Leading Role"

Izvestia opened the Russian editorial assault on Mr. Truman yesterday, seeing in his address "new interference in the business of other states."

The Pravda editorial said the proposed United States policy was aimed at dominating Greece and Turkey and was in disregard of obligations under the United Nations charter.

It declared that President Truman "not only disregarded the obligations of the United States as a member of the United Nations but pretended to a leading role in this organization."

U.N. Unit In Greece Now

"If Greece and Turkey are really threatened by anyone, why, then," it asked, "does the United States not apply to the United Nations organization and put its case before the latter?"

The editorial pointed out that the United Nations Security Council even now had a commission in Greece, investigating the border situation.

Pravda's editorial, like Izvestia's, was two columns wide and ran the length of the front page—an unusually long editorial for a Soviet newspaper.

"Truman's speech proved that the present leaders of American policy did not deduce correct lessons from history," said the editorial.

Held Reference To Wallace

Some observers here attributed Marshall's definition of democracy before the Foreign Ministers last night as in a way enlarging on Mr. Truman's anti-totalitarian theme. They saw in the Pravda pronouncement a reference to both statements.

"However," Pravda continued, "sober-minded American circles understand what danger an adventurous course for immediate imperialistic expansion hides."

Delegates and at least one secretary here interpreted this to include former Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace, whose radio attack on Mr. Truman's speech was given prominence this morning in the Russian press and on the radio.

[Wallace, now editor of the New Republic magazine, said in a broadcast from New York on Thursday night, "When President Truman proclaims the world-wide conflict between East and West, he is telling the Soviet leaders that we are preparing for eventual war." He said the Truman policy would "spread communism in Europe and Asia."]

Franco And Churchill

Pravda struck out at persons it said were hailing Mr. Truman's speech and referred repeatedly to Spanish Chief of State Francisco Franco and British statesman Winston Churchill.

"The Fascist camp of Franco is in feverish excitement," it declared. "Churchill, the hero of Fulton, hails Truman's speech."

[Madrid's monarchist-inclined newspaper ABC said Thursday that "had a similar address been made ten years ago, the World War would not have broken out.

[Churchill referred to a Soviet "iron curtain" and called for a virtual United States-British alliance against Russia in an address last year in Fulton, Mo.]

Didn't Shoot Its Bolt

Onlookers deemed it extremely unusual for the two biggest newspapers in the Soviet Union to level two succeeding editorials at the head of a state, especially one whose Foreign Secretary was at the time in Moscow to make a peace treaty with a former common enemy.

Delegates rather expected yesterday's attack. But many said they felt the Russian press had shot its bolt with the hundreds of words it published on the subject then.

Some pointed out that Pravda apparently went out of its way to explain to Soviet readers that all Americans did not agree with Mr. Truman and that many, some of them in high positions, regarded his new policy much as it is looked upon here.

'Same Course' As British

Pravda's editorial said the Truman speech indicated that the United States planned "to continue along the same course which British policy had been following."

It declared the sending of American civilian and military personnel would "mean in fact the liquidation of the state of independence of Greece and a gross imposing upon her of American domination."

The paper said Mr. Truman was motivated by "the wish to support the same reactionary regime in Greece which led the country to bankruptcy and is faithfully serving foreign interests"—"the ruling Fascist-monarchist circles under British protection."

'Nobody Threatens Turkey'

Pravda contended that Turkey "has by no means suffered from the war" and that "nobody threatens the national integrity of Turkey."

U.S. Is Seen Sea Power In Mediterranean

MAY

Birmingham, England, March 15 (AP)—Leslie Hore-Belisha, former Secretary of State for War, said tonight that President Truman's Greco-Turkish aid speech marked America's self-assertion as a sea power in the Mediterranean.

The Truman doctrine should not be regarded as a displacement of Britain's influence and authority, the one-time Conservative Cabinet member told a Devonian Society meeting. Instead, he said, it was a recognition that Britain's part in the discharge of maritime responsibilities over the seven seas was a disproportionate burden.

"If the two great sea powers are to pursue a common policy, arising out of their ocean-wide commitments, what could be more natural than that they should share in its execution?" Hore-Belisha asked.

"The corelation of British and American external affairs offers to the world the greatest practical assurance of peace. The Anglo-French treaty will fit readily into the pattern which events are designing. These regional groupings among maritime nations should tend not to undermine but to underpin the world peace structure."

British Food Subsidies Up

Nation to Pay $1,252,000,000, an Increase of $132,120,000

LONDON, March 15 (AP).—Great Britain will pay $1,252,000,000 in food subsidies this year, as compared with $1,119,880,000 last year, the Food Ministry estimated today.

Virtually the entire increase will go to cover boosts in the difference between the selling price of commodities and the cost of foodstuffs to government purchasing agencies.

The biggest subsidy is $400,000,000 for cereals, including livestock feed. The next largest is $226,000,000 for milk and $183,200,000 for milk products.

FRANCE BREAKS OFF TRADE TIES WITH BULGARIA

MAR —194

Paris Expels Two Newspapermen as Result of Currency Incidents

Paris, March 15 — (AP) — France severed commercial relations with Bulgaria today in the most serious breach with another power since the liberation and gave two Bulgarian newspapermen 48 hours notice to leave the country.

The action was taken in retaliation for the expulsion of a woman reporter for the French Press Agency in Sofia, after incidents stemming from the recent action of the Bulgarian Government in reconverting its currency.

Two newsmen expelled were Amy Bakalov, chief of a Bulgarian Bureau of Information here and correspondent in Sofia daily newspapers.

NIGHT

In addition, the French cancelled special privileges granted to all foreign journalists for eight other Bulgarian newspapermen. They will be permitted to file stories to their newspapers, however.

A French Foreign Office spokesman said that the French had asked for an explanation when Mme. Milke Genadiev Bouef, the French Agency reporter, was expelled from Bulgaria.

Reply Unsatisfactory

The spokesman said the French had received no official reply but "a sort of diplomatic answer" which accused the reporter of mixing in Bulgarian internal affairs and at the same time raised the question of the amount of money held by the French when the Bulgarian Government ordered all its currency turned in.

"The Bulgarian note said the French had 106,000,000 leva in Sofia, but the United States legation had only 35,000,000 and the British only 25,000,000," the spokesman added. "This is easily explained by the fact that the French have a number of cultural, religious and educational missions in Bulgaria requiring extra money."

The French protest claimed that Mme. Boeuf was seized by Bulgarian militiamen as she entered the French Legation to deposit funds of the French Agency, which operates with Government grants. Jacques Emile Paris, the French minister, was menaced by a revolver when he sought to intervene, and Mme. Boeuf was struck in the face, the protest added.

Other Protests Noted

Two days ago the British Foreign Office disclosed that seven countries, including Britain and the United States, had filed a strong joint protest against behavior of Bulgarian militiamen towards diplomats in Sofia. The countries also complained individually to the Bulgarian Government after being ordered to hand over their Bulgarian currency to the national bank.

Bulgaria ordered her borders closed for 10 days in connection with the conversion of currency, to halt illegal importation of Bulgarian money and black market dealings. Yesterday a Government official said the borders would be reopened Monday.

The French Foreign Office disclosed also that Giorgi Marinov, Bulgarian minister to Paris, had left two days ago for Sofia. The Greek Government had asked the War Crimes Commission in London this week to list Marinov as a war criminal, and presumably he had wanted to consult with officials in Sofia.

France Breaks Off Bulgar Dealings

Paris, March 15 (AP)—France broke off commercial negotiations with Bulgaria today and expelled two Bulgarian newspaper men from the country on 48 hours' notice in retaliation for incidents at Sofia which resulted in the expulsion of a woman reporter for the French Press Agency.

DAY

The Foreign Office also said special privileges accorded all foreign journalists in France had been withdrawn from eight other Bulgarian newspaper men. They will be permitted to continue filing dispatches to their newspapers, however.

Expelled Journalists

The expelled journalists are Amy Bakalov, chief of a Bulgarian bureau of information here and correspondent for two Sofia weeklies, and Lovan Strelkov, correspondent for a Sofia daily newspaper.

The Foreign Office also reported that Giorgi Marinov, Bulgarian Minister to Paris, had left two days ago for Sofia, presumably for consultation after the Greek Government had asked the War Crimes Commission in London to list Marinov as a war criminal. The incidents, however, were not connected.

Acknowledging that the rift with Bulgaria was France's most serious diplomatic breach since liberation, a Foreign Office spokesman said: "We had hoped this would be a local incident that would be smoothed over. When the Agence France-Presse reporter was expelled, we asked for an explanation.

No Official Reply

"There has been no reply which could be considered official but a sort of diplomatic answer has been given.

"In it, the Bulgarian Government accused the reporter (Mrs. Milke Genadiev Boeuf) of having mixed in Bulgarian internal affairs and at the same time raised a question of the amount of money involved in a call-in of currency.

"The Bulgarian note said that the French had 106,000,000 leva in Sofia, but the United States Legation had only 35,000,000 and the British only 25,000,000.

"This is easily explained by the fact that the French have a number of cultural, religious and educational missions in Bulgaria requiring extra money."

Government Grants

The French protest had alleged that Mrs. Boeuf was seized by Bulgarian militiamen as she entered the legation to deposit funds of the French Press Agency, which operates with French Government grants.

The protest said that Jacques Emile Paris, the French Minister, was menaced with a revolver when he sought to intervene and Mrs. Boeuf was struck in the face.

Paris is on his way home to report on the affair, the Quai d'Orsay said. Mrs. Boeuf, who was given 24 hours by Bulgarian authorities to leave Sofia, reached Belgrade three days ago.

CLAY TAKES McNARNEY'S POST IN REICH

Leaves For Moscow Conference As His First Assignment

R. Oberan

Frankfurt, Germany, March 15 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay assumed command today of the United States armed forces in Europe and, as his first assignment in the new role, departed for Moscow to confer with Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, at the Foreign Ministers' meeting.

Marshall requested the presence of Clay, who became military governor for Germany as well as European commander. Clay flew this afternoon to Berlin en route to the Soviet capital. He is expected there tomorrow.

Clay succeeded Gen. Joseph T. McNarney at an impressive military ceremony attended by representatives of Allied military missions. Several hundred troops gathered on the lawn outside the army headquarters building while 200 planes roared overhead.

Receives Oak Leaf Cluster

NIGHT

McNarney, who will become United States Army Air Forces representative on the United Nations military staff committee, decorated Clay with an Oak Leaf Cluster for his Distinguished Service Medal. In response Clay said:

"Here in Germany our forces are devoted to the task of peace. We shall continue our work in the full hope that when our mission is completed, peace and security will have been guaranteed throughout the world by the United Nations."

Clay said McNarney's command had seen "the crystallization of American policy, which looks to the establishment of a peaceful German state," and added that he intended to follow the same policies as McNarney in the general administration of Germany.

Praises McNarney

He lauded McNarney for "the special interest which you have given to the rehabilitation of German youth" and said it would remain one of the prime objectives of the Army. "We have no more important task in Germany," he said.

McNarney, in response, said it was the task of the United States Army in Germany, "in co-operation with our allies, to insure for Europe and the world a just peace."

He said much progress had been made in demilitarization, de-Nazification, decartelization, restoration of communications, transport and public utilities, achieving a "limited but still substantial" industrial production, re-establishing the German school system and "in turning back to the Germans themselves substantial responsibilities for self-rule through a freely elected governmental administration."

Clay Assumes U.S. Command In Europe

J. Berlin

Frankfurt, March 15 (AP)—As 200 planes roared overhead, Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay assumed command today of the United States armed forces in Europe, expressing hope for world peace and security.

Clay took over from Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, at a military ceremony in this bomb-damaged city and prepared to depart for Moscow, under summons of Secretary Marshall.

Before several hundred troops assembled on the lawn outside the army headquarters building, McNarney decorated Clay with an Oak Leaf Cluster for the Distinguished Service Medal.

"The Task of Peace"

In his response, Clay said:

"Here in Germany our forces are devoted to the task of peace. We shall continue our work in the full hope that when our mission is completed, peace and security will have been guaranteed throughout the world by the United Nations."

He declared that "we have no more important task in Germany" than that of rehabilitating German youth and said that would be one of his prime objectives.

Clay expressed his intention of following essentially the same policies as McNarney in the general administration of Germany.

McNarney's Post

McNarney, who has been in command here since November, 1945, is leaving to become United States Army Air Forces representative on the United Nations Military Staff Committee. Clay has been his deputy here.

Describing McNarney's command as eventful, Clay said it had seen "the crystallization of American policy which looks to the establishment of a peaceful German state."

McNarney said: "To those of you who remain, may I offer the thought that you are the guardians of an ideal for which over 155,000 Americans paid the supreme sacrifice. . . . It is for you, in co-operation with our Allies, to insure for Europe and the world a just and lasting peace."

He said much progress had been made "in demilitarization, de-Nazification, decartelization, in restoration of communications, transport and public utilities, in achieving a limited but still substantial industrial production, in re-establishing the German school system and in promoting youth activities."

U. S. Aides in Berlin Urge Silesia Division, Leaving Upper Regions in Polish Hands

V. Shanke

MAR 194

BERLIN, March 15 (AP)—Reliable informants said today that United States Military Government officials had recommended to the United States delegation in Moscow that coal-rich industrial Upper Silesia be awarded to Poland and Lower Silesia be left to Germany in a compromise solution on Germany's eastern border.

lution on Germany's eastern border.

Such a solution, said these informants, would attain a two-fold objective: Poland would receive ample compensation for territory lost to the Soviet Union in eastern Poland, and Germany would be materially [illegible] becoming self-supporting from an agricultural standpoint.

NIGHT

What line Secretary of State Marshall will take when the border question arises in Moscow is not known here. Major issues such as determining the level of German industry and her future political make-up depend largely on how her borders are defined, informants here said.

Poland regards as permanent the Oder-Neisse river boundary running from Stettin to Zittau on the Czechoslovak border, which was accepted by the Western Allies of Potsdam as a temporary demarcation line. If made a permanent frontier, Poland would get most of Silesia and Pomerania, a piece of Brandenburg and the southern half of what was East Prussia.

United States Military Government figures say Germany would lose 39,042 square miles of territory, which in 1939 had a population of 8,500,000, including 7,000,000 Germans. Polish figures say the present population is 5,000,000, of which only 600,000 are Germans. The Poles have expelled the German population westward into already overcrowded Germany.

United States experts feel that at least a part of the territory east of the Oder-Neisse line should be left to Germany to enable her to reach a decent food standard. It was formerly Germany's most important agricultural area.

Under the proposed compromise Germany would lose most of her war potential in the East since the coal mines, minerals and basic industries are in Upper Silesia.

U. S. Plan for Silesia.

Berlin, March 15 (A. P.).—American informants said today that United States Military Government officials here had recommended that the American delegation at Moscow support a border compromise giving upper Silesia to Poland and lower Silesia to Germany. Poland has occupied and claimed both areas. Such an adjustment, the informants said, would compensate Poland for eastern territory she lost to Russia and yet assist Germany toward self-support.

The Oder-Neisse River boundary which Poland wants, running from Stettin to Zittau on the Czech border, would give her almost all of Silesia, a piece of Brandenburg, and the southern half of East Prussia. This was accepted at the Potsdam Conference as a temporary line of demarcation for Polish - administered areas of Germany, until a German peace treaty fixes the borders.

DAY

The area which Germany stands to lose on the basis of the Oder-Neisse line covers 39,042 square miles, and in 1939 had a population of 8,500,000, of whom 7,000,000 were Germans. Poland, taking for granted she would receive the entire area, has expelled all but 600,000 Germans westward into Germany.

American experts contend that Germany needs some of the rich agricultural land in the Oder-Neisse district to support her population. Under the compromise, Germany would lose most of her war potential in the east because most mines and industries in the disputed territory are in upper Silesia, near the old Polish border.

Soviet Figures Surprising

Germans Disappointed That Russia Holds Only 890,532 P. W.s

BERLIN, March 15 (AP).—Most Germans were surprised and disappointed today at Russian figures — given Friday night by the Moscow radio — which disclosed that only 890,532 German prisoners of war still were being held in the Soviet Union. Both German and American authorities previously had given the number as possibly 3,000,000, but American officials had said this was only "an educated guess."

The 3,000,000 figure was based on the size of German units which faced the Russians and were either annihilated or captured, but the estimate was made without any accurate information on the number of German casualties.

Wayward German Youth Become Grave Problem

Berlin, March 15 (AP)—A gripping problem here, for conquerors and conquered alike, is the wayward German youth. Latest statistics show for twelve months 26,000 cases of Berlin youths arrested for criminal offenses, entailing a confinement rate six times above that of "normal" years.

This fact [illegible] grave concern to the occupying powers, the civilian government and the churches in this battered city, where evils of the black market and shoddy pleasures beckon. All are combating the evils within their realms and means.

But the curve keeps rising, especially in the 14-18-year bracket, where 60 per cent of the misdeeds occur.

And, even more tragically, a week which produced 605 crimes by youths included 29 perpetrated by children under 14 years. Thirty per cent of these were by girls.

"Normal" Berlin had about 200 minors in confinement awaiting judgment. On October 1 it had 1,200.

4 Germans Sentenced to Hang.

Berlin, March 15 (A. P.).—A British military court at Wuppertal today sentenced four Germans to death by hanging for killing several British parachutist prisoners of war near Noailles, Oise Department, France, on August 9, 1944.

Berlin Film Workers Ill of Undernourishment

BERLIN, March 15 (AP).—About half of the German workers at the Tempelhof film studios were absent or ill during the last two weeks, largely because of undernourishment, the semi-monthly report of the American Military Government said today.

The report reflected sharply the difficult food situation in the American zone. Dena, American-licensed news service, reduced its work week to thirty-six hours and otherwise curtailed operations because of insufficient food. The report cited a one-day interruption of operations at the plant of "Der Tagesspiegel," American-licensed newspaper in Berlin, after a pressman had fainted and two other workers had complained of exhaustion.

The present normal consumer ration of 200 grams of fat and 600 grams (half a pound) of meat a person for the four-week period was described in the report as the lowest in the American zone since the beginning of the occupation.

Black-Market Teeth Bared

BERLIN, March 15 (AP)—Police announced today they had confiscated 300,000 false teeth from black-market sources, and were on the trail of 600,000 more.

GERMAN ASKS JEWISH CAUTION

MAR 1947

Officer Says Anti-Semitism Is Still Strong in Reich.

Munich, March 15 (A. P.).—Asserting that anti-Semitism still is strong in Germany, a German Government official has appealed to Jews to exercise restraint in their contacts with Germans, in order, he said, to prevent public clashes and avoid aggravating racial antagonism.

"I see myself forced to this appeal to my Jewish fellow-citizens in the interests of their orderly living together with the German population," said Dr. Philop Auerbach, Bavarian commissioner for racial and political persecutees, in a letter sent to all Jewish communities in Bavaria.

110,000 Jews in Bavaria

Auerbach estimated that 110,000 Jews live in Bavaria, mostly in displaced persons camps, but also including some 30,000 who have settled outside camps in German communities, trying to resume the normal home life they knew before the Nazis drove them into concentration camps.

"I know how gravely even today thousands of Jews suffer from the consequences of the Nazi regime, how bad their housing and food supplies are," Auerbach wrote.

Good Behavior Urged

"But I know that there is great dissatisfaction among the Bavarian people about the attitude of some Jewish citizens, even among the people who previously did not have an anti-Semitic attitude.

"Clashes in public between Germans and Jews cause a serious attitude toward the Jews among the population.

"Therefore I ask the leaders of all Jewish communities to educate their members to exhibit the dignity of the Jewish race in public and everywhere so that the population will not get the impression they are undisciplined people who damage by their behavior the interests of the whole Jewish race."

Auerbach also asked the Jews not to "enrage" the Germans by public exhibition of food and other goods "which are usually not available to the German population."

4 Industrialists on Trial

U. S. Military Court Arraigns Men Who Aided Nazis

NUERNBERG, March 15 (AP).—Friedrich Flick and four of his associates in one of Nazi Germany's largest armament concerns were arraigned before an American military court today on charges of war crimes and crimes against humanity.

The first German industrialists to be tried, they are accused of using as slave laborers millions of people forcibly imported into Germany from conquered countries; large-scale financial plundering of Jews and occupied nations; and financing Adolf Hitler's terror organization, the S.S. (Elite Guard).

Poles Cut Ration List

Warsaw, March 15 (AP)—Faced with a food shortage that threatens to drop Poland's diet level below that of the Germans, the Polish Government has ordered the removal of at least 4,000,000 persons from rationing lists in a desperate attempt to conserve supplies.

With help from Russia doubtful because of a threatened famine in the Ukraine and no other prospects of aid, the Government faces the prospect of rationing the people at a daily level of 1,100 calories. (The ration in the United States zone of Germany is 1,550 calories daily.)

Ration Cut Change

Twenty-five classes of persons, who hitherto obtained essential foodstuffs at a Government fixed price far below the free market, will lose their first-category ration cards on April 1.

These include 100,000 members of the militia, 150,000 members of the Security Police, 50,000 university students, all women without families, employés of food combines, state monopolies, former war prisoners, the Catholic clergy, pensioners, monks, nuns, youths in private schools, agricultural manufacturers, displaced persons and graphic industry workers.

On May 1, building-industry workers, demobilized soldiers and those on indefinite leave, will lose their ration cards.

The Government has also taken all grain stocks and has forbidden restaurants to serve more than one piece of bread at a meal.

Poland Calls Up Army Class

WARSAW, March 15 (AP)—The Ministry of National Defense today called up 20-year-olds for two years of military training and announced a recruiting program for volunteers of 22 and 23 for the period April 9—30.

Foster in Rome On European Tour

Rome, March 15 (A. P.).—William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist party in the United States, arrived in Rome last night. He told newspaper men today he was on a two months' tour of Europe "to study the situation" and that he planned to go next to Belgrade.

Athens Approves Truman Street

ATHENS, March 15 (AP)—The Athens Municipal Council resolved unanimously today to rename a central Athens street for President Truman.

POPE AND GANDHI VIE IN NOBEL RACE

Oslo, Norway, March 15 (A. P.).—Pope Pius XII and Mohandas K. Gandhi, Hindu leader, are among the candidates for the 1947 Nobel peace prize, it was learned here today. Among the other candidates proposed are Herbert H. Lehman, former Director-General of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration; Sir John Boyd Orr, Director-General of the U. N. Food and Agricultural organization; President Eduard Benes of Czecho-Slovakia, and Mme. Alexandra Kollontay, former Russian Ambassador to Sweden.

One proposal, it was disclosed, is to split the prize between Mme. Kollontay and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, United States representative on the U. N. Economic and Social Council, and chairman of the Human Rights Commission. Other individual candidates include Carl Joachim Hambro, Norwegian statesman, and Lionel Curtis, British political writer.

International institutions put forward as candidates are the Society of Friends, the Carnegie Foundation, the Academy of International Law at the Hague, the Bureau of Peace in Geneva, and the Interparliamentary Union. No decision will be made before next December 10.

50,000 REDS PARADE IN HUNGARY'S CAPITAL

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 15 (AP)—Hungarian Communists giving the clenched fist salute paraded today in celebration of the ninety-ninth anniversary of the Lajos (Louis) Kossuth revolution.

[Lajos Kossuth led a successful revolt in 1848 against the House of Hapsburg-Lorraine.]

There were no incidents, despite earlier reports that Communists planned to turn the celebration into a hostile demonstration before the United States Legation, protesting President Truman's message on Greece and Turkey and a recent United States note objecting to Soviet interference in Hungarian affairs.

Approximately 50,000 persons gathered in Parliament Square for the observance, which, though a national holiday, was completely in the hands of Communists and Social Democrats.

Although this country already has received $30,000,000 in surplus property credit from the United States and hopes to get $40,000,000 more in relief, one Leftist newspaper sniffed at the "suspicious flood" of United States dollars to various countries.

P. X. Blown Up Near British Palestine Base

Hadera Area Blast Laid to Terrorists as Tel Aviv Troops Are Reinforced

JERUSALEM, March 16 (Sunday) (AP).—A group of persons identified officially as Jewish terrorists blew up a British Army post exchange store near Hadera early today. A police source said he believed there were no casualties, but added that the building still was ablaze an hour after the blast.

The installation is on the main Tel Aviv-Haifa highway a short distance from the Hadera army camp which has been attacked repeatedly in recent weeks.

Meanwhile, the cordon of troops around Tel Aviv's martial-law zone was reinforced last night and reports from that all-Jewish city indicated the British Army was preparing to meet an underground Jewish threat to crack the city's defense.

Posters were distributed yesterday by Irgun Zvei Leumi, Jewish resistance organization, declaring "we will break through the ghetto."

News correspondents living in the martial-law zone were called to a conference by an army spokesman, who asked if they had received any messages from underground sources. He notified them that they would not be permitted to visit Citrus House, military headquarters in Tel Aviv, but did not explain why.

Rifle Fire Heard

Meanwhile, the sound of rifle fire was heard early tonight in curfewed Jerusalem's Jewish residential district, Rehavia.

Irgun and the Stern Gang distributed "press releases" in Jerusalem tonight in which the Stern Gang claimed "responsibility" for three recent attacks on Palestine trains and Irgun denied reports that twelve of its members were among 78 "known terrorists" the British announced had been arrested.

The Stern Gang release said an "intensified" campaign had been planned against trains carrying British troops and supplies.

Palestine Arab Leader Slain

Jerusalem, March 15 (AP)—Police announced today the slaying last night of Abdul Raof Darwish, secretary to Mohammed Zinati, of Beisan, who was also slain recently. The Darwish killing was attributed to "political motives."

Both Zinati and Darwish were noted in Arab circles for favoring co-operation with the Jews and were publicly accused by Arabs of violating the anti-Zionist boycott.

Darwish was felled by twelve bullets fired by an unknown assailant in the Beisan market place, police said.

Leave for Cyprus

In Haifa, reliable reports said the British Liberty ship Empire Shelter left Haifa harbor early this morning carrying about 150 illegal Jewish immigrants for internment on Cyprus.

The group was the last of approximately 800 refugees who arrived aboard the 400-ton motorship Susanna on the South Palestine coast Wednesday morning. Most of the passengers succeeded in reaching shore when the vessel ran aground off Gaza, but nearly all were reported to have been captured by British troops and their deportation ordered.

Some Got Ashore

An officer of the underground organization, Hagana, declared Thursday that 300 of the refugees had made their way safely ashore and "are now members of Yishuv," the Jewish community in Palestine.

[A dispatch from Cyprus reported that a total of 753 Jews, including 110 babies born while their mothers were in immigrants' detention camps, embarked for Palestine today. They represented the Cyprus quota of certified immigrants for the Holy Land for February and March.

[The embarkation took place even as British authorities were transferring 707 uncertified Jewish immigrants from the transport Empire Rival to the Caraolas detention camp.

[The transfer was resisted by only two of the immigrants brought here from Palestine.

[Another 138 Jews, also passengers of the immigrant ship Susanna, which was grounded off Palestine early this week, were to be disembarked from the Empire Rival before nightfall.]

CHIANG HITS AT 'REVOLT'

Declares Communists Must Be Halted By Force

Nanking, March 15 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek charged the Chinese Communists today with armed rebellion which he said the Government must quell by force.

Using the strongest language yet employed publicly by any government official, Chiang chose the impressive setting of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's white marble tomb, speaking to the executive committee of the Kuomintang (government party) from the tomb's towering flight of stairs.

The committee's ten-day session, which began today, was closed to all correspondents except those of the official Central News Agency and Kuomintang newspapers, which reported Chiang's speech.

Declares Hopes Shattered

"Hopes for settlement by political means have been shattered," Chiang was quoted in the Central News text. "Armed activities of the Communists in their all-out rebellion to frustrate national unification are spreading wider and wider every day. While the people of the entire country are demanding stability, the Communists are deliberately widening their sphere of disturbance.

"The Government, in order to safeguard unity of the nation and security of the people, cannot sit tight and watch the spread of this disturbance without taking measures to suppress it."

Giving import to his words were fresh accounts of heavy fighting in Manchuria and in Shantung and Shansi provinces, while government troops continued to pour into Formosa to deal with scantily-reported but continuing unrest in that island province.

Tehwei Reported Besieged

Latest pro-Government reports from Manchuria said the Communists, attacking in strength, had closed in on three sides of Tehhwei, 50 miles northeast of Changchun, the regional capital.

It was there that the Government last week claimed a major victory over the Communists, but today's reports said the enemy had surged back to the attack, crossing the Sungari River on thick ice in a heavy snowstorm.

In Shantung, Government forces claimed recapture of Tawenkou, 50 miles south of Tsinan, provincial capital. It was the ninth time the town had changed hands in less than a week.

The Communist radio at Yenan reported that for the second consecutive day government planes had thoroughly bombed the Communist capital, and added that Communist defense forces were going into action against Nationalist troops attacking the Yenan border region in western Shansi Province.

There was no government confirmation of these broadcasts, and a spokesman for the National Defense Ministry said he knew nothing of any bombings.

In opening the Kuomintang policy-making session, Generalissimo Chiang called it the most important in twenty years, and urged the committee to adopt resolutions for ending the party's "political tutelage" period of government control and inaugurating constitutional rule.

China Red War 'Is Spreading,' Chiang Says

Nanking, March 15 (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek warned his party today that the "all-out rebellion" of the Chinese Communists was "spreading wider and wider every day" and said the Government must settle the problem by force of arms.

Addressing the opening session of the Kuomintang's Central Executive Committee from the tomb of Sun Yat-sen, Chiang said events of the past three months in China "clearly prove that hopes for settlement by political means have been shattered."

Disturbances Increase

"While the people of the entire country are demanding stability, the Chinese Communists are deliberately widening their sphere of disturbance," he went on. "The Government, in order to safeguard unity of the nation and security of the people, cannot sit tight and watch the spread of this disturbance without taking measures to suppress it."

Chiang described the committee's plenary session as "the most important one in the past twenty years" and urged members to adopt clearcut resolutions for inaugurating constitutional government.

Committeemen, he said, must "start preparations to relegate our party to a status of an ordinary political organization."

Yenan Bombed

The Generalissimo inaugurated the Kuomintang's policy-making conference against a background of military and political disturbances unprecedented in China's "peacetime" history.

From the Yangtze River northward, civil war was flaring stronger daily, with the Communists demonstrating unexpected vigor in their assaults on Government positions in Shantung province and Manchuria.

The Communist Yenan radio, heard in San Francisco, reported that Government planes bombed and strafed the Red capital city for seven hours yesterday and that Government troops attacked the southern part of the Yenan border region.

New reports from troubled Formosa said additional mainland troops were pouring onto the island while dependents of Chinese officials were leaving by every available means of transport. Formosan demands for an end to the Chinese administration have led to widespread disorders.

Punjab Riot Toll Tops 1,000

Lahore, India, March 15 (AP)—A Government communiqué said tonight that 1,036 persons had been killed and 1,110 injured in twelve days of communal rioting in Punjab province.

Although reporting new outbreaks in the vicinity of Rawalpindt, Khushab, Jhelum and Campbellpore, the announcement said that "quiet or nearly quiet" had been restored in most places.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, vice president of the central interim Government, visited a refugee camp supervised by the Army and urged persons made homeless by the fighting to "face all difficulties with courage." He added that the Government was "determined to do everything possible to mee the situation."

NEW ADVANCE SEEN IN JAPAN

MacArthur Reports Progress Toward Democracy

Tokyo, Sunday, March 16 (AP)—An earthquake and new advances toward democracy featured December activities in Japan, General MacArthur said in his report for that month, released today.

The supreme Allied commander said the earthquake and tidal wave which struck December 21 left 1,289 dead, 2,364 injured and 94,669 homeless. More than 10,000 homes and other buildings were destroyed and 24,000 damaged. Some 2,600 vessels were lost.

Advance Seen

On the political front, MacArthur noted approvingly that "the Diet's enactment of legislation implementing the new constitution highlighted Japan's advancement toward democracy." He referred to land reform and labor legislation.

The report recalled that on December 17 a motion was introduced in the Diet for dissolution of that body and the holding of a new election. While the measure was being debated, the report said, approximately 200,000 "workers and sympathizers" flocked to the Imperial Palace plaza to demand the resignation of the Cabinet of Conservative Premier Shigeru Yoshida.

New Election Ordered

The measure was defeated, but MacAruthr has since ordered Yoshida to hold a new election to sound out the will of the people.

By December, crops of rice, potatoes, wheat, and barley were harvested, and MacArthur noted that the rice and sweet potato crops were good. The fish catch improved and 288 whales were landed, many in the Antarctic.

MacArthur reported increases in production of basic heavy chemicals, machine tools, and most textiles—and a sharp boost in the number of Bank of Japan notes in circulation.

Other Developments

The report also noted these developments:

The Japanese Government drew the first of the surplus vehicles it had been authorized to purchase from the Foreign Liquidation Commission.

Japan concluded negotiations for the sale of textiles to Burma, Indo-China, the Netherlands East Indies, the Philippines, and Siam.

In an attempt to stop black-marketing and diversion of essential supplies, the Japanese Economic Stabilization Board increased controls over allocation and use of scarce materials.

Japan Seizes Illicit Fuel

TOKYO, March 15 (AP).—The Home Ministry said today it had seized enough charcoal and faggots in black-market raids to provide a winter's fuel supply for 1,500,000 Japanese. It estimated that more than half of the 10,000 persons involved in operations uncovered by the raids were government employees.

Hirohito Can't Vote

TOKYO, March 15 (AP).—Emperor Hirohito will not be able to vote in the April elections, although the rest of his family can, Tokyo City registration officials said the emperor is ineligible to vote because under the constitution he is a "symbol of state" and must remain outside politics.

Form Japan Ship Company

TOKYO, March 15 (AP).—The Toho Marine Transportation Company, the first Japanese shipping firm to be set up since the end of the war, was established today.

Loot Is Found In Palace

Manila, March 15 (AP)—Some property looted by Japanese in the Philippines has been found in the Emperor's Palace and in private homes of Japanese Government officials, Dr. Eduardo Quisumbing, Filipino representative in Tokyo, has advised the Department of Foreign Affairs.

The department announced that recovered property will be returned to owners in the condition in which it is found. Among articles recovered are household furnishings, art works, light and heavy machinery and automobiles.

Luzon to Okinawa in 1½ Hours

MANILA, March 15 (AP)—The United States Thirteenth Air Force announced today that the flight Monday of eight jet-propelled P-80 Shooting Stars from Laoag, northern Luzon, to Okinawa—752 miles—was covered in 1 hour 30 minutes.

Battleship New York in Hawaii

HONOLULU, March 15 (AP)—Two tugs brought the old battleship New York, still radioactive eight months after the Bikini atomic bomb tests, into Pearl Harbor today at the end of a tow line. It took the tugs twenty days to bring the New York from Kwajalein in the biggest and longest towing job of its kind ever undertaken. The 30,000-ton battlewagon was listing to port from the effects of the second underwater atomic bomb test.

SNOW HALTS AIR SEARCH

Grounds Planes Seeking Aircraft Missing in Labrador

GOOSE BAY, Labrador, March 15 (AP)—A low ceiling and driving snow halted the air search for a United States Army plane missing with three men since Thursday. The plane was on a flight from Cape Harrison, on the Labrador coast 150 miles northeast of here, to Goose Bay.

The plane carried a pilot and two crewmen. Their names were not immediately available.

Truman Extends Rest, Hears From Marshall

Pleased by Official Soviet Silence on Greek Issue, May Stay in Florida Till Wednesday—Catches Five-Pound Mackerel

Key West, Fla., March 15—(AP)—President Truman, apparently in an optimistic frame of mind over the outlook for favorable action on his plea for support of Greece and Turkey against Communist encroachment, likely will remain on vacation here until Wednesday.

In the absence of official Government reaction from Moscow in two confidential messages today from Secretary of State George C. Marshall, plus encouraging reports on congressional sentiment, were factors in the President's decision.

The President it was learned on highest authority, received two decoded messages during the day from his top-ranking cabinet officer at Moscow.

Marshall Pre-Informed

It was also made known by competent, but unquotable sources, that General Marshall was fully advised in advance of Mr. Truman's message to Congress Wednesday.

In this speech, the President, advocating financial, economic and other aid to Greece and Turkey, challenged the onward world march of Communism and pledged United States support to all "free peoples" resisting totalitarian aggression.

It may be said without fear of official contradiction that General Marshall was fully informed in advance of the contents of that speech, which the President delivered in person, before flying here Wednesday afternoon.

Gets Regular Reports

While Marshall, now attending the four-power foreign ministers conference in Moscow, has not been in telephonic communication with President Truman since the speech, Mr. Truman is getting regular reports from the Secretary. These are sent to the State Department, and decoded there, for transmission to the President at this submarine base here.

Two decoded messages from Marshall, dealing with the progress of the foreign ministers parley, still in the procedural stage, arrived at the President's temporary White House at the commandant's quarters today. President Truman glancing over them before going on a four-hour fishing expedition, planned to go over them in greater detail tonight.

While the Soviet newspaper Izvestia blasted at the President's message to Congress, accusing him of interfering in the internal affairs of Greece and Turkey, it was learned that there has been no official speech, even though the newspaper usually records the Government's view.

Meanwhile, presidential press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters the President may remain at Key West "a couple of days beyond Monday."

Ross said the vacation would be prolonged unless there is a change in the course of events.

Presumably, the absence of any word from Marshall, in his routine reports of official Moscow reaction, was encouraging to Mr. Truman.

The speech, it was known, was prepared with Marshall's collaboration, at least as to contents. The former Army chief of staff was known to have done much of the spadework.

The President, some of his associates disclosed, is encouraged by congressional reaction to his foreign policy stand.

The President caught a five-pound mackerel on his fishing trip this afternoon, about 12 to 15 miles off the Florida Keys after about 30-minute session with the rod and reel.

His chief of staff, Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy, came up with a 22-pound amberjack, the largest catch of two presidential boats.

Mr. Truman, attired in light tan slacks and a long-billed cap, switched to a pith helmet for the fishing expedition. He came back tanned and high spirited.

Greeting reporters, who followed in another boat, Mr. Truman, noting the grease on their faces, remarked, "You fellows are all painted up." He got out to help weigh the various catches.

He kidded presidential assistant John R. Steelman because his biggest catch was slightly smaller than Admiral Leahy's.

"John, you got licked by a nose," he said.

President Truman will listen to the radio debut of daughter Margaret tomorrow night from his quarters at the commandant's house on this naval submarine base.

Greeks Pledge Co-Operation

MAR 1947

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The White House announced today that President Truman has received messages from Greek Government officials assuring they will "co-operate unreservedly" in United States efforts to restore peace and security there.

Eben Ayers, assistant press secretary, said the "warm and appreciative" messages came from the Greek Prime Minister and the leader of the parliamentary opposition.

DAY

Hopes Revived"

Truman is in Florida on a "long week-end" rest. The White House statement said he voiced the hope that "these evidences of good-will mark the beginning of a happier era for Greece," helped by the proposed $400,000,000 in loans to Greece and her neighbor, Turkey.

"It is also my profound hope that those Greeks who have taken up arms against their Government will accept with confidence the amnesty which the Greek Government is extending to all except those guilty of crimes against the common law," Truman's statement said.

Truman Text, Greek Messages

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Following is the complete text of President Truman's statement today on the receipt of messages from Greece, together with the texts of those messages:

I have just received two warm and appreciative messages from Greece, one from Prime Minister Maximos and one from Mr. Themistocles Sophoulis, leader of the Parliamentary opposition. Both of these messages welcome the prospect of the kind of American assistance which I recently requested Congress to authorize, and pledge the wholehearted support of the Greek people in devoting any aid that may be forthcoming to the purpose of constructive rehabilitation and the cause of peace and freedom. These two statements bear witness to the fact that all of the Greek Parliament, including the opposition as well as those parties now represented in the coalition Cabinet, are prepared to co-operate unreservedly with the United States government in its desire to assist Greece in restoring those basic conditions of economic stability and internal order which will allow the Greek people to build their future in peace and security.

I sincerely hope that these evidences of good will mark the beginning of a happier era for Greece, in which all loyal citizens will contribute their share toward the restoration of a country of whose democratic history they may be proud. It is also my profound hope that those Greeks who have taken up arms against their government will accept with confidence the amnesty which the Greek government is extending to all except those guilty of crimes against the common law. The Greek people, aware of the sympathetic interest of the American people, will, I am sure, rally their strength to vitalize their national life, forgetting past excesses and looking courageously toward a hopeful future.

Following are the texts of the messages to the President from Prime Minister Maximos and Mr. Sophoulis:

Maximos Message

His Excellency
Harry Truman,
President of the United States,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. President:

It is with great emotion that I hasten to express to you the gratitude of the Greek government, as well as my own, for your momentous address to Congress. It is destined to have a decisive influence on the future of the world, and especially on that of our Greek people, a significant encouragement in the just and noble struggle they are waging for the principles of freedom and democracy.

You are aware that the Greek people have long ago chosen between the two ways of life which constitute at the present historical moment the only choice for the peoples of the world. This way of life, which is based upon the will of the majority and distinguished by free institutions, representative governments, free elections and guaranties of individual liberty, has been ours for thousands of years. That is why we defied the Axis forces which accumulated upon our people innumerable calamities. That is also why we are now facing a subversive movement of a militant minority which is supported from abroad and is seeking to impose its will upon the majority of the people by force of arms and terrorism.

This struggle is an exceptionally hard one because it has found the nation exhausted by the devastation wrought by war and occupation, as your distinguished representatives in Greece, the Ambassador of the U. S. A. and the chief of the American economic mission have so accurately informed you. Its prolongation would definitely stop the economic recovery of our people and dangerously weaken the nation's capacity of resistance. That is why your announcement concerning the previous assistance of the great American democracy has revived the hopes of all of us and has convinced us that the time is no longer far when Greece, free from all trials, will regain her position among the happy and peace-loving democracies of the world.

You declare that you have condemned in the past and condemn now extremist acts, either of the Right or of the Left, and that in the past you have advised tolerance, which you also advise now.

The Greek government, chosen by the free will of the Greek people and based upon the confidence of its great majority, is exactly following the policy which you suggest by defending free institutions with conviction by enforcing a state of law for all and by offering an amnesty in order to put a quick end to the abnormal situation.

The Greek people are well aware of the importance of your assistance under the present circumstances, and through me give you the unreserved assurance that they will prove themselves worthy of the solicitude and the confidence which you are extending to them, confident that the policy outlined by your address will soon bring peace and happiness to this part of the world and that Greece, by recovering her tranquillity and applying herself undistractedly to productive work, will become an example for peace-loving and progressive democratic peoples.

I assure you, Mr. President, of the eternal gratitude of the Greek nation. I have the honor to be, my dear Mr. President,

Yours faithfully,
D. MAXIMOS,
Prime Minister of Greece.

Sophoulis Message

The President of the United States, Harry Truman.

Please accept the expression of the deepest gratitude for the valuable assistance which you have kindly proposed to Congress in favor of Greece for her economic rehabilitation, the stabilization of her freedom and independence and for her internal pacification. The assistance of the United States and your wise advice condemning the extremes of the Right and Left and recommending a policy of toleration will also contribute, I am sure, to the internal pacification of Greece without further bloodshed.

THEMISTOCLES SOPHOULIS,
The Leader of the Opposition Committee.

More Nations Expected To Ask Credits of U. S.

MAR 1947

Palestine, Hungary, Iran, Syria and Lebanon Considered in Washington as Likely to Seek Assistance.

DAY

Washington, March 15 (A. P.).—Key legislators predicted today at least five more countries may ask for aid under the administration's program to curb the spread of Communism among war-weakened nations near the Russian borders.

They said that Iran, Syria, Lebanon, Hungary and Palestine are likely to call for help soon either in the form of credit or cash grants.

Including $400,000,000 which President Truman has urged Congress to provide for Greece and Turkey, and millions more for relief elsewhere in Europe and in China, the ultimate cost of the over-all policy may be well over $1,000,000,000, the Congress members estimated.

Approval Forecast.

They said these are probable developments:

1. Congressional approval—somewhat later than the administration goal of March 31—of Mr. Truman's request for funds to help Greece and Turkey withstand communistic pressure, plus authority to send them military and civilian missions.

[The House of Commons approved yesterday a $76,000,000 supplementary appropriation to wind up British aid in Greece by March 31. Hector McNeil, Minister of State, said that Britain is "most anxious that the United Nations commission now in Greece make some recommendation of a permanent or semi-permanent kind" for the country's future.]

2. Possible inclusion of a clause to make the fund flexible—giving the Chief Executive wide discretion as to whether it should be used for direct grants or loans, and where, when and how it should be spent, subject to a detailed accounting to Congress.

3. A move to slow down action on tax cuts until the foreign situation has become clarified. This took shape yesterday when Representative Doughton (D.-N. C.), ranking minority member of the tax-fixing House Ways and Means Committee, warned of dark clouds hanging over the world.

4. Insistent demands, particularly from the newly dominant Republican majority, for a long-range blueprint of the administration's foreign policy. Republican members want to know not only plans for the southern Mediterranean but elsewhere in the world in such trouble spots as Korea, Manchuria, Poland and Germany.

Proposed Fund Added.

In reaching their estimate of $1,000,000,000, lawmakers added to the $400,000,000 sought by the President for Turkey and Greece these figures:

The sum of $350,000,000 in a measure now pending before the House Foreign Affairs Committee to provide relief in five European countries, including Greece, and in China after the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration goes out of business at the end of this month.

Estimates by former President Hoover that the United States should spend $475,000,000 for relief in Germany and $150,000,000 in Austria. A big part of this is covered under War Department requests for funds for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1948.

An undetermined amount from the anticipated new requests.

The Greek-Turkish aid bill remained in what Representative Eaton (R.-N. J.), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, termed the "incubator stage," being worked into shape by the State Department and legislative consultants.

He said that it may be ready for instruction on Monday, in time to begin public hearings early next week with Secretary of War Patterson, Secretary of Navy Forrestal and Under-Secretary of State Acheson as the first witnesses. The Senate leadership has decided to wait on House action.

Eaton said that the committee first will attempt to reach agreement on the $350,000,000 relief bill. This has been stalled in the committee for more than ten days now, partly because the members wanted to get an account of the Greek and Turkish requirements, partly because of an argument over how the money should be administered.

Senator Albert W. Hawkes (R.-N. J.), saying he had not decided how he would vote on the foreign issue, issued a statement yesterday which described the $400,000,000 proposed loan to Greece and Turkey as "nothing but an entrance fee."

It is "a minor matter as compared with the decision on policy which may involve billions of dollars, continuing until we have dissipated our entire substance," he said, and it would be "most foolish to start something we cannot finish."

Hawkes advocated laying the entire problem before the American people, with nothing held back.

tary aid to Greece and Turkey

"I want to know what our top military people think of the possibility that Russia will go to war if we carry out this program," he said, "just as we might be prompted to go to war if Russia tried to force a Communist Government on Cuba."

Other Developments

He raised the question amid these fresh developments:

1. President Truman made public messages of thanks from spokesmen for all Greek parties except the Communists. The President said they show that all will "co-operate unreservedly with the United States Government in its desire to assist Greece" and that they pledge the aid will be devoted to "constructive rehabilitation and the cause of peace and freedom."

2. Key Congressmen predicted that Hungary and four Middle East states—Iran, Syria, Lebanon and Palestine—may seek American aid under the Administration program of curbing the advance of Communism. These legislators estimated the ultimate cost of the program may top $1,000,000,000.

3. Willard Thorp, assistant secretary of state, declared that the United States is underwriting Greece because its people are democratic but that this country's responsibility will cease if they "take some other line."

Mr. Truman has asked $400,000,000 for Greece and Turkey this year. In reaching the $1,000,000,000 estimate, the Congressmen counted in $350,000,000 already requested for relief in liberated countries and the sums budgeted for relief in occupied lands, as well as an undetermined amount of expected new requests.

The messages from the Greek leaders were released by the White House along with a statement from the President, who is vacationing at Key West, Fla., until Monday.

They came from Prime Minister Demetrios Maximos, head of the new coalliton cabinet, and Themistocles Sophoulis, chief of the Liberal party, as leader of the opposition in Parliament.

State Department spokesmen said no official messages have been received from Turkey on the American proposal to aid that nation. However, Premier Recep Peker issued a statement in Instanbul on Thursday saying that American help "will leave us very grateful."

Taft, in asking for an official estimate of the possibility of Russia's going to war, told a reporter he also wants to know "just what the military significance would be if the Communists should take over the government of Greece."

Aimed At Top Officials

Both questions, he said, will be submitted to Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to direct at high ranking Government officials when they testify.

Taft, who has not yet committed himself on the President's proposal, said he would expect the answers to such questions to be given only at closed sessions of the committee, despite promises by Vandenberg and Chairman Eaton (R-N.J.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee that every phase of the diplomatic move will be examined in public hearings.

Vandenberg has asked other senators to help him compile a list of questions which will give Congress and the public "full information."

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), a committee member, said he thinks it will be necessary to go beyond the mere discussion of immediate aid to Greece and Turkey.

"The decision that we are being asked to make here may affect generations to come," he said in an interview, "and I want to know all of the facts involved.

Wants No More Secrets

"I want no more Yaltas, Tehrans or Potsdams. I want no more statements that there are no secret agreements and then find later that give-away agreements have been made. We are in this present mess because of the collosal mistakes that have been made by some of those who have attempted to speak for us in the last few years.

Senator Ellender (D-La) announced he is opposed to giving any military aid to either Greece or Turkey. Ellender told reporters he favors extending relief and rehabilitation help to Greece, but not to Turkey.

"We tried to get some help from the Turks during the war and failed," he said. "They sold us some things that we needed at high prices which gave them good profits. Now they want us to bail them out.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) said tonight that unless something is done for Greece and Turkey, "chaos and subsequent totalitarianism will continue to spread."

He objected in a speech for broadcast to further shipments of goods to Russia until that country "has fulfilled the commitments made by it under the Yalta and Potsdam agreements."

"This sudden revelation to us of an emergency," Flanders commented, indicates that the Administration "has been caught off guard" or that "its plans have been insufficient."

"The time has come when our total foreign interests must be studied as a whole," he said.

Krug Will Seek Home Rule for Guam, Samoa

Wants Japanese Mandates to Have Same Privileges if They Are Ruled by U.S.

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP).—J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, announced today that he will ask Congress to grant charters to Samoa and Guam for their own civil government.

If the former Japanese mandated islands come under United States control, he said, he also will seek similar charters for the Marshalls, Carolines and Marianas.

Secretary Krug further told a news conference:

1. Alaska, like Hawaii, should get statehood.

2. Canadian railroad interests in British Colombia want to talk over with the United States possible construction of a coastal railway to Alaska.

3. He doesn't plan to do anything about the coal mines situation until John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers, an American Federation of Labor affiliate, comply with the Supreme Court decision and cancel Mr. Lewis's contract termination notice.

Mr. Krug denied a statement by Mr. Lewis that the government made no effort to bring the mine operators and the unions together.

"On the contrary," he continued, "the break-off last fall occurred because we tried to get Lewis to meet with the operators."

The secretary said he would propose charters for the Pacific islands similar to that of the Virgin Islands. Enforcement powers are centralized at St. Thomas but the judicial action is under a mainland Federal court. Samoa and Guam probably have a large enough population to justify a Federal court, Mr. Krug said. He said there might be courts at Gaum for the Marianas, Truk for the Carolines and Kewajalein for the Marshalls.

Mr. Krug said the problem is most urgent at Samoa and Guam, with civilian populations of 17,000 and 23,000, respectively, plus several thousand American civilians employed at Guam.

Mr. Krug added that the Interior Department desires to have the functions of government, now concentrated in the military administration, separated in democratic fashion as to law making, law enforcement and judicial review.

House Hearings Open March 24 On Trade Plans

Knutson Faces Opposition in Effort to Report Out His 20% Tax-Cut Bill

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Members said today the House Ways and Means Committee had voted 13 to 8 to open hearings March 24 on the Truman administration's foreign-trade policy.

They said it was a straight party vote. The eight Democrats protested in vain that such an inquiry would embarrass the American delegation at next month's eighteen-nation trade conference in Geneva.

A number of Republicans in both House and Senate have complained that the United States, in its reciprocal trade policy, gives too many favors to foreign traders and gets too few concessions in return.

Meanwhile, Representative Knutson, of Minnesota, will try to bring his bill for a flat 20 per cent income tax cut before the House March 24 under a rule barring any changes and ran into a fight.

Representative Albert J. Engel, Republican, of Michigan, calling it "a rich man's bill," told reporters he will battle any such maneuver with a motion to send the whole measure back to the Ways and Means Committee with instructions to change it so as to give the smaller taxpayers the greatest benefits.

Moreover, the Rules Committee would have to pass upon the procedure Representative Knutson seeks. And its chairman, Representative Leo E. Allen, Republican, of Illinois, opposes granting a flat 20 per cent cut to every taxpayer.

Representative Engel declared that "if there is to be tax relief we must think first of the fellow who is hard-pressed to buy his bread and butter."

Mr. Engel also argued that tax-cutting legislation should be delayed "until we know where we are going." He pointed to new world developments, particularly the President's message on aid to Greece and Turkey.

"We ought to wait until after June 30, when all the appropriations are in and we know what our expenditures will be," he said.

Representative Knutson, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, said the foreign situation will not deter tax cutting and the committee will approve his bill, probably Thursday. It would cut each taxpayers' load by one-fifth, with an over-all reduction of $3,500,000,000. The cuts would be retroactive to Jan. 1.

The Truman administration wants no tax cuts now and favors instead applying surplus revenue against the national debt.

Representative Thomas A. Jenkins, Republican, of Ohio, commented that "they missed the boat" by not proposing an alternative to the flat decrease.

RENT CONTROL TALK DELAYED

Senate GOP Leaders Indicate 'Cooling Period'

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Senate Republican leaders said privately today that the question of continuing rent controls probably will be allowed to cool the rest of this month.

Senator Lucas (D., Ill.), meanwhile, tried to keep the issue hot, suggesting tauntingly that the GOP leaders in control "try to agree" on what to do.

Lucas commented that any flat and general increase in rent ceilings would stir up a lot of argument, especially "in view of the ungodly increase in living costs since controls were taken off everything!"

OPA To Act In Interim

If the "cooling-off" decision prevails, OPA would continue to administer rent controls pending agreement on another course of action.

Senators Taft (R., Ohio) and McCarthy (R., Wis.) are trying to work out a rent extension plan which would (1) remove rent controls from OPA, (2) continue them well into next year, (3) allow quicker relief to "hardship cases" of some landlords, and (4) avoid any general increase in all rents.

At present OPA is authorized to continue rent controls through June 30 of this year. Its officials say, however, that reduced funds voted it by Congress may force them out of busines before the end of April.

A Senate banking subcommittee, by a vote of three Republicans against two Democrats, recommended a flat ten per cent boost in rent ceilings, together with an end of OPA administration. The full banking committee rejected this and directed the subgroup to start over again.

No Action By Committee

Chairman Tobey (R., N.H.), of the full banking committee; Senator Aiken (R., Vt.) and several other Republicans, including Taft, chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, have publicly questioned proposals for increases in all rents by a general percentage boost. The policy committee met today without taking any action on rents.

Senator Hawkes (R., N.J.), with some support from both Republicans and Democrats, has plumped for a general increase of fifteen per cent. Hawkes maintains that landlords are the only persons whose incomes have continued to be frozen at wartime and prewar levels.

LOWER FOOD, COTTON PRICES SEEN BY FALL

Commerce Department Predicts Decreases In These Commodities

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Commerce Department officials expect price drops by next fall on the products which have soared highest in the post-OPA rise—like cotton goods and food.

The forecast is made in a cautious report on commodity prices, soon to be published. On the basis of the official report, Commerce Department economists gave these unofficial conclusions today in interviews:

1. The downtrend will be mild, not approaching the depth of a true "recession."

2. It will start around midyear with drops in a few lines, then gain speed as more items come into a balance with demand.

Excessive Prices Listed

3. It will be uneven. Some prices may still be rising while those farthest out of line come down.

The study lists these items as priced "far in excess" of their usual place in the wholesale price structure and therefore highly likely to decline:

Food, cotton goods, shoes, lumber, paint, drugs, leather, fats and oils.

Small declines, if any, are foreseen this year for automobiles, consumer durable goods generally, woolens and worsteds, furniture and house furnishings, iron and steel products, paper, pulp, grains and livestock.

675 Products Included

The report is an item-by-item study of the 675 products which make up the Government's wholesale price index. Prepared by Louis J. Paradiso, chief of the business structure division, and Lois H. Rodriguez, economist, it will appear in the March issue of the monthly Survey of Current Business, to be published in early April.

Profits can be maintained at a good level, the report holds, despite the prospective decline in prices. This will be true even in the "soft" lines like food and clothing, which will see a decline in demand as bigger supplies of "hard goods" take an increasing share of the consumer's dollar.

Farm Category Notable

"The fact that many of these commodities—notably those in the farm category—are yielding unusually large margins means that there is leeway for adjustments without destroying the profitability of the trade," the study says.

"Furthermore, we may expect improvement in the efficiency of production and distribution as output in some industries is better organized on a high and sustained level—an improvement that obviously should be shared with the consumer in terms of reduced prices."

The economists report that the price upsurge following the removal of price controls was "the sharpest for any equal period in our history." It amounted to a 25 per cent jump from June to January at wholesale and a 15 per cent jump at retail.

Extreme Shortages

The upswing carried some items far above their normal relationship to the all-commodity index, the report says, but this was the result of "temporary influences"—in most cases, an extreme shortage.

"As 1947 advances, considerable change in the price structure may be expected," the report notes.

The "startling" advances have been concentrated in a relatively few groups of commodities, but such important ones that they have had a major impact on general costs of living.

Meat was 31 per cent above the average wholesale price level on February 22, the study says. Shoes were 16 per cent above, drugs 18 per cent, paint 30 per cent, lumber 23 per cent, cotton goods 10 per cent, fats and oils 14 per cent.

On the other hand, woolens and worsteds were 24 per cent below the general price trend at wholesale, while petroleum products were 14 per cent below. Metals generally were right in line with the average movement, as were farm implements, home furnishings, automobiles and trucks.

In the latter lines, little or no price decline is to be expected, the Commerce Department officials hold.

Neither will there be uniformity in the timing of price decreases, they say, since some shortages will last longer than others. Some cotton goods are expected to feel a softening market around midyear; lumber, except hardwood flooring, in the fall, and fats and oils not until the year-end or beyond.

Meat Supply Increase

Meat supplies should expand later in the year, lumber is already somewhat less scarce, leather and shoes will be in better supply late in the fall, the report indicates.

"Thus, the supply situation will operate to relieve the pressure in those areas where price advances have been 'excessive' in recent months, and should be a factor in redressing a balance," it concludes.

GOVERNMENT RELEASE OF WHEAT URGED

MAR 1947

Grain Men Say Move Would Restrict Advances In Prices

Chicago, March 15 (AP)—Release by the Government of some of its wheat supplies would be a more effective method of restraining advancing wheat prices than raising margins on grain futures transactions, grain men suggested here today.

Wheat on the Board of Trade rose to a new 30-year high and corn sold at the highest levels since 1920. Action followed yesterday's request of the Commodity Exchange Administration that margins on speculative grain transactions be raised to 25 per cent of market value.

High on wheat was $2.89¾ a bushel and on corn $1.74¼. Both peaks were established by March deliveries.

C. M. Galvin, crop analyst for James E. Bennett & Co., said that if the Government would loan some of its wheat to mills "this would make it possible for millers to continue grinding at a capacity rate without disturbing cash markets."

Attributed To Mills

Grain men attributed soaring prices to mills and other commercial interests, which they said had contracted to sell flour and wheat to the Government and were bidding to obtain the grain in both cash and futures markets.

Richard Uhlmann, first vice president of the board, said, "there would not be any semblance of scarcity of wheat, and probably not nearly the present high price level, except for the fact that the Government is pushing exports to the limit of transportation facilities."

In addition to buying, Ed Boerner, of Harris, Upham & Co., said the advance had been caused by "persistent advertising on the part of Government officials of the quantity of wheat they will need to send abroad, which has caused owners of the grain in the country to hold back offering it."

Says Sellers Will Be Reduced

Royal Bell, of Lamson Brothers, said raising margins would "quiet" the market, but also would "narrow it to the detriment of millers."

"The number of sellers would be reduced as well as the number of buyers," Bell said, "and when mills came in to buy they would find few grain futures contracts for sale. This might cause even wider fluctuations than we have had over recent weeks."

While grain men placed the responsibility of advancing prices on Government exports, none expressed any determined opposition to complying with the higher-margin request. Directors will meet next week to discuss the matter.

30-Cents Minimum Set

The clearing-house minimum on speculative wheat accounts is now 30 cents a bushel. Leading commission houses, however, are requiring 50 cents on old-crop deliveries. This is only about 15 cents under the level requested by the Government.

Shipment of grains out of this country in February totaled 50,588,000 bushels. In the eight months ended February 28 shipments amounted to 299,417,000 bushels. The Government has purchased additional quantities for shipment through June 30.

Cash wheat continued firm at leading markets today as millers bid to obtain the grain. Prices were 3 to 4 cents higher at Omaha and ¼ lower to 4½ higher at Kansas City. Minneapolis prices were unchanged.

Canada raised its export wheat price to countries other than Great Britain 4 cents a bushel, effective Monday. This will push the quotation to the best level since 1917. Price will be $3.01.

FORRESTAL SEES LIMITED AID TO GREECE

Secretary Says Any Navy Help Would Be Of 'Staff Character'

Philadelphia, March 15 (AP)—James V. Forrestal, Secretary of the Navy, said today that any direct aid by the United States Navy to Greece or Turkey, under President Truman's proposal, would be extremely limited.

"Any contribution would be of a staff character," he told a press conference. "It would be limited possibly to three or four officers who would be added to the staff of the attachés now stationed there."

"The Army's part in such a program," the Navy Secretary added, "would, I believe, be limited to the same staff character."

Addresses Association

Forrestal came here to address a meeting of the Philadelphia Foreign Policy Association. In his speech he demanded that the United States remain militarily strong "until the United Nations has put into effect a workable plan for the maintenance of peace, by use, if necessary, of military forces under its control.

"The United Nations is the keystone in the edifice of peace we are trying to construct and we have dedicated our energies and resources to its success." the Secretary told the association.

"While the United Nations is in embryo, the United States has a major responsibility in shaping it into an acceptable and effective instrument for world well-being.

"Our practical sense tells us that in this still-imperfect world, high principles and noble purposes are not enough. They must be backed up with sufficient strength to make our voice heard—and heeded. The weak have little influence."

Cites Lack Of Arms

The decisive factor for war or peace is not armaments but the motives and purposes behind them, Forrestal said.

"If lack of arms were a guarantee against war, the United States should have escaped involvement in the first World War; but our very weakness invited attack in the Kaiser's unrestricted warfare with U-boats.

"Again, it was not the arms that we possessed, but rather those we lacked that prompted the Japs to strike at Pearl Harbor."

Forrestal said he could not agree with those who advocate that the United States set an example to the world by disarming, without regard to the action of other nations.

"We would like to lead the world to ultimate reduction of the heavy burden of armaments," he declared.

Can't "Lead With Our Chin"

"But we cannot afford, in the parlance of the prize ring, to lead with our chin. We cannot discard our defenses until we have the safeguard of a foolproof system of collective security, and the development of such a system is a long and difficult job that has only just begun.

"The policy of the United States is the antithesis of war planning.

"Since V-J day, America has practically dismantled the greatest military machine in history and has concentrated its great resources on efforts to achieve peace and progress through co-operation with all nations.

"There is no real prospect of literal disarmament, since the United Nations Charter required security forces, and human nature would require them even if the Charter did not.

"Sound And Rational Goal"

"Arms control is a sound and rational goal, which we may hope to achieve in proportion to the attainment of a sound and rational world order."

The first and most essential step in arm control is the control of the uses of atomic energy, declared the secretary.

"What would it avail the world if we abolished all other arms and left uncontrolled the weapon that can wipe out while cities at one blow?" he asked.

"Once atomic power is under effective control, world security has made a tremendous stride forward; the lesser arms can be dealt with in an atmosphere cleared of a haunting fear.

"The United Nations, despite its imperfections and disappointments, is the hope of the world. The United Nations gives some chance to find our way to first cause of which armaments are only an outgrowth and a sympton of deep-rooted ills."

BOYLE COLUMN ON REMAGEN IS NEWS TO HOGE

General Says He Does Not Know of Any Retreat by U. S. Forces

Cincinnati, March 15—(AP)—Maj. Gen. William M. Hoge says he does not know of any American retreat caused by the backfiring of a German truck when the Ninth Armored Division which he commanded participated in establishment of the first bridgehead across the Rhine River in 1945.

Hoge's statement, made yesterday at a news conference before an address here, followed publication March 7 of a column by Hal Boyle, Associated Press writer and war correspondent.

The column quoted an unidentified officer of the 27th Infantry Battalion, Ninth Armored Division outfit which seized the Ludendorff Bridge at Remagen, as saying that a German truck's backfires startled U. S. forces into a retraet and that only two Americans remained on the eastern side of the bridge.

The officer quoted in the column said the incident occurred the night of March 7, 1945, a few hours after the bridgehead had been established, and that American forces did not recross the river until about dawn the next morning.

One Company Remained

Hoge said there was a withdrawal that night at Remagen, but he thought at least one company of 125 or 135 men remained across the Rhine and that they perhaps were reinforced by remnants of other companies.

A staff member of the Cincinnati Times-Star brought up the backfiring incident, as related by Boyle, at the news conference.

Hoge, saying he had heard nothing of it, gave this acocunt of the withdrawal:

"We first crossed (the bridge) at 4 P. M. The bridge was torn up and was open only for foot traffic until about 9 P. M. I had received orders transferring me to Coblenz, and went back to my headquarters six or seven miles from the bridge to obtain new orders. The retreat occurred after dark at 8 or 9 P. M.

"Returning to the bridgehead, I got hold of the battalion commander and sent him back across with his troops. It was a matter of minutes, rather than hours, that the singe company was left alone on the far bank."

L. I. ATOMIC PLANS TOLD TO SCIENTISTS

Brookhaven Laboratory Leaders Assure New England Group of Values for Peacetime Use

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 15 (AP)—Atomic energy, the most destructive force ever unleashed by man, has "tremendous possibilities" for peaceful applications and creates "almost limitless" tools for scientific research, scientists from seven New England colleges and universities were told here today.

They met at Yale University for a discussion of the program planned at the Brookhaven National Laboratory on the site of Camp Upton near Patchogue, L. I. The laboratory, Government-owned and being built at an ultimate cost of $50,000,000 is operated by Associated Industries, Inc., a non-profit corporation formed by a group of Eastern universities.

Dr. L. B. Borst, in charge of the construction of the first atomic pile at Brookhaven, said it would be better than any other existing experimental unit and that it and its by-products, such as radio-active substances, would create "almost limitless" tools for research in such fields as physics, chemistry, biology, medicine and engineering.

A second pile to be built at Brookhaven would be "many times more powerful," he added.

Challenge to Scientists

"Scientists are faced by the new challenge" of discovering a method for disposing of highly dangerous radioactive waste materials in a thickly populated area, said Dr. Borst.

He gave assurance that the pile at Brookhaven would not be put into operation until waste disposal methods had been worked out to make it "perfectly safe" both for laboratory workers and residents of the near-by cities.

Another Brookhaven scientist who gave an indication of the vast new field opened up by nuclear research was Dr. N. F. Ramsey, acting head of the physics department. Dr. Ramsey, after describing the possibilities for machines capable of producing "five or six billion volts," said he could not begin to outline what lay ahead in research in his own specialty.

"It all depends on what nature tells us," he asserted.

Big Annual Budget Proposed

Dr. Philip M. Morse, Director of Brookhaven, said a budget of $10,000,000 a year was being proposed for the laboratory's program. Although military security regulations must be observed, he said, those directing the work hoped to concentrate the restricted areas in one part of the plant so as to create as much of a "university atmosphere" as possible.

One scientist in the audience asked how much Government supervision would be exercised in the hiring of personnel. Dr. Morse replied that the Associated Universities would have, subject to a security check, "a free hand" in employing all but the top-level personnel receiving more than $6,000 a year. The latter appointments would be subject to the approval of the Atomic Energy Commission, he said, adding that if the present commission "is appointed there will be little danger of undue pressure."

More than 150 faculty members and students in the sciences from Yale, Trinity, the University of Connecticut, Connecticut College for Women, the Coast Guard Academy, Smith and Amherst attended the meeting.

ALBANIA CASE BOUNCES BACK TO U.N. COUNCIL

Subcommittee Makes No Recommendations On Britain's Charges

L. Hauck

Lake Success, N.Y., March 15 (AP). Great Britain's mine-laying charges against Albania were tossed back to the United Nations Security Council tonight without recommendations by a three-nation subcommittee.

Indications were that the Council would deliberate again and then pass the case again—this time to the International Court of Justice.

The report was submitted after two weeks of questioning witnesses and studying evidence surrounding the damaging of two British destroyers by mines in the Corfu Channel last October 22 with a loss of 44 lives. The British said Albania laid the mines. The Albanian Government denied the charges and in turn accused Royal Navy ships of invading its territorial waters.

NIGHT

The Hague Court Indicated

The subcommittee, including Colombia, Australia and Poland, said in the report that it found little new evidence and suggested that the Council would have to determine whether there actually was a mine field in the channel and whether Albania laid such a field before taking any action. The posing of these questions plus numerous legal complications prompted the impression that the case would end up in The Hague Court.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, British delegate, was reported ready to resist any reference to the Court without some kind of prior decision by the Council. When the case comes up Tuesday, he was expected to renew his original demand that Albania be found guilty and apologize and offer compensation for loss of life and property.

What Council Must Determine

The subcommittee said the Council first must decide whether the three following basic facts can be considered "as established and confirmed:"

1. Damage sustained by the two British destroyers.

2. The existence of an unpublicized minefield in the channel October 22.

3. Participation of the Albanian Government in laying this minefield.

The report said it was agreed that the first point was supported. On the second, the subcommittee said "no agreement could be reached as to whether the mines which damaged the British destroyers on October 22 were part of the minefield which was located in sweeping operations on November 13."

The third question naturally could not be answered unless the existence of a minefield was established.

Polish Delegate Emphatic

The reference in the report to November 13 had to do with sweeping operations carried out by the British on that date when 22 mines were turned up. The Polish delegate was emphatic in his contention that there was no evidence showing a minefield existed three weeks before and that the fatal mines may well have been floaters.

The report emphasized that the Polish representative had argued strongly against the British charges throughout the meetings and finally laid down his own conclusions in a special annex.

"The Polish representative pointed out that although many of the British allegations and Albanian counterallegations have no direct bearing on the reply to the basic questions, they should be taken into consideration for the purpose of understanding the whole atmosphere of the mutual relations between the United Kingdom and Albania, which, in his opinion, was responible for allowing this question to develop into a dispute before the Security Council," the Polish annex said.

Gospel Is Translated For Filipino Tribesmen

New York—(AP)—The Maguindanao people, residents of Mindanao, P. I., a battleground for American troops both in World War II and the Filipino insurrections following the Spanish American war, will now be able to read the Gospel of St. John in their own language.

The American Bible Society has printed 5,000 copies of the gospel and shipped them to Manila. The languages in which all or part of the Bible has been printed.

Douglas Departing, Hails Truman Stand

New York, March 15—(AP)—Lewis W. Douglas, departing by plane to assume the post of ambassador to Britain, said today President Truman's foreign policy speech to Congress was "a clear pronouncement that this time we are not going to withdraw from world affairs."

At a news conference prior to departure he said he did not think the statement of policy would make his task "more difficult nor easier," but that it did lend increasing importance to his mission.

"I thnk it is a great state paper," he said. "It stated a foreign policy which I hope the Congress will approve. If anything, it increased the chances of peace."

Eisler Habeas Corpus Dismissal Appealed

New York, March 15 (AP)—Notice of appeal from Federal Judge Francis G. Caffey's dismissal of a habeas corpus petition by Gerhardt Eisler, identified before a congressional committee as a leading Communist, has been filed with the county clerk, it was disclosed today.

The appeal would be taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals and the petition is directed against the district director of immigration and naturalization. The notice was filed by Mrs. Carol King, counsel retained by the Civil Rights Congress.

Eisler has been held by immigration authorities since his arrest February 4 on a presidential warrant charging he is "a dangerous enemy alien." He also was indicted by a Washington jury on a contempt charge, alleging he refused to testify before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, February 6.

MRS. ROOSEVELT RESERVED

Her Comment on Truman Policy on Greece Is Qualified

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 15 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt favors granting of relief to Greece and Turkey, she said today, if it is given without political considerations.

Asked if she approved President Truman's policies, Mrs. Roosevelt told a press conference:

"Is anyone ever completely satisfied with anything in the world? When we become satisfied, progress stops."

She declared that as long as conditions in the United States met the needs of the people, "We can feel confident that communism will not undermine our democracy; communism comes from misery and poverty."

Aleman to Visit Kansas City

Mexican President Going There May 5 to Receive Degree

KANSAS CITY, March 15 (AP).—President Miguel Aleman of Mexico has set May 5 as the date for his visit to Kansas City as a guest of city officials and civic groups and to receive an honorary doctor's degree at the University of Kansas City.

University officials announced the date after receipt of a telegram from Mexican Ambassador Antonio Espinosa de los Monteros. Mr. Aleman, who will be the first Mexican President to visit this country while in office, is scheduled to go to Washington April 29 as a guest of President Truman.

The Mexican Consulate said President Aleman would arrive in Kansas City late in the morning and would leave that afternoon for Knoxville, Tenn.

LEGION HEAD HITS RUSSIA

Says She Is an Aggressor and Warns of Blow From North

CINCINNATI, March 15 (AP)—Paul H. Griffith, national commander of the American Legion, said today that "we are justified in calling Russia an aggressor nation." He urged that cognizance be taken of "the possibility that she may make war on us whenever she becomes able or competent."

Speaking at a luncheon of the Legion's fourth district of Ohio, Mr. Griffith asserted that if war came again it would strike "from the north."

"The Russian Government today is firing guided missiles from Spitzbergen over Sweden in violation of her neutrality," he said. "Spitzbergen, over the roof of the world, is about 3,500 miles from Chicago and Detroit, hearts of American industry. The Russian Government is experimenting to see whether the missiles will travel 3,500 miles. These are not measures of peace, and we are justified in calling Russia an aggressor nation."

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, MARCH 15-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER STALIN IS LIKELY TO SPEAK HIS MIND TO U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSED PLANS TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY WHEN THE SOVIET LEADER RECEIVES THE AMERICAN SECRETARY, AN EVENT WHICH MAY OCCUR AT ANY TIME NOW.

NO SOVIET LEADER THUS FAR HAS MADE A PUBLIC STATEMENT ON THE PRESIDENT'S DECLARATION, BUT THE RUSSIANS CERTAINLY MUST BELIEVE THAT MARSHALL PLAYED A GUIDING PART IN SHAPING THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

TWO OF THE MOST IMPORTANT NEWSPAPERS IN THE SOVIET UNION -- THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER PRAVDA AND THE GOVERNMENT ORGAN, IZVESTIA, HAVE LASHED OUT AT THE TRUMAN PLAN. BOTH NEWSPAPERS DISPLAYED A FRANKNESS RARELY EMPLOYED IN COMMENTING ON THE ACTIONS OF THE HEAD OF A GREAT STATE.

PRAVDA TOOK UP THE SUBJECT AT GREAT LENGTH TODAY IN AN ATTACK SIMILAR TO THE ARGUMENTS EMPLOYED YESTERDAY BY IZVESTIA. DELEGATES TO THE FOUR-POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE READ AT BREAKFAST A CHARGE IN PRAVDA, ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY'S MOSCOW CENTRAL COMMITTEE, THAT THE TRUMAN POLICY DID NOT SERVE THE CAUSE OF PEACE AND SECURITY AND THAT IN THE PROPOSAL "A POLICY OF IMPERIALIST EXPANSION IS REVALED UNDER THE GUISE OF CHARITY."

PRIME MINISTER STALIN IS ALMOST CERTAIN TO TELL MARSHALL JUST WHAT HE THINKS OF THE TRUMAN PLAN AND JUST WHAT IT MEANS TO THE SOVIET UNION. IT CAN BE STATED WITH SOME ASSURANCE THAT IF STALIN GETS ON THE SUBJECT OF MR. TRUMAN, HE WILL HAVE MUCH TO SAY. #

MOSCOW, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE REV. GEORGE A. LABERGE, OF WORCESTER, MASS., INVITED THE FOREIGN MINISTERS AND THEIR DELEGATIONS TODAY TO ATTEND NOONDAY SERVICES TOMORROW AT HIS MOSCOW ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH OF ST. LOUIS OF FRANCE.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT PLANNED TO ATTEND. AMBASSADOR ROBERT D. MURPHY, U.S. ADVISER ON GERMAN AFFAIRS, AND THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, WALTER BEDELL SMITH, ALSO WERE EXPECTED.

N923AES

MOSCOW, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE TEXT OF SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL'S STATEMENT IN THE FOUR POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL TODAY ON TERRITORIAL REORGANIZATION INSIDE GERMANY: (400)

THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT PROVIDES THAT THE ADMINISTRATION OF AFFAIRS IN GERMANY SHOULD BE DIRECTED TOWARD THE DECENTRALIZING OF THE POLITICAL STRUCTURE AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF LOCAL RESPONSIBILITY SO THAT LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE RESTORED THROUGHOUT GERMANY ON DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND THAT REPRESENTATIVE AND ELECTIVE PRINCIPLES SHOULD BE INTRODUCED INTO REGIONAL, PROVINCIAL AND STATE ADMINISTRATIONS AS RAPIDLY AS PROGRESS IN LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT SHOULD JUSTIFY IT.

IT IS THE VIEW OF THE UNITED STATES THAT WHEN COMMON OBJECTIVES HAVE BEEN AGREED UPON BY THE FOUR OCCUPYING POWERS, THE ABSENCE OF ANY AGREEMENT NECESSARY TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THESE DECISIONS, FAR FROM PREVENTING ONE OR MORE OF THE OCCUPYING POWERS FROM DOING WHAT THEY CAN SINGLY OR JOINTLY TO ADVANCE THE COMMON OBJECTIVES, IMPOSED UPON THEM THE OBLIGATION TO DO THEIR UTMOST TO ACHIEVE THE MAXIMUM OF PROGRESS IN THE DIRECTION OF THE COMMON OBJECTIVE.

PURSUANT TO THESE POTSDAM DECISIONS, ELECTIONS HAVE BEEN HELD IN THE UNITED STATES ZONE DURING THE YEAR 1946 IN SMALL TOWNS, COUNTIES, CITIES AND, FINALLY, FOR STATE LEGISLATURES UNDER CONSTITUTIONS FREELY DEVELOPED BY THE GERMANS, SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL OF THE UNITED STATES MILITARY GOVERNMENT.

BY PROCLAMATION, UNDER THE DATE 19 SEPTEMBER 1946, THE UNITED STATES MILITARY GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHED THREE LANDER (STATES) IN ITS ZONE. IN THE ONLY CASE WHERE A FORMER LAND WAS ALMOST WHOLLY IN THE UNITED STATES ZONE, NAMELY BAVARIA, THE LAND WAS ESTABLISHED ON ADMINISTRATIVE BOUNDARIES AS THEY EXISTED PRIOR TO THE OCCUPATION. IN THE CASE OF WUERTTEMBERG-BADEN, HESSE AND BREMEN, CERTAIN CHANGES WERE MADE, PRIMARILY BECAUSE OF THE FACT THE OCCUPATION ZONES CUT ACROSS TERRITORIAL ADMINISTRATIVE LINES. CERTAIN CONSOLIDATIONS WERE ALSO REQUIRED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SOUND ADMINISTRATION.

B46

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THESE AREAS IN THE UNITED STATES ZONE AS STATES FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PURPOSES IS, AS I HAVE SAID, PROVISIONAL AND MAY BE ANTICIPATED. WHEN THE PRESENT ARTIFICIAL BOUNDARY LINES BETWEEN ZONES ARE REMOVED, CERTAIN OF THESE STATES WILL SEEK MORE NORMAL BOUNDARIES BASED ON CULTURAL, ECONOMIC AND HISTORIC CONSIDERATIONS. THE APPROVAL WHICH THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT GAVE THE CONSTITUTIONS WAS MADE EXPRESSLY SUBJECT TO INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS TO WHICH THE UNITED STATES IS A PARTY, TO QUADRIPARTITE LEGISLATION AND TO POWERS WHICH THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT MUST RESERVE IN ORDER TO EFFECTUATE BASIC POLICIES OF OCCUPATION.

THE QUESTION OF TERRITORIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION WITHIN GERMAN BOUNDARIES WILL COME BEFORE US AGAIN WHEN WE DISCUSS THE PROBLEM OF A PROVISIONAL GERMAN GOVERNMENT AND AT THIS TIME I THINK WE NEED DO NO MORE THAN NOTE THE ACTION AS APPEARING IN THE REPORT (OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL) AND ACCEPT THE REPORT AS RENDERED.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE COMPLETE TEXT OF THE PRAVDA EDITORIAL CONCERNING PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S RECOMMENDATIONS FOR U.S. AID TO TURKEY AND GREECE, AS BROADCAST TODAY BY THE MOSCOW RADIO AND RECORDED IN LONDON BY THE SOVIET MONITOR: (1,800)

THE MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO CONGRESS, IN WHICH HE DEMANDS THAT $400,000,000 BE ASSIGNED AS A GRANT OF ASSISTANCE TO GREECE AND TURKEY AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT BE PERMITTED TO SECURE THE TRAINING OF SELECTED GREEK AND TURKISH PERSONNEL AND SEND AMERICAN CIVIL AND MILITARY PERSONNEL TO GREECE AND TURKEY, IS PROVOKING A WIDE ECHO THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. THE INTEREST SHOWN IN MR. TRUMAN'S MESSAGE IS BY FAR SURPASSING THE USUAL INTEREST IN SUCH AN EVENT AS THE GRANTING OF AID BY ONE STATE TO ANOTHER.

THIS IS EXPLAINED BY THE FACT THAT THE ASSISTANCE OF WHICH MR. TRUMAN SPEAKS IS NOT OF THE USUAL CHARACTER. AND IT IS WORTH NOTING THAT THE PRESS COMMENTS SAY NOT SO MUCH ABOUT GREECE AS ABOUT THE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES.

IT IS GENERALLY KNOWN THAT GREECE HAS BEEN LED TO COMPLETE

BANKRUPTCY BY THE RULING FASCIST-MONARCHIST CIRCLES UNDER BRITISH PROTECTION. NEVERTHELESS, MR.TRUMAN'S URGENT DEMAND FOR GRANTING GREECE ASSISTANCE IS BY NO MEANS DICTATED BY THE ENDEAVOR TO HELP THE GREEK PEOPLE BUT, ON THE CONTRARY, BY THE WISH TO SUPPORT AND STRENGTHEN THE SAME REACTIONARY REGIME IN GREECE WHICH LED THE COUNTRY TO BANKRUPTCY, AND WHICH, ON THE OTHER HAND, IS FAITHFULLY SERVING FOREIGN INTERESTS.

IN MOTIVATING HIS PROPOSAL, MR.TRUMAN REFERRED IN THE FIRST PLACE TO THE INSISTENT DEMAND OF THE GREEK GOVERNMENT WHICH, AS HE SAID, WAS UNABLE TO COPE WITH THE SITUATION, AND, SECONDLY, TO THE FACT THAT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WHICH WAS HELPING GREECE COULD NO LONGER GRANT ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL AID.

MR.TRUMAN EXPLAINED THAT GREAT BRITAIN WAS FACED WITH THE NECESSITY TO REDUCE OR LIQUIDATE HER OBLIGATIONS IN SOME PARTS OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING GREECE. HIS STATEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS PREPARED TO REPLACE BRITAIN TESTIFIES TO THE INTENTION OF THE U.S.A. TO CONTINUE ALONG THE SAME COURSE WHICH BRITISH POLICY HAS BEEN FOLLOWING IN GREECE. THUS A POLICY OF IMPERIALIST EXPANSION IS REVEALED UNDER THE GUISE OF CHARITY. THE DISPATCH OF AMERICAN CIVIL AND MILITARY PERSONNEL, THE PROGRAM OF TRAINING SPECIALLY SELECTED OBEDIENT EXECUTORS OF THE WILL OF FOREIGN CAPITAL IN GREECE, MEAN IN FACT THE LIQUIDATION OF THE STATE INDEPENDENCE OF GREECE AND A GROSS IMPOSING UPON HER OF AMERICAN DOMINATION.

B33

NOTHING IS CHANGED BY THE FACT THAT THIS IS DONE UNDER THE PRETEXT OF GRANTING ASSISTANCE TO GREECE, ALTHOUGH, AS MR.TRUMAN OPENLY ADMITTED, THE UNITED STATES IS PREPARED TO GRANT THIS ASSISTANCE TO THE BANKRUPT GREEK REACTIONARIES.

MR.TRUMAN'S MESSAGE CONCERNS NOT ONLY GREECE BUT TURKEY AS WELL WHICH, AS IS KNOWN, HAS BY NO MEANS SUFFERED FROM THE WAR.

HOW, THEN, CAN ONE EXPLAIN THE NECESSITY TO GRANT URGENT ASSISTANCE TO THAT COUNTRY? IT IS IMPOSSIBLE NOT TO TAKE NOTE OF THE FACT THAT THE UNITED STATES IN THIS CASE AS WELL IS PREPARED TO REPLACE BRITAIN. MR.TRUMAN POINTED OUT THAT TURKEY WAS TRYING TO OBTAIN FINANCIAL AID FROM BRITAIN, BUT THAT IT SEEMED THZT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWING TO ITS OWN DIFFICULTIES WAS UNABLE TO GRANT FINANCIAL OR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO TURKEY.

SUCH WERE THE MOTIVES GIVEN BY MR.TRUMAN WHEN HE EXPOUNDED HIS PROPOSAL ON THE REPLACING OF BRITAIN IN TURKISH AFFAIRS.

MR.TRUMAN, USING ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF HIS APPEAL FOR THE GRANTING OF MILITARY AND FINANCIAL AID TO TURKEY, STRESSED THE NECESSITY OF CARRYING OUT A MODERNIZATION INDISPENSABLE FOR ENSURING HER NATIONAL INTEGRITY.

THERE IS NO NEED TO PROVE THAT NOBODY THREATENS THE NATIONAL INTEGRITY OF TURKEY. CONSEQUENTLY THE MODERNIZATION TO WHICH MR. TRUMAN REFERS IS REDUCED TO THE ESTABLISHING OF AMERICAN DOMINATION IN TURKEY AS WELL.

THIS HAS BEEN OPENLY STATED BY THE LABOR M.P.CAPT.SWINGLER, WHO SAID THAT TRUMAN HAD EXPRESSED HIS READINESS TO INTERVENE NOT ONLY IN A COUNTRY WHICH HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN OCCUPIED BY NAZIS, BUT ALSO IN NEUTRAL TURKEY, WITH THE CLEARLY PROCLAIMED AIM OF STRUGGLE AGAINST "TOTALITARIAN COMMUNISM."

CAPT.SWINGLER CHARACTERIZED THIS AS AN EXTREMELY DANGEROUS COURSE THE RESULT OF WHICH COULD ONLY BE A DIVISION OF THE WORLD INTO TWO BLOCS. HE ADDED THAT BRITAIN MUST DISAVOW A POLICY THAT WOULD TRANSFORM THE ANGLO-SOVIET ALLIANCE INTO A FARCE.

UNITED STATES SENATOR JOHNSON (REPUBLICAN) REGARDS TRUMAN'S NEW PLAN AS AN ATTEMPT TO SPREAD THE MONROE DOCTRINE THROUGHOUT THE MEDITERRANEAN REGION.

APPARENTLY, THIS DESIRE TO EXTEND THE MONROE DOCTRINE TO THE OLD WORLD EXPLAINS MR.TRUMAN'S UNSUCCESSFUL ARGUMENT ABOUT HIS STRIVING TO ENSURE THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES BY ESTABLISHING ITS DOMINATION IN TURKEY.

IF GREECE AND TURKEY ARE REALLY THREATENED BY ANY ONE, WHY, THEN, DOES THE UNITED STATES NOT APPLY TO THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION AND PUT THE CASE BEFORE THE LATTER?

B34

IT IS TRUE THAT MR.TRUMAN IN HIS MESSAGE MENTIONED SEVERAL TIMES THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION, BUT THIS WAS OBVIOUSLY REQUIRED BY HIM ONLY IN ORDER TO DISAVOW THIS ORGANIZATION DESPITE THE EXISTING OBLIGATIONS OF THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT TOWARDS UNO. THE UNITED STATES PRESIDENT NOT ONLY DISREGARDED THE OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AS A MEMBER OF UNO, BUT PRETENDED TO A LEADING ROLE IN THIS ORGANIZATION. HE PREFERRED TO ACT IN DISREGARDNOF UNO, WITHOUT TAKING INTO CONSIDERATION THAT SUCH A DISDAINFUL ATTITUDE TOWARD THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION RENDERS VALUELESS THE DECLARATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES ABOUT THEIR FAITHFULNESS TO THE CAUSE OF THIS INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION.

THIS POSITION OF THE AMERICAN PRESIDENT SEEMS THE MORE STRANGE SINCE, AS IS KNOWN, THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS ACTUALLY CONSIDERING THE QUESTION OF GREECE AND EVEN SENT THERE A SPECIAL COMMISSION FOR INVESTIGATING THE SITUATION ON THE GREEK BORDERS.

HOW CAN WE EXPLAIN THIS ATTITUDE OF MR.TRUMAN, INCOMPATIBLE WITH THE OBLIGATIONS PROVIDED BY THE UNO CHARTER AND ACCEPTED VOLUNTARILY BY THE UNITED STATES, IF NOT BY THE CONTRADICTION OF THE AIMS OF AMERICAN POLICY AS PROCLAIMED BY TRUMAN WITH THE BASIC PRINCIPLES OF EQUALITY AND STATE SOVEREIGNTY OF COUNTRIES, BIG AND SMALL?

THE REACTIONARY AMERICAN PRESS, WHICH IS PERSISTENTLY SUPPORTING TRUMAN, STRESSES PARTICULARLY THE FACT THAT THE UNITED STATES IS SQUEEZING BRITAIN OUT OF HER KEY POSITIONS. THUS, THE NEW YORK "DAILY NEWS," DEVELOPING THE IDEA OF SENATOR RUSSELL ON THE SIMPLE INCLUSION OF BRITAIN IN THE UNITED STATES, WRITES TO THE EFFECT: "IF WE ARE TO TAKE OVER PIECES OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE, WILL IT NOT BE WELL TO TAKE OVER ALSO THE CENTRAL PIECE?"

BUT THIS SOMEWHAT UNEXPECTED COINCIDENCE OF THE TASKS AND AIMS OF AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY WITH THE SHAMEFUL PRACTICE OF GREEK REACTION IS, APPARENTLY, NOT ACCIDENTAL. IT IS CONNECTED, IT APPEARS FROM EVERYTHING, WITH THE UNBRIDLED SLANDER AGAINST DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATIONS WHICH RECENTLY HAS BECOME THE POLITICAL FASHION IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN DEPICTS THE GOVERNMENT OF TSALDARIS AS ALLEGEDLY A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT ENJOYING THE SUPPORT OF ALL GREEKS EXCEPT SOME SEVERAL HUNDRED ARMED MEN HEADED BY COMMUNISTS. BUT IF THAT WERE REALLY SO, WHY WAS IT NECESSARY TO SAVE TSALDARIS AND COMPANY, AND IN SUCH AN OVER-URGENT MANNER AT THAT? WHY WAS IT NECESSARY SO URGENTLY TO SAVE THIS GOVERNMENT BY HELPING WITH ARMS, MONEY, AMERICAN CIVILIAN AND MILITARY PERSONNEL AND SIMILAR MEANS?

VERY LEGITIMATELY AND LOGICALLY THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER "CHICAGO SUN" ASKS THE SIMPLE QUESTION: "IF THE GREEK GOVERNMENT REALLY REPRESENTS THE PEOPLE THEN WHY SHOULD IT COLLAPSE UNLESS WE SAVE IT?"

TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS IS DEVOTED TO THE AFFAIRS OF GREECE AND TURKEY; BUT IT SETS ITSELF MORE FAR REACHING AIMS. IN HIS MESSAGE MR.TRUMAN MAKES AN EFFORT TO JUSTIFY THE EXPANSIONIST POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES, ENDEAVORING TO PRESENT IT IN THE NOBLE LIGHT OF THE "DEFENSE OF THE FREE PEOPLES AGAINST THE THREAT FROM TOTALITARIAN REGIMES."

THIS IS NOT A NEW METHOD. HITLER ALSO REFERRED TO THE "BOLSHEVIK DANGER" WHEN HE PREPARED FOR THE SEIZURE OF ONE STATE OR ANOTHER. IN TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS, HOWEVER, THE GAME OF NOBLENESS WAS SPOILT SOMEWHAT BY THE FACT THAT IT COULD NOT BUT RESORT TO THE MONEY-LENDING STRENGTH SO FAMILAR TO CERTAIN AMERICAN CIRCLES. TRUMAN ASKED CONGRESS TO ACCEPT HIS PROPOSAL ON GREECE AND TURKEY IN NAME OF THE DEFENSE OF THE FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTION MADE BY THE UNITED STATES TO THE SECOND WORLD WAR.

THE FIGURE OF $341,000,000,000 NAMED BY TRUMAN APPEARS TO BE SPECIALLY MEANT TO CONVINCE THE AMERICAN CONGRESS THAT IT IS NECESSARY TO INSURE THE REALIZATIONS OF THIS CONTRIBUTION BY MEANS OF SECURING CONTROL OVER THE WEAKER STATES BY THE UNITED STATES. AND IF ONE STATE OR ANOTHER DOES NOT DISPLAY ANY INCLINATION TO SACRIFICE ITS INDEPENDENCE AND TO SUBORDINATE ITSELF TO THIS CONTROL THEN ONE CAN SIMPLY DECLARE SUCH A STATE AS "TOTALITARIAN," ALIEN TO A HEALTHY DEMOCRACY, AND TO UNTIE ONE'S HANDS.

B36

A SINGLE DAY AFTER TRUMAN'S MESSAGE SUFFICED TO SHOW WHICH ELEMENTS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD ARE TRIUMPHANT AND JOYOUS AT THE TURN IN AMERICAN POLICY, AND WHICH ELEMENTS ARE SINCERELY ALARMED AT THE OPEN PROCLAMATION OF THE COURSE OF UNLIMITED IMPERIALIST EXPANSION. FRANCO'S FASCIST CAMP IS IN A FEVERISH EXALTATION; TRUMAN'S SPEECH IS WELCOMED BY THE FULTON HERO, CHURCHILL; THE REACTIONARY PRESS IN THE VAROUS COUNTRIES ARE TRIUMPHANT.

THE BRITISH PRESS PUTS A GOOD FACE ON A BAD SITUATION. SOBER AMERICAN CIRCLES, HOWEVER, REALIZE THE DANGER CONTAINED IN THE ADVENTUROUS COURSE TOWARDS UNRESTRAINED IMPERIALIST EXPANSION.

TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS AND THE POLICY PROCLAIMED IN IT DO NOT SERVE THE CAUSE OF PEACE AND SECURITY. THE LEADERS OF AMERICAN POLICY COULD DO WORSE THAN PONDER OVER THE FACT THAT UNDER CONTEMPORARY CONDITIONS ATTEMPT TO REALIZE ANY PLANS FOR WORLD DOMINATION ARE INEVITABLY DOOMED TO FAILURE. THE HISTORY OF RECENT YEARS SPEAKS OF THIS WITH PARTICULAR FORCE OF CONVICTION. TRUMAN'S MESSAGE SHOWS THAT THE PRESENT LEADERS OF AMERICAN POLICY HAVE NOT LEARNED THE ESSENTIAL LESSONS FROM HISTORY.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS WERE BELIEVED DUE IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE ON THE CHINESE SITUATION. MARSHALL WAS EXPECTED TO MAKE AN EARLY REPLY TO MOLOTOV'S THURSDAY REQUEST FOR BIG THREE TALKS ON CHINA OUTSIDE THE MINISTERS' COUNCIL, PRESUMABLY WITH CHINESE REPRESENTATION.

(THE U.S. AND BRITAIN WERE INVITED TO JOIN RUSSIA IN THE TALKS.

THE CHINESE FOREIGN OFFICE WAS REPORTED YESTERDAY IN A NANKING DISPATCH TO HAVE SENT NOTES TO THE FOUR CONFERRING POWERS OBJECTING TO ANY DISCUSSIONS OF CHINESE INRERNAL AFFAIRS, INSIDE OR OUTSIDE THE BIG FOUR CONFERENCE.) ADD MOSCOW (COPY - MOSCOW CONF FR. - BIDAULT)

MOLOTOV LAST NIGHT URGED THAT THE COUNCIL ACT TO SET UP GERMAN CENTRAL TRADE UNIONS AND POLITICAL AGENCIES BEFORE IT BEGAN CONSIDERING ECONOMIC QUESTIONS. MAR 1947 (Gilpatrick)

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, IN REPLY, IMPLIED THAT ECONOMIC DISCUSSIONS SHOULD COME FIRST. HE DEMANDED THAT ALL FOUR POWERS DISCLOSE HOW MUCH THEY HAD TAKEN FROM GERMANY IN REPARATIONS. MOLOTOV MADE NO IMMEDIATE, CLEAR CUT ANSWER TO THIS.

ON DEMOCRACY, MARSHALL SAID AMERICANS BELIEVED ALLIED CONTROL OF GERMANY PRESENTED AN OPPORTUNITY TO "DEMONSTRATE TO THE WORLD THE SINCERITY OF THE DEMOCRATIC GOAL WHICH WAS PROCLAIMED IN THE ATLANTIC CHARTER AND THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

"TO US," HE SAID, "A SOCIETY IS NOT FREE IF LAW ABIDING CITIZENS LIVE IN FEAR OF BEING DENIED THE RIGHT TO WORK OR DEPRIVED OF LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."

MOSCOW--FINNISH THIRD LEAD FOREIGN MINISTERS X X X GERMAN PROBLEM. AFter 1ST QTR AF

BIDAULT SAID FRANCE CONSIDERED THE SIZE OF THE GERMAN POPULATION, WHICH IS MUCH DENSER THAN THAT OF GERMANY'S NEIGHBORS, A WAR POTENTIAL LINKED WITH THE GERMAN INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL. DAY

THE FRENCH MINISTER SAID FRANCE WAS READY TO TAKE A REVOLUTIONARY STEP, ALONG WITH OTHER COUNTRIES, IN ABSORBING GERMAN IMMIGRANTS INTO HER OWN POPULATION. THIS, HE DECLARED, REPRESENTED A GREAT DECISION FOR THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT. MAR 1947

MARSHALL SAID THE BIDAULT PROPOSAL MERITED SERIOUS CONSIDERATION BY THE FOREIGN MINISTERS, AND THEN EXPRESSED THE VIEW BIDAULT HAD GONE TO THE HEART OF THE MATTER IN A REALISTIC FASHION.

OTHER PROPOSALS BY BIDAULT WOULD:

1. PERMIT NO NEW TRANSFERS OF GERMAN MINORITIES FROM OTHER COUNTRIES INTO GERMANY.
2. HALT SUCH TRANSFERS NOW IN PROGRESS.
3. FORBID ANY PERMANENT SETTLEMENT OF DISPLACED PERSONS IN GERMANY AND EXPEDITE THEIR RESETTLEMENT IN OTHER COUNTRIES.

BRITISH SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN ANNOUNCED THAT DUE TO THE FACT THE POPULATION IN THE BRITISH ZONE OF GERMANY HAD REACHED IT "FULL SATURA-TION POINT," THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WAS UNWILLING TO ACCEPT ANY MORE GERMAN REFUGEES UNTIL A FOUR-POWER CONTROL PLAN IS SET UP. THIS APPARENTLY DID NOT INCLUDE THE BARRING OF RETURNED PRISONERS OF WAR.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS CAME AFTER MARSHALL HAD SUMMONED THE AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR OF GERMANY TO COME TO MOSCOW AT ONCE AS A CHIEF ADVISER TO THE AMERICAN DELEGATION HERE. SOME WESTERN DIPLOMATS WERE SPECULATING THAT MOLOTOV MIGHT SUBMIT A SURPRISE PROPOSAL ON GERMAN ECONOMIC ISSUES NEXT WEEK.

THE MINISTERS' DEPUTIES, MEANWHILE, WERE DEADLOCKED ON THE ISSUES OF SOVIET CLAIMS TO GERMAN ASSETS AND ALBANIAN PARTICIPATION IN GERMAN TREATY DISCUSSIONS.

BEVIN SHARPLY REBUKED SOVIET DEPUTY ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY ON THE ALBANIAN ISSUE. VISHINSKY DEADLOCKED THE DEPUTIES' SESSIONS BY INSISTING THAT THE QUESTION BE TURNED OVER TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS THEMSELVES. BEVIN SAID HE THOUGHT IT WAS AN ENTIRELY IMPROPER PROCEDURE FOR ONE DEPUTY TO BREAK UP THE WORK OF THREE OTHERS "JUST BECAUSE HE DID NOT GET HIS WAY" ON ONE POINT.

BIDAULT'S POPULATION PROPOSAL WAS PREFACED WITH AN EXPLANATION THAT WITH THE RETURN OF EXPELLED GERMANS, THE GERMAN NATION WOULD HAVE A DENSITY OF POPULATION OF 196 PERSONS PER SQUARE KILOMETER, COMPARED WITH 75 IN FRANCE AND 62 IN POLAND.

HE SAID THE GERMAN POPULATION WOULD ATTAIN A DENSITY OF 40 PERSONS PER SQUARE KILOMETER MORE THAN BEFORE THE WAR, WHEN GERMANS WERE CRYING FOR LIVING SPACE. SUCH OVER-POPULATION, HE SAID, LAID THE SEEDS FOR A NEW WAR AND GAVE THE GERMANS STRENGTH TO CONDUCT ONE.

SECRETARY MARSHALL DELIVERED TWO PREPARED STATEMENTS DURING THE SESSION, WHICH LAST MORE THAN FOUR HOURS, THE LONGEST OF THIS CONFERENCE TO DATE. THE AMERICAN STATEMENTS COVERED PROBLEMS OF DISPLACED PERSONS AND OF TERRITORIAL REORGANIZATION INSIDE GERMANY.

MARSHALL SAID THE UNITED STATES FULLY SUPPORTED THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND HE THOUGHT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS SHOULD NOT INTERFERE IN THE DISPLACED PERSONS PROBLEM.

ON TERRITORIAL REORGANIZATION, HE SAID THERE HAD BEEN SOME ADMINISTRATIVE REORGANIZATIONS OF STATES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES ZONE OF GERMANY, BUT THAT THESE MIGHT BE RESTORED TO THEIR FORMER STATUS WHEN GERMANY WAS UNIFIED.

THE SITUATION X X X ETC., AS BEFORE.

THE FRENCH SUGGESTED THAT A CLAUSE BE DRAFTED FOR THE AUSTRIAN TREATY, REQUIRING THAT COUNTRY TO RECOGNIZE THE VALIDITY OF THE POTSDAM PACT AND FACILITATE LEGAL TRANSFER OF TITLE TO THE GERMAN ASSETS. GOUSEV REFUSED TO CONSIDER THAT SUGGESTION, MAKING HIS POINT THAT THERE COULD BE NO QUESTION OF THE LEGALITY OF GERMAN ASSETS ALREADY ACQUIRED BY THE RUSSIANS.

GOUSEV WOULD NOT AGREED TO TURNING THE MATTER OVER TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' COUNCIL. HE CONSENTED TO EACH DEPUTY MAKING AN INDIVIDUAL REPORT TO HIS MINISTER.

THE MATTER OF ALBANIA WAS TOSSED INTO THE LAPS OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS. VISHINSKY INSISTED THAT ALBANIA MUST BE INCLUDED IN ANY GROUP OF SMALLER POWERS INVITED TO FORM A CONSULTATIVE PANEL ON GERMAN TREATY MAKING. THE AMERICANS AND BRITISH OBJECTED WITH AMERICAN DEPUTY ROBERT MURPHY ASSERTING HOTLY THAT HE VIEWED WITH EMBARRASSMENT AND SHAME" THE AMOUNT OF TIME SPENT ON THE MATTER OF PARTICIPATION OF SMALLER ALLIES WITHOUT REACHING ANY AGREEMENT.

NIGHT LEAD TRUMAN (200)

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-TWO BRITISH NEWSPAPERS, ONE CONSERVATIVE AND ONE LABOR, EXPRESSED UNEASINESS AT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEW POLICY TODAY AND SAID BRITAIN SHOULD TRY TO MEDIATE THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

"OUR FIRST REACTION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH ON WEDNESDAY WAS ONE OF UNEASINESS. OUR SECOND THOUGHTS ARE NO HAPPIER," SAID THE DAILY HERALD, ORGAN OF THE LABOR PARTY.

SAYING IT SAW NO REASON "TO CLAP OUR HANDS" AND REJOICE BECAUSE "TWO ALLIES OF OURS ARE NOW GLARING AT ONE ANOTHER ACROSS BALKAN FRONTIERS," THE HERALD SAID BRITAIN SHOULD "THROW HERSELF HEART AND SOUL INTO THE STRENGTHENING OF U.N. AND INTO THE PARALLEL TASK OF MEDIATION BETWEEN AMERICA AND RUSSIA."

LORD BEAVERBROOK'S CONSERVATIVE DAILY EXPRESS ALSO CALLED FOR A "MIGHTY EFFORT TO BRITISH DIPLOMACY" TO EASE THE TENSION SO "THE RIVAL STANDPOINTS OF OUR FRIENDS SHALL NOT HARDEN INTO A COLLISION OR SLIP INTO A DEADLOCK."

ON THE OTHER HAND LESLIE HORE-BELISHA, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE FOR WAR, SAID IN A SPEECH THAT ALTHOUGH THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH MARKED AMERICAN SELF-ASSERTION AS A SEA POWER IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, THAT SHOULD NOT BE REGARDED BY THE BRITISH AS A DISPLACEMENT OF BRITAIN'S INFLUENCE.

"IF THE TWO GREAT POWERS ARE TO PURSUE A COMMON POLICY, ARISING OUT OF THEIR OCEAN-WIDE COMMITMENTS, WHAT COULD BE MORE NATURAL THAN THAT THEY SHOULD SHARE IN ITS EXECUTION?" HE ASKED.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-FIELD MARSHAL VISCOUNT MONTGOMERY, CHIEF OF THE IMPERIAL GENERAL STAFF, SAID TODAY BRITAIN COULD WIN HER BATTLE AGAINST ECONOMIC CRISIS ONLY THROUGH "LEADERSHIP, TEAMWORK AND HARD WORK."

IN ONE OF HIS RARE DISCUSSIONS OF DOMESTIC AFFAIRS, THE NON-PARTY WAR HERO TOLD THE LONDON ASSOCIATION OF ENGINEERS:

"THE ENEMY IS SHORTAGE OF MANPOWER, COAL AND DOLLARS. AT THIS MOMENT THE ENEMY HAS THE INITIATIVE AND WE ARE COMPLYING. HE IS FORCING US TO DANCE TO HIS TUNE. WE SHALL NEVER WIN A BATTLE IN THIS WAY."

TOULOUSE, FRANCE, MARCH 15-(AP)-PRESIDENT VINCENT AURIOL, IN HIS FIRST MAJOR ADDRESS SINCE HIS ELECTION, TODAY DEMANDED UNITY FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION AND PRESERVATION OF DEMOCRACY IN FRANCE.

MAKING HIS FIRST OFFICIAL JOURNEY TO HIS OWN DISTRICT AURIOL TOLD NEARLY 1,000 GUESTS AT A MUNICIPAL BANQUET THAT "WE MUST MAKE A GREAT COLLECTIVE EFFORT, OR OTHERWISE WE FACE COLLECTIVE RUIN."

THE PRESIDENT ACCUSED "OTHER PERSONS" OF EXPLOITING IMPATIENCE AND SUFFERING IN AN ENDEAVOR TO PROVE THAT AN IRON FIST IS ALL THAT IS NEEDED TO END THE NATION'S MISERY.

"THE TRUTH IS", HE SAID, "THAT NO SAVIOUR AND NO REMEDY CAN EXCUSE ANYONE FROM THE EFFORT AND SACRIFICE NEEDED TO RECONSTRUCT A DEVASTATED COUNTRY. EXPERIENCE PROVES THAT A FREE MAN PRODUCES MORE THAN A SLAVE."

HE SAID THAT IF THE FOOD SITUATION IMPROVED IN GERMANY, NO MORE TROOPS WOULD BE NEEDED.

THEN HE WENT ON:

"WITH IMPROVEMENT IN COMMUNICATIONS AND TRAVEL, THERE WILL BE A CERTAIN NUMBER OF UNRECONSTRUCTED NAZIS WHO PROBABLY WILL BECOME SLIGHTLY MORE ACTIVE.

"IT DOES NOT TAKE A VERY LARGE NUMBER OF INDIVIDUALS, HOWEVER, TO CONTROL THEM IF YOU KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN AND KNOW WHAT'S GOING ON.

"I DOUBT IF THE UNRECONSTRUCTED NAZIS WOULD EVER GET THE OPPORTUNITY TO ORGANIZE ANY SUCH THING AS MASS DEMONSTRATION.

"I WOULD FEAR MORE A COMMUNIST INSPIRATION THAN ONE FROM GERMAN NATIONALISTS OR NAZIS."

RODGERS QUOTED MCNARNEY, WHO GAVE OVER HIS COMMAND IN GERMANY TODAY TO GEN.LUCIUS CLAY, AS SAYING "IF CONGRESS CUTS THE MONEY FOR GERMAN RELIEF AND REHABILITATION, IT WOULD AMOUNT TO CATASTROPHE. THE UNITED STATES WOULD LOSE ITS INTERNATIONAL REPUTATION.

"THE RE-EDUCATION AND RE-INDOCTRINATION OF THE GERMAN PEOPLE WOULD BE SO DELAYED THAT THE GERMANS WOULD BECOME RIPE FOR ORGANIZATION BY COMMUNISM, AND WE WOULD HAVE LOST EVERYTHING WE FOUGHT FOR. WE WOULD HAVE PAID 150,000 LIVES OVER HERE LITERALLY FOR NOTHING.

HE ADDED THAT ANOTHER IMPORTANT TASK WAS A SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEMS FACING HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF DISPLACED PERSONS UPROOTED FROM THEIR HOMES BY "NAZI GREED AND CRUELTY."

"YOU MUST COMPLETE THE HUMANITARIAN TASK OF THEIR REPATRIATION OR RESETTLEMENT."

THE ACTION CAME AS A SURPRISE. THE LIBERAL NEWSPAPER DAGENS NYHETER, IN A FIRST COMMENT, SAID THE GOVERNMENT'S TRADE AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIA WAS ONE CAUSE FOR THE DIFFICULTIES, ASSERTING THAT "PRODUCTION RESERVED FOR RUSSIA SHOULD HAVE BEEN RESERVED FOR SWEDISH NEEDS."

IMPORTS OF ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES WILL CONTINUE UNDER A GOVERNMENT LICENSE SYSTEM.

AN INCREASING MANPOWER SHORTAGE, EXCESSIVE PURCHASING POWER, SHORTAGE OF CONSUMER GOODS AND SOARING SALARIES AND PRICES HAVE ALL CONTRIBUTED TO SWEDEN'S TROUBLES.

EARLIER THIS WEEK THE SOCIAL DEMOCRAT GOVERNMENT AND OPPOSITION PARTIES BROKE OFF A SIX WEEKS ANTI-INFLATION CONFERENCE BECAUSE OF LACK OF AGREEMENT.

BIGGEST STUMBLING BLOCKS WAS THE GOVERNMENT'S STRONG STAND ON HEAVIER TAXATION OF BIG FORTUNES AND CORPORATION PROFITS, AND THE OPPOSITION'S DEMANDS FOR GOVERNMENT GUARANTEES TO FREEZE WAGES.

THE OPPOSITION HAS CLAIMED THAT SWEDISH FOREIGN CURRENCY RESERVES DWINDLED BECAUSE OF GOVERNMENT CREDITS TO FOREIGN NATIONS, AND BIG IMPORTS OF LUXURIES FROM THE UNITED STATES, ARGENTINA, SWITZERLAND AND FRANCE. IT HAS DEMANDED STRICT DOMESTIC PAPER RATIONING IN ORDER TO INCREASE THE EXPORT OF PAPER FOR DOLLARS.

CAIRO, MARCH 15-(AP)-POLITICAL OBSERVERS SAID TONIGHT THAT THE DEPARTURE OF BRITISH GOVERNOR-GENERAL SIR HUBERT HUDDLESTON FROM THE SUDAN MIGHT BE THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF MOVES AIMED AT REOPENING DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN EGYPT AND GREAT BRITAIN FOR REVISION OF THEIR 1936 TREATY.

EGYPTIAN PRIME MINISTER NOKRASHI PASHA SAID TODAY THAT THE EGYPTIAN AND BRITISH GOVERNMENTS WERE CONSULTING ON A SUCCESSOR TO HUDDLESTON, WHO HAS ANNOUNCED HIS INTENTION OF RETIRING.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR REVISION OF THE ANGLO-EGYPTIAN TREATY BROKE DOWN RECENTLY ON THE ISSUE OF THE FUTURE OF THE SUDAN, EGYPT DEMANDING ITS UNIFICATION UNDER THE EGYPTIAN CROWN AND BRITAIN INSISTING ON SELF-DETERMINATION FOR THE TERRITORY. EGYPT HAS ANNOUNCED THAT IT WOULD PLACE THE ISSUE BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS.

PEIPING, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE COMMANDER OF AN AMERICAN LIAISON GROUP FORMERLY AT YENAN SAID TODAY CHINESE COMMUNISTS IN THAT RED CAPITAL HOPED THE CHINA QUESTION WOULD BE DISCUSSED AT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE IN MOSCOW. NIGHT

(A BROADCAST BY THE YENAN RADIO LAST NIGHT QUOTED CHOU EN-LAI, NO. 2 COMMUNIST, AS HEARTILY APPROVING DISCUSSION OF CHINA AT MOSCOW AND DEMANDING THAT COMMUNIST REPRESENTATIVES BE INVITED).

COL. JOHN K. SELLS OF LOMPOC, CALIF., AND MAJ. JAMES BUTLER OF JACKSONVILLE, FLA., MADE AN EMERGENCY DEPARTURE FROM YENAN MARCH 12 WHEN THE COMMUNISTS ADVISED THEM THE AIRFIELD WOULD BE DESTROYED. FACED WITH THE LOSS OF OUTSIDE COMMUNICATIONS, THE TWO DECIDED TO LEAVE.

SELLS, IN HIS FIRST INTERVIEW SINCE HE LEFT YENAN, TOLD CORRESPONDENTS HE HAD "NO REASON TO BELIEVE" THE COMMUNISTS HAD MADE ANY MILITARY MOVES IN CONNECTION WITH THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE OR HAD DIRECT COMMUNICATION WITH MOSCOW.

THE COMMUNISTS, HE SAID, HOPED FOR REESTABLISHMENT OF A U.S. OBSERVER MISSION AT YENAN IN THE FUTURE AND HAD URGED THE TWO AMERICANS TO REMAIN.

SELLS SAID YENAN WAS UNDERGOING ITS SECOND GENERAL EVACUATION IN FOUR MONTHS IN ANTICIPATION OF A GOVERNMENT ATTACK, BUT THAT COMMUNIST MORALE WAS HIGH. FIVE AMERICANS AND EIGHT EUROPEANS, MOST OF THEM DOCTORS AND NURSES, REMAINED IN THE YENAN AREA, THE COLONEL ADDED.

(IN NANKING TODAY, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE MINISTRY OF NATIONAL DEFENSE SAID HE HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF A DAYLONG AERIAL ATTACK ON YENAN REPORTED BY THE COMMUNIST RADIO LAST NIGHT.)

PEIPING, SUNDAY, MARCH 16-(AP)-CIVILIANS ARE LEAVING THE COMMUNIST CAPITAL OF YENAN DAY AND NIGHT, COL. JOHN K. SELLS, CHIEF OF THE DISBANDED AMERICAN OBSERVER GROUP THERE, TOLD NEWSMEN TODAY.

RETURNING FROM YENAN, HE SAID FEW PERSONS REMAINED IN THE CITY EXCEPT FOR STRICTLY ESSENTIAL WORKERS. THE COMMUNIST RADIO ASSERTED GOVERNMENT PLANES ATTACKED YENAN FOR SEVEN HOURS FRIDAY.

THE LOMPOC, CALIF., OFFICER REPORTED THAT GOVERNMENT TROOPS HAD PUSHED TO THE MALAN AREA, ABOUT 60 MILES SOUTH OF YENAN, BUT HE REFUSED TO GUESS WHETHER THEY WOULD ATTACK THE CITY. THE GOVERNMENT HAS DENIED IT INTENDED TO ATTACK YENAN. MAR 1947 DAY

SHANGHAI, S[illegible] THE GOVERNMENT'S CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY SAID TODAY THE[illegible]ELLOW RIVER DIKES HAD BEEN CLOSED AT A POINT ABOUT 400 MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING, SENDING THE MIGHTY STREAM BACK TO ITS OLD NORTHERN COURSE.

THE DIKES AT THAT POINT WERE BLOWN UP IN 1938, ON ORDERS OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK, SENDING THE RIVER COURSING SOUTHWARD ACROSS THE PATH OF JAPANESE ARMIES MARCHING ON HANKOW.

THE RIVER INUNDATED MORE THAN 15,000,000 SQUARE MILES OF FERTILE FARM LAND IN CHANGING ITS COURSE, AND GETTING IT BACK INTO ITS OLD BED HAS BEEN A MAJOR RELIEF PROJECT UNDERTAKEN BY UNRRA.

CHINESE COMMUNISTS RECENTLY HAVE BEEN PROTESTING THE CLOSING OF THE GAP, WHICH IS 50 MILES WEST OF THE CITY OF KAIFENG, ON THE GROUND THAT PLANS FOR RESETTLING THE PEOPLE FARMING THE OLD RIVER BED HAD NOT BEEN COMPLETED.

THEY ALSO CHARGED THE GOVERNMENT'S PRIME OBJECTIVE WAS TO SPLIT THE COMMUNISTS FORCES IN CHANTUNG PROVINCE. MOST OF THE OLD CHANNEL RUNS THROUGH COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED TERRITORY.

SINGAPORE, MARCH 15-(AP)-A CHINESE SURVIVOR OF THE "SINGAPORE MASSACRE" TOLD A WAR CRIMES COURT TODAY THAT "DEAD BODIES LITTERED CHANGI BEACH LIKE FISH IN A MARKET" AFTER JAPANESE MACHINEGUNS SLAUGHTERED BETWEEN 400 AND 500 CHINESE TAKEN TO THE BEACH IN ONE GROUP.

CHENG KONG-YU, TESTIFYING AT THE TRIAL OF TWO JAPANESE GENERALS AND FIVE KEMPEITAI OFFICERS, SAID HE WAS HIT IN THE NOSE BY A BULLET AND HIS FACE COVERED WITH BLOOD. THE JAPANESE LEFT HIM FOR DEAD, HE SA AND HE ESCAPED AFTER NIGHTFALL.

ANOTHER SURVIVOR OF THE FEBRUARY, 1942, MASSACRE, CHUA CHOON-GUAN, BARED HIS CHEST TO SHOW THE SCARS OF SIX BULLET WOUNDS. HE SAID HE WAS TAKEN TO THE BEACH WITH 600 CHINESE WHO WERE BOUND IN GROUPS OF 10 AND 12 AND ORDERED TO WALK INTO THE SEA, WITH JAPANESE MACHINEGUNS BEHIND THEM.

CHUA SAID HE FELL UNCONSCIOUS, BUT REVIVED WHEN SEA WATER WASHED OVER HIS FACE. HE CUT HIS BONDS ON A ROCK AND ESCAPED, HE ADDED.

THE BRITISH PROSECUTOR PRESENTED TESTIMONY OF FOUR OTHER WITNESSES BEFORE THE COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY.

LAHORE, INDIA, MARCH 15-(AP)-TWELVE DAYS OF COMMUNAL RIOTING IN PUNJAB PROVINCE HAS KILLED 1,036 PERSONS AND SERIOUSLY INJURED 1,110 OTHERS, A GOVERNMENT COMMUNIQUE SAID TONIGHT.

NEW OUTBREAKS WERE REPORTED IN THE VICINITY OF RAWALPINDI, KHUSHAB, JHELUM AND CAMPBELLPORE, BUT "QUIET OR NEARLY QUIET" WAS RESTORED IN MOST PLACES, THE COMMUNIQUE ADDED.

AT KHUSHAB A HINDU PROCESSION SET FIRE TO A DESERTED MOSQUE AND HINDU SHOPS AND TEMPLES WERE LOOTED AND BURNED IN RETALIATION, THE BULLETIN SAID.

IN THE RURAL AREAS OF THE CAMPBELLPORE DISTRICT "PANIC IS AT HIGH PITCH AND THERE HAVE BEEN NUMEROUS APPEALS FOR ASSISTANCE," THE COMMUNIQUE DECLARED. PEACE COMMITTEES HAVE BEEN FORMED AND PROMINENT MOSLEM LEAGUERS ARE TOURING THE AREA, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, ALL INDIA CONGRESS LEADER IN THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT, VISITED A CAMP FOR REFUGEES CONDUCTED BY THE ARMY AND URGED THEM TO "FACE ALL DIFFICULTIES WITH COURAGE." HE SAID THE GOVERNMENT WAS "DETERMINED TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO MEET THE SITUATION."

GREECE-TURKEY

BY JOHN A. PARRIS, JR.

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 15-(AP)-FEAR OF NEW RUSSIAN PRESSURE APPEARED TONIGHT TO BE BACK OF THE GREEK AND TURKISH APPEALS FOR FINANCIAL AID FROM THE UNITED STATES.

SPOKESMEN FOR BOTH COUNTRIES CONTEND THEY MUST HAVE IMMEDIATE ASSISTANCE IF THEY ARE TO REMAIN BULWARKS IN THE MEDITERRANEAN AGAINST THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM.

MAR 1947

IN A MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, GREEK PREMIER MAXIMOS THANKED HIM FOR ASKING CONGRESS TO AID GREECE AND DECLARED THAT GREECE IS "NOW FACING A SUBVERSIVE MOVEMENT OF A MILITARY MINORITY WHICH IS SUPPORTED FROM ABROAD AND IS SEEKING TO IMPOSE ITS WILL UPON THE MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE BY FORCE OF ARMS AND TERRORISM."

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN ISTANBUL SAID THAT A WEAK TURKEY COULD INVITE TROUBLE AND ADDED "IT WOULD BE MORE FARSIGHTED AND MUCH LESS COSTLY IN THE LONG RUN TO HELP HER TODAY THAN HAVE TO TRY TO RESCUE HER ON SOME LATER DAY."

THIS IS THE SITUATION AS CONGRESS PREPARES TO ACT ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSALS TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY:

GREECE IS A SICK COUNTRY, TORN BY CIVIL STRIFE, UNABLE TO REBUILD AND BECOME A SELF-SUPPORTING NATION. HER LEADERS SAY SHE CANNOT SURVIVE AS A DEMOCRACY UNLESS SHE HAS OUTSIDE AID IMMEDIATELY.

TURKEY, AFRAID OF POSSIBLE RUSSIAN EXPANSION SOUTHWARD, IS SPENDING MORE THAN 60 PER CENT OF HER NATIONAL INCOME TO MAINTAIN HER ARMED FORCES ON A WAR-TIME FOOTING. THIS OUTPUT HAS DRAINED HER FISCAL RESOURCES TO A POINT WHERE HER ECONOMIC STRUCTURE IS REPORTED IN JEOPARDY.

BACK OF THE GREEK AND TURKISH FEAR OF RUSSIA IS SOVIET INTEREST IN THE DARDANELLES AND A DESIRE TO HAVE FREE-WATER ENTRY INTO THE MEDITERRANEAN.

TURKEY, AS WELL AS GREECE, LONG HAS COUNTED MORE ON SUPPORT FROM THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN THAN ON HER OWN MILITARY STRENGTH TO KEEP THE DARDANELLES OUT OF RUSSIAN CONTROL.

BRITAIN'S FINANCIAL TROUBLES AT HOME HAVE FORCED HER TO STOP FURTHER AID TO GREECE, WITH THE RESULT THAT THE GREEKS HAVE TURNED TO THE UNITED STATES.

ALTHOUGH MILITARILY THE STRONGEST NATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST, TURKEY COULD NOT DEFEND THE DARDANELLES MORE THAN A FEW WEEKS AGAINST A RUSSIAN ATTACK, ACCORDING TO MILITARY EXPERTS HERE.

THE TURKISH ARMY, ESTIMATED AT ABOUT 700,000 SOLDIERS, HAS BEEN ON A FULL MOBILIZED STATUS FOR SEVEN YEARS. IT COULD, HOWEVER, UNDER BATTLE CONDITIONS BE EXPANDED TO 1,000,000, ORGANIZED INTO 35 DIVISIONS.

BEST AVAILABLE INFORMATION IS THAT TURKEY HAS ONLY TWO ARMORED DIVISIONS. THE ARMOR IS A MIXTURE OF AMERICAN SHERMAN TANKS, GERMAN MARK IV'S AND BRITISH CHURCHILLS.

ITS ARTILLERY IS MOSTLY BRITISH .75'S. BUT IT IS LIMITED BECAUSE ALMOST ALL AMMUNITION MUST BE IMPORTED.

ONE OF ITS MOST GLARING WEAKNESSES IS ITS TRANSPORT WHICH IS MOSTLY HORSEDRAWN. THE ABSENCE OF GOOD ROADS LIMITS MOBILITY.

THE BULK OF THE TURKISH ARMY, HOWEVER, IS MADE UP OF CAVALRY AND INFANTRY WHOSE MORALE IS SAID TO BE EXCEPTIONALLY HIGH. FOR CENTURIES THE TURKS HAVE BEEN KNOWN AS GOOD FIGHTERS, NO MATTER HOW THEY ARE ARMED.

FROM WITHIN. THE COMMUNIST PARTY IS ILLEGAL IN TURKEY AND THE BAN IS VIGOROUSLY ENFORCED. NEWSPAPERS ARE PROHIBITED FROM PRINTING WHAT THE GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS TURNED DOWN RUSSIAN PROPOSALS FOR A CONFERENCE OF BLACK SEA POWERS ONLY TO DISCUSS REVISION OF THE MONTREUX CONVENTION
GOVERNING THE DARDANELLES.

WHILE TURKEY IS BY NO MEANS MILITARILY WEAK, GREECE HAS ONLY AN ARMY ESTIMATED AT 100,000 SOLDIERS.

SHE IS SO WEAK INTERNALLY, THAT MOST MILITARY EXPERTS BELIEVE GREECE
WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO PUT UP MUCH OF A FIGHT.

UNDER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROJECTED PLANS FOR AIDING GREECE, 100,000 SOLDIERS WOULD BE TRAINED AND EQUIPPED. IT WOULD BE A STEP TOWARD BUILDING UP A GREEK ARMY THAT COULD DEAL WITH ROVING LEFTIST BANDS
WITHIN THE COUNTRY.

BRITAIN HAS MAINTAINED TROOPS INSIDE GREECE BECAUSE OF THE INTERNAL TROUBLE.

ONE BIG PROBLEM THAT GREECE HAS BEEN GRAPPLING WITH SINCE THE END OF THE WAR IS HOW TO FEED HER MILLIONS AND PUT THE COUNTRY BACK ON ITS FEET.

SHE HAS FOUGHT OFF STARVATION FROM DAY TO DAY WITH $385,000,000
WORTH OF HELP FROM UNRRA. THAT IS FINISHED.

WAR DESTROYED ALL BUT 700,000 TONS OF GREECE'S [illegible]-TON MER-

NOTHING HAS BEEN DONE TOWARD RECONSTRUCTING THE COUNTRY. PORTS AND POPULATION HAS LITTLE MORE THAN RAGS TO WEAR.

AND THE RIGHT, HAS HELD GREECE BACK. EFFORTS TO EFFECT POLITICAL STABILITY HAVE YET TO SUCCEED. THERE HAS BEEN NO PLANNING FOR THE REHABILITATION OF THE COUNTRY.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS STATED THAT IF THE UNITED STATES ACCEPTS THE GREEK BURDEN THEN AMERICA WILL SEE THAT THE AID GOES TO THE RIGHT PLACE AND NOT DOWN THE DRAIN.

U.S. Orders Envoys Home From Greece, Turkey For Talks on Near East Crisis

BALKAN MISSION HEAD ALSO CALLED BACK TO CAPITAL

Porter Will Report on First-Hand Study of Greek Troubles.

ACTION IS SPEEDED

Rep. Gearhart Charges Russia Covets the Return of Alaska.

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) The American ambassadors to both Turkey and Greece have been called home to help with President Truman's plan to bolster those countries against Communist expansion.

The summons to Ambassador Lincoln MacVeagh in Athens and Ambassador Edwin C. Wilson in Ankara was sent out late last week, diplomatic officials said today.

Simultaneously it was disclosed that Paul Porter has been called home ahead of time from his economic mission in Greece for a report that may play a big part in Congress' decision whether to approve the President's plan for aid.

Called for "Consultations"

State Department officials said they were without word today as to when the two ambassadors might arrive, or whether they had yet left their posts. It was indicated, however, that they might be in shortly behind Porter, who left Athens today.

"Consultations" was the only official explanation of the ambassadors' call home.

Porter, former OPA chief, has been making a first-hand study of Greek troubles as head of an American economic mission there. His report was not due until April but State Department officials said Porter apparently is speeding it up in view of the situation. The British plan to end their program in Greece by March 31 and congressional leaders say they hope to get action on Mr. Truman's request by that date.

Porter will have an early meeting with the President. Officials here were unable to say, however, whether the meeting would await Mr. Truman's return to Washington on Wednesday or whether Porter might rush to Key West, Fla., to see him if he gets here from Athens before then.

Porter on Way to U. S.

Porter left Athens today and probably will arrive in this country tomorrow or Tuesday.

Conferences at the State Department also are scheduled for him. Henry S. Villard, deputy director of the office of Near Eastern affairs, said officials there "have plenty to talk about" with Porter but would give no details.

Comment at the capitol on the President's proposals has indicated that congressmen will seek a first-hand report from Porter. This might be given at the Senate and House committee hearings.

Senator Taylor (D-Colo) declared last week that he understands Porter already has recommended the removal of King George II of Greece as a pre-condition of American aid. He asked the State Department about it but officials there have declined public comment.

Porter's return comes amid these new developments:

Says Reds Eye Alaska

1. Rep. Gearhart (R-Calif) reported Russia "looking at Alaska with covetous eyes" and declared the Soviets contend its purchase from the Czarist government in 1867 was illegal. Gearhart told a reporter he wants the State Department to say whether Moscow is seeking return of the rich and strategic territory and that he will raise the question on the House floor tomorrow.

2. The United Nations food and agriculture organization recommended a $100,000,000 loan for Greece for 1947-48 from the International Bank as part of a broad program to rehabilitate and modernize the country's industry and agriculture. The recommendations were based on a study made last summer by an FAO mission and appear superseded now by the single-handed American program, contemplating $250,000,000 for Greece this year.

3. Senator Saltonstall (R-Mass) at Boston and Senator Tydings (D-Md) at Baltimore expressed concern in speeches over far-reaching implications of the President's proposal. They listed weighty pros and cons without committing themselves and said the question requires full consideration by the people and Congress.

In raising the subject of Alaska, Gearhart declared that "the American people have a right to know what, if any, secret conversations have been held between our diplomats and the Russians on this important problem."

He noted that the State Department previously has disclaimed knowledge of any discussions concerning Alaska but added that "if memory serves, we were told that there were no secret agreements made during the Yalta and Tehran conference. Later we learned to our amazement that our leaders had in fact made secret agreements of colossal importance at these conferences."

Urges Alaskan Defenses

"Alaska," he said, "is on a direct line between potential aggressors and our industrial centers. It goes without saying Alaska should be fortified so that it shall become an impregnable barrier to any predatory power."

Gearhart said that "the Communists claim the price we paid for Alaska—$7,200,000—was in reality but reimbursement of expenses incurred by the then Czar in sending his fleets to New York and San Francisco in 1863, when the union cause was hanging perilously in the balance."

He cited old State Department documents to show that the arrival of the ships helped dissuade British and French support for the confederacy "until it was too late."

"I have presented this documentary material," he explained, "primarily to outline the basis on which the Russians claim our purchase of Alaska was illegal. Actually there is not one scintilla of evidence that our purchase of the territory was illegal. It was entirely legal. But does Russia plan to reopen this old question? Is she seeking a casus belli (cause for war)?"

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee hopes to introduce tomorrow a measure wrapping up Mr. Truman's requests—$400,000,000 for Greece and Turkey, plus the right to send them military and civilian missions.

The measure, as tentatively drafted, is understood to give the administration a free hand for allocation of money, the right to decide whether it should be parceled out as a loan or direct grant, and to determine where, how and when it shall be spent.

UN MAPS PLAN TO AID GREECE

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) The United Nations food and agriculture organization outlined tonight a broad program for modernizing Greece's agriculture and industry and for doubling or tripling that country's pre-war income within two or three decades.

The program was drafted by a special FAO mission at the request of the Greek government. It would involve international financial aid, starting with a $100,000,000 loan this year from the International Bank of Reconstruction and Development.

Modernized Water Resources

The modernization of Greece's economic life would center on development of the nation's water resources, including drainage, flood control, irrigation, and hydroelectric projects.

Such a program, the mission said in a 188-page report, would help increase the productivity of agriculture for domestic use and export and would encourage new industries which would provide work for many now crowded on the land.

"Completion of the full long-term program would make possible the irrigation of about one-fifth of all the cropland in Greece and the development of as much hydroelectric power as that produced by the Boulder dam in the United States," the report said.

The FAO mission recommended that the Greek government sponsor educational and economic programs which would encourage its farmers to produce better quality fruits, vegetables and other intensive crops which other countries of Europe, under an expanding economy, would need.

"Greatly enlarged opportunities for non-farm employment are needed to reduce the rural population," the report stated, "because even with full development of irrigation and of intensive agriculture, Greece could not profitably support her present proportion of farm people."

Better Farming Methods Needed

The mission reported that Greek agriculture is marked by a low level of efficiency, both as to crops and livestock production. It urged vigorous programs to convince growers that better farming methods are needed.

The FAO said the Greek government has already indicated its approval of the "major lines" of the mission recommendations.

The mission, headed by President Franklin S. Harris of Utah Agricultural College, worked in Greece from May through July last summer, and studied Greek agriculture at first hand throughout the country.

LEADERS CALL ARMY UNREADY

Reasons Given Why Preparations Would Take Until '48

MAR—1947

Washington, March 16 (AP)—If the United States should be challenged tomorrow, it could not fight a full-scale war before 1948.

This was evident today in the answers of military planners to questions about the state of the "interim army"—that force that exists between the late war and the future time when peace treaties are signed and a "postwar army" evolves.

Situation Outlined

They outlined the situation thus:

At least three months would be needed merely to notify, register and start back toward army jurisdiction the men in the pool of 5,000,000 trained veterans the Army estimates are available.

It would take another six months from the time the first combat divisions were reformed until they could be organized, equipped, retrained and put into action.

Reasons Are Listed

While the United States has the atomic bomb and long-range bombers capable of delivering the missile at points 10,000 miles beyond this nation's borders, responsible military thinkers, both Army and Navy, insist that a balanced armed force also should be maintained for two major reasons:

To follow up use of the bomb with seizure of enemy military bases, rocket launching sites or other strategic areas from which attacks against the United States could be supported.

To be prepared for purely defensive measures, in event that a domestic or off-shore area of the United States is occupied or threatened.

Although the planning for a possible future "M-day" contemplates a total effective force of 1,750,000 on that day, the force available now and for many months in the future will be far below that.

Neither Ready Now

That is because a National Guard of 680,000 and an organized reserve of 195,000 is estimated in the M-day force figure—and there is neither a trained guard nor reserve force ready now.

The only force in anything like a condition of readines is the Regular Army, about 1,200,000 strong.

The number of divisions which could be used immediately can be counted on the fingers of one hand, with spares left, officials said. As examples, they mentioned that 82d Airborne Dvision at Fort Bragg, N.C., probably is in a fair state of readiness and that one or two others might be available overseas if they could be pulled out of occupation duties.

Records Necessary

War Department officials said the necessity for a quick mustering of the nation's manpower in an emergency makes it imperative that the 44,000,000 records gathered in connection with the selective service system be kept at hand for immediate reference.

While equipment and supplies remaining from World War II probably would be sufficient to outfit a reconstituted army, at the start officials expressed doubt about the prospect of getting plants back into prompt production of war goods. war production in the United States bor Day there was a nucleus for war roduction in the United States due to foreign orders, but that now virtually all plants have thrown out tools for such production.

Machine Tools Collected

In one phase of an attempt to deal with this problem, the Army and Navy have started a collection of machine tools from surplus stocks and production lines where they are no longer required. The equipment is being "mothballed" in much the same manner as surplus airplanes and naval craft—cleaned, sprayed with preservatives, wrapped and stored.

The currently gloomy picture for the Army's ground forces is offset in considerable measure by the status of the air forces and navy.

The organizational structures of those services are much nearer being intact than the land forces.

30. 24-8531

MAR 1947

Both have found volunteer recruiting adequate for their manpower needs.

Fleets Ready For Duty

The Navy's active and ready reserve fleets are prepared for virtually instant duty; the "mothball fleet" is designed for return to the seas in from 30 to 60 days.

The AAF has the only known fleet of super-heavy, ultra long-range bombers in the world, capable of delivering the atomic bomb. Left over from wartime production was a fleet of about 3,000 B-29 Superfortresses. Deliveries have started on the new B-36 bombers, built to carry 10,000 pounds of bombs 10,000 miles, but the deliveries are so limited they amount to mere token output.

Broadcast in English

LONDON, March 16 (AP).—The Moscow radio told its English listening audience tonight, in the second broadcast of the day on the subject, that "a hard political fight" was developing in Congress over President Truman's proposed aid to Greece and Turkey and asked: "What is left of Roosevelt's line?"

The broadcast English-language commentary by S. K. Gofman said many Congressmen, "both Democrats and Republicans, felt that the President's message was impelling the American people into paths fraught with great danger. Only the Vandenberg group, which stands for the interests of the big monopolies and trusts, backs Truman's program 100 per cent."

AMERICAN AGREES TO GIVE DATA

General Clay In Moscow To Aid In Economic Discussions

GALLAGHER

Moscow, March 16 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, rejected tonight a Soviet request for a conference on China, but offered to exchange with the Russian and British foreign ministers information about the Chinese situation.

The American delegation headquarters made public a letter which Marshall wrote last night and delivered to Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, replying to Molotov's note of March 1.

Bevin Reply Expected

British informants said Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, was expected to reply to Molotov in the same manner as Marshall.

Molotov had asked originally that the Foreign Ministers Conference place the Chinese matter on the agenda. Marshall refused to participate in such a discussion unless a representative of China was present.

Then Molotov asked that the United States, Britain and Russia hold informal talks on China. The Chinese Government said it would not participate in any conferences on China, either inside or outside the foreign ministers' meeting.

Text Of Marshall Note

Secretary Marshall's note said:

"Dear Mr. Molotov:

"I have your letter of March 11 regarding the matter of the execution of provisions in the Moscow protocol of December, 1945, with reference to China.

"When this question was raised by you in the Council of Foreign Ministers, I stated I would be pleased to exchange with you and Mr. Bevin, while I am in Moscow, but not in the Council of Foreign Ministers, information concerning the execution of revision of the Moscow declaration regarding China. This I will do, but I do not think it desirable to engage in any conference, however informal.

Suggests Copies For China

"I suggest that each of us furnish the other with stated information before April 1 and that each of us make available a copy of the information furnished to the Chinese Government.

"Please accept, Mr. Foreign Minister, assurances of my highest esteem."

Meanwhile, Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay arrived today in the Soviet capital to strengthen Marshall's hand in a week of talks on German reparations and economics which many observers declared hold the key to success or failure of the Foreign Ministers Conference.

The commander of United States Forces in Europe, who played a major role in shaping United States policy for occupied Germany, arrived by plane from Berlin at 2.45 P.M.

Speculate On Stalin Talk

Sharing interest in the economic discussions was speculation on when Marshall would meet Prime Minister Stalin for a possible exchange of views on American foreign policy in the Mediterranean. Whether Marshall would explain United States policy to Stalin depends on whether the Soviet leader requested such an explanation, an authoritative informant said.

A Marshall-Stalin meeting was expected shortly. Under diplomatic procedure, the Soviet Government must take the initative in arranging such a meeting.

Normally Stalin would first receive Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, since he is the senior visiting foreign minister at the four-power conference on drawing up peace treaties for Germany and Austria.

Week Viewed As Crucial

Most delegations expect the coming week to be the most critical of the conference. The questions of economic unity and reparations were considered the crux of the whole German problem.

The two subjects are interlocked with every other phase of the German situation. If agreement is reached on these, then other problems become secondary and much easier to solve. If agreement fails, there is no prospect of settling the other pending questions on Germany.

While it was not expected that an agreement would be reached during the coming week on reparations and economic unity, one top negotiator said:

"At the end of this economic discussion we should be able to see whether there is any chance of reaching a compromise at this time. Then we can take another week or two searching out common principles.

"If we are hopelessly deadlocked at the end of this week we might as well go home as far as Germany is concerned, at least for this conference."

Clay, who took over command of United States Forces in Europe only yesterday, was one of the authors of the British-American plan for economic unification of the two zones in Germany. That plan has been a target of Soviet criticism.

Both Marshall and Bevin have pressed V. M. Molotov all week to speed up minor phases of the German situation and get to the economic question.

The American and British secretaries will explain in detail their plans for Germany. Preliminary discussions were expected to take up a week or ten days. Molotov asked more time to prepare his economic case, but it was believed he would be ready by tomorrow.

Press Attacks Continue

The Soviet press, meanwhile, continued to criticize President Truman's request to Congress for aid to Greece and Turkey.

It was a big subject of discussion for millions of Russian citizens, to whom it has been presented as a "potential threat against peace."

The Soviet news agency Tass, in a new dispatch dealing with the Truman request, made a point of the opposition it had aroused among some members of Congress. It referred again to the criticism voiced by Henry A. Wallace, former Secretary of Commerce.

"President Truman's message made a tremendous impression on persons with weak nerves," Tass said, and caused "great delight among Greek reactionaries."

Tass said one of the "weak-nerved" persons was a French official in the Foreign Ministry who was quoted as describing the President's speech as a "bomb, the explosion of which is bound to rattle the windows of Aviation House in Moscow (scene of the Foreign Ministers' conference)."

Marshall New Style Diplomat

GALLAGHER

Moscow, March 16 (AP)—Secretary Marshall has brought a new conception of American diplomacy to the Foreign Ministers Conference table.

He plays his cards close to his vest with the calm attitude of a man holding a royal flush. It has become apparent in the four-power sessions that his is a cold, analytical approach to international problems.

As the creator and chief of staff of the mightiest military machine in American history, Marshall handled that immense power with skill and confidence. His approach to diplomatic tasks is almost exactly similar.

Applying Power Subtly

Marshall is applying American power quietly and subtly in the world diplomatic field, just as he used military power on the battlefields.

He differs from his predecessors in that they were inclined to lay their cards on the table and seek by good fellowship and argument to get agreements. They sometimes used a firm policy, but often this was a scattered and spontaneous effort.

During the war, Marshall opposed all attempts to divert American military power from the main task of defeating Germany. In Moscow he has followed the same pattern of keeping first things first.

He blocked the Russian attempt to divert energies into a wrangle over China. He has ignored repeated attacks on details which he considers irrelevant to the main principles.

Equals Molotov's Coolness

Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Russian Foreign Minister, who had enjoyed a reputation among his counterparts as the only imperturbable and emotionless figure, now looks across the council table at an equally cool colleague.

Those attending the meetings report that Marshall, time and again, has attempted to bring the Council to argue on principles and to halt personal attacks, which he considers as trifles beneath the dignity of the foreign ministers. He has only answered attacks from Russia which charged or implied outright United States malfeasance.

Backed by Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, he has sought to induce his colleagues to put their arguments on paper and then to discuss principles in order to prevent lengthy debates.

Waits For Storm To Subside

In these aims, he has been forestalled by Russian insistence on discussing old charges. When the old issues arise, Marshall sits back and waits for the storm of words to subside.

He places his own proposals on record as briefly as possible and waits for the day which must come when the words must end and the participants must put their blue chips into the international poker pot.

When he talks in the Council, he speaks softly and quiet prevails because all try to hear him.

One of the delegates commented, with British understatement:

"Secretary Marshall is not a person with whom one takes liberties."

Besides being a characterization of the man, the statement might well describe the position Marshall feels the United States should hold in international affairs.

MOSCOW, March 16 (AP).—The top social event in the Soviet capital tonight was a reception by American Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith for the heads of the allied missions here to attend the Foreign Ministers' conference.

It was the first day of rest from sixteen-hour daily schedules for the Foreign Ministers and the top men of their delegations since the four-power sessions opened last Monday.

Earlier in the day Catholic religious services were held for members of the delegations at the Church of St. Louis of the French. The pastor, an American priest, the Rev. Father George Antonio Laberge, officiated.

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and many Catholic members of the American, French and British delegations attended, and there were also 100 or more Russians in the congregation.

U. S. PLAN STIRS RUSSIANS

Press Notes Some Opposition in Congress to Proposal on Greece

MOSCOW, March 16 (AP)—The Soviet press continued today to criticize President Truman's request to Congress for aid to Greece and Turkey. It was a big topic for millions of Russians, to whom it has been presented as a "potential threat against peace."

The Soviet news agency Tass made a point of the opposition the Truman request had aroused among some members of Congress. It referred again to criticism voiced by former Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace.

"President Truman's message made a tremendous impression on persons with weak nerves," Tass said, and caused "great delight among Greek reactionaries."

AMBASSADOR NOW IN LONDON

Douglas Reaches England After "Speedy" Flight

MAR 1947

London, March 16 (AP)—Lewis W. Douglas arrived in London by plane today to assume his new duties as United States Ambassador, against a background of deepening cleavage in Britain over President Truman's plan to aid Greece and Turkey.

The new Ambassador's plane landed after what he called an uneventful "very speedy" flight from New York via Shannon, Eire.

"The relationships between America and England are stronger now than they ever have been," Douglas said in an interview at the airport. "I hope that during my term of office they will become even stronger."

Leftist Press Critical

Some Leftist newspapers criticized Mr. Truman's proposal to aid Greece and Turkey, and the co-operative movement's Reynolds News cocked a critical eye at the new Ambassador, in an article headed "At Whom is Truman's Pistol Aimed?"

"Truman has all but declared war on Russia," said the article, written by Foreign Editor David Raymond. "He and his new Ambassador to Britain have made it clear that America intends to reverse the trend toward planned economy."

Richard H. S. Crossman, Leftist Labor member of Parliament, wrote in the Leftist Sunday Pictorial that the United Nations "for the time being is a broken reed."

A "Conservative Democrat"

The influential Sunday Observer, which often supports the Government, noted that Douglas "is a leading member of conservative Democrats brought into power by President Truman."

"It is to this group that America owes those bold policies which were summed up in President Truman's forthright speech," the Observer added.

Most conservative newspapers approved of the President's stand.

The executive committee of the British Communist party declared that the proposal was aimed at undermining Britain. The national acting committee of the Shop Stewards Council called it "a long step toward World War III."

Douglas declined to comment on the subject.

Lord Leathers, former Minister of War Transport and an old friend of Douglas when the latter was here as Lend-Lease Administrator, was among the party greeting the new Ambassador at the airport.

To Investigate British Press

Sir David Ross Reported Head of Parliament-Ordered Inquiry

LONDON, March 16 (AP).—The British Press Association said today it was reported that Sir David Ross had been appointed chairman of the Parliament-ordered commission to investigate the British press. Sir David, provost of Oriel College, Oxford, declined to confirm the report, saying: "I would prefer to wait until the government announce the names of the whole commission."

The investigation, approved by the House of Commons last October, will deal with finances, control and ownership of the press.

Truman Talk Gets MRP Indorsement

Paris, March 16 (AP)—The National Congress of the moderate Popular Republican Movement party (MRP) adopted a resolution tonight praising President Truman's request that the United States set aside $400,000,000 for aid to Greece and Turkey.

The resolution described Mr. Truman's action as "consecrating the end of the isolationist policy of the United States and providing a new guarantee for the maintenance of the institutions of democracy in the world."

Auriol Wants Big Air Force

MURET, France, March 16 (AP).—President Vincent Auriol told his fellow townspeople of Muret today that France must build up a powerful air force to maintain her national independence. He said: "We have had great assistance from our allies, but now we must construct our own aircraft. Aviation brought victory in 1944 and '45. We must build a sound French air force, for it would do so again."

RELEASE ASKED FOR WESTRICK

German Held As Industrialist Who Aided Nazi Army

KASISCHKE

Berlin, March 16 (AP)—American authorities said today that the family of Gerhardt A. Westrick, who failed in a 1940 propaganda mission to the United States to keep that country out of the war, had petitioned for his release from confinement.

Westrick, formerly chairman of the German subsidiaries of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, was pictured in the petition as a man who "never did the United States any harm and actually protected properties owned by American companies in Germany during the war."

The American Military Government had an ample dossier, however, on Westrick, which presented him as a leading industrial organizer and producer for the German Army and Air Force in the Reich and in occupied countries.

Used For The Germans

The documents asserted that Westrick used for full German war production the industries which he claims he protected for the Americans.

The documents showed that Westrick for many years was chairman of the leading German companies of I.T.& T.—C. Lorenz, Mix and Gnest—and that he was appointed by Col. Sosthenes Behn, president of the parent company.

Westrick arrived in the United States early in 1940 on a mission for German foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, hanged last year as a war criminal by order of the International Military Tribunal.

His mission was to tell American businessmen they would gain by a German victory in Europe and to persuade them to engage in propaganda to keep the United States out of war. He failed.

Gestapo Aid Alleged

The request for his release was referred to the United States Military Government's decartelization branch, which referred it to the United States chief of counsel on war crimes at Nuernberg to determine whether Westrick is wanted for trial.

The Military Government documents alleged that Westrick filled the memberships of two I.T.& T. subsidiaries with at least two thirds Nazi and SS members and that the companies contributed to Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler's fund with Westrick's approval.

After the United States entered the war, the documents said, Westrick voluntarily surrendered voting rights controlling the European network of the I.T.& T. companies to a new Nazi holding company called Europa-standard, which was controlled by a board dominated by ranking SS officers and other Nazis.

'Kit Carson' Irks Madrilenos

MADRID, March 16 (AP)—A group of young men tore up billboards and display advertising last night at a Madrid theatre where "Kit Carson," an American film, was being shown. The demonstrators said the film was insulting to Mexico. The youths dispersed and no arrests were made.

Berlin Ponders Emigration

Berlin, March 16 (AP)—German political leaders gave a mixed reception today to the proposal by Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, that the Allies undertake an organized reduction of Germany's population through emigration.

Berlin newspapers called the idea, broached at the Moscow meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers, "sensational."

A spokesman for the Berlin Social Democratic Party indorsed the idea. The conservative Christian Democratic Union suggested that "acceptance of the plan would mean our indirect acquiescence to the present Oder-Neisse border—which we can never agree to because we believe it contains the seeds of another war." (The Oder-Neisse boundary gives Poland a large part of eastern Germany.)

6,000 German Girls to Enter U.S.

BERLIN, March 16 (AP)—Nearly 6,000 German girls will leave for the United States this year as fiancées or brides of Americans, a United States consular official estimated today. The Combined Travel Security Board said the rate at which fraulein were applying for permits had increased sharply under the new policy allowing Americans near the end of their duty in Europe to marry Germans.

Spanish Underground Urges Monarchist Tie

MADRID, March 16 (AP)—The National Confederation of Labor (C. N. T.), one of the largest Spanish Republican underground groups, asserted "the absolute necessity of coalition with Monarchist forces," in a "public declaration" distributed to foreign press representatives today.

Associated with the C. N. T. in the declaration was the anarchist "Libertarian Movement." Although negotiation between the Republican underground and the Monarchists have been reported from time to time since 1944, neither group previously had publicly stated any coalition plans.

The declaration, bearing the seal of the C. N. T. national committee secretariat, said the coalition proposed would provide a provisional government for "the difficult period between the dictator's overthrow and the holding of a plebiscite." It named the Republicans, Socialists and Monarchists as groups to be included in the coalition, but did not mention the Communists.

Porter Optimistic

ATHENS, March 16 (AP).—Paul Porter, chief of a United States economic mission to Greece, left Athens at 9 a. m. today after an unexpected twenty-four-hour delay.

Shortly before his departure, Mr. Porter said: "We return to the United States equipped with data and information about Greek economic problems which we anticipate will provide our government with the factual basis for further defining its policy in regard to Greece.

"While it would be inappropriate for me to express opinions and conclusions until our report has been made to my government, I do feel the obligation to point out that I am optimistic about the economic future of this country."

Mr. Porter said he was "impressed by the capacity and spirit of the people of Greece."

Meanwhile it was announced that the Greek government proposes an extension until the end of March of the amnesty offer to anti-government guerrillas which expired last midnight. The Minister of Justice drafted a decree for this purpose to be submitted to the Cabinet for approval tomorrow.

Mopping up of the guerrillas will be pushed vigorously. Minister of War George Stratos planned to go to northern Greece to acquaint himself with the last preparations for an increased effort at their suppression.

Army headquarters announced that seventy-three guerrillas had been killed and thirty wounded during operations in the mountains at the junction of the Yugoslav, Greek and Bulgarian borders.

Dispatches reported a band about 300 strong had been driven back, losing twenty dead and fifteen wounded, when it attacked an army unit stationed at Metropolis in central Greece.

Attack by Reds 47 Miles From Yenan Reported

Nationalist Announcement Confirms Operations by Chiang's Forces in Area

NANKING, March 16 (AP).—The Chinese government's Central News Agency reported today that Communists were attacking Lohsien, a town forty-seven miles south of Yenan, the Chinese Communist capital, and that severe fighting was in progress.

While this was presented as a defensive battle by government troops, it was the first confirmation that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's forces were operating so near to Yenan. The radio there has been reporting for days past a government offensive directed toward the city, and it said Yenan was heavily bombed by government planes Thursday and Friday.

As a result of this apparent thrust against the seat of Communist power, Nanking political circles predicted imminent war against the Communists on all fronts with every resource at Generalissimo Chiang's command.

These circles predicted that the Generalissimo soon would officially outlaw the Communists as a political party, brand all its members as rebels to be exterminated and re-organize his government on a "coalition" basis, but without including either any Communists or members of the middle-of-the-road Democratic League.

This conclusion was based partly on his speech of Saturday before leaders of the Kuomintang (Nationalist party), in which he declared the Communists were in armed rebellion and must be put down. He compared them to the old-time Chinese warlords and the later Japanese invaders as impediments to national rejuvenation.

Yenan was silent concerning developments in its own neighborhood but its radio today twitted the Generalissimo and his Manchurian commander, General Tu Li-ming, for their announcement last week of a great Nationalist victory in Manchuria.

The Yenan radio, asserting that the Communist troops said to have been annihilated had returned to battle north of Changchun, said the government's 88th Division had been destroyed and the 87th Division probably destroyed.

274 Americans Leave China

PEIPING, March 16 (AP).—Another trainload of 274 Americans from the disbanded executive (truce) headquarters made an uneventful trip to the port of Tangku today and boarded the transport General A. W. Brewster en route home. Most of the remaining 800 Americans are due to leave early in April.

PEIPING, China, March 16 (AP)—Civilians are leaving the Communist capital of Yenan day and night, Col. John K. Sells, chief of the disbanded American Observer Group there, told newsmen today.

Returning from Yenan, he said that few persons remained in the city except for strictly essential workers. He reported that Government troops had pushed to the Malan area, about sixty miles south of Yenan, but he refused to guess whether they would attack the city.

Wang Says China Stands Firmly Back of the U. N.

NANKING, March 16 (AP).—China's Foreign Minister Wang Shih-chien, reporting on foreign affairs to the Kuomintang Central Executive Committee, said China will continue to support the United Nations.

Since its inauguration U. N. has grown in power and importance as a peace-preserving body, he declared. Despite stormy sessions, he said, "big as well as small nations have looked more and more upon U. N. as a guardian of world peace, and have unremittingly given support for its growth."

Wang said China will continue its basic policy of "maintaining traditional Sino-American friendship and furthering co-operation between the two nations."

Yellow River Back On Northern Course

Dikes Blown Up to Halt the Japanese Are Closed

SHANGHAI, March 16 (AP).—The government Central News Agency said today that the great gap in the Yellow River dikes had been closed at a point about four hundred miles northwest of Nanking and that the mighty stream had thus been sent back to its old, northern course.

The dikes at that point were blown up in 1938, by order of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and the river was sent coursing southward, across the path of Japanese armies marching toward Hankow.

The river inundated more than 15,000,000 square miles of fertile farmland in changing its course, and getting it back into its old bed has been a major relief project, undertaken by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

The Chinese Communists recently have been protesting against the closing of the gap, which is fifty miles west of the city of Kaifeng, on the ground that plans for resettling the people farming in the old river bed had not been completed.

They also charged that the government's prime objective was to split the Communist forces in Shantung Province. Most of the old channel runs through Communist-controlled territory.

'Grandma' Tutors Japs In English

Tokyo, March 16 (AP)—Sergt. Minnie Barber, who believes she is the oldest woman in the U. S. Army, celebrated her 53rd birthday today by carrying on her unofficial goodwill education program among the Japanese.

She is known as "Grandma" Barber to 500 enlisted WACS at the Mitsubishi main building, where she supervises their mess.

In her spare time since November she has taught 95 Japanese girl waitresses and twelve men kitchen helpers to speak passable English—despite the fact that she herself does not speak a word of Japanese.

Classes As Usual

Today she held her morning and evening classes as usual and found time also to go to the Red Cross to sew for the needy. Sergeant Barber is from Salamonia, Ind., between Fort Wayne and Muncie. Before joining the WAC in 1943, she taught school in southern Indiana for many years, besides rearing three children and helping with eight grandchildren. A native of Plum City, Wis., she received her teacher training at Mankato (Minn.) Normal College.

A son, Lester, 31, served as an air force corporal during the war and now lives at Tiffin, Ohio, as does a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Metcalf.

Joined WAC To See World

Her other daughter, Mrs. Bernice Hilifiker, still lives in Salamonia.

Sergeant Barber said she joined the WAC because she had wanted to travel ever since she was a young girl but never had the opportunity.

She organized her English instruction classes to help the waitresses take orders. Soon the men helpers asked if they could attend, and now she has the whole bunch understandably singing such numbers as "Moonlight on the Wabash," besides comprehending the menu.

Rationing Solves Slaying

Japan Villagers, Irked About Food, Tell on Killers

TOYAMA, Japan, March 16 (AP).—Police credited food rationing with the solution today of a killing which had been kept secret under a compact signed in blood.

The police said two brothers killed a nephew of theirs last summer by pushing him off a cliff near the remote mountain village of Shirohagi. Contending that he had been defective mentally, they induced the entire village to sign in blood a secrecy pledge. Recently the villagers split into two factions in a dispute over the mayor's rationing of food, and the opposition revealed the crime.

Communist Offices Raided

TOKYO, March 16 (AP).—The Kyodo news agency reported today that bands of masked youths on Friday night broke into the offices of the Japanese Communist party at Hakodate and Sapporo, on the island of Hokkaido, and carried off all the party rosters and other documents. It said the raiders, who were armed, were believed to be members of the "Japan Patriotic Youth League."

PACT SIGNING DELAYS RETURN OF McNUTT

MANILA, March 16. — (AP) Ambassador Paul V. McNutt today delayed his departure for Washington until Tuesday in order to permit formal signing of a 5-year military assistance pact between the Philippines and the United States.

A 99-year agreement covering American bases in this republic was signed Friday, but some last-minute changes on phrasing prevented signing of the military pact. Approval of the changes is expected from Washington probably Monday.

Noting these developments plus Tuesday's plebiscite approving equal economic opportunity for Americans in the Philippines, the anti-administration Manila Post commented, "about the only treaty that has not been concluded yet is one in which the United States directly offers to take back Philippine independence. Some wiseacres, however, opine that this is not necessary."

Buried Jewelry Recovered

Police Dig Up Manila Cache That Japanese Overlooked in '42

MANILA, March 16 (AP).—E. A. Perkins, an American lawyer here, reported to the police a week ago that he had been unable to find $9,000 worth of jewelry which he buried in the front yard of his residence on the night before the Japanese took Manila in 1942. He said he presumed it had been stolen.

The patient police spaded up the entire large yard and found all of the jewelry, which had been scattered unnoticed in dirt thrown out by the Japanese in building an air raid shelter.

Food Crisis Overcome

Manila, Monday, March 17 (AP)—The Philippines has overcome the worst food crisis in its history, Marino Garchitorena, Secretary of Agriculture, said today, with 88 per cent of prewar rice lands again in production.

MARTIAL LAW IN PALESTINE BEING LIFTED

New Outbreak Of Violence Coincides With Announcement

MAR 1947

Jerusalem, March 16 (AP)—The Palestine Government announced today that martial law in the Holy Land would end at noon tomorrow, but the announcement was met with fresh outbreaks of violence.

Explosions and gunfire in Jerusalem and on its outskirts kept the city on edge tonight. One of the explosions was the bomb-blasting of the pressroom of the Jewish Agency, located a few yards off Zion Square and scene of daily news conferences by Jewish spokesmen.

Breaks Distant Windows

The blast shattered windows of buildings at a considerable distance, damaged adjoining newspaper offices and a travel agency operated by the Jewish Agency, and knocked persons living above the pressroom from their beds, but there were no casualties, police said.

Police said this was the first attack in history on the Jewish institution and described the raiders as "Jewish terrorists." Unofficial sources attributed the attack to Irgun Zvai Leumi, underground Jewish resistance group, and added that it "may have been the answer to rumors that moderate Jewry now is tending to co-operate with the Palestine Government in the fight against the terrorists."

The Iraq Petroleum Company's pipeline across Palestine was broken by explosions in three places earlier in the night. An official announcement said extent of damage was unknown, but that there were no casualties.

Authorities also reported four military policemen injured when their jeep was blown up by a road mine at Tiberius on the shore of the Sea of Galilee.

May Be Reimposed

The announcement of the end of martial law warned that it would be reimposed quickly "if circumstances render it necessary."

The order, effective at noon (5 A.M. E.S.T.), will affect some 250,000 Jews in a 40-square-mile area in the vicinity of Tel Aviv and in the Jewish Mea Shearim district of Jerusalem, who have been isolated since March 2 by cordons of troops and guns.

A British communiqué, released simultaneously here and in London, called on the Jewish community to intensify co-operation with Palestine authorities in apprehending members of the underground.

Three Reasons Given

The announcement gave these principal reasons for the return to civil administration:

1. Troops and police have "completed their immediate task" of rounding up underground members responsible for recent acts of violence.

2. There have been "instances" of willingness on the part of the Jewish community to help the British eradicate terrorism.

3. Authorities did not desire to "extend indefinitely" the economic loss to the two areas. (One Jewish source last week estimated this loss at about $4,000,000 a day).

The first Arab reaction to the lifting of the two-week martial rule was an assertion by Dr. Hussein el Khalidi that "it is obvious this step was taken because of Zionist pressure in England and America."

Khalidi, secretary of the Arab Higher Executive, said in an interview "the most important thing to the Jews is the economic situation," that talk of Jewis co-operation in rounding up members of the underground was "all rubbish."

"What co-operation is needed?" he asked. "The Palestine Government knows every man in Irgun and Stern." (Irgun Zvai Leumi and the Stern group are the two principal Jewish underground organizations in the Holy Land.)

Dr. Nahum Goldman, London member of the Jewish Agency Executive, said Jews "welcomed the lifting of martial law" and added "we hope that the military power has realized that martial law is not a proper or effective way to uproot terrorists."

The communiqué said that military rule was imposed "as a result of a series of outrages, with the object of carrying out action by security forces against Jewish dissident groups."

"It had no other political purpose," the announcement added.

A Government spokesman said at a news conference that at least nineteen known leaders of the underground were still at large and were wanted on charges of terrorism. He added that large photographs of these men would be posted in public places and run in newspapers, thus giving the Jewish community an "opportunity to aid in stamping out terrorism."

He said that some known terrorists had been arrested during the last two weeks, but that he did not know whether they had been deported. Irgun has denied reports that twelve of its members have been captured.

Martial law was imposed after a series of bombings and gun attacks—including the blasting of a British officers' club in Jerusalem—in which 21 persons were killed.

Outbreaks of violence had continued during the period of martial law, both within and outside the military rule areas.

Early today, a group of persons identified officially as Jewish terrorists blew up a British army post exchange near Hadera.

STRICTER CONTROLS PLANNED IN PUNJAB

Leader of Sikhs Says Measures Will Approach Martial Law

Village Strife Goes On

MAR 1947

LAHORE, India, March 16 (AP)—Stringent measures approaching imposition of martial law to deal with the situation in riot-torn areas of the Punjab were predicted tonight by Giani Kartar Singh, Sikh leader, after a conference with Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Vice President of the Indian Interim Government.

Giani Kartar Singh, president of the supreme controlling body of the Sikhs, said that, "in view of the fast deteriorating and grave" situation in the province, ordinances of the Governor, Sir Evan Jenkins, and of the Viceroy to give more power to the military would be made effective soon.

Pandit Nehru is touring areas where Sikhs and Hindus have engaged in bloody clashes with Moslems after the Moslem League forced the resignation of the Anti-League coalition Government of the Punjab. Sir Evan took over the Government when the League proved unable to form its own administration, but he has been unable to suppress the communal fighting.

A communiqué today reported "heavy casualties" in religious strife at five villages in the northwest Punjab. More than 1,000 persons already had been killed in the communal strife in the province during the past two weeks.

A crowd of 3,000 persons attacking a village in the Jhelum district was driven off by troops and police, it was announced. Serious clashes also occurred in the Mianwaldi district, the communiqué said.

JAVA ATTACK LAUNCHED

Dutch Troops Move on Area That Controls Irrigation Dams

BATAVIA, Java, Monday, March 17 (AP)—Dutch troops were reported advancing today against Indonesian forces based at Mojokerto, thirty miles southeast of Surabaya and twelve miles beyond the present front.

The dams of Mojokerto control the irrigation system of the densely populated Porong delta of East Java.

An Indonesian Republican spokesman said the Netherlands Commissioner General notified Premier Sutan Sjahrir at midnight last night that the attack was being launched.

The fresh military action by the Dutch followed shortly after reports that they were ready to sign the Cheribon Agreement of last November recognizing the Indonesian Republic's sovereignty over Java, Sumatra and Madera as an equal partner with the Netherlands under the Dutch crown.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Baghdad reports of a protest over the FBI inquiry into affairs of the Arab office here were met tonight with a reiteration of the Justice Department's explanation that the law provides for such investigations of foreign agents. T. Lamar Caudle, assistant attorney general in charge of the criminal division, said last Tuesday that the inspection of the Arab records was "routine" and "contains no implications whatever with respect to the activities of the Arab office."

FBI Inquiry at Arab Office in Washington Arouses Baghdad

MAR 1947

BAGHDAD, Iraq, March 16 (AP)—A reliable source said today the Iraqi Foreign Office had called United States Ambassador George Wadsworth for consultations about the Federal Bureau of Investigation's inquiry into the Arab office in Washington.

Foreign Minister Fadhel Jamali has lodged a strong protest, contending that the investigation, although legal, was highly irregular and possibly inspired by American Zionist elements. The Baghdad newspaper Alwatan said the FBI move was a "most hostile act."

33 Pesetas to Dollar

TANGIER, Morocco, March 16 (AP).—The Spanish Peseta, which has been falling steadily for two months, was being sold today in the free market in this international city at 33 to the dollar. Two months ago, the rate was 25 to the dollar. Financial circles said one of the main reasons for the peseta's decline was a flight of capital from Spain.

Argentina Backs Union In 'La Prensa' Demands

BUENOS AIRES, March 16 (AP).—A newly formed labor union had on file today, with government support, financial demands on "La Prensa," Latin America's largest newspaper, following its publication of an American Federation of Labor report which charged that Argentine labor was a "political tool."

The Secretariat of Labor and Social Welfare, acceding to the union demands, has informed "La Prensa" it must discontinue its subscription lists and grant men and boys selling its week-day editions an additional margin of a half-centavo (one-eighth of an American cent) and an additional centavo for the Sunday edition. The newspaper was given until Tuesday to answer.

A management expert at "La Prensa" estimated the newspaper would have to pay $250,000 immediately in severance-pay indemnities to employees at present engaged in making deliveries, under the demand. The additional margin for vendors was estimated as an added cost of $187,500 a year.

Woman Dies From Truman Crush

MEXICO CITY, March 16 (AP)—Ana Maria Rozzaro, a reporter for the Havana newspaper Diario de la Marina, died here yesterday of complications of injuries suffered on March 3 when she was crushed and trampled in a crowd at the Mexico City stadium where a folk dance festival was being presented for President Truman.

TRUMAN FORECAST ON HOUSING FOR '47 CALLED 'TOO HIGH'

Creedon's Staff Sees 825,000 Homes as Tops; President Estimated Million.

HIGHER COSTS CITED

Report Recommends Government Continue Financial Aids, Controls.

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) Housing Expediter Frank R. Creedon's staff has told him that the estimate of 1,000,000 new homes to be started in 1947—mentioned by President Truman and predicted by other officials—is far too high.

No more than 825,000 can be begun even if congress continues federal controls and financial aids in full force, says the report, and only 750,000 if they are dropped. These figures include trailers and remodeling jobs as well as houses and apartments.

Say Estimate Too High

Mr. Truman declared in his economic message to congress that 1,000,000 new homes could be built this year. But the report of Creedon's staff says higher costs, materials scarcities and other factors stand in the way.

The report, which officials made available to a reporter today, embodies the research of a score of Creedon's staff members. It was edited by Michael Fooner, industrial specialist, and Edward Sard, deputy program chief in the expediter's office, and delivered to Creedon last week.

It recommends that the government continue its financial aids and controls—with emphasis on the financial assistance. The limitation on commercial and industrial building, Fooner and Sard wrote, should be kept at least through September.

The report may form the basis of Creedon's testimony tomorrow before the House Banking Committee which starts hearings on a bill by Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) to repeal immediately the Patman Emergency Housing Act. That law, written to expire Dec. 31, gives Creedon his powers as expediter and contains the authority for all construction controls including the limit on commercial building.

Creedon, generally regarded as an advocate of the earliest possible decontrol, is scheduled to testify after Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, temporary controls administrator.

Earlier Estimates Rejected

The Fooner-Sard report rejects most of the estimates on 1947 building issued by the Commerce Department, Bureau of Labor Statistics, and industry leaders.

It does preserve the figure of about $6,000,000 as the probable total of new residential building. But it puts the average cost at around $7,200 for all types of accommodations, instead of $6,000. This would mean that fewer houses would be built for the outlay.

Bigger shortages than those that plagued builders in 1946 are foreseen for millwork lumber, builders' hardware, bathtubs, toilet bowls, clay sewer pipe, door plywood, construction plywood, wire screening, box connectors for electrical wiring, toggle switches, and nails.

Despite remarkable increases in production of all building materials, including those mentioned, numerous other items will continue scarce although more plentiful than last year, the report adds. Among these it lists hardwood flooring, cast iron soil pipe, gypsum board and lath, and lavatories.

Two reasons are given for the asserted flaws in earlier rosy estimates:

1. They did not take into account the fact that with 500,000 homes started but awaiting completion as the year opened, the "carry-over" of unfinished housing is three times as great as in 1946. Such work has priority on the materials.

2. They were drawn on the supposition that the full two-year program of Wilson Wyatt, characterized by strict controls and lavish government help, would be carried out. The program was heavily slashed in December, when Wyatt resigned and Mr. Truman appointed Creedon.

The Civilian Production Administration's earlier estimate of 1947 output of gypsum board and lath, for instance, was 615,000 tons. If government aids are withdrawn after March 31, the Fooner-Sard study indicates, the total will run 133,000 tons lower, or enough for 444,000 housing units.

Fooner and Sard conclude that the goal of 900,000 permanent home completions will be achieved.

ARMY SPEEDS FOOD TO REICH

Hastens To Carry Out Hoover Plans For German Relief

Potato Ships

Portland, Maine, March 16 (AP). More than 100 longshoremen and freight handlers worked their first postwar Sunday today loading the first of 85,000 tons of seed potatoes bound to Germany into specially sheathed holds of waiting ships.

Seventeen potato-filled freight cars rolled into freight yards from Aroostock county, where snow had caused a transportation delay, and more were expected tomorrow.

Five of more than 15 ships which will carry potatoes from Portland are now docked.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Hastening to meet the recommendations of Herbert Hoover for German relief, the Army reported tonight supplies for soup-kitchen feeding are arriving in Germany, and that seeds are ready for shipment.

A summary statement by the War Department said "immediate action on Mr. Hoover's recommendations has been taken." Secretary Patterson declared that the expenditures recommended by Hoover (he estimated the American share at $283,500,000) "fully support the amounts for which the War Department has asked Congress."

Food And Seed Potatoes

The department's announcement said that surplus army foods, including large amounts of 10-in-1 rations, are reaching Germany, assigned for soup-kitchen feeding of an estimated 3,500,000 children and 1,000,000 aged in the combined American and British occupation zones.

Through co-operation of the Agriculture Department, the Army's share of seed potatoes has been purchased and seven ships a week are scheduled to load at American ports in time to get the seed to Germany for spring planting. Buying of food potatoes will be postponed in line with a later recommendation by Hoover. Buying of other seeds has been authorized by Patterson, subject to British agreement to make similar purchases.

Studies are under way directed at expanding production of nitrogenous fertilizers here and obtaining elsewhere in the world more phosphate fertilizers.

German Crews For Laid-Up Ships

Congress will be asked to permit chartering of laid-up Liberty ships, to be operated by German crews. Hoover estimated the annual saving for the British and American governments, if 75 ships are operated by German crews would be about $40,000,000.

Where matters are beyond the sole control of the Army, discussions have been started through the State Department. In this category, the subjects include proposals for:

1. Furnishing surplus fish by Norway, Denmark and Sweden.

2. Making better fishing grounds nearer the Baltic and North Sea coasts available for use by the German fishing fleets.

3. Use of French ports for German fishing craft in emergencies.

The Army also is checking to see whether any of its own ships or those of the Navy or other organizations could be used to increase the size of the German fishing fleet.

Reece Accuses Truman of Trying 'To Sabotage' Republican Plans

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) Carroll Reece, chairman of the Republican National committee, today accused President Truman of personally helping "to sabotage" the Republican program and of allowing the "federal propaganda machine to be directed toward that same destructive end."

Reece made his complaint against the Democratic president in a letter addressed to 7,500 Republican office holders, party officials, and leaders throughout the nation.

In addition, Reece expressed the opinion that Mr. Truman will be a candidate for re-election in 1948 and that use of the federal "propaganda mill" to oppose the Republican program will be part of the Democratic campaign strategy.

The Republican chairman, said that Mr. Truman, after the election of the Republican Congress last November, promised "cooperation" with the Republican Congress and "its responsibilities to the American people."

Those responsibilities, the committee chairman said, included pledges to reduce government expenditures, to curtail the national debt, to cut taxes and "a realistic and just solution of the problem of labor-management relations."

"So," Reece said in his letter, "how did Mr. Truman manifest his 'cooperation' with Congress in the carrying out of the program for which the people had voted?

"His $37,500,000,000 budget was a direct defiance of the mandate for economy.

"He made only a token gesture toward curtailment of the national debt.

"He opposed any reduction in taxes at this time.

"On the subject of labor-management relations he proposed the creation of another commission to 'study' this problem—as though the American people through the unhappy experiences of the preceding 14 years had not acquired more knowledge than they wanted in that field.

"Moreover, in addition to what the President has done personally to sabotage the Republican program he has allowed the full force of the tremendous federal propaganda machine—part of the executive branch which he heads—to be directed toward that end."

"40,000 Propagandists"

Reece said that payrolls last year of the executive agencies included more than 40,000 propagandists costing $75,000,000 annually.

Although he said there has been some slight curtailment, Reece added that "this huge propaganda mill is operating in many cases to defeat or sabotage the legislative program of those who vote the funds for its maintenance."

"Republicans everywhere," Reece cautioned, "should keep in mind the existence—temporary, it is to be hoped—of this publicly financed propaganda mill when they read articles or listen to broadcast emphasizing differences or disagreements among Republicans in Congress or tending to inspire doubts that the Republican party will keep its promises to the people."

NORWEGIAN EMBASSY GIVES FLAGSTAD DATA

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—The Norwegian Embassy will not oppose Kirsten Flagstad's plans to become a United States citizen, Ambassador Wilhelm M. Morgenstierne said today. But when asked to comment on the Norwegian soprano's announcement of her plans in New York yesterday, Mr. Morgenstierne said that "we feel under obligation to give these facts to the American press":

1. That a relative of Miss Flagstad requested Norwegian aid to help her go from the United States to Norway in 1941 to join her husband, the late Henry Johansen, whom Mr. Morgenstierne described as a member of the "Quisling" party. He said his Government, then in London, "refused to give her any assistance," but that, nevertheless, she succeeded in reaching Norway via Portugal and Germany.

2. That Emil Stang, Chief Justice of the Norwegian Supreme Court, has "modified" a testimonial which he gave to Miss Flagstad in December, 1945. The Ambassador said that the testimonial was "modified" to cover only Miss Flagstad's stay in Norway "after 1941" and did not cover her residence in the United States in 1940-41 and her trip back to Norway.

In reply to Ambassador Morgenstierne's statement that he will not oppose her plans for American citizenship, Miss Flagstad commented here yesterday, "I don't care what he says, or what he does."

Cultural Ties With Austria Resumed

U. S. Will Send Musical, Art and Literary Material

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP).—The State and War Departments announced tonight resumption of normal cultural relations between the United States and Austria.

A joint announcement released simultaneously in Washington and Vienna said the United States hopes this will encourage organizations and institutions in both countries to promote cultural exchanges.

The United States move was made in accordance with the Moscow declaration of 1943 regarding Austria and with terms of the four-power agreement on new control machinery for Austria of June 28, 1946.

Under this new policy declaration, the United States government will encourage the sending to Austria of books, art work, noncommercial films, recordings, musical scores and other cultural materials.

BIDDLE NOMINATION TO U. N. IS DELAYED

Vandenberg Seen 'Freezing' Presidential Appointment to Economic Council

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Republican, of Michigan, has pigeonholed President Truman's appointment of Francis Biddle to the United Nations Economic and Social Council. The group's New York sessions probably will end before the Senate acts.

Foreign Relations Committee members disclosed today there had been no discussion within the committee of the appointment. Some Republicans reported cloakroom talk of opposition to Mr. Biddle on the ground that he represented a "New Deal" philosophy they disliked.

President Truman sent to the Senate Jan. 29 the nomination of Mr. Biddle, former Attorney General, to succeed John G. Winant, who resigned. The nomination was assigned that day to the Foreign Relations Committee which Mr. Vandenberg heads.

As one of the authors of the bipartisan foreign policy he has striven to keep in effect, the Michigan Senator has gone along in the past with all of President Truman's appointments to diplomatic posts.

But when asked whether he had put a "freeze order" on the Biddle nomination, Mr. Vandenberg merely grinned and replied: "No comment."

One Democratic committee member, who asked not to be quoted by name, expressed belief that action might come along on Mr. Biddle after the Senate cleared the President's controversial nomination of David E. Lilienthal as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission. Mr. Vandenberg is expected to take a leading role in support of that nomination when it comes before the Senate, probably late this week.

Soviet Effort to Regain Alaska Declared Likely

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP).—Representative Bertrand W. Gearhart, Republican, of California, said today that Russia "is looking at Alaska with covetous eyes."

He declared that the Soviets contend its purchase by the United States from the Czarist government in 1867 was illegal and demanded that the State Department say whether Moscow is seeking the return of the rich and strategic territory.

Representative Gearhart told a reporter he will raise the question in the House tomorrow in connection with President Truman's program to curb Communist expansion by sending money, materials and experts to Greece and Turkey.

In raising the subject of Alaska, Mr. Gearhart declared that "the American people have a right to know what, if any, secret conversations have been held between our diplomats and the Russians on this important problem."

He noted that the State Department previously has disclaimed knowlwedge of any discussions concerning Alaska, but he added that "if memory serves, we were told that there were no secret agreements made during th Yalta and Tehran conoference. Later we learned to our amazement that our leaders had in fact made secret agreements of colossal importance at these conferences."

"Alaska," he said, "is on a direct line between potential aggressors and our industrial centers. It goes without saying Alaska should be fortified so that it shall become an impregnable barrier to any predatory power."

BOYINGTON AIDS JAPANESE

Marine Flier Says Accused Man Is American at Heart

LOS ANGELES, March 16 (AP)—Col. Gregory (Pappy) Boyington said today he would send a deposition to be used by a defense attorney in a Tokyo war crime trial of James K. Sasaki, a Japanese who was an interpreter at the Ofuna prison camp outside Yokohama, where the Marine fighter ace was held.

"Sasaki is an American at heart," Colonel Boyington told a reporter here. "We often talked at camp. I know he was returned to Japan against his will when war came. Although he was in a tough spot, he helped us all he could."

Sasaki, a law graduate of the University of Southern California, came to this country when he was 9 years old.

JET FIGHTER PASSES ARMAMENT TESTS

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—(AP) The Army Air Forces said today that a Lockheed P-80A Shooting Star jet fighter has successfully passed military requirements for armament, and that one of the planes had fired 64,000 rounds of standard .50 caliber machine gun ammunition.

Army air forces specifications require that each machine gun fire at least 10,000 rounds without a malfunction or structural breakdown.

ASK TREATY REVISION BY SENATE FOR ITALY

ALBANY, March 16—Rejection of the proposed peace treaty with Italy was urged upon the United States Senate today in a resolution adopted unanimously by the State Executive Committee of the Columbian Republican League.

The resolution stated that the instrument was "based on concepts that treat Italy as an enemy rather than a co-belligerent and without consideration for the sacrifices and contributions made by the 48,000,000 people in Italy toward Allied victory."

The league, headed by P. E. Provenzano of Rochester, made its position known in a telegram to Senator Irving M. Ives. In another telegram to Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the league urged public hearings on the proposed treaty at which its key officials might testify.

Completing a two-day conference, the committee proposed modifications in the treaty that would:

Establish the Italo-Yugoslav boundary on the basis of the Wilson line under which Trieste would remain Italian.

Permit Italy to retain all the colonies it had before Fascist assumption of power.

Waive war reparations from Italy because of war contributions.

Grant Italy membership in the United Nations.

UN Delegates Eye Gromyko For Clue to Soviet Policy

MAR 1947

Expected To Blast American Plans to Aid in Balkan Crisis.

MARCK

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., March 16 (AP)—Attention was foscused on Andrei A. Gromyko today for some clue to soviet policy within the United Nations in the light of American plans to step into the Balkans.

The Russian delegate has three major opportunities for comment or setting forth any new Soviet position in the next few days.

Tomorrow the Security Council meets to continue debate on the Pacific Islands and on Wednesday the Atomic Energy Commission, with Gromyko as chairman, will convene to again take up its report on international control. In addition the council will gather, probably Tuesday, to discuss a report on Great Britain's mine-laying charges against Albania.

Russian Statement Awaited

While these subjects generally would be considered outside the range of the Balkan question, observers were quick to note that Russia never has hesitated to make policy pronouncements at such off moments. For instance at Moscow the Soviet Union injected the problem of China into the first session of the foreign ministers council which convened to discuss Germany.

Noting the attitude of the government press in Moscow, it would be assumed that Gromyko would accuse the United States of by-passing the United Nations in its program for Greece and Turkey.

Tomorrow's council meeting will be the first since the text of President Truman's speech was available to delegates.

Varied "reaction" stories continue to emanate from headquarters here on the effect of the American step on the U.N.

United States Delegate Warren R. Austin made it clear last week that his government had no intention to belittle or by-pass the U.N. and that he believed the American program would strengthen the world agency. He further brought out that the United States felt that the UN was not yet ready to handle such a problem.

At the moment Austin was represented as feeling that he has made the position sufficiently clear. However, the possibility was not discounted that he might speak on the subject officially before the council should circumstances, such as a direct Russian attack, make such a course advisable.

Balkan Issue Takes Spotlight

Meanwhile, the current UN issues were more or less overshadowed by the board implications of the American policy in the Balkans.

Discussions on the American proposal to take over the Japanese mandated islands under a "strategic area" trusteeship with the United States as sole administrator probably will be monopolized by statements from four nations not on the council. At the direct request of New Zealand and India, these two countries along with the Netherlands, the Philippines and Canada were invited to participate.

Canada said it had no plans to appear but Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar, president of the economic and social council, will speak for India; Deputy Prime Minister Walter Nash for New Zealand; Dr. Eelco N. Van Kleffens, former security council delegate, for the Netherlands; and Salvadore P. Lopez for the Philippines.

None have indicated any major opposition to the terms, but were expected to offer a series of amendments.

BALDWIN TO VISIT JAPAN AND KOREA

Director of Civil Liberties Union to Make Two-Month Survey, Report to Washington

16

Roger N. Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties Union, will leave next week for Japan and Korea for a two-month survey of civil liberties in those areas.

Invited by the United States Army General Headquarters in Tokyo to serve as a consultant, Mr. Baldwin declined, but decided to go independently in an unofficial capacity. His trip has the sanction of the War Department, however, and he will make a report to Washington when he returns.

Explaining his reluctance to serve in an official capacity, the union said, "both the services requested by the War Department and the more general purpose of assisting democratic forces in Japan and Korea can be better accomplished in an unofficial role."

Obligation to Assist

Mr. Baldwin said the union was under obligation to assist in applying the principles of the Bill of Rights wherever American responsibility extends.

"These principles are clearly challenged in the Far East, not only by communism, but by the enormous tasks of reconstructing a shattered economy," he went on. "It is clear that only as democracy succeeds will communism lose its appeal. These especially critical issues in the Far East under American control justify a leave of absence from our not inconsiderable job of extending civil liberties at home."

While he is gone, his duties as director of the union will be performed by Clifford Forster, staff counsel, and Frederick E. Robin, assistant director.

Represents Two Other Groups

In his survey Mr. Baldwin will represent, in addition to the union, two international organizations, the World Federation of United Nations Association and the International League for the Rights of Man. He plans to aid in establishing national affiliates of these agencies in several Far Eastern countries.

The international league, in a separate statement, disclosed that it had sent a message to the Moscow conference of the Big Four Foreign Ministers urging them to consider the United Nations Charter on human rights in drafting the peace treaties for Japan, Austria and Germany.

In a resolution adopted by the board of directors, the league asked that the peace treaties include provisions for international control and implementation of human rights through the United Nations pending a general international system.

Fokker Aircraft Director Here

Pieter A. Van de Velde, director of the Fokker Aircraft Company, arrived at La Guardia Field yesterday aboard a Royal Dutch Airline plane for a five-week tour of American aircraft plants. He said he also would seek licenses to manufacture in the Netherlands spare parts for American aircraft being operated abroad by foreign airlines.

JERUSALEM, MARCH 16-(AP)-A PARTIAL TEXT OF THE PALESTINE GOVERNMENT'S COMMUNIQUE ON THE LIFTING OF STATUTORY MARTIAL LAW:
(280)

IT HAS BEEN DECIDED TO WITHDRAW THE STATUTORY MARTIAL LAW AND RESUME CIVIL ADMINISTRATION IN TEL AVIV AND JERUSALEM WITH EFFECT FROM 12 NOON ON MONDAY, 17TH MARCH. IN THIS CONNECTION IT IS POINTED OUT MARTIAL LAW WAS IMPOSED AS A RESULT OF A SERIES OF OUTRAGES WITH THE OBJECT OF CARRYING OUT ACTION BY SECURITY FORCES AGAINST JEWISH DISSIDENT GROUPS. IT HAD NO OTHER POLITICAL PURPOSE.

THE ARMY AND POLICE HAVE COMPLETED THEIR IMMEDIATE TASK AND AN APPRECIABLE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI AND STERN GANG HAVE BEEN APPREHENDED. MOREVER, MUCH VALUABLE INFORMATION HAS BEEN GAINED FOR THE PURPOSE OF FUTURE OPERATIONS AGAINST THEM. DURING THE TIME MARTIAL LAW HAS BEEN IN FORCE THERE HAVE BEEN INSTANCES IN THE COMMUNITY OF WILLINGNESS TO ASSIST IN THE ERADICATION OF THE SENSELESS EVIL WHICH IS STULTIFYING ANY HOPE OF FINDING A PEACEFUL MODUS VIVENDI DURING THE PERIOD WHICH WILL ELAPSE BEFORE THE PALESTINE QUESTION IS CONSIDERED BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

FURTHERMORE, IT IS NOT DESIRED TO EXTEND INDEFINITELY THE LOSS OF UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISLOCATION IN THE ECONOMIC SITUATION OF THE TWO LOCALITIES.

FOR THESE REASONS MARTIAL LAW IS BEING LIFTED AND OPPORTUNITY IS THUS BEING GIVEN TO THE COMMUNITY TO INTENSIFY AND NOT DIMINISH THEIR COOPERATION, WHICH IS ESSENTIAL TO FREE THE COUNTRY FROM THE TERRORIST ACTIVITY WHICH HAS BEEN SO WIDELY CONDEMNED BY ALL RESPONSIBLE BODIES AND PEOPLE. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT IT WILL NOT BE NECESSARY TO RESORT TO THESE SEVERE MEASURES AGAIN, BUT IT MUST BE STATED SO THAT THERE SHOULD BE NO MISUNDERSTANDING THAT THIS OR A SIMILAR PROCESS CAN AND WILL BE APPLIED AT ANY TIME AND IN ANY PLACE IF, IN THE VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT, CIRCUMSTANCES RENDER IT NECESSARY. IT IS CLEARLY IN THE INTERESTS OF BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE JEWISH COMMUNITY THAT SUCH ACTION SHOULD BE AVOIDED IF POSSIBLE.

OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSALS WOULD BE NEW AND EFFECTIVE ACTION BY THE UNITED STATES IN SUPPORTING WITH ALL OUR STRENGTH OUR POLICY IN THE UNITED NATIONS."

THAT POLICY IS A PLEDGE TO ASSUME LEADERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS AS ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL COUNTRIES IN THE WORLD.

AMERICAN SOURCES CONTEND THAT IT IS THE DUTY OF THE UNITED STATES TO AID WEAK COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD UNTIL SUCH A TIME AS THE UNITED NATIONS CAN ASSUME AND CARRY OUT SUCH RESPONSIBILITIES.

UNDER THE PROPOSED U.S. PLAN TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY, DOLLARS ARE SUGGESTED AS THE FIRST STEP TO REHABILITATE GREECE. BUT, AT THE SAME TIME, IT IS OBVIOUS THAT POLITICAL COMMITMENTS MAY NOT BE VERY FAR BEHIND. EVIDENCE OF THIS IS THE PLAN FOR TRAINING AND EQUIPPING A GREEK ARMY.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN MADE IT CLEAR THAT SUCH SUPPORT WAS AIMED AT HALTING THE WORLD TIDE OF COMMUNISM.

THUS, THERE EMERGES A BASIC CONFLICT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

ALREADY, THE UNITED STATES HAS MOVED ABOUT IN CHINA, AIDING THE GOVERNMENT OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK WHILE LETTING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS FEND FOR THEMSELVES.

TOO, THE UNITED STATES HAS UNDERTAKEN A PROMINENT ROLE IN GERMANY, AUSTRIA, ITALY, JAPAN AND KOREA.

IN EVERY AREA WHERE U. S. HELP IS INVITED OR CONTEMPLATED, THE ISSUES ARE FUNDAMENTALLY STRATEGIC AS WELL AS ECONOMIC.

IN GREECE, THE FUTURE OF THE DARDANELLES AND THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN ARE REALLY AT THE CORE OF THE PROBLEM. RUSSIA LONG HAS SHOWN INTEREST IN A FREE-WATER OUTLET TO THE MEDITERRANEAN.

BOTH GREECE AND TURKEY ARE THE LAST BULWARKS AGAINST RUSSIAN DESIRES TO BECOME A POWER IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

Molotov For Unifying Germany, Asks 10 Billions in Reparations

Russ Reparation Plan Asks $10 Billion In 20 Years Of Reich

Moscow, March 17 (AP)—Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, of Russia, demanded from the Foreign Ministers' conference today a twenty-year reparation-payment plan by which Germany would pay the Soviet Union $10,000,000,000.

Molotov asked for a four-power control of the Ruhr and immediate cancellation of the American-British zonal fusion.

The Russian diplomat demanded also removal from Germany of capital goods such as factories for reparations, a division of German assets held abroad and reparations from current production. He said the twenty-year payment period should date from the signing of the Potsdam Agreement in 1945.

Even Pessimists Exceeded

Molotov said the agreed level of German production in steel should be raised from 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 tons annually to provide for reparations payments.

Molotov proposed that central agencies be created in Germany to administer the reparation program.

The Russian demands went beyond what even the most pessimistic western observers though the Soviet Union would seek.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, first of the ministers to present his views on economic unity, also asked for an increased level for German industry.

Rules Out New Costs

Bevin pointed out, however, that any economic merger of all the occupation zones of Germany would require that all the zones share equally in the cost. He said he would make his full proposal later, but added that the carrying out of the Potsdam provision for reparations only in capital goods was a British idea of the right method.

Bevin warned that his Government under no circumstances would undertake obligations in Germany entailing addition cost.

Bevin made it plain that before the British would agree to any economic unity in Germany, the Soviet Union would have to furnish detailed data on what factories they had removed from the Eastern Zone, of the remaining assets.

Sees Potsdam Violated

"Any agreement on economic unity which ignores these essential requirements of German economic unity would add to our burden," he was quoted as saying. "I cannot and I will not be a party to any such agreement.

Molotov, in a long attack on the Western powers, declared that the United States, Great Britain and France had violated the Potsdam accord. He indicated that the Soviet Union opposed French action on the Saar, creating a French customs union with that German industrial region.

He alleged that the United States and Britain had violated the Potsdam agreement by fusing their zones and that the British had broken the pact by taking over the coal and steel production of the Ruhr.

Cites Earlier Meetings

Before presenting Russia's reparation claim, Molotov recalled the Yalta and Potdam meetings of the chiefs of state of the Big Three powers as proof that agreement had ben reached that Russia should get $10,000,000,000 of the $20,000,000,000 reparations claimed against Germany.

Bevin was reported to have drafted a letter to Molotov rejecting Molotov's proposal for a special conference on China. Bevin took a stand similar to Secretary of State Marshall's but in addition was reported to have stressed that Britain viewed the Chinese matter as primarily between the United States and Russia.

Moscow Radio Report

Some diplomats said Bevin's reported letter showed a British trend toward a secondary role in issues on which she could gracefully seek a neutral line.

[Deputies of the Foreign Ministers' Council discussed procedure for writing a German peace treaty again today, the Moscow radio announced.

["The representatives of the U.S.A. and Great Britain again made a number of proposals which contradict the main principles of the Berlin (Potsdam) agreement envisaging that the preparation of the peace treaty should be entrusted to the Council of Foreign Ministers," the broadcast, heard in London, said.]

"Sea With No Shores"

In a meeting of deputy Foreign Ministers, the United States launched a plea for wider participation by smaller nations in drafting the peace for Germany. Ambassador Robert Murphy urged a formula that would admit 26 countries, instead of the four powers and eighteen smaller countries heretofore invited to present their views to the deputies at London. Murphy's list added Mexico, Bolivia, Iran and the Philippines.

Murphy was opposed by the Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, Andrei Vishinsky, who said he wanted every nation approved separately rather than admitted by a general formula. He said he did not object to Iran.

In objecting to a French proposal on the same subject, Vishinsky attacked any participation by Turkey and quoted what he said were the words of a United States politician that "Turkey grew fat on the war."

Vishinsky objected to a British proposal to set up four committees consisting of representatives of the Big Four and all the eighteen smaller states represented at London to handle various treaty-drafting chores. Vishinsky said the British plan was a "large, deep sea with no shores" and would turn the drafting committees into debating societies that would never accomplish anything.

Marshall-Stalin Talk Forecast.

An early meeting between Marshall and Stalin, which is likely to have far-reaching effects on Soviet-American relations generally, was predicted by diplomats as the Foreign Ministers began their seventh session at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon.

While Marshall never tips off his moves ahead of time, he was believed fully prepared to discuss the recent American actions in regard to Greece and Turkey and to emphasize that the United States views the situation with concern.

[President Truman asked Congress last Wednesday for $400,000,000 for financial and economic assistance to Greece and Turkey in line with a policy of supporting "free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or by outside pressures."]

Bevin Backs U. S. on China.

Meanwhile today British informants said that Bevin was aligning himself with Marshall in rejecting Molotov's request for a conference on China, and a solid Anglo-American front against interference in China's internal affairs seemed to have developed.

Molotov Demand Brings Challenge From Marshall

Moscow, Wednesday, March 18 (AP)—Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, demanded last night that Germany pay the Soviet Union $10,000,000,000 in reparations over a twenty-year period—a demand that drew an immediate challenge from Gen. George C. Marshall.

The American Secretary of State, taking sharp issue with the Russian diplomat, declared that Germany must be made self-sufficient before reparations are skimmed from production.

Refuses To Pay An Ally

"We cannot accept a unified Germany under a procedure which would, in effect, mean that the American people would pay reparations to an ally," Marshall asserted at the session of the Foreign Minister's Council.

Meanwhile, authoritative sources said the United States would oppose spreading any German war payments over a twenty-year period on the ground that that would be too long a time to impose such a financial burden on Germany and that such a continuing debt would hinder Germany's recovery for years to come.

MAR 1947

MAR 1947

30 24 - 8545

Attempts will be made, the sources said, to have the Russians agree to cut down the payment period considerably. It was understood that Britain probably would adopt a similar attitude toward the twenty-year program.

Presents Other Demands

Besides startling the conference with his reparations plan, Molotov delivered a savage attack on the Western powers — The United States, Great Britain and France—in which he demanded:

1. Immediate nullification of the economic merger of the British and American occupation zones in Germany.

2. Four-power control of the industrially rich Ruhr, now in the British zone.

3. Raising of the German level of industry to 12,000,000 tons of steel a year so that the output could be used for reparations.

Calls For Central Agencies

4. Creation of central agencies in Germany to administer the reparations program.

5. Measures to increase German exports, improve her financial and currency conditions, and place control of cartels and trusts under the state.

Molotov's long tirade against the western powers was listened to by Marshall with an icy mien throughout the four-hour-and-fifteen-minute session—the longest to date.

The Rusian's charges that the western powers had violated repeatedly economic agreements reached at Potsdam and Yalta drew a sharp rebuke from Marshall.

"I do not agree with the basis and/or logic of much that he said," Marshall declared. "But charges and countercharges get us nowhere except in the development of greater differences. They do not solve our problems. They do complicate them."

The biggest surprise in Molotov's program was that reparations payments be staggered over twenty years, dating from the signing of the Potsdam agreement. The original Potsdam declaration set two years for the completion of reparations removals.

Called Less Than Tenth

He said that the Allies had agreed at Potsdam and Yalta that Russia should receive $10,000,000,000, and that this figure represented less than one tenth of the war damage suffered by the Soviet Union. He also demanded that the reparations be set at 1938 world prices.

[James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State, said last July that Russia had received directly or indirectly $14,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany. In addition, Russia has received many German factories, including plants in the American zone of occupation which were transferred intact to the Soviet Union.]

Molotov listed what he said were three specific violations of the Potsdam agreement by Western powers. These were:

1. By the British, in taking over the coal and iron of the Ruhr.

2. By the French, in severing the Saar.

3. By the British and Americans, in the economic fusion of their zones.

Bevin Warns On Cost

Secretary Bevin, like Molotov and Marshall, called for an increase in German production, and warned that any economic merger of all the zones in Germany would require all occupying powers to share the cost equally.

He declared that Britain would not undertake new obligations which would increase the costs of the occupation of Germany.

Bevin also made it plain that Russia would have to furnish a full report on what factories had been removed from eastern Germany, and what factories were left, before Britain would agree to a merger of all zones.

"Any agreement on economic unity which ignores these essential requirements of German economy would add to our burden," said Bevin. "I cannot and I will not be a party to any such agreement."

Bidault And Stalin Confer

Meanwhile, Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, conferred with Prime Minister Stalin for an hour and a half last night, French sources said. No information was available immediately as to the nature of their discussion.

Bidault was the first of the visiting ministers to see Stalin and it was expected that Marshall and Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, would follow suit shortly.

Emphasis On Exports

Marshall placed particular stress on an import-export program to enable Germany to pay her own way, and, like Molotov, recommended establishment of central German agencies.

"An export-import program for Germany as a whole shall be instituted promptly to enable Germans to pay for approved imports at the earliest possible date, taking into account the importance of German exports to European recovery," Marshall said in a lengthy statement. "Any interim deficit in the German balance of international payments shall be borne among the occupying powers as may be agreed in the Allied Control Council."

Demands Sharing Of Cost

Marshall declared that the occupying powers also must reach an understanding on "sharing approximately the cost of importing food needed to prevent starvation."

The United States Secretary said Russia had not disclosed how much of Germany's current production had been removed to the Soviet Union, but "it is believed that these quantities have been substantial."

"We regard these removals to be inconsistent with the Potsdam agreement which requires Germany to be treated as an economic whole and prescribes the common use of resources and application of export proceeds in the first place to payment of imports," Marshall said.

Note On China Reported

Meanwhile, informed sources said that Bevin, following the lead of Marshall, had rejected formally a Russian proposal that Britain, Russia and the United States discuss the China question.

This information said Bevin had sent a letter to Molotov expressing similar views to those announced yesterday by Marshall, but also emphasizing that in Britain's opinion the question was primarily one involving the United States and Russia.

Some diplomatic sources said Bevin's reported stand was further evidence of a British move toward a secondary role in great power issues, when she can more or less gracefully seek to avoid responsibilities which exceed her real power.

Russ See Brass Leading U.S.

By Eddy Gilmore

Moscow, March 17 (AP)—The military character of the United States delegation to the Big Four Foreign Ministers' conference, coupled with President Truman's aid-to-Greece-and-Turkey speech, seems to have given many Russians the notion that the military is in the saddle in the United States.

Several educated Russians, informed on international affairs, commented to this writer on the makeup of the delegation at a dinner last night.

"Just look at your delegation!" said one. "It's headed by a man who, no matter how high his qualities as a humanitarian statesman, is a general at heart."

Another Russian picked up a picture of the opening session of the conference and pointed to it.

"And sitting on General Marshall's left," he said, "is United States Ambassador Smith, another general."

The group then brought up, in rapid order, the names of Gen. Mark W. Clark and Maj. Gen. William H. Draper, Jr. Another general—Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay—arrived from Berlin yesterday.

"To use an American expression," suggested one Russian, "the United States has enough brass present at this conference table to make a brass statue of a general."

There is an inclination among some Americans here to feel that Mr. Truman's plan and the resolute American stands at the Council of Foreign Ministers have more or less swept the Russians off their feet and rocked them back on their heels.

Some go so far as to think this resoluteness on the part of the United States now is paying off in dividends and that the Soviet Union is softening up.

In the opinion of this correspondent they could not be farther from the truth. In the first place the Russians do not frighten easily. Secondly, they generally have a very active course and pursue it. They seldom go to conferences or participate in them with negative

Small-Power Plan Hit By Pravda

Moscow, March 17 (AP)—The Soviet commentator Yuri Zhukov declared in Pravda today, in a discussion of small-power participation in the German peace making, that efforts were being renewed to force the will of the majority on the minority by the method of "mechanical voting."

Referring to the decision of the Council of Foreign Ministers in New York to invite eighteen smaller powers to present their views on the treaty, Zhukov said this represented a big step forward from the Paris Peace Conference.

"It can be definitely stated," Zhukov declared, "that never before has such a democratic procedure been proposed in the question of making peace treaties."

"Obstinate Efforts"

Nevertheless, he said, Britain and the United States were making "obstinate efforts" to broaden the agreement in order to "compose a peace treaty in their interests which has nothing to do with international collaboration."

"Small countries who took part in the struggle have a full right to participate in consultations, and this right should be given them," said Zhukov.

Bevin Also Rejects Bid To Conference on China

MOSCOW, March 17 (AP).—An informed source said today that British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, following the lead of American Secretary of State George C. Marshall, had rejected formally a Russian proposal that Great Britain, Russia and the United States discuss the China question.

The informant said Mr. Bevin had sent a letter to Soviet Foreign Minister Viacheslav M. Molotov expressing views similar to those announced yesterday by Mr. Marshall but also stressing that, in Britain's opinion, the question was primarily one involving the United States and Russia.

Some diplomatic sources said Mr. Bevin's reported stand was further evidence of a move by Britai ntoward a secondary role on great-power issues when she can more or less gracefully seek to avoid responsibilities which exceed her real power.

Russians See Military Behind U. S. Policies

By Eddy Gilmore

Moscow, March 17 (AP).—Many Russians, jolted by the latest turn in American foreign policy, profess to believe that high military authorities in the United States inspired President Truman's plea to Congress for financial aid to Greece and Turkey.

In support of this belief they cite the leading role taken by American military men at the present Conference of Foreign Ministers.

Several Russians, persons with a wide understanding of international affairs and familiar with the Council of Foreign Ministers, commented to this writer at a dinner last night on the United States delegation now in Moscow.

Referring to Secretary Marshall, former United States Army Chief of Staff, one Russian said: "Just look at your delegation. It is headed by a man who, no matter how high his qualities as a humanitarian statesman, is a general at heart."

In addition the names of Brig. Gen. William H. Draper, Gen. Mark Clark and Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, all top advisers to Marshall here, came in for mention.

The attitude expressed may well be said to represent a cross-section Russian view of the present American diplomatic setup. The Russians believe the military is in the saddle in the United States and behind the plan for giving aid to Greece and Turkey.

programs. Thirdly, they see real danger signs ahead.

Unquestionably conferences are being held nightly in the circles of persons who lead the Soviet Union. Russia's next course is being decided. There is serious doubt if anyone in these conferences has been frightened by Mr. Truman's proposal.

Russia Computes Her War Expense

Moscow, Tuesday, March 18 (AP). V. M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, told the four-power Foreign Ministers Council today that the German and Japanese wars cost the Soviet Union a total of $357,000,000,000.

He said the Soviet Union suffered destruction by the Germans of 1,710 towns, 7,000 villages and 6,000,000 buildings which made 25,000,000 people homeless. Molotov also declared that more than 35,000 factories and 40,000 hospitals were destroyed.

He fixed the cost of direct damage caused by the German armies and their Allies on Soviet territory at $128,000,000,000.

NEW CHARGE IN PRAVDA

Soviet Paper Says Britain and France Standardize Arms

MOSCOW, March 17 (AP)—Pravda's Brussels correspondent wrote ni that Communist party newspaper today that it had been confirmed in journalistic circles that France and Britain were carrying on preliminary talks on arms standardization.

"Different suppositions are being advanced on this occasion," he said. "It is suggested, by the way, that the discussions include complete standardization of all kinds of armaments of a ground army, even to hand-fired weapons, as well as training of officer cadres.

"It is noted that although the question of standardization is not official yet, standardization in reality is already being carried out in practice. For instance, many units of the French Army at present are armed with American or British weapons."

Molotovs to Give Reception

MOSCOW, March 17 (AP).—The Russians today scheduled for tomorrow night their first social event of the current Foreign Ministers conference. Foreign Minister Viacheslav M. Molotov and Mrs. Molotov will give a full-dress reception at 10 p. m. at the House of Soviet Aviation Industry, the place where the conference sessions are being held.

Moscow Priest Declares He Is Well Treated

By John M. Hightower

Moscow, March 17 (AP).—The Rev. George Antonio Laberge, the only Roman Catholic priest and the only American cleric in Moscow, reported today that during more than a year in the Soviet Union he had been shown "every courtesy" by the authorities and allowed to preach the doctrines of his church without hindrance.

The slight 41-year-old pastor of the Church of Saint Louis of the French directs a church whose parishioners are mostly Soviet citizens. I vsited him today in his little church, more than a century old, on a winding street less than five minutes' drive from midtown.

The interview concerned "freedom of religion in the USSR," on which he agreed to talk within the limits of his experience here and in Leningrad.

Religion "Fluid" in Soviet

In summary, his opinion was that 'the religious situation as a whole still is fluid," and he said he was confident that the outcome would be what he called a "favorable one."

He recalled that the 1936 Soviet constitution guaranteed separation of the church and state and recognized "freedom of worship and freedom of antireligious propaganda."

"It will be evident that the problem facing the Soviet authorities in relation to their Roman Catholic nationals is not a simple one or easy one," he said. "Yet, in spite of the complexity, I owe it to the truth to state that, as far as I am concerned, the Soviet authorities have done remarkably well.

"They have shown me from the start every courtesy. Specifically, I am allowed freely to go into houses and hospitals to minister to the sick. I preach freely the Catholic doctrine without even the slightest degree of interference. I was allowed four times within six months to go to Leningrad and on three occasions spent one week there with the avowed intention of holding religious services in the French Church."

Food Allowance Inadequate

He said some things could be better done, such as facilitating religious instruction, providing him with more convenient lodgings than the one 2 miles from the church, and giving him a large food allowance. He added he was sure the future would bring a "satisfactory arrangement of all these points."

He said he was not completely in the dark regarding the situation elsewhere than in Moscow and Leningrad, but that he preferred to comment only on what he knew first-hand.

"Since the religious situation as a whole is still fluid, and since, on the other hand, I know Soviet authorities now are taking steps to insure satisfaction of their Roman Catholic nationals who apply to them, I think it better to let them provide an early answer which, I am confident, will be a favorable one," he said.

Stalin Receives Bidault

London, March 17 (AP).—The Moscow radio said tonight that Prime Minister Stalin had received French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault today. Bidault is attending the four-power foreign ministers council in Moscow.

Communists Say BBC Won't Give Them Time

London, March 17 (AP)—The Communist party said today the British Broadcasting Corporation had denied its request for radio time in a series of political broadcasts for listeners in the United Kingdom.

"The Communist party applied to the BBC for the allocation of one broadcast for a statement on Communist policy," a statement from party headquarters said.

"The BBC have replied that under the terms of agreements made with the other parties, they cannot accede to the request."

A BBC spokesman said the Communists have only two members in Commons and said time for twelve political broadcasts arranged for this year was divided among three "main" groups: the Government (Labor party), 6; Conservatives, 5; Liberals, 1.

British Protest Ship Seizures

LONDON, March 17 (AP).—Minister of State Hector McNeil said today in the House of Commons that Great Britain had protested twice to the Netherlands because the Dutch Navy had intercepted British ships carrying cargoes to and from the Indonesian ports. He said Dutch vessels had stopped eleven British ships at the three-mile limit of Indonesian territorial waters, escorted them to Dutch-controlled ports and examined their cargoes.

The United States protested this month to The Hague against trade restrictions in the Netherlands East Indies which led to seizure of the American Liberty ship Martin Behrman.

British Left Hits U.S. Greek Loan

London, March 17 (AP)—Leftist critics in the House of Commons attacked the proposed American loan to Greece and Turkey today, but Government leaders refused a full-dress discussion on the ground that President Truman's statement was made without consulting the British Government.

"The President's proposals," said Minister of State Hector McNeil, "made no difference to our plans relating to British troops in Greece. They have been steadily reduced. These men will be withdrawn as soon as practicable."

Laborite H. L. Austin asked if the Government would warn the United States to "think twice about offering military aid to Turkey."

"No, sir," McNeil replied.

Attlee on Radio Today

LONDON, March 17 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee will make a radio speech tomorrow at 9 P. M. (3 P. M. Eastern Standard Time) on Britain's economic situation, his office announced today.

Berlin British Deny Firing At Russ Who Held Dane

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—British troop headquarters here today denied a report that British military police had fired upon Russian officers who had a Danish newspaper correspondent in custody.

Danish colleagues of the correspondent, Niels Noerlund, of Copenhagen's Berlingske Tidende, said he told them he was detained nearly two days in the Soviet occupation zone but escaped over the week end at a British military police checkpoint on Berlin's outskirts. They quoted him as saying that British military police rushed up, that the Russians sped away from the checkpoint and that the British fired several shots after the Russians.

British headquarters confirmed Noerlund's escape at the checkpoint but said: "There was no shooting. The Russians just drove away when our boys came up."

Noerlund was quoted as saying that in the Russian zone he had seen some troop maneuvers, tanks and planes, but only in a barracks area where he had been taken for questioning.

He told colleagues, they said, that when he escaped the Russians were taking him from Magdeburg to Soviet headquarters at Karlshorst, where they had promised to release him to officials of the Berlin Danish military mission.

Help Unite Erin, De Valera's Appeal To Irish Americans

Dublin, March 17 (AP)—Prime Minister Eamon de Valera called on Irish America tonight to "lend support" in uniting northern and southern Ireland under the flag of independent Eire.

In a St. Patrick's Day broadcast to the United States, de Valera declared "our national integrity has been destroyed by the unnatural partition of our country, enacted and enforced by coercion from outside."

"Ireland has been one since the dawn of history with a boundary unmistakably determined by the ocean," he added. "Only a vandal would have dared to mutilate it.

Severed Without Consent

"The inhabitants were not consulted and gave no consent before they were severed from the main body of the nation."

"A local plebiscite even now," de Valera said, "would show that in one half of the area cut off, the majority desire to be united with the rest of the nation.

"It must be obvious that as long as this unnatural and unjust situation exists, any genuine cordiality of feeling between the peoples of Ireland and of Britain is impossible. . . . Yet we are living in a world which makes it more than ever imperative that nations which can come together in amity to ensure their common well being and safety should do so."

Europe's Big Problem Is Coal, Stassen Says

Vienna, March 17 (AP).—Harold E. Stassen said today that, from his observation thus far, he would classify the shortage of coal as Europe's greatest economic problem and that Europe's problems were economic rather than political.

The former Governor of Minnesota discussed Austrian problems with Chancellor Leopold Figl and Foreign Minister Karl Gruber at a luncheon given by Brig. Gen. Jesmond D. Balmer, American deputy high commissioner for Austria.

Stassen will leave Vienna for Belgrade by air tomorrow.

U. S. SENDS NEW NOTE TO SOVIET ON HUNGARY

Accuses Communist Party of Attempting to Seize Power Illegally.

PROTEST SECOND IN 12 DAYS

Renews American Demand for Full Investigation of Political Situation in Budapest.

Budapest, March 17 (A. P.).—The United States, in its second note in twelve days to the Russian authorities in Budapest, protested today that minority groups led by the Communist party in Hungary are "attempting to seize power through resort to extra-constitutional tactics."

The note, signed by Brig.-Gen. George H. Weems, American representative on the Allied Control Council for Hungary, was addressed to the Russian Lieut.-Gen. V. P. Sviridov. It said that Communist tactics are threatening "the continuance of democracy in Hungary." It also renewed the American demand for an inquiry, saying: "The United States Government considers that the Powers signatory to the agreement concluded at Yalta in regard to liberated Europe are obligated to take concerted action to investigate political conditions in Hungary.

"In my Government's view it cannot be contended that such an investigation would, as you suggest, improperly impair the legal rights of the Hungarian courts, or that my Government's concern with regard to the case of Bela Kovacs constitutes an infringement of the right of the Soviet occupation authorities to take reasonable measures for maintenance of the security of the occupation forces."

Kovacs, secretary-general of the middle-of-the-road Small Holders party and a member of the Hungarian Parliament, was recently arrested by the Russians.

Retorts to Russian Denial.

The note, delivered to Sviridov at noon, was in reply to a communication of March 8 in which the Russian general flatly denied the American charges of Soviet interference in Hungary's internal affairs and declared that he could "not consent to this intervention by the American Government."

The new American note said that investigation of the alleged plot to restore the Horthy regime in Hungary had been conducted to date by "Communist - dominated police organs" and that the Communists had declined to agree to a Parliamentary investigation. The Small Holders are in a majority in Parliament. The note said also that the four-man court conducting trials of the alleged Horthyist plotters was made up of "three representatives of parties aligned in a minority bloc as against one responsible to the majority Small Holders."

The note said further that Kovacs, accused by the Russians of espionage against the Soviet army, was not seized "until the Hungarian Communist party had, without avail, resorted to numerous stratagems" to get him to waive his parliamentary immunity so that he could be arrested by the Hungarian political police.

Copies of the note were to be delivered to Premier Ferenc Nagy and the British representative on the Control Council. When the American note will be published in the Hungarian press is problematical. The last American note of March 5 was not published here until Sviridov made his reply.

U. S. Note Says Hungary Reds Plan a 'Putsch'

Americans Again Call for Investigation of Political Conditions by 3 Allies

BUDAPEST, March 17 (AP).—The United States, renewing its accusations of Russian interference in Hungary, charged today that Hungarian Communists are attempting to seize power from a freely elected Hungarian government.

In its second note this month to the Russian occupation authorities, the United States said the action of "minority groups under the leadership of the Hungarian Communist party . . . clearly threatens the continuance of democracy in Hungary."

[British government sources in London said Moscow had officially rejected a British note calling for an Allied investigation of charges of Russian interference in Hungary's internal affairs.]

The new American communication said the United States, Great Britain and Russia, as signers of the Yalta agreement in regard to liberated Europe, "are obligated to take concerted action to investigate political conditions in Hungary."

The note was addressed to Lieutenant General V. P. Sviridov, Soviet occupation forces commander and acting chairman of the Allied Control Council for Hungary. It was signed by Brigadier General George H. Weems of the American military mission.

The United States Information Service gave copies of the text to the Hungarian and foreign press, but most Hungarian news men said the text would not appear in Hungarian newspapers unless General Sviridov gave permission.

One Hungarian political leader believed that in the long run American opinion would probably help anti-totalitarian elements in Hungary. He added, however, that he felt Hungary had already become a "buffer point" between the east and west and that any American expenditures in Greece and Turkey would probably "increase Soviet pressure on the Hungarians."

The first American protest was lodged March 5. Three days later General Sviridov vetoed the request for an investigation into Hungary's internal affairs, saying any such Allied investigation would constitute "rude interference."

Today's American note declared: "In my government's view it cannot be contended that such an investigation would, as you suggest, improperly impair the legal rights of the Hungarian courts."

The United States asserted again that the arrest by the Russians of Bela Kovacs, anti-Communist member of Parliament, appeared to be an unwarranted intervention by Soviet authorities.

Although the Russians have said they arrested Mr. Kovacs for espionage against the Soviet Army, today's note said pointedly that he was not picked up by the Russians "until the Hungarian Communist party had without avail resorted to numerous stratagems to obtain the waiver of Mr. Kovacs's parliamentary immunity and his arrest by the (Hungarian) political police." Mr. Kovacs is secretary general of the Small Holders party, which has a majority of seats in Parliament.

The United States said also that Communist-dominated Hungarian police had conducted the investigation into a plot to overthrow the government, and that the Communists had declined to agree to a parliamentary investigation of the plot.

Text of New U. S. Note on Hungary

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP)—The State Department published tonight the following text of the second protest addressed by Brig. Gen. George H. Weems, American representative in the Allied Control Commission for Hungary, to Lieut. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, Russian acting chairman of the commission:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of March 8, 1947, in reply to the note which I addressed to you on March 5, 1947, concerning political developments in Hungary and on instructions from my Government, to transmit the following comment of the United States Government thereon.

The United States Government has carefully considered the Soviet views set forth in your communication. However, it is noted that your letter fails to take account of the following circumstances alluded to in my note of March 5.

People's Court Scored

(1) Investigation of the plot against the state has to date been conducted only by Communist-dominated police organs. While the Smallholders' party has endeavored to obtain agreement to a parliamentary investigation, on an inter-party basis, of allegations concerning the involvement in the conspiracy of members of the National Assembly, the Communists have declined to accept such a procedure;

(2) Of four representatives of political parties who, with a jurist chairman, comprise the People's Court, which is now conducting trials of certain individuals alleged to have been involved in this plot, three are representatives of parties aligned in a minority bloc as against one selected by the majority Smallholders;

(3) Concerning the arrest of Bela Kovacs, although normal arrests by occupation forces for the purpose of maintaining the security of such forces could not of course be objected to on the grounds of unwarranted intervention, the arrest of Mr. Kovacs by the Soviet authority cannot, on the face of it, be considered of such a nature. It is noted that the arrest was not made until the Hungarian Communist party had, without avail, resorted to numerous stratagems to obtain the waiver of Mr. Kovacs' parliamentary immunity and his arrest by the political police. During that period there was no indication that he might be suspected of activities against the Soviet occupation forces.

Attempt to Seize Power Seen

In the circumstances, the United States Government cannot, in the light of all the information available, agree with the interpretation of Hungarian political developments contained in your communication under acknowledgment. It seems clear to the United States Government that minority groups under the leadership of the Hungarian Communist party are attempting to seize power through resort to extraconstitutional tactics.

In the opinion of the United States, this clearly threatens the continuance of democracy in Hungary. In such a situation, the United States Government considers that the powers signatory to the agreement concluded at Yalta in regard to liberated Europe are obligated to undertake concerted action to investigate political conditions in Hungary. The need for such consultation and investigation becomes all the more imperative because of the fact that there is a disagreement between the Soviet and United States Governments on a matter of so basic importance to Hungary.

In my Government's view, it cannot be contended that such an investigation would, as you suggest, improperly impair the legal rights of the Hungarian courts or that my Government's concern with regard to the case of Bela Kovacs constitutes an infringement of the right of the Soviet occupation authorities to take reasonable measures for the maintenance of the security of the occupation forces.

Britain Gets Reply.

London, March 17 (A. P.).—Government spokesmen said today that a Russian note had turned down a British call for an impartial Allied inquiry into charges of Soviet interference in Hungary's internal political affairs. The Soviet note said that such an investigation would be an unwarranted intervention in Hungary, they added.

The British and American governments sent notes to the Russians several days ago protesting against Russian action in Hungary. The Russian chairman of the Allied Control Commission in Hungary promptly rejected the Anglo-American charges and Moscow, by its note today, upheld him.

U.N. Field Team Split in Search For Greek Rebel

Slavic Bloc Members Refuse to Leave Guerrilla Area Despite Majority Decisions

KASTANOFITON, Greece, March 16 (Delayed) (AP).—A United Nations field team which has passed four days in a vain effort to contact guerrilla commander "General Markos" split openly today when the Slavic bloc representatives ignored a decision of the majority to depart.

The team is made up of delegates from the U. N. commission investigating the border troubles of Greece and her northern neighbors.

The Slavic group, representing the Soviet Union, Poland, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania, chose to stay in the guerrilla territory in the hope of meeting Markos. The group is headed by Alexei Grauer, of Russia. Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania are the nations Greece accuses of backing Leftist raiding bands.

The split left the Slavic representatives in Greek guerrilla territory only twelve miles from the Albanian frontier without the official sanction of the investigating commission.

The four-day motor, mule-back and foot trip through the area in search of the guerrilla chieftain ended with the Slavic bloc still insistent that he be contacted regardless of the time it would take.

The team was scheduled to depart March 18 for an inspection trip of the Yugoslav frontier.

At a news conference immediately after the first group left the village by mule, a Leftist spokesman said it would take forty-eight hours to receive word from Markos after the arrival of the team.

However, this was denied by Chairman Roscher Lund and Press Officer Stanley Ryan.

Coincident with this denial came the resignation of Athanasios Zafarides, a Greek interpreter, at Amoudara, last guerrilla-held village the team visited before crossing the Aliakmon River and leaving rebel territory. Ishans Englesi, the Syran representative, said Mr. Zafarides, after resigning, went back up the trail toward guerrilla headquarters.

Zafarides' interpretations at previous commission meetings had been challenged by Alexis Kyrou, the Greek liaison officer, and the interpreter was refused a passport by the Greek Government to join the team which went on an inspection trip across the Albanian border.

It was reported unofficially that Zafarides was regarded as "too far to the left" by the Greek authorities.

Greeks Capture Bulgarian Red

Athens, March 17 (A. P.).—An authoritative Greek source said today that a parachutist in a Bulgarian uniform was captured by Greek troops Saturday near the Bulgarian border. The source said the man was carrying documents apparently intended for the Communist party in Greece. He was taken to Serrai for questioning.

Americans Said to Detain Poles

WARSAW, Poland, March 17 (AP)—A Government spokesman said today that authorities in the United States zone of Germany were hindering the repatriation of Polish miners from France. He told a news conference that 700 miners were turned back to France because each failed to pay $100 for railway fare through the United States zone. Poland is attempting to repatriate 10,000 workers from France.

M'Arthur Asks Occupation End With U. N. Taking Control Soon

Favors Treaty Action on Japan Within Few Months—Says Economic Problem Is Only One Remaining.

Tokyo, March 17 (A. P.).—Gen. MacArthur today advocated a peace treaty with Japan "as soon as possible," replacing the present military occupation with mild control by the United Nations for an indefinite period.

The occupation has just about finished its work successfully, he said, and there will remain only economic problems with which the military cannot deal.

In urging that his own command be abolished and a formal treaty made quickly, the supreme commander of the occupation declared:

"If the United Nations ever is to succeed, this is the most favorable opportunity it ever had. Japan would be willing and would desire it.

"If the United Nations cannot provide mild controls it cannot meet anything."

Calls Conditions Ripe.

MacArthur spoke at a dinner given by the Tokyo Correspondents' Club. The unexpected press conference was his first general "on-the-record" meeting with correspondents in more than five years.

"The days of SCAP should cease completely with a peace treaty," he said, "because, I think, conditions are ripe for it now."

[SCAP is translated both "Supreme Command, Allied Powers" and "Supreme Commander, Allied Powers." MacArthur did not specify which he meant, but made clear in his other remarks that he meant both—that the whole military occupation establishment should be dissolved.]

Asked to elaborate on when he thought a peace treaty should be made, he replied, "For the record, I'll say as soon as possible." He added a few words of off-the-record comment on this subject.

MacArthur likewise declined to speculate on the probable length of proposed supervision by the United Nations, but indicated it would be intended for the protection of Japan herself, since she has renounced all military establishments.

Other points made by MacArthur during questioning at the conclusion of a press club luncheon were:

1. The occupation has nearly completed its constructive functions. The first phase—demilitarization—has ended. "The political phase is approaching such completion as is possible under occupation." The third phase—economic—cannot be settled by occupation authorities.

2. "Japan is still economically blockaded by the Allied Powers." Final settlement of this problem is possible only with a peace treaty. Trade must be in the hands of private traders.

3. "Japan today understands as thoroughly as any nation that war does not pay. Her spiritual revolution probably was the greatest the world has ever known."

4. Japan has lost her feudalistic concepts and has come to recognize the "dignity of man." "I don't by that mean to say this thing called democracy has been accomplished. The process of democratization is one of continual flux. It takes years. But in so far as you can lay down the framework, it already is accomplished. There is little more except to watch, control and guide. I believe sincerely and absolutely" that individual freedom "is here to stay."

MacArthur appeared in excellent health and fine spirits. "It would be advisable," he said, "for the world to initiate at this time peace talks with Japan. This should be done just as soon as possible."

He pointed out that Japan had a functioning Government, whereas Germany has no government which can sign a tearty. Japan has been squeezed out of pretty nearly everything we expect to squeeze out of her," he continued. "I am not talking of reparations now, but she already has lost Manchuria, Korea and Formosa. There is little left."

He added that "I would not envision any military formations of any sort after the peace treaty. Bayonet control would be a mockery."

The Japanese, said MacArthur, would consider United Nations control "protective rather than repressive. It could continue as long as it was munificent."

He said Japan was under a continuing economic blockade. "Economic warfare along those lines still is as bitter here as when guns were firing. No weapon, not even the atom bomb, is as deadly in its final effect as economic warfare."

Japan "has got to be allowed to trade with the world," he went on. "We've got to take it out of the hands of the Government and put it in the hands of private traders."

MacArthur said Japan was "thoroughly exhausted" economically at the end of the war and that all she had left was men. Even under strictest rationing, Japan is not producing enough to satisfy her needs. The difference must be filled by the Allies. If we keep this economic blockade up, more and more will we have to support this country. It is an expensive luxury. But we will pay for it or let people die by the millions," he declared.

Discussing reparations, he said, "I don't think there is any intent to take away from the industrial capacity of Japan that which would destroy it." The problem, he said, was to find the exact balance. He warned that "if reparations cut too deeply, the United States will have to support Japan because we have undertaken major burdens."

Japs Praise MacArthur

Tokyo, Tuesday, March 18 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's declaration that the occupation of Japan should be terminated as soon as a peace treaty can be signed and the nation's guidance turned over to the United Nations was applauded today by Japanese.

They called his remarks the strongest and most detailed expression of Japan's present position the world has heard.

MacArthur told a group of American correspondents at a luncheon yesterday that Japan has been demilitarized, and her political transportation nearly completed, but that her economic situation is desperate.

Prominently Displayed

All newspapers here displayed the story prominently without editorial comment. It was the principal topic of conversation on the street.

MacArthur's persistent fight against the spread of communism in Japan is well known among the people. Many young intellectuals said the principal restraint on Communist influences is the presence of military forces and the influence of the supreme commander.

In urging an end to the occupation, MacArthur said:

"If the United Nations ever is to succeed, this is the most favorable opportunity it ever had."

"If the United Nations cannot provide mild controls, it cannot meet anything . . . the Japanese would accept it . . . it would be considered protective rather than repressive. It could continue as long as it was beneficent.

Peace Talks Urged

"It would not envision any military formations of any sort after a peace treaty. Bayonet control would be a mockery."

Pressed for an opinion on when a treaty should be made, MacArthur replied, "for the record I'll say as soon as possible."

He indicated his belief that it should be concluded in a matter of months at most, and at another point said, "It would be advisable for the world to initiate at this time peace talks with Japan."

The military occupation which he heads "should cease completely with a peace treaty," he reiterated, "because, I think, conditions are ripe for it now."

Three Occupation Phases

Explaining this view, MacArthur said, "our occupation job here can be defined as falling roughly into three phases: Military, political and economic. . . .

"The military purpose, which is to insure that Japan will follow the ways of peace and never again be a menace, has been, I think, accomplished. . . . The political phase is approaching such completion as is possible under the occupation."

He mentioned the process of democratization and said, "her spiritual revolution has been probably the greatest the world has ever known."

On the third phase, however, he asserted, "Japan is still economically blockaded by the Allied powers. Economic warfare along those lines is still as bitter here as when guns were firing; and now the strangulation is worse because we have returned millions of repatriates from abroad."

"Deadlier Than Atomic Bombing"

Stating that economic warfare was deadlier in its final effects than even atomic bombing, he said, "if we keep this economic blockade up, more and more will we have to support this country. It is an expensive luxury, but we will pay for it or let people die by the millions."

Remarking that there was "not the same unity among the Allies" on economic phases of the occupation as in military and political matters, MacArthur said "this is not a phase that occupation can settle."

Reparations Problem Cited

Japan's only permissible trade now is through a barter system under occupation headquarters' control, but "we've to take it (trade) out of the hands of government and put it in the hands of private traders," he said.

Japan, he continued, "has been squeezed out of pretty nearly everything we can expect to squeeze out of her. I am not talking of reparations now—but she already has lost Manchuria, Korea and Formosa. There is little left."

Reparations, he added, was a "big problem of trying to find a proper balance . . . if reparations cut too deeply, the United States will have to support Japan because we have undertaken the major burdens of occupation."

Nevertheless, he said, "I think Japan can pay back all the dollars we appropriate," but that the United States should hold a "first lien" on her trade.

20-Minute Session

The MacArthur conference, his first formal on-the-record session with the press corps since early in the war, came at the end of a luncheon tendered for him at the Tokyo Correspondents Club.

The luncheon was limited to working foreign correspondents, many of whom had not met the General previously. It had been generally expected that any remarks would be off the record, but Tom Lambert, Associated Press correspondent and president of the club, asked MacArthur if he would care to answer questions for publication. The General readily agreed to a twenty-minute session, which actually extended much longer.

Discussion Summarized

TOKYO, March 17 (AP).—Although on official text of the questions and answers at General MacArthur's press conference today was available, here—based on Associated Press correspondents' notes—is a summary of some of the subjects he discussed:

Q. "Would you care to elaborate a little more on the peace treaty? When do you think it should be?"

A. "For the record, I'll say as soon as possible. In Japan there is a functioning government. But in Germany the government had to be built from the ground up, and there is no government to sign the peace treaty. . . . Over here there is no problem of what to do with Japan. She has been squeezed out of pretty nearly everything we can expect to squeeze out of her. I am not talking of reparations now. But she already has lost Manchuria, Korea and Formosa. There is little left . . .

"THE days of SCAP (Supreme Command for the Allied Powers) should cease completely with a peace treaty because, I think, conditions are ripe for it now . . ."

Q. "How long would you say the United Nations would have to continue controls of democratization?"

A. "I wouldn't want to speculate on that. The Japanese would accept it . . ." It would be considered protective rather than repressive. It could continue as long as it was munificent.

"I would not envision any military formations of any sort after the peace treaty. Bayonet control would be a mockery."

Q. "What about restoration of Japan's economy?"

A. Japan, MacArthur said, was economically poor. "In fact, that was one reason she went to war—she was reaching out to get resources." He pointed out that trade was the lifeblood of these islands and that to stimulate trade Japan must import such necessities as cotton and wool.

"We do not allow Japan to trade. She has got to be allowed to trade with the world. Japan is only permitted a barter system through the bottleneck of SCAP. We've got to take it out of the hands of the government and put it in the hands of private traders.

"Eighty million people need 20 million tons of food (annually). Seventeen million tons are produced here. . . . There is no way I can see within the appreciable future that thse people can get enough food from indigenous products."

The job of the occupation, he said, is to restore Japan's production to self-sufficiency. "I once read a statement Winston Churchill made in one of his moments of profound inspiration. Speaking of

A. "The time is now approaching when we must talk peace with Japan. Our occupation job here can be defined as falling roughly into three phases—military, political and economic.

"The military purpose, which is to insure that Japan will follow the ways of peace and never again be a menace has been, I think, accomplished. We have demobilized troops, demilitarized the country, torn down military installations. Psychologically, I believe success has been equally propitious. Japan today understands as thoroughly as any nation that war does not pay. Her spiritual revolution has been probably the greatest the world has ever known.

"The political phase is approaching such completion as is possible under occupation. We changed the laws, standards and ideals of this country from the feudalistic ideals of the past into the concept of what is the greatest thing in life, next to spiritual beauty—dignity of man. We have made them think nations exist for the welfare of those who compose them instead of the reverse. . . .

"Democracy is a relative thing. It's a question of the degree of freedom you have. If you believe in the Anglo-Saxon idea you will believe this will stay here. If you are a cynic or believe in totalitarianism you may doubt it is here to stay. I believe sincerely and absolutely that it is here to stay.

"I don't by that mean to say this thing called democracy has been accomplished. The process of democratization is one of continual flux. It takes years. But insofar as you can lay down the framework it already is accomplished. There is little more except to watch, control and guide.

"The third phase is economic. Japan is still economically blockaded by the Allied powers. Economic warfare along those lines still is as bitter here as when the guns were firing. And now strangulation is worse because we have returned millions of repatriates from abroad.

"No weapon, not even the atom bomb, is as deadly as its final effect as economic warfare. The atom bomb kills by the thousands, starvation by the millions.

"Japan was throughly exhausted. All she had left was men. She was living on stockpiles and our blockade after the fall of the Philippines kept materials from coming in. Now they are scraping the bottom of the stockpiles.

"Each little family had its stockpile—of clothing and heirlooms. Now these are being sold to keep men alive.

"Even under the strictest rationing, Japan is not producing enough to satisfy her needs. The difference must be filled by the Allies. If we keep this economic blockade up, more and more will we have to support this country.

"IT IS AN expensive luxury. But we will pay for it or let people die by the millions."

There is "not the same unity among the Allies" in the economic phase of the occupation as in the military and political phases. "No clear-cut economic framework has been outlined for Japan, or Germany either, for that matter. But this is not a phase that occupation can settle. We can only enforce economic strangulation.

"It would be advisable for the world to initiate at this time peace talks with Japan. But peace won't mean complete relaxation of all guidance or controls . . .

"Japan on her initiative and without coersion has completed a constitution which takes the great step of renouncing war. There was a great deal of criticism when this first appeared, but it remains . . . She also has abolished military installations under the Potsdam declaration.

"Therefore they will be unprotected when we withdraw. Who is going to protect them?"

One method would be "to back track and permit small military establishments . . . But the Japanese are relying upon the advanced spirituality of the world to protect them against undue aggression . . ."

It was on this basis, MacArthur said, that he suggested recently to a visiting editor that the United Nations should exercise control over Japan.

"If the United Nations are ever to succeed, this is the most favorable opportunity it has ever had. Japan would be willing and would desire it.

If the United Nations cannot provide these mild controls, it cannot meet anything."

Q. "Would you care to elaborate a little more on the peace treaty? When do you think it should be?"

A. "For the record, I'll say as soon as possible. In Japan there is a functioning government. But in Germany the government had to be built from the ground up, and there is no government to sign the peace treaty . . . Over here there is no problem of what to do with Japan. She has been squeezed out of pretty nearly everything we can expect to squeeze out of her. I am not talking of reparations now. But she already has lost Manchuria, Korea and Formosa. There is little left . . .

Notes on MacArthur Press Conference

Tokyo, March 17 (AP).—Although no official text of the questions and answers of General MacArthur's press conference here today is available, the following summary is based on notes taken by Associated Press correspondents:

Q. "General, you were quoted recently as proposing that Japan be placed under the United Nations. Would you care to elaborate on that?"

MAR 1947

Germany, he said, "The problem is not to keep Germany down, but to keep it up.'

"I didn't understand it then, but I do now. Our problem is to keep Japan up."

IN recounting difficulties encountered in attempting this, MacArthur said "Japan cannot sell her raw silk in the United States. The scientists have outdone them. Milady would rather have nylon hose than silk hose and they're the boss, as any man will tell you. The scientists have relegated silk to a secondary position—just as they relegated armies and navies to a secondary position with air power and the atomic bmob. Well that's not quite true, but it illustrates what I mean."

MacArthur said the Japanese were "magnificent farmers," but needed fertilizer for lands exhausted of richness. Formerly, huge amounts were imported from China and Manchuria, "but not a pound has come in since the end of the war," he said. He cited this to show difficulties of restoring production.

MacArthur mentioned that he had read a proposal by a Congressman to cut off Japan's foreign trade for 50 years.

Q. "What would happen if you did?"

A. "There wouldn't be anybody left alive."

Q. "What do you see as the final reparations program?"

A. "I don't thing there is any intent to take away from the industrial capacity of Japan that which would destroy it." He noted "some disagreement" between reports on reparations by Edwin Pauley and Clifford Strike, but said "they were both working on the big problem of trying to find the proper balance on question . . .

"If reparations are cut too deeply, the United States will have to support Japan because we have undertaken major burdens of the occupation."

Q. "What is the possibility of a United States loan to Japan?"

A. "I thing Japan can pay back all the dollars we appropriate, but I think we should hold a first lein against anything we take out of her" in the way of trade. "The United States has not adopted a formula of loans yet, but we are operating on the Army budget, and expenditures probably will be charged against costs of occupation."

Start On Jap Treaty Held Possible By Fall

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Informed officials say that if President Truman and Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, want to push the matter the United States might be ready by fall to start negotiations for a peace treaty with Japan.

Green Ribbons At Jap Trial

Tokyo, March 17 (AP)—There was a touch of St. Patricks Day at the session of the international tribunal trying Japan's wartime leaders.

Nobody knew why, but a half dozen Japanese defense attorneys showed up today with green ribbons in their lapels.

Manchuria Red Force Routed

Peiping, March 17 (AP)—Chinese press dispatches reported today that 100,000 Communist troops were retreating northward as counterattacking Government forces led by Gen. Tu Li-ming moved to save threatened cities north of Changchun, Manchuria's capital.

These dispatches said a 60-hour Red siege of Nungan, 35 miles northwest of Changchun, had been lifted in operations personally directed by General Tu, commander of Nationalist forces in Manchuria. Nationalists estimated the Communists suffered 20,000 casualties.

Some 100,000 Reds who had attacked the important rail city of Tehhwei, 50 miles northeast of Changchun, were reported retreating north for the second time in the seesaw battling south of the Sungari River.

Nationalists Occupy Taian

Meanwhile, Government dispatches from Shantung province said Government assault troops had occupied Taian, 33 miles south of Tsinan, provincial capital, on the Tientsin-Pukow railway.

Bitter street fighting climaxed two days of battling, which caused casualties of "unprecedented gravity," the dispatches said.

In Tientsin, authorities continued an 11 P.M. curfew imposed March 6, declaring that the Communist underground might suddenly throw the city in chaos. United States Marines appearing on the streets after the curfew hour were questioned closely before being permitted to return to their billets.

Reds Reported Fleeing In China

Peiping, March 17 (AP) — The pro-Government Chinese press reported that a Nationalist counter-offensive again had sent 100,000 Communist troops fleeing northward tdoay from the approaches to Changchun, Manchurian capital.

The Government had announced a similar victory two weeks ago, but the Communists bounced back to the attack within ten days.

Estimate Of 20,000 Casualties

The dispatches today said Gen. Tu Li-ming, Nationalist commander for Manchuria, personally led a counteroffensive at 6 A.M. from Nungan, 35 miles northwest of Changchun, after repelling Communist assaults yesterday.

Communists also attacking Tehhwei, 50 miles northeast of Changchun, likewise were said to be in retreat, while a Communist raid within 10 miles of Changchun was thwarted. J. RODERICK Government sources estimated the Communists suffered 20,000 casualties all told. This was the identical figure claimed in the announcement of a fortnight ago but which later was scaled down to 5,000.

Claim Capture Of Taian

In Shantung province in China proper, Government dispatches credited Nationalist reinforcements with capturing Taian, 33 miles south of Tsinan, after a two-day battle.

The raid at Yenan, Communist headquarters in Shensi province, broadcast a report that a Government attack column had moved within 30 miles south of Yenan itself and that another was 36 miles to the southeast.

The Yenan broadcast said the Government attackers on the southeast were being beaten back but conceded that the southern column was attacking the town of Yulinchiao, only 30 miles from Yenan, and that Communist defenders had fallen back from positions in the neighborhood.

Chinese Students Threaten New Protest

Shanghai March 17 (AP)—Chinese students in Shanghai made plans today to call a general strike and demonstration by at least 300,000 persons should anything develop at Moscow which they consider unfavorable to China's interests.

Students of Fuhtan University were to return to classes today after a strike called March 14 as a protest against Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's proposal to take up the China problem at the Moscow conference.

Students of Fuhtan and other universities were busy nailing up anti-Soviet posters throughout the city, and some of the posters showed the United States and Great Britain—as well as Russia—as aggressors.

Japanese General Acquitted

HONG KONG, March 17 (AP)—Japanese Maj. Gen. Shoji Toshishige was acquitted today on charges of mistreating and killing Canadian and British prisoners captured here. A war crimes court accepted his contention that the prosecution had failed to prove definitely that his troops were involved.

BRITISH END MARTIAL LAW

New Holy Land Drive Started Against Underground

E.C. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, March 17 (AP)—Tens of thousands of cheering, smiling Jews streamed out of the martial law areas of Palestine today moments after the British lowered barbed wire barriers which had isolated two sections of the Holy Land for the last fifteen days.

Military rule, affecting more than a quarter of a million Jews, ended at noon in both sections—the thickly populated Mea Shearim district of Jerusalem and an area of 40 square miles on the Palestine coast including the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv.

Simultaneously, the British began a new drive to round up underground members responsible for outbreaks of violence which have caused scores of deaths here in recent months.

Moves Against Underground

Pictures and descriptions of eighteen "wanted" men were posted throughout this ancient city, together with statements of rewards for their capture.

Among those listed as the ringleaders were Menachem Beigin, one-time Polish army officer accused of commanding the underground organization Irgun Zvai Leumi, and Nathan Friedman-Yellin, Polish-born surveyor who allegedly heads the underground Stern group.

In another move against the underground a Jerusalem military court sentenced Moshe Barasani, 21-year-old Jew arrested a week ago near the Jerusalem mattial-law area, to death for allegedly carrying a hand grenade.

Bail For Crew Still Denied

Four other alleged underground members, including Dov Bela Gruner, also are under sentence of death. Gruner's case has been appealed to the British Privy Council. Its outcome is expected to determine whether the five will be executed.

A magistrate's court in Haifa refused to release on bail twenty crew members of ship Ben Hecht, mostly Americans, who are being held for trial on charges of bringing to Palestine some 800 Jewish refugees who did not possess immigration certificates.

Shortly after martial law was ended, the illegal radio station of Hagana, the largest and most moderate of the Jewish underground groups announced it was closing down until further notice. The only other incident during the afternoon was discovery and detonation of a road mine on the Haifa-Tel Aviv highway.

General Rejoicing Prevails

Thousands of happy Jews rushed out of the Mea Shearim district of Jerusalem as soon as British Tommies lowered the barriers. Shouting joyously, the Jews pushed shoulder to shoulder through the narrow intersections as they entered other districts of the city to visit friends and relatives.

Queues of trucks and busses were waiting to enter Tel Aviv when the British rolled up the barbed wire that had isolated that city. General quiet rejoicing prevailed, and the day's greeting was "It's over."

Long lines formed in front of the post office and cable offices. Mail from outside the martial-law zone had not been delivered for fifteen days.

British Tommies along the Yarkon River struck camp. Jewish farmers returned to their fields and citrus groves.

A hotel owner on the Tel Aviv sea front said martial law had cost the city $80,000,000. Only one ship lay at anchor in the harbor.

Jewish Curfew Lifted; More Explosions Occur

EGODNIA

Jerusalem, March 17 (AP)—The Palestine Government lifted martial law today after fifteen days of British Army rule, officially reported imposed to check violence by the Jewish underground, over sections of the Holy Land.

About 25,000 of Jerusalem's Jews welcomed the end at noon (5 A.M., E.S.T.) in a virtual holiday spirit. They thronged to the edges of the wire-guarded military zone an hour beforehand to await release. Police had searched their homes for terrorist suspects during the martial law period.

The restrictions had cut off about 250,000 Jews from the remainder of Palestine. The Government proclaimed some success in the hunt for armed Jewish opponents of Britain's mandate policies, but violence continued last night.

Joy prevailed also in Tel Aviv.

Relatives, Friends Jam Streets

Thousands of relatives and friends of the Jews who had been segregated in Jerusalem jammed the streets leading to the formerly restricted area. Before the time for lifting martial law arrived, troops who had guarded the area had to stand shoulder to shoulder to prevent a premature breakthrough.

Joyous shouting rose to a high pitch as the martial-law rules expired and grinning troops stood aside. Many soldiers exchanged banter with the Jews as they climbed atop Bren gun carriers and watched the Jews themselves roll away the barbed wire that had penned them in.

Young Jew Doomed To Die

Shortly before martial law was lifted, a Jerusalem military court sentenced to death Mosha Barasani, 21-year-old Jew, for carrying a hand grenade. He had been arrested March 9 near the Jerusalem martial-law area.

Barasani told the court that, "as a soldier of the Jewish Army," he refused to recognize its jurisdiction, demanding that he be treated as a prisoner of war. He read the Bible while prosecution witnesses spoke.

He was the fifth Jew condemned in recent months and was presumed from his description of himself as a "soldier" to be a member of the underground Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Agency Room Bombed

Last night a bomb damaged the news-conference room of the Jewish agency here, in what police termed the first recorded underground attack on that institution, offiical Jewish adviser to the British.

Other explosions yesterday were reported to have injured three military policemen in a jeep at Tiberias, on the Sea of Galilee, and to have broken the Iraq Petroleum Company's Palestine pipeline at three points.

Bail for Crew Denied.

An application for the release on bail of Robert Levitan and nineteen others, mostly Americans, who are accused of having entered Palestine as the crew of the immigration ship Ben Hecht, was refused by a Magistrates Court in Haifa today.

The court also refused to release on bail the American, Albert Hirschkoff, who was one of the passengers on the Ben Hecht, and two French nationals, Henriette Goldenberg and Jacques Meyer, a newspaper correspondent. All three are being held pending deportation.

British Cost In Palestine

London, March 17 (AP)—Defense Minister A. V. Alexander told the House of Commons today that Great Britain spent $222,400,000 maintaining troops in Palestine during the nineteen months which ended January 31.

He said in reply to a question that the total did not include capital expenditures on utilities and other works and services. Army expenses were $192,000,000 and air force costs $30,400,000.

A Colonial Office spokesman said July 1, 1945, the start of the nineteen-month period, was considered the date after which military expenditures were no longer charged to the war.

Withdrawal To Kenya

London, March 17 (AP)—A Government source said today Britain had decided to withdraw her military administrative and supply bases from the eastern Mediterranean, including Palestine, to the Southern African colony of Kenya.

His statement came after a Nairobi (Kenya) message reported Maj. Gen. W. A. Dimoline, general officer heading the East Africa Command, announced that his area would be incorporated in Britain's Middle East land forces after April 1.

A War Office spokesman commented that the merger would make Britain's Middle East Command territorially the largest in the world.

The Government source said the withdrawal decision envisaged retention of Britain's forward operational bases "as long as practicable" in such countries as the Sudan, Palestine, Egypt, Trans-Jordan and Iraq.

The reasons for the withdrawal—for which no deadline has been fixed—were said to include Britain's gradual evacuation of India and the instability of her political and military status in Egypt and Palestine.

Firm for Palestine

CAIRO, Egypt, March 17 (AP)—Sheik Yussef Youssine of Saudi Arabia opened an Arab League council meeting today with the declaration, "We shall always struggle and fight for Palestine until we achieve its independence and Arabism."

Before the meeting Riad es Solh Bey, Premier of Lebanon, referred to the proposed aid to Greece and Turkey by the United States and said he believed "the United States Government is making a series of moves to help governments which they believe are friendly to America."

"This humane objective of the American Government should not be misinterpreted," he commented.

French Take Town Near China Border

Paris, March 17 (AP)—The French press agency, in a delayed dispatch from Hanoi, reported today that French troops had occupied Mon Cay, northern Indo-China coastal town situated close to the Chinese border.

The town was occupied without resistance from Viet Nam forces, the dispatch said.

French Troops Extend Control To Haiphong

Paris, March 17 (AP)—French troops have cleared Viet Nam forces from Namdinh, important industrial town 50 miles southeast of Hanoi, and extended their control over almost 100 miles of coastline from the Chinese border south to Haiphong, dispatches from Indo-China said today.

Namdinh, on the Rouge River, had been ringed by Viet Nam forces since shortly after the outbreak of the revolt against the French last December 19.

Calcutta Is Patrolled After New Outbreak

Calcutta, March 17 (AP)—Police patrolled the streets of Calcutta today following communal disorders last night in which almost a score of persons were injured during the stoning of busses. An unofficial report said one person was killed, but police denied this.

Hindus and Moslems hurled rocks and bottles at each other for about two hours before police restored order. A check of hospitals disclosed that fourteen persons had been admitted for injuries, including one stabbing case.

Punjab Curbs Planned

Lahore, India, March 17 (AP)—Imposition of stringent measures approaching martial law in the strife-torn Punjab was forecast today "in view of the fast-deteriorating and grave" situation.

Giani Kartar Singh, president of the supreme controlling body of the Sikhs, said that a decree giving the military more power would soon be issued by Sir Evan Jenkins, British governor of the province.

Confers With Nehru

The Sikh leader has been conferring with Jawaharlal Nehru, vice president of the Indian interim government, who is touring areas where Sikhs and Hindus clashed with Moslems after the Moslem League forced the resignation of the anti-league coalition government of the Punjab.

Meanwhile, accounts of religious strife continued to circulate. A communiqué reported "heavy casualties" at five villages in the northwest Punjab, where more than 1,000 persons have been killed in the past two weeks.

Acts To Curb Riots

Meanwhile, Sardar Abdur Rab Nishtar, Moslem League Communications Minister in the national interim Government, said that he had sought to curb communal violence, which the league "does not want."

Nishtar asserted that the killings of Hindus and Sikhs and the firing and looting of houses were caused by "agent provocateurs and mischief mongers to divert attention."

Mass Arrests In India

Peshawar, India, March 17 (AP)—A wave of arrests for violation of a ban on parades marked the twenty-fifth day of Moslem League agitation against the Congress party Government in India's northwest frontier province today, but officials said violence was limited to one fatal stabbing in Peshawar last night.

Five battalions of British and Indian troops, with two squadrons of Sherman tanks, backed up police seeking to prevent a renewal of flareups between Moslems and the Hindu-Sikh minority which already have cost some 150 lives.

Nehru Visit To Punjab

New Delhi, March 17 (AP)—Jawaharlal Nehru said tonight upon his return from a three-day tour of the riot-torn Punjab that he had seen "ghastly sights" and heard of human behavior that would "degrade even a brute," but he predicted an end to the present disturbances within "a very few days."

The All-India Congress leader in the interim government declared that stricter measures would be imposed in the area, where fighting between Moslems and Hindu-Sikh factions has claimed more than 1,000 lives and resulted in wide destruction of property.

He said Amritsar was the city worst hit, with perhaps ten per cent of it destroyed. He compared the scenes in the affected areas with the wreckage caused by an earthquake at Monghyr in Bihar province in 1934.

Co-Operation Requested

Referring apparently to Moslem demands that the Punjab be made part of an independent Moslem state of Pakistan, he said "I am sure that the Punjab will remain part of India in spite of everything that has happened and is likely to happen."

In Bombay Mahomed Ali Jinnah, president of the Moslem League, chief rival of the predominantly Hindu Congress, called upon Moslem leaguers in the Punjab to give their "unstinted wholehearted" co-operation to the Punjab administration to restore immediately order in the province."

He reminded Moslems that it was "their sacred duty to protect minorities that live among them."

Unrest Reported In Calcutta

Unrest was reported in northern Calcutta, where communal rioting flared after a stoning of busses. Hindu and Moslem crowds hurled brickbats and soda-water bottles at each other for two hours before police restored order. The Government denied an unofficial report that one person was killed.

Walter J. Mason, Associated Press correspondent, said from Peshawar in India's northwest frontier province that processions and arrests marked the twenty-fifth day of Moslem League agitation there against the province's Congress party government. Officials said the only violence reported was a fatal stabbing last night.

Five battalions of British and Indian troops with two squadrons of Sherman tanks stood by to back up police in their efforts to prevent further flareups between Moslems and the Hindu-Sikh minority which have claimed 150 lives in the northwest frontier province.

Abuse Of Power Denied

The 3,000,000 population of the province is 96 per cent Moslem. The Moslem League, which wants the province to be made a part of Pakistan, already has obtained dismissal of the coalition ministry in the adjoining Punjab, where Moslems form 56 per cent of the population. Violence flared in the Punjab after the province governor invited the league to form a government.

Abdur Rab Nishtar, Moslem League communications minister in the interim government, said the purpose of league agitation in the northwestern frontier province was to get redress for "abuse of power" by the congress ministry.

Dr. Khan Sahib, frontier province premier, denied that any abuse of power had taken place, and said "nobody can make me resign."

Co-Operation Asked

Bombay, March 17 (AP)—Mahomed Ali Jinnah, president of the Moslem League, directed the Punjab Provincial League today to "give its unstinted, wholehearted co-operation to the Punjab administration to restore immediate order to the province."

Jinnah also reminded Punjab Moslems that "it is their sacred duty to protect minorities that live among them."

This direction and advice was sent to the Punjab League through Mian Numtaz Daulatana, general secretary of the Punjab Moslem League, who, after a two-day visit to Jinnah left by plane for Lahore.

Dutch Flyers Hit 4 Indonesian Villages

Batavia, Java, March 17 (AP)—The Indonesian news agency reported that at least four Dutch aircraft bombed four Indonesian villages in the vicinity of Modjokerto early today as Dutch authorities announced the launching of military operations in that area 30 miles southwest of Soerabaja.

The Dutch expressed the hope their operations would not delay further the signing of the Cheribon Agreement.

Under the Cheribon Agreement, negotiated last November, the Dutch would recognize the Indonesian republic's sovereignty over Java, Sumatra and Madoera as an equal partner with the Netherlands. Actual signing of the agreement has been delayed by jockeying over details.

Attack On Delta

An official announcement said Dutch marines had begun operations against Indonesian forces at Modjokerto to drive them from the Porong delta, where they were reported to have damaged the crops by flooding the land.

The attack came just 24 hours after Dutch and Indonesian military leaders had agreed to withdraw their forces approximately a mile on all fronts to avoid the possibility of further fighting.

A highly placed informant, meanwhile, reported that Acting Governor General Hubertus J. Van Mook had sent Indonesian Premier Sutan Sjahrir a letter announcing that the Dutch were ready to sign the Cheribon agreement without further delay.

Withdrawal Of Dutch Demanded

Batavia, Java, March 17 (AP)—Indonesian Premier Sutan Sjahrir demanded today that the Dutch halt their offensive in the Modjokerto area of Eastern Java or risk all hope for a "peaceful settlement in Indonesia."

Unless the Dutch withdraw their troops from the area they will face "far-reaching political consequences," said a formal protest submitted by Sjahrir in the name of the entire Indonesian delegation negotiating a political settlement with the Netherlands East Indies Government.

Dutch Marines and planes were reported to have gone into action in the area of Modjokerto, 30 miles southeast of the naval base city of Soerabaja, Netherlands officials declared the Indonesians have been flooding farmlands in the area.

Floods Endanger Thousands

The Dutch confirmed that Marines had been ordered to advance toward Modjokerto and the Indonesian news agency said at least four Dutch aircraft had bombed four Indonesian villages in the area.

A Dutch spokesman said the action was undertaken after repeated warnings to the Indonesian republic about the flooding of farmlands adjacent to the Porong River. He added that tens of thousands of Indonesians and Chinese were in danger of starvation because of the floods.

The Dutch expressed the hope that their action would not delay signing of the Cheribon agreement, negotiated last November. Under this pact, the Dutch would recognize the Indonesian republic's sovereignty over Java, Sumatra and Madoera as an equal partner with the Netherland under the Dutch Crown.

New Negotiations Expected

A highly placed source said Acting Governor General Hubertus J. Van Mook had informed Indonesian Premier Sutan Sjahrir that the Dutch were ready to sign, and that he hoped the Indonesians also were ready.

Sjahrir informed the Netherlands commission yesterday that he was willing to sign the agreement as originally proposed, but was not authorized to sign what he called a Dutch interpretation of the agreement.

Reliable informants said the Dutch would no longer insist on their interpretation, and Sjahrir's reply was expected to open the way for new negotiations.

Mexican Diplomat Plans Trip

MEXICO CITY, March 17 (AP)—Gen. Francisco Castillo Najera, former Foreign Secretary and long Ambassador to the United States, will leave about April 15 on a special diplomatic mission to European countries, particularly Belgium, France and Sweden, it was officially announced today. He will have the rank of special Ambassador during the trip, but details of his mission were not given. The announcement was made after the diplomat conferred today with the President.

Court Told Professor Gave Russia Formula

Montreal, March 17 (AP)—Testimony that prior to June, 1943, the formula for the high explosive RDX had been obtained from "professor" by a Russian "spy ring" operating from the Soviet embassy in Ottawa was given today by Igor Gouzenko, crown witness in the conspiracy trial of Dr. Raymond Boyer.

Gouzenko testified that "professor" was the "cover name of profession Boyer." On questioning by prosecution counsel, he said he never had met "the professor" personally and that it was only a name to him.

Dr. Boyer, wartime chemist on the Canadian National Research Council staff and former chemistry professor at McGill university, is charged with conspiracy to communicate information unlawfully to Russia.

Put 'Stiff Requirements' On Greek Aid: Lodge

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) proposed today that Congress lay down stiff requirements before it accepts "the lesser of two evils" and extends aid to Greece and Turkey.

Lodge, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he believed Congress must support the President in principle because with any repudiation of Mr. Truman's stand the last hope of ever organizing peace would vanish."

Mr. Truman has proposed giving the two nations military advice and a loan of $400,000,000.

Lodge expressed his views in a statement placed in the Congressional Record.

Dewey Statement Asked

At the same time, Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) called in the Senate for a statement by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York on his attitude toward the President's proposal.

McMahon, who announced his support of the Mediterranean-aid plan, told his colleagues that Dewey "obviously" is a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in 1948.

"Under the circumstances," McMahon said, "I think it would be well if we heard from the gentleman from Albany on this matter."

Bill Still "Incubating"

There were also these other developments on the aid plan:

1. Representative Eaton (R., N.J.), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, announced that legislation authorizing the Greek-Turkish loan is not yet complete. "The bill is incubating in the colossal minds of the State Department and among our people here," he said after a committee meeting at which the bill was originally scheduled for introduction.

2. Paul Porter, chief of the United States economic mission to Greece, returned to the capital to report to President Truman on his two-month study of conditions in Greece. He said he would see Mr. Truman later this week after the Chief Executive returns from a Florida vacation.

3. Republican senators suggested that Mr. Truman report the Greek-Turkish aid program to the United Nations and appoint former President Herbert Hoover to direct relief activities in the two countries.

Wants Output Speeded Up

Eaton also said his committee had failed to agree today on legislation authorizing a $350,000,000 relief program, separate from the Greek-Turkish aid. He said another session would be held tomorrow.

Lodge said that in "granting assistance to stricken nations, the United States should attempt to get them to speed up production so they will not "remain prostrate in the belief that we will go on forever feeding them a minimum ration." He also urged that Congress stipulate that:

1. American representatives supervise distribution "so that our money and goods go where they are intended and not to fatten any private pocket, foreign or domestic."

2. No aid be used "to promote ideologies that are hateful to us."

3. No government "waste its substances on competitive armaments while receiving aid from us."

4. "Our friends and former enemies return whatever is given them when they are able to do so, either to us or to some international fund for future famine relief."

Envoys Also Returning

"We are in an unhappy and rather sickening moment," Lodge said. "We don't like any part of it. At best we face a choice of the lesser of evils. But the one thing we cannot do is to avoid a decision, for refusing to make a decision in an affair of this kind is itself a decision."

The State Department announced in connection with Porter's arrival from Greece that the remainder of his mission would reach here in about a week.

Porter's return coincided with a disclosure that Ambassadors Lincoln MacVeagh and Edwin C. Wilson had been recalled from Athens and Ankara, respectively, for consultation. The department said MacVeagh would leave Greece tomorrow and arrive here Thursday. Wilson is due in from Turkey on Wednesday.

Future Impairment Seen

The proposal that Mr. Truman report to the United Nations on the Greek-Turkish program came from Senator H. Alexander Smith (R., N.J.). Expressing concern at any "bypassing" of the international organization, he said the United Nations was entitled to a "frank statement."

At the same time, Senator Moore (R., Okla.) suggested that Hoover, who recently completed a European food survey, be named to direct the relief and rehabilitation expenditures to accompany the limited military aid Mr. Truman has proposed.

As to informing the United Nations, Smith, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he feared that if the United Nations were ignored entirely in the present crisis, its future ability to help keep the world's peace would be weakened.

Democrats Urge GOP To Join In Greek Stand

National Committee Proposes Statement Of United Purpose To Back President

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The Democratic National Committee made the unprecedented proposal to the Republican National Committee tonight that they issue a joint statement affirming both parties' support of President Truman's plan for action in Greece and Turkey.

The suggested statement would serve notice "to all peoples of the world" that the two major parties are agreed "on the purpose and method of withstanding the spread of totalitarian aggression and enslavement wherever it may occur."

The joint statement was suggested to Carroll Reece, GOP national chairman, by Gael Sullivan, new Democratic executive director, in the name of the Democratic National Committee.

Reply Promised Today

Reece said he will answer Sullivan's letter tomorrow, without indicating what his answer will be.

Sullivan said in a statement that the United States "can and must check the tide of communism" but that "a divided America" cannot succeed in the task and neither can "one political party."

He added that the world knows this and is waiting "desperately" for word of "America's whole heart and whole vision."

"If the great party majorities in America are standing as one behind the Truman doctrine," Sullivan contiued, "the world will know that America means business. And the effect will be to mobilize a tremendous world public opinion in its favor—the only force that can stop the persuasion-by-bayonet of communism. . . .

'No Better Time Than Now'

"There is no better time than now for the political parties of America to tell the world—in so many words—that they are prepared to back the Truman doctrine to the hilt."

Sullivan submitted a suggested draft of the proposed joint statement to Reece and invited him to propose any changes in "the phrasing" if he sees fit. His suggested statement follows in full:

"The authorized leaders of the Republican party and the Democratic party having agreed upon a course of action to meet the crisis now confronting the peoples of Greece and Turkey, the two parties in America wish it to be made known, and hereby do make known, that they are in wholehearted support of that course of action as set forth by President Truman and concurred in by Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg.

"The Republican party and the Democratic party further wish it to be made known to all persons in the United States and to all peoples of the world that they are in hearty accord with one another on the purpose and method of withstanding the spread of totalitarian aggression and enslavement wherever it may occur."

COMMUNIST OUSTER UPHELD

Supreme Court's Refusal To Review Sustains Ruling

Washington, Feb. 17 (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to review protests by Morton Friedman, ousted from a job with the War Manpower Commission by order of the Civil Service Commission on the ground he was a Communist sympathizer.

The refusal automatically left the decisions of the District Court and Court of Appeals here in force. Both lower courts had backed up the right of the commission to fire persons deemed to be of doubtful loyalty.

Change In Attitude Cited

The Civil Service Commission said it based its dismissal order on Friedman's association with the American Peace Mobilization. It declared there was "reasonable ground" for belief that that organization was formed under Communist auspices. It cited a change in the group's attitude toward World War II beginning shortly after the German invasion of Russia.

The United Public Workers of America (CIO) filed a brief urging a review. Friedman in his appeal said he was a victim of a "witch hunt."

Friedman was chief of the classification division of the Manpower Commission, with the duty of seeing that "the positions of the employés were properly allocated." He had been in Government work since October, 1935, and was let out in September, 1944.

Refuses Picket Case

Also turned back without a review was the appeal of Charles (Pete) Blue, union picket convicted of assault and battery in Kosciusko county, Ind. Blue contended the prosecutor handled the trial as though it were a treason case with arguments that he was "stopping the production of vital material" and was "no better than a saboteur."

Blue was fined $1,000 and sentenced to six months' imprisonment. The Supreme Court file did not show his address or the name of the picketed concern.

NLRB Ruling Sustained

In another labor case the high court denied C. D. Beck & Co., of Sidney, Ohio, a review of findings by the National Labor Relations Board, that the concern engaged in unfair labor practices through anti-union statements and the discharge of two employés. The board held they were dismissed for union activities.

The company argued that its officials had the right to tell employés that the CIO United Auto Workers Union, seeking to organize the plant, was a "racket" and that if they joined it they were "sticking their necks out," when at the same time the men were told that if they wanted a union it was all right with the officials.

Hinged On "Free Speech"

The appeal was hinged directly on the "free speech" contention.

The company made busses for the Army. It said the men were fired after the War Department objected to slow production and an ordnance official gave directions to "pick out the fellows that you know are actually holding her (production) up and fire them."

The NLRB in recent cases has followed the theory that an employer is entitled to talk as he likes about unions, so long as he does not tie his words with threats or coercion or with illegal acts such as discharges for union activity.

STEWART'S EX-AIDE SAYS HE GOT CASH

He Received Anonymous Gifts, Says Mrs. Cour, Denying Magazine Was Pro-German

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP)—A former editorial associate of Douglas M. Stewart, once publisher of Scribner's Commentator, testified in Mr. Stewart's perjury trial today that Mr. Stewart had received sums of money from "anonymous donors" on at least four occasions.

The perjury charges grew out of Mr. Stewart's testimony to a Federal grand jury in 1943 and 1944 that he did not know the source of two packages of $15,000 each which he admitted receiving.

Mrs. Rose Cour, the witness, described herself as a former editorial associate of Mr. Stewart when he published the magazine at Lake Geneva, Wis. The magazine was suspended in November, 1941.

Mrs. Cour said that prior to a telephone call he made to her in September, 1941, she "had knowledge" that he had received "$15,000, $3,000 and $6,000."

"When he telephoned me in September, 1941," she testified, "he was very excited and said to me, 'It's happened again.'

"And I asked him," she said, 'how much?'"

She quoted Mr. Stewart as replying:

"It's fifteen again."

Mrs. Cour also testified that he received other sums, through the mails, from "many persons" and that the amounts varied from $10 to $20. They were from people, she said, who desired to "remain anonymous."

She asserted the magazine's policy was "100 per cent American" and that it was opposed to communism and to a second world war. It advocated, she said, "national preparedness on a large scale."

She said the magazine carried articles by Negro and Jewish authors and that it was not opposed "to any creed or religion."

She testified Mr. Stewart's reputation for truth and veracity in Lake Geneva was "excellent."

"The magazine," she asserted, "was not pro-German in any way."

The Government contends that $15,000 of the money Mr. Stewart is alleged to have received was turned over to him by Herbert von Strempel, first secretary of the German Embassy, on the eve of World War II, and that it was to be used in aiding the magazine.

Truman Names Clay Full General

Washington, March 17 (A. P.).—President Truman today nominated Lieut.-Gen. Lucius D. Clay, commander of the United States forces in Europe, for the temporary rank of full general. Mr. Truman also nominated Major-Gen. Clarence Ralph Huebner, Clay's chief of staff, to be a lieutenant-general.

Both officers hold the permanent rank of brigadier-general.

To Study Hawaii State Bid

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP).—A move was under way today to obtain House Public Lands Committee approval of statehood for Hawai' but postponing for five years a decision whether the state or Federal government would own the public lands, Representative Richard J. Welch, Republican, of California, called a committee meeting for Wednesday to consider a new statehood proposal under which Congress would be required to make the decision within five years after Hawaii became a state.

Assume World Bank Posts

McCloy, Garner, Black in Office; May Speed Operations

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP).—New top officers took up duties at the World Bank today, moving that $8,000,000,000 institution closer to a start of operations.

They are John J. McCloy, former Assistant Secretary of War, who took over the presidency vacated three months ago by the resignation of Eugene Meyer, of Washington; Robert L. Garner, former private bank official, vice-president, and Eugene Black, jr., another former private banker, United States member of the Board of Executive Directors.

Their accession was expected to speed bank action on applications by seven of the forty-one member nations for loans totaling $2,290,000,000 and also on the floating of securities in this country to raise funds for the bank's lending program.

Ranking Nazis Shown Using Much Medicine

Philadelphia, March 17 (AP).—The man who directed the cremation of Hermann Goering and 10 other high-ranking Nazi war criminals said today that the ashes disclosed some of the men had taken large quantities of medicine.

Rex S. Morgan, former chief mortician for the U. S. Army in the European theater, said the ashes of men such as Col. Gen. Albert Jodl and Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel were green, showing an addiction to medicine. Normal ashes are gray, Morgan said.

Morgan added that when Goering was cremated, the bulk of his body sent the oven temperatures from 1000 degrees Fahrenheit to 1500 degrees.

Sent Temperature Up

"Hermann generated so much heat we didn't have to add any gas for the next three bodies," Morgan related.

The bodies were turned over to Morgan following the hangings at Nuernberg, the former captain continued in an interview, and were cremated at a site which he would not disclose.

He said the bodies were entered in the huge ovens individually and in no set order. He pointed out that the bodies were not cremated in the order in which the men were hung.

Morgan, who was present at the hangings, said that following the cremation, the ashes were turned over to other military officials who scattered them in places which Morgan said he was unable to name.

Identities Unknown

There were three German workers at the crematory, Morgan stated, adding that none of them knew the identities of the bodies.

Morgan, a 25-year-old native of Denver, Colo., has enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania where he is studying commerce and economics. He said that while serving in Europe he supervised the burial of 25,000 Americans and 15,000 Germans, including that of General George S. Patton, jr.

English Girl Who Jilted Ex-G. I. Is Wed to Miner

WELCH, W. Va., March 17 (AP):—Pretty Eileen Edwards and Theodore Crabtree were married today in the McDowell County Clerk's office, ending weeks of frustrated wedding plans for the seventeen-year-old British girl and the coal miner for whom she jilted an ex-soldier.

Dressed appropriately on this St. Patrick's Day in a bright green suit, the gray-eyed blonde was nervous but smiling as she stood beside the nineteen-year-old former sailor and heard the Rev. O. C. Mitchell, of the First Methodist Church of Welch, pronounce them man and wife.

The bride must go to Columbus to clear her position with immigration officials because she did not marry the man who was her fiance when she entered the country, Arnold Buesing, of Waterloo, Neb.

The romantic tangle began when she met and became engaged to Mr. Buesing in London. He paid her passage to New York, but she left him the day after her arrival to go to Mr. Crabtree at Superior. She had met Mr. Crabtree in London after Mr. Buesing had been shipped home.

Mrs. Roosevelt Hits War Talk

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 17 (AP).—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt declared here last night that talk of another war being precipitated by proposed United States aid to Greece was "utter nonsense." "People who say that," she added in a public address, "don't realize that there can't be a third world war unless we are reconciled to extinction, for another war will mean extinction of the human race."

BRITAIN FIGHTS ON, SAYS INVERCHAPEL

Ambassador Rejects Thought She Is 'Finished as a World Power' in Face of Tasks

RICHMOND, Va., March 17 (AP)—Lord Inverchapel, the British Ambassador, declared emphatically tonight that he rejected any suggestion that Britain was "finished as a world power."

"I may be obtuse and slow-witted," he said in an address before the English-Speaking Union and the Richmond Public Forum, "but I fail to follow the arguments of people who say that our guts have withered and shrivelled within us and that we have lost our power and will to work.

"History has shown that the British people possess in a remarkable way just those extra few inches of guts that make all the difference. Believe me, those extra few inches are still with us and will carry us out of the present crisis as they have carried us out of far graver crises in the past."

Answers Our Questions

He said questions clearly stirring the minds of the American people today were: "What is happening to Britain, is she collapsing? Is the British Commonwealth breaking up and is the British Empire falling to pieces?"

"Here and there," he went on, "I am being taunted with not being a realist, because, whilst I recognize there is a crisis in the domestic affairs of Britain, I reject, with all the strength at my command, any suggestion that we are finished as a world power and that we are incapable of overcoming the difficulties which six years of bombardment, of submarine blockade, of overwork and dull food, have left us."

He pointed out that within eighteen months after V-J Day Britain's export trade had been restored to a higher level than before the war, that 30,000 of her homeless families had been housed, that she had built the same number of merchant ships in 1946 as in 1938 and that she had rendered her full share of commitments to war-devastated European areas.

In addition, he said, Britain had fulfilled her occupation commitments "involving sums of not a few hundred millions but thousands of millions of dollars."

Tells of Work in Greece

"I am prepared to concede that we may have overdone all this expenditure abroad," he said. "In fact we have. That is why we had to come here and ask your Government to take over our financial responsibilities in Greece and Turkey. But I should like you to realize that before we did so, Greece alone had cost us nearly $500,000,000."

"In spite of our difficulties, and they are many and grave," he continued, "we are determined to take our full share in the building of a free world. We shall flinch from no one of our tasks. We welcome, and are grateful, for the way in which your Government now is coming to our aid in lightening our century-old duty of being the watchdog of the world."

He said the English-Speaking Unions of the United States and the British Commonwealth and Empire "can render an important public service in helping our two peoples, and the peoples of the British Dominions, to see the debits and credits of English-speaking comradeship in fair perspective."

Shangri-La Wac Studies for Career

Margaret Hastings, New Guinea Crash Survivor, Is at Syracuse for Engineering.

Syracuse, March 17 (A. P.).—Margaret Hastings, the Shangri-la Wac turned schoolgirl, is busy "pounding" mathematics into her head for a career that hasn't anything to do with a household budget.

The 32-year-old former corporal, a freshman at Syracuse University, has mapped a career in engineering. It involves ten hours of study daily.

"I don't do much of anything except study," Miss Hastings said in an interview. She added that she feels she's beyond "the cheer leader age."

As for marriage, despite rumors to the contrary, the former Wac insists "I've never been farther from it in my life."

Two years ago, Miss Hastings survived a plane crash in New Guinea in which twenty-one persons were killed. She and two other survivors, Lieut. John B. McCollom of Trenton, Md., and Sgt. Kenneth W. Decker of Kelso, Wash., lived for forty-seven days in a New Guinea jungle, which became known as the "hidden valley of Shangri-la." They were rescued by glider.

Miss Hastings, a native of Owego, N. Y., attracted attention when first she enrolled at Syracuse last fall, but, as she puts it, "they got used to me after awhile." Sororities, pink teas and most other college functions are out as far as she is concerned.

She entered Syracuse under the G. I. Bill of Rights, and receives monthly checks from the Government.

"Sixty-five dollars a month isn't enough to live on," she commented, "but I wouldn't want any more from the Government. The money does pay for my education, and I don't think the taxpayers should be required to buy my cigarettes."

McMahon Sees Arms Race War if Reds Shun Atom Plan

New York, March 17 (AP).—Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) declared tonight that if Russia rejects plans for international control of atomic energy the world can look forward to an armaments race and a third world war.

In an address prepared for delivery before the St. Patrick Society of Brooklyn, the Connecticut Senator said he is "deeply disturbed by the present status of atomic energy negotiations" in the light of a recent speech by Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet representative on the United Nations Security Council.

"If our offer and our plan is to be finally rejected then I say to you bluntly and frankly that we must be prepared for the eventuality which has always resulted from armaments races," McMahon declared.

McMahon, a member of the Senate-House Atomic Committee, said that it will be only a matter of time until Russia has the atomic bomb. He noted that the Russians apparently "see no cause for hurry" in arriving at international agreements either on atomic control or on a peace treaty for Germany.

"Is it because they see a continuing disintegration in the free world and hope that out of the chaos and despair and misery that accompanies it will come their chance to inherit the earth?" he asked.

"If they do, I would beg of them to see and understand that the American people have proved in the fires of conflict that we think well enough of our way of life to die for it—that we will not stand idly and passively by and watch the ways of totalitarianism engulf the earth."

McMahon argued that only by helping the rest of the world share in the American standard of living can communism be defeated.

"That is why, as I see it," he said, "we have decided to bring aid and succor and relief to the distressed nations of the earth."

Alluding to what he said were "unfounded and baseless attacks upon candidates for public office," McMahon said he hopes the Senate does not long delay action on President Truman's January 15 nomination of David E. Lilienthal to head the Atomic Control Commission.

He said that while commission members are serving under recess appointments, decisions "of the gravest consequences in the operations of our atomic energy program" are being delayed until the Senate acts.

Krug Voices Warning Of Ore Depletion

New York, March 17 (AP)—Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug said today this country has come to the point where "willy-nilly, we must seek outside sources for an increasing important group of minerals."

Krug told the American Insetitute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers that depletion of various mineral supplies "is a matter of national concern."

He included in the group which he said was once abundant in this country but now is becoming depleted, copper, lead, zinc, antimony, tungsten, manganese, vanadium, chromium, mercury, gold, silver, fluorspar, bauxite and petroleum.

"Known ores, available under present economic and technical conditions, have been mined at an unequalled rate during the past six years," Krug said.

United Nations Challenge Seen

Lake Success, N.Y., March 17 (AP). Gen. Douglas MacArthur's proposal for United Nations stewardship over Japan's political and economic future was viewed generally here tonight as a challenge the United Nations would be able to accept after the peace is made and the military occupation ended.

However, MacArthur's suggestion immediately opened a wide field of speculation on just how the world organization could grapple with the peacetime problems of the beaten enemy.

Comment Generally Reserved

The MacArthur program appeared in news dispatches here as the Security Council was gathering for further debate on the American proposal for sole strategic area trusteeship over the hundreds of Japanese-mandated islands now under United States military occupation.

Warren R. Austin, Chief American delegate, read the news and exclaimed "fine," but he wondered over the details of the proposed United Nations supervision of Japan.

Comment generally was reserved while the delegates speculated as to whether MacArthur was speaking only for himself or for official Washington as well.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate and Deputy Foreign Minister, had no comment.

Paul Hasluck, Australian delegate, said he expected his Government would have some comment on MacArthur's suggestions for the Japanese homeland.

By virtually ruling out any further need for military occupancy, MacArthur presented the kind of problem the United Nations was set up to handle and would be ready to meet, one informed quarter said.

There are several ways in which the Japanese homelands could be placed under United Nations supervision but they would be most likely—under the MacArthur plan—to wind up in the jurisdiction of the Security Council by directive of the Allied Foreign Ministers who sign the peace treaty.

On procedure this would provide a rough, large-scale parallel with the Trieste decision by which the territory at the top of the Adriatic was passed by the Big Four Foreign Ministers to the Security Council for autonomous administration.

U. N. Action Again Delayed On U. S. Pacific Island Plan

Lake Success, N. Y., March 17 (AP).—Action was delayed on the United States trusteeship plan for the Japanese-mandated islands again today after Britain and Australia sought to write into the agreement a provision that it would not become effective until the Japanese peace is concluded.

The proposal was opposed by United States Delegate Warren R. Austin, who contended that the trusteeship was a matter for the United Nations Security Council to settle and had nothing to do with the peace treaty.

After a debate of more than three hours, the Council put the issue over until 3 p. m. Friday.

Representatives of India, New Zealand, Canada, the Philippines and the Netherlands—invited to the Council table to express their views as interested states—sat through the long discussion without getting an opportunity to be heard.

Austin was supported by Chinese Delegate Dr. Quo Tai-chi, Polish Delegate Oscar Lane, and French Delegate Alexandre Parodi.

The issue was raised when Dr. Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, president of the Council, expressed doubts as to the legality of an Australian amendment which would have made the trusteeship agreement subject to confirmation by the Peace Conference.

Australian Delegate Paul Hasluck changed his original amendment to eliminate the "confirmation" provision and substitute a provision that the trusteeship agreement would not become effective until the peace was signed.

Aranha said this cleared up his doubts, but Austin immediately took the floor and voiced his objections at length, principally on the grounds that Hasluck's proposal was illegal.

Delegates who once believed that approval might be speedy were to meet again to hear statements from New Zealand, India, the Netherlands and the Philippines and to wade through a series of suggested changes from Russia, Australia and Great Britain.

Austin Rejects Them

Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, has already directly or indirectly turned down all the amendments, leading observers to predict an extended debate. In addition, the four countries giving statements were expected to suggest some more changes.

The proposed agreement to place the Pacific island chains under a "strategic area" trusteeship with the United States as sole administrator would amount to virtual annexation, with the terms empowering Washington to close the islands at will for security, fortify them and ban foreign aircraft.

Regardless of delays the United States will remain on the islands, comprising the Marshalls, Carolines and Marianas and including such wartime bases as Saipan, Tinian, Truk, Eniwetok, Kwajalein and Majuro.

Amendments Snag U.S. Isle-Trustee Plan

Lake Success, N.Y., March 17 (AP). The United States proposal to take over the Japanese-mandated islands under United Nations trusteeship snagged today on a series of amendments in the Security Council.

Iran's Fabulous Oil Resources Described To Metallurgists

MAR 1947

New York, March 17 (AP)—Iran's fabulous oil resources are so vast that 24 wells there produce half as much as 24,000 wells in the East Texas field, Sir William Fraser, chairman of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., Ltd., told the World Conference on Mineral Resources today.

The East Texas field is the world's largest producer, while the Iranian Haft Kel field is next.

New Guinea Sources Cited

Sir William told the conference conducted by the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, that Europe, Africa and Australia apparently are going to have to depend for their oil on the Western Hemisphere and Middle East.

An exception, he said, is European Russia which has some major oil supplies. Romanian and Hungarian oil fields are minor. New Guinea has oil, which, he said, may make a modest world contribution.

Clinton H. Crane, president of the St. Joseph Lead Company, said American reserves of copper, lead and zinc were ample for the next 15 to 25 years.

Krug Lists Scarce Minerals

Earlier, J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, listed those three among thirteen American minerals in which, he said resources were becoming depleted.

Krug said no industrial nation now can expect to be isolationist because of need for minerals that have to be supplied outside its own territories.

Crane did not disagree, but he said he had faith that the Eastern part of the United States and of Canada would be found to contain substantial deposits of minerals not heretofore known.

New Tin Allocation

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The Combined Tin Committee, reporting a "marked deterioration" in world tin supplies, today announced a small additional allocation totaling 6,785 tons for the first half of 1947, far short of requests filed by the twenty-odd countries sharing the tin allocation.

"The committee is not in a position to predict how soon the supply position will improve," said a committee announcement. Several countries, it explained, were omitted entirely from the list of those receiving additional supplies.

Estimates made in January, when 10,915 tons were allocated among the claimant nations, have proved to be far higher than the supply actually obtainable, the committee said.

U.S. Gets Largest Share

Demands for allocations for the January-to-June period totaled 60,000 long tons, the committee said, whereas the January allotments and today's additional supplies aggregate only 17,700 tons.

"The committee proposes to review the supply position again in May, at which time final allocations for the first half of 1947 will be recommended," the statement said. "There may by that time be a further quantity available for allocation from Japanese stocks."

The coal shortage now limiting production in the Netherlands East Idies "may be temporary" the report said, and new equipment now being provided the Indies may be expected to boost output by the end of this year.

Under "the new interim allocations the United States receives 5,686 long tons, bringing this country's total first-half allocation to 9,326 tons—by far the largest of any nation.

Possible Russian Police Role In '43 Slaying To Be Studied

New York, March 17 (AP)—Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet said today that the New York county district attorney's office would consider a request that the role of the Russian secret police (NKVD) in connection with the unsolved slaying of Carlo Tresca, Italian language labor newspaper editor, be investigated.

Grumet's comment was made after a group, headed by Norman Thomas, Socialist leader, left with him a statement which urged the district attorney "to summon a grand jury to investigate the role of NKVD and certain American Communist party leaders" in the Tresca slaying in New York on January 11, 1943, and the disappearance of Juliet Stuart Poyntz.

Book By Budenz Cited

Miss Poyntz, one-time Communist leader, was declared legally dead in October, 1944, seven years after disappearing from her mid-Manhattan residence in June, 1937. At the time Surrogate James A. Foley noted that charges had been made that she was "kidnapped and removed to Russia."

The Thomas-led group said in its statement that the book, "This Is My Story," by Louis F. Budenz, former member of the Communist party's national committee, "reveals highly important information about the terrorist activities of the NKVD, the Russian secret police, in the United States."

Called International Problem

Thomas said the group had received "assurances" from Grumet, adding: "We don't expect a miracle." He said the group told Grumet that Federal and local prosecutors should "band together in an all-out effort to stamp out Communist terrorists and political murders."

The Socialist leader said the group urged that "a grand-jury investigation or a John Doe investigation" should be conducted to stop "Soviet agents from enlisting aid of Americans in these plots and murders. It's time for law enforcement to put an end to this terror. But it's an international problem."

Accompanying Thomas were Author James T. Farrell and City Councilman Louis P. Goldberg, representing the 47 signers of the statements.

GEORGE WILSON BRITISH BICYCLE MANUFACTURER, HEARING THAT DOUGLAS WAS AN ARDENT CYCLIST BUT HAD NOT BROUGHT HIS OWN MACHINE WITH HIM, ASKED THE NEW AMBASSADOR TO ACCEPT A WILSON MODEL AS A GIFT.

THE NEW AMBASSADOR BEGAN HIS DUTIES AMID A GROWING PRESS CONTROVERSY OVER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLAN TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY.

DOUGLAS HIMSELF DID NOT COMMENT ON THE QUESTION ON HIS ARRIVAL YESTERDAY, LIMITING HIMSELF TO A BRIEF EXPRESSION OF CONFIDENCE IN BRITISH-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

"THE RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN AMERICA AND BRITAIN ARE STRONGER NOW THAN THEY HAVE EVER BEEN," DOUGLAS TOLD REPORTERS WHEN HIS PLANE LANDED AT A LONDON AIRPORT. "I HOPE THAT DURING MY TERM OF OFFICE THEY WILL BECOME EVEN STRONGER." EARLIER HE TOLD NEWSMEN WHO MET HIM DURING A STOPOVER AT SHANNON, EIRE.

"THERE'S A TREMENDOUS SYMPATHY IN THE UNITED STATES FOR BRITAIN'S PRESENT ECONOMIC PREDICAMENT, COMING AS IT DOES AFTER SEVEN BITTER YEARS OF WAR," HE SAID.

CRITICISM OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND THE NEW AMBASSADOR WAS VOICED MEANWHILE BY THE COOPERATIVE MOVEMENT'S REYNOLDS NEWS.

"TRUMAN HAS ALL BUT DECLARED WAR ON RUSSIA," SAID AN ARTICLE BY FOREIGN EDITOR DAVID RAYMOND. "HE AND HIS NEW AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN HAVE MADE IT CLEAR THAT AMERICA INTENDS TO REVERSE THE TREND TOWARD PLANNED ECONOMY."

RICHARD H.S. CROSSMAN, LEFTIST LABOR MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, WROTE IN THE SUNDAY PICTORIAL THAT THE UNITED NATIONS "FOR THE TIME BEING IS A BROKEN REED."

MOST CONSERVATIVE PAPERS APPROVED MR. TRUMAN'S STAND. THE SUNDAY OBSERVER NOTED THAT "DOUGLAS IS A LEADING MEMBER OF ~~---~~ CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATS BROUGHT INTO POWER BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN" AND ADDED:

"IT IS TO THIS GROUP THAT AMERICA OWES THESE BOLD POLICIES WHICH WERE SUMMED UP IN PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S FORTHRIGHT SPEECH."

THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL ALSO CAME IN FOR A BELABORING FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE BRITISH COMMUNIST PARTY, WHICH SAID IT WAS AIMED AT UNDERMINING BRITAIN.

NIGHT LEAD DOUGLAS (330)

BY EDWARD L.CAMPBELL

LONDON, MARCH 17-(AP)-LEWIS W. DOUGLAS, THE NEW U.S. AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN, CHATTED AMIABLY FOR 45 MINUTES TODAY WITH PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE IN THE FIRST STEP TOWARD STARTING DIPLOMATIC WHEELS TURNING IN THE PROCESS OF MAKING DOUGLAS' POSITION AN OFFICIAL ONE.

ATTLEE WAS ACTING AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, WHOSE FOREIGN OFFICE HAS THE TASK OF ARRANGING THE FORMAL PRESENTATION OF DOUGLAS TO THE COURT OF ST. JAMES. THE SUBJECTS COVERED IN THEIR TALK, AT NO. 10 DOWNING STREET, WERE NOT DISCLOSED.

BEVIN IS IN MOSCOW AT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING, BUT HIS OFFICE WILL TAKE OVER THE MATTER OF PROTOCOL TOMORROW BY ARRANGING FOR THE FORMAL PRESENTATION OF DOUGLAS TO THE DUKE OF GLOUCESTER. IT WILL BE A CASE OF AGAIN MEETING A SUBSTITUTE, FOR THE DUKE IS ACTING FOR HIS BROTHER, KING GEORGE VI, WHO IS TOURING SOUTH AFRICA.

AIDES FOR DOUGLAS SAID HE WOULD ANNOUNCE NO APPOINTMENTS OF HIS OWN UNTIL AFTER HE PRESENTS HIS CREDENTIALS AT COURT.

PRIOR TO HIS VISIT WITH ATTLEE DOUGLAS "SETTLED IN" AT THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN GROSVENOR SQUARE, THE SITE SELECTED BY THE BRITISH FOR THE ERECTION OF A STATUE OF THE LATE FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

THE EMBASSY SAID THAT THE GENIAL DOUGLAS, WHO HAD ARRIVED AT HIS OFFICE AT 9 A.M., HAD SHAKEN HANDS WITH AND TALKED TO SOME 50 OF HIS SUBORDINATE OFFICIALS BEFORE LUNCH.

HIS VIGOROUS EXPRESSIONS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE FUTURE OF BRITAIN, MADE UPON HIS ARRIVAL YESTERDAY, WON HIM FAVORABLE RECEPTION IN THE BRITISH PRESS.

DOUGLAS' HOME FOR THE PRESENT IS AT PRINCESS GATE, BUT REPAIRS AND RENOVATIONS ARE BEING RUSHED ON WINFIELD HOUSE. THE REGENTS PARK RESIDENCE GIVEN TO THE EMBASSY BY THE WOOLWORTH HEIRESS BARBARA HUTTON. IT IS EXPECTED TO BE READY FOR OCCUPANCY BY JUNE.

THE PRINCESS GATE RESIDENCE IS UNATTRACTIVE AND NOISY IN COMPARISON WITH WINFIELD HOUSE. AT PRINCESS GATE THE AMBASSADOR OCCUPIES A SMALL APARTMENT FRONTING ON BUSY KNIGHTSBRIDGE, A MAIN THOROUGHFARE. WINFIELD HOUSE IS ON THE OUTER CIRCLE OF WOODED REGENTS PARK AND HAS SPACIOUS, PRIVATE GROUNDS.

LONDON, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE DESTRUCTIVENESS OF MODERN WEAPONS MAY BE ENDING THE ISSUANCE OF WAR RISK INSURANCE POLICIES BY PRIVATE COMPANIES, LONDON UNDERWRITERS SAID TODAY.

UNDERWRITERS WERE CONSIDERING A PROPOSAL OF THE NORDIC WAR RISK INSURANCE POOL, AN ASSOCIATION OF SCANDINAVIAN INSURANCE COMPANIES, THAT WAR RISK INSURANCE BY PRIVATE ENTERPRISE BE DISCONTINUED. PEACETIME PREMIUMS ARE SMALL, AND MANY FIRMS FEAR THAT WHOLESALE DEVASTATION BY ATOMIC AND OTHER WEAPONS MIGHT RUIN THEM.

LONDON UNDERWRITERS HAD REACHED NO CONCLUSIONS, BUT SOME FELT THAT WAR RISK INSURANCE, IF IT IS TO SURVIVE AS AN ENTERPRISE, MUST BE TAKEN OVER BY GOVERNMENTS.

BY ROBERT EUNSON

PARIS,MARCH 17-(AP)-DR.FREDERIC JOLIOT-CURIE THINKS HE KNOWS HOW TO MAKE AN ATOM BOMB AND DISCUSSED THE FORMULA TODAY, BUT HE SAID HE HAD NEVER EXPERIMENTED WITH THE WEAPON BECAUSE FRANCE HAD PROMISED THE UNITED NATIONS HE WOULD NOT.

HE SAID HIS FORMULA PROBABLY WAS NOT THE SAME AS THE AMERICAN BOMB, BUT THAT IN PRINCIPLE IT PROBABLY WAS NOT VERY FAR OFF EITHER.

REPEATING WHAT HE ONCE TOLD A CLASS AT THE SORBONNE UNIVERSITY IN PARIS, THE YOUNG FRENCH SCIENTIST SAID HE IMAGINED AN ATOM BOMB COULD BE MADE BY ARRANGING TWO HEMISPHERES OF URANIUM IN A TUBE SO THAT THERE WOULD BE CRASHED TOGETHER WHILE ONE WAS BEING BOMBARDED BY NEUTROS.

"THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAS COMMITTED HERSELF TO THE UNITED NATIONS BY DECLARING OUR EXPERIMENTS WITH ATOMIC ENERGY WILL BE CONFINED TO PEACEFUL APPLICATIONS." DR.JOLIOT-CURIE SAID.

HE SAID THE COMMITMENT WAS MADE IN 1946, SHORTLY AFTER THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT ORGANIZED AND PLACED HIM AT THE HEAD OF FRANCE'S ATOMIC COMMISSION. SO FAR HIS EXPERIMENTS HAVE BEEN CONFINED TO USES OF NUCLEAR ENERGY IN THE FIELDS OF BIOLOGY AND CHEMISTRY, HE SAID. THE ATOMIC COMMISSION IS NOW SECURING LAND NEAR PARIS FOR A LARGE TESTING FIELD WHERE "LOS ENERGY" PILES WILL BE PLACED. A SECO

THE ATOMIC COMMISSION IS NOW SECURING LAND NEAR PARIS FOR A LARGE TESTING FIELD WHERE "LOW ENERGY" PILES WILL BE PLACED. A SECOND EXPERIMENTAL PLANT WILL BE SET UP LATER IN A DEPOPULATED SECTOR OF FRANCE WHERE A MORE POWERFUL PILE WILL BE PLACED TO GENERATE NUCLEAR ENERGY.

DR.JOLIOT-CURIE AND HIS WIFE, IRENE CURIE, DAUGHTER OF THE FAMED X-RAY SPECIALIST, MARIE CURIE, WON A NOBEL PRIZE FOR THEIR DISCOVERY OF "INDUCED" RADIO ACTIVITY.

SO ANYTHING HE HAS TO SAY ON THE SUBJECT OF HOW TO MAKE AN ATOM BOMB CANNOT BE TAKEN LIGHTLY.

HOWEVER, JOLIOT-CURIE INSISTED EMPHATICALLY THAT IT BE REMEMBERED THAT ALL HE HAD TO SAY ON THE SUBJECT WAS BASED IN SPECULATION.

A125

THE FIRST THING YOU NEED TO MAKE AN ATOM BOMB, DR. JOLIOT-CURIE BELIEVES, IS A MASS OF URANIUM 235 IN SPHERICAL FORM, CAPABLE OF EXPLODING UNDER BOMBARDMENT BY NEUTRONS. DIVIDE THIS MASS INTO TWO HEMISPHERES, PLACING ONE AT EACH END OF A CYLINDRICAL TUBE. ONE IS STATIONARY AND THE OTHER CAN SLIDE TOWARD IT. NEITHER HAS THE RIGHT MASS TO START A CHAIN REACTION WITHOUT THE OTHER.

HE ESTIMATES ROUGHLY THAT SIXTY POUNDS OF URANIUM WOULD CREATE AN EXPLOSION COMPARABLE TO THAT OF 20,000 TONS OF THE MOST POWERFUL EXPLOSIVES USED IN EUROPE DURING WORLD WAR TWO.

WITH THE URANIUM, IF YOU ARE GOING TO MAKE A BOMB, DR. JOLIOT-CURIE SUGGESTS A FORM OF POLONIUM WHICH COULD BE MADE INTO A SOURCE FOR THE NEUTRONS YOU ARE GOING TO NEED. THIS POLONIUM SHOOTS A STREAM OF NEUTRONS AGAINST THE FLAT SURFACE OF THE STATIONARY HEMISPHERE OF URANIUM 235.

THEN PLACE AN EXPLOSIVE CHARGE BEHIND THE MOBILE HEMISPHERE OF URANIUM 235.

WHEN YOU SET OFF THE CHARGE, IT WILL PROJECT THE MOBILE HEMISPHERE WITH GREAT VELOCITY TOWARDS THE STATIONARY ONE. WHEN THE TWO HEMISPHERES OF URANIUM 235 ARE REUNITED INTOONE MASS, CONTINUOUS CHAIN EXPLOSIONS WILL DEVELOP, HE SAID.

SUPPOSEDLY HE MEANS THE FISSION WILL BE CREATED BY THE RICOCHETING OF NEUTRONS CAUGHT IN THE CENTER.

HE SAID THERE WOULD THEN PROBABLY BE A SUDDEN AND PRODIGIOUS RISE IN TEMPERATURE, CAUSED BY THIS CHAIN REACTION OF FISSION FROM THE NUCLEUS OF THE URANIUM.

HE SAID THAT NEWSREELS TAKEN OF THE EXPLOSION IN NEW MEXICO SHOW AT THE POINT OF THE EXPLOSION AN IMMENSE LUMINOUS GLOBE, EXTENDING RAPIDLY AND ITS BRILLIANCE SHOWS ITS TEMPERATURE MAY HAVE REACHED 100,000 DEGREES CENTIGRADE. CONSEQUENTLY THE EXPLOSION PRODUCES A TERRIBLE BLOW, SO POWERFUL AND HOT THAT IT IS CAPABLE OF KNOCKING DOWN WALLS AND BUILDINGS. SOME OBJECTS CARBONIZE AND MELT.

MOST OF THE ARMS, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE, APPARENTLY ARE IN LEFTIST HANDS. HE SAID THE HOLDERS OF THE HIDDEN STORES USUALLY SAID THEY WERE FOR "SPANISH REPUBLICANS -- TOO OFTEN A PRETEXT."

THE MINISTER SAID APPROXIMATELY 100 CASES OF MACHINE GUNS, SUBMACHINEGUNS, RIFLES AND GRENADES HAD BEEN SEIZED BY POLICE NEAR PARIS.

THE SOCIAL DEMOKRATEN SAID NOERLUND ESCAPED BY JUMPING FROM A RUSSIAN AUTOMOBILE AS IT PASSED A BRITISH MILITARY POLICE POST. THE PAPER REPORTED THAT SEVERAL SHOTS WERE FIRED BY THE BRITISH AND THAT THE RUSSIANS TURNED AROUND AND DROVE OFF.

AXEL MOOS, NEWS EDITOR OF BERLINGSKE TIDENDE, SAID HE HAD RECEIVED WORD FROM NOERLUND SUNDAY THAT HE HAD BEEN ARRESTED BY THE RUSSIANS NEAR MAGDEBURG BUT WAS NOW EN ROUTE HOME. MOOS SAID HE HAD NO OTHER DETAILS. THE BERLINGSKE TIDENDE IS NOW CLOSED BY A STRIKE.

A DANISH GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THE FOREIGN OFFICE HAD NOT BEEN INFORMED OF THE EPISODE.

VENICE, MARCH 17-(AP)-ON HIS TWELFTH DAY IN THE WITNESS STAND, GERMAN FIELD MARSHAL ALBERT KESSELRING LOST HIS TEMPER TODAY FOR THE FIRST TIME.

AGAIN AND AGAIN STIRLING ASKED KESSELRING WHETHER HE DIDN'T CONSIDER HE SHOULD HAVE HANDLED THE INCIDENT PERSONALLY INSTEAD OF LEAVING IT TO HIS CHIEF OF STAFF, GENERAL VON WESTPHALEN. AFTER THE SAME AND SIMILAR QUESTIONS WERE HAMMERED IN OVER AND OVER KESSELRING REPLIED:

LEANING FORWARD IN HIS CHAIR AND ALMOST SHOUTING AT THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE HE SAID:

"DO YOU THINK I WAS ABLE TO HANDLE EVERY SINGLE THING MYSELF?"

TIGHT-LIPPED STIRLING REPLIED CURTLY:

"I AM SORRY, FIELD MARSHAL, YOU ARE NOT IN A POSITION TO ASK ME ANY QUESTIONS."

LATER, IN HIS WITHERING CROSS-EXAMINATION ON KESSELRING'S ANTI-PARTISAN ORDERS, STIRLING REMARKED THAT SHOOTING PARTISANS WAS IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW, BUT WHAT WAS NOT LEGAL, HE SAID, WAS SHOOTING OF PARTISANS WITHOUT A TRIAL OR SHOOTING CIVILIANS WHO HAD NO CONNECTION WITH PARTISANS.

BUCHAREST, MARCH 16-(DELAYED)-(AP)-FRED SIGERIST, CHIEF OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS'S "OPERATION ROMANIA," SAID TODAY THE DISTRIBUTION OF AMERICAN FOODSTUFFS TO MOLDAVIAN PEASANTS HAD BEEN COMPLETED.

"THE 7,000 TONS OF FOODSTUFFS REACHED CONSTANTA ONLY MARCH 1," SAID SIGERIST, WHO HAD JUST WOUND UP A SIX-DAY INSPECTION TOUR.

"MANY ASPECTS OF THIS GIGANTIC TASK COULD BE DESCRIBED, SUCH AS THE INCREDIBLE SPEED WITH WHICH IT WAS CARRIED OUT, OR THE GREAT SPONTANEOUS ACCLAIM WITH WHICH FOOD TRAINS WERE MET BY THE STARVING PEOPLE IN 21 PROVINCES OF MOLDAVIA.

"BUT THE GREATEST, MOST INSPIRING PHENOMENON WAS THE TOTAL COOPERATION OF ALL GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS WHO COULD CONTRIBUTE TOWARD THE EXECUTION OF THIS HUMANITARIAN TASK, WHICH HAS GIVEN THOUSANDS OF WRETCHED PEOPLE NEW HOPE AND NEW CONFIDENCE IN MAKING A NEW LIFE."

GEN.CONSTANTIN MARDARI, CHIEF ROMANIAN RED CROSS DELEGATE HANDLING THE RELIEF DISTRIBUTION, SAID:

"I HAVE NOTHING BUT WORDS OF THANKS FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THEIR LEADERS."

I MADE THE TOUR WITH THE OFFICIALS ABOARD A SPECIAL RELIEF TRAIN PROVIDED BY THE ROMANIAN GOVERNMENT. THE PARTY RETURNED TO BUCHAREST AT 9:30 P.M. SUNDAY NIGHT.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST FOR THE SPEEDIEST RELIEF TO THE NEEDY, REGARDLESS OF RACE, RELIGION OR POLITICS, WAS ALMOST EVERYWHERE FULFILLED. LOSSES DURING THE DISTRIBUTION WERE NEGLIGIBLE. MR. TRUMAN'S OBJECTIVE OF FEEDING 500,000 PEOPLE IN 16 DAYS ACTUALLY WAS BETTERED, FOR CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATES WERE THAT 1,500,000 HAD BEEN FED IN TEN DAYS.

EVERY PERSON, EVEN IN THE MOST REMOTE FRONTIER OR MOUNTAIN VILLAGE KNEW THAT THE RELIEF CAME FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS WORKERS WHO TRAVELED ACROSS THE COUNTRY IN ROUGH WEATHER HELPING PLACE THE UNITED STATES' GIFT WERE CAPT. PAUL PETROWSKY OF NEW YORK; SGT. ALEXANDER POPA OF CANTON, OHIO; CAPT. ALTON SHIPSTEAD OF WINONA, MINN.; SGT. ROBERT RABINOVICI OF SAN FRANCISCO; COL. JOHN LOVELL OF OTTAWA, IOWA; LT. COL. CASE WILCOX OF WASHINGTON; AND JUDGE ADVOCATE LT. COL. CHARLES LAWRENCE OF NEW YORK.

AFTER SIX DAYS TRAVEL THROUGH THE DISTRESSED AREAS, I FOUND THAT THE RELIEF RATIONS SAVED COUNTLESS LIVES AND BOOSTED MORALE OF THE POPULATION. WHEN SHIPMENTS REACHED SOME VILLAGES, HUNDREDS ALREADY HAD DIED.

SINCE LAST DECEMBER, STATISTICS SHOWED THAT DEATHS FAR EXCEEDED BIRTHS.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN MINISTERS (200-UP)

BY WES GALLAGHER

MOSCOW, TUESDAY, MARCH 18-(AP)-SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M. MOLOTOV DEMANDED LAST NIGHT THAT GERMANY PAY THE SOVIET UNION $10,000,000,000 IN REPARATIONS OVER A 20-YEAR PERIOD, BUT AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID THE UNITED STATES WOULD OPPOSE SPREADING ANY GERMAN WAR PAYMENTS OVER SO LONG A PERIOD.

IN A SAVAGE ATTACK ON THE WESTERN POWERS, MOLOTOV SAID HE WISHED THE FOUR POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS TO DEVISE A 20-YEAR REPARATIONS PLAN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE SOVIET UNION AND, IN ADDITION, DEMANDED THE IMMEDIATE NULLIFICATION OF THE MERGER OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONES IN GERMANY AND A SOVIET HAND IN THE GERMAN STATE CONTROL OF ALL CARTELS AND TRUSTS.

MOLOTOV'S LONG TIRADE AGAINST THE WESTERN POWERS--THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE--BROUGHT A COLD, BLUNT REBUKE FROM U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL, WHO MAINTAINED AN ICY MIEN THROUGHOUT THE FOUR HOUR AND 15 MINUTE SESSION, THE LONGEST TO DATE.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID THE AMERICAN POSITION IN REGARD TO MOLOTOV'S REPARATIONS PLAN WOULD BE THAT TWO DECADES WOULD BE TOO LONG A TIME TO IMPOSE SUCH A FINANCIAL BURDEN ON GERMANY AND THAT SUCH A CONTINUING DEBT WOULD HINDER GERMANY'S RECOVERY FOR YEARS TO COME. ATTEMPTS WILL BE MADE, THE SOURCES SAID, TO HAVE THE RUSSIANS AGREE TO CUT DOWN THE PERIOD PAYMENT CONSIDERABLY.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT GREAT BRITAIN PROBABLY WOULD ADOPT A SIMILAR ATTITUDE TO THE 20-YEAR PLAN.

IN MAKING HIS REPARATIONS DEMAND, MOLOTOV TOLD THE CONFERENCE THAT THE GERMAN AND JAPANESE WARS HAD COST THE SOVIET UNION $357,000,000,000 AND THAT THE DAMAGE INFLICTTED BY GERMAN ARMIES AND THEIR ALLIES ON SOVIET SOIL TOTALED $128,000,000,000.

(THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS REPORTED OFFICIALLY THAT THE WAR COST AMERICA MORE THAN $330,000,000,000. IT HAS ALSO BEEN REPORTED THAT THE UNITED KINGDOM SPENT $120,000,000,000, FRANCE $192,000,000,000 AND GERMANY $272,000,000,000. THE TOTAL COST OF THE WAR TO ALL PARTICIPANTS HAS BEEN ESTIMATED AT OVER $1,116,000,000,000.)

DURING THE WAR, HE CONTENDED, THE GERMANS DESTROYED 1,710 RUSSIAN TOWNS, 7,000 VILLAGES AND 6,000,000 BUILDINGS WHICH LEFT 25,000,000 PERSONS HOMELESS. MORE THAN 35,000 FACTORIES AND 40,000 HOSPITALS WERE DESTROYED, HE ADDED.

MEANWHILE, FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT CONFERRED WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN FOR AN HOUR AND A HALF LAST NIGHT, FRENCH SOURCES SAID. NO INFORMATION WAS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY AS TO THE NATURE OF THEIR DISCUSSION.

BIDAULT WAS THE FIRST OF THE VISITING MINISTERS TO SEE STALIN AND IT WAS EXPECTED THAT MARSHALL AND BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN WOULD FOLLOW SUIT SHORTLY.

MOLOTOV'S REPARATIONS DEMANDS, WHICH WENT FAR BEYOND WHAT EVEN THE MOST PESSIMISTIC OBSERVERS BELIEVED THE SOVIET UNION WOULD ASK, HIGHLIGHTED THE FIRST DAY'S DISCUSSION OF THE EIGHT-DAY-OLD SESSION ON THE ECONOMIC UNITY OF GERMANY.

THE DISCUSSION FOUND RUSSIA LINED UP AGAINST THE THREE WESTERN POWERS. THE DETERMINED STANDS TAKEN BY MARSHALL, BEVIN AND MOLOTOV GAVE NO SUPPORT TO CONFERENCE OBSERVERS WHO EXPECTED SUBSTANTIAL RESULTS ON GERMANY TO BE ACCOMPLISHED AT THE CURRENT MEETING.

MARSHALL, BEVIN AND MOLOTOV AGREED THAT ECONOMIC UNITY WAS NECESSARY FOR GERMANY AND THAT CENTRAL AGENCIES SHOULD BE ESTABLISHED, BUT FROM THIS COMMON GROUND THERE WERE WIDE DIFFERENCES ON THE METHODS OF IMPLEMENTING THE POINTS THEY HAD AGREED UPON. ON OTHER MEASURES THERE WAS TOTAL DISAGREEMENT.

MAR 1947

MARSHALL, IN A NEW BID TO ABOLISH THE VETO, PROPOSED THAT THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL IN BERLIN OPERATE BY A MAJORITY VOTE. THIS WAS CERTAIN TO MEET HEAD-ON OPPOSITION FROM THE RUSSIANS.

FRANCE, UNLIKE THE OTHER THREE POWERS, IS WAITING UNTIL TODAY'S SESSION TO PRESENT ITS VIEWS ON ECONOMIC UNITY AND REPARATIONS, AND IT IS EXPECTED THAT BIDAULT WILL BE AT ODDS WITH THE OTHER POWERS ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF CENTRAL AGENCIES.

MOLOTOV'S 20-YEAR REPARATIONS PLAN, WHICH ENVISIONED TAKING REPARATIONS NOT ONLY FROM GERMAN CAPITAL GOODS, BUT FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION AND FOREIGN ASSETS, WAS EXPECTED TO MEET WITH IMMEDIATE OPPOSITION FROM BRITAIN AND FRANCE, AS WELL AS FROM THE UNITED STATES.

BEVIN--SPEAKING BEFORE MOLOTOV JARRED THE OTHER MINISTERS WITH HIS PLAN--STRESSED THAT REPARATIONS MUST BE TAKEN FROM GERMANY OVER A BRIEF PERIOD AND CONFINED TO CAPITAL GOODS. THE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY PROPOSED THAT A NEW REPARATIONS SURVEY BE MADE AND COMPLETED BEFORE JULY 1.

IT BECAME APPARENT IMMEDIATELY THAT REPARATIONS HAD NO. 1 PRIORITY ON THE SOVIET CONFERENCE AGENDA AND THAT IT WAS THE KEY TO THE ENTIRE GERMAN SITUATION.

NOT ALL THE RECRIMINATIONS, HOWEVER, CAME FROM MOLOTOV, ALTHOUGH HE REPEATED ALMOST EVERY CHARGE AGAINST THE WESTERN POWERS WHICH HAVE BEEN VOICED BY THE RUSSIANS IN THE PAST 18 MONTHS.

MARSHALL, OPPOSING REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION, DECLARED ICILY: "WE UNDERSTAND SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES OF GOODS HAVE BEEN TAKEN OUT OF THE SOVIET ZONE FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION."

ONE CHANGE IN GERMANY SEEMED CERTAIN FROM YESTERDAY'S SESSION, IN ANY EVENT, SINCE BRITAIN, RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES RECOMMENDED THAT A GERMAN CURRENCY REFORM BE MADE IMMEDIATELY WITH THE ISSUANCE OF NEW MONEY TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THE CURRENTLY INFLATED MARK.

DURING THE SHARP DEBATE ON REPARATIONS, MARSHALL INFORMED MOLOTOV THAT GERMANY MUST BE MADE SELF-SUFFICIENT BEFORE REPARATIONS ARE SKIMMED FROM PRODUCTION.

MOLOTOV'S DEMANDS, WHICH EXCEEDED BY FAR THE EXPECTATIONS OF EVEN THE MOST PESSIMISTIC WESTERN OBSERVERS, INCLUDED A PROPOSAL THAT REPARATIONS BE PAID FROM CURRENT GERMAN PRODUCTION.

TAKING SHARP ISSUE WITH THE RUSSIAN DIPLOMAT, U.S.SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL COOLLY INFORMED HIM THAT GERMANY MUST BE MADE SULF-SUFFICIENT BEFORE REPARATIONS ARE SKIMMED FROM PRODUCTION.

"WE CANNOT ACCEPT A UNIFIED GERMANY UNDER A PROCEDURE WHICH WOULD IN EFFECT MEAN THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WOULD PAY REPARATIONS TO AN ALLY," SAID MARSHALL.

MOLOTOV'S CHARGES THAT WESTERN POWERS HAD VIOLATED REPEATEDLY ECONOMIC AGREEMENTS REACHED AT POTSDAM AND YALTA ALSO DREW A SHARP REBUKE FROM MARSHALL.

"I DO NOT AGREE WITH THE BASIS AND/OR LOGIC OF MUCH THAT HE SAID," MARSHALL DECLARED. "BUT CHARGES AND COUNTER-CHARGES GET US NOWHERE EXCEPT IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF GREATER DIFFERENCES. THEY DO NOT SOLVE OUR PROBLEMS. THEY DO COMPLICATE THEM."

MOLOTOV'S SWEEPING DEMANDS, DELIVERED AS THE FOUR-POWER CONFERENCE WENT INTO ITS SECOND WEEK, INCLUDED:

1. REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT GERMAN PRODUCTION, BY THE REMOVAL OF CAPITAL GOODS SUCH AS FACTORIES, AND BY A DIVISION OF FOREIGN GERMAN ASSETS.
2. IMMEDIATE CANCELLATION OF THE ECONOMIC MERGER OF THE BRITISH AND UNITED STATES ZONES OF GERMANY.
3. FOUR-POWER CONTROL OF THE INDUSTRIALLY RICH RUHR, NOW IN THE BRITISH ZONE.
4. RAISING OF THE GERMAN LEVEL OF INDUSTRY TO 12,000,000 TONS OF STEEL A YEAR, SO THAT THE OUTPUT COULD BE USED FOR REPARATIONS.
5. CREATION OF CENTRAL AGENCIES IN GERMANY TO ADMINISTER THE REPARATIONS PROGRAM.
6. MEASURES TO INCREASE GERMAN EXPORTS, IMPROVE HER FINANCIAL AND CURRENCY CONDITIONS, AND PLACE CONTROL OF CARTELS AND TRUSTS UNDER THE STATE.

MAR 1947

A197

THE BIGGEST SURPRISE IN MOLOTOV'S PROGRAM WAS THAT REPARATIONS PAYMENTS BE STAGGERED OVER 20 YEARS, DATING FROM THE SIGNING OF THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT. THE ORIGINAL POTSDAM DECLARATION SET TWO YEARS FOR THE COMPLETION OF REPARATIONS REMOVALS.

HE SAID THAT THE ALLIES HAD AGREED AT POTSDAM AND YALTA THAT RUSSIA SHOULD RECEIVE $10,000,000,000, AND THAT THIS FIGURE REPRESENTED LESS THAN ONE-TENTH OF THE WAR DAMAGE SUFFERED BY THE SOVIET UNION. HE ALSO DEMANDED THAT THE REPARATIONS BE SET AT 1938 WORLD PRICES.

(JAMES M.BYRNES, THEN SECRETARY OF STATE, SAID LAST JULY THAT RUSSIA HAD RECEIVED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY $14,000,000,000 IN REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY. IN ADDITION, RUSSIA HAS RECEIVED MANY GERMAN FACTORIES, INCLUDING PLANTS IN THE AMERICAN ZONE OF OCCUPATION WHICH WERE TRANSFERRED INTACT TO THE SOVIET UNION.)

MOLOTOV LISTED WHAT HE SAID WERE THREE SPECIFIC VIOLATIONS OF THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT BY WESTERN POWERS. THESE WERE:

1. BY THE BRITISH, IN TAKING OVER THE COAL AND IRON OF THE RUHR.
2. BY THE FRENCH, IN SEVERING THE SAAR.
3. BY THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS, IN THE ECONOMIC FUSION OF THEIR ZONES.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN, LIKE MOLOTOV AND MARSHALL, CALLED FOR AN INCREASE IN GERMAN PRODUCTION, AND WARNED THAT ANY ECONOMIC MERGER OF ALL THE ZONES IN GERMANY WOULD REQUIRE ALL OCCUPYING POWERS TO SHARE THE COST EQUALLY.

HE DECLARED THAT BRITAIN WOULD NOT UNDERTAKE NEW OBLIGATIONS WHICH WOULD INCREASE THE COSTS OF THE OCCUPATION OF GERMANY.

BEVINALSO MADE IT PLAIN THAT RUSSIA WOULD HAVE TO FURNISH A FULL REPORT ON WHAT FACTORIES HAD BEEN REMOVED FROM EASTERN GERMANY, AND WHAT FACTORIES WERE LEFT, BEFORE BRITAIN WOULD AGREE TO A MERGER OF ALL ZONES.

"ANY AGREEMENT ON ECONOMIC UNITY WHICH IGNORES THESE ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS OF GERMAN ECONOMY WOULD ADD TO OUR BURDEN," SAID BEVIN. "I CANNOT AND I WILL NOT BE A PARTY TO ANY SUCH AGREEMENT."

MARSHALL PLACED PARTICULAR STRESS ON AN IMPORT-EXPORT PROGRAM TO ENABLE GERMANY TO PAY HER OWN WAY, AND, LIKE MOLOTOV, RECOMMENDED

MAR 1947

30.24-8559

ESTABLISHMENT OF CENTRAL GERMAN AGENCIES.

"AN EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM FOR GERMANY AS A WHOLE SHALL BE INSTITUTED PROMPTLY TO ENABLE GERMANS TO PAY FOR APPROVED IMPORTS AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE IMPORTANCE OF GERMAN EXPORTS TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY," MARSHALL SAID IN A LENGTHY STATEMENT. "ANY INTERIM DEFICIT IN THE GERMAN BALANCE OF INTERNATIONAL PAYMENTS SHALL BE BORNE AMONG THE OCCUPYING POWERS AS MAY BE AGREED IN THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL.

MARSHALL DECLARED THAT THE OCCUPYING POWERS ALSO MUST REACH AN UNDERSTANDING ON "SHARING APPROXIMATELY THE COST OF IMPORTING FOOD NEEDED TO PREVENT STARVATION."

THE U.S.SECRETARY SAID RUSSIA HAD NOT DISCLOSED HOW MUCH OF GERMANY'S CURRENT PRODUCTION HAD BEEN REMOVED TO THE SOVIET UNION, BUT "IT IS BELIEVED THAT THESE QUANTITIES HAVE BEEN SUBSTANTIAL."

"WE REGARD THESE REMOVALS TO BE INCONSISTENT WITH THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT WHICH REQUIRES GERMANY TO BE TREATED AS AN ECONOMIC WHOLE AND PRESCRIBES THE COMMON USE OF RESOURCES AND APPLICATION OF EXPORT PROCEEDS IN THE FIRST PLACE TO PAYMENT OF IMPORTS," MARSHALL SAID.

A6

MEANWHILE, INFORMED SOURCES SAID THAT BEVIN, FOLLOWING THE LEAD OF MARSHALL, HAD REJECTED FORMALLY A RUSSIANN PROPOSAL THAT BRITAIN, RUSSIA AND THE U.S. DISCUSS THE CHINA QUESTION.

THIS INFORMANT SAID BEVIN HAD SENT A LETTER TO MOLOTOV EXPRESSING SIMILAR VIEWS TO THOSE ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY BY MARSHALL, BUT ALSO STRESSING THAT IN BRITAIN'S OPINION THE QUESTION WAS PRIMARILY ONE INVOLVING THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

SOME DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID BEVIN'S REPORTED STAND WAS FURTHER EVIDENCE OF A BRITISH MOVE TOWARD A SECONDARY ROLE IN GREAT POWER ISSUES, WHEN SHE CAN MORE OR LESS GRACEFULLY SEEK TO AVOID RESPONSIBILITIES WHICH EXCEED HER REAL POWER.

FOREIGN MINISTERS
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

MOSCOW, MARCH 17-(AP)-AN EARLY MEETING BETWEEN PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, LIKELY TO HAVE FAR-REACHING EFFECTS ON SOVIET-AMERICAN RELATIONS GENERALLY, WAS PREDICTED IN DIPLOMATIC QUARTERS TODAY AS THE FOUR-POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE ENTERED ITS SECOND WEEK.

BRITISH INFORMANTS SAID MEANWHILE THAT FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN WAS ALIGNING HIMSELF WITH MARSHALL IN THE LATTER'S WEEKEND REJECTION OF SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV'S REQUEST FOR A CONFERENCE ON CHINA, AND A SOLID BRITISH-UNITED STATES FRONT AGAINST BIG THREE INTERFERENCE IN CHINA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS SEEMED TO HAVE DEVELOPED.

THE SECOND WEEK OF MEETINGS HERE--TO PREPARE PEACE TREATIES WITH GERMANY AND AUSTRIA--PROMISED TO SPEED UP THE WORK CONSIDERABLY. THESE EVENTS WERE IN PROSPECT:

FIRST: THE CONFERENCE WAS SCHEDULED TO BUCKLE DOWN TODAY TO THE REAL ISSUES--ECONOMIC UNITY AND REPARATIONS--WHICH HAVE DIVIDED THE WESTERN POWERS AND THE SOVIET UNION IN GERMANY ALMOST SINCE THE WAR'S END. OBSERVERS TERMED PROSPECTS FOR AGREEMENT NONE TOO BRIGHT AND SAID A DEADLOCK MIGHT SHOW UP PROMPTLY.

SECOND: THIS IS ABOUT THE TIME IN SUCH MOSCOW CONFERENCES THAT STALIN USUALLY INVITES EACH VISITING FOREIGN MINISTER TO CALL FOR A TALK. WHILE MARSHALL NEVER TIPS OFF HIS MOVES AHEAD OF TIME, HE WAS BELIEVED FULLY PREPARED TO DISCUSS NEW U.S. ACTIONS IN REGARD TO GREECE AND TURKEY AND STRESS THAT THE U.S. VIEWED THE SITUATION WITH CONCERN.

(PRESIDENT TRUMAN URGED CONGRESS LAST WEDNESDAY TO EARMARK $400,000,000 FOR FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO GREECE AND TURKEY IN LINE WITH A POLICY OF SUPPORTING "FREE PEOPLES WHO ARE RESISTING ATTEMPTED SUBJUGATION BY ARMED MINORITIES OR BY OUTSIDE PRESSURES.")

~~THIRD: BEVIN WAS REPORTED DUE TO MAKE A REPLY IN THE SAME VEIN~~ AS MARSHALL'S TO MOLOTOV'S PROPOSAL FOR TALKS ON CHINA UNDER THE BIG THREE'S MOSCOW AGREEMENT OF DECEMBER, 1945. MOLOTOV THEN WAS EXPECTED TO SAY WHETHER HE WAS WILLING TO ACCEPT THE PROPOSITION THAT THE THREE SHOULD MERELY EXCHANGE REPORTS ON EXECUTION OF THEIR OBLIGATIONS UNDER THAT AGREEMENT. (THE AGREEMENT FAVORED A "UNIFIED AND DEMOCRATIC CHINA UNDER THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT," "BROAD PARTICIPATION BY DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS" AND "CESSATION OF CIVIL STRIFE.")

FOURTH: THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' DEPUTIES DISCUSSING AUSTRIA WERE CONFRONTED WITH THE NECESSITY OF BREAKING A DEADLOCK OVER ALBANIA IF ANY MACHINERY WAS TO BE SET UP FOR INFORMING SMALLER NATIONS OF THE CONFERENCE'S WORK ON GERMANY IN TIME TO DO THEM ANY GOOD. RUSSIA HOLDS THAT ALBANIA MUST BE INCLUDED IN ANY COMMITTEE OF SMALL-NATION ENVOYS ORGANIZED HERE; BRITAIN AND THE U.S. SO FAR HAVE TURNED DOWN THIS PROPOSAL.

LT.GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, WHO SATURDAY BECAME COMMANDER OF U.S. FORCES IN EUROPE AND U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR FOR GERMANY, WAS IN MOSCOW TO ADVISE MARSHALL IN THE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS. SUMMONED THE DAY HE TOOK COMMAND, HE ARRIVED FROM BERLIN AT 2:45 P.M. YESTERDAY.

MOLOTOV TRIED WHEN THE CONFERENCE OPENED LAST MONDAY TO GET CHINA PUT ON THE AGENDA. FAILING IN THAT, HE WROTE MARSHALL AND BEVIN WEDNESDAY TO ASK FOR INFORMAL DISCUSSION OF THE QUESTION.

LAST NIGHT HEADQUARTERS OF THE U.S. DELEGATION MADE PUBLIC MARSHALL'S LETTER IN REPLY, DATED SATURDAY NIGHT. MARSHALL AGREED TO AN EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION ON CHINA BUT SAID: "I DO NOT THINK IT DESIRABLE TO ENGAGE IN ANY CONFERENCE, HOWEVER INFORMAL."

"I SUGGEST," HE SAID, "THAT EACH OF US FURNISH THE OTHER WITH STATED INFORMATION BEFORE APRIL 1 AND THAT EACH OF US MAKE AVAILABLE A COPY OF THE INFORMATION FURNISHED TO THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT." THE LATTER GOVERNMENT HAS OPPOSED ANY DISCUSSION OF HER AFFAIRS, WITHIN OR

WITHOUT THE BIG FOUR CONFERENCE.

THE CONFERENCE'S FIRST WEEK WAS GENERALLY WRITTEN OFF HERE AS A TIME OF PRELIMINARY SPARRING, AND DECISIONS ON GERMANY'S FUTURE WERE DEEMED STILL DISTANT. BUT DISPUTES OVER REPARATIONS, WHICH RUSSIA WANTS BADLY, AND ECONOMIC UNIFICATION, WHICH THE WESTERN POWERS DESIRE TO MAKE GERMANY SELF SUFFICIENT, SEEMED BOUND TO EMERGE CLEARLY IN DISCUSSIONS STARTING TODAY.

U.S. AMBASSADOR WALTER BEDELL SMITH HELD A RECEPTION LAST NIGHT FOR HEADS OF THE ALLIED MISSIONS TO THE CONFERENCE.

DURING THE DAY, WHICH WAS COLD AND CLEAR, FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT HEARD A SERMON BY THE REV. C.A.LABERGE OF WORCESTER, MASS., AT THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH OF ST.LOUIS OF THE FRENCH. MANY CATHOLICS IN OTHER DELEGATIONS ALSO WERE ON HAND. THE PRIEST, SPEAKING IN FRENCH, ENGLISH AND RUSSIAN, DID NOT MENTION THE CONFERENCE.

SOME MEMBERS OF THE DELEGATION STAFFS SAW STALIN SITTING IN A BOX AT THE OPERA SATURDAY NIGHT.

BD331AES

MOLOTOV SAID THAT THE $10,000,000,000 CLAIM REPRESENTED LESS THAN ONE TENTH OF THE DAMAGE SUFFERED BY THE SOVIET UNION. IN ONE OF HIS MAIN POINTS, MOLOTOV PROPOSED THAT REPARATIONS BE VALUED AT 1938 WORLD PRICES.

MOLOTOV MADE OTHER DEMANDS, INCLUDING MEASURES TO IMPROVE GERMAN FINANCIAL AND CURRENCY CONDITIONS, MEASURES TO INCREASE GERMAN EXPORTS, THE PLACING OF THE CONTROL OF CARTELS AND TRUSTS UNDER THE STATE AND MEASURES TO OBTAIN THE COOPERATION OF GERMAN DEMOCRATIC PARTIES.

HE DEMANDED THAT THE AMERICAN-BRITISH ZONAL FUSION BE ANNULLED ON THE ALLEGATION THAT IT VIOLATED THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT.

ONE OF MOLOTOV'S MAJOR SURPRISES WAS HIS SUGGESTION THAT THE REPARATIONS BE SPREAD OVER A 20-YEAR PERIOD DATING FROM THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT. THE ORIGINAL POTSDAM DECISION REACHED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN, PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE SET A TWO-YEAR PERIOD FOR THE COMPLETION OF REPARATIONS REMOVALS.

IT WAS RECALLED, IN VIEW OF MOLOTOV'S SUGGESTION THAT GERMAN STEEL PRODUCTION BE RAISED TO 12,000,000 TONS ANNUALLY, THAT THE FOUR POWERS PROVIDED A YEAR AGO FOR A CAPACITY OF 7,500,000 TONS AND A YEARLY PRODUCTION OF 5,800,000 TONS.

THE RUSSIAN SUGGESTED THAT CENTRAL AGENCIES BE ESTABLISHED IMMEDIATELY IN GERMANY FOR INDUSTRY, AGRICULTURE, FINANCEN TRANSPORT, COMMUNICATIONS AND FOREIGN TRADE.

THE MEETING, AT WHICH FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT PRESIDED, LASTED FOR FOUR AND A HALF HOURS, THE LONGEST OF THE CONFERENCE TO DATE.

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL REBUFFED MOLOTOV FOR HIS CHARGES CONCERNING ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES IN THE WESTERN ZONES.

"I HAVE LISTENED CAREFULLY TO MR.BEVIN AND MR.MOLOTOV," HE SAID. "MR.MOLOTOV'S FIRST STATEMENT ON ECONOMIC MATTERS LARGELY CONSISTS OF CHARGES LEVELLED AGAINST THE ACTIONS AND MOTIVES OF THE OTHER ALLIED POWERS ASSOCIATED IN THE OCCUPATION CONTROL OF GERMANY.

"I DO NOT AGREE WITH THE BASIS AND/OR THE LOGIC OF WHAT HE SAID. BUT THE CHARGES AND COUNTERCHARGES GET US NO WHERE EXCEPT IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF GREATER DIFFERENCES. THEY DO NOT SOLVE OUR PROBLEMS; THEY DO COMPLICATE THEM."

LIKE MOLOTOV, MARSHALL CALLED FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF CENTRAL GERMAN AGENCIES. HE LAID STRESS ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF AN EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM TO ENABLE GERMANY TO PAY HER OWN WAY.

HE SUGGESTED A LENGTHY PROGRAM FOR CONFERENCE APPROVAL AND ACTION BY THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL IN GERMANY, INCLUDING THIS PROPOSAL ON THE EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM.

"AN EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM FOR GERMANY AS A WHOLE SHALL BE INSTITUTED PROMPTLY TO ENABLE THE GERMANS TO PAY FOR THE APPROVED IMPORTS AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE IMPORTANCE OF GERMAN EXPORTS TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY," MARSHALL PROPOSED. "ANY INTERIM DEFICIT IN THE GERMAN BALANCE OF INTERNATIONAL PAYMENTS SHALL BE BORNE AMONG THE OCCUPYING POWERS AS MAY BE AGREED IN THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL."

MARSHALL COLDLY ADVISED THE SOVIET UNION THAT THE IMPORT-EXPORT PROGRAM TO MAKE GERMANY SELF SUFFICIENT MUST COME BEFORE THE TAKING OUT OF ANY REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION. HE EXPLAINED:

"WE CANNOT ACCEPT A UNIFIED GERMANY UNDER A PROCEDURE WHICH WOULD IN EFFECT MEAN THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WOULD PAY REPARATIONS TO AN ALLY.

"TO REACH A GENERAL AGREEMENT, UNDERSTANDING IS ALSO NECESSARY AMONG THE OCCUPYING POWERS FOR SHARING APPROPRIATELY THE COST OF IMPORTING FOOD NEEDED TO PREVENT STARVATION AND TO PAY THE BILL WITH HER OWN EXPORTS."

MARSHALL CONTINUED:

"THE ALLIED CONTROL AUTHORITY HAS NOT REPORT FROM THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES AS TO THE QUANTITIES OF MATERIALS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION THAT HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM GERMANY, BUT IT IS BELIEVED THAT THESE QUANTITIES HAVE BEEN SUBSTANTIAL.

"WE REGARD THESE REMOVALS TO BE INCONSISTENT WITH THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT, WHICH REQUIRES GERMANY TO BE TREATED AS AN ECONOMIC WHOLE AND PRESCRIBES THE COMMON USE OF RESOURCES AND THE APPLICATION OF THE EXPORT PROCEEDS IN THE FIRST PLACE TO THE PAYMENT OF IMPORTS." #

THE BIG QUESTION OF THE MOMENT IS WHAT COURSE IS BEING MAPPED AND WHICH WAY WILL IT LEAD. SOMETHING WOULD APPEAR TO BE UNDERWAY IN SOVIET HIGH COUNCILS. IT MIGHT TAKE THE FORM OF SOME VERY PLAIN TALKING ON THE PART OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN WHEN HE TALKS WITH SECRETARY MARSHALL SOON.

A188

IT WAS TO BE NOTED THAT PRAVDA, THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER, PRESENTED ITS READERS TODAY WITH A SUMMARY OF SENTIMENT OUTSIDE THE SOVIET UNION OPPOSING MR.TRUMAN'S PLANS TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY. THERE WAS NO DOUBT THAT PRAVDA'S READERS ACCEPTED THE SUMMARY AS A GOOD APPRAISAL OF WORLD REACTION.

MAR 1947

30.24-8561

THE SUMMARY CITED SUCH EXPRESSIONS OF OPPOSITION AS THAT BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF AMERICAN SOVIET FRIENDSHIP IN NEW YORK, WHICH OPPOSED MR.TRUMAN'S POLICY ON THE GROUND IT WAS CONTRADICTORY TO AMERICAN TRADITIONS AND THE PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

PRAVDA EVEN WENT ALL THE WAY TO BEYROUTH, LEBANON, TO CITE THE NEWSPAPER EL HAIYAT AS SAYING THAT MR.TRUMAN'S SPEECH WAS "THE FIRST BLOW INFLICTED ON THE COLLABORATION OF THE ALLIES FORMED DURING THE WAR."

JP316PES

MOSCOW, MARCH 17-(AP)-A READER PERUSING THE FOREIGN NEWS PAGE OF PRAVDA TODAY WOULD RECEIVE THE IMPRESSION OF A RISING SENTIMENT THROUGHOUT THE WORLD AGAINST PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLANS TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY.

TASS DISPATCHES REPORTED THAT THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP HAD SENT PRESIDENT TRUMAN A MESSAGE PROTESTING THE POLICY, AND THAT BRITISH LABORITES KONNI ZILLIACUS, GEORGE THOMAS AND WILLIAM WARBEY HAD SPOKEN AGAINST THE PROPOSAL.

THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY ALSO REPORTED THAT THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF EAM, GREEK LEFTISTS, IN A RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN ATHENS, HAD DECLARED "THE TRIUMPH OF THE GOVERNMENT AND OTHER SERVANTS OF FOREIGN IMPERIALISTS CAUSED BY TRUMAN SPEECH DOES NOT REFLECT THE FEELING OF THE GREEK PEOPLE." ATHENS PAPERS WERE ALSO QUOTED AS SAYING THE GREEK SOCIALIST PARTY HAD DECLARED UNITED STATES AID WOULD FURTHER "CIVIL WAR AND LEAD THE NATION TO PERIL."

THE BEIRUT, LEBANON, PAPER EL HAIYAT WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH WAS THE FIRST BLOW INFLICTED ON COLLABORATION OF THE ALLIES.

MOSCOW, MARCH 17-(AP)-WHAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS DID TODAY:

HEARD FOREIGN SECRETARY V.M.MOLOTOV DEMAND FOURPOWER CONTROL OF THE RUHR, DISSOLUTION OF THE AMERICAN-BRITISH ZONAL MERGER, ESTABLISHMENT OF CENTRAL AGENCIES FOR GERMANY AND $10,000,000,000 REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY FOR RUSSIA OVER 20 YEARS.

HEARD SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL QUESTION MOLOTOV'S CHARGES, BUT CALL FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF CENTRAL GERMAN AGENCIES AND AN EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM TO ENABLE GERMANY TO PAY HER OWN WAY.

HEARD FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN OF BRITAIN ASK THE SOVIET UNION FOR DATA ON PLANTS REMOVED FROM EASTERN GERMANY AND THOSE REMAINING AND THEIR OWNERSHIP.

RECEIVED PROPOSAL FROM MOLOTOV TO RAISE GERMAN STEEL PRODUCTION TO 12,000,000 TONS A YEAR. MARSHALL AND BEVIN AGREED THAT THE PRODUCTION LEVEL OF GERMANY SHOULD BE INCREASED.

PALESTINE

BY JOSEPH C.GOODWIN

JERUSALEM, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE BRITISH, PROCLAIMING SOME SUCCESS IN A HUNT FOR JEWISH GUNMEN AND GRENADE-THROWERS, PLANNED AN END AT NOON TODAY (5 A.M., EST) TO MARTIAL LAW THAT FOR TWO WEEKS HAS CUT SOME 250,000 JEWS OFF FROM THE REST OF PALESTINE.

IN A COMMUNIQUE MADE PUBLIC HERE AND IN LONDON, THE PALESTINE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT MILITARY RULE WOULD BE LIFTED FROM JERUSALEM'S MEA SHEARIM JEWISH DISTRICT AND FROM 40 SQUARE MILES OF COASTAL PLAIN RUNNING INLAND FROM TEL AVIV. IT ASKED JEWS TO "INTENSIFY" COOPERATION WITH AUTHORITIES AGAINST UNDERGROUND EXTREMISTS.

LAST NIGHT, AS IF IN REPLY, A BOMB DAMAGED THE NEWS-CONFERENCE ROOM OF THE JEWISH AGENCY HERE IN WHAT POLICE TERMED THE FIRST RECORDED UNDERGROUND ATTACK ON THAT INSTITUTION, OFFICIAL JEWISH ADVISOR TO THE BRITISH. THE BLAST SHOOK UP PERSONS LIVING UPSTAIRS, DAMAGED THE AGENCY'S TRAVEL OFFICE AND NEARBY NEWSPAPER PLANTS AND BROKE WINDOWS IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD. NO CASUALTIES WERE REPORTED.

MAR 1947

MAR 1947

UNOFFICIAL INFORMANTS SAID THE JEWISH IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI (NATIONAL MILITARY ORGANIZATION) HAD PERPETRATED THE BOMBING, POSSIBLY IN ANSWER TO "RUMORS THAT MODERATE JEWRY NOW IS TENDING TO COOPERATE WITH THE PALESTINE GOVERNMENT IN THE FIGHT AGAINST THE TERRORISTS."

BUT THE IRGUN RADIO LATER BROADCAST THAT, UNDER MARTIAL LAW, "THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT SUCCEEDED, BY THREAT OF HUNGER, IN CREATING A COMMUNITY OF INFORMERS." THE BROADCAST DENIED BRITISH ARMY CLAIMS THAT 78 "KNOWN TERRORISTS," INCLUDING 12 IRGUNISTS, HAD BEEN ARRESTED, SAYING NO IRGUN FOLLOWERS HAD BEEN CAPTURED.

"MARTIAL LAW HAS NOT PREVENTED US FROM CARRYING ON OUR FIGHT NOR PARALYZED OUR CONTINUING EFFORTS," THE RADIO SAID.

OTHER EXPLOSIONS YESTERDAY WERE REPORTED TO HAVE INJURED THREE MILITARY POLICEMEN IN A JEEP AT TIBERIAS ON THE SEA OF GALILEE AND TO HAVE BROKEN THE IRAQ PETROLEUM COMPANY'S PALESTINE PIPELINE AT THREE POINTS.

THE JERUSALEM SECTION AND THE COASTAL AREA TO THE NORTHWEST -- INCLUDING TEL AVIV, RAMAT GAN, PETAH TIQVA AND BENEI BERAQ -- WERE PUT UNDER MARTIAL LAW MARCH 2 -- THE DAY AFTER VIOLENCE THAT COST 21 LIVES AT A JERUSALEM BRITISH OFFICERS' CLUB AND ELSEWHERE. SINCE THEN, SEVERAL OTHER KILLINGS AND GUN AND BOMB ATTACKS ON BRITISH ARMY INSTALLATIONS, JEEPS, TRAINS AND PIPELINES HAVE BEEN REPORTED.

BUT, IN ANNOUNCING THE LIFTING OF MARTIAL LAW, THE BRITISH SAID:

"ARMY AND POLICE HAVE COMPLETED THEIR IMMEDIATE TASK AND AN APPRECIABLE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI AND STERN GANG HAVE BEEN APPREHENDED.

"MOREOVER, MUCH VALUABLE INFORMATION HAS BEEN GAINED FOR THE PURPOSE OF FUTURE OPERATIONS AGAINST THEM."

THE AUTHORITIES NOTED "INSTANCES IN THE COMMUNITY OF WILLINGNESS TO ASSIST IN THE ERADICATION" OF THE TWO UNDERGROUND GROUPS AND SAID THEY DID NOT WANT TO "EXTEND INDEFINITELY THE LOSS OF UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISLOCATION IN THE ECONOMIC SITUATION." (A JEWISH SOURCE LAST WEEK ESTIMATED THE ECONOMIC LOSS AT ABOUT $4,000,000 DAILY.)

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID MARTIAL LAW WOULD BE APPLIED AGAIN "AT ANY TIME AND IN ANY PLACE IF, IN THE VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT, CIRCUMSTANCES RENDER IT NECESSARY."

THOUGH THE BRITISH HAD SAID EARLIER THEY WERE HOLDING 78 "TERRORISTS," A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN TOLD REPORTERS 19 KNOWN UNDERGROUND LEADERS STILL WERE AT LARGE AND PICTURES OF THE WANTED MEN WOULD BE POSTED.

THE ONLY INCIDENTS REPORTED AFTER THE LIFTING OF MARTIAL LAW WAS THE DISCOVERY OF A ROAD MINE BY A JEWISH BUS DRIVER ON THE HAIFA-TEL AVIV ROAD NEAR RAANANA. THE MINE WAS DETONATED BY THE MILITARY.

MEANWHILE, THE JEWISH AGENCY EXPRESSED REGRET OVER THE BEATING OF A JEWISH CLERK AT THE BRITISH ARMY PAYMASTER'S HEADQUARTERS IN JERUSALEM THURSDAY. A SPOKESMAN FOR THE AGENCY, SAID THE JEW, NAPHTALI GRUENBAUM, CHIEF CLERK IN THEPAYMASTER'S OFFICE, WAS LURED TO THE BASEMENT OF THE BUILDING AND BADLY BEATEN BY 10 BRITISH SOLDIERS. THE INCIDENT FOLLOWED THE BOMBING OF THE SAME BUILDING BY MEMBERS OF THE JEWISH UNDERGROUND THE PRECEDING DAY. GRUENBAUM, WAS TAKEN TO A HOSPITAL BUT WAS LATER SENT HOME. HE WAS REPORTED TO BE STILL UNDER MEDICAL TREATMENT.

LIFTING OF THE MILITARY RULE FROM JERUSALEM'S MEA SHEARIM DISTRICT AND FROM 40 SQUARE MILES OF THE COASTAL PLAIN RUNNING INLAND FROM TEL AVIV HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY IN A COMMUNIQUE BY THE GOVERNMENT. AT THE SAME TIME IT ASKED JEWS TO "INTENSIFY" COOPERATION WITH AUTHORITIES AGAINST UNDERGROUND EXTREMISTS.

CONGRESSIONAL SANCTION OF THE PLAN IS NECESSARY, AND AN EFFORT TO SATISFY CAPITOL HILL DEMANDS FOR SOME RESTRICTIONS ON THE SCOPE OF THE PROPOSED ASSISTANCE TO THE TWO COUNTRIES APPARENTLY WAS DELAYING FORMAL INTRODUCTION OF THE NECESSARY LEGISLATION.

COINCIDENT WITH VANDENBERG'S INVITATION TO THE SENATE DEMOCRATS, THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE CAME FORTH WITH A PROPOSAL THAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY FORMALLY JOIN WITH IT IN A STATEMENT AFFIRMING THEIR MUTUAL SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN FOR HELPING BULWARK THE MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES AGAINST COMMUNISM.

GAEL SULLIVAN, NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR FOR THE COMMITTEE, TOLD CARROLL REECE, THE REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN, THE PROPOSED STATEMENT WOULD TELL THE WORLD THAT THE TWO PARTIES ARE "AGREED ON THE PURPOSE AND METHOD OF WITHSTANDING THE SPREAD OF TOTALITARIAN AGGRESSION AND ENSLAVEMENT WHEREVER IT MAY OCCUR."

THE REPUBLICANS' FORMAL RESPONSE WAS NOT FORTHCOMING AT ONCE.

VANDENBERG, IN OFFERING THE DEMOCRATS A CHANCE TO THROW A FEW QUESTIONS OF THEIR OWN IN HIS QUIZ, COMMENTED IN THE SENATE:

"PUBLICATION OF THE QUESTIONS AND THE ANSWERS TO THEM OUGHT TO GO A LONG WAY TOWARD CLEARING UP THE PUBLIC'S MIND ABOUT THE PROPOSAL."

THE IDEA THAT CONGRESS ITSELF OUGHT TO HAVE MEMBERSHIP ON ANY MISSIONS SENT TO GREECE OR TURKEY WAS PUT FORTH MEANWHILE BY SENATOR BALDWIN (R-CONN), IN A BROADCAST TALK.

PART OF THE TRUMAN PLAN, ESPECIALLY FOR AIDING GREECE, CALLS FOR SENDING EXPERTS IN VARIOUS ECONOMIC AND AGRICULTURAL FIELDS TO HELP RESTORE HER WAR-BANKRUPT ECONOMY.

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE AND SENATE OUGHT TO BE GIVEN POSITIONS ON THE MISSION, BALDWIN CONTENDED, "SINCE THEY ARE THE DULY ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PEOPLE."

MEANWHILE THE ADMINISTRATION HAS BEEN ASSEMBLING KEY CABINET AND DIPLOMATIC FIGURES TO TESTIFY WHEN HEARINGS DO BEGIN ON A BILL TO CARRY OUT THE PRESIDENT'S IDEAS.

REP.EATON (R-NJ) TOLD REPORTERS THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE WHICH HE HEADS WILL MEET TOMORROW WITH THE HOPE OF HAVING THE BILL BEFORE IT. IT WOULD THEN BE INTRODUCED IMMEDIATELY AND HEARINGS WOULD BE SET. THEY WILL BRING TOP OFFICIALS BEFORE CONGRESS TO EXPLAIN ALL PHASES OF THIS COUNTRY'S MOVE TO STOP COMMUNISM SHORT OF THE STRATEGIC DARDANELLES.

"THE BILL IS INCUBATING IN THE COLOSSAL MINDS OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND AMONG OUR PEOPLE HERE," EATON SAID. "THE HEN GOT OFF THE EGG OVER SUNDAY."

THERE WAS SPECULATION IN CONGRESS THAT THE $400,000,000 AUTHORIZATION BILL MIGHT INCLUDE A PROVISION GIVING TEMPORARY AUTHORITY TO THE RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION TO LEND UP TO $100,000,000 IMMEDIATELY. THE RFC WOULD BE REIMBURSED FROM SPECIAL FUNDS VOTED BY CONGRESS LATER.

ADMINISTRATION LIEUTENANTS INDICATED THAT AN EFFORT IS BEING MADE IN COOPERATION WITH REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO SPELL OUT AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE THE TERMS OF THE FINANCIAL AND LIMITED MILITARY ASSISTANCE WITHOUT TYING THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS IN DEALING WITH THE GREEKS AND TURKS.

THE DEMAND FOR RESTRICTIONS FOUND NEW SUPPORT FROM SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS), WORLD WAR II VETERAN AND MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. HE INSERTED A STATEMENT IN THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD THAT MR.TRUMAN "HAS COURAGEOUSLY FACED THE CHALLENGE OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION AND WE MUST SUPPORT HIM IN PRINCIPLE WHILE WE, YOUR SERVANTS IN CONGRESS, DECIDE WHAT METHODS SHOULD BE USED."

"IF THE PEOPLE AND THEIR CONGRESS WERE TO REPUDIATE THE PRESIDENT," HE ADDED, "THE LAST HOPE OF EVER ORGANIZING PEACE WOULD VANISH."

BUT LODGE SAID CONGRESS HAS THE "RIGHT AND DUTY" TO STIPULATE THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH IT WILL OFFER AID TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES. HE SUGGESTED THESE FIVE GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

A12WX

1. STIMULATION OF AT-HOME PRODUCTION IN COUNTRIES RECEIVING HELP.
2. AMERICAN SUPERVISION OF RELIEF AND OTHER DISTRIBUTION.
3. DENIAL OF AMERICAN GOODS TO COUNTRIES WHICH "PROMOTE POLITICAL IDEOLOGIES HATEFUL TO US."
4. NO AID TO GOVERNMENTS THAT "WASTE THEIR SUBSTANCE ON COMPETITIVE ARMAMENTS."
5. RETURN OF THE AID FUNDS, WHEN THE RECIPIENTS ARE ABLE TO DO SO, EITHER TO THE UNITED STATES OR SOME INTERNATIONAL FUND FOR FUTURE FAMINE RELIEF.

"WE ARE IN AN UNHAPPY AND RATHER SICKENING MOMENT," LODGE SAID. "WE DON'T LIKE ANY PART OF IT. AT BEST WE FACE A CHOICE OF THE LESSER OF EVILS." PRESUMABLY HE MEANT THE CHOICE IS BETWEEN HELPING GREECE AND TURKEY OR NOT ACTING AT ALL.

SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN), ANNOUNCING SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM, TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES THE COUNTRY OUGHT TO KNOW HOW GOV.THOMAS E.DEWEY OF NEW YORK STANDS ON THE ISSUE. OBSERVING THAT DEWEY IS "OBVIOUSLY" A CANDIDATE FOR THE 1948 REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION, MCMAHON DECLARED:

"UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES, I THINK IT WOULD BE WELL IF WE HEARD FROM THE GENTLEMAN FROM ALBANY ON THIS MATTER."

REP.DEVITT (R-MINN) GRIMLY TOLD THE HOUSE MEANWHILE THAT AMERICAN AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY MAY LEAD TO WAR BUT THAT "A QUICKER AND MORE DEVASTATING WAR" MAY RESULT FROM FAILURE TO HELP.

"IN MY JUDGMENT," HE SAID, "WE HAVE NO CHOICE. X X X THIS IS A QUESTION OF BALANCING THE EVILS AND CHOOSING THE LESSER. THERE IS NO CLEAR CHOICE BETWEEN GOOD AND BAD."

IF WE DO NOTHING, HE SAID, RED ELEMENTS WILL SEIZE THE REINS OF GOVERNMENT IN GREECE, THEN IN TURKEY, THEN IN THE ENTIRE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN. DEVITT FORESAW AFTER THAT THE SPREAD OF LEFT-WING GOVERNMENTS TO NORTH AFRICA, ITALY, FRANCE AND PERHAPS TO THE LOW COUNTRIES AND SCANDINAVIA.

THAT, HE DECLARED, WOULD SPLIT THE WORLD INTO TWO DISTINCT CAMPS HEADED BY COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND DEMOCRATIC AMERICA.

"I DO NOT FISUALIZE THAT WE WILL GO TO WAR WITH RUSSIA TOMORROW, OR THE NEXT DAY, OR AT ANY TIME FOR THAT MATTER," DEVITT SAID LATER IN THE SAME SPEECH. "BUT I THINK IT IS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL IN PREVENTING WAR THAT THE POTENTIAL COMBATANTS CLEARLY UNDERSTAND AND APPRECIATE THE MOTIVES AND THE IDEALS OF EACH OTHER.

"EXPERIENCE INDICATES THAT THESE CAN BEST BE CONVEYED TO THE SOVIETS BY OUR WHOLE HEARTED SUBSCRIPTION TO THE POLICY OF FIRMNESS ENUNCIATED BY OUR FORMER ABLE SECRETARY OF STATE, JAMES F.BYRNES, AND RESTATED WITH COMMENDABLE FRANKNESS LAST WEEK BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN BEFORE THIS BODY."

THE ADMINISTRATION WILL MARSHAL ITS BEST QUALIFIED EXPERTS TO TESTIFY BEFORE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON, SECRETARY OF THE NAVY FORRESTAL AND ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ALREADY HAVE BEEN LISTED AS WITNESSES. PAUL PORTER, HEAD OF THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC MISSION TO GREECE, IS EXPECTED TO BE QUESTIONED, AS WELL AS THE AMBASSADOR TO GREECE, LINCOLN MACVEIGH, AND THE AMBASSADOR TO TURKEY, EDWIN C. WILSON. BOTH HAVE BEEN CALLED HOME FOR CONSULTATION.

BEFORE TAKING UP THE GREECE-TURKEY MEASURE, THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MAY ACT ON LEGISLATION AUTHORIZING A $350,000,000 FOREIGN RELIEF PROGRAM, INCLUDING $50,000,000 EARMARKED FOR FOOD FOR THE GREEKS.

EATON REPORTED NO AGREEMENT WAS REACHED ON FINAL TERMS OF THE MEASURE TODAY BECAUSE OF "GENERAL CONFUSION" IN THE MINDS OF MEMBERS DUE TO THE "EMERGENCY OF THE NEW POLICY PROCLAIMED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN." HE SAID THE COMMITTEE WANTS TO FIT THE RELIEF MEASURE INTO THE GENERAL FOREIGN PROGRAM.

(ADVANCE)...(WX)...PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 17-(AP)-SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME) SAID TONIGHT THE UNITED STATES OUGHT TO RALLY OTHER NATIONS BEHIND PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECISION TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY WITH FINANCIAL AND SOME MILITARY HELP.

IN AN ADDRESS FOR THE FRIENDLY SONS OF ST.PATRICK, BREWSTER SAID IT IS "HIGHLY UNFORTUNATE" FOR THIS COUNTRY TO HAVE TO ACT BEFORE A REPORT IS MADE BY A UNITED NATIONS COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING GUERRILLA FIGHTING ALONG GREECE'S BORDERS.

"IF THIS REPORT CONFIRMS CURRENT IMPRESSIONS AS TO THE OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE FURNISHED THE REBELS IN THE GREEK CIVIL WAR, THERE WOULD BE IMMEDIATE JUSTIFICATION FOR ANY MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS MOVING TO ASSIST A FELLOW MEMBER IN DISTRESS," HE SAID.

"LACKING SUCH A REPORT THE UNITED STATES IS ARROGATING TO ITSELF THE DETERMINATION OF SOVIET RESPONSIBILITY EXACTLY AS RUSSIA HAS DECLARED ITS SPHERE OF INFLUENCE IN THE BALKANS UNDER THE GUISE OF DEFENDING ITS FRONTIERS."

THE SOLUTION, THE SENATOR SAID, IS TO INTEREST OTHER NATIONS IN THE SITUATION "THROUGH A UNION OF PEACE LOVING PEOPLES INDEPENDENT OF RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES." HE DID NOT ELABORATE ON THIS THEME.

"OTHERWISE," HE SAID, "UNCLE SAM WILL BE TRANSFORMED INTO SIMPLY A GLORIFIED SANTA CLAUS SEEKING TO HELP ALL THE WORLD OUT OF THE SOVIET ORBIT BY PERFECTLY IMPOSSIBLE DISTRIBUTION OF AMERICAN LARGESSE."

Q GREECE (300)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 17-(AP)-A BLUEPRINT FOR LIFTING WAR-TORN GREECE TO A HIGH LEVEL OF PROSPERITY WITHIN TWO OR THREE DECADES WAS PUT INTO THE HANDS OF THE GREEK GOVERNMENT TODAY BY THE UNITED NATIONS FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION.

DRAFTED BY A MISSION OF INTERNATIONAL EXPERTS ON AGRICULTURE AND ECONOMICS, THE PROGRAM MADE NO DIRECT REFERENCE TO GREECE'S CURRENT PLIGHT UNDER COMMUNISTIC PRESSURES OR TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HISTORIC CALL FOR ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID TO BOTH THAT COUNTRY AND TURKEY.

LONG IN PREPARATION, THE REBUILDING PROGRAM RECOMMENDED MODERNIZATION OF GREECE'S BACKWARD AGRICULTURE AND DEVELOPMENT OF INDUSTRIES TO TAKE SURPLUS PEOPLES OFF OVERCROWDED LAND.

THE MISSION RECOMMENDED OUTSIDE FINANCIAL AID, PARTICULARLY LOANS FROM THE INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT, STARTING WITH $100,000,000 THIS YEAR.

THE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM WOULD CONCENTRATE ON GREEK WATER RESOURCES. THE EXPERTS SAID THOSE RESOURCES COULD BE HARNESSED TO PROVIDE MORE IRRIGATED LANDS, TO PREVENT DESTRUCTIVE FLOODS, AND TO PROVIDE HYDROELECTRIC POWER FOR NEW INDUSTRIES.

DETAILED PLANS FOR RAISING GREEK LIVING STANDARDS WERE CONTAINED IN A 188-PAGE REPORT PREPARED BY THE FAO MISSION, WHICH WAS HEADED BY PRESIDENT FRANKLIN S.HARRIS OF UTAH AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL FUNCTIONS OF THE FAO IS TO ADVISE INDIVIDUAL NATIONS HOW THEY CAN IMPROVE THEIR AGRICULTURAL AND RELATED INDUSTRIES THE GREEK MISSION, WHICH WAS REQUESTED BY THAT COUNTRY'S GOVERNMENT, IS THE FIRST SENT BY THE FAO TO ANY COUNTRY.

THE REPORT SAID THAT "IF GREECE ESTABLISHES PEACE AND STABILITY WITHIN HER OWN BORDERS, AND IF INTERNAL PRODUCTION AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE BETWEEN GREECE AND OTHER COUNTRIES IS EXPANDED, THEN THERE IS NO REASON WHY GREECE SHOULD NOT DOUBLE OR TRIPLE ITS PRE-WAR INCOME WITHIN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE DECADES."

WHILE RECOMMENDING THAT THE GREEK GOVERNMENT INAUGURATE MEASURES DESIGNED TO ENCOURAGE GREEK FARMERS TO ABANDON INEFFICIENT TRADITIONAL METHODS FOR MODERN TECHNIQUES, THE MISSION EMPHASIZED THAT THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT SHOULD BE BROUGHT ABOUT BY GRADUAL AND VOLUNTARY ACTION OF THE GREEK PEOPLE AND NOT BY "COMPULSORY DIRECTIVES."

NIGHT LEAD GEARHART

WASHINGTON, MARCH 16-(AP)-REP GEARHART (R-CALIF) INSISTED IN A HOUSE SPEECH TODAY THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE QUESTIONING AMERICA'S RIGHT TO ALASKA ALTHOUGH THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT KNEW NOTHING OF ANY SUCH RUSSIAN CLAIMS.

"SOVIET RUSSIA IS LOOKING AT ALASKA WITH COVETOUS EYES," GEARHART SAID.

"DOES SHE PLAN TO CLAIM A MUCH GREATER PRICE FOR THAT TERRITORY THAN WAS ORIGINALLY PAID?

"OR DOES SHE PLAN TO REPOSSESS HERSELF OF THAT TREASURE HOUSE OF THE FAR NORTH."

IN THE FACE OF STATE DEPARTMENT DISCLAIMERS, GEARHART SUGGESTED A POSSIBILITY OF SECRET TALKS, AND OF A TIE-UP WITH SLOW RUSSIAN LEND-LEASE SETTLEMENTS.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT, ASKED ABOUT GEARHART'S REPORT, WHICH HE MADE FIRST IN AN INTERVIEW LAST NIGHT, SAID NO REPRESENTATIONS HAD BEEN MADE TO THIS COUNTRY ON THE SUBJECT. IT ADDED THAT THE DEPARTMENT KNEW NOTHING OF ANY SUCH RUSSIAN CLAIMS, OFFICIALLY OR UNOFFICIALLY.

GEARHART TOLD THE HOUSE THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD GIVEN HIM A SIMILAR DENIAL, BUT ADDED:

"HOWEVER, IF MEMORY SERVES, WE WERE TOLD THERE WERE NO SECRET AGREEMENTS MADE DURING THE YALTA AND TEHRAN CONFERENCES (BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL AND PREMIER STALIN). LATER WE LEARNED TO OUR AMAZEMENT THAT OUR LEADERS HAD IN FACT MADE SECRET AGREEMENTS OF COLOSSAL IMPORTANCE AT THOSE CONFERENCES."

GEARHART URGED THAT THE ALASKA QUESTION BE BROUGHT "INTO THE OPEN."

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE," HE SAID, "HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW WHAT, IF ANY, SECRET CONVERSATIONS HAVE BEEN HELD BETWEEN OUR DIPLOMATS ON THIS IMPORTANT QUESTION."

MAR 1947

GEARHART SAID HE HAD BEEN INFORMED THAT THE RUSSIAN NEWSPAPER PRAVDA CLAIMED THE CZAR ACTED WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE WHEN HE SOLD ALASKA TO THE UNITED STATES IN 1867 FOR $7,200,000. HE SAID FURTHER THAT A REPORTER FOR "A GREAT AMERICAN NEWS SERVICE" WHICH HE DID NOT NAME WROTE THAT THE RUSSIANS NEVER HAD CONCEDED THAT THE CZAR HAD A RIGHT TO MAKE THE DEAL WITH THE AMERICAN SECRETARY OF STATE SEWARD.

GEARHART COUPLED HIS REMARKS ON ALASKA WITH SOVIET DELAY IN REPLYING TO REQUESTS FOR A LEND-LEASE ACCOUNTING.

"DOES IT MEAN," HE ASKED, "THAT RUSSIA IS PREPARING A COUNTER-CLAIM ARISING OUT OF OLD CONTROVERSIES OF YESTERYEAR?"

HE SAID "RUMORS ARE FLYING THICK AND FAST" TO THAT EFFECT.

EARLIER GEARHART TOLD A NEWSMAN THAT "THE COMMUNISTS CLAIM THE PRICE WE PAID FOR ALASKA WAS IN REALITY BUT REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES INCURRED BY THE THEN CZAR IN SENDING HIS FLEETS TO NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO IN 1963, WHEN THE UNION CAUSE WAS HANGING PERILOUSLY IN THE BALANCE."

HE SAID HE HAD REFERRED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT OLD DOCUMENTS SHOWING THAT THE ARRIVAL OF THE SHIPS HELPED BLOCK BRITISH AND FRENCH SUPPORT FOR THE CONFEDERACY "UNTIL IT WAS TOO LATE."

BY ERNEST B.VACCARO

KEY WEST, FLA., MARCH 17-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN, TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE SUN THAT BROKE THROUGH OVERCAST SKIES IN THE AFTERNOON, MADE ANOTHER TRIP TO THE BEACH TODAY TO BOLSTER HIS SUN TAN.

THE PRESIDENT HAD HIS FIRST SWIM SINCE ARRIVING HERE WEDNESDAY, SIDESTROKING OUT FOR 100 YARDS AND BACK, HIS SPECTACLES ON.

WITH HIS DEPARTURE FOR WASHINGTON NOW DEFINITELY SCHEDULED FOR EARLY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE DECIDED TO GET IN AS MACH SUNBATHING AS POSSIBLE.

PRESIDENTIAL PRESS SECRETARY CHARLES G.ROSS SAID THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE WILL TAKE OFF FOR WASHINGTON IN THE "SACRED COW" IMMEDIATELY AFTER LUNCH WEDNESDAY WITH THE VIEW OF HAVING WEDNESDAY NIGHT DINNER AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

ROSS REPORTED THE PRESIDENT WAS FEELING AT THE PEAK OF HEALTH AS A RESULT OF THE REST AND SLEEP HE HAS ENJOYED HERE.

MR. TRUMAN SPENT MOST OF THE MORNING--HE DIDN'T GET UP UNTIL 7:30 O'CLOCK--READING TELEGRAMS CONGRATULATING HIM ON HIS DAUGHTER'S RADIO DEBUT LAST NIGHT.

THE WEATHER WAS TOO CHILLY FOR SWIMMING AND TOO CLOUDY FOR SUNBATHING THIS MORNING, BUT THE SUN CAME OUT EARLY IN THE AFTERNOON.

MR.TRUMAN, SAID HIS PRESS SECRETARY, "WAS GREATLY BENEFITTED FROM HIS STAY HERE."

THE PRESIDENT ATTENDED A PRIVATE SCREENING THIS AFTERNOON OF NEWS REELS SHOWING HIS READING TO CONGRESS LAST WEDNESDAY OF HIS SPECIAL MESSAGE IN CONNECTION WITH THE EMERGENCIES IN GREECE AND TURKEY.

MAR 1947

THE REELS REFLECTED HIS CALL UPON CONGRESS FOR AUTHORITY TO SPEND AN ADDITIONAL $400,000,000 TO HELP PRESERVE THE FREEDOM OF THE TWO GOVERNMENTS FROM COMMUNIST CONTROL OR TOTALITARIAN EXPANSION.

THE PRESIDENT GREETED REPORTERS AT THE NEWS REEL SHOW. HE LAUGHED OFF THEIR SUGGESTIONS THAT HIS VACATION BE EXTENDED UNTIL EVEN LATER IN THE WEEK.

THE PRESIDENT'S SWIM TOOK PLACE AT THE FORT TAYLOR BEACH. HE REMAINED AT THE BEACH FOR ABOUT AN HOUR AND A HALF.

WITH HIM WERE PRESS SECRETARY ROSS, SPECIAL COUNSEL CLARK CLIFFORD, PRESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT JOHN R.STEELMAN; REAR ADMIRAL JAMES H.FOSKETT, NAVAL AIDE AND FLEET ADMIRAL WILLIAM D.LEAHY, HIS CHIEF OF STAFF.

UNDATED REPARATIONS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE $10,000,000,000 DEMANDED BY RUSSIA FROM GERMANY YESTERDAY (MON) AS COMPENSATION FOR WAR LOSSES IS ALMOST ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL AMOUNT SOUGHT BY THE ALLIED NATIONS AFTER THE FIRST WORLD WAR, WHEN THE TERM "REPARATIONS" FIRST WAS INTRODUCED INTO INTERNATIONAL USAGE.

THE FINANCIAL PENALTY IMPOSED ON GERMANY BY ALLIED AGREEMENT AFTER THE FIRST WORLD WAR WAS 132,000,000,000 GOLD MARKS, OR APPROXIMATELY $33,000,000,000--AND IT WAS NEVER PAID IN FULL. IN FACT, ONLY A FRACTION OF THE ORIGINAL TOTAL EVER WAS RECEIVED BY THE ALLIES.

THE VERSAILLES TREATY DID NOT FIX THE COMPENSATION TO BE COLLECTED FROM THE DEFEATED REICH, AS THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS INTENDS THE NEW PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY SHOULD DO. A SPECIAL ALLIED FINANCIAL COUNCIL WAS CREATED FOR THIS PURPOSE IN 1919 AND, IN 1921, IT ANNOUNCED THE $33,000,000,000 TOTAL.

GERMAN ECONOMY WAS SO SHATTERED THAT ITS GOVERNMENT WAS UNABLE TO MEET THE PAYMENTS SPECIFIED BY THE ALLIED COUNCIL BY 1923, AND THE BRITISH CALLED FOR A NEW BASIS OF SETTLEMENT. FRANCE REFUSED TO COME TO A NEW AGREEMENT AND OCCUPIED THE RUHR AS A MEANS OF COLLECTING HER CLAIMS. THAT MOVE FURTHER HANDICAPPED GERMANY BECAUSE IT SPLIT HER ECONOMICALLY AND FINANCIALLY.

IN 1924, A NEW COMMITTEE, WITH CHARLES G.DAWES AND OWEN D.YOUNG AS UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVES, WAS FORMED. IT PRODUCED THE DAWES PLAN FOR REPARATIONS, SCALING DOWN PAYMENTS, SPREADING THEM OVER A LONGER PERIOD, AND PROVIDING A $200,000,000 LOAN TO GERMANY TO REVIVE HER ECONOMY.

BUT GERMANY STILL WAS UNABLE TO MEET HER OBLIGATIONS AND, IN 1929, THE YOUNG PLAN WAS ADOPTED, CUTTING TOTAL REPARATIONS TO $9,000,000,000 AND PROVIDING PAYMENTS OVER A PERIOD EXTENDING TO 1988.

UNDER THE DAWES PLAN, GERMANY HAD PAID A TOTAL OF $1,896,860,000, ON WHICH THERE WAS AN INTEREST GAIN OF $5,474,000, UP TO 1930.

IN 1931, GERMANY AGAIN DEFAULTED IN HER REPARATIONS PAYMENTS AND A STILL MORE LENIENT SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS WAS DEVISED IN A CONFERENCE AT LAUSANNE. BUT THE ALLIED GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO SIGN IT UNLESS WAR DEBTS THEY OWED THE UNITED STATES WERE REDUCED CORRESPONDINGLY.

THEN PRESIDENT HOOVER, PROMPTED BY THE WORLD-WIDE DEPRESSION, DECLARED AN INDEFINITE MORATORIUM ON WAR DEBT PAYMENTS IN ORDER TO RELIEVE FINANCIAL BURDENS ON EUROPE.

THEY NEVER WERE REVIVED.

MARSHALL REJECTS SOVIET DEMAND FOR TEN BILLIONS FROM GERMANY

He and Bevin Deny Western Powers Have Taken an Equal Sum Already.

SHARPLY REBUKE MOLOTOV

Bidault Demands Allied Control Over Reich Be Continued Long After Peace Settlement.

Moscow, March 18 (AP)—United States Secretary of State Marshall today coldly rejected the Soviet Union's bid for $10,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany.

In a frigid session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, Marshall and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin also sharply rebuked the Soviet Foreign Minister, V. M. Molotov, for his charges that Britain, the United States and France had taken $10,000,000,000 in reparations from current production in the western zones.

Bevin retorted that Molotov's statements "are not true."

"Retreat To Yalta"

Marshall declared that Big Three agreements at Potsdam had superseded those of Yalta, and stated firmly that "we will not follow the retreat of Mr. Molotov from Berlin to Yalta." Molotov claimed yesterday that at Yalta the Big Three had agreed on the $10,000,000,000 figure for reparations to be paid Russia by Germany.

The eighth session was one of the coolest of the conference to date. The charged atmosphere among the Big Four, which thus far had been most friendly, developed after French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault made a statement on France's demands for separation of the Ruhr, the Rhineland and the Saar from Germany.

Wants Controls Retained

Bidault told the Council that Allied controls must be retained over Germany long after a peace settlement is concluded and the present occupation is ended.

Bidault, who conferred last night with Prime Minister Stalin, laid down the basic French policy on the defeated enemy, calling primarily for rigid limitations of the coal and steel industries. He suggested that France replace Germany as the great steel-producing nation of Europe.

Molotov asserted that the United States and the United Kingdom had taken as reparations all the gold and German assets in the west as well as the patents and scientific information.

He charged that France, Great Britain and the United States had taken reparations from current production in the form of lumber and coal and that all these amounted to more than $10,000,000,000, "according to newspaper reports."

Money "Plowed Back"

Marshall countered that the United States had never claimed ownership of the gold, which was being held for distribution by the Inter-Allied Reparations Agency in Brussels, and that, furthermore, Hungary's gold had already been returned.

Marshall said all money received from the export of lumber and coal had been "plowed back" into Germany.

The Secretaries agreed, before the argument, to hear two representatives of the Inter-Allied Reparations Agency present their views on reparations. Members of the agency will first present their views to the Deputy Foreign Ministers, who will decide whether the Foreign Ministers themselves should hear the report.

Gave Bevin "Good Laugh"

France, like the United States, denied receiving any reparations from current German production and said that coal had been paid for in dollars which supported the German economy.

Bevin declared that he had "read these charges in the Soviet press and had had a good laugh over them."

He added that he agreed with Marshall that recriminations should be avoided but that he had had to answer Molotov's charges because "they are not true."

Pamphlets Sent To Russia

Bevin said it was true that scientific information had been compiled but that it had been placed in a book available to everyone, including Russia.

Marshall added that the information was placed in pamphlets, of "which the Soviet Union had received the largest number."

At this point Molotov said his information on patents was based upon a public statement of John Green, an executive secretary in the United States Department of Commerce.

Marshall Produces Letter

Marshal immediately produced a letter written by Green to the State Department in February of this year in which Green was quoted as requesting that someone from the United States delegation to Moscow ask the Russians to make available all the scientific data they obtain from the Germans, as the Americans had done.

The letter was quoted by Marshall as saying no information had been received from the Russian zone on this subject.

Molotov then said the Soviet delegation was prepared to furnish information on reparations from the eastern zone of Germany if the western zones would do the same.

"Retreat To Yalta"

Replying to Molotov's insistence yesterday that the Yalta Big Three meeting proved that agreement was reached on giving Russia half of a $20,000,000,000 reparations claim against Germany, Marshall said:

"The position of the United States regarding reparations is that the agreement at Berlin superseded the preliminary agreement previously reached at Yalta."

Marshall added, "We will not follow the retreat of Mr. Molotov from Berlin to Yalta."

Bidault withheld France's agreement to American, British and Soviet proposals for raising the level of German industry. He said the French view depended upon what other controls were set up.

Puts Frontier Decision First

He rejected outright the American-sponsored plan to set up central administrative agencies run by the Germans, pending decisions on Germany's frontiers. He evidently meant that decisions on the Ruhr, the Rhineland and the Saar must be reached first.

Bidault said economic unity in Germany could be achieved with French approval prior to fixing the frontier by creating administrative agencies run by the Allied powers for such matters as transport, communications and trade.

He called for a speedup in reparations from the Western Zone, thus siding with demands made by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov. At the same time, however, he declared that in line with the British and American policies, Germany must pay for goods—mainly food—that she is now receiving from the Allied powers.

No More War Preparing

He stressed, above all, the French determination "that Germany shall no longer be able to use her mining and industrial resources in preparation for another war."

Permanent Coal Exports.

Bidault said that coal was the basis of Germany's war potential and that it was needed badly now by neighboring countries. Therefore, he said, Germany should be "under obligation, both at once and later in a treaty, to export each month a specific proportion of her production to Allied countries." Given basic controls of coal and steel, Bidault said, the Allies might be less drastic in regard to other industries.

Marshall Balks Soviet Bid For Huge Reparations Bill

Secretary Rejects Red Claim for Ten Billions, Blasts Molotov Charges.

MOSCOW, March 18—(AP) Secretary of State George C. Marshall coldly rejected today Russia's bid for $10,000,000,000 reparations from Germany and rebuked the Soviet for charges that included a declaration that $10,000,000,000 in reparations have been removed from the western zones.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin joined Marshall in rebuking Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at a session of the Foreign Ministers council and said flatly that the Russian diplomat's declarations "are not true."

In outlining the U. S. position on reparations, Marshall said:

"We will not follow the retreat of Mr. Molotov from Berlin (Potsdam) to Yalta."

Recalls Yalta Claim

The American secretary was referring to Molotov's claim yesterday that the United States had agreed at Yalta to $10,000,000,000 reparations to the Soviet Union. No reparations figures were included in the subsequent Potsdam agreement.

The charge that $10,000,000,000 in reparations have been removed from the western zones has been made by the Soviet press before and repeatedly denied by the British and Americans.

There was a noticeable cooling off in the atmosphere surrounding the council today. The coolness among the Big Four representatives developed after French foreign Minister Georges Bidault made a statement on France's position on economic unity.

Bidault, renewing France's demand for separation of the Ruhr, Rhineland and Saar from Germany, told the council that Allied controls must be retained over Germany long after the peace settlement is concluded and the present occupation ends.

Molotov declared that the United States and Britain had taken all the gold and German assets in the west as well as patents and scientific information as reparations.

He also charged that France, Britain and America had taken reparations from current production in the form of lumber and coal, and that all these, "according to newspaper reports," amounted to over $10,000,000,000.

Bevin Quickly Replies

Bevin replied immediately that he had "read these charges in the Soviet press and had a good laugh over them."

The British foreign secretary added that, while he agreed with Marshall that recriminations should be avoided, he had to answer Molotov's charges because "they are not true."

He said that it was true that scientific information had been compiled but that it had been placed in a book which was available to everyone including the Soviet Union.

Marshall then took up the fight and added that information had been placed in pamphlets of "which the Soviet Union had received the largest number."

As to the gold, Marshall said that the United States had never claimed ownership of it and that it was being held for distribution by the inter-allied reparations agency in Brussels. Furthermore, he said, Hungary's gold already had been returned.

Referring to export of lumber and coal, Marshall said that all money that had been received had been "ploughed back" into Germany.

France also denied receiving any reparations from current German production and said that coal had been paid for in dollars which support the German economy.

Molotov at this point said his information on patents was based on a public statement of John Green, an executive secretary in the U. S. Department of Commerce.

At this suggestion, Marshall immediately produced a letter written by Green to the State department in February of this year. Green was quoted as requesting Marshall to ask the Russians to make available scientific data that they had obtained from the Germans in the same manner as had the United States. The letter went on to say that no information had been received from the Russian zone on this subject.

Molotov said that the Soviet delegation was prepared to furnish information on reparations from the eastern zone of Germany if the western zones would do the same.

Statement by Marshall

Marshall closed the meeting with a statement on reparations as explained by President Truman and former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes. He added that the "position of the U. S. regarding reparations is that agreement at Berlin (Potsdam) superseded the preliminary agreement previously reached at Yalta."

This was in answer to Molotov's injection of the $10,000,000,000 reparation figure mentioned at Yalta into the present conference. It was at this point that Marshall added, "we will not follow the retreat of Mr. Molotov from Berlin to Yalta."

Meanwhile, the Big Four agreed to hear two representatives of the interallied reparations agency in Brussels present their views on reparations. Members of the agency will first present their views to the deputy foreign ministers, who will then decide whether the council should hear them.

At the same time it was announced that the deputies had agreed to set up four committees to aid in drafting the preliminary peace treaty for Germany.

Russia blocked participation by small nations despite U. S. and British insistence that they be included. The question remained unsettled.

The four powers agreed to set up committees for:

1. Political structure of Germany.
2. Territorial readjustments and related problems.
3. Economic organization of Germany and reparations.
4. Disarmament and demilitarization.

French Position Stated On German Reparations

Moscow, March 18 (AP)—Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, who conferred last night with Prime Minister Stalin, opened today's meeting of the Foreign Ministers Council with the French position on German reparations.

As presented by Bidault, the basic French policy on defeated Germany calls primarily for rigid limitations of the coal and steel industries. He suggested that France should replace Germany as the great steel producing nation of Europe.

At the same time, Bidault withheld agreement from the American, British and Russian proposals for raising the German level of industry. He said the French view depends on what other controls are set up.

Awaits Frontier Decisions

He flatly rejected the American-sponsored plan to establish central administrative agencies run by Germans, pending decisions on the German frontiers. This evidently referred to the Ruhr, Rhineland and Saar.

Bidault said economic unity could be achieved with French approval prior to fixing the frontiers by creating administrative agencies run by the Allied powers for such things as transport and communications.

He also called for a speedup in reparations deliveries from the western zones, thereby siding with the demands made by Molotov. At the same time he declared—in line with the British and American policies—that Germany must pay for goods, mainly food, she is now receiving from the Allied powers.

Basis Of War Potential

Bidault emphasized above all the French determination "that Germany shall no longer be able to use her mining and industrial resources in preparation of another war."

The French Foreign Minister said coal was the basis of Germany's war potential and also that this product was badly needed by neighboring countries, so Germany should be "under obligation both at once and later in a treaty to export each month a specific proportion of her production to the Allied countries."

Given basic controls of coal and steel, Bidault said the Allies might be "less drastic" as regards other industries.

He said that he could not present the question of current production forthwith but must study it.

Soviets Prepare Vodka Test For Marshall And Bevin

MAR

By Eddy Gilmore

Moscow, March 18 (AP)—The scene was set in Russia's 800-year-old capital today for two interesting, although at first glance extremely contrasting, events—the expected reception by Prime Minister Joseph Stalin of British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall, and the well-known vodka test as applied to visiting foreign ministers.

At second glance, these two impending events are not so dissimilar, because both are in the nature of tests—tests involving highly volatile substances.

Stalin's reception, if it comes off tonight—and it may—will take place in Moscow's ancient Kremlin on Red Square behind the sanctuary of the old Chinese wall.

Vodka Reception

The vodka reception, which is almost certain to come off if custom is followed, will take place at a full-dress social function to be given tonight by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and his wife, who has been head of the Soviet Union's cosmetic as well as fish industry.

This reception is scheduled to be held at the house of the Soviet aviation industry, where the Council of Foreign Ministers' sessions are held daily.

It is a fitting place for the first social function, for it is the scene of Russia's Old Yar restaurant, famous for its fine champagnes, gypsy singers and prerevolutionary sugar barons.

Russian Spread

If custom is followed, Molotov and his wife, after receiving all the guests, who will include Moscow's diplomatic colony as well as the Foreign Ministers and their advisers, will adjourn to the semi-privacy of a large room.

In this room a Russian spread will be provided as only the Russians can spread them. The reception is not scheduled to commence until 10 P.M.

With Molotov being the smiling, genial host, the subject will quickly be switched to toasts.

In the past these toasts have included drinking to practically everything from the respective heads of state of the nations represented to the taste of the vodka that is being drunk.

Few foreigners have escaped the dangers and often disastrous consequences of this vodka toasting.

One Ambassador once had to be carried home by his first secretary and a budding admiral.

'Izvestia' Prints Text

MOSCOW, March 18 (AP).—The government newspaper "Izvestia" published in full today the statements made by United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Soviet Foreign Minister Viacheslav M. Molotov at the Big Four conference.

Three Statements on Reparations

MOSCOW, March 18 (AP)—The text of Secretary of State Marshall's statement to the Council of Foreign Ministers on reparations:

I wish to make completely clear the position the United States has consistently taken with regard to the relation of the Potsdam agreement on reparations to the Yalta protocol.

Immediately on his return from Potsdam, before any question was raised as to the scope or meaning of the Potsdam agreement and of its relation to the Yalta agreement, President Truman in a public address on Aug. 9, 1945, clearly stated his understanding of the Potsdam agreement, and I will read to you exactly what he said:

"At the Crimea conference a basis for fixing reparations had been proposed for initial discussion and study by a reparations commission. That basis was a total amount of reparations, $20,000,000,000. Of this sum, one-half was to go to Russia, which suffered more heavily in loss of life and property than any other country.

"But at Berlin the idea of attempting to fix a dollar value on property to be removed from Germany was dropped. To fix a dollar value share each nation would be a sort of guarantor of the amount each nation would get—a guaranty which might not be fulfilled. This formula of taking reparations by zones will lead to less friction among the Allies than the tentative basis originally proposed for study at Yalta."

In July, 1946, at Paris, the question of German reparations was discussed in the Council of Foreign Ministers. At that time, Mr. Molotov presented the same arguments regarding the Yalta agreement which he put forth here. Secretary Byrnes, who was present at the Yalta conference and who as Secretary of State took an active part in working out the Potsdam agreement on reparations, stated the view and position of the United States Government that the Potsdam agreement took the place of the preliminary agreement reached at Yalta. Secretary Byrnes pointed out the irrefutable fact, and I quote from his statement:

"The language read by Mr. Molotov showed what Mr. Roosevelt agreed to was only to study as a basis for discussion the suggestion of the Soviet Government. The language of the protocol shows that the Soviet proposal was passed to the Moscow reparations commission as one of the proposals to be considered by the commission."

The position of the United States Government regarding reparations is that the agreements at Potsdam supersede the preliminary agreements previously reached at Yalta. We will not follow Mr. Molotov in a retreat from Potsdam to Yalta.

The Yalta Protocol

LONDON, March 18 (Reuters)—Tass, the Soviet news agency, distributed today the following text of the hitherto secret Yalta protocol on German reparations, as released in Moscow yesterday by Foreign Minister Molotov:

Protocol on the talk between the heads of the three Governments [the United States, Russia and Britain] at the Crimea conference on the question of German reparations in kind.

The heads of the three Governments agreed as follows:

1. Germany must pay in kind for losses caused by her to the Allied nations in the course of the war. Reparations are to be received in the first instance by those countries which have borne the main burden of the war, have suffered the heaviest losses and have organized victory over the enemy.

2. Reparatitons are to be exacted from Germany in the three following forms:

A. Bulk removal within two years from the surrender of Germany or the cessation of organized resistance from the national wealth of Germany located on the territory of Germany herself as well as outside her territory (equipment, machine tools, ships, rolling stock, German investments abroad, shares of industrial, transport, navigation and other enterprises in Germany, etc.), these removals to be carried out chiefly for the purpose of destroying the war potential of Germany.

B. Annual deliveries of goods from current production after the end of the war for a period to be fixed.

C. Use of German labor.

3. For the working out on the above principles of a detailed plan for the exaction of reparations from Germany an Allied reparations commission is to be set up in Moscow, consisting of representatives of the U.S.S.R., the United States and the United Kingdom.

4. With regard to the fixing of the total sum of reparations, as well as the distribution of it among countries which suffered from German aggression, the Soviet and American delegations agreed as follows:

"The Moscow reparations commission should take in the initial stages as a basis for discussion the suggestion of the Soviet Government that the total sum of reparations in accordance with points A and B of paragraph 2 should be $20,000,000,000, and that 50 per cent of it should go to the U.S.S.R."

The British delegation was of the opinion that, pending consideration of the reparations question by the Moscow reparations commission, no figures of reparations should be mentioned. The above Soviet-American proposal has been passed to the Moscow reparations commission as one of the proposals to be considered by the commission.

Potsdam Provisions

In the view of the United States delegation in Moscow, the Yalta protocol has been superseded by the reparations provisions in the subsequent Potsdam Declaration, which follow:

In accordance with the Crimea decision that Germany be compelled to compensate to the greatest possible extent for the loss and suffering that she has caused to the United Nations and for which the German people cannot escape responsibility, the following agreement on reparations was reached:

1. Reparation claims of the U.S.S.R. shall be met by removals from the zone of Germany occupied by the U.S.S.R. and from appropriate German external assets.

2. The U.S.S.R. undertakes to settle the reparation claims of Poland from its own share of reparations.

3. The reparation claims of the United States, the United Kingdom and other countries entitled to reparations shall be met from the western zones and from appropriate German external assets.

4. In addition to the reparations to be taken by the U.S.S.R. from its own zone of occupation, the U.S.S.R. shall receive additionally from the western zones:

A. Fifteen per cent of such usable and complete industrial capital equipment, in the first place from the metallurgical, chemical and machine manufacturing industries, as is unnecessary for the German peace economy and should be removed from the western zones of Germany, in exchange for an equivalent value of food, coal, potash, zinc, timber, clay products, petroleum products, and such other commodities as may be agreed upon.

B. Ten per cent of such industrial capital equipment as is unnecessary for the German peace economy and should be removed from the western zones, to be transferred to the Soviet Government on reparations account without payment or exchange of any kind in return.

Removals of equipment as provided in A and B above shall be made simultaneously.

5. The amount of equipment to be removed from the western zones on account of reparations must be determined within six months from now at the latest.

6. Removals of industrial capital equipment shall begin as soon as possible and shall be completed within two years from the determination specified in Paragraph 5. The delivery of products covered by 4 A above shall begin as soon as possible and shall be made by the U.S.S.R. in agreed installments within five years of the date hereof. The determination of the amount and character of the industrial capital equipment unnecessary for the German peace economy and therefore available for reparations shall be made by the Control Council under policies fixed by the Allied Commission on Reparations, with the participation of France, subject to the final approval of the zone commander in the zone from which the equipment is to be removed.

7. Prior to the fixing of the total amount of equipment subject to removal, advance deliveries shall be made in respect of such equipment as will be determined to be eligible for delivery in accordance with the procedure set forth in the last sentence of Paragraph 6.

8. The Soviet Government renounces all claims in respect of reparations to shares of German enterprises which are located in the western zones of occupation in Germany, as well as to German foreign assets in all countries, except those specified in Paragraph 9 below.

9. The Governments of the United Kingdom and the United States of America renounce their claims in respect of reparations to shares of German enterprises which are located in the eastern zone of occupation in Germany, as well as to German foreign assets in Bulgaria, Finland, Hungary, Rumania and eastern Austria.

10. The Soviet Government makes no claims to gold captured by the Allied troops in Germany.

Big Four To Act Soon On Italy's Colonies

MAR —1947

London, March 18 (AP)—Official British sources said today representatives of the Big Four powers would meet soon in London for preliminary procedural talks on the disposal of Italy's prewar empire.

A Foreign Office spokesman declared that Britain, the United States, France and Russia were in consultation and added they probably would send special deputies to London to examine the question within the next month or two.

The Allies' peace treaty with Italy provided some decision should be reached on the future of the Italian colonies within twelve months after the last of the big powers ratified the settlement.

April, 1948, Seen Deadline

British officials said this probably would fix the deadline sometime during April, 1948.

Although no hard British policy toward the issue has been laid down, Whitehall informants expressed these views on the individual futures of the Italian colonies:

MAR 1947

1. TRIPOLITANIA — Authoritative estimates say that the colony's prewar population of about 700,000 Italians has dwindled to ten per cent. A strong Arab nationalist independence movement is said to have developed. Britain—with France—appears inclined to favor an Italian trusteeship under United Nations supervision for the territory. Russia's announced interest in Tripolitania was described "more in the nature of a diplomatic bargaining stroke than genuine ambition.

2. CYRENAICA — Britain gave a wartime pledge of independence to Sheik Sayyid Mohammed Idris el Senussi. Foreign Secretary Bevin may call for an interim British trusteeship over the territory, to last unti the Senussi tribesmen are ready to take over self-government. A final settlement is likely to provide for British retention of Tobruk—the country's best port and a proved wartime naval base.

3. ERITREA—Emperor Haile Selassie of Abyssinia has indicated he plans to make a strong claim for at least a portion of this colony. Britain probably will back Italy here.

4. ITALIAN SOMALILAND — There are few claimants for this desert wasteland. Its chief asset is its geographic location on Africa's east coast. Britain will propose no change of ownership here.

Missions To Investigate

The impending London conference will send Big Four missions to tour, investigate and report on the Italian territories.

Later the Big Four Foreign Ministers will debate their final ownership in terms of the United Nations Charter.

U. S. Draft of Austrian Treaty Political Clauses

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MOSCOW, March 18—Following is the text of the political clauses proposed by the United States delegation to the Foreign Ministers' deputies for a peace treaty with Austria. It appears under the titles "Treaty for Re-establishment of an Independent and Democratic Austria; Draft Political Clauses; Proposal of United States Delegation."

PART ONE

POLITICAL CLAUSES

Section 1—Re-establishment of Austrian Independence

ARTICLE 1

The contracting United Nations affirm their recognition of Austria's re-establishment as a sovereign and independent state.

ARTICLE 2

1. The Allied control authority, including all branches of the Allied Commission for Austria, and the inter-Allied command (formerly the Kommandatura) for the city of Vienna will cease to exist upon the coming into force of the present treaty. The authority hitherto exercised by the Allied Council in virtue of the new control agreement for Austria on June 28, 1946 will at that time terminate; and the Austrian Government henceforth will exercise sovereign power without limitation except as herein agreed. The agreement of July 9, 1945 of the European Advisory Commission on zones of occupation in Austria and the administration of the city of Vienna and the agreement on the machinery of control in Austria of June 28, 1946 will be terminated upon the coming into force of the present treaty.

2. All armed forces of the occupying powers shall be withdrawn from Austria as soon as possible, and in any case not later than ninety days from the coming into force of the present treaty.

ARTICLE 3

1. For a period not to exceed eighteen months from the coming into force of the present treaty, the heads of the diplomatic missions in Vienna of the United States of America, the United Kingdom, the Soviet Union and France, acting in concert, will represent the contracting United Nations in dealing with the Austrian Government in all matters concerning the execution and interpretation of the present treaty.

2. The four heads of mission will give the Austrian Government such guidance, technical advice and clarification as may be necessary to insure fulfillment of the spirit and terms of the present treaty.

3. The Austrian Government shall afford the said four heads of mission, acting in concert, all necessary information and any assistance they may require in the fulfillment of the tasks devolving on them under the present treaty.

ARTICLE 4

The contracting United Nations agree to respect the independence and territorial integrity of Austria as established under the present treaty.

ARTICLE 5

Austria fully acknowledges the external responsibilities attaching to the re-establishment of national independence and undertakes to abstain from any act which is likely, directly or indirectly, to violate its status of equality with other members of the community of nations.

ARTICLE 6

Austria agrees to terminate any existing treaty, agreement or arrangement which is inconsistent with the provisions of Article 5.

Section 2—Frontiers of Austria

ARTICLE 7

The frontiers of Austria are those existing on Jan. 1, 1938. Those frontiers are traced on the map attached to the present treaty (Annex I).

ARTICLE 8

1. The contracting United Nations have taken note of the provisions (the text of which is appended to this treaty) agreed upon by the Austrian and Italian Governments on Sept. 5, 1946, concerning German-speaking inhabitants of the Bolzano Province and of the neighboring bilingual townships of the Trento Province.

2. The contracting United Nations undertake to support inclusion in the settlement in relation to Germany of provisions for freedom of transit and communication between Salzburg and Lofer [Tyrol] across the Reichenhall-Steinpass.

Section 3—Protection of a Democratic System

ARTICLE 9

1. Austria shall undertake to take all measures necessary to secure to all persons under its jurisdiction, without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion, the enjoyment of human rights and of the fundamental freedoms, including freedom of expression, press and publication, of religious worship, of political opinion and of public meeting.

2. Austria further undertakes that the laws in force in Austria will not, either in their content or in their application, discriminate or entail any discrimination between persons of Austrian nationality on the ground of their race, sex, language or religion, whether in reference to their persons, property, business, professional or financial interests, status, political or civil rights or any other matter.

ARTICLE 10

Austria shall have a democratic Government based on elections by secret ballot, guaranteeing to all citizens above a certain minimum age free and universal franchise and the right to be elected to public offices, without discrimination as to race, sex, language, religion or political opinion.

ARTICLE 11

Austria undertakes to continue its efforts to eliminate from Austrian political and economic life all traces of anti-democratic organizations and influences and further undertakes not to permit in the future the existence and activities of organizations which have as their aim denial to the people of their democratic rights.

ARTICLE 12

The provisions of the foregoing Articles 9 to 11 inclusive shall not be construed to nullify the implementation of laws enacted by the Austrian Parliament subsequent to April 30, 1945, designed to accomplish the objectives laid down in Article 11 above.

ARTICLE 13

1. Austria undertakes to repeal or discontinue all laws as well as legislative, executive and administrative acts in force during the period between the beginning of rule by emergency decrees on March 5, 1933, and the coming into force of this treaty, in conflict with the principles laid down in the foregoing Articles 9 to 11 inclusive.

2. Austria agrees to maintain in force, or to provide for legislation in accordance with, the principles of the Austrian law of April 3, 1919, concerning the House of Habsburg-Lorraine.

Section 4—Treaties and International Agreements

ARTICLE 14

Austria undertakes to recognize the full force of the peace treaties concluded with Italy, Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland and other agreements or arrangements which have been or will be reached by the contracting United Nations in relation to Germany and Japan for the restoration of peace.

ARTICLE 15

Austria undertakes to accept any arrangements which have been or may be agreed for the liquidation of the League of Nations and the Permanent Court of International Justice.

ARTICLE 16

1. Each contracting United Nation shall notify Austria, within a period of six months from the coming into force of the present treaty, which of its present bilateral treaties with Austria it desires to keep in force or revive. Any provisions not in conformity with the present treaty shall, however, be deleted from the above-mentioned treaties.

2. All treaties so notified shall be registered with the secretariat of the United Nations in accordance with Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations.

3. All treaties not so notified shall be regarded as abrogated.

Section 5—War Criminals

ARTICLE 17

1. Austria shall take all necessary steps, upon the presentation of evidence considered satisfactory by the four heads of the mission in Vienna, to insure the apprehension and surrender for trial of:

a. Persons accused of having committed, ordered or abetted war crimes and crimes against peace or humanity.

b. Nationals of the contracting United Nations accused of having violated their national law by treason or collaboration with the enemy during the war.

2. Requests for the handing over of persons claimed as accused shall be made within ninety days after the coming into force of this treaty.

3. Any disagreement concerning the interpretation or execution of Paragraph 1 of this article shall be referred by any of the Governments concerned to the four heads of the mission in Vienna.

MAR 1947

Attlee Asks Team Spirit

London, March 18 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee told the British people tonight that "by self-discipline and the team spirit" they could solve their nation's economic troubles and "move on to better times for all."

In a "work-or-suffer" broadcast, the Prime Minister said that "some people abroad are suggesting that the day of this country is over."

"Some of them thought so in the war," he said, "but they discovered their mistake. . . . The British people are never daunted by difficulties. The greater the emergency, the more readily they respond to the call for service. We shall win in peace just as we did in war."

Attlee said the question now confronting Britain was whether she could increase her standard of living, or would have to reduce it.

All Must Contribute

"Everyone must contribute their share," he declared. "If not, the sum total will be smaller and all will suffer."

The broadcast was the first of twelve "political" speeches over the British Broadcast Corporation's home service. The series will include five other talks by members of the Labor party, five by the Conservatives and one by the spokesman for the Liberals.

Earlier, the executive of the National Union of Mine Workers promised Attlee that initiation of a five-day week in Britain's mines on May 5 will not reduce coal production.

More Miners Needed

Called to No. 10 Downing Street at the invitation of the Prime Minister, the union officials were understood to have given a pledge that current coal production will be maintained if the five-day week is granted.

The union leaders, however, were said to have told Attlee that more miners were needed to help dig the 200,000,000 tons of coal the Government has set as this year's target.

BRITAIN GIVES UP HER RULE OF SEAS

MAR

London, March 19 (A. P.).—The Admiralty acknowledged today that Britain can no longer hope to rule the waves.

John Dugdale, financial secretary to the Admiralty, told the House of Commons that there would be no major naval construction this year and that shipbuilding would be subordinated to atomic and other scientific research.

"We cannot hope any longer to have the largest navy in the world," he said. "But we can hope to have the best equipped."

He said the Admiralty was studying the results of "operation crossroads" at Bikini and that considerable money would be spent by the British in studies of the effects of the atom bomb on naval warfare.

Dugdale's remarks were in connection with the presentation of the sharply curtailed budget for the Royal Navy, which calls for 192,665 men, compared with 492,800 in 1946-47, and for expenditures of $786,800,000, compared with $1,020,300,000.

$680,000 Spent On Ship For Royal Family Trip

London, March 18 (AP)—The Admiralty reported to the House of Commons tonight that 170,000 pounds ($680,000) was spent in refitting the H.M.S. Vanguard, Britain's newest battleship, with special cabins and other conveniences for use of the royal family on their visit to South Africa.

"There was utmost economy in carrying out the work," W. J. Edwards, civil Lord of the Admiralty, said in reply to criticism of W. R. Blyton, Laborite, who had asserted that there had been "some consternation about the cost."

FRENCH PREMIER WINS INDOCHINA POLICY TEST

PARIS, Wednesday, March 19—(AP) Premier Paul Ramadier won an imposing vote of confidence in the French National Assembly today on his policies in Indochina but failed to smoke out the Communist party on the issue.

The assembly adopted the confidence motion 421 to 0 after a stormy debate on France's relations with the Viet-Namese regime.

Communist deputies abstained from voting on the motion despite a challenge from Ramadier to take an unequivocal position for or against the government.

An hour before the vote, Communist Leader Jacques Duclos announced that the Communist party, the largest in the assembly, would neither support nor oppose the confidence motion.

Paris Cabinet Talks On Troop Cut in Reich

Paris, March 18 (A. P.).—A reduction of the French army of occupation in Germany from 90,000 to about 50,000 officers and men was discussed by Premier Paul Ramadier and his Cabinet today, but no decision was announced.

Indonesian Pact To Be Arbitrated, Holland Reports

MAR 1947

The Hague, The Netherlands, March 18 (AP)—The Cheribon draft agreement for the settlement of the 19-month-old Indonesian revolution will be signed, with both the Dutch and Indonesians adhering to their own interpretation of the document, a high Government source said today.

Any eventual differences will be settled by arbitration under supervision of a foreign arbitrator, the informant said.

Dispatches from Batavia said the Netherlands Government had authorized the Dutch commission general to sign the Cheribon agreement immediately. The Indonesians previously had announced willingness to sign if the Dutch would abandon their insistence that Dutch interpretation be made a binding part of the agreement.

Republic's Sovereignty

Negotiated last November the agreement provides for Dutch recognition of the Indonesian Republic's sovereignty over the East Indies islands of Java, Sumatra and Madoera as an equal partner with the Netherlands under the Dutch crown.

The Government source said that once the agreement is signed joint discussions will be held as soon as possible to draw up the arbitration rules.

According to the agreement, the president of the International Court of Justice will be requested to appoint a foreign arbitrator over points on which no decision can be made by the Dutch and the Indonesians.

Oil Men Fly to Syria

Declare Their Mission Concerns Concessions in Iranian Fields

LISBON, March 18 (AP).—Four directors of the Arabian-American Oil Company arrived here today on a non-stop flight from New York, leaving an hour later for Damascus. They said they were on an important mission concerning Iranian oil concessions but declined to make a formal statement.

[Last Thursday Syrian Premier Jamil Mardam Bey announced at Damascus that his country had rejected a contract for a pipe line across Syria offered by the Trans-Arabian Pipeline Company, subsidiary of the American-Arabian Oil Company. He added that negotiations would not be resumed unless new terms were offered.]

Maid Situation in Germany

American Families Can Charge Only One to Occupation

FRANKFURT AM MAIN, March 18 (AP).—An American family in Germany may have only one housemaid at the expense of the German people, United States Army headquarters ruled today.

If any American wants more than one maid he must pay her wages himself—in dollars, too, not German marks.

The cost of one maid a family, the announcement explained, is legally chargeable against Germany as an occupation cost.

Other domestic servants may be employed if desired, but the employer must pay the Army the cost of their wages in dollars. The Army then will pay the extra servants in marks.

Clay's Stolen Car Recovered

BERLIN, March 18 (AP).—Lieutenant General Lucius D. Clay's custom-built Cadillac sedan, stolen on March 6 from an American military government parking lot, was recovered yesterday in a small Czechoslovak border town. Agents indicated they had clews to the thieves and expected to make arrests.

Army Restricts Use of Scrip

FRANKFURT AM MAIN, March 18 (AP).—Use of military scrip in American Express Company offices outside the American occupation zone of Germany was forbidden day, with the exception of Paris, where scrip still may be used to buy services and travelers' checks. The ban is expected to prevent acquisition of easily negotiable travelers' checks by black-market operators obtaining scrip illegally. United States Army fiscal authorities said that except in Paris there are not enough American military personnel left in European cities outside the occupation zone to justify acceptance of scrip.

RUSSIANS CLAIM RIGHT TO CONTROL WAR HUNGARIAN PRESS

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 18 (AP)—Soviet Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov declared today he had a "perfect right to control the Hungarian press", in explaining to United States officials why he had "requested" newspapers here to defer publication of an American note on Hungary.

The note, which protested Russian interference in Hungarian affairs and demanded a three-power investigation into this country's politics, was delivered yesterday to Sviridov, Russian commander of occupation forces and acting chairman of the Allied Control council for Hungary.

Ordered Note Withheld

American sources said they had been informed by the Hungarian government that the Russians had ordered newspapers to withhold publication of the note until the Soviets prepared a reply. The Americans described this action as "presumptious."

Sviridov, in a lengthy conference requested by Brig. Gen. George H. Weems of the American military mission, said he had "requested"—not ordered—that publication be deferred. The Russian reply will be ready tonight or tomorrow, he added, and then both notes will be published together.

"There is no need to break our swords over one or two days," he told Gen. Weems.

Quotes Armistice Terms

The Russian quoted Article 16 of the Armistice agreement which, he said, gave him power to supervise the local press, radio and theater.

Weems replied that Americans believed in freedom of the press, and that he saw no point of withholding from publication an official United States note.

Similar action was taken by Soviet occupation authorities earlier this month, when they delayed for three days the publication of an earlier American note on the same subject.

One highly placed American said the Russian action was a sample of "the high handed methods" used by the Russians in dealing with Americans ever since the control commission was established in 1945.

Despite repeated American protests, Soviet authorities have refused to get out of American-owned oil fields in southwestern Hungary, and Russian clearances for American businessmen have been delayed and denied.

Russ Chief Denies Note Suppression

Budapest, Hungary, March 18 (AP). Lieut. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, Russian commander in Hungary, today denied he had ordered the Hungarian press to suppress publication yesterday of a second United States Government note protesting Soviet actions in Hungary.

He asserted he only "requested a delay" in publication until a Russian reply could be prepared. He said the Russian answer would be issued tonight or tomorrow.

U.S. Accusations

The latest American note again accused the Russians of interference and declared that Hungarian Communists were attempting to seize power from the freely elected government. American informants said the Russians, for the second time in two weeks, had forbidden the Hungarian newspapers to publish an American note.

Sviridov told Brig. Gen. George H. Weems, chief of the American military representation on the Allied Council:

"There is no need to break our swords over one or two days.

"I have a perfect right to control the Hungarian press."

Armistice Cited

In a lengthy conference which Weems requested, Sviridov cited Article 16 of the Hungarian armistice agreement which, he said, gave him the right to supervise the Hungarian press, radio and theater. He said the local United States Information Office issued a news bulletin in Hungar yand that he had no control over that publication. It was recalled, however, that Sviridov complained bitterly recently against the U.S.I.S., charging it was anti-Soviet and demanding its suppression.

Weems told the Russian general, acting chairman of the Allied Control Council, that Americans believed in freedom of the press and that he saw no point in withholding from publication an official United States Government note which had already been printed throughout the world.

Weems questioned Sviridov's choice of words and said that if the note was "delayed" by any means, it was being suppressed.

The latest American note was delivered yesterday.

Belgrade Says U.S. Refuses to Supply Grain

And U. N. R. R. A. Declares Order of Potatoes for Yugoslavs Was Slashed

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 18 (AP).—An authoritative source said today that the United States government had refused to send grain to Yugoslavia, contending that there was no real threat of starvation in the country and that cereal stocks were not available.

The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, refusing to comment on the reported rejection, announced that the United States had canceled 16,000 tons of a 24,000 ton order of potatoes for Yugoslavia.

The order was placed through U. N. R. R. A. last month and canceled because of a transportation bottleneck between warehouses and ports in the United States and because all available transportation was being turned over to priority shipments of potatoes to Germany, the announcement said.

The authoritative, but unofficial source, said U. N. R. R. A. had notified the Yugoslav government of the American refusal to send grain and had informed Marshal Tito's government it must take its own steps to avert the increasing food shortage. (Bread rations have been cut twice in Yugoslavia this year.).

KILLED IN BORDER FRAY

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 18. — (AP) Bulgarian officials said today that two armed Greek "bandits" had crossed Bulgaria's frontier and were killed by border guards when they tried to return to Greece. The announcement said both were armed with rifles.

SPANISH MINE ROW REPORTED

Police Confiscate Arms In Teruel Province Raids

MAR 1947

Valencia, Spain, March 18 (AP)—A group of miners were reported tonight to be resisting authorities in the underground workings of the large Utrillas coal mines after police swept through Teruel province making arrests and confiscating arms and anti-Franco leaflets.

It was not determinded whether the miners were armed or were merely holed up in mine passages.

The mines, situated in rugged mountainous country 96 miles north northwest of Valincia, produce low-grade coal. Neither the Spanish press nor the radio has carried accounts of the disturbances which were said to have begun Sunday.

No Official Version

No official version of the events was available.

The police were said to have uncovered a plot to blow up power plants. Accounts from Zaragoza said the authorities thus far had arrested 10 miners and that 40 others had fled into the mountains after the power-plants plot was uncovered.

From information gained from the arrested miners the police were reported to have been able to detain a "contact man" who came from France and a cafe waihtr, both of whim carried Communist propaganda.

The number of persons arrested in Teruel province was not known, but one report said some civil guards and some mayors of small villages were implicated in the plot.

Three Bombs Explode

Three bombs exploded in the railway station of the town of Teruel, 70 miles northwest of Valencia. Others damaged a train between Teruel and the village of Puerto Escandon.

It also learned that traffic was delayed for two hours on the Valencia-Madrid rail line by the explosion of small bombs.

In Valencia where an annual spring celebration is underway leaflets distributed secretly recommended that residents remain in their homes at night.

Japs Back Early Peace

LAMBERT

Tokyo, March 18 (AP)—Japanese interviewed at random today approved wholly Gen. Douglas MacArthur's proposal for an early peace and resumption of trade, but they were hesitant to indorse his suggestion that the United Nations become an overseer of Nippon.

And, among some, there was alarm lest United States troops be withdrawn entirely, to the detriment of law and order.

Business men, a stall market operator, a government worker, cultural society members and dock superintendents applauded the recommendation for early signing of a peace treaty for Japan. They said that step was a necessary condition for resumption of trade, which they called the key to Japan's economic recovery.

Delays On Decision

However, some said worriedly that the possibility of the United Nations assuming any position in Japan might result in arguments and delays on major decisions of policy in politics and economics.

Almost all of those interviewed said they hoped the United States would leave either some troops or a commission here after the peace treaty is signed, and would assume some responsibility in assisting Japan back on her feet.

None of those questioned balked outright at the possibility of United Nations participation in Japanese affairs, but a majority indicated the world organization might not be able to make clear-cut decisions quickly on issues involving this country.

Police Not Adequate

In the wind-whipped business district, two dock superintendents from Uraga declared they favor a quick peace treaty. But America should leave troops here, they argued, expressing fear that Japanese police would not be able to maintain law and order.

United Nations supervision? "No! no!" they exclaimed.

Down on the bustling Ginza, Yoichi Oshino stepped out of his stall market, where he sells fried pork and chicken, and said he favors a quick treaty. The United Nations all right, he said slowly, but Japan's posttreaty government might be weak. Some controls, he said, might be needed.

Iron Works Manager

In offices of the Sanwa Iron Works, Saburo Furukawa, manager, applauded MacArthur's peace proposals. "Free trade after the peace treaty is signed!" he exclaimed, and beamed. Controls? "The U.N. is all right—as long as the United States stays in the United Nations."

In a debris-littered alley of busy Nihonbashi ward, Tsutomi Kojima, patent attorney and onetime Japanece army officer, indorsed the early peace pact proposal. So did Tsutomur Yamaguchi, municipal government employé.

Masahisha Ishiguro, of a farming and fishing village cultural society, and his four companions nodded when asked if they approved MacArthur's peace proposal. Most however said they preferred that the United States rather than the United Nations assist Japan in her climb toward normalcy.

Many Japs Fear Loss Of U.S. Assistance

Tokyo, March 18 (AP)—Japanese today acclaimed General MacArthur's press conference declaration as the strongest, most detailed expression of Japan's present position the world has heard.

But many of them voiced fear of being cut off from United States financial aid and of losing the stabilizing influence of American military power.

The supreme commander told American correspondents in a luncheon yesterday that a peace treaty with Japan should be made soon, the occupation terminated and future guidance of the country turned over to the United Nations.

Press Carries Full Statement

All newspapers printed MacArthur's statement in full, without editorial comment. It was the major topic of conversation.

The supreme commander's main points coincided with hopes which Government officials have long expressed—an early peace, end of military occupation, prompt determination of reparations and more permanent economic assistance.

Some young intellectuals were concerned lest withdrawal of American occupation forces would stimulate stronger political activity by extremists and checkmate the growth of democracy.

These Japanese commented that a civilian administration might not have the same restraining influence on Communist elements that MacArthur and the occupation army have had.

Pessimistic About U.N.

Japanese generally are pessimistic about the authority of the United Nations. Reading of disputes in its sessions, they are inclined to think its control would subject Japan to inter-Allied friction. This has generally been lacking in Japan because of the dominant American influence.

British Policy On Japan

London, March 18 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said today that Great Britain "welcomed" General MacArthur's advocacy of an early peace treaty with Japan, "provided the Dominions are associated with the final settlement."

He said British policy was to normalize relations with all former enemy states as soon as possible so that world reconstruction could proceed.

Referring to MacArthur's view that Japan had limited ability to pay reparations, the spokesman stated that Great Britain favored raising that country's level of industry after which "most reparations problems would fall away."

He said Great Britain was as anxious as the United States for private trading to replace Allied headquarters in control of commercial relations.

"The sooner private trading is restored on a nondiscriminatory basis, with equal facilities for all nations, the better," the spokesman aded.

JAPS OFFER TESTIMONY ON MANCHOUKUO PACT

TOKYO, Wednesday, March 19—(AP) The defense told the International War Crimes tribunal today it would offer evidence that the United States "indicated a willingness" to recognize Manchoukuo in 1941.

Furthermore, said counsel for Hideki Tojo and 25 other Japanese leaders, the evidence would show that Russia guaranteed the inviolability of that Japanese puppet state in the neutrality pact of 1941.

The prosecution charges that the defendants conspired to wage aggressive war against China in 1931 by seizing Manchuria and setting up a puppet state called Manchoukuo.

The purported "indicated willingness" of the United States to recognize Manchoukuo came in the course of U.S.-Japanese negotiations just preceding the outbreak of war, defense counsel declared.

Jap Poison-Liquor Trial On

Yokohama, March 18 (AP)—Two Japanese went on trial in provost court today, charged with selling liquor containing methyl alcohol which allegedly caused the death of Tech. (5/g) John Phillips, of Hogansville, Ga., November 23. The Japanese are Deuchi Uwadoko and Toshimoto Kawaji.

To Enlarge Malayan Airfield

SINGAPORE, March 18 (AP).—Reliable reports said today the British Air Ministry will sign a $12,000,000 contract this week for extension and improvement of Changi Airfield, the only Malayan air strip capable of handling four-engine planes. Construction is expected to start immediately on a 9,000-foot-long main strip.

Yenan Capture Within Week Is Predicted

Nanking, March 18 (AP)—A usually informed source said today a Government general had predicted capture of Yenan, Chinese Communist capital, within a week by Government troops already within 12 miles of the city.

The source said Gen. Chen Cheng made the statement before the plenary session of the Kuomintang (Government party) Central Executive Committee. The official communiqué covering Chen's report made no mention of it.

The surprising progress of the Government forces over unfavorable terrain toward the Red capital was taken as confirmation of belief the Communists would not defend the city. This belief was current even in Yenan.

STUDENTS FIGHT MOVE FOR PARLEY ON CHINA

NANKING, March 18 — (AP) Three thousand Chinese secondary school students demonstrated here today against Russian Foreign Minister Molotov's proposal to place China's troubles on the Moscow Big Four ministers agenda.

They marched before the Soviet embassy and chalked anti-Molotov and anti-Russian messages on the embassy walls.

Meantime, Gen. Chen Cheng, the government's chief of staff, was quoted by an informed source as predicting capture of Yenan within a week. Chen was reported to have made such a statement to the Kuomintang (government party) central executive meeting.

Elsewhere, the Communists were reported in Chinese press dispatches to have suffered heavy losses. Government troops were said to have killed 20,000 Communists in a counterattack north of Hangchun, the Manchurian capital.

COURT UPHOLDS 3 JEWS' DOOM

Also Rules Curfew Does Not Violate Mandate

Jerusalem, March 18 (AP) — The Jerusalem high court in two separate opinions today rejected a plea for quashing the death sentences of three Jewish underground members and ruled that use of the curfew by the British military is not against "the letter and spirit" of the Holy Land mandate.

In asking the court to quash the death sentences of Mordecai Ben Abraham Alkachi, Elieser Ben Zion Kashani and Dou Ben Salman Rosenbaum, the attorney for the three Irgun Zvai Leumi members contended that their trial and conviction was improperly handled. He said they were tried by a military court without prior referral by civil magistrate as provided by law.

Referral Held Unnecessary

The court ruled that the case was under military jurisdiction at all times and that civil referral was unnecessary.

The three men were arrested last December 29 near Lydda when a military roadblock force found them in possession of arms and a whip on the night when Irgun admittedly flogged a British major and three British noncommissioned officers.

Max Seligman, attorney representing the three, intimated in court today that he planned to ask for a leave of appeal of the death sentences to the Privy Council as was done in the case of Dov Bela Gruner.

In ruling that the curfew was legal, the court said there was no doubt that it caused many inconveniences. It held that the curfew was not against the mandate provisions as long as it was imposed for maintaining security.

The opinion was handed down after Yousef Weinberg, chairman of the Jewish community in Beith Israel quarter of Jerusalem, filed a petition against the Jerusalem military commander based on an opinion that the early curfew hour prevented orthodox Jews from attending evening service.

British School in Egypt Bombed

U. S. Warships to Visit Greek, Turkish Ports; Aid Plan Is Speeded

CARRIER TO LEAD POWERFUL FORCE ON APRIL CRUISE

State Dept. Asks Action in Congress on Truman Program.

FUNDS NEEDED QUICKLY

House Receives Bill Providing 400 Billions Sought by President.

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) The Navy today disclosed orders for a U. S. task force to visit Greek and Turkish waters—including the strategic Dardanelles—while the State department called for speed on the Truman program to halt the spread of Communism.

A Navy announcement, which spoke of "training purposes," said the 27,000-ton aircraft carrier Leyte would depart from Quonset Point, R. I., early next month.

Cruisers in Group

An official amplified this to say the Leyte would be the flagship of a group of warships including three light cruisers and six destroyers. A preliminary report from London named the cruisers as the Providence, Portsmouth and Dayton. Two destroyers will escort the Leyte across the Atlantic.

There was not a word from the Navy to link the cruise with President Truman's request for aid to Greece and Turkey in resisting Communism. There were plenty of words elsewhere, however, with these major developments:

1. Dean Acheson, undersecretary of state, said that congressional speed is of very great importance, that disaster may result in Greece if there is a substantial gap between the end of British aid and the start of American. He compared Greece to a runner who has been tripped and is falling.

2. Representative Eaton (R-NJ), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs committee, introduced the bill to provide $400,000,000 for Greek and Turkish aid. It carried a strict stipulation that American military missions sent to help must be limited in number and serve only as advisers.

Politics Barred

3. Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, told the Senate that "Bipartisan foreign policy would die" if Democratic or Republican lawmakers working in this field should follow "the political dictates of any party managers."

He thus rejected a suggestion by Gael Sullivan, executive director of the Democratic National committee, that Republican and Democratic party leaders join in a statement endorsing Mr. Truman on the Greek-Turkish program. Vandenberg recalled at the same time his statement that "we have no safe alternative but to uphold the President's hands."

Great Britain, which has been aiding the Greek government in its hunger and fighting with border guerrillas, plans to end its economic aid March 31. Acheson said he does not mean that disaster will come if the United States does not begin aid April 1—but that it will come if the aid is delayed a substantial period.

He put it another way in a news conference discussion: If it becomes known that the United States is not ready to move in to help, consequences will follow which would make it infinitely more costly to put Greece back on her feet.

No Conflict in Policy

Acheson saw no conflict of policy in helping Hungary and Poland as well. He said Hungary does not have a Communist government and that as for Poland, there is danger of the people starving.

The presence of American warships in the Mediterranean is no new thing. Last November-December a force headed by the carrier Randolph visited Greek and Turkish ports.

The Navy has been maintaining a rotation program in the Mediterranean, and at various times some of the heavyweights of the Navy have visited in those waters, including the 45,000-ton carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt and the superbattleship Missouri.

Today's announcement, however, foreshadowed a much more tense interest because of the historic Presidential decision to stand against the spread of Communism by helping the two Communist-plagued countries.

No stop is planned for the Leyte at Piraeus, the port of Athens, but one is scheduled for Crete, Greek island 150 miles south of the Greek capital.

The announcement said:

"In accordance with previously announced plans of rotating from time to time aircraft carriers of U. S. Navy with units assigned to the Mediterranean for training purposes, the U.S.S. Leyte, an Essex class carrier of 27,000 tons, will depart from Quonset Point, R. I., for that area early in April.

"Secretary of Navy James For-restal on Sept. 30, 1946 stated that 'from time to time aircraft carriers will be ordered for temporary duty with the forces in European waters to facilitate training of all ships in the carrier task group operations and to give our aviators equal opportunity to visit foreign countries.'

"It is anticipated that the Leyte will visit Gibraltar, Naples, Suda bay (Crete), Istanbul and Alexandria during her stay in the Mediterranean area. The Navy department has requested the State department to arrange routine diplomatic clearance for such visits.

"The proposal to send the carrier to the Mediterranean area at this time has been under consideration by the Navy department for the past two months."

To Go Through Straits

When the Leyte visits Istanbul, she will be in the Bosporus strait leading to the Black sea, after having passed through the Dardanelles, over which Russia has asked joint control with Turkey.

Presumably the cruise will be commanded by Vice Admiral Bernard H. Bieri, commander of U. S. naval forces in the Mediterranean.

Chairman Eaton of the House Foreign Affairs committee called for immediate hearings on the bill to aid Greece and Turkey by money, military advice and relief. They may get underway tomorrow with the first witness being Dean Acheson, acting secretary of state, and the Secretaries of War and Navy, Patterson and Forrestal.

The bill, besides limiting military aid to advice, gives the United States the right to inspect use of the aid given. It also stipulates that American press and radio representatives shall be free to report on it without censorship.

Broad power is provided for Mr. Truman to (1) give "financial aid in the form of loans, credits, grants or otherwise," (2) send federal employes to assist Greece and Turkey, (3) assign "a limited number" of military men to act "in an advisory capacity only," (4) supply materials, services and information, and (5) train Greek and Turkish personnel. None of the aid could be transferred to another government.

If the bill is passed, the Reconstruction Finance corporation will supply an advance of $100,000,000 to get the aid program under way.

March 31 Deadline

The Administration, with the active aid of the Republican leaders, is aiming at a March 31 deadline for completing action. That is the day, Great Britain has said, that she will have to end her aid-to-Greece program.

May Call at Greece.

London, March 18 (A. P.).—Admiral Richard L. Conolly, commander of the Twelfth Fleet and of United States naval forces in Europe, said today that a United States task force planned to visit Crete in mid-April and that a projected visit to Greece later in the spring awaited the approval of the Greek Government.

The twelve-ship task force—including the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Leyte, the cruisers Providence, Portsmouth and Dayton and six destroyers—is under the command of Vice Admiral B. H. Bieri, commander of the United States naval forces in the Mediterranean area.

Vandenberg and Connally Assail Sullivan's Foreign Policy Stand

G. O. P. Senator Says Present Unity Would 'Die in Revolt' if Americans Yielded to Dictates of Party Managers.

Washington, March 17 (A. P.).—Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.) said today that bi-partisan foreign policy will "die in revolt" if Americans yield to the political dictates of "party managers" on proposed aid to Greece and Turkey.

MAR 1947

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee stepped down from the rostrum of the Senate's presiding officer to criticize from the floor a proposal made last night by Gael Sullivan, executive director of the Democratic National Committee, to Carroll Reece, Republican national chairman.

Sullivan called on Reece to join in a two-party statement indorsing President Truman's policy of combatting Communism by helping Greece and Turkey. Vandenberg predicted that Reece would refuse, and said: "When bipartisan foreign policy gets into the rival hands of partisan national committees, it is in grave danger of losing its precious character."

Connally Backs Vandenberg.

Vandenberg's criticism of Sullivan's action was seconded by Senator Connally (D.-Tex.). He told the Senate that both Sullivan and Reece were "paid propagandists for their parties and in their zeal they both may do a lot of foolish things."

Prior to last fall's Republican congressional landslide, Connally was chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. Like Vandenberg, he was a delegate to the San Francisco conference which drafted the United Nations charter and served as an adviser at numerous international conferences attended by the former Secretary of State, James F. Byrnes.

Downtown, Sullivan later issued a statement which did not mention Vandenberg by name, but said regarding the letter to Reece:

"I have received the Republican party's reply.

"Its answer is: 'No.'"

Vandenberg had prepared his remarks in advance of taking the Senate floor. He told his colleagues:

"No matter how worthy the announced intentions, it can put foreign policy squarely into politics which, under such circumstances, are no longer calculated to stop at the water's edge.

"However, unwittingly, this is precisely what Mr. Sullivan invites.

"I hope Mr. Reece will not accept the invitation. He has faithfully kept his party out of foreign policy politics. I am sure he will continue to do so."

No Safe Alternative.

Vanderberg said that he had "never even pretended to speak for my party" in foreign policy activities, and declared that bipartisan foreign policy is "not the result of political coercion, but of non-political conviction."

"What I decline to do myself I cannot permit the executive director of the Democratic National Committee to attempt in my name," he continued.

"I have said that we have no safe alternative but to uphold the President's hands at this dangerous hour. But I have also said that total information must be made available to Congress and the country, and that Congress must completely explore and approve the means by which the President's policy is to be implemented.

"I expect every Republican, like every Democrat, to respond to his own conscience. I expect all of them to act, not as partisans, but as Americans. I expect none of them to yield their judgment, at such an hour, to the political dictates of any party manager."

Not Consulted by Sullivan.

Connally said he arose to "heartily corroborate" what Vandenberg said. The Texan said he did not sponsor Sullivan's letter and Sullivan had not consulted him about it.

Then Connally spoke for quick congressional action on the administration program, saying:

"All that's involved is to help Greece maintain her position and her army for domestic purposes only."

Connally said that the President's policy was "only new in part," because this party has made loans to Great Britain, France and Italy, and the purpose of the French and Italian loans was "to prevent confusion and chaos and protest against the spread of Communism."

Vandenberg remarked that he had no quarrel with Connally's statement, "except—and this is not a quarrel—that I think the pending probdem involves far wider implications than he has indicated."

Acheson Urges Speed.

Under-Secretary of State Dean Acheson said today that disaster may result in Greece if there is a substantial gap between the end of British aid and the start of American.

He told a news conference that it is of very great importance that Congress act speedily on President Truman's request for assistance to Greece.

Britain expects to end its economic aid to Greece March 31.

Acheson explained that he did not mean there will be disaster if this country does not regain aid by April 1, but that there will be if the aid is delayed substantially.

In response to questions, Acheson said there is no inconsistency between aiding Greece with the announced purpose of checking the spread of Communism, and also extending assistance, if needed, to Hungary and Poland.

Acheson said that Hungary does not have a Communist Government, although the country is within the eastern European area controlled by Soviet occupation forces.

REECE CONDEMNS DEMOCRATIC PLEA ON FOREIGN POLICY

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP)

MAR 1947

Carroll Reece, chairman of the Republican National committee today termed "highly improper" a suggestion that he join Democratic party officials in a statement backing the Truman Greek-Turkish policy.

His rejection of this idea, advanced by Gael Sullivan, executive director of the Democratic National committee, capped earlier criticism of it by G.O.P. Senators Vandenberg of Michigan and Dworshak of Idaho.

Vandenberg Comments

Vandenberg told the Senate that bi-partisan foreign policy will "die in revolt" if "party managers" attempt to dictate it. Dworshak, talking with reporters, called Sullivan's move a "cheap political trick."

Sullivan made his proposal last night in a public letter to Reece and the Republican chairman replied in the same way.

Reece told Sullivan that if he signed such a statement "I would be in a position of promising to deliver the votes of Republican members of the Senate and House for the purposes indicated."

He added:

"Any suggestion that the national organization of a political party has authority to order senators or representatives to vote in a particular manner must, in my opinion, be based upon a machine concept of politics such as was discredited and repudiated by the voters in recent months."

Improper to Act

Reece said he was not passing on the merits of Mr. Truman's proposal but believed "it would be highly improper, if not indeed reprehensible, for the chairman or other responsible official of a national political party to sign any statement of that general nature."

He went on to say sentiment in the Republican party was against Communist aggression not only in Greece and Turkey but also in Poland, the Baltic and Balkan countries. And he said the United States government must bear a part of the responsibility for the situation in the latter countries "because of the appeasement policy followed by American representatives at Yalta, Potsdam and elsewhere."

Declaring there is "Communistic agggression" also in infiltration of Communists into government jobs, Reece concluded:

"Actually, from the standpoint of American security, the presence of armed bands of outlaws on the frontiers of Greece or Turkey may be less dangerous than subversive termites disguised in striped trousers and spats in governmental positions in Washington."

MAR 1947

Vandenberg's Speech and Reece's Letter

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—The text of the prepared Senate speech by Senator Vandenberg on Gael Sullivan's proposal for a bi-partisan statement on Greek and Turkish aid:

I regret the necessity of making this statement at this critical moment, when partisan politics should be totally removed from foreign policy considerations. But I am unable to ignore the unfortunate implications in the letter and statement released last night by the executive director of the Democratic National Committee, calling upon the chairman of the Republican National Committee to join in a party statement endorsing the so-called "Truman policy" in Greece and Turkey. The Democratic chairman repeatedly used my name in his letter and statement. Of course, this was without my knowledge. It is unavoidable that I should speak plainly as a result.

When bipartisan foreign policy gets into the rival hands of partisan national committees, it is in grave danger of losing its precious character. No matter how worthy the announced intentions, it can put foreign policy squarely into politics, which, under such circumstances, are no longer calculated to stop at the water's edge. However unwittingly, this is precisely what Mr. Sullivan invites. I hope Mr. Reece will not accept the invitation. He has faithfully kept his party out of foreign policy politics. I am sure he will continue to do so.

Bipartisan foreign policy is not the result of political coercion, but of nonpolitical conviction. I never have even pretended to speak for my party in my foreign policy activities. I have relied upon the validity of my actions to command whatever support they may deserve. I have never made any semblance of a partisan demand for support and I never shall. What I decline to do myself I can not permit the executive director of the Democratic National Committee to attempt in my name.

Bipartisan Policy Limited

It also is necessary, now, to get the record straight. This bipartisan foreign policy has been confined within relatively narrow limits. It has applied to the United Nations. It has applied to peace treaties in Europe. It has applied to nothing else. I have had nothing to do, for example, with China policies or Pan American policies except within the United Nations, and at times I have been satisfied with neither. The first I ever heard of the Greece-Turkish policy was when the President disclosed his thoughts ten days ago at the White House. I do not complain. But I do not propose to be misunderstood.

I have said that we have no safe alternative but to uphold the President's hands at this dangerous hour. But I have also said that total information must be made available to Congress and the country, and that Congress must completely explore and approve the means by which the President's policy is to be implemented.

I expect every Republican, like every Democrat, to respond to his own conscience. I expect all of them to act not as partisans, but as Americans. I expect none of them to yield their judgments, at such an hour, to the political dictates of any party managers. On the latter basis, bipartisan foreign policy would die in revolt. I hope we may avoid that tragedy. The quicker last night's appeal, no matter how nobly meditated, is forgotten, the better it will be for the United States.

Reece's Letter to Sullivan

The text of the letter from Carroll Reece, chairman of the Republican National Committee, to Mr. Sullivan:

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

I have today read your letter of March 17 addressed to me, in which you enclosed a statement dealing with President Truman's proposal for the extension of aid to Greece and Turkey, which statement you suggested should be issued over our signatures. This letter and the proposed statement were delivered to Republican headquarters during my absence late yesterday afternoon at about the same time, as I learned subsequently, they were being distributed to the press.

Our familiarity in this office with the distribution of statements to the press and our knowledge of the time required for such purposes convinces me that these releases must have been in the process of preparation and distribution at the very time your communication was received here. That fact, of course, made it impossible for me to accept your suggestion for the issuance of a joint statement, even if I had been in the office and were disposed to act immediately upon your suggestion.

I mention the foregoing circumstances because, while the substance of my answer would have been the same in any event, the fact that you saw fit to make your proposal public before I had had an opportunity to consider it and reply does influence my appraisal of the reasons back of your proposal. Had you withheld publication of your letter and proposed statement until I had had a reasonable opportunity to reply, I might have been disposed to regard your action as a sincere, even though mistaken, attempt to be of service to the nation during a critical time.

The issue presented by the President's proposal with respect to Greece and Turkey is one which must be decided by the appropriate branches of the Government of the United States. The National Committees of the political parties are not such official agencies. One branch of the Government, the Executive, through the President has proposed a certain policy. I am assuming that this policy was proposed after careful consideration of all the factors involved, and in the sincere belief that the adoption of that policy would best serve the interests of the nation.

The other coordinate and coequal branch of the Government upon which responsibility rests for the determination of policy is the Congress. That branch is now engaged in discharging its responsibility through the normal and orderly processes of legislation. I believe the Congress, in discharging its share of responsibility, must be credited with the same degree of sincerity and patriotism which is conceded to the Executive Branch. The issue involved is one which should be decided solely upon the basis of what will best promote American interests and security—not upon considerations of partisan advantage or disadvantage.

The National Committees of the two major parties are necessarily, and properly, partisan agencies. They were created by the respective parties primarily for the purpose of promoting the interests of party candidates for office. At least, that is my conception of the function of the Republican National Committee, and as chairman I have been devoting my energies toward the effective performance of the duties imposed upon me by my office.

The National Committees, in my opinion, are the servants of their parties—not the masters. The statement enclosed with your letter of March 17 was drawn up in a form roughly resembling a legal contract or a bill of sale. Since I do not own the Republican party, I do not propose to be put in the position of selling it or giving it away. There are both legal and moral restrictions on such practice.

If I were to presume to sign a statement or contract such as you suggest, I would be in a position of promising to deliver the votes of Republican members of the Senate and House for the purposes indicated. Of course I neither have, nor should have, power to make such delivery. Any suggestion that the national organization of a political party has authority to order Senators or Representatives to vote in a particular manner must, in my opinion, be based upon a machine concept of politics such as was discredited and repudiated by the voters in recent months.

In refusing to affix my signature to the statement you suggest, I am not attempting to pass upon the merits or demerits of the issue to which it refers. I am simply stating my belief that it would be highly improper, if not indeed reprehensible, for the chairman or other responsible official of a national political committee to sign any statement of that general nature.

I note the statement in your letter regarding the desirability of unity among Americans "to build a peaceful world free of the threat of Communist aggression." I am most certainly in agreement with the thought that Communist aggression must be resisted. Numerous declarations made in recent months by many Republican spokesmen, including myself, indicate, in my opinion, that there is no division within the Republican party on that point.

The subject of Communist aggression is a very broad one. It is involved not only in current conditions in Greece and Turkey, but also in the plight of Poland and the Baltic and Balkan countries—a condition for which I am afraid our Government must bear a part of the responsibility because of the appeasement policy followed by American representatives at Yalta, Potsdam and elsewhere at a time when our influence could have been exerted effectively to halt Communistic aggression.

It is involved also in the insidious infiltration of Communists and fellow-travelers into our own governmental structure at home. Actually, from the standpoint of American security, the presence of armed bands of outlaws on the frontiers of Greece or Turkey may be less dangerous than subversive termites disguised in striped trousers and spats in governmental positions in Washington.

I have refrained from any mention to your references to Senator Vandenberg because, as you no doubt have learned, the Senator has dealt with that point himself. I hope you will agree that he has done so adequately.

Sincerely yours,
CARROLL REECE.

Navy Secretary Defends Military Setup Under Hot Questioning.

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) President Truman's plan for unification of the nation's armed forces came under hot senatorial fire today, while Navy Secretary Forrestal staunchly defended it as a "working co-partnership" for national defense.

Forrestal said the proposed bill "should prevent us from ever again coming face to face with a war for which we are unwarned or militarily unprepared."

Moreover, he said, it "provides an organization which will allow us to apply the full punitive power of the United States against any future enemy."

Testifying as the first of a series of high government officials to appear before the Senate Armed Service committee, Forrestal appealed to the lawmakers not to alter the plan, because, he said, any changes might wreck its "balance."

"It provides for the coordination of the three armed services," he said, "but what is to me even more important than that, it provides for the integration of foreign policy with national policy."

Senators Bridges (R-NH) and Byrd (D-Va) bombarded Forrestal with critical questions, demanding to know "why you have changed your position" since a year ago.

Questioned on Earlier Stand

Recalling Forrestal's role in leading a solid opposition of Navy chiefs to a merger plan last year, both Bridges and Byrd told him bluntly they were certain he "was right then."

Their questions, along with those of other committee members, indicated they may offer numerous changes to the plan if they do not oppose it completely.

Forrestal said he opposed last year's merger bill because he believed it would "destroy the Navy" and endanger its Marine corps and air power.

Bridges asked why some future single secretary of national defense—as provided by the Truman plan—might not do just that under his powers as a "super deluxe individual."

"There is nothing specific in the bill that would guarantee it would not happen," Bridges said.

Senator Baldwin (R-Conn) asked if the unification bill "would weaken the Navy's morale, general efficiency, striking power or development of naval weapons?"

"The answer is no," Forrestal replied.

Pressed for an explanation on why he opposed merger legislation last session and now supports the present plan, Forrestal said the bill last year failed to preserve the Navy's independence. The present measure provides for separate administration of Navy, Army and air forces, he said.

"I felt—I knew that it would destroy these imponderables," he said, referring to the Navy's traditions and morale.

Byrd told Forrestal:

"You've changed your position because of the independence given the Navy. Where is that in the bill? I don't see it."

Forrestal replied that the Navy department would be administered separately and the proposed secretary of the navy could appeal directly to the President.

"If the secretary did that, he would not last long," Byrd said.

The Virginia senator voiced his opinion there would "be no economies" under the unification plan although public support, he said, is based upon expected "vast economies."

Acheson Places Europe's Peace Before Japan's

Says MacArthur Proposal Must Wait on Progress in Current Negotiations

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP).—Dean Acheson, Acting Secretary of State, said today there will have to be more progress on the European peace settlement before a Japanese peace treaty can be negotiated and signed.

Mr. Acheson made the statement at his news conference in response to a request for comment on the proposal yesterday by General Douglas MacArthur that a Japanese treaty be concluded "as soon as possible." The general also urged that the American occupation of Japan be terminated soon and that the United Nations assume responsibility.

On the latter point, Mr. Acheson said he had not had a chance to study General MacArthur's remarks, made at a press conference. As a practical, physical matter, Secretary Acheson added, there are limits on the number of things men can do at one time.

Says U. S. Body Dodges Task

Rees Accuses the Civil Service Commission of Failing to Discharge Communists.

Washington, March 18 (A. P.).—Representative Rees (R.-Kan.), chairman of the House Civil Service Committee, accused the Government's Civil Service Commission today of dodging its responsibility to discharge Communists and fellow travelers. He said the commission is guilty of "evasions, excuses and complete indifference" in the task.

Rees expressed hope that a subcommittee will conduct an extensive investigation into the loy[illegible] of Federal employees. He viewed a Supreme Court decision yesterday as fortifying the commission's right to discharge Communist party line followers.

In a lengthy statement presented to the committee, Rees cited a Department of Commerce employee who, he said, resigned after learning his loyalty to the United States was to be investigated.

Rees identified the former employee as Louis Hyman Levitsky. He said Levitsky first was hired by the War Assets Administration in August, 1945, at $4,100 a year and then was transferred to the Department of Commerce at $8,100. Rees said statements made about Levitsky and his family "indicate a background of Communism dating back to the Russian revolution."

He said the Commerce Department, without investigating Levitsky's record, had planned to send him to Germany to inspect chemical plants, which "have a direct effect upon Germany's war potential and have been the subject of requisition by Communist-dominated countries."

"My question is," he added, "how many other cases are there like this, and how many other employees are being sent on secret and confidential missions to Europe who have not been thoroughly investigated? It seems quite clear that if this could happen once, it could happen hundreds of times."

He said Levitsky is now living in Miami, Fla.

TAFT SEES BOOST IN U. S. SPENDING FOR SOCIAL NEEDS

Shortage of Homes Is Most Pressing Problem, Says Senator.

PROGRAM A FAILURE

Only Part of Authorized Subsidy Funds Have Been Used.

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) Senator Taft (R-Ohio) today forecast an eventual $1,000,000,000-a-year Federal budget for social welfare—education, health and housing—and declared the shortage of homes is a problem crying for attention.

Testifying before the Senate Banking committee, Taft declared "we are going to have to do something soon" to get more homes.

Senator Robertson (D-Va) asked Taft if he would be willing to increase the national debt, now totalling $262,000,000,000, to take care of the housing problem.

"No," Taft replied firmly, "I would not."

National Problem

Nevertheless, he said, the housing situation is a national problem and "nothing is closer to the welfare of the people."

"The government has done no job at all in the past," he said, "and private industry has never provided the necessary housing for lowest income groups."

Taft asserted that the emergency program set up by Congress last year to encourage production of scarce building materials has been "a complete failure." He said that of $400,000,000 provided for subsidies to producers, only about $35,000,000 will have been spent by the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

"The justification for public housing is that we have to eliminate the disgraceful type of housing in which the lowest income families live," he said.

Taft was joined in his testimony by Senators Wagner (D-NY) and Ellender (D-La), co-sponsors of the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill which sets up a goal of 15,000,000 new dwellings by 1958. Some of this construction would be public housing, built with the aid of Federal money.

Need for Public Housing

Stressing the need for public housing, Ellender cited industry opposition and declared:

"I find such an attitude very disturbing. In effect, it is a recommendation for the condemnation indefinitely of millions of our citizenry, through no fault of their own, to lives of squalor and disease."

Raymond M. Foley, national housing administrator, told the committee that while the W-E-T bill is "not perfect, I believe it would make it possible for this nation to start forward now with the kind of a housing program which has long been needed."

Estimates Costs

Taft estimated the housing program would ultimately cost $150,000,000 a year. He linked this outlay with proposed educational and health-assistance programs each costing $250,000,000 annually, and declared:

"It would not be too much to raise this to $1,000,000,000 a year when we have a Federal budget of between $25,000,000,000 and $30,000,000,000 a year."

Major features of the W-E-T bill call for Federal aid to states and localities for low-rent public housing projects and slum clearance, encouragement to private builders of rental housing for moderate-income families, and preference to veterans as tenants in public housing.

The housing shortage was also discussed at a hearing before the House Banking committee, with Housing Expediter Frank R. Creedon testifying that the lifting of Federal housing controls would disrupt a "great many" housing projects and divert scarce materials to non-essentials such as racetracks and night clubs.

Creedon said prices of new and old houses are "definitely levelling off" but it may be several years before there is "any appreciable decline" in the cost of new construction.

APPEAL IS VOICED FOR DISARMAMENT

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) Senator Tydings (D-Md) urged today that President Truman call a world disarmament conference to prevent a third world war which, he said, might destroy "this planet itself."

Tydings set a goal for universal disarmament "on land, on sea and in the air" by Jan. 1, 1950, and "maintained thereafter by all the countries of the earth."

Except for limited small arms to maintain order, he proposed in a Senate speech that the manufacture, storage and possession of all other weapons, ammunition and munitions of war be prohibited.

Tydings told the Senate an immediate decision should be made either to keep the United States fully prepared for war in all categories, including the atomic bomb, or to have total disarmament for all the nations on the globe.

Bluntly he called the United Nations as presently constituted "a hollow shell . . . A glorified debating society" with no police force to enforce its decrees.

He insisted that the United States "should and must take the lead" in promoting disarmament, but must not strip itself of its vital defenses unless the rest of the world will go along.

He introduced a resolution authorizing President Truman to invite other nations to a disarmament conference.

Tydings, who sponsored a similar resolution last year, broke into Senate debate on the portal pay bill to give his views on what he called the most pressing issue before the United States and the world.

"The address of President Truman to the Congress on March 12 revealed with complete and unmistakable clarity the impotence of the United Nations as presently constituted to deal effectively with international affairs," Tydings said.

In that speech the President asked for a $400,000,000 loan to bolster the Greek and Turkish governments against Communist pressure.

Tydings said a third world war would be a thousand times more dreadful than its predecessors — "would wreck the earth itself, and would be the end of everything we value." He predicted that the slaughter would be carried out not only with atomic bombs, but with man - scattered scourges and plagues, new poison gases, and flying bombs.

He argued that prevention of World War II should be the principal aim of mankind, not simply the control of the atomic bomb treaties on atomic energy wouldn't do alone, he said.

Tydings said it was unmistakably plain that "we and all our recent allies are now maintaing our armed might against each other"—all former enemy nations having been vanquished.

Eisenhower's Secret Is Out: He Admits He Enjoys Cooking

Washington, March 18 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's "top secret" is out. He likes to cook.

Last summer he put up jars of sauer kraut from cabbages grown in his garden at Fort Myer, Va. But his pièce de résistance is vegetable soup.

Uncle Sam's tall chief of staff is very modest about his achievements in leading the Allies to victory in Europe in the last war, but when it comes to vegetable soup, he admits he's good. Tops, no less!

Recipe Is Secret

He declines to give out his recipe. He believes he has kept it a secret even from Mrs. Eisenhower. She just smiles.

Some gum-shoeing, undertaken to locate somebody who has sampled Eisenhower vegetable soup, disclosed that after hostilities ended in Europe, the supreme Allied commander decided to celebrate by inviting some military friends to dinner. The host would prepare his specialty—vegetable soup.

It seems those military minds had been bragging about their individual culinary abilities — and General "Ike" got his hand called.

Guest Gives Views

A person interviewed who was a guest at that dinner, after stipulating that his identity couldn't be revealed—"cross your heart and hope to die"—agreed to answer a few questions.

Question: "Was the soup good?"

"Damn good!"

"What was it like?"

"Thickish."

Had "Lots Of Things"

"What did it have in it?"

"Lots of things — everything. Come to think of it, it had just about every type of vegetables we had had in the mess in a month."

"Do you know his recipe?"

"No, the General won't give it out—not even to Mrs. Eisenhower."

"Can you cook?"

"Certainly."

Ingredients Suggested

"Well, then can't you sort of figure out a recipe the General might have used?"

"Well, I think the General has a basic recipe — soup bone, pot, water, vegetables. But, frankly, I think his soup is a sort of hit-and-miss proposition."

"You mean it doesn't always turn out good?"

"No, I mean it sometimes turns out differently. I guess he puts in it whatever he has at hand.

"What he tries to achieve is taste—'palate,' I believe you call it. The soup has got to taste just right to him—or something else goes into it."

"What else does he serve with his soup?"

"Nothing. You don't need anything else. Its filling."

"Does the General cook his soup for a long time—hours?"

"Hours? no, for days! It take days and days to fix that soup."

2 Ex-Army Cooks 'Least Surprised'

New York, March 18 (AP)—Marty Snyder and Johnny Schwarz today were probably the least surprised of all who learned General "Ike" Eisenhower's hitherto secret hobby—cooking vegetable soup.

Snyder and Schwarz, former sergeants who ran the officers' messes for the General's European headquarters, said they didn't ever remember seeing him actually cook—"he didn't have time."

"But he used to come in and putter around the kitchen and give advice. And he knew his cooking—he liked to talk about the days when he was a colonel in the field and could go right out and get to work."

The "certain little things he was found of," confessed Marty and Johnny, who came back from the wars and opened a restaurant here, were not always easy. One thing they had to learn was that lamb stew had to have whole onions or it "wasn't stew."

"The toughest thing to get the way he liked it," recalled Marty, "was baked beans. He liked them with sorghum, and no tomatoes."

Lend-Lease Post Resigned by Lane

War-Time Agency to Close Its Doors on Saturday

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP).—Chester T. Lane resigned today as Lend-Lease Administrator and said the war-time enterprise which sent more than $50,000,000,000 worth of American supplies to Allied nations will formally end Saturday.

On that date, remaining lend-lease affairs will be placed under Norman Ness, director of the State Department's Office of Finance and Economic Development. Since V-J day a staff of about 1,400 has been reduced to some thirty employees.

Mr. Lane told reporters that supplies valued at about $25,000,000 remain to be delivered to Soviet Russia and several other nations under post-war "pipe-line" contracts. In his letter of resignation to Under Secretary of State William L. Clayton, Mr. Lane said "unwarranted" Congressional objections have held up deliveries.

Mr. Lane said he will enter the New York City law firm of Greenman, Shea, Lane and Sandomire.

Senate Group Backs Norton

Approves Him for Assistant Secretary of State

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP).—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today recommended confirmation of Garrison Norton, of New York, as an Assistant Secretary of State.

It also approved and sent to the Senate legislation:

Authorizing the President to appoint Major General Laurence S. Kuter as representative of the United States to the interim council of the Provisional International Civil Aviation Organization without affecting his military status.

Authorizing the President to appoint Lieutenant Commander Paul A. Smith as alternate representative on the P. I. C. A. O. and as United States representative to the air navigation committee of the P. I. C. A. O. without affecting his status as an officer of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

Authorizing Herschel V. Johnson, deputy representative of the United States to the United Nations Security Council, to be reappointed to the foreign service.

THREE REDS GET HOUSE SUBPOENAS

Milwaukee,, March 18 (A. P.).—Subpœnas for three Communist party members were issued today by a House labor sub-committee investigating the possibility that perjury was committed during full committee hearings on labor legislation in Washington.

Ordered to appear as the investigation moved into its second day were Fred Bassett Blair, secretary of the Communist party in Wisconsin; Sigmund Eisenscher, who received 1,857 votes as Communist candidate for Governor last November, and Owen Lambert, a Communist candidate for the State Assembly last year.

The purpose of the hearing was to determine whether Robert Buse, president of the local, and Harold Christoffel, honorary president, committed perjury in testimony before the committee at Washington. Louis Budenz, one-time Communist leader who renounced the party, later testified that the two were Communists.

Louisville, March 18 (A. P.).—Robert Buse, president of the United Automobile Workers Local 248 at the strike-bound Allis-Chalmers plant in Milwaukee, in an interview here today branded as a lie recent testimony of Louis Budenz before a congressional committee that the 1941 Allis-Chalmers strike was ordered by the communists.

Budenz, a former communist, had testified that Roy Hudson, now communist chairman of Western Pennsylvania, ordered the strike through Harold Christoffel, then president of Local 248 and now its honorary president.

"As far as I know it's a lie," Buse declared flatly, adding, "and I ought to know since I was on the bargaining committee. I never saw Roy Hudson or Budenz at that time, nor any other Communist official or worker."

Text of House Measure to Provide Help for Greece and Turkey

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—The text of the bill introduced in the House today to carry out President Truman's request for aid to Greece and Turkey follows:

To provide for assistance to Greece and Turkey.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the President may from time to time when he deems it in the interest of the United States furnish assistance to Greece and Turkey, upon request of their Governments, and upon terms and conditions determined by him—

(1) By rendering financial aid in the form of loans, credits, grants, or otherwise, to those countries;

(2) By detailing to assist those countries any persons in the employ of the Government of the United States; and the provisions of the Act of May 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 442), as amended, applicable to personnel detailed pursuant to such act, as amended, shall be applicable to personnel detailed pursuant to this paragraph;

(3) By detailing a limited number of members of the military services of the United States to assist those countries, in an advisory capacity only; and the provisions of the Act of May 19 1926 (44 Stat, 565), as amended, applicable to personnel detailed pursuant to such act, as amended, shall be applicable to personnel detailed pursuant to this paragraph; and

(4) By providing for (A) the transfer to, and the procurement for by manufacture or otherwise and the transfer to, those countries of any articles, services, and information, and (B) the instruction and training of personnel of those countries.

Sec. 2. (A) Sums from advances by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under Section 4 (A) and from the appropriations made under authority of Section 4 (B) may be allocated for any of the purposes of this act, and any necessary expenses related thereto, to any department, agency, or independent establishment of the Government. Any amount so allocated shall be available as advancement or reimbursement, and shall be credited, at the option of the department, agency, or independent establishment concerned, to appropriate appropriations, funds or accounts existing or established by it for the purpose.

(B) Whenever the President requires payment in advance by the Government of Greece or of Turkey for assistance to be furnished to such countries in accordance with this act, such payments when made shall be credited to accounts for such countries established for the purpose. Sums from such accounts shall be allocated to the departments, agencies, or independent establishments of the Government which furnish the assistance for which payment is received, in the same manner, and shall be available and credited in the same manner, as allocations made under subsection (A) of this section. Any portion of such allocation not used as reimbursement shall remain available until expended.

(C) Whenever any portion of an allocation under subsection (A) or subsection (B) is used as reimbursement, the amount of reimbursement shall be available for entering into contracts and other uses during the fiscal year in which the reimbursement is received and the ensuing fiscal year. Where the head of any department, agency, or independent establishment of the Government determines that replacement of any article transferred pursuant to paragraph (4) (A) of section 1 is not necessary, any funds received in payment therefor shall be covered into the treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(D) (1) Payment in advance by the Government of Greece or of Turkey, shall be required by the President for any articles or services furnished to such country under paragraph (4) (A) of section 1 if they are not paid for from funds advanced by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under Section 4 (A) or from funds appropriated under authority of Section 4 (B).

(2) No department, agency, or independent establishment of the Government shall furnish any articles or services under paragraph (4) (A) of Section 1 to either Greece or Trukey, unless it receives advancements or reimbursements therefor out of allocations under subsection (A) or (B) of this section.

Sec. 3. As a condition precedent to the receipt of any assistance pursuant to this act, the Government requesting such assistance shall agree (A) to permit free access of United States Government officials for the purpose of observing whether such assistance is utilized effectively and in accordance with the undertakings of the recipient Government; (B) to permit representatives of the press and radio of the United States to observe freely and to report fully regarding the utilization of such assistance; (C) not to transfer, without the consent of the President of the United States, title to or possession of any article or information transferred pursuant to this act, nor to permit, without such consent, the use of any such article or the use or disclosure of any such information by or to anyone not an officer, employe, or agent of the recipient Government; and (D) to make such provisions as may be required by the President of the United States for the security of any article, service, or information received pursuant to this act.

Sec. 4. (A) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and directed, until such time as an appropriation shall be made pursuant to subsection (B) of this section, to make advances, not to exceed in the aggregate $100,000,000, to carry out the provisions of this act, in such manner and in such amounts as the President shall determine.

(B) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the President not to exceed $400,000,000 to carry out the provisions of this act. From appropriations made under this authority there shall be repaid to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation the advances made by it under subsection (A) of this section.

Sec. 5. The President may from time to time prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper to carry out any of the provisions of this act; and he may exercise any power or authority conferred upon him pursuant to this act through such department, agency, independent establishment, or officer of the Government as he shall direct.

Sec. 6. The President shall submit to the Congress quarterly reports of expenditures and activities under authority of this act.

STEWART REPEATS DENIAL OF REICH AID

Suggests $39,000 He Admits Receiving Came 'Anonymously' From Rich Industrialists

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—Douglas M. Stewart, on trial charged with perjury, denied today any knowledge of the source of $39,000 which he received to finance the publications which the Government contends were German propaganda mediums.

He told from a Federal court witness stand how he had first received a package containing $3,000 then another of $6,000 and two separate packages of $15,000 each.

The Government contends that the second $15,000 was given to him in a New York hotel room in 1941 by Heribert von Strempel, former first secretary of the German Embassy.

Von Strempel has testified that he took the money to Stewart's hotel room.

Stewart was indicted for perjury in telling a Federal grand jury in 1943 and 1944 that he did not know the source of the funds. He reiterated those statements today in court.

"I did not receive that money from von Strempel in 1941—in fact, I never saw von Strempel before Nov. 22, 1946," Stewart said in response to questioning by Warren Magee, chief of defense counsel.

Stewart gave in detail his version of how he had received the money for the Scribner's Commentator, a monthly magazine, and a weekly newspaper, The Lake Geneva Herald, both of which he formerly published at Lake Geneva, Wis.

Says He Met Industrialists

Stewart said he had met many wealthy industrialists at Lake Geneva and many of them had indicated that they would be glad to give his publications financial support if this could be done anonymously.

He said he received a package containing $3,000 in $100 bills from a man he never had seen before he came into Stewart's office at Lake Geneva. He said the man declined to give his name.

Stewart said that "somebody in the building" later left $6,000 on his desk, all in $20 bills. He added "but I don't know who it was."

Asked when he received the first of the two $15,000 packages, Stewart replied:

"It was in July, 1941. I had come home one day from the office and inside the front door was a brown paper package, and it turned out it contained $15,000, all in $20 bills. There were 750 of them."

The defense attorney then handed Stewart a package of 750 one-dollar bills and asked if that was the same size. Stewart assented.

"Do you know who gave you that $15,000?" Magee asked.

"No, sir," Stewart replied.

Stewart said the second package containing $15,000 was received "in very much the same manner," except that he found it "on a little table inside the door."

TRUMAN WILL FLY TO CAPITAL TODAY AS VACATION ENDS

KEY WEST, Fla., March 18.—(AP) President Truman chatted with Navy enlisted men and walked through galleys (kitchens) of the Navy submarine base here today as a farewell gesture to the hundreds of men who have kept things shipshape during his week long vacation.

The chief executive leaves for the White House tomorrow aboard his four-engined Army plane, known as the "Sacred Cow." He expects to arrive in Washington about 6 p.m.

Tanned and refreshed by his holiday, the commander-in-chief of all the armed forces was friendly and smiling as he chatted with just plain sailors. He toured the Navy base afoot, and bounded on and off ships moored beside spick-and-span piers.

His entourage of reporters and photographers was left behind as the commander-in-chief made his tour. The shrill sound of bo'sun's pipes, and the order "attention" followed by "at ease" marked his course as the President kept his tour as informal as possible.

Later Mr. Truman went to Fort Taylor where he took a swim and a sun bath on the beach.

Returning to the Navy base, he attended a movie, with his staff and White House newspaper corps. Again the President was clad in a light blue cotton suit with a blue-open-neck shirt, and wore a tropical helmet.

He set his scheduled arrival at the White House to coincide with the dinner hour, and is expected to spend tomorrow night catching up on work preparatory to taking up his heavy duties Thursday.

The fatigue which brought him from Washington last Wednesday appeared to have disappeared.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said there were no developments at the President's temporary headquarters here on the troubled international situation.

He did not know what callers Mr. Truman will see at the White House Thursday or whether there will be a Presidential news conference this week.

U.N. Arms Unit Due For First Meeting

Lake Success, N.Y., March 18 (AP)—Spurred by an appeal from Poland for action, the United Nations worked today for the final details for the first meeting of the United Nations Commission for Conventional Armaments.

The secretariat could not say yet just when that meeting would be held, but it was evident after the Security Council met last night that the delegates were anxious for at least a start on the momentous task of limiting the world's arms and reducing armed forces everywhere.

At the end of more than three hours of wrangling over an Australian amendment to the United States plan for trusteeship powers over the Japanese-mandated islands in the Pacific, which produced no action yesterday, Dr. Oscar Lange, of Poland, asked about the arms commission.

Hadn't Met Yet

He said his Government had requested a report on the first month's work of the commission and that he would be forced to report that the commission had not even met. He pointed out the commission must make a report to the Council three months after February 13, the date its creation was agreed upon.

After the meeting, a check of the delegations disclosed that every member of the Security Council had submitted the name of its representative on the commission but that the Australian papers had been mislaid somewhere between Manhattan and Lake Success. With Poland clamoring for speed, delegates said they expected that the arms question would come up in the near future.

Trusteeship Issue

The Council agreed to continue discussing on Friday the American request to be named administrator of the chain of islands in the Western Pacific once held by Japan under League of Nations mandate. The question before the Council now is whether to accept an Australian amendment that would make the effective date of the agreement subject to completion of a peace treaty with Japan. The United States is firmly opposed to that amendment.

The Council will meet Thursday to continue debate on the British charges against Albania.

The United Nations Atomic Energy Commission will meet tomorrow for the first time this year. Members said they expected the commission would refer the whole matter back to its political committee.

TALKS TO REOPEN ON ATOM CONTROLS

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 18 (AP)—The United States delegation to the United Nations Atomic Energy commission met today to map its strategy for the renewed atomic control discussions which will begin tomorrow.

The specific question before the commission now is a Security council resolution directing the commission to try to reconcile the divergent views of the United States and Soviet delegations and begin at once to draft a treaty or convention to be sent back to the council.

Meantime, informed quarters said the U. S. State department and the British Foreign office were engaged in discussions on procedure for bringing the Palestine question before the United Nations.

Asiatic Reconstruction Voted By U.N. Council

Lake Success, N.Y., March 18 (AP). The United Nations Economic and Social Council voted unanimously today to establish an economic commission to aid in the reconstruction of war-devastated areas of Asia and the Far East.

The Council previously had approved creation of a similar commission for Europe.

Dutch Get Union Loan

New York, March 18 (AP)—The International Ladies Garment Workers Union (AFL) has loaned the Netherlands Trolley and Railway Workers Union $100,000 for the purchase of overalls, shoes and other work clothes.

David Dubinsky, ILGWU president, handed the check for the three-year-interest-free loan to Dr. Alexander Loudon, Netherlands Ambassador to the United States, yesterday.

2-3 Of Reparations Assigned To Russ

[By the Associated Press]

Of the $1,330,000,000 in reparations thus far assessed against the losers of the recent war, 67 per cent, or $900,000,000, has been awarded to the Soviet Union, which yesterday demanded an additional $10,000,000,000 in compensation for war losses from Germany.

Russia, the only major power to claim reparations, gets $100,000,000 from Italy $200,000,000 from Hungary and $300,000,000 each from Romania and Finland by the terms of peace treaties signed in February.

Other Awards

Other nations awarded reparations include Yugoslavia, $200,000,000 from Italy, Bulgaria and Hungary; Greece, $150,000,000, from Italy and Bulgaria; Ethiopia, $25,000,000 from Italy; Albania, $5,000,000 from Italy; and Czechoslovakia, $50,000,000 from Hungary.

Russia's new $10,000,000,000 demand against Germany amounts to almost a third of the full total assessed against Germany by all the Allies after the first World War, when an Allied financial council fixed the German bill at 132,000,000,000 gold marks—or approximately $33,000,000,000.

Collected Little

The winners collected only a small fraction of that total, however, and it was never paid in full, even after the Young Plan—named for Owen D. Young, who formulated it in 1929—cut the bill to $9,000,000,000 and gave the Germans until 1988 to pay.

Finally, in 1931, at the height of the world-wide depression, all reparations payments were abandoned at the suggestion of President Hoover, who declared an indefinite moratorium on such payments.

Wallace Plans Flight To Britain For Talks

New York, March 18 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said tonight he would fly to England April 7 to discuss with British leaders "ways of strengthening the United Nations and aiding an international program of reconstruction."

While in England, the former Cabinet member said he hoped to see Prime Minister Attlee, Foreign Minister Bevin, get a first-hand account of the economic situation there and "experience the reaction of the man in the street to American policy."

Wallace will speak at public meetings in London April 11, in Manchester April 12 and over the British Broadcasting Company network April 13.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19-(AP)-SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V. M. MOLOTOV DISCLOSED THE TERMS OF A SECRET YALTA AGREEMENT IN WHICH THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, WINSTON CHURCHILL AND PRIME MINISTER STALIN AGREED TO EXACT REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT GERMAN POST-WAR PRODUCTION, ACCORDING TO A TASS REPORT OF MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT IN MOSCOW MONDAY.

MOLOTOV, ACCORDING TO THE TASS VERBATIM REPORTS OF THE STATEMENT, DISCLOSED THE YALTA REPARATIONS AGREEMENT IN PRESSING THE SOVIET CLAIM TO REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT GERMAN PRODUCTION--A CLAIM OPPOSED BY THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WHO WANT TO USE CURRENT PRODUCTION TO PAY FOR THE COST OF FEEDING GERMANS.

"TO MAKE THIS UTTERLY CLEAR I SHALL HAVE TO MAKE PUBLIC THE DECISION OF THE CRIMEA CONFERENCE, WHICH HAS NOT BEEN PUBLISHED HITHERTO," MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT SAID. "THIS DECISION FOLLOWS:

"PROTOCOL ON THE TALK BETWEEN THE HEADS OF THE THREE GOVERNMENTS AT THE CRIMEA CONFERENCE ON THE QUESTION OF GERMAN REPARATIONS IN KIND, THE HEADS OF THE THREE GOVERNMENTS AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

"'1--GERMANY MUST PAY IN KIND FOR LOSSES CAUSED BY HER TO THE ALLIED NATIONS IN THE COURSE OF THE WAR. REPARATIONS ARE TO BE RECEIVED IN THE FIRST INSTANCE BY THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE BORNE THE MAIN BURDEN OF THE WAR, HAVE SUFFERED THE HEAVIEST LOSSES AND HAVE ORGANIZED VICTORY OVER THE ENEMY.

"'2--REPARATIONS ARE TO BE EXACTED FROM GERMANY IN THE THREE FOLLOWING FORMS:

"' A--BULK REMOVAL WITHIN TWO YEARS FROM THE SURRENDER OF GERMANY OR THE CESSATION OF ORGANIZED RESISTANCE FROM THE NATIONAL WEALTH OF GERMANY LOCATED ON THE TERRITORY OF GERMANY.

"' B--ANNUAL DELIVERIES OF GOODS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION AFTER THE END OF THE WAR FOR A PERIOD TO BE FIXED.

"' C--USE OF GERMAN LABOR.

"' 3--FOR WORKING OUT ON THE BASIS OF THE ABOVE PRINCIPLES A DETAILED PLAN FOR THE EXACTION OF REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY, AN ALLIED REPARATIONS COMMISSION IS TO BE SET UP IN MOSCOW CONSISTING OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S.S.R., THE U.S.A. AND THE UNITED KINGDOM.

"' 4--WITH REGARD TO THE FIXING OF THE TOTAL SUME OF REPARATIONS, AS WELL AS THE DISTRIBUTION OF IT AMONG COUNTRIES WHICH SUFFERED FROM GERMAN AGGRESSION, THE SOVIET AND AMERICAN DELEGATIONS AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

"' THE MOSCOW REPARATIONS COMMISSION SHOULD TAKE IN THE INITIAL STAGES AS A BASIS FOR DISCUSSION THE SUGGESTION OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT THAT THE TOTAL SUM OF REPARATIONS, IN ACCORDANCE WITH POINTS A AND B OF PARAGRAPH 2 SHOULD BE $20,000,000,000, AND THAT 50 PER CENT OF IT SHOULD GO TO THE U.S.S.R."

"'THE BRITISH DELEGATION WAS OF THE OPINION THAT PENDING CONSIDERATION OF THE REPARATIONS QUESTION BY THE MOSCOW REPARATIONS COMMISSION NO FIGURES OF REPARATIONS SHOULD BE MENTIONED. THE ABOVE SOVIET-AMERICAN PROPOSAL HAS BEEN PASSED TO THE MOSCOW REPARATIONS COMMISSION AS ONE OF THE PROPOSALS TO BE CONSIDERED BY THE COMMISSION.

"'SIGNED BY CHURCHILL, ROOSEVELT, STALIN."'

MOLOTOV SAID IT WAS NECESSARY TO CONSIDER THE CRIMEA (YALTA) AGREEMENT BECAUSE OF BRITISH AND AMERICAN CONTENTIONS THAT THE BERLIN

(POTSDAM) AGREEMENT SUPERSEDED THE YALTA AGREEMENT.
PREVIOUSLY THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER HAD READ THE TEXT OF THE BERLIN AGREEMENT STRESSING THAT IT BEGAN WITH THE WORDS "IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CRIMEA DECISION THAT GERMANY BE COMPELLED TO COMPENSATE TO THE GREATEST POSSIBLE EXTENT FOR THE LOSS AND SUFFERING SHE HAS CAUSED THE UNITED NATIONS, ETC."

LONDON, MARCH 18-(AP)-FIELD MARSHAL LORD MONTGOMERY WAS THE CENTER OF HEATED CONTROVERSY TODAY AFTER CONSERVATIVE SUGGESTIONS THAT THE LABOR GOVERNMENT APPOINT HIM "SUPER-PLANNER" TO DEVISE A SOLUTION TO THE BRITISH ECONOMIC CRISIS.

MONTGOMERY, NON-PARTY CHIEF OF THE IMPERIAL GENERAL STAFF, TOUCHED OFF THE WORD-WAR LAST WEEK IN A SPEECH SAYING:

"IT IS VITAL THAT WE SHOULD HAVE LEADERS AT EVERY LEVEL IN ALL WALKS OF LIFE WHO ARE ABLE TO DOMINATE THE EVENTS THAT SURROUND THEM."

CONSERVATIVES INTERPRETED THIS AS CRITICISM OF THE GOVERNMENT. LABORITES ARGUED IT WAS MERELY "INSPIRATIONAL AND PLATITUDINOUS."

London, Wednesday, March 19--(ap)--Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov disclosed the terms of a secret Yalta agreement in which the late President Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Prime Minister Stalin agreed to exact reparations from [redacted] German current post-war production, according to a Tass report of Molotov's statement in Moscow Monday.

Molotov, according to the Tass verbatim reports of the statement, disclosed the Yalta reparations agreement in pressing the Soviet claim to reparations from current German production--a claim opposed by the United States and Britain who want to use current production to pay for the cost of feeding Germans.

"To make this utterly clear I shall have to make public the decision of the Crimea conference, which has not been published hitherto," Molotov's statement said. "This decision follows:

"Protocol on the talk between the heads of the three governments at the crimea conference on the question of German reparations in kind, the heads of the three governments agreed as follows:

"1—Germany must pay in kind for losses caused by her to the Allied nations in the course of the war. Reparations are to be received in the first instance by those countries which have borne the main burden of the war, have suffered the heaviest losses and have organized victory over the enemy.

"2—Reparations are to be exacted from Germany in the three following forms:

"a—Bulk removal within two years from the surrender of Germany or the cessation of organized resistance from the national wealth of Germany located on th[redacted] territory of Germany.

"b—Annual deliveries of goods from current production after the end of the war for a period to be fixed.

"c—Use of German labor.

"3—For working out on the basis of the above principles a detailed plan for the exaction of reparations from Germany, an

"4—With regard to the fixing of the total sum of reparations, as well as the distribution of it among countries which suffered from German aggression, the Soviet an[redacted] American delegations agreed as follows:

"The Moscow reparations commission should take in the initial stages as a basis for discussions the suggestion of the Soviet government that the total sum of reparations, in accordance with points a and b of paragraph 2 should be $20,000,000,000, and that 50 per cent of it should go to the U. "The British delegation was of the opinion that pending

Berlin, March 18-(AP)-The industrial economy of the combined American-British zone of Germany has started reviving after two months in which nearly everything but essential industries were frozen down and more than 2,000,000 tons of coal accumulated at mines.

The coal is beginning to move from the Ruhr through thawing waterways.

MAR 1947

American military government officials planned meetings with German industrial managers to spur production in the drive to make the combined zone self sufficient within three to five years.

"The industrial holiday is over in Bavaria and signs of a general pickup are coming from all over the U.S. zone," said Col. Harry L. Berno, chief of the American military government industry branch, "By May 1 we should be back to the industrial rate of last fall."

Coal production in the Ruhr has climbed steadily to a new post-war daily production record of 236,273 metric tons reached last week, some 52 per cent of the 1938 rate. The miners have increased output because of a recruiting drive and an incentive system granting extra food and clothing for high production.

VENICE, MARCH 18-(AP)-"THE RULES OF LAND WARFARE" WERE CITED BY DEFENSE COUNSEL AT THE WAR CRIMES TRIAL OF FIELD MARSHAL ALBERT KESSELRING TODAY IN AN EFFORT TO SUPPORT AN ARGUMENT THAT INNOCENT PERSONS MAY BE PUT TO DEATH" IN REPRISAL ACTIONS.
DR. HANS LATERNSER, KESSELRING'S CHIEF COUNSEL, QUOTED FROM A DOCUMENT WHICH HE SAID HAD BEEN PUBLISHED BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON IN 1940. (PRESUMABLY THIS WAS A COMPILATION OF INTERNATIONAL RULES OF WARFARE.) HE SAID THAT PARAGRAPH 358 (PERTAINING TO REPRISALS) READ:
"THE COMMANDING OFFICER MUST ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY FOR RETALIATIVE MEASURES WHEN AN UNSCRUPULOUS ENEMY LEAVES NO OTHER RECOURSE AGAINST THE REPETITION OF BARBAROUS OUTRAGES."
"OFFENDING FORCES OR POPULATIONS GENERALLY MAY LAWFULLY BE SUBJECTED TO APPROPRIATE REPRISALS. HOSTAGES TAKEN AND HELD FOR THE DECLARED PURPOSE OF INSURING AGAINST UNLAWFUL ACTS BY THE ENEMY FORCES OR PEOPLE MAY BE PUNISHED OR PUT TO DEATH IF THE UNLAWFUL ACTS ARE NEVERTHELESS COMMITTED."
(W.C-E)

THE UNITED STATES ARMY ISSUES COMPILATION OF THE TREATIES AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS GATHERED UNDER THE GENERAL HEADING OF "RULES OF LAND WARFARE." THE MAJORITY OF THE RULES COME FROM THE HAGUE CONVENTIONS OF 1899 AND 1907.

THE SECTION COVERING REPRISALS DESCRIBE THAT PROCEDURE AS AN ACT OF RETALIATION RESORTED TO "BY ONE BELLIGERENT AGAINST THE ENEMY INDIVIDUALS OR PROPERTY FOR ILLEGAL ACTS OF WARFARE COMMITTED BY THE OTHER BELLIGERENT" OR FOR THE PURPOSE OF ENFORCING FUTURE COMPLIANCE WITH WARFARE RULES.

MAR 1947

"REPRISALS ARE NEVER ADOPTED MERELY FOR REVENGE, BUT ONLY AS AN UNAVOIDABLE LAST RESORT TO INDUCE THE ENEMY TO DESIST FROM ILLEGITIMATE PRACTICES. THEY SHOULD NEVER BE EMPLOYED BY MILITARY SOLDIERS EXCEPT BY DIRECT ORDERS OF A COMMANDER AND THE LATTER SHOULD GIVE SUCH ORDERS ONLY AFTER CAREFUL INQUIRY INTO THE ALLEGED OFFENSE," THE SECTION SAYS.

"THE HIGHEST ACCESSIBLE MILITARY AUTHORITY SHOULD BE CONSULTED IF IMMEDIATE ACTION IS DEMANDED AS A MATTER OF MILITARY NECESSITY, BUT IN THE LATTER EVENT A SUBORDINATE COMMANDER MAY ORDER APPROPRIATE REPRISALS UPON HIS OWN INITIATIVE. X X X ILLEGAL ACTS OF WARFARE JUSTIFYING REPRISALS MAY BE COMMITTED BY A GOVERNMENT, BY ITS MILITARY COMMANDERS, OR BY A COMMUNITY OR INDIVIDUALS THEREOF, WHOM IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO APPREHEND, TRY AND PUNISH.

BUDAPEST, MARCH 18-(AP)-AMERICAN INFORMANTS SAID TODAY THAT SOVIET AUTHORITIES FOR THE SECOND TIME IN LESS THAN TWO WEEKS HAD FORBIDDEN HUNGARIAN NEWSPAPERS TO PUBLISH A U.S. GOVERNMENT NOTE PROTESTING UNILATERAL RUSSIAN ACTIONS IN HUNGARY.

THE LATEST AMERICAN NOTE, DELIVERED YESTERDAY, RENEWED ACCUSATIONS OF SOVIET INTERFERENCE IN HUNGARY AND DECLARED THAT HUNGARIAN COMMUNISTS WERE ATTEMPTING TO SEIZE POWER FROM THE FREELY ELECTED HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT.

THE AMERICAN SOURCES SAID THEY HAD BEEN INFORMED BY THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT THAT A RUSSIAN CAPTAIN GRUBER--THE RUSSIANS REFUSED TO GIVE HIS FIRST NAME--HAD CALLED ON PRIME MINISTER FERENC NAGY LAST NIGHT AND PRESENTED A RED ARMY ORDER REQUIRING THAT PUBLICATION OF THE NOTE BE WITHHELD UNTIL THE SOVIETS HAD PREPARED A REPLY.

MAR 1947

CAPT.GRUBER SAID THE RUSSIAN ORDER CAME FROM MAJ.GEN.I.I. LEVUSHAIN, DEPUTY TO THE SOVIET COMMANDER, LT.GEN.V.P.SVIRIDOV, TO WHOM THE AMERICAN NOTE WAS DELIVERED. IT WAS REPORTED THAT THE ORDER WAS ISSUED AFTER THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT HAD DECIDED TO ALLOW PUBLICATION OF THE AMERICAN NOTE.

AMERICAN CIRCLES HERE SAID IT WAS "PRESUMPTUOUS" FOR A RUSSIAN GENERAL TO PREVENT PUBLICATION OF AN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT NOTE. ONE HIGH-PLACED AMERICAN SAID THE RUSSIAN ACTION WAS A SAMPLE OF "THE HIGH-HANDED METHODS" THE RUSSIANS HAD BEEN USING HERE EVER SINCE THE CREATION OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COMMISSION IN 1945.

THESE SOURCES RECALLED THAT RUSSIAN CLEARANCES FOR AMERICAN BUSINESSMEN TO ENTER GERMANY HAVE BEEN DENIED OR DELAYED, WITH NO EXCUSES OFFERED. ATHENS,MARCH 18-(AP)-AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE SAID TODAY THAT AN AMERICAN NAVAL TASK FORCE OF 12 SHIPS--INCLUDING AN AIRCRAFT CARRIER--WOULD VISIT GREEK WATERS SOON.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED AS U.S.AMBASSADOR LINCOLN MACVEAGH, SUMMONED TO WASHINGTON TO HELP WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLANS FOR AIDING GREECE AND TURKEY, LEFT BY PLANE FOR THE UNITED STATES.

SUCH A VISIT WOULD MARK FOR THE SECOND TIME THE PRESENCE OF U.S.NAVAL FORCES IN GREEK WATERS WITHIN RECENT MONTHS. AN AMERICAN TASK FORCE, LED BY THE U.S.AIRCRAFT CARRIER FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT, CALLED AT THE PORT OF ATHENS LAST SEPTEMBER DURING THE RESTLESS POLITICAL SITUATION PRECEDING THE PLEBISCITE THAT RETURNED KING GEORGE II TO THE THRONE.

THE SOURCE DID NOT ELABORATE ON THE U.S. NAVAL PLANS.

(THE U.S. NAVY ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON THAT A TASK FORCE LED BY

THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER LEYTE WOULD VISIT THE DARDANELLES STRAITS IN TURKEY NEXT MONTH, AND ALSO WOULD STOP AT CRETE, GIBRALTAR, NAPLES, ISTANBUL AND ALEXANDRIA. NO MENTION WAS MADE OF A VISIT TO THE GREEK MAINLAND.

(CONOLLY SAID HE RECOMMENDED TO THE NAVY DEPARTMENT TWO MONTHS AGO THAT THE MEDITERRANEAN TASK FORCE MAKE THE CALLS IN A PROGRAM OF VISITS TO ALL PARTS OF THE MEDITERRANEAN. HIS HEADQUARTERS SAID IT WAS BELIEVED THE RECOMMENDATION FOR THE GREEK VISITS HAD BEEN APPROVED BY "APPROPRIATE AUTHORITIES IN WASHINGTON.")

MEANWHILE, A PRESS DISPATCH REPORTED AN ATTACK BY A STRONG GUERRILLA FORCE AGAINST THE TOWN OF GREVENA IN WESTERN MACEDONIA BUT SAID IT WAS BEATEN OFF BY GOVERNMENT FORCES USING FIGHTER AIRCRAFT AND ARMORED CARS.

ANOTHER DISPATCH SAID A BAND OF 200 GUERRILLAS FROM ALBANIA HAD CAPTURED THE VILLAGE OF KIPOURIO, SOUTH OF GREVENA, AFTER FORCING A SMALL GOVERNMENT GARRISON TO WITHDRAW. OTHER MINOR ATTACKS IN MACEDONIA WERE REPORTED.

A DELAYED ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH FROM SALONIKA SAID THE UNITED NATIONS BALKANS INVESTIGATING COMMISSION HAD DIRECTED ALBANIAN, YUGOSLAV AND BULGARIAN LIAISON OFFICERS TO INSTRUCT THEIR REPRESENTATIVES WHO REMAINED IN GUERRILLA TERRITORY 12 MILES FROM THE ALBANIAN FRONTIER SUNDAY TO RETURN TO THE COMMISSION IMMEDIATELY.

BIDAULT GAVE FRANCE'S POSITION AT A COUNCIL SESSION WHICH PRECEDED THE FIRST BIG SOCIAL FUNCTION OF THE CURRENT CONFERENCE--A DINNER AND RECEPTION BY FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV.

MAR 1947

WITH REGARD TO THE QUESTION OF CURRENT PRODUCTION, BIDAULT SAID HE COULD NOT PRESENT HIS POSITION WITHOUT FURTHER STUDY. HE SAID:

"THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE UNITED STATES DELEGATIONS ASKED YESTERDAY THAT THE LEVEL OF INDUSTRY FIXED BY THE CONTROL COUNCIL BE RAISED TO INCREASE THE VOLUME OF GERMAN EXPORTS AND INSURE A BETTER EQUILIBRIUM IN BALANCE PAYMENTS. THE SOVIET DELEGATION HAS DECLARED ITSELF IN FAVOR OF RAISING THIS INDUSTRIAL LEVEL TO ENABLE A PLAN OF REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION. THIS IS TO BE FEARED: THAT AS A CONSEQUENCE OF THESE PROPOSALS, GERMAN INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY WOULD BE INCREASED IN SUCH PROPORTION AS TO REPRESENT A DANGER FOR THE FUTURE."

U.S. DEPUTY ROBERT MURPHY AND SOVIET DEPUTY ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY CLASHED REPEATEDLY OVER SMALL NATION PARTICIPATION.

CITING CANADA AS AN ILLUSTRATION, MURPHY SAID THE QUESTION WAS NOT ONE OF "FAVORS" BUT OF THE "RIGHTS" OF THE NATIONS IN QUESTION.

HE SAID CANADA ENTERED THE WAR BEFORE THE SOVIET UNION AND THE UNITED STATES AND MADE A SUBSTANTIAL CONTRIBUTION TOWARD THE DEFEAT OF GERMANY.

VISHINSKY REPLIED THAT HE DID NOT QUESTION THAT CANADA HAS PLAYED A CONSIDERABLE ROLE IN THE WAR, BUT SAID SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS COULD NOT BE MADE. IN SUPPORT OF HIS ARGUMENT THAT THE BIG FOUR ONLY BE ON THE TREATY-DRAFTING COMMITTEES, HE DECLARED:

"MORE BLOOD FLOWED IN THE SOVIET UNION DURING THE WAR THAN WATER FLOWS IN CANADIAN RIVERS."

VISHINSKY SAID WHOLESALE PARTICIPATION OF THE SMALL POWERS WOULD TURN THE COMMITTEES INTO "DEBATING SOCIETIES."

"BRAZIL TAKING PART IN QUESTIONS THAT CONCERN POLAND, AND POLAND TAKING PART IN QUESTIONS CONCERNING MEXICO AND NOBODY THINKING ANYTHING ABOUT GERMANY," VISHINSKY CONCLUDED.

MURPHY SAID THE UNITED STATES CONSIDERED THE QUESTION OF SMALL-NATION PARTICIPATION OF TOP PRIORITY AND WAS NOT SATISFIED TO LET THE MATTER DROP AND WOULD CONTINUE TO PRESS FOR IT STRONGLY.

THE BRITISH HAD SUGGESTED THAT ALL OF THE SMALL NATIONS BE REPRESENTED ON THE FOUR COMMITTEES AND THEIR SUB-COMMITTEES. MURPHY SUGGESTED AS A COMPROMISE THAT NATIONS WITH A DIRECT INTEREST IN A PARTICULAR PROBLEM BE PLACED ON THE COMMITTEE CONCERNED.

ON THE AUSTRIAN PEACE TREATY, THE BRITISH SUGGESTED THAT THE LONDON AGREEMENT TO WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM AUSTRIA WITHIN 90 DAYS OF THE SIGNING OF THE PACT BE AMENDED TO STATE THAT THEY SHOULD WITHDRAW BETWEEN THE TIME THE TREATY IS SIGNED AND THE DATE OF RATIFICATION.

EARLIER, THERE WERE RENEWED INDICATIONS THAT PRIME MINISTER STALIN WAS TAKING AN ACTIVE, BUT BEHIND-THE-SCENES, INTEREST IN THE CRITICAL WORLD PROBLEMS CONFRONTING THE FOREIGN MINISTERS.

BIDAULT, WHO CONFERRED LAST NIGHT WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN OPENED TODAY'S MEETING WITH THE FRENCH POSITION ON GERMAN REPARATIONS.

AS PRESENTED BY BIDAULT, THE BASIC FRENCH POLICY ON DEFEATED GERMANY CALLS PRIMARILY FOR RIGID LIMITATIONS OF THE COAL AND STEEL INDUSTRIES. HE SUGGESTED THAT FRANCE SHOULD REPLACE GERMANY AS THE GREAT STEEL PRODUCING NATION OF EUROPE.

MAR 1947

AT THE SAME TIME, BIDAULT WITHHELD AGREEMENT FROM THE AMERICAN, BRITISH, AND RUSSIAN PROPOSALS FOR RAISING THE GERMAN LEVEL OF INDUSTRY. HE SAID THE FRENCH VIEW DEPENDS ON WHAT OTHER CONTROLS ARE SET UP. HE FLATLY REJECTED THE AMERICAN-SPONSORED PLAN TO ESTABLISH CENTRAL ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES RUN BY GERMANS, PENDING DECISIONS ON THE GERMAN FRONTIERS. THIS EVIDENTLY REFERRED TO THE RUHR, RHINELAND AND SAAR.

BIDAULT SAID ECONOMIC UNITY COULD BE ACHIEVED WITHNFRENCH APPROVAL PRIOR TO FIXING THE FRONTIERS BY CREATING ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES RUN BY THE ALLIED POWERS FOR SUCH THINGS AS TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS.

HE ALSO CALLED FOR A SPEED-UP IN REPARATIONS DELIVERIES FROM THE WESTERN ZONES, THEREBY SIDING WITH THE DEMANDS MADE BY MOLOTOV. AT THE SAME TIME HE DECLARED--IN LINE WITH THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN POLICIES--THAT GERMANY MUST PAY FOR GOODS, MAINLY FOOD, SHE IS NOW RECEIVING FROM THE ALLIED POWERS.

BIDAULT STRESSED ABOVE ALL THE FRENCH DETERMINATION "THAT GERMANY

SHALL NO LONGER BE ABLE TO USE HER MINING AND INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES IN PREPARATION OF ANOTHER WAR."

THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER SAID THAT COAL WAS THE BASIS OF GERMANY'S WAR POTENTIAL AND ALSO THAT THIS PRODUCT WAS BADLY NEEDED BY NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES, SO GERMANY SHOULD BE "UNDER OBLIGATION BOTH AT ONCE AND LATER IN A TREATY TO EXPORT EACH MONTH A SPECIFIC PROPORTION OF HER PRODUCTION TO THE ALLIED COUNTRIES."

GIVEN BASIC CONTROLS OF COAL AND STEEL, BIDAULT SAID THE ALLIES MIGHT BE "LESS DRASTIC" AS REGARDS OTHER INDUSTRIES.

HE SAID THAT HE COULD NOT PRESENT THE QUESTION OF CURRENT PRODUCTION FORTHWITH BUT MUST STUDY IT.

"THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE UNITED STATES DELEGATIONS ASKED YESTERDAY THAT THE LEVEL OF INDUSTRY FIXED BY THE CONTROL COUNCIL BE RAISED TO INCREASE THE VOLUME OF GERMAN EXPORTS AND INSURE A BETTER EQUILIBRIUM IN BALANCE PAYMENTS IN HER EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM," BIDAULT SAID.

"THE SOVIET DELEGATION HAS DECLARED ITSELF IN FAVOR OF RAISING THIS INDUSTRIAL LEVEL TO ENABLE A PLAN OF REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION. IT IS TO BE FEARED THAT AS A CONSEQUENCE OF THESE PROPOSALS, GERMAN INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY WOULD BE INCREASED IN SUCH PROPORTION AS TO REPRESENT A DANGER FOR THE FUTURE."

MEANWHILE, THE BIG FOUR AGREED TO HEAR TWO REPRESENTATIVES OF THE INTERALLIED REPARATIONS AGENCY IN BRUSSELS PRESENT THEIR VIEWS ON REPARATIONS. MEMBERS OF THE AGENCY WILL FIRST PRESENT THEIR VIEWS TO THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS, WHO WILL THEN DECIDE WHETHER THE COUNCIL SHOULD HEAR THEM.

ANOTHER DIPLOMAT ONCE LITERALLY FELL ON HIS FACE IN A STACK OF WEDGWOOD DISHES.

STILL ANOTHER ENVOY TALKED TOO MUCH AND BROUGHT UPON HIMSELF SOME EMBARRASSING MOMENTS.

ONE WELL KNOWN ALLIED FIGURE PARTICIPATED WITH SUCH VIGOR IN THE VODKA TESTS THAT IT WAS ONCE SAID OF HIM AFTER HIS VISIT TO THE SOVIET UNION THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER HE STOOD FOR VICTORY OR VODKA.

SOME VISITORS HAVE ESCAPED THE TESTS, HOWEVER, BY PLEADING BAD STOMACHS, OLD AGE, OR JUST SIMPLY POURING HALF THEIR DRINKS ON THE CARPET.

FORMER U.S.SECRETARY OF STATE CORDELL HULL GOT BY BEAUTIFULLY. THE RUSSIANS WERE SO IMPRESSED BY THE FACT THAT HE FLEW HALFWAY AROUND THE WORLD IN AN AIRPLANE THAT THEY FIGURED THAT SUCH A PERSON DID NOT NEED TESTING.

FORMER SECRETARY JAMES F.BYRNES WAS TSTED AND TOOK IT STANDING UP. MARSHALL, BEVIN AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, HAVE BEEN EXPOSED TO VODKA TESTING BEFORE, BUT THIS CORRESPONDENT HOLDS NO FORM CARD ON THEM.

PRIOR TO THE MOLOTOV RECEPTION THE FOREIGN MINISTERS WILL BE GUESTS AT A SPECIAL DINNER AT 8 P.M. MOSCOW TIME.

THE TEST AT THE OTHER END OF TOWN IS SOMETHING ELSE AGAIN. STALIN MAY MEET BEVIN FIRST, BUT WHEN HE DOES MEET MARSHALL, IT IS GOING TO BE STALIN, THE MAN OF STEEL, TALKING TO MARSHALL, WHO ALSO HAS SOMETIMES BEEN REFERRED TO AS A MAN OF STEEL.

IT WILL ALSO BE THE FIRST MEETING BETWEEN BEVIN AND STALIN SINCE THE SOVIET PRESS TEED OFF ON BEVIN IN MIDWINTER, VIRTUALLY ACCUSING HIM OF TRYING TO ABANDON THE BRITISH-SOVIET ALLIANCE.

MOSCOW, MARCH 18-(AP)-AN AUTHORITATIVE FRENCH SOURCE SAID TODAY THAT FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT WAS IMPRESSED WITH THE APPARENT FINE STATE OF GENERALISSIMO STALIN'S HEALTH DURING THEIR CONFERENCE LAST NIGHT.

THIS INFORMANT QUOTED BIDAULT AS SAYING HE WAS PLEASED TO SEE STALIN LOOKING "SO WELL."

FRENCH CIRCLES SAID THE STALIN-BIDAULT CONVERSATION WAS CONDUCTED IN A FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE. THESE SOURCES SAID THE RUSSIANS HAD OBSERVED NO PARTICULAR PROTOCOL IN ARRANGING FOR STALIN TO RECEIVE BIDAULT BEFORE SEEING FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN OF BRITAIN OR SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL.

"IT JUST HAPPENED THAT WAY," THE FRENCH SAID.

ONE OTHER INFORMED SOURCE OFFERED THE SUGGESTION, HOWEVER, THAT BIDAULT SENT HIS CARD AROUND TO THE KREMLIN SHORTLY AFTER ARRIVING FOR THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' SESSIONS WHILE NEITHER BEVIN NOR MARSHALL FOLLOWED THIS COURSE. PROTOCOL-WISE OBSERVERS SAID BIDAULT'S COURSE WAS UNUSUAL AND MIGHT BE AN EXPLANATION FOR HIS HAVING BEEN INVITED FIRST.

A FRENCH SOURCE SAID BIDAULT'S INVITATION TO SEE STALIN WAS RECEIVED LAST FRIDAY. THE FRENCH SAID THEY WERE PLEASED WITH THE MEETING.

FOREIGN MINISTERS
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER.

MOSCOW, MARCH 18-(AP)-FRESH INDICATIONS THAT PRIME MINISTER STALIN IS TAKING AN ACTIVE, THOUGH BEHIND-THE-SCENES, INTEREST IN THE CRITICAL WORLD PROBLEMS NOW MOVING TOWARD A SHOWDOWN HERE KEYED THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING TO A NEW PITCH TODAY.

THE SOVIET LEADER CONFERRED FOR 95 MINUTES LAST NIGHT WITH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT OF FRANCE AFTER A PROLONGED COUNCIL SESSION AT WHICH FOREIGN MINISTER V.M. MOLOTOV OF RUSSIA DEMANDED $10,000,000,000 IN REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY.

BIDAULT WAS THE FIRST OF THE THREE VISITING FOREIGN MINISTERS TO CALL UPON STALIN, BUT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL AND BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN ARE EXPECTED TO MAKE SUCH VISITS IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE.

MARSHALL'S VISIT IN PARTICULAR IS KEENLY AWAITED HERE FOR THE EFFECT IT MAY HAVE ON SOVIET-AMERICAN RELATIONS, WHICH ARE NONE TOO GOOD AT THE MOMENT.

AT LAST NIGHT'S MEETING--WHICH LASTED FOUR HOURS AND 15 MINUTES, THE LONGEST SESSION YET--MARSHALL LISTENED WITH COLD CALM TO MOLOTOV'S LONG TIRADE AGAINST THE WESTERN POWERS AND THEN TOOK A FIRM STAND AGAINST ANY GERMAN SETTLEMENT WHICH WOULD COST THE AMERICAN TAX-PAYERS MORE MILLIONS.

WHILE, IN GENERAL, THE ATMOSPHERE OF THE COUNCIL MEETINGS HAVE BEEN DEVOID OF ANGRY OUTBURSTS, LAST NIGHT'S SESSION BROUGHT FULLY INTO THE OPEN THE ENORMOUS GAP SEPARATING THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS FROM THE RUSSIANS ON A GERMAN SETTLEMENT.

THE BASIC AMERICAN CONCERN, IN BRIEF, IS: "HOW QUICKLY CAN WE STOP POURING DOLLARS INTO GERMANY?" WHILE THE BASIC RUSSIAN APPROACH SEEMS TO BE: "HOW MUCH CAN WE GET OUT OF GERMANY?"

ALTHOUGH AGREEING ON SEVERAL POINTS, SUCH AS THE NEED FOR GERMAN ECONOMIC UNIFICATION AND RAISING THE LEVEL OF GERMAN INDUSTRY AS SUGGESTED BY MOLOTOV, MARSHALL AND BEVIN SPLIT SHARPLY WITH THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER OVER THE RELATIVE IMPORTANCE OF REPARATIONS VERSUS THE PROBLEM OF MAKING GERMANY SELF-SUPPORTING.

A7

A STUBBORN FIGHT IS BUILDING UP OVER THE REPARATIONS PROBLEM AND AS USUAL IN SUCH SITUATIONS THERE IS SPECULATION AS TO WHETHER STALIN MAY EVENTUALLY SOFTEN THE SOVIET POSITION.

BIDAULT, ACCOMPANIED BY GEN. GEORGES CATROUX, THE FRENCH AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, SPENT FROM 10 P.M. UNTIL 11:35 P.M. WITH STALIN AND MOLOTOV. THE SOVIET RADIO MADE THE INITIAL DISCLOSURE OF THE MEETING AND FRENCH SOURCES SAID IT INVOLVED ONLY A GENERAL EXCHANGE OF VIEWS.

THERE SEEMED LITTLE DOUBT, HOWEVER, THAT BIDAULT HAD DISCUSSED THE FRENCH VIEW OF A GERMAN SETTLEMENT, WITH WHICH FRANCE IS DEEPLY CONCERNED, DESIRING TO RENDER GERMANY INCAPABLE OF EVER ATTACKING FRANCE AGAIN.

BIDAULT IS EXPECTED TO PRESENT HIS VIEWS ON GERMAN ECONOMIC SETTLEMENTS TO THE COUNCIL TODAY.

MOLOTOV, IN DEMANDING A REPARATIONS PROGRAM BY WHICH GERMANY WOULD HAVE TO PAY REPARATIONS OF $10,000,000,000 OVER A 20-YEAR PERIOD BOTH FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION AND CAPITAL GOODS, TOLD THE OTHER FOREIGN MINISTERS THAT THE GERMAN AND JAPANESE WARS HAD COST RUSSIA $357,000,,000,000 AND THAT THE DAMAGE INFLICTED ON SOVIET SOIL BY GERMAN ARMIES AND THEIR ALLIES AMOUNTED TO $128,000,000,000.

(OFFICIAL REPORTS BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT PREVIOUSLY HAVE FIXED THE COST OF THE WAR TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AT $330,000,000,000. THE UNITED KINGDOM'S COSTS HAVE BEEN COMPUTED AT $120,000,000,000; THE FRENCH $192,000,000,000 AND GERMANY $272,000,000,000. THE TOTAL COST TO ALL PARTICIPANTS HAS BEEN ESTIMATED AT $1,116,000,000,000.)

MOLOTOV SAID THE GERMANS DESTROYED 1,710 RUSSIAN TOWNS, 7,000 VILLAGES AND 6,000,000 BUILDINGS, LEAVING 25,000,000 PERSONS HOMELESS. HE SAID 35,000 FACTORIES AND 40,000 HOSPITALS WERE DESTROYED.

BOTH FROM MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT AND HIS MENNER OF DELIVERY, IT SEEMED MANIFESTLY APPARENT THAT REPARATIONS ARE THE NO. 1 SOVIET ITEM OF BUSINESS IN ANY GERMAN SETTLEMENT AND THUS, VERY PROBABLY, ONE OF THE MAIN KEYS TO THE WHOLE GERMAN SITUATION.

HE HAD, HOWEVER, MANY OTHER DEMANDS, INCLUDING IMMEDIATE ABOLITION OF THE BRITISH-U.S. ECONOMIC MERGER OF THEIR GERMAN OCCUPATION ZONES AND FOUR-POWER CONTROL OF THE RUHR, NOW IN THE BRITISH ZONE.

FOREIGN MINISTERS (300)

MOSCOW, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS DECKED OUT IN THEIR PARTY CLOTHES DOWNED A ROUND OF TOASTS TONIGHT TO THE SUCCESS OF THEIR DELIBERATIONS ON A PEACE TREATY FOR GERMANY.

THE SCENE WAS THE HOUSE OF THE SOVIET AVIATION INDUSTRY WHERE THEY MEET DAILY OFTEN TO ARGUE AND WRANGLE. BUT TONIGHT THERE WAS NONE OF THAT AS THEY GATHERED TO DINE, DRINK AND BE FRIENDS ACROSS THE TABLE.

FOUR TOASTS WERE DRUNK AT DINNER, AT WHICH RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV AND HIS WIFE WERE HOSTS.

THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER OPENED THE TOASTING BY WELCOMING THE GUESTS TO MOSCOW AND EXPRESSING HOPE FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

ERNEST BEVIN, BULKY BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY, THEN ROSE SLOWLY TO HIS FEET, HIS GLASS IN HAND.

LOOKING SOLEMNLY AT HIS COLLEAGUES THROUGH HIS HEAVY, HORN-RIMMED SPECTACLES, BEVIN DECLARED HE HAD SEEN TWO WARS AND NEVER WANTED TO SEE ANOTHER. HE THEN PROPOSED THAT THE PARTY DRINK TO THE SUCCESS OF THE FOUR POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE.

U.S.SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL, WEARING THE SOVIET ORDER OF SURORV ON HIS DINNER JACKET, RECALLED HE WAS GIVEN THE DECORATION BY THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR IN WASHINGTON THE NIGHT BEFORE THE NORMANDY INVASION.

NORMANDY, MARSHALL DECLARED, WAS A GREAT COOPERATIVE UNDERTAKING WHICH HAD WON VICTORY FOR THE ALLIES. HE SAID IT WAS HIS HOPE THAT THE ALLIED ACCORD ATTAINED DURING THE WAR COULD BE ACHIEVED IN THE YEARS OF PEACE.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, IN DRINKING TO THE SUCCESS OF THE CONFERENCE, ALSO PROPOSED THE HEALTH OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN. BIDAULT, WHO CONFERRED WITH STALIN LAST NIGHT, WAS THE ONLY ONE OF THE MINISTERS TO REFER TO THE RUSSIAN LEADER IN A TOAST.

IT WAS SERIOUS TOASTING AND THERE WAS LITTLE JESTING.

FOLLOWING DINNER, THE MOLOTOVS RECEIVED ABOUT 600 GUESTS IN A HUGE TWO-STORY RECEPTION ROOM TRIMMED WITH THE FLAGS OF THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA. IT WAS A BRILLIANT THRONG, WITH MOST OF THE WOMEN IN EVENING GOWNS DECORATED WITH SPANGLES AND JEWELS.

AT ONE POINT, A GROUP OF FOREIGN NEWSMEN GATHERED ABOUT ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER.

"WHEN I'M WITH THE PRESS," VISHINSKY TOLD THEM, "I FEEL LIKE I'M CROSSING FIFTH AVENUE IN TRAFFIC. THE FIRST THING YOU KNOW, YOU'RE UNDER A BUS."

THE QUESTION OF SOVIET CENSORSHIP OF NEWS THEN WAS BROUGHT UP.

"YOU'D BE LOST WITHOUT CENSORSHIP," VISHINSKY QUIPPED.

JAPANESE COMMUNISTS

BY RUSSELL BRINES MAR 1947

TOKYO, MARCH 18-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS CHALLENGED THE UNITED NATIONS TO UNDERTAKE A JOB IN JAPAN ALMOST IDENTICAL TO THE ONE PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS PROPOSED THAT AMERICANS ASSUME IN GREECE AND TURKEY.

MACARTHUR TOLD CORRESPONDENTS MONDAY THAT THE UNITED NATIONS SHOULD INSURE ECONOMIC STABILITY AND CONTINUED DEMOCRATIZATION OF THIS COUNTRY AT CONCLUSION OF AN EARLY PEACE.

"IF THE UNITED NATIONS CANNOT PROVIDE MILD CONTROLS (IN JAPAN) IT CANNOT MEET ANYTHING," HE SAID.

IN JAPAN, AS WELL AS IN THE BALKANS, THAT MEANS RAISING A BULWARK AGAINST COMMUNISM. WHAT HAPPENS HERE WILL AFFECT THE WHOLE ORIENT.

RUSSIAN INFLUENCE IN JAPAN AT PRESENT IS NOT AS POWERFUL AS IN CENTRAL EUROPE. THE SOVIETS DO NOT CONTROL THE GOVERNMENT AND THEY HAVD NOT PRECIPITATED ARMED CLASHES. BUT THEIR PROPAGANDISTS ARE ACTIVE. THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY CLAIMS INCREASING MEMBERSHIP AND SHOWS HEIGHTENED INFLUENCE IN LABOR. AND THE RUSSIAN-DOMINATED KURILE ISLANDS ARE AT THE DOORSTEP.

IT SEEMS APPARENT IN TOKYO THAT ONLY THE PRESENCE OF THE WESTERN POWERS HERE -- AND MORE PARTICULARLY THEIR MILITARY FORCES -- IS THE MAJ BARRIER TO OPEN SOVIET ENTRY. IT LONG HAS BEEN BELIVED THAT ANGLO-AMERICAN WITHDRAWAL WOULD LEAVE A VOID WHICH THE SOVIETS WOULD FILL QUICKLY.

MACARTHUR PROPOSED AN EARLY PEACE, WITH WITHDRAWAL OF ALL MILITARY FORCES AND ASSUMPTION OF CONTROL BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

MACARTHUR HAS SAID THAT JAPANESE REGIMENTATION MAKES THESE PEOPLE SUSCEPTIBLE TO COMMUNIST TOTALITARIAINISM. THE GROWTH OF DEMOCRACY IS INSUFFICIENTLY ADVANCED NOW TO FORTIFY THE PEOPLE AGAINST AN AGGRESSIVE AND UNCHECKED MINORITY.

IT WAS GENERAL MACARTHUR HIMSELF--NOT THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT OR PEOPLE--WHO HALTED THE THREATENED GENERAL STRIKE OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES LAST FEBRUARY. THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY WAS A LEADING FIGURE IN THE STRIKE COMMITTEE.

THE OUTCOME OF THE BATTLE BETWEEN DEMOCRACY AND COMMUNISM IS DEPENDENT FINALLY HERE UPON ECONOMIC SECURITY. AMERICAN TAXPAYERS HAVE UNDERWRITTEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS FOR FOOD AND ARE BEING ASKED FOR MORE. MACARTHUR MADE A SPECIAL POINT OF THE NECESSITY FOR INCREASING JAPAN'S INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION AS THE SOLE MEANS OF INSURING SELF-SUFFICIENCY.

MACARTHUR HAS FOUGHT COMMUNIST PENETRATION EVERY STEP OF THE WAY. HE HAS MADE CLEAR HIS CONCERN OVER THE GROWING OCCUPATION BURDEN ON AMERICANS. HE IS AWARE THAT THERE IS CONCEIVABLE DOUBT AMONG JAPANESE THAT THE COMMUNISTS--AND SOME REACTIONARIES FOR THAT MATTER--WOULD BE AS RESPONSIBLE TO THE CHECKREIN OF PURELY CIVILIAN CONTROL AS THEY HAVE BEEN TO MILITARY POWER.

RATHER THAN TEAR DOWN HIS WORK OF THE PAST 19 MONTHS, MACARTHUR SEEMS INTENT ON PRESERVING IT UNDER A FORMAL PEACE WHICH HE SAYS NOW IS NECESSARY. WITH UNITED NATIONS CONTROL WOULD COME THE INFLUENCE OF ALL INTERNATIONAL MEMBERS AND PERHAPS IN TIME THE STRENGTH OF ITS INTERNATIONAL MILITARY FORCES.

HE IS ASKING THE UNITED NATIONS TO GIVE THE JAPANESE PEOPLE PROTECTION AGAINST ORGANIZED MINORITIES--SO THAT JAPAN'S WARTIME TOTALITARIANISM IS NOT REPLACED BY ANOTHER TOTALITARIANISM.

TOKYO, MARCH 18-(AP)-AN AMERICAN MEMBER OF THE WORLD FEDERATION TRADE UNIONS DECLARED TODAY THAT JAPANESE UNIONS "MUST GIVE CAREFUL THOUGHT WHEN CONSIDERING ANY ACTION" THAT MIGHT DESTROY THE "DELICATE BALANCE IN JAPANESE ECONOMY."

WILLARD TOWNSEND, MEMBER OF THE WFTU DELEGATION TO JAPAN, EXPRESSED THE BELIEF AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE LABOR MOVEMENT SHOULD BE BASED ON LABOR ISSUES RATHER THAN POLITICAL.

HE SAID THE DELEGATION HAD NO AUTHORITY TO ATTEMPT ORGANIZATION OF JAPANESE UNIONS, BUT WOULD STUDY THE LABOR MOVEMENT AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE WFTU.

TOWNSEND ADDED THAT HE THOUGHT JAPANESE UNIONS COULD ENTER THE WFTU "AFTER THE PEACE TREATY IS SIGNED."

ASKED FOR COMMENT ON A STATEMENT BY AFL VICE PRESIDENT MATTHEW WOLL THAT THE WFTU DELEGATION WAS COMING TO JAPAN TO SPREAD COMMUNISM UNDER THE GUISE OF TRADE UNIONISM, TOWNSEND REPLIED:

"WOLL KNOWS I AM NOT A COMMUNIST."

TOWNSEND WAS THE FIRST DELEGATION MEMBER TO ARRIVE. FRANCE, ENGLAND AND RUSSIA ALSO WILL BE REPRESENTED.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD OCCUPATION (150)

BY TOM LAMBERT MAR 1947

TOKYO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19-(AP)-PREMIER SHIGERU YOSHIDA PRAISED GENERAL MACARTHUR TODAY FOR HIS STATEMENT URGING AN EERLY PEACE FOR JAPAN AND A RESUMPTION OF FOREIGN TRADE.

THE PREMIER ISSUED A STATEMENT COMMENTING ON THE WORDS OF THE SUPREME COMMANDER--A RARE OCCURENCE UNDER THE OCCUPATION--DECLARING:

"THE ENTIRE WORLD WELL KNOWS GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS CONSTANTLY AND DILIGENTLY DEVOTED HIS ARDENT EFFORTS TOWARD THE EXECUTION OF OCCUPATION POLICIES.

"HIS STATEMENT IS ELOQUENT TESTIMONY TO HIS ACCURATE ANALYSIS AND WIDE KNOWLEDGE OF EXISTING CONDITIONS IN JAPAN AND A THOROUGH UNDERSTANDING AND GOOD WILL FOR THE JAPANESE PEOPLE."

EARLIER, AMERICAN CHAIRMAN GEORGE ~~ATCHESON~~ JR., TOLD THE ALLIED COUNCIL THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WAS "SOLIDLY BEHIND GENERAL MACARTHUR", WHO MADE HIS STATEMENT TWO DAYS AGO IN SUGGESTING THE TIME WAS NEAR FOR THE UNITED NATIONS TO TAKE OVER RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE OCCUPATION.

ATCHESON MADE NO REFERENCE TO MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS BUT WAS REPORTING TO THE FOUR-POWER GROUP ON AMERICAN ATTITUDES HE OBSERVED DURING HIS RECENT TRIP TO THE UNITED STATES.

(IN WASHINGTON, ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON TOLD NEWSMEN THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE MORE PROGRESS ON THE EUROPEAN PEACE SETTLEMENT BEFORE A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY COULD BE NEGOTIATED. THIS INDICATED MACARTHUR AND THE GOVERNMENT WERE AT LEAST NOT IN COMPLETE ACCORD ON HIS LATEST PROPOSALS.)

JAPANESE INTERVIEWED AT RANDOM APPROVED MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL FOR AN EARLY PEACE AND RESUMPTION OF TRADE BUT WERE NOT SO ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT HIS SUGGESTION FOR A U. N. OVERSEER.

THE JAPANESE FEEL THEMSELVES TIED TO AMERICANS AND THAT THE UNITED STATES IS MORE WILLING AND ABLE TO ADVANCE TANGIBLE FINANCIAL AND PHYSICAL ASSISTANCE WHICH THIS COUNTRY NEEDS.

A19FX TOKYO MAR 1947

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, UNABLE TO SPEAK OFFICIALLY, HAVE BEEN URGING IN PRIVATE FOR MONTHS THE OBTAINING OF AMERICAN LOANS AS THE SOLE MEANS OF SOLVING JAPAN'S ECONOMIC CRISIS.

MACARTHUR TOLD THE CORRESPONDENTS IN HIS INTERVIEW THAT JAPAN HAS BEEN DEMILITARIZED AND THE PROCESS OF DEMOCRATIZATION IS NEARING COMPLETION. BUT HE SAID ECONOMIC WARFARE "IS STILL AS BITTER HERE AS WHEN GUNS WERE FIRING."

AT THE START OF THE OCCUPATION MANY SINCERE LIBERALS SAID THEY HOPED THE OVERLORDSHIP WOULD NOT END TOO SOON. THEY SAID REACTIONARY ELEMENTS WERE ONLY BIDING THEIR TIME TO STEP BACK INTO AUTHORITY IF THE ALLIES WITHDREW BEFORE THE PEOPLE WERE ABLE TO UTILIZE THEIR FULL POWERS.

MACARTHUR IN THE BEGINNING ENVISIONED A MILITARY OCCUPATION OF THREE TO FIVE YEARS, DEPENDING ON DEVELOPMENTS. HIS VIEW WAS THAT MILITARY FORCES COULD AID IN REGENERATION UP TO A CERTAIN POINT, AFTER WHICH THEIR PRESENCE WOULD BE AN IRRITANT BUILDING UP A FEELING OF PERSECUTION. EVIDENTLY, HE BELIEVES THAT POINT HAS BEEN REACHED.

JAPANESE WERE DISINCLINED TO CRITICIZE THE SUPREME COMMANDER'S REMARKS BUT SOME FORESAW A POSSIBLE DANGER IN HIS SHARP DENUNCIATION OF WHAT HE SAID WAS CONTINUING ALLIED "ECONOMIC WARFARE" AGAINST JAPAN.

MACARTHUR SAID "JAPAN IS STILL ECONOMICALLY BLOCKADED BY THE ALLIED POWERS. IF WE KEEP THIS ECONOMIC BLOCKADE UP, MORE AND MORE WE WILL HAVE TO SUPPORT THIS COUNTRY."

THESE JAPANESE SAID THEY FEARED THIS STATEMENT MIGHT BE MISCONSTRUED AS THE SUPREME COMMANDER'S CONDONMENT OF THE WAR. JAPANESE LONG HAVE CLAIMED THEIR NATIONAL POVERTY FORCED THEM TO ACQUIRE RAW MATERIAL ABROAD--AS MACARTHUR NOTED DURING HIS INTERVIEW.

SOME JAPANESE THOUGHT THIS REFERENCE TO THE ECONOMIC BLOCKADE WOULD GIVE AMMUNITION TO NOW QUIET JINGOISTS IF THEY EVER AGAIN SEEK TO RALLY THE PEOPLE AGAINST OTHER POWERS.

THESE SOURCES ACKNOWLEDGED JAPAN'S INADEQUATE PRODUCTION IS, AS MACARTHUR SAID, A PRODUCT OF THE COUNTRY'S POVERTY. BUT, THEY ADDED, IT IS COMPLICATED PRESENTLY BY MANY OTHER FACTORS--INCLUDING LABOR TROUBLES, THE BLACK MARKET, PROFITEERING AND INDUSTRIAL LASSITUDE.

DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MAJOR POWERS HERE ANSWERED "NO COMMENT" WHEN QUERIED ABOUT MACARTHUR'S STATEMENTS.

BATAVIA, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT TODAY AUTHORIZED THE DUTCH COMMISSION GENERAL TO SIGN IMMEDIATELY THE CHERIBON DRAFT AGREEMENT FOR SETTLEMENT OF THE 19-MONTHS-OLD INDONESIAN REVOLUTION.

INDONESIANS PREVIOUSLY HAD ANNOUNCED WILLINGNESS TO SIGN IF THE DUTC WOULD ABANDON THEIR INSISTENCE THAT DUTCH INTERPRETATION BE MADE A BINDING PART OF THE AGREEMENT.

THE DUTCH COMMUNIQUE INDICATED THE NETHERLANDS NOW WAS WILLING TO COMPLY WITH THAT CONDITION.

THE AGREEMENT, NEGOTIATED LAST NOVEMBER, PROVIDES FOR DUTCH RECOGNITION OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC'S SOVEREIGNTY OVER JAVA, SUMATRA AND MADOERA AS AN EQUAL PARTNER WITH THE NETHERLANDS UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN.

THE DUTCH ANNOUNCED THAT THE PLACE AND TIME OF THE SIGNING WOULD BE DETERMINED JOINTLY BY THE INDONESIAN DELEGATION AND THE COMMISSION GENERAL.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THAT "REGRETTABLE INCIDENTS" LIKE THE FIGHTING NOW GOING ON FOR MODJOERTO WOULD BE AVOIDED IN THE FUTURE THROUGH COMPLETION OF THE AGREEMENT.

THE INDONESIAN NEWS AGENCY SAID THAT DUTCH MARINES, SPEAR-HEADED BY FIGHTER-BOMBERS, ENTERED MODJOKERTO TODAY. MODJOKERTO IS THE KEY TO THE DENSELY POPULATED BRANTAS DELTA IN EAST JAVA.

A NETHERLANDS ARMY COMMUNIQUE SAID THE MARINES HAD FLANKED MODJOKERTO AND OCCUPIED THE LENGKENGSTRIN DAM FARTHER EAST, WHICH CONTROLS THE IRRIGATION SYSTEM FOR THE DELTA. THIS COMMUNIQUE SAID RESISTANCE WAS SLIGHT, BUT ADDED THAT FIVE MARINES HAD BEEN KILLED AND 17 WOUNDED BY LAND MINES YESTERDAY.

AN ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID HE WAS UNABLE TO CONFIRM THE OCCUPATION OF MODJOKERTO.

THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN NEWS AGENCY REPORTED CONTINUOUS DUTCH AIR ATTACKS UPON MODJOKERTO UP TO MIDNIGHT MONDAY HAD KILLED 18 INDONESIANS AND WOUNDED 104. THE AGENCY ALSO REPORTED THE DUTCH NAVY AT CHERIBON HAD INTERCEPTED FIVE CHINESE COASTAL VESSELS FROM SINGAPORE.

BATAVIA, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT FORMALLY AUTHORIZED THE DUTCH COMMISSION GENERAL TODAY TO SIGN IMMEDIATELY THE CHERIBON DRAFT AGREEMENT ENDING THE 19-MONTH-OLD INDONESIAN REVOLUTION.

THE INDONESIANS PREVIOUSLY HAD ANNOUNCED WILLINGNESSTO SIGN.

THE DUTCH ANNOUNCED THAT THE PLACE AND TIME OF THE SIGNING WOULD BE DETERMINED JOINTLY BY THE INDONESIAN DELEGATION AND THE COMMISSION GENERAL.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE NETHERLANDS DECISION WAS THE RESULT OF A LETTER WRITTEN MARCH 15 FROM THE INDONESIAN DELEGATION WHICH "SHOWED SUCH MEASURE OF COMMON UNDERSTANDING" THAT THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT IS CONVINCED NOW THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO TAKE UP COOPERATIVELY THE PRESSING PROBLEMS OF RELIEF AND RECONSTRUCTION OF THE EAST INDIES.

BUT WHILE THE PLANS FOR PEACE WENT FORWARD, FIGHTING CONTINUED.

THE INDONESIAN NEWS AGENCY SAID THAT DUTCH MARINES, SPEAR-HEADED BY FIGHTER-BOMBERS, ENTERED MODJOKERTO TODAY. MODJOKERTO IS THE KEY TO THE DENSELY POPULATED BRANTAS DELTA IN EAST JAVA.

THE NEWS AGENCY REPORTED "CONTINUOUS" DUTCH AIR ATTACKS ON MODJOKERTO HAD KILLED 18 AND WOUNDED 104 INDONESIANS UP TO MIDNIGHT MONDAY.

A NETHERLANDS ARMY COMMUNIQUE SAID THE MARINES HAD FLANKED MODJOKERTO AND OCCUPIED THE LENGKENGSTRIN DAM FARTHER EAST, WHICH CONTROLS THE IRRIGATION SYSTEM FOR THE DELTA. THE COMMUNIQUE SAID RESISTANCE WAS SLIGHT BUT ADDED THAT FIVE MARINES HAD BEEN KILLED AND 17 WOUNDED BY LAND MINES YESTERDAY.

MANILA, MARCH 18-(AP)-HIS MISSION HERE VIRTUALLY COMPLETE, RETIRING AMBASSADOR PAUL V.MCNUTT LEAVES THIS WEEK FOR SIGNIFICANT VISITS THROUGH THE TROUBLED MIDDLE EAST AND POSSIBLY GREECE TO PROVIDE PRESIDENT TRUMAN WITH A FIRST HAND REPORT.

THEN THE WHITE-HAIRED INDIANA DIPLOMAT WILL RETIRE TO PRIVATE LIFE.

INTIMATELY CONNECTED WITH THE PHILIPPINES THE PAST TEN YEARS AS HIGH COMMISSIONER AND AS THE UNITED STATE'S FIRST AMBASSADOR, MCNUTT CARRIES WITH HIM A PORTFOLIO OF TREATIES LINKING THE REPUBLIC AND THE UNITED STATES ECONOMICALLY AND MILITARILY FOR YEARS TO COME.

MCNUTT HAD EXTENDED TALKS IN RECENT WEEKS WITH GENERAL MACARTHUR IN JAPAN, CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND T.V.SOONG IN CHINA AND AMERICAN AMBASSADOR ROBERT BUTLER IN AUSTRALIA. TO THIS HE WILL ADD DATA GATHERED IN UNOFFICIAL TALKS IN BANGKOK, SINGAPORE, DELHI, CAIRO, PARIS AND COPENHAGEN.

TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES IN WORKING OF THE MILITARY ASSISTANCE AGREEMENT WHICH REQUIRES APPROVAL IN WASHINGTON IS ALL THAT IS HOLDING HIM HERE NOW.

THE AGREEMENT "CAN BE SIGNED IN 30 MINUTES" AFTER THE STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORIZES CHANGES, HE SAID TODAY.

MCNUTT DOES NOT EXPECT TO ARRIVE IN WASHINGTON BEFORE MID-APRIL. HIS SUCCESSOR IS NOT EXPECTED TO BE NAMED BEFORE THAT TIME.

AMONG THOSE MOST PROMINENTLY MENTIONED HERE FOR THE AMBASSADOR'S POST ARE GENERAL JONATHAN WAINWRIGHT, WELDON JONES, A TREASURY DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, AND DILLARD LASSITER OF THE FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION.

IN EVALUATING MCNUTT'S SERVICE TO THE PHILIPPINES, PRESIDENT ROXAS TERMED IT "HISTORIC."

THE MANILA TRIBUNE IN AN EDITORIAL SAID:

"EXCEPT PERHAPS WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT, NO AMERICAN HAS RENDERED THE PHILIPPINES A FIELD SERVICE AS VARIED AND INDISPENSABLE IN TIMES OF BONANZA AND CRISIS AS THAT RENDERED BY THE RETIRING AMBASSADOR. AND EXCEPT PERHAPS LEONARD WOOD, NO AMERICAN OFFICIAL IN THE PHILIPPINES HAS AROUSED MORE CRITICISM AND ANTAGONISM. ONLY HISTORY CAN RECORD THE FINAL APPRAISAL OF HIS SERVICE OR DISSERVICE TO THE COUNTRY."

KURILES

WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAS CONCEDED IN ADVANCE THAT RUSSIA WILL KEEP THE KURILE ISLANDS UNDER THE PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN WHICH GEN. MACARTHUR HAS URGED BE NEGOTIATED QUICKLY.

THIS WILL FULFILL THE TERMS OF THE 1945 YALTA AGREEMENT WHICH TRANSFERRED THE ISLANDS FROM JAPAN TO RUSSIA.

SINCE V-J DAY THE SOVIETS HAVE TAKEN OVER ADMINISTRATION OF THE KURILES, A CHAIN OF 47 ISLANDS EXTENDING NORTHWARD FROM THE JAPANESE HOMELAND TO RUSSIA'S KAMCHATKA PENINSULA, WITH THE OBVIOUS ASSUMPTION THAT THE FINAL PEACE TREATY WILL VALIDATE THE CLAIM STAKED OUT AND ACCEPTED AT YALTA.

TOKYO DISPATCHES HAVE REPORTED WITHOUT OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION THAT AT LEAST ONE AIRFIELD HAS BEEN FORTIFIED AND THAT THE OKHOTSK SEA CONTAINED BY THE ISLAND CHAIN HAS BEEN CONVERTED INTO A SOVIET LAKE.

SOME OF THE JAPANESE INHABITANTS HAVE FLED SINCE THE RUSSIANS MOVED IN, JOINING THE EXODUS FROM THE SOUTHERN PORTION OF NEARBY SAKHALIN ISLAND WHICH LIKEWISE WAS AWARDED TO THE SOVIETS AT YALTA.

IN SIGNING THE AGREEMENT ON FEBRUARY 11, 1945, PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL AND MARSHAL STALIN SAID SPECIFICALLY THAT THE CONCESSIONS WERE THE PRICE OF RUSSIA'S ENTRY INTO THE FIGHTING AGAINST JAPAN WITHIN THREE MONTHS AFTER GERMANY'S SURRENDER.

THE RUSSIANS ALSO OBTAINED CERTAIN RAILWAY AND OTHER RIGHTS IN MACHURIA.

MOST OF THE CONCESSIONS WERE DESCRIBED IN THE PACT AS A RESTORATION OF RIGHTS ENJOYED BY RUSSIA BEFORE THE RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR OF 1904 AND THE PORTSMOUTH PEACE TREATY OF THE FOLLOWING YEAR. THE KURILE ISLANDS, HOWEVER, WERE NEVER RUSSIAN. JAPAN'S SOVEREIGNTY WAS CONFIRMED BY TREATY IN 1875 FOLLOWING RUSSIAN ENCROACHMENT FROM THE KAMCHATKA PENINSULA.

THE ISLANDS HAVE A TOTAL AREA OF 3,944 SQUARE MILES. THEY ARE FOG-BOUND MUCH OF THE TIME, AND ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE LIMITED IMPORTANCE EXCEPT FROM THE STANDPOINT OF MILITARY GRAND STRATEGY.

STRETCHING ALONG THE GREAT CIRCLE ROUTE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND JAPAN, THEY WERE IN THE SPOTLIGHT OF THE EARLY STAGES OF WORLD WAR II WHEN CONTROL OF THE NORTH PACIFIC WAS STILL AT STAKE.

MARSHALL AND MOLOTOV TERM ACCORD POSSIBLE ON GERMAN PEACE PACT (N)

British And U.S. Secretaries, However, Combat Soviet Reparations Claim—American's Calm Called Contribution To Big Four Discussions

Moscow Parley's Hopes Are Raised For Agreement

W. GALLAGHER

Moscow, March 19 (AP)—The first inkling that the Moscow conference might reach a compromise on Germany came tonight when Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, and Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, agreed that the four powers possibly could reconcile their positions.

At the same time, Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, gravely warned the conference that the success of negotiations on Germany will have a definite effect on big-power collaboration in all Europe.

Molotov, who shook the reparations skeleton out of the Yalta closet, found Bevin and Marshall producing similar references to previously secret discussions at Potsdam and in the Allied Control Council for Germany.

Recalls Russian Opposition

Marshall revealed that the Russians, who yesterday came out for a 10,000,000 to 12,000,000-ton steel production in Germany, fought desperately in the Allied Control Council a year ago to limit German steel production to 3,500,000 tons yearly because "a higher steel output constitutes a war potential."

Bevin, in turn, revealed that it was Prime Minister Stalin himself who insisted at Potsdam on capital goods reparations from the western zones and not the current production which the Soviets now ask.

Despite conciliatory speeches, particularly by Molotov, who agreed that Marshall's program for Germany constituted a good basis for discussion, little agreement was reached at today's meeting on basic issues, and new differences came to light in the economic discussions.

Rejects Setting Dollar Value

Bevin rejected setting a dollar value on reparations such as the Soviet $10,000,000,000 demand, rejected the Soviet demand to dissolve the Anglo-American zone fusion, demanded a balanced economy for Germany before reparations and rejected the French demand for definite coal deliveries to other European states.

Molotov rejected economic unity for Germany without reparations, rejected Marshall's and Bevin's contention that the Potsdam agreement superseded Yalta on reparations, but supported the French coal demand.

Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, was scheduled to give France's position on these same subjects when the Council meets tomorrow.

Seeks Common Viewpoint

Molotov told the Council that, after hearing the views of Great Britain, the United States and France, he still believed it possible to reach an accord in Moscow on the critical German economic program.

The Soviet diplomat declared it did not follow from the disputes which have broken out here that the four powers would be unable to find a common point of view on such issues as the level of industry, a balanced import-export program, freedom of movement inside Germany and similar key matters.

Molotov spoke after Bevin, in a commentary on the Soviet's program for Germany, had rejected Russian reparations demands.

Thought Question Finished

Bevin declared that Stalin himself had urged and requested at Potsdam that the western allies agree that reparations should come from capital goods and particularly factories in the western zone.

Bevin said that when he and others agreed to this he thought that the question of reparations was finished and there would be no demands for reparations from current production such as have been made by the Soviets.

In the main, Bevin went down the line for what Marshall and he had been insisting on. Among other things he flatly turned down Molotov's request that the British and American zonal merger be annulled, saying that it will only be given up when it can be absorbed into national German economy.

Telegram Sent Churchill

Bevin also revealed that at a midnight Cabinet meeting in London, at the time of the Yalta conference discussion on reparations, the Cabinet had sent the then Prime Minister, Winston Churchill, a telegram which said:

"We consider it quite inadvisable to state any figure for German deliveries until possibilities have been properly investigated on the spot. We consider $20,000,000,000 far too great. It is roughly equivalent to Germany's prewar gross export. That is not allowing for any imports in an average year."

The telegram which Bevin read in support of this position that Britain never subscribed to Russian reparation demands also instructed Churchill "to mention" the importance of German payments for imports on the basis of priority with reparations.

Otherwise, the Cabinet wired, "we shall find ourselves paying for imports necessary to keep Germany alive while others are taking reparations."

Cannot Divide Question

Bevin, in a lengthy comment on Molotov's earlier statement on the German economic program, said that economic unity is indivisible and it is not possible to reach agreement merely on a particular problem.

On the question of the Ruhr, for which Molotov asked four-power control and the French want a separate administration, Bevin said that the Ruhr is in the British zone and it will remain there until different arrangements are made. Subsequent remarks indicated that he meant that, until ecoonmic unity is attained and four-power control of all German industries set, he will not yield an inch on the Ruhr.

Bevin welcomed Molotov's call for a higher level of industry in German steel production, saying that the British had long since asked for an 11,000,000-ton level. But said he could not accept Molotov's position that this increase be associated with payment of reparations out of current production.

Molotov, in his statement to the council, said that economic unity without reparations was unacceptable to the Soviet Government. But he agreed that economic unity with reparations was acceptable. He said further that he could not accept Marshall's and Bevin's positions that the Potsdam decision superseded the Yalta decisions on reparations.

Molotov revealed that the Soviet had not only taken reparations from the Soviet zone in the form of factory removals and from current production but had also transferred ownership of German factories in the eastern zone to the Soviet. His reference apparently was to 200 factories recently Soviet-ized in the eastern zone of Germany.

Molotov said he supportcd the French demands that the conference provide definite coal deliveries to France. He declared that it was not clear to him why anthracite coal production in the British occupation zone was only 43 per cent of prewar capacity, while in the Soviet zone it was 74 per cent.

Bevin, on the other hand, said he could not accept the proposal put forward by Bidault that definite proportions of Germany's annual coal production be allocated for export. He said that he appreciated the needs of France but did not consider this practicable.

Marshall, in declaring that the Russians earlier had opposed any large increase in German steel production, said that he was willing to consider Molotov's proposal for a German steel output of 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 tons a year.

"While I am prepared to consider this proposal, I must point out the changed Soviet point of view is in itself evidence of adherent danger in developing the production program designed for reparations purposes," Marshall continued.

He warned that Germany had managed to rebuild and go to war again after 1919 because the Allies sought to rebuild industries and get reparations.

Marshall added in closing that "it seems no reparations program should be adopted to be carried out over a long period of years which creates a burden on the German people to the extent that democratic government could not hope to survive."

however, that the Soviet Union rejected the British-American position that the Potsdam decisions on reparations superseded the decisions of the Big Three Yalta Conference.

Cites "Inherent Danger"

He further declared that the economic unity of Germany without reparations was not acceptable to the Soviet Government but that with reparations it would be acceptable.

Marshall reminded Molotov that there were "grave" difficulties to be faced in the reparations problem. He said he was prepared to "consider" Molotov's demands for a higher level of industry in Germany to raise her steel production, but he added that there was an "inherent danger" in developing a production program designed for reparations purposes.

Russia has asked that the steel production level be raised to 10,000,000 or 12,000,000 tons annually.

Factory Removals Told

Molotov disclosed officially for the first time that the Soviet Union had not only taken reparations from the Soviet Zone in the form of factory removals and from current German production, but also had transferred the ownership of some German factories in the eastern zone to Soviet ownership.

He apparently was referring to a recently created Soviet corporation comprising 200 factories in the eastern zone of Germany. Soviet authorities had refused, heretofore, to give any information on the ownership of these factories.

Molotov said these factories, although Soviet-owned, would be subject to German laws.

The Soviet Minister said, however, that the Russians had received only $5,000,000 in capital reparations from the western zones of Germany and, because of this, had to take substantial reparations from their own zone. He said the figures on this would be made available at the appropriate time. Molotov added that not to take such reparations would have been a crime in the eyes of the Russian people.

Marshall reminded the Soviet Minister that the Russians in Berlin last year had demanded that Germany be limited to 3,500,000 tons of steel annually "and expressed belief that a higher steel output constituted a war potential."

Marshall Reminds Of 1919

Marshall said Germany managed to rebuild and go to war again after 1919 because the Allies sought to rebuild industries to get reparations. He said that both the Allied countries and Germany needed to know "what specific resources should be left to Germany, so the country may be encouraged to exert a full effort in industrial recovery."

"It seems," Marshall said, "no reparations program should be odopted to be carried out over a long period of years which creates a burden on the German people to the extent that democratic government could not hope to survive."

Molotov Voices Hope

Molotov had just told the Council that, after hearing the different views of the United States, Britain and France, he still believed agreement possible in Moscow among the four powers on the critical German economic program.

Molotov said it did not follow from the disputes which thus far have broken out here that the four powers would be unable to find a common point of view on such issues as the level of German industry, a balanced import-export program and freedom of movement in Germany, as well as on similar key matters.

Dollar Valuation Rejected

Molotov spoke after Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Britain, in a studied commentary on the Soviet program for Germany, rejected Russian reparations demands and said it was Britain's policy not to agree to any dollar valuations on reparations. Molotov has put forward a Soviet claim for $10,000,000,000 in reparations from post-war Germany.

Bevin revealed—for the first time—that Prime Minister Stalin himself had urged and requested the Western Allies to agree that reparations should come from capital goods and particularly factories in the Western zones.

The British Minister said that, when he and the others agreed to this, he thought that the question of reparations was finished and there would be no demands.

Bevin also disclosed that the British Cabinet, at the time of the Big Three discussion on reparations at Yalta, sent a telegram to Winston Churchill, then attending the conference as Prime Minister. It said:

"We consider it quite inadvisable to state any figure for German deliveries until possibilities have been properly investigated on the spot. We consider $20,000,000,000 far too great. It is roughly equivalent to Germany's prewar gross exports. And that is not allowing for any imports in an average year."

Only Basis For Discussion

Molotov has said the $20,000,000,000 figure was agreed upon at Yalta as the grand total of reparations from Germany, but Secretary Marshall said yesterday this figure was only a basis for discussion and was superceded by later agreements at Potsdam where no figure was set.

The telegram, which Bevin read in support of his position that the British never subscribed to Russian reparations demands, also instructed Churchill to mention the importance of German payments for imports.

On the question of the industrial Ruhr, over which Molotov has asked four-power control, Bevin said it was now in the British occupation zone and it would remain there until different arrangements were concluded.

To Hold Ruhr Pending Unity

The British Secretary's subsequent remarks indicated he meant that Britain would not yield up the Ruhr until economic unity was attained for Germany and there was four-power control of all German industries.

Bevin welcomed Molotov's call for a higher level of German steel production. He said the British long since had asked for an 11,000,000-ton level. He added, however, that he could not accept Molotov's position that his increase should be associated with payment of reparations out of current German production.

Compromise Bid Expected

Authoritative sources here said France was expected to propose some compromise solution of both reparations and economic problems. It was believed by these informants that France would suggest raising the level of steel production in Germany to 8,000,000 tons annually from the present agreed level of 5,800,000 tons.

On the issue of current production for reparations, the French were expected by these informants to suggest that Germany be allowed unlimited production in certain light industries.

Production above German needs thus could be divided on a percentage basis—a high share to pay for imports at the start, with the share for reparations increasing gradually over the years.

Remarks by Gen. Marshall

MOSCOW, March 19 (AP)—Following is the text of Secretary of State Marshall's statement to the Council of Foreign Ministers today:

I agree with Mr. Molotov as to the great value of Mr. Bevin's clear statement of the British position. I am encouraged by the statement of Mr. Molotov just completed and I fully agree that our views are possible of reconciliation, however grave the difficulties of reparations.

The views of the United States delegation as regards Yalta and the other seven subjects remain as of yesterday.

Mr. Molotov has named specific recommendations with regard to a new reparation program concerning largely utilization of production for reparation purposes. The Soviet representative at Potsdam appeared to find that a production program for reparation was inadvisable. Subsequently, in the negotiations in the Allied Control Authority in Berlin, the Soviet insisted on a steel output in Germany that would be limited to 3,500,000 tons a year and expressed the belief that a higher steel output constituted a war potential. The Soviet now recommends from 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 tons as the annual output.

While I am prepared to consider this proposal, I must point out that the changed Soviet viewpoint in itself is evidence of an inherent danger in developing a production program designed for reparation purposes.

The United States delegation agrees that the period in which reparation is to be completed should be definitely prescribed. The devastated nations entitled to reparations need to know now what they may expect to receive so they can plan accordingly. Likewise, the German people need to be advised as to the specific resources to be left in Germany so they may be encouraged to exert their full effort toward industrial recovery within their capacity. This date must be fixed to meet practical considerations and transport.

Referring again to production reparations, it should be recognized that the production arrangements made after the last war for Germany to maximize production in order to pay reparations to the devastated countries resulted in the rapid rebuilding of Germany into a superior economy which within an unbelievably short period of years was available for diversion to war purposes. To rebuild on an expanded program in Germany to produce reparations would be to repeat the same mistake, unless the increases were made in fields which offer little, if any, war risk.

Moreover, after the last war the ability of Germany to provide reparations from current production was determined by the financial assistance provided Germany in the form of loans. It would not be likely that Germany could obtain outside financing for reparations purposes this time.

It also seems that no reparations program should be adopted to be carried out over a long period which would create a burden on the German people to the extent that democratic governments could not hope to survive.

Reich Pact Possible, Marshall, Molotov Agree At Parley (D)

J. HIGHTOWER

Moscow, March 19 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall agreed today that a meeting of minds was possible in this conference of the Council of Foreign Ministers on Germany's economic program.

Molotov said in a statement,

'Pravda' Asks if Negro Has Democracy in U. S.

MOSCOW, March 19 (AP).—The Communist party newspaper "Pravda," with an eye on the Negro question in the United States, criticized George C. Marshall, American Secretary of State, today for concern which he expresse ; yesterday over the definition of democracy.

Referring to a speech Mr. Marshall made to the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers, commentator Y. Viktorov declared:

"Secretary of State Marshall thought it nicessary to dedicate part of his speech to general discussions on democracy. It seems to us that such an approach to the question is scarcely useful and can be hardly justified.

"Isn't it a fact that in practice people are deprived of those 'indefeasible rights' of which Marshall spoke, and in fact they live in fear that they will be refused the right to work or be deprived of life, freedom or the pursuit of happiness, merely because they belong not to the white but the colored population of another country?"

Pravda Assails Marshall (D)

Moscow, March 19 (AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall's concern over the meaning of democracy got an editorial larruping today in the columns of Pravda.

Commentator Y. Viktorov, mentioning the Negro question in the United States and current proposals to outlaw the Communist party there, wrote in the Communist party organ:

"Secretary of State Marshall thought it necessary to dedicate part of his speech (to the Foreign Ministers Council last Friday) to general discussions on democracy.

"Hardly Justified"

"It seems to us that such an approach to the question is scarcely useful and can be hardly justified.

"Isn't it a fact that in practice people are deprived of those 'indefeasible rights' of which Marshall spoke and, in fact, they live in fear that they will be refused the right to work or be deprived of life, freedom or the pursuit of happiness merely because they belong not to the white but the colored population of another country?"

Pravda said the theoretical position of the right of every man to express freely his opinion and convictions—as defended by Marshall—seems to have no place in the American scene when proposals to prohibit the Communist party are considered.

Assails "Generalization"

"One cannot fail to deduce," the commentator wrote, "that a theoretical generalization on democracy helps little in explaining the cause and discussing practical vital questions on the democratization of Germany."

Viktorov also criticized American occupation authorities for what he called discrimination against democratic parties in Germany, and maintained that uniform rights for trade unions were being hampered by occupation authorities in both the British and American zones of Germany.

use the word "Nazi" in the Austrian peace term.

Surprisingly, the Russian deputy, Feodor Gousev, agreed that the deputies should try to work up a clause regarding Austrian Nazis, using the word "Nazi" rather than "Fascist."

General Term

The agreement came after the British deputy, Lord Hood, cited the Potsdam pact use of the term Nazi. The normal procedure had been for the Russians to use the word Fascist and the Western powers to use the word Nazi.

The Soviets had used their term in the draft clause for the Austrian treaty and Clark rejected it, saying the United States was talking about breaking up Nazism in Austria and that Fascism was the system in Italy. Gousev argued that Fascism is a more general term.

Clark said he noted that Fascism was a general term and told Gousev pointedly that it had even been applied to a prominent member of the American delegation to the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Gousev Got Point

American informants declined to say whether Clark mentioned Dulles by name, but all agreed that Gousev got the point.

Dulles had been assailed three times in the Russian weekly, New Times, immediately before the conference opened for articles written in the United States which were critical of Russian policies.

Gousev remarked to Clark that if the deputies took up everything in the newspapers here and in the United States, they would accomplish nothing.

Gaps In Treaty

The points illustrated the huge gaps of disagreement remaining in the Austrian treaty, which the United States and Great Britain are hoping to conclude at this session.

The deputies have gone through the preamble and sixteen political articles of the treaty. The progress of other deputies on a German peace treaty draft was about the same. add

Clark Hits Back At Red Attack On Dulles

J. HABBT LOWER

Moscow, March 19 (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark threw back at the Russian representative at the meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers' Deputies today Soviet press attacks on John Foster Dulles, adviser to Secretary Marshall, whom Moscow newspapers had called a "Fascist."

Clark argued, in effect, that the Russians were likely to call almost anybody a Fascist and that this was one reason why the United States opposed that term and wished to

'Capitalist' a Hostile Word In the Russian Vocabulary

By the Associated Press.

MOSCOW, March 19—Persons present at today's meeting of the Foreign Ministers' Deputies were told that the Russians had once sought to liquidate a newspaper in Austria for the reason, among others, that it had called the United States a "capitalistic country."

The Russians argued that this was propaganda hostile to an Allied nation.

Attlee Warns Monty Or Making Speeches

MAR 1947

London, March 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee today hinted that he had scolded Field Marshal Lord Montgomery.

"I have spoken to Field Marshal Montgomery, telling him of the danger of making speeches which might be interpreted by persons who wanted to make mischief," Attlee said in the House of Commons.

Lord Montgomery, nonparty chief of the Imperial General Staff, said in a speech last week it was vital that Great Britain have able leadership "at all levels in every walk of life."

Conservatives interpreted this as critical of the Labor Government during the current economic crisis.

Replying to critical questions by Labor members of Parliament, Attlee said he "entirely agreed" that it was "constitutionally improper" for Montgomery to make a speech with political implications.

New Governor Is Named For Hong Kong Colony

London, March 19 (AP)—The Colonial Office announced tonight the appointment of Sir Alexander Grantham as governor and commander in chief of the British colony of Hong Kong.

He succeeds Sir Mark Aithison Young, who, the announcement said, "will shortly be retiring."

Sir Alexander, 48, has been governor general of Fiji since 1944. Before that he held Colonial Office posts in Bermuda, Jamaica and Nigeria and began his service as a cadet in Hong Kong in 1922.

Argentina Balks as $1.80 Wheat Export Price Is Set

LONDON, March 19 (AP).—Three of the world's four great wheat exporting nations—the United States, Canada and Australia—agreed today on a maximum price of $1.80 a bushel for exported bread grain, but the fourth, Argentina, declined to go along. The United States, Canada, Australia also accepted a minimum of $1.25 for exported wheat. The two figures had been proposed by the International Wheat Council in Washington.

Anselmo Viacava, the Argentine representative at the International Wheat conference, said he had not received instructions from his government to accept this price range. Other conference sources said that when definite Argentine instructions do arrive they are generally expected to oppose adoption of fixed prices. Argentina reportedly has received a price equal to about $3 a bushel for wheat recently sold to needy European nations.

The objective of the conference here is to regulate export and import prices of wheat and to devise methods of insuring sufficient world supplies and reserves for the next five years.

Ireland Rations Firewood

DUBLIN, March 19 (AP)—The Government announced tonight the rationing of firewood to meet the acute crisis in domestic fuel supplies. It said that householders could expect only a half-ton of peat and firewood for April and May.

Ramadier Upheld On Indo-China

Paris, March 19 (AP)—The French National Assembly accorded Premier Paul Ramadier a 421-to-0 vote of confidence on his policies in Indo-China today after a stormy debate on France's relations with the Viet Namese regime. Communist deputies abstained from voting, despite a challenge from Ramadier.

Communist Leader Jacques Duclos announced before the vote was taken that the Communist party, largest in the Assembly, would neither support nor oppose the confidence motion.

Duclos Leads Criticism

Ramadier retorted that he wanted his policy backed by the entire nation, not merely by a majority. However, the Communists, led by Duclos, Vice Premier Maurice Thorez and National Defense Minister Francois Billoux, remained impassive during the vote which followed.

The incident caused speculation whether Ramadier would demand the resignation of Thorez, Billoux and the three other Communist members of the coalition.

New Strain On Coalition

Communist refusal to support the Premier's policies in Indo-China does not require the party to leave the Cabinet, but observers agreed that it places a new strain on the unwieldy four-party combination.

Duclos assailed the military campaign in Indo-China as unbearably costly to the nation and asserted that France should come to terms with the Viet Namese.

"Otherwise," he added, "others will come who pretend to protect democracy in Athens and Ankara."

FRENCH SWEAR IN NEGRO AS COUNCIL PRESIDENT

PARIS, March 19 — (AP) Gaston Monnerville, a negro, was sworn in today as president of the Council of the Republic, the upper French legislative house.

Monnerville, a deputy from the South American colony of French Guiana who has served in various French parliamentary chambers since 1932, was the first negro to be president of a parliamentary chamber in France.

Monnerville and his wife were moving into the council president's official quarters, the "Petit Luxembourg," a relatively small but ornate mension adjoining Luxembourg palace where the Council meets.

He is a native of Cayenne in the sultry, humid and jungle-spread settlements on the northern coast of South America. Monnerville graduated in law from the University of Toulouse and has been a member of the Paris bar for many years.

His choice to the high office was not surprising to persons familiar with French tolerance in racial relations.

Paris, March 19 (AP)—Robert Schumann, Finance Minister, called for a 48-hour week in French industry today as a way of digging the nation out of a financial hole deepened by expenses of the Indo-Chinese war and a freeze that destroyed 4,000,000 acres of spring crops. The present work week in most industries is 40 hours.

Three Americans Fined In Military Scrip Case

Paris, March 19 (AP)—A special court-martial today convicted three American civilian employés of the War Department of wrongful possession of military scrip. The men were accused of obtaining it illegally from a French civilian.

Alfred A. McClennon, of the Bronx, N.Y., and John W. Chandler, for 30 years a resident of Paris, were fined $500 each. Louis G. Rouniker, of Milwaukee, Wis., was fined $300.

Rouniker and McClennon were found innocent of wrongfully trying to import articles in excess of their personal needs. Chandler was acquitted of knowingly attempting to pass counterfeit scrip. Similar charges against McClennon and Rouniker were dismissed.

2 Expelled Bulgarian Writers Leave France

Paris, March 19 (AP)—Two Bulgarian newspaper men, ordered expelled from France, left French territory last night, Government sources said today.

The expelled journalists were Amy Bakalov, chief of a Bulgarian information bureau in Paris and writer for two Sofia weeklies, and Lovan Strelkov, correspondent for a Sofia daily.

The expulsions resulted from incidents at Sofia in which Bulgarian authorities expelled a woman correspondent for the Agence France-Presse.

GREEKS NAME ATTACK AREA

Give Notice Of Drive Where Slav Probers Left Group

Salonika, Greece, March 19 (AP)—A Greek Government representative said tonight that full-scale military operations against guerrillas will be launched at dawn tomorrow in the Mount Grammos area near the Albanian frontier where Russian and Polish delegates of the United Nations Balkan investigating commission remained when other delegates returned here.

Earlier, Greek military authorities claimed that the presence in guerrilla territory of the Russian and Polish delegates was impeding Government military operations in the vicinity of Asproklissia.

Failed To Meet Leader

The delegates and their liaison representatives remained behind last Sunday when the commission's field team waited in vain to talk with "General Markos," described as commander in chief of the Greek guerrilla forces.

A formal announcement of the impending military operations was made by Alexis Kyrou, Greek liaison officer to the United Nations commission yesterday.

There was no information on the exact whereabouts of the Slav group, according to official commission sources. However, when the field team split up, the Slav group remained behind in the village of Kastanofiton in the plateau between the Grammos, Voion and Siniastikon mountains and northeast of the Grevena Plain, where some military operations have been under way ten days.

Sought To Make Contact

The party stayed behind, commission sources said, in an effort to make contact with the Greek guerrilla chieftain after the commission's team had waited two days and then abandoned the project.

Disclosure of operations at Asproklissia indicated that military units have also taken Amoudara, which is at the edge of guerrilla territory.

An Unreconstructed Fascist

Trieste, March 19 (AP)—Maria Pasquinelli, 34-year-old Italian spinster schoolteacher who shot a British brigadier at Pola February 10 in protest against the Italian peace treaty, told a court trying her on a charge of murder here today of a long and thus far fruitless flirtation with martyrdom.

From her two-and-one-half-hour session on the stand—a virtual monologue—there emerged these facts; J. P. HICKNIGHT

Feared And Hated Communism

She was an unreconstructed Fascist who "believed in fascism and loved it" because she thought "the greatness of Italy could be best achieved by fascism."

She feared and hated communism and she believed that the aim of pan-Slavism was the extinction not only of the Italian race but also of Latin civilization and the Western world.

In her account—interrupted only rarely by Luigi Giannini, defense counsel, and the United States president of the court, Col. John W. Chapman—the short swarthy defendant reiterated that she had nothing against, and in fact did not even know by sight, her victim, 39-year-old British Brigadier R. W. M. De Winton, commander of the British garrison at Pola.

Wanted To Hit Big 4

"I did not mean to hit the man or the uniform," she said. "I wanted to hit only the major representative of the Big Four at Pola. Unfortunately he was a man and a soldier.

"If I had had the occasion, I would have hit the Big Four—as a symbol of the injustice to my country."

MAR 1947

ment said military units clashed with bandits at Asproklissia, forcing the bandits to retreat. However, a small group riding mules, it added, waved a white flag and firing was halted because it was feared they were the Slav group that had stayed behind to interview "General Markos." The riders disappeared and did not present themselves to the military.

400 Rebels Attack Greek Town

Athens, March 19 (AP)—Press dispatches today said 400 insurgents had attacked Daphne, 45 miles northeast of Salonika; burned the police station, town hall and several houses, routed the police force and abducted 40 women and children.

Dispatches also said a band launched an attack near Skra, where a United Nations field team has been investigating. The attack was beaten off and the guerrillas fled northward.

REDS AGAIN REJECT U. S. DEMAND FOR HUNGARIAN PROBE

J. GUINN (N)

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 19—(AP) Russia tossed a charge of "interference" back at the United States today, and rejected for the second time in two weeks an American demand for an investigation of Hungary's political affairs.

Twice this month, the United States has sent notes to Russian occupation authorities accusing them of interfering in Hungarian affairs and of backing local Communists in an attempt to overthrow the elected Hungarian government. The last U. S. note was delivered Monday.

"Once already I had the opportunity to decline your interference into this case," said today's Russian reply, which was similar to the Soviet answer to the first note.

Signed by General

The Soviet note was signed by Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, commander of Russian occupation forces in Hungary and acting chairman of the Allied Control commission for this country. It was delivered to U. S. Brig. Gen. George H. Weems, head of the United States military mission here.

The Russians brushed aside an American contention that Bela Kovacs, anti-Communist member of Parliament, had been arrested on charges of espionage only after Communists had been unsuccessful in obtaining his arrest by other means.

Pointing out that the earlier Russian note had dealt with the Kovacs case, Sviridov added in today's communication:

"However, since you, in spite of that, again return to this issue, I solely to forestall you from making any further mistake, can inform you that Bela Kovacs has fully acknowledged his guilt in crimes committed against the Soviet army, as well as his participation in the (anti-government) plot."

Can't Change Attitude

The Russian general added that, considering everything, he did not "find it possible to change my attitude toward your offer for investigation of the existing conditions in Hungary and of the plot."

Kovacs was picked up by the Russians on a spy charge, after Hungarian Communists had accused him of plotting to overthrow the government. The Communist-dominated Hungarian security police was unable to arrest him on the plotting charge because of his parliamentary immunity.

The American note, publication of which was delayed by the Russians pending preparation of their reply, finally was broadcast today, along with the answer.

The United States had contended that the Russians interfered in Hungarian affairs to aid the cause of Hungarian Communists.

Today's Russian reply brushed aside an American assertion of March 17 that Soviet forces arrested Bela Kovacs, anti-Communist member of Parliament, on charges of espionage only after a Communist had been unsuccessful in having Kovacs arrested by other means.

The Communist had accused Kovacs, secretary-general of the Small Holders party, of being implicated in a plot against the year-old republic but failed to win a waiver of Kovacs's parliamentary immunity and his arrest by the Communist-controlled political police.

With regard to Kovacs, Sviridov's note said:

"Once already I had the opportunity to decline your interference in this case.

Parliamentary Probe

"However, since you, in spite of that, again return to this issue, I, solely to forestall you from making any further mistake, can inform you that Bela Kovacs has fully acknowledged his guilt in crimes committed against the Soviet Army as well as his participation in the plot."

As for an American complaint that the Communists refused to permit parliamentary investigations of Small Holder members of Parliament accused of complicity in the purported plot, Sviridov said:

"Attempts to change the usual procedure of the investigation through creation of a special parliamentary committee to investigate were not called for by any necessity, but rather had as their aim to conceal criminal roles of parliamentary deputies of the Small Holders party implicated in the plot."

Both Texts Broadcast

The Russian commander said that both the investigation of the plot, which the United States contended was conducted by Communist-controlled police, and the current trial of thirteen defendants, which the American note said was being carried on by a predominantly Left-wing court, were in accordance with the Hungarian constitution and the Law for the Defense of the Republic—a law sponsored by Leftists.

The Hungarian radio, meanwhile, broadcast the text of the two notes this morning and Hungarian afternoon papers were expected to publish them.

The broadcast and possible publication of the notes followed a lengthy discussion yesterday between Weems and Sviridov, during which the American protested that the Russians had ordered the American note withheld from the Hungarian press.

Sviridov replied that he had not had it withheld, that he only requested a delay, pending the preparation of a Russian reply, so that both could be released at the same time.

Sviridov told Weems that he had "a perfect right to control the Hungarian press."

Russ In Hungary Reject U.S. Protest, Probe Bid

J. GUINN (D)

Budapest, March 19 (AP)—The Soviet command in Budapest rejected today United States protests against Russian interference in Hungarian political affairs and refused for the second time an American request for a three-power investigation of the situation.

In a note delivered today to Brig. Gen. George H. Weems at the American military mission, Russian Lieut. Gen. V. P. Sviridov declared:

"I do not find it possible to change my attitude toward your offer for investigation of the existing conditions in Hungary."

Sviridov is acting chairman of the Allied Control Commission for Hungary.

Belgian Cabinet (N)

Brussels, March 19 (AP)—Paul Henri Spaak, president of the United Nations General Assembly, announced formation today of a two-party Belgian Cabinet which he will head as Premier and Foreign Minister.

The new ministers—representing the Socialist and Social Christian (Catholic) parties—will be sworn into office tomorrow by Prince Charles, the Regent. Two of the Cabinet members have no party affiliation.

Communists Withdrew

Spaak was asked to form the new Government by the Regent, after Communist members withdrew last week from the coalition Cabinet of Camille Huysmans, whom Spaak named as his Minister of Education. Liberals and Communists both refused to participate in an all-party Government.

Spaak, a Socialist, is expected to present his program at a meeting of Parliament Tuesday. He named a Cabinet in March, 1946, which lasted for only ten days before it was turned out of office by a parliamentary vote of no confidence.

Division By Parties

The Socialists in the new Cabinet are:

SPAAK, Prime Minister and Foreign Minister.

HUYSMANS, education.

AUGUSTE VERMEYLEN, interior.

JOSEPH MERLOT, budget.

LEON-ELIE TROCLET, labor.

ACHILLE VAN ACKER, communications.

ACHILLE DELATTRE, coal.

PAUL DE GROOTE, national re-equipment.

Social Christian members are:

GASTON EYSKENS, finance.

PAUL STRUYE, justice.

ALPHONSE VERBIST, health.

MAURICE ORBAN, agriculture.

OSCAR BEHOGNE, public works.

ROBERT DE MAN, reconstruction.

PIERRE WIGNY, colonies.

Non-party members are:

COL. RAOUL DE FRAITEUR, national defense.

GEORGES MOENS DE GERNIG, food and supplies.

Two other Social Christians also were named, but have not yet given their consent to serve. They are Jean Duvieusart, commerce, and Francois Vanderstraeten-Waillet, foreign trade.

GREEK SHIP HITS MINE OFF DUTCH MAINLAND

AMSTERDAM, the Netherlands, (Thursday), March 20 — (AP) The 4,355-ton Greek steamer Alexandra struck a mine yesterday off the West Frisian islands and was reported to be sinking.

Tugboats and a lifeboat from the island of Terschelling in the West Frisian group off the Dutch mainland put out to aid the freighter.

Offices of the north south Holland Lifeboat Co. said it was not known whether the company's lifeboat yet had contacted the freighter.

The vessel sailed from Baltimore Feb. 19 and was en route to Amsterdam with a cargo of hides.

King Gustav Departs for Nice

STOCKHOLM, March 19 (AP).—For the first time since pre-war days King Gustav of Sweden left his country tonight for his favorite haunt—Nice, on the French Riviera. He is eighty-eight.

Assassination Plot

Cairo, March 19 (AP)—El Sayed Jamal El Husseini, acting head of the Arabs' Palestine executive committee, said today the Palestine Government had discovered a plot to assassinate him.

He declined to comment further but a reliable source said the plot was organized because of the anti-Zionist campaign waged by Husseini.

British Policeman Is Killed By Bomb

Jerusalem, March 19 (AP)—One British policeman was killed and five other Britons were injured when a bomb exploded among them as they were returning from a motion-picture theater to their quarters north of Hadera, between Haifa and Tel Aviv, it was officially announced tonight.

Moslem League To Boycott Asia Parley Sunday (N)

Calls It Only an Attempt of India's Hindu Congress to Boost Itself Politically

NEW DELHI, March 19 (AP).—The Moslem League announced tonight that it will boycott the Asian Relations Conference which opens here Sunday. The decision was taken by the party's representation in the Central Legislature, on the ground that the conference was organized by the all-India Congress party without the cooperation of the Moslem League.

The legislative group, headed by Liaquat Ali Khan, general secretary of the Moslem League, called the conference a "thinly disguised attempt on the part of the Hindu Congress to boost itself politically as the prospective leader of Asiatic peoples."

Upward of 250 delegates from two dozen countries surrounding India are expected to attend the conference, called to develop cultural and social solidarity among Asian nations.

Penalties Stiffened

LAHORE, India, March 19 (AP)—The Punjab Governor, Sir Evan Jenkins, proclaimed the death penalty today for a number of offenses in the Punjab, where Moslem "trouble makers" were blamed officially for "very large" casualties among the Sikh and Hindu populations in communal rioting.

A communique said that the death penalty would be imposed for "attempted murder, kidnapping and their variants, rape, robbery and their variants and arson."

Quiet was reported in most sections of the Province but a bad rioting condition was reported in Northwest Punjab.

RAF Plane Crash In Ceylon Kills 11

Colombo, Ceylon, March 19 (AP)—A Royal Air Force transport plane, en route from Britain to Singapore, crashed and burned 4 miles north of Negombo airport today, killing eleven of the fifteen persons aboard.

The four survivors were removed to a hospital with severe burns and other injuries.

The plane had just taken off from the airport when one of its engines failed. The survivors included two of the six-man crew and two of the nine passengers.

TURKS JUBILANT

Istanbul, March 19 (A. P.).—Restrained jubilation crept through typical Oriental calm today as Turks learned officially that an American naval force will steam through the Dardanelles next month, the third such visit in Turkish waters within a year.

"America is backing up words with action," said one typical middle class Turk, "and I love it."

United States Ambassador Edwin C. Wilson spent nearly two hours with Premier Recep Peker last night on the eve of his departure for Washington to report to President Truman on Turkish reaction to the President's proposal last week to give financial help to Greece and Turkey. Wilson left by Pan American Clipper for Washington today, expecting to arrive in New York at 9:50 A. M., Eastern standard time tomorrow.

U. S. Policies Criticized

SINGAPORE, March 19 (AP).—"The Straits Times" declared today that the American occupation forces have "abandoned their attempt to democratize Japan, not publicly or officially, of course, but in fact that is what has happened."

Climaxing the most complete British-Malayan newspaper comment on Japan in months, the "Times" editorialized that the main reason for what it termed the United States policy change was the "American conviction that Soviet Russia is a world menace." The paper said the United States now is thinking of Japan as "the aircraft carrier of the Pacific" rather than "the nursery of Asiatic democracy."

The "Times," regarded as an important factor in British colonial public opinion, said economic necessities influenced General MacArthur to permit the emergence of the Rightists to full control over the Japanese government.

The paper also was skeptical that the social and political reforms that General MacArthur has instituted would remain permanent and expressed concern for the Malayas if Japan should quickly regain her pre-war position as the Far East's dominant industrial nation.

The American reform record is impressive, observed The Times, but added that "some observers on the spot" are convinced that the reforms are superficial and without "the slightest guarantee they will last after the Americans leave."

Hong Kong, March 19 (AP)—A reliable source said today Sir Alexander George Gerder Grantham had been appointed governor of the British crown colony of Hong Kong, succeeding Sir Mark Young, who plans to relinquish the post in May. Sir Alexander at present is governor and commander in chief in Fiji and high commissioner for the Western Pacific.

New Yellow River Route Held A Peril

Shanghai, March 19 (AP)—Chinese Communist relief officials charged today the Government had sent the Yellow River back into its old course without repairing downstream dikes, thereby imperiling hundreds of thousands of farmers living along the old bed.

The Central News Agency reported Sunday that the big gap in the dike at Huayuankou, about 400 miles northeast of Nanking, had been closed March 15.

The Communists accused the Chinese Government and UNRRA officials of violating "solemn agreements" by allowing the gap to be closed before resettling people.

"The dikes have not been repaired adequately," the Communists said.

The river was diverted southward from its old course in 1938 by blowing the dikes at Huayuankou in an attempt to halt the Japanese.

CHINA TAKES REDS' CAPITAL (N)

Chiang Announces Capture Of Undefended Yenan

H. K. MILKS

Nanking, March 19 (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek and his diminutive understudy, Gen. Chen Cheng, Army chief of staff, today presented the Kuomintang with the Government's greatest civil-war victory—capture of the Chinese Communist capital, Yenan.

The Government announced the seizure of undefended Yenan only a few hours after Chen had promised the Kuomintang (Government party) central executive committee that the city would be captured "within a very short time."

The victory appeared to be of greater psychological than military value, however.

Believed Bloodless

Despite Government reports that severe fighting preceded the entry into deserted Yenan, informed sources expressed belief the conquest was relatively bloodless. The Japanese had failed to capture the former stronghold in eight years of war.

The official Central News Agency, which received the first news of the occupation in a telephone call from Sian, reported that Communist Gen. Ho Lung's forces had 10,000 casualties and 2,000 more of his men were taken captive.

Conquest of Yenan opened the way for another long march if Mao Tse-tung, Communist party chief, and other leaders hope to join up the bulk of their forces in far-off Manchuria. The Government's capture a few months ago of Kalgan, formerly a big Communist military base about 125 miles northwest of Peiping, cut off the Communists' previous direct route from Yenan to Manchuria.

Long Roundabout Route

The fleeing Communists face a long, roundabout route across hundreds of miles of rough country if they make for Harbin, their North Manchurian base.

The speed with which Kuomintang troops crossed more than 50 miles of rugged mountain country to seize Yenan indicated the Communists made only a token defense of the area—as predicted—then retired according to prearranged plan.

The rapid conquest was expected to boost the stock of Government armies with members of the Kuomintang committee, some of whom openly had been critical of Chen's failure to reopen communications and defeat Communists elsewhere within a period they considered reasonable.

Strengthens Chiang's Hand

The victory strengthens the hand of the Generalissimo himself in efforts to bring about greater party unity and squelch factional strife within the organization.

Possession of Yenan without defeating Ho's hostile force, however, presents a grave supply problem. The Communists stripped the land for hundreds of miles around. They carried off grains and foodstuffs; they buried surpluses in carefully hidden deposits, well protected by land mines.

Government troops holding Yenan must be supplied for off—across more than 150 miles of barren, roadless mountains. A few days ago Communist leaders said: "Chiang Kai-shek's troops will find nothing. They had better carry their own food."

Observers said Government troops could expect to be subjected to steady, constant guerrilla threats.

The Government has propaganda value in being able to tell the world "we captured both the cradle and the capital of Chinese communism."

Chiang Forces Seize Yenan From Reds (D)

Nanking, March 19 (AP)—Fast-moving Chinese Nationalist troops took over the Chinese Communist capital of Yenan today at the end of a 200-mile forced march from Sian.

H. K. MILKS

The first of the Government forces at 10 A.M. today entered the Red capital—virtually a ghost city since its evacuation by Communists and the removal of practically everything that could be carried away.

City Undefended

Dispatches announcing the capture mentioned no fighting and it was presumed that Communist General Ho Lung's defense troops had faded into the Shensi province mountains. Party Chieftain Mao Tse-tung and other Communist leaders earlier were reported to have left the city.

The occupation, following swiftly behind an announcement by Minister of Information Peng Hsueh-pei that the Government column was within sight of Yenan, indicated that the Communists had made good their planned evacuation and carried out their decision not to defend the city.

The announcement from Peng had placed the troops of General Hu Chung-nan within sight of the city's outer defense towers, about 13 miles from the heart of Yenan.

Policy Change Seen

At that time, Peng declared that with Hu's column striking at the heart of the city and other Nationalist spearheads working along the flanking ridges, the position of the Communists was "untenable."

He said that "with the fall of Yenan the military situation in China will hinge on Communist policy, which up to the present has been to place implicit faith in armed forces."

Peng indicated that the Government considered the occupation of Yenan, which has been the focal point for Communist activity, the turning point in the civil war.

With the fall of the capital, Peng predicted, some of the Communist leaders may have a change of heart rather than face continued military disasters.

Radio Believed Moved

From an economic standpoint, the Nationalist troops will gain little from their occupation of the city. The Communists have been evacuating it for more than a month, with everything from camel trains to coolies carrying packs.

During their last visit here, Communist leaders boasted that "Chiang Kai-shek's soldiers will find nothing. They had better carry their own food."

Yenan's chief link with the outside world—the Communist Yenan radio—has been moved to a new location in the Shensi Mountains, it is believed. Sources which have monitored the radio daily said recent interruptions indicated the move.

There is no indication here of where any new Communist capital might be located. There is conjecture that Red Chief Mao and other party leaders might attempt a long overland march to set up headquarters in Manchuria, possibly in the area north of Harbin.

Americans Must Remain, Says Jap Premier

R. I. BRINES

Tokyo, March 19 (AP)—If the United States is going to insure world peace American must remain indefinitely in Japan after the Japanese peace treaty is signed, Premier Shigeru Yoshida said today.

The Premier voiced strong approval of General MacArthur's recent proposal for treaty negotiations and end of the occupation but made it plain that he preferred American protection to that of the United Nations upon signing the peace.

"We are having our battles with the Communists, too," Yoshida said, "and we have a very dangerous enemy to the north."

"Americans Must Remain"

He interpreted President Truman's recent address to mean that the United States was going to lead a world-wide opposition against communism, and said:

"You Americans have got to remain in Japan after the peace treaty if the United States is going to insure world peace. No matter how much you might want to go home, this must be done. It is to the advantage of your country as well as mine."

The American supervision should "continue as long as the world situation is so confused. . . . Otherwise all the work you put in to democratize Japan will collapse," Yoshida declared.

Comments On U.N.

In comment on General MacArthur's proposal that the United Nations take over the stewardship of Japan, the Premier said "I am not acquainted with the strength of the United Nations. But we know the League of Nations was not very good. Maybe the United Nations will not be ready when peace comes."

Yoshida predicted that military forces would be necessary in Japan, for a time at least, after the peace treaty was signed. MacArthur's statement did not foresee "military formations of any kind" as necessary after the treaty.

Cites Economic Needs

The premier said that MacArthur in his press conference report on the occupation gave the "Japanese people faith in a bright new world to replace the past uncertainty."

Yoshida stressed, as did MacArthur, the necessity of industrial and foreign trade revival for a healthy Japanese nation. After settlement of reparations, the premier said, industrial revival "could put the country on its feet perhaps after one year—if the Communists leave us alone."

Even if the Allies do not, the Japanese Government will probably be forecd to control Japanese imports indefinitely, the premier predicted, "because we have to repay our debt" to the United States for food imports under the occupation. That debt already is more than $200,000,000.

'Mess Of Pottage,' Or, Stew Of Verbiage

Tokyo, March 19 (AP)—A supreme headquarters officer urged the Japanese press today to caution voters not to sell their ballots "for a mess of pottage."

Non-Christian Japanese editors struggled with this one, not being up on their Bible, and finally rendered it into their own tongue this way: "Don't sell your vote for a cup of diluted cooked rice."

Tojo Court to Investigate '31 Manchurian Inquiry

TOKYO, March 19 (AP).—The International Military Tribunal decided today to investigate facts behind the 1931 Lytton Commission report to the League of Nations on the Manchurian incident.

The decison was made after defense counsel for former Premier Hideki Tojo and other war-crimes defendants contended that "influences" outside the evidence gathered by the commission affected its conclusions.

The prosecution charges that the seizure of Manchuria and the creation of the puppet state of Manchukuo was part of a conspiracy by the present trial defendants.

Japan's delegate to the League of Nations, Yosuke Matsuoka, a defendant who died after the war-crimes trial began, walked out of a League meeting when it adopted the Lytton Report, which held Japanese aggression to blame for seizure of Manchurian territory. Japan withdrew from the League shortly thereafter.

Korean Police (N) Kill 2 Russians

Seoul, Korea, March 19 (AP)—United States headquarters today announced Korean police killed two Russian soldiers in a squabble over rice—the Koreans' staff of life—at the American-Soviet occupation boundary.

The incident could lead to serious repercussions in the explosive boundary atmosphere. There have been previous Korean-Russian squabbles along the border—the thirty-eighth parallel—but this is the first time Russians have been reported slain.

United States Military Government and intelligence officers were investigating.

The killings occurred yesterday at San Jik Tong, which gazeteers place on the thirty-eighth parallel. If the village is north of the occupation border, the rice would belong to the Russians; if south, to the Koreans.

Tried To Remove Rice

Reports to United States intelligence authorities related:

Russian soldiers tried to remove the rice from storage. Korean police argued that it had been brought to the village on Soviet orders.

The Russians and Koreans laid down their arms, shook hands—and argued twenty minutes. The Koreans contended San Jik Tong pays taxes to the south Korean government; the Russians that the village is north of the parallel.

Suddenly, a Russian private struck a Korean policeman. A Russian lieutenant picked up a sub machine gun, fired wildly and hit his companion in a leg.

Policeman On Guard

A Korean policeman guarding the grounded arms then picked up a carbine and killed both Russians.

American military government officers said two Koreans attacked the Russian lieutenant and the Soviet enlisted man began firing. Then Korean police killed both Russians.

2 Russians Die In Clash Over Korean Zone (D)

Seoul, Korea, March 19 (AP)—American authorities reported today that two Russian soldiers were killed yesterday by Korean police at San Jik Tong in a dispute over whether the 30-house village was in the American or Soviet occupation zone.

Reports to American intelligence and military government department authorities varied on details, but it was agreed that both sides claimed a store of rice in the village which the Russians tried to remove.

A report to intelligence authorities said one Russian soldier struck a Korean policeman in the face, and the other picked up a submachine gun and began firing. A Korean policeman then picked up a carbine and killed both Russians.

A Different Account

The account, as received by the military government's department of public information, said two Koreans jumped a Russian lieutenant and a Russian enlisted man began firing.

The military government said Korean police killed the enlisted man and then the lieutenant as he broke free from the police and reached for his gun.

This account added that the bodies of the Russians were taken into the Soviet zone by about 50 Soviet troops, who were reported to have moved into the village today.

MAR 1947

Americans Investigating

American troops are investigating, but have not reported. Gazetteers show that San Jik Tong is directly on the line of the thirty-eighth parallel, which divides the two zones.

Both accounts agreed that the Russians tried to remove the rice and the Korean police contended that a farmer living in South Korea had brought it to town on Soviet orders.

20-Minute Argument

Before the shooting, both sides laid down their guns and shook hands all around, the report to intelligence said. Then for twenty minutes they argued over whether San Jik Tong was in the Russian or American zones.

The Russions maintained the village was in their area, and the police argued that the villagers paid taxes to the South Korean Government.

The report to intelligence officers related that after the Russian struck the Korean policeman, his companion picked up the submachine gun and in a wild burst hit his own man in the leg.

It was then, it added, that a Korean policeman picked up one carbine and began firing.

sion to sign the Cheribon agreement immediately, but added that he would be unable to turn his attention to the agreement until the situation at Modjokerto was settled.

Dr. Evatt Concurs

CANBERRA, Australia, March 19 (AP)—Australian Minister of External Affairs Herbert V. Evatt said today that the Australian Government agreed with General MacArthur's view that armed occupation of Japan should be terminated as early as possible.

Dr. Evatt said that the Government considered that a Japanese peace treaty should be expedited to enable the most rapid definition of Japan's future position.

Meanwhile Sydney papers expressed doubt about the wisdom of General MacArthur's suggestion that occupation forces should be withdrawn when the treaty was signed.

The Daily Telegraph said: "One can hardly believe that in so short a time since the Japanese soldiery were enjoying the sadistic pleasure of bashing and murdering their helpless prisoners—to the plaudits of the Japanese nation—these people have come to endorse the ethical values they outraged."

Menzies Wants U. S. in Pacific

CANBERRA, Australia, March 19 (AP).—Former Prime Minister R. G. Menzies, leader of the opposition Liberal party, told the House of Representatives tonight that Australia should let the United States have as many points of mutual defense and interest in the Pacific as were necessary.

U.N. Atom Group Speeds Controls

F. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N.Y., March 19 (AP) The United Nations Atomic Energy Commission decided by a rare unanimous vote today that its committees must begin work soon on the issue of an international control agency for atomic energy, one of the sharpest points of difference between the United States and Russia.

The commission, at its first meeting since December 30, accepted the atomic problem from the Security Council and passed it on to committee. The first committee meeting might be as early as next Tuesday.

It was announced meanwhile that the United Nations Commission for Conventional Armaments will hold its first meeting at 3 P.M. Monday. This commission will deal with the problem of limiting all armaments except atomic and mass destruction weapons. It appeared likely to run into procedural snags on the correct definition of the weapons it can discuss.

In the Atomic Energy Commission, Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate and commission chairman for this month, offered the resolution sending the atomic questions to committee and providing priority for the control problem, and he was supported by Warren R. Austin, United States delegate.

Alexandre Parodi, of France, objected to the priority provision in the Russian resolution. Gromyko finally agreed that the committees would deal "in particular" with the control organs instead of "first of all," as he had proposed.

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP) The Greek-Turkish-Russian problem split the Republican majority in Congress three ways tonight on the eve of the first public hearings on President Truman's appeal to bulwark Greece and Turkey against Communism.

New demands arose for turning the problem over to the United Nations, some G.O.P. members suggested a hands-off attitude to let the problem find its own answer and others strung along, at least tentatively, with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) who supports Mr. Truman on the matter.

Hearings Open Today

The House Foreign Affairs committee got set to begin hearings tomorrow on the President's request to step in with $400,000,000 in aid for Turkey and Greece, now that Great Britain is pulling out.

Dozens of lawmakers already have served notice that they will seek fullest details on the request for the money and the authority to send material, federal employes and "limited" military missions to the two countries.

The day's developments on foreign policy issues included:

1. The House Foreign Affairs committee reached formal agreement on a separate measure authorizing expenditures of $350,000,000 for foreign relief under close American supervision and stringent bars against discrimination in its distribution.

Hoover Gives Data

2. A House Appropriations subcommittee called in former President Herbert Hoover and Secretary of War Patterson for information on relief needs, indicating that funds for the work may be included in an emergency money bill to reach the floor next week.

3. Senator Brewster (R-Me) predicted that "within the next two weeks" the United States will change its recent policy toward China and give firmer support to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in his troubles with Communism. "They can't urge that we kiss Communists in China and kick them in Greece," Brewster told reporters. He said he hopes that the authority of General Douglas MacArthur in Japan will be extended to China.

4. The 11 Republicans on the Missouri congressional delegation demanded that the administration lay all its cards on the table, and explain to Congress whether intervention in Greece and Turkey will mean "abandonment of our hopes and efforts to build a United Nations."

5. Senator Hawkes (R-NJ) asked in an interview whether the United Nations could take over the responsibility for Greece and Turkey when its facilities are organized, and Senator Smith (R-NJ) demanded that the administration reconcile its support of UN with its new program. His inquiry was submitted to Senator Vandenberg for relay to the State department.

6. William Benton, assistant secretary of state, said totalitarian countries are waging a campaign of "psychological warfare" against the United States. He added in a New York speech that it amounts to "international libel."

Relief Plan Approved.

While this informal debate was going on, the House Foreign Affairs Committee approved legislation authorizing a $350,000,000 appropriation for relief in Austria, Hungary, Italy, Greece, Poland and China.

This measure contemplates chiefly food for hungry people and is completely separate from the proposal to help Greece and Turkey resist Communist aggression.

The committee's action cleared the way for it to begin hearings tomorrow on the Greco-Turkish aid proposal.

The House Appropriations Committee must handle a measure actually appropriating the $350,000,000 for relief. It began consideration by hearing former President Herbert Hoover in a closed session on the need. Mr. Hoover recently made a survey of food conditions in Europe.

Smith and Hawkes turned their questions about the United Nations over to Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.). Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, is compiling a questionnaire to be submitted to the State Department abou the Greek-Turkish aid.

Ask Broad Accounting.

Other Republican lawmakers made clear they will insist on a broad accounting of administration foreign policy before backing a policy of building fences against Communism in the two countries.

Along that line, Smith demanded to know specifically whether the policy represented in the presidential request was to be construed as "a 'Truman doctrine' delimiting the further expansion of Russian control." He inquired whether it was to be confined "to the periphery of States surrounding Russia, which would include the Middle East as well as Turkey" or whether it would be "global."

"If the purpose of the United Nations charter is to outlaw war and to insist on the peaceful settlement of international disputes," he asked, "on what theory do we send military experts to train the Greeks to fight and to arm them?"

Vandenberg Serves Notice.

Vandenberg has served notice that he expects the State Department to furnish public answers to policy questions before the Senate committee takes up the aid request.

Smith asked also for information on how the $400,000,000 is to be spent and an estimate on future expenditures beyond that if Greece and Turkey do not recover rapidly. And he inquired whether the policy involves similar aid to "any other country in the world that is facing economic collapse."

Why would it not be wiser, he asked, to report the case to the United Nations, thus upholding the principle of collective security while acting in an emergency with which the U. N. was not able to cope immediately?

In that connection, he asked why the United States does not demand immediate organization of the U. N. military force to meet and handle such emergencies.

U. N. Cited in Near East Crisis

Senator Smith Asks How Truman Plan for Training Greeks Jibes With Charter.

Washington, March 19 (A. P.).—Increasing demands were voiced in Congress today for the administration to explain how its plan to help Greece and Turkey against Communist aggression squares with this country's obligations to the United Nations.

These were the latest developments:

1. Senator Smith (R.-N. J.) said that he is asking that the State Department justify the proposal to arm and train Greek troops in the light of the U. N. charter declaration against war and for peaceful settlement of world disputes.

2. Senator Hawkes (R.-N. J.) said that he wanted to know whether arrangements could be made for the U. N. to take over the responsibility of Greece and Turkey when its facilities for such a program are organized. He added in a statement that he believes it would be wise to ask U. N. members if they support United States action. (When proposing the aid, President Truman said the U. N., in its present stage of development could not act speedily enough.)

3. Eleven Republican legislators from Missouri, including Senators Donnell and Kem, released a letter to "The People of Missouri" demanding that the Administration disclose any secret agreements made at Potsdam, Yalta, Teheran and or other conference. They also asked: "Does the President's proposal carry with it the abandonment of our hopes and efforts to build a United Nations?"

Dutch Aides Quitting, Report

Batavia, March 19 (AP)—An authoritative source reported today that two members of the Dutch Commission General had resigned in protest against the Netherlands Government's decision to sign the Cheribon agreement ending the nineteen-month-old Indonesian revolution.

The two were identified as Prof. S. O. Posthuma, financial and economic adviser, whose appointment as commissioner general had been expected, and Prof. J. H. W. Verzijl, political-legal adviser.

The Cheribon agreement, negotiated last November, provides for Dutch recognition of the Indonesian Republic's sovereignty over Java, Sumatra and Madoera as an equal partner with the Netherlands under the Dutch Crown.

In deciding to sign the agreement without further delay, the Dutch stipulated that any differences over interpretation would be submitted to a foreign arbiter.

Premier Sutan Sjahrir of the Indonesian Republic telegraphed William H. C. Schermerhorn, the Dutch Commissioner General, from Jogjakarta today that he was "very pleased" by the Netherlands decision.

Peleliu Marines Hunt 12 Japanese Holdouts

PEARL HARBOR, March 19 (AP).—Several detachments of United States marines are being flown to Peleliu to catch twelve holdout Japanese who have been hurling grenades at marine patrols, marine headquarters here announced today. Forty-one marines left Guam, twenty-one more were flown from Pearl Harbor Monday and fifteen will leave here tomorrow.

The Japanese are believed to be led by a former navy officer. They have been harassing the island—one of the Palau group—since its capture in 1944, living in caves and jungles.

Landon Backs Truman On Aid Even If "Deciding For War"

Wichita, Kan., March 19 (AP)—Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential nominee in 1936, tonight urged that President Truman be given "everything he asks" in proposed aid to Greece and Turkey even though he "may be deciding for war with Russia."

In a speech at Temple Emanuel, Landon said Mr. Truman's proposed $400,000,000 Turko-Grecian aid has as its purpose "saving the Balkans from communism."

"If Greece falls into the Soviet group," the Kansas Republican leader said, "so will Turkey, Iran, Iraq, Egypt, Italy and most of Europe."

Likened To Lend-Lease Decision

In backing the President's proposals for financial help and military advice to Greece and Turkey, Landon said, the nation may be "deciding for war with Russia—just as much as we decided for war with Germany, when lend-lease was passed."

Landon added:

"Either we perform now—or we are likely to follow the time-worn paths of procrastination, right into another war—10, 15 or 20 years from now. . . .

"Now is the time to exert our strength—our determination to have peace—or fight if need be.

"There is no other nation, or combination of nations that can lick us—and the other democracies.

"This is not war talk; this is just common sense.

"I am simply trying to say that in strength and a sure knowledge of that strength is the only road to peace. . . .

"Only if Uncle Sam of the Big Stick speaks with a powerful voice and acts accordingly can we hope to diminish the threat of war clouds."

Landon said the Truman policy "is Marshallian militaristic realism vs. one-worldian star-gazing," and "bypasses the United Nations."

Called Only First-Class Power

Asserting that "today we are the only first-class power in the world," Landon added that "Britain is exhausted, Germany and Japan are destroyed, and France—France is France.

"What few Americans realize is that Russia is as weak—if not even weaker than Britain. Only the iron curtain withholds from the world generally, what our statesmen have known specifically—that internal conditions in Russia are chaotic.

"Yet the ridiculous part of our whole foreign policy is the way we have let Russia win pot after pot with a pair deuces, while we laid down four of a kind."

Brewster Sees Change In U.S. China Policy

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Senator Brewster (R., Maine) said today that he is certain there will be a change in the United States Government's policy in China "within the next two weeks" giving firmer support to Chiang Kai-shek.

Brewster also said he hopes that the authority of General MacArthur will be "extended to China."

"They can't urge that we kiss Communists in China and kick them in Greece," Brewster said. "UNRRA is demanding that Chiang feed Communists in China while President Truman is demanding that we exterminate the Communist influence in Greece."

Source Undisclosed

Brewster declined to disclose the source of his information about a "change in our policy in China" but said the data came from "those who feel strongly about certain changes in our policy in China."

"Someone ought to explain the difference between communism in Greece and China," Brewster said.

He said MacArthur "should be given charge of the Orient. He knows them and they know him. He might be named vice regent there."

Brewster said he discussed this with MacArthur in 1943 and 1946 when he visited the Orient as a member of the War Investigating Committee. He added that MacArthur did not indicate his views.

Asked if he is not reversing the recommendations of General Marshall, who served as special Ambassador to China before becoming Secretary of State, the Senator replied:

"No. I would like to see MacArthur put in charge and then get his views on what should be done."

Brewster said rumors that Chiang has diverted supplies sent him to fight the Japs for purposes of an internal battle with Chinese Communist forces "were Communist inspired."

"If we are to extend the good-neighbor policy, the first move should be in the Orient," Brewster said. "A stronger China is the best guarantee for peace in the Pacific and perhaps the world."

Loan Action Dropped

Brewster said that action on a proposed $500,000,000 loan to bolster Chiang's Government has been dropped in recent months.

"All these questions will come up when we get into the proposed aid for Greece," he said.

The Senator added that he had "repeatedly urged that General MacArthur be given broader jurisdiction in the Orient because he is the best qualified in the field." He said he has pressed this point with President Truman.

Brewster said there should be "a firmer hand in support of" Chiang's Government.

TRUMAN ASKS RETENTION OF EXPORT POWER

President In Request To Congress Advances Three Arguments

Washington, March 19 (AP)—President Truman today asked Congress to continue his wartime power to control shipments abroad, as a curb on inflation at home and as a tool to help those countries "whose existence must be preserved."

Mr. Truman's request, in a message dispatched from the White House before his scheduled return from a Florida vacation, did not name the countries.

The implication, however, was that they include Greece and Turkey, for whom he has asked $400,000,000 in special aid.

His Three Main Arguments

Mr. Truman laid down three main agruments for continuing export controls a year beyond June 30.

1. A free outflow of goods, foodstuffs and materials would make worse the scarcities at home and impair industrial production.

2. Uncontrolled shipments into the higher-price markets abroad would encourage domestic inflation and increase "the already substantial burden of living costs borne by the American people."

3. Export control is "an important instrument" for the meeting of international obligations—including the channeling of goods to countries "whose existence must be preserved" and which have been granted loans for the purchase of American supplies.

Quick End To Controls Pledged

About 500 items, mostly foods, now are under export curbs, compared with a wartime total of more than 3,000. Mr. Truman promised the fastest possible removal of controls, but predicted that the need for them will "remain acute for some time."

The message requested that the extension be approved "well in advance" of the June 30 deadline. A delay would be "unsettling to business and would handicap the planning and execution of our food and other export programs," he explained.

Demands Of Starving Nations

Mr. Truman noted that inflation abroad has progressed much further than in this country, and the demands of war-starved nations are extremely large.

"Our international responsibilities cannot be fulfilled without this machinery" of export control, he went on. "In its absence, foreign purchasing would tend to be concentrated on those commodities in greatest world shortage.

"Not only would our domestic supply and price structure be seriously affected, but the commodities would go to destinations where the need is comparatively less pressing."

House Resolution on Control of Relief to Nations in Need

MAR 1947

House Unit Votes 350 Million Relief To Six Countries

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee voted today for expenditure of $350,000,000 for relief in five European countries and China.

While it was acting, a House Appropriations subcommittee discussed with former President Herbert Hoover and Secretary of War Patterson the need for the relief.

The Appropriations Committee must handle legislation making the actual appropriation.

Lays Down Policy

The bill approved by the foreign affairs group simply lays down the policy and establishes conditions under which the relief money may be spent.

Countries which would receive the relief are Italy, Greece, Poland, Hungary, Austria and China.

Chairman Eaton (R., N.J.) refused to disclose the Foreign Affairs Committee's vote or the text of the bill. It will be reported to the House tomorrow.

But Representative Vorys (R., Ohio), a committee member, said the measure is a "compromise" and is designed to limit relief to countries where "we are sure that the relief will be fairly distributed."

Cautions State Department

"I believe," he said, "the State Department will make a great mistake if they continue to preserve secrecy on their estimates of the relative relief needs of the countries involved."

He said that he would offer an amendment to create a joint congressional committee to study relief needs, "and the ability of the United States to furnish relief aid and to approve all expenditures in excess of $200,000,000 from the appropriations authorized by this bill."

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—The text of the $350,000,000 foreign relief measure approved by the House Foreign Affairs Committee today:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, that there is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the President not to exceed $350,000,000 for the provision of relief assistance to the people of countries devastated by war, such relief assistance to be limited to the following: food, medical supplies, processed and unprocessed materials for clothing, fuel, fertilizer, pesticides and seed.

Section 2

(a) Under the direction of the President, such relief assistance shall be provided in the form of transfers of supplies, or the establishment in this country of credits subject to the control of the President, in such quantities and on such terms as the President may determine; except that no such transfers of supplies or establishment of credits may be made after June 30, 1948.

(b) In carrying out this joint resolution, funds appropriated pursuant thereto may be used to pay necessary expenses related to the providing of such relief assistance, including expenses of or incident to the procurement, storage, transportation and shipment of supplies transferred under Subsection (a) or of supplies purchased from credits established under Subsection (a).

(c) Sums from the appropriations made pursuant to this joint resolution may be allocated for any of the purposes of this joint resolution to any department, agency or independent establishment of the Government and such sums shall be available for obligation and expenditure in accordance with the laws governing obligations and expenditures of department, agency or independent establishment, or organizational unit thereof concerned, and without regard to Sections 3709 and 3648 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (U. S. C., 1940 edition, Title 41, Sec. 5, and Title 31, Sec. 529).

(d) When any department, agency or independent establishment of the Government receives request from the Government of any country for which credits have been established under Subsection (a) and receives, from credits so established, advancements or reimbursements for the cost and necessary expenses, it may furnish, or procure and furnish (if advancements are made), supplies within the category of relief assistance as defined in Section 1 and may use sums so received for the purposes set forth in Subsection (b) of this section. When any such reimbursement is made it shall be credited, at the option of the department, agency or independent establishment concerned, either to the appropriation, fund or account utilized in incurring the obligation, or to an appropriate appropriation, fund or account which is current at the time of such reimbursement.

Section 3

No relief assistance shall be provided under the authority of this joint resolution to the people of any country unless the Government of such country has given assurance satisfactory to the President that

(a) The supplies transferred or otherwise made available pursuant to this joint resolution, as well as similar supplies produced locally or imported from outside sources, will be distributed among the people of such country without discrimination as to race, creed, or political belief;

(b) Representatives of the Government of the United States and of the press and radio of the United States will be permitted to observe freely and to report fully regarding the distribution and utilization of said supplies;

(c) Full and continuous publicity will be given within such country as to the purpose, source, character, scope, amounts and progress of the United States relief program carried on therein pursuant to this joint resolution;

(d) If food, medical supplies, fertilizer or seed is transferred or otherwise made available to such country pursuant to this joint resolution, no articles of the same character will be exported or removed from such country while need therefor for relief purposes continues;

(e) Such country has taken or is taking, in so far as possible, the economic measures necessary to reduce its relief needs and to provide for its own future reconstruction;

(f) Upon request of the President, it will furnish promptly information concerning the production, use, distribution, importation and exportation of any supplies which affect the relief needs of the people of such country; and

(g) Representatives of the Government of the United States will be permitted to supervise the distribution among the people of such country of the supplies transferred or otherwise made available pursuant to this joint resolution.

Section 4

When supplies are transferred or otherwise made available to any country pursuant to this joint resolution, the President shall cause representatives of the Government of the United States (1)

MAR 1947

MAR 1947

to supervise the distribution of such supplies among the people of such country and (2) to observe and report with respect to the carrying out of the assurances given to the President pursuant to Section 3.

Section 5

(A) The President shall promptly terminate the provision of relief assistance to the people of any country whenever he determines (1) that, by reason of changed conditions, the provision of relief assistance of the character authorized by this joint resolution is no longer necessary, (2) that any of the assurances given pursuant to Section 3 are not being carried out, (3) that an excessive amount of any supplies transferred or otherwise made available pursuant to this joint resolution, or of similar supplies produced locally or imported from outside sources, is being transferred or otherwise made available pursuant to this joint resolution, or similar supplies produced locally or imported from outside sources, are being exported or removed from such country.

(B) Relief assistance to the people of any country, under this joint resolution, shall, unless sooner terminated by the President, be terminated whenever such termination is directed by concurrent resolution of the two Houses of the Congress.

Section 6

The authority of the President under Sections 2, 3 and 4 may, to the extent the President directs, be exercised by the Secretary of State.

Section 7

The President shall submit to the Congress quarterly reports of expenditures and activities under authority of this joint resolution.

TAX COLLECTIONS SEND UP SURPLUS

Secretary Snyder Predicts Balancing Of Budget

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The surplus of Government income over spending for this fiscal year soared to more than $2,000,000,000 today as a result of income-tax collections.

The first tally of tax receipts after last Saturday's deadline showed $626,778,431. This figure, which will be swelled on a later count, looked good to Government fiscal experts.

They now hope that when all the figures are in at the end of the fiscal year June 30, revenues will top budget estimates of $40,230,000,000 by $1,000,000,000 or more.

Predicts Balancing

John W. Snyder, Secretary of the Treasury, predicts the budget will be balanced for the first time in seventeen years.

At a news conference, Snyder said the Treasury is opposed to earmarking the prospective budget surplus for immediate cash payment of GI terminal-pay bonds.

Such a proposal has been advanced by Republicans in Congress.

The bonds, at present, run for five years and accumulate interest at the rate of 2½ per cent a year. They total about $2,000,000,000.

Opposes Prepayment

Snyder said the Treasury does "not encourage prepayment" because it "would serve the holders best to keep the bonds" until maturity.

He said "the longer soldiers are out of service" the more likely it is that they will find more beneficial forms of investment.

Snyder also recalled the Treasury's past opposition to prepayment on the ground that it would add to the huge amount of circulating cash and bring an upward pressure on the price level.

C. Of C. Urges 20 Per Cent Tax Slash

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The United States Chamber of Commerce told Congress today that a flat reduction of individual income taxes by " twenty per cent or even more" is of "urgent importance."

In a statement filed with the House Ways and Means Committee, the chamber said it believed that the cut could be granted this year and at the same time a sizeable reduction could be made in the national debt.

The National Association of Manufacturers previously filed a statement supporting the twenty per cent across-the-board slash proposed by Ways and Means Chairman Knutson (R., Minn.),

The chamber's statement was submitted as Republicans began considering revision of the Knutson bill to give larger reductions in taxes to persons with small incomes.

Opposition In GOP Ranks

Considerable opposition in House Republican ranks has developed against the "across the board" principle. Representative Engel (R., Mich.) has described Knutson's measure as a "rich man's bill."

In the chamber's statement, General Manager Ralph Bradford wrote:

"Our (Federal Finance) committee believes there is urgent need to reduce the inordinate burden on individual taxpayers in order to encourage savings and investment and a go-ahead determination which will be of crucial importance with any lessening demand for goods and services."

Any cut will probably not become effective before July 1—the start of the 1948 fiscal year. Knutson said his committee is studying whether that date should be specified instead of making a reduction retroactive to January 1.

Kean To Ask Delay

Knutson's announcement came after Representative Kean (R., N.J.), a committee member, declared his determination to press for a delay in the effective date.

Kean insisted that making the cut apply back to January 1 might kill current prospects for a balanced Federal budget this fiscal year—the first since 1930.

Senator Taft (Ohio), chairman of the Republican Senate Policy Committee, has already suggested that any reduction be made effective at the start of the Government's accounting year, July 1.

House consideration of the tax issue was postponed from next Monday to Wednesday, while the revisions are under study.

It was not immediately clear whether the proposed changes would satisfy the Republicans.

Knutson called for the study after a show of hands at a meeting of the House GOP Steering Committee indicated a majority prefers to give more relief to persons with small incomes.

23 To 26 Per Cent Cut

If the revenue loss is not too great, Knutson said, the tax on net incomes up to $2,000 (gross income after personal exemptions) might be reduced by 23 to 26 per cent, instead of 20 per cent.

He emphasized that "there is no disposition" to give other taxpayers, with incomes up to $302,000, less than a 20 per cent reduction. Above $302,000 the cut would be 10.5 per cent.

The Ways and Means group has set a showdown for Friday on the proposed changes. Speaker Martin (R., Mass.) will call a conference of all House Republicans later to test party sentiment. Then the matter will go into the House for a vote.

Home Building In January at Post-War Peak

59,300 Permanent Houses Completed; Time Cut as Material Shortage Eases

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP),—The housing industry set a post-war construction record in January by completing 59,300 permanent houses and apartments—the largest number of such dwellings finished in any month since the end of the war.

This total, announced by Housing Expediter Frank R. Creedon in his report on housing activities in January, was 1,300 above the number of permanent units completed in December, and 40,600 higher than the total for January, 1946.

Mr. Creedon reported also that completion of all types of dwelling units reached a new monthly high in January—an over-all total of 98,700 units.

In addition to new permanent homes and apartments, this includes 6,000 units converted from existing dwellings, 5,000 trailers, 26,600 accommodations built under the government's temporary re-use housing program, and 1,800 temporary accommodations built by cities and educational institutions.

The December total for all types was 93,300.

Housing officials attributed the continuing increase in completions to greater availability of housing materials and a resulting drop in construction time. They pointed out also that 217,100 permanent-type units started under the emergency housing program last year were carried over into this year for completion.

One official told a reporter that preliminary surveys show that housing construction time, normally three to four months but up to eight or nine months in some areas, "is beginning to drop now that materials are coming into greater supply." He said that in some sections where the completion time had stretched to nine months the drop has been as much as one-third.

Mr. Creedon said dwellings put under construction in January totaled 53,600, the lowest number since January, 1946, when 36,100 units were started. Those started in January of this year include 42,100 permanent houses and apartments, 1,700 more than in December; 2,500 conversions, 5,000 trailers, 3,300 government-financed temporary accommodations and 700 temporary accommodations started by loval governments or educational institutions.

The expediter said 115,600 temporary accommodations were in various stages of construction at the end of January, but added that this type of building will show a steady decline, since "there will be little additional activity in the temporary programs."

Mr. Creedon said production of most building materials continued at a high rate in January, but added that the output of some critical materials, such as gypsum board and lath, cast-iron soil pipe and millwork, "is still insufficient to meet current demand."

CARSON OPPOSES GENERAL RENT RISE

Washington, March 19 (A. P.).—Ivan D. Carson, Federal director of rent controls, told the House Banking Committee today that a 10 or 15 per cent across the board increase in rents is not justified. He urged continuation of rent ceilings and said:

"Our judgment is there is not a condition of general hardship among landlords to justify a percentage increase of all rents. The great bulk of landlords who would get increases are not hardship cases. We now have machinery to grant adjustments in hardship cases."

In answer to questioning by Chairman Wolcott (R.-Mich.), Carson said he could not see much objection to the idea of the Federal Government pulling out of rent controls, if States would adopt controls under minimum standards prescribed by Congress.

He noted, however, that most State legislatures meeting this year have adjourned or are near adjournment, and that only four or five have set up rent control machinery for operation if the Federal controls are lifted.

ATOMIC RULES MADE TIGHTER

Commission Extends Wartime Controls Over Materials

Washington, March 19 (AP)—A system of tight Government control over the source materials of atomic energy—uranium and thorium—was announced tonight by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The regulations, continuing the wartime controls over uranium and extending them to thorium, will be effective at midnight March 31. (The only existing control is under the Civilian Production Administration, which is scheduled to go out of existence on March 31.)

The regulations will put into effect licensing provisions of the atomic energy law enacted last year. They will require a license for any person to transfer, deliver, receive title to or export from the United States any atomic energy source materials.

Existing Articles Exempt

These materials are defined as any containing as much as one-twentieth of one per cent by weight of uranium, thorium or any combination of these elements.

However, the commission said the restrictions, with the exception of that relating to exports, will not apply to delivery during one calendar month of uranium or thorium ores which contain less than ten pounds of the pure metals. Nor will they apply to certain manufactured products such as ceramic products, glassware, photographic material and vacuum tubes.

The commission said these manufactured materials were exempted because "it is not generally feasible to extract any substantial quantities of the uranium or thorium incorporated in them."

No Future Supply

It added, however, that after April 1 no further supply of uranium will be authorized for inclusion in the manufacture of these products. Articles already manufactured may be transferred without regard to licensing, but a license will be required to export any articles containing uranium or thorium.

The commission said it hoped to grant licenses "in a manner that will interfere as little as possible with the conduct of normal business activities." It estimated that about 400 commercial and research firms use uranium and about 200 will be affected by the regulation on thorium.

MORGENTHAU RETURNS 'SOME' DIARY PAPERS

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP) Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder said today that some of the official documents included in the voluminous diary of his predecessor, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., have been returned to the department.

More are coming in at intervals, he told a news conference, and he is sure they will all be sent in under the agreement reached with Morgenthau.

Publication of excerpts from the 600-volume journal several weeks ago led Snyder to ask for all official papers in the record, on the ground that they belonged in Treasury files.

Morgenthau agreed to send back government documents but not the rest of his detailed account of his years in the Roosevelt cabinet.

'Fascist Organizations In U.S.' Facing Probe

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities ordered today an investigation of what Chairman Thomas (R., N.J.), called "fascist organizations in the United States."

The committee also decided to invite Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party, to testify at hearings next week on bills to outlaw the party.

Thomas named a subcommittee of Representatives McDowell (R., Pa.), Vail (R., Ill.), and Wood (D., Ga.), to look into fascist organizations. Thomas did not name any of them. The order for the inquiry was based on a preliminary report by McDowell.

Other witnesses invited to appear on communism are former Gov. George Earle of Pennsylvania; Eddie Rickenbacker, president of Eastern Airlines; Joseph B. Kennedy, former Ambassador to Britain; Peter Cacchione, three times elected to the New York City Council as a Communist; and Representative O'Konski (R., Wis.).

Legion Pilgrimage To France Is Off

Indianapolis, March 19 (A. P.).—Paul H. Griffith, national commander, announced today the American Legion has postponed a pilgrimage to France this year because of "obstacles of travel."

The pilgrimage had been planned to follow the legion's twenty-ninth annual convention in New York August 29-September 1.

Army Major Predicts Rocket Race To Build Military Posts on Mars

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP) A race to establish military outposts on Mars, using rockets with a velocity of 26,000 miles an hour to span the 400,000,000 miles from the earth, was forecast tonight by Maj. James R. Randolph.

"Rockets capable of going to Mars may come more quickly than we now think possible. And when they come, there will be a race to get there first with an adequate expedition," he wrote in the Army Ordnance Association Journal. The association, founded in 1919, is a civilian organization pledged to a policy of preparedness.

Citing American occupation of World War II bases in remote parts of the earth, such as the Aleutians and the lonely reaches of the Pacific, Randolph declared:

Sees Occupation Expansion

"In World War III, we cannot limit such occupation to the earth alone. We must extend it out into space as far as rockets can go and to our neighbor worlds in space."

An attack from Mars, he said, would afford "vastly greater opportunities for secrecy and surprise" than a sudden assault from earth against an enemy country.

"Money and lives will be saved and victory made more certain by all that we do in peacetime to prepare for such occupation—studying these other worlds, sending expeditions to them, and devising equipment to meet their special needs."

He also noted the prospect of sending "satellite ships" to cruise in the vast unknown outside the earth's air belt and circle "round and round the earth like little man-made moons."

The whole problem of space navigation, he said, depends on the development of a multiple-unit rocket composed of standard-sized rockets, each acting independently and capable of being "stacked together" to make a rocket of any desired size and speed. As the propulsion power of each section is exhausted, it would be cast off, finally leaving only the "pay load" section to reach its destination.

The ordnance journal, describing Randolph as a noted mathematician and engineer, said his views "may appear at first glance" to be an outline to a Jules Verne story.

"But in this day of atomic energy, jet propulsion and man-made satellites," the magazine said in an editorial note, "the possibility of interplanetary travel comes ever nearer."

Randolph said the moon would "look even better than Mars as a base from which to attack the earth," except that the moon is an airless, waterless, lifeless world.

Britain Allocated More U. S. Meat

Washington, March 19 (A. P.).—Great Britain has been allocated 25,000,000 additional pounds of meat for the first quarter of this year, Department of Agriculture officials said today. This brings the quarter's allocation to 50,000,000 pounds.

Britain is buying the meat in the open market. It will be largely beef, with a small quantity of mutton. No pork was included, because of the current domestic shortage.

U.S. To Call On Sweden To Continue Trade Pact

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Government officials disclosed tonight that a United States note to Sweden, calling on that country to continue the fair-treatment terms of a 1935 trade treaty, will be sent to Stockholm in the next few days.

The note will be sent in connection with Sweden's action last Saturday restricting a long list of imports because of her serious exchange difficulties.

Officials said the note will not be a formal protest and will be mild in tone.

MAR 1947

IN THE CONFERENCE OF THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS, MEANWHILE, SOVIET DEPUTY FEODOR T.GOUSEV SURPRISINGLY AGREED WITH GEN.MARK W. CLARK OF THE UNITED STATES THAT SOME CLAUSE BE WORKED OUT FOR THE AUSTRIAN PEACE TREATY REGARDING AUSTRIAN NAZIS SO THAT THE WORD "NAZI" WOULD BE USED RATHER THAN THE WORD "FASCIST." CLARK HAD OBJECTED TO SOVIET PRESS ATTACKSUPON JOHN FOSTER DULLES, ADVISER TO SECRETARY MARSHALL, IN WHICH HE WAS CALLED A "FASCIST." CLARK SAID THE RUSSIANS WERE LIKELY TO CALL ALMOST ANBODY A FASCIST.

MOLOTOV TOLD THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS HE SUPPORTED FRENCH DEMANDS THAT THIS CONFERENCE PROVIDE DEFINITELY FOR COAL DELIVERIES TO FRANCE. HE SAID IT WAS NOT CLEAR TO HIM WHY BRITISH ZONE PRODUCTION WAS ONLY 43 PER CENT OF PRE-WAR CAPACITY IN ANTHRACITE WHILE IN THE SOVIET ZONE 74 PER CENT PRODUCTION HAD BEEN ACHIEVED.

MOLOTOV ADDED THAT THE BRITISH ZONE BROWN COAL PRODUCTION WAS ONLY 74 PER CENT OF PRE-WAR, WHILE IN THE SOVIET ZONE IT WAS 84 PER CENT.

BEVIN, ON THE OTHER HAND, SAID HE COULD NOT ACCEPT THE FRENCH PROPOSAL PUT FORWARD BY FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, THAT A DEFINITE PROPORTION OF GERMANY'S ANNUAL COAL PRODUCTION BE ALLOCATED FOR EXPORT. HE SAID HE APPRECIATED THE NEEDS OF FRANCE, BUT HE DID NOT CONSIDER THIS PROPOSAL PRACTICABLE.

BEVIN SAID THE FIRST OBJECTIVE OF AN ECONOMIC PROGRAM MUST BE TO OBTAIN A LEVEL OF INDUSTRY WHICH WOULD ENABLE GERMANY TO BE SELF-SUPPORTING. THIS, HE SAID, MADE THE COAL COMMITMENT IMPOSSIBLE. HE PROMISED, HOWEVER, THAT THE BRITISH WOULD DO WHAT THEY COULD TO INCREASE COAL EXPORTS.

MOSCOW, MARCH 19-(AP)-TOP AMERICAN OFFICIALS PREDICTED TODAY THAT UNLESS THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS FINDS--AND AGREES UPON--SOME OVERALL SOLUTION FOR GERMANY'S CURRENT PROBLEMS THERE WILL BE NO SOLUTION AT ALL.

THESE INFORMANTS SAID THE COUNCIL MEETINGS HAD REACHED A POINT AT WHICH IT WAS APPARENT THAT GREAT DIFFICULTIES WOULD BE ENCOUNTERED IN GETTING TO SUCH AN OVERALL SOLUTION, AND ADDED THAT THE SITUATION IN GERMANY NOW IS SO BADLY SPLIT UP THAT PIECEMEAL SETTLEMENTS SEEMED IMPOSSIBLE.

UNLESS RUSSIA, IN PARTICULAR, IS WILLING TO GO ALONG WITH SOME SORT OF SWEEPING PROGRAM TO WIPE OUT ALL ZONAL BOUNDARIES AND ORGANIZE GERMAN LIFE ON A NATIONAL BASIS, THEY CONTINUED, THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE, IN THIS RESPECT AT LEAST, SEEMED DOOMED TO FAIL.

PERSONS WHO HAVE SAT THROUGH THE FIRST EIGHT SESSIONS OF THE COUNCIL SAID THE EARLIER, EASY RELATIONSHIPS SEEM TO BE SOURING NOW, ESPECIALLY BETWEEN SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL AND BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN ON THE ONE HAND AND FOREIGN MINISTER V.M. MOLOTOV OF RUSSIA ON THE OTHER.

THEY SAID THE TWO WESTERN MINISTERS PARTICULARLY RESENTED SOVIET REPETITION OF CHARGES AGAINST BRITISH-AMERICAN CONDUCT IN GERMANY, WHICH THEY CONSIDER TO HAVE BEEN LONG SINCE DISPROVED.

A CLASH LAST NIGHT, WHEN MARSHALL AND BEVIN DENOUNCED A MOLOTOV CHARGE THAT THE WESTERN NATIONS HAD GOT $10,000,000,000 IN GERMAN PATENT REPARATIONS, WAS THE LATEST IN AN ACCUMULATING SERIES OF INCIDENTS DEMONSTRATING THE EROSION OF THE EASY ATMOSPHERE OF THE FIRST FEW COUNCIL SESSIONS.

WHILE THE AMERICANS ARE PURSUING AN ALL-OR-NOTHING POLICY SO FAR AS A CURRENT GERMAN AGREEMENT IS CONCERNED, DIPLOMATIC OBSERVERS SAY THE RUSSIANS' APPROACH TO THE PROBLEM SEEM DIFFICULT FROM THEIR OWN POINT OF VIEW.

IF GERMANY REMAINS SPLIT, THESE OBSERVERS SAID, RUSSIA STANDS TO GET LITTLE OR NO REPARATIONS FROM THE WESTERN ZONES, BUT IF THE COUNTRY IS UNIFIED ON THE BASIS OF A BROAD, GENERAL SETTLEMENT, THEY WILL HAVE TO GIVE UP THEIR DEMAND FOR GREATLY EXTENDED REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION AND AGREE TO SHARE IN THE GERMAN DEFICIT ALONG WITH THE WESTERN POWERS.

A10 DEVELOPMENTS INSIDE THE MEETING ROOM CONTRASTED STRONGLY WITH THE FESTIVE AIR OF THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS' FIRST BIG SOCIAL EVENT LAST NIGHT, WHEN MOLOTOV ENTERTAINED THE OTHER THREE MINISTERS AND THEIR CHIEF ADVISERS AT A DINNER AND RECEPTION. THE RECEPTION GUESTS INCLUDED HUNDREDS OF OTHER DIPLOMATS HERE FOR THE COUNCIL MEETINGS AND IN THE REGULAR DIPLOMATIC CORPS.

THE DINNER WAS NOTABLE FOR THE ABSENCE OF THE NUMEROUS TOASTS BY WHICH RUSSIAN BANQUETS HAVE WON A TRADITIONAL FAME. THERE WERE

MAR 1947

ONLY FOUR, ALL SERIOUS AND WITHOUT JESTING. BEVIN WAS PARTICULARLY SOLEMN AS HE ROSE TO DECLARE THAT HE HAD SEEN TWO WARS AND NEVER WANTED TO SEE ANOTHER. THAN HE PROPOSED A TOAST TO THE SUCCESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

MOLOTOV'S TOAST WAS A WELCOME TO THE GUESTS AND AN EXPRESSION OF HOPE FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE CONFERENCE, WHILE MARSHALL SAID IT WAS HIS HOPE THAT THE ALLIED ACCORD ATTAINED DURING THE WAR COULD BE CONTINUED IN PEACE. FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT WAS THE ONLY ONE TO REFER IN HIS TOAST TO PRIME MINISTER STALIN, PROPOSING HIS HEALTH.

ALL OF THE PRINCIPALS AT THE AFFAIR LEFT EARLY, LEAVING DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY OF RUSSIA AS THE CENTER OF ATTENTION. AT ONE POINT A GROUP OF FOREIGN NEWSMEN GATHERED AROUND VISHINSKY, WHOSE TOUGH, QUICK WIT HAS WON HIM THE ADMIRATION OF MANY WESTERNERS.

"WHEN I'M WITH THE PRESS," HE QUIPPED, "I FEEL LIKE I'M CROSSING FIFTH AVENUE IN TRAFFIC. THE FIRST THING YOU KNOW, YOU'RE UNDER A BUS."

IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION ABOUT SOVIET CENSORSHIP OF NEWS, VISHINSKY REPLIED:

"YOU'D BE LOST WITHOUT CENSORSHIP."

MAR 1947

THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ASSERTED THAT THE U.S.S.R. HAD RECEIVED ONLY $5,000,000 IN CAPITAL REPARATIONS FOR THE WESTERN ZONES OF GERMANY AND BECAUSE OF THIS HAD TO TAKE SUBSTANITAL REPARATIONS FROM THEIR OWN ZONE, THE FIGURES ON WHICH WOULD BE AVAILABLE AT THE APPROPRIATE TIME. NOT TO TAKE SUCH REPARATIONS, MOLOTOV SAID, WOULD BE A CRIME IN THE EYES OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE.

HIS REFERENCE APPARENTLY WAS TO 200 FACTORIES RECENTLY SOVIETIZED IN THE EASTERN ZONE OF GERMANY. SOVIET AUTHORITIES HAD DECLINED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION HERETOFORE ABOUT THE OWNERSHIP OF THESE FACTORIES, HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THESE FACTORIES, ALTHOUGH SOVIET OWNED, WOULD BE SUBJECT TO GERMAN LAWS.

THE FIRST OBJECTIVE OF AN ECONOMIC PROGRAM, DECLARED BEVIN, MUST BE TO OBTAIN A LEVEL OF INDUSTRY WHICH WILL ENABLE GERMANY TO BE SELF-SUPPORTING. THIS MAKES THE COAL COMMITMENT IMPOSSIBLE, HE SAID, BUT HE PROMISED THAT THE BRITISH WOULD DO WHAT THEY COULD TO INCREASE COAL EXPORTS.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID THAT FRANCE WOULD ATTEMPT TO BREAK THE BIG FOUR DEADLOCK ON GERMANY BY PROPOSING AN 8,000,000-TON STEEL CAPACITY AND A COMPROMISE ON THE REPARATIONS-EXPORT PROGRAM CLASH BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS.

MAR 1947

THE FRENCH COMPROMISE PROPOSAL IS EXPECTED TO BE PRESENTED TO THE COUNCIL WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.

AT THE SAME TIME, IN ORDER TO PAY FOR IMPORTS AND REPARATIONS, FRANCE WILL PROPOSE THAT GERMANY BE ALLOWED UNLIMITED PRODUCTION IN CERTAIN LIGHT INDUSTRIES WHICH HAVE NO WAR POTENTIAL. THESE INDUSTRIES WOULD BE IN THE NATURE OF "ASSEMBLYING INDUSTRIES."

ANY STEEL GERMANY NEEDS FOR THESE INDUSTRIES ABOVE HER OWN LEVEL OF 8,000,000 TONS WOULD BE PURCHASED FROM FRANCE, BELGIUM AND SURROUNDING COUNTRIES, ACCORDING TO THE FRENCH PLAN. THEN IF GERMANY AGAIN BECAME WAR-LIKE THESE COUNTRIES WOULD BE ABLE TO SHUT OFF THE SUPPLY OF STEEL AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE.

MEANWHILE, SOVIET PRESS ARTICLES DESCRIBING JOHN FOSTER DULLES AS "FASCIST" WERE THROWN BACK AT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE IN THE FOREIGN MINISTERS DEPUTIES' MEETING ON AUSTRIA TODAY BY U.S.GEN.MARK CLARK. DULLES IS ONE OF MARSHALL'S ADVISERS.

CLARK ARGUED IN EFFECT THAT THE SOVIETS ARE LIKELY TO CALL MOST ANYBODY FASCIST AND THIS WAS ONE REASON WHY THE UNITED STATES OPPOSED THE TERM INSTEAD OF "NAZI" IN THE AUSTRIAN PEACE TREATY.

FOLLOWING THIS ARGUMENT, SOVIET DEPUTY FEODOR GOUSEV AGREED THE DEPUTIES SHOULD TRY TO WORK UP A CLAUSE REGARDING AUSTRIAN NAZIS, USING "NAZI" RATHER THAN "FASCIST." THIS CAME ABOUT AFTER THE BRITISH MEMBER, LORD HOOD, CITED THE POTSDAM PACT USE OF THE TERM NAZI.

"ONE CANNOT BUT FAIL TO DEDUCE," SAID THE COMMENTATOR, "THAT THEORETICAL GENERALIZATION ON DEMOCRACY HELPS LITTLE IN EXPLAINING THE CAUSE AND DISCUSSING PRACTICAL VITAL QUESTIONS ON DEMOCRATIZATION OF GERMANY." add - Moscow - (Pravda - Note) - xxx Country

VIKTOROV ASSERTED THAT IN BAVARIA THERE WAS DISCRIMINATION AGAINST DEMOCRATIC PARTIES.

"IN THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS," HE SAID, "MARSHALL IS FOR UNIFORMED RIGHTS OF TRADE UNIONS BUT IN FACT THIS UNIFORMITY IS HAMPERED BY THE POLICY OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES WHO CARRY OUT THE LINE OF SPLITTING THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT AND OBSTRUCTING UNIFICATION OF THE TRADE UNIONS IN GENERAL."

PERSONS PRESENT AT THE MEETING REPORTED THAT THE DEPUTIES WERE TOLD THAT THE RUSSIANS ONCE SOUGHT TO LIQUIDATE A NEWSPAPER IN AUSTRIA FOR THE REASON, AMONG OTHERS, THAT IT HAD CALLED THE UNITED STATES A "CAPITALISTIC COUNTRY." THE RUSSIANS ARGUED THAT THIS WAS PROPAGANDA HOSTILE TO AN ALLIED NATION.

THE PROGRESS OF OTHER DEPUTIES ON A GERMAN PEACE TREATY DRAFT WAS ABOUT THE SAME. THE DEPUTIES AGREED YESTERDAY TO SET UP COMMITTEES TO WORK ON THE TREATY, BUT SHARP DISAGREEMENT CONTINUED ABOUT THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMMITTEES. THE WESTERN POWERS WERE CONTENDING FOR REPRSENTATION OF SMALL NATIONS AND THE RUSSIANS TOOK THE LINE THAT THE BIG FOUR POWERS MUST DO THE WHOLE JOB, ON THE COMMITTEES AS WELL AS IN THE COUNCIL, EXCEPT POSSIBLY FOR CONSULTATION WITH THE SMALLER NATIONS. add - Moscow - (Clark) - xxx the same.

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER (260)

MOSCOW, MARCH 19-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS, STILL HOPING TO FINISH THE AUSTRIAN PEACE TREATY AT MOSCOW, SAID TODAY THAT IF THE BIG-FOUR POWERS COULD SETTLE THE DISPUTE OVER GERMAN ASSETS IN AUSTRIA MORE THAN A DOZEN OTHER DISGAGREEMENTS PROBABLY COULD BE SOLVED IN SHORT ORDER.

ACTUALLY LITTLE PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE IN A WEEK AND A HALF OF TALKS HERE BY THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS OF BRITAIN, THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA AND FRANCE ON PROVISIONS OF THE AUSTRIAN TREATY BEYOND WHAT WAS AGREED UPON AT LONDON. THE LONDON AGREEMENTS COVER ABOUT 20 POINTS.

THE DISPUTE ON GERMAN ASSETS BOILS DOWN MAINLY TO THE SOVIET EFFORT TO OBTAIN MAXIMUM ACQUISITION OF PROPERTIES FROM AUSTRIA AND GET AGREED LEGAL TITLE TO WHAT ALREADY HAS BEEN WITHDRAWN FROM THE TERRITORY THEY CONTROL.

THE AMERICANS ARE ADVOCATING A DEFINITION OF GERMAN ASSETS TO EXCLUDE PROPERTIES WHICH THE AUSTRIANS LOST TO THE GERMANS UNDER "FORCE OR DURESS."

POINTS LONG SINCE AGREED UPON INCLUDE THE CONSTITUTION OF AUSTRIA AS A DEMOCRATIC STATE WITH FULL GUARANTEES OF HUMAN RIGHTS INCLUDING FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND THE PRESS. SUCH A CLAUSE BECAME STANDARD IN ALL CURRENT PEACE TREATIES DURING NEGOTIATIONS ON THE ITALIAN, BALKAN AND FINNISH TREATIES.

OTHER AGREED SECTIONS ARE DESIGNED TO GUARANTEE AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE, RIGIDLY LIMIT AUSTRIA'S ARMED FORCES AND MILITARY RESOURCES, ASSURE WITHDRAWAL OF OCCUPATION FORCES IN 90 DAYS AFTER RATIFICATION AND LAY THE BASIS OF AUSTRIAN ECONOMIC RELATIONS WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD ON NON-DISCRIMINATORY MOST FAVORED NATION LINES.

THE UNAGREED SECTIONS, IN ADDITION TO GERMAN ASSETS, INCLUDE A PROVISION FOR COMPENSATION TO ALLIED NATIONALS OF PROPERTY DESTROYED IN AUSTRIA, THE WORDING OF A CLAUSE FORBIDDING FUTURE AUSTRIAN UNION WITH GERMANY AND THE CITIZENSHIP STATUS OF GERMANS IN AUSTRIA.

MOSCOW, MARCH 19-(AP)-AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID TODAY THAT FRANCE WILL PROPOSE IN A FEW DATS A COMPROMISE SOLUTION OF THE DEADLOCK ON GERMAN REPARATIONS AND ECONOMIC PROBLEMS IN THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL.

THIS SOURCE SAID FRANCE WOULD SUGGEST RAISING THE LEVEL OF GERMAN STEEL PRODUCTION TO 8,000,000 TONS ANNUALLY, A FIGURE NOT AS HIGH AS THE 10,000,000 OR 12,000,000 TONS WANTED BY THE RUSSIANS, BUT ABOVE THE PRESENT AGREED LEVEL OF 5,800,000 TONS.

TO RESOLVE THE ARGUMENT ABOUT USING CURRENT GERMAN PRODUCTION TO PAY REPARATIONS, AS DESIRED BY THE RUSSIANS, OR TO PAY FOR IMPORTS AND LIFT THE BURDEN ON AMERICAN AND BRITISH TAXPAYERS, THE FRENCH WILL SUGGEST THAT GERMANY BE ALLOWED UNLIMITED PRODUCTION IN CERTAIN LIGHT INDUSTRIES, THE INFORMANT SAID.

THIS GERMAN PRODUCTION ABOVE GERMAN NEEDS WOULD BE DIVIDED ON A PERCENTAGE BASIS, WITH THE SHARE FOR IMPORTS HIGH AT THE START BUT WITH THE SHARE FOR REPARATIONS INCREASING AFTER A FEW YEARS.

MOSCOW, MARCH 19-(AP)-THERE WAS INCREASING SPECULATION TODAY AMONG VISITING DIPLOMATS IN MOSCOW AS TO WHEN--OR IF--PRIME MINISTER STALIN INTENDS TO RECEIVE SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL, OR BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN.

MOST OF THEM WERE IN PRETTY GENERAL AGREEMENT THAT IF THE EVENT DOES NOT COME OFF TONIGHT, IT WILL APPEAR THAT STALIN MAY BE GIVING MARSHALL AND BEVIN THE SILENT TREATMENT.

BEVIN NOW HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW 11 DAYS AND MARSHALL 10 DAYS. THIS IS USUALLY THE TIME IN WHICH STALIN INVITES GUESTS TO DROP IN AND SEE HIM AND TALK THINGS OVER.

IN FACT, ONE RESIDENT MEMBER OF THE BRITISH EMBASSY STAFF COMMENTED THIS MORNING:

"IT'S JUST A WEE BIT LATE."

OF THE THREE VISITING MEMBERS OF THE BIG FOUR, ONLY FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT OF FRANCE HAS SEEN STALIN, AND A FRENCH SOURCE THIS MORNING GAVE A NEW EXPLANATION OF HOW THAT CAME ABOUT.

HE SAID BIDAULT LEFT HIS CARD AT THE KREMLIN SHORTLY AFTER HE ARRIVED AND THEN RECEIVED "ENCOURAGEMENT" TO REQUEST AN INTERVIEW. HE MADE SUCH A REQUEST BY LETTER AND RECEIVED AN ANSWER FRIDAY INFORMING THAT HE COULD BE RECEIVED EITHER SUNDAY OR MONDAY NIGHT. HE CHOSE MONDAY NIGHT AND CONFERRED WITH THE RUSSIAN LEADER FOR 95 MINUTES.

NIGHT LEAD BRITAIN
BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WAS REPORTED AUTHORITATIVELY TODAY TO HAVE GIVEN ITS SUPPORT TO THE UNITED STATES ON TWO MAJOR CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY INVOLVING RUSSIA.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN "SHARED THE U.S.VIEW" THAT THE BIG THREE POTSDAM AGREEMENT SUPERSEDED YALTA OR ANY OTHER MAJOR POWER AGREEMENTS WITH REGARD TO GERMAN REPARATIONS.

ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY, A HIGH GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID THE BRITISH CABINET HAD APPROVED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CONGRESSIONAL CALL FOR IMMEDIATE AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY "IN ALL ITS ASPECTS."

THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE ON THE YALTA REPARATIONS AGREEMENT, WHICH WAS REFERRED TO MONDAY BY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV IN MOSCOW, WAS MADE CLEAR ON JULY 27, 1946.

AT THAT TIME, HE SAID, BRITAIN SENT NOTES TO RUSSIA, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES EMPHASIZING THAT SHE "NEVER ACCEPTED THE SOVIET'S $10,000,000,000 CLAIM FOR REPARATIONS" FROM GERMANY.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE NOTE EXPRESSED THE VIEW THEN THAT THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT SUPERSEDED "ALL PREVIOUS AGREEMENTS AND DISCUSSIONS ABOUT REPARATIONS."

POTSDAM, HE POINTED OUT, PROVIDED THE GERMAN LIVING STANDARD SHOULD BE NO HIGHER THAN THE AVERAGE STANDARD OF LIVING ENJOYED BY THE PEOPLE OF EUROPE--EXCLUDING BRITAIN AND RUSSIA BUT INCLUDING SUCH NEUTRAL STATES AS SWITZERLAND AND SWEDEN. HE SAID HE KNEW OF NO OTHER STILL-UNDISCLOSED CLAUSES TO THE YALTA AGREEMENT.

THE APPROVAL OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROJECTED PLANS FOR GREECE AND TURKEY WAS GIVEN AT A MEETING OF THE BRITISH CABINET YESTERDAY, THE GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID.

DURING THE COURSE OF A REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, NO MINISTER EXPRESSED FEARS THAT A "TOUGHER" U.S.FOREIGN POLICY IN EUROPE WOULD LEAD TO WAR WITH COMMUNIST RUSSIA, THIS SOURCE ADDED.

LABOR BACK-BENCH MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT REPEATEDLY HAVE CLAIMED A TOO-CLOSE BRITISH POLITICAL ALLIANCE WITH AMERICA WOULD INVOLVE THEIR COUNTRY IN AN "INEVITABLE" RUSSO-AMERICAN CONFLICT.

THE INFORMANT DECLARED, ON THE OTHER HAND, THAT THE TRUMAN DECLARATION WOULD NOT AFFECT BRITAIN'S INTENTION TO REVISE AND EXTEND HER ALLIANCE WITH RUSSIA.

THE GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID IT WAS RECOGNIZED THAT A REVAMPED AMERICAN APPROACH TO MIDDLE EASTERN AFFAIRS LIKELY WOULD EMERGE FROM THE TRUMAN PLAN AND THAT THIS APPROACH ULTIMATELY MIGHT AFFECT PALESTINE.

A209

IN THIS CONNECTION, HE SAID, BRITAIN HAD RULED PALESTINE OUT OF ALL HER LONG-TERM STRATEGIC IMPERIAL PLANNING AND HAD ABANDONED HOPE THAT UNITED NATIONS ARBITRATION OVER THE HOLY LAND'S FUTURE WOULD BE AVOIDED.

THE SOURCE SAID THERE WERE NO TWO-NATION TALKS GOING ON BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN OVER PALESTINE'S POLITICAL FUTURE.

HOWEVER, HE SAID THAT THE TALKS WERE NOW PROCEEDING BETWEEN THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE U.S.EMBASSY IN LONDON ON PROCEDURAL DETAILS OF PENDING UNITED NATIONS CONSIDERATION OF THE PALESTINE CASE.

CALLING THE BRITISH DECISION TO REFER THE PALESTINE CASE TO THE UNITED NATIONS "FINAL," THE SOURCE SAID MILITARY PLANNERS HAVE "RESIGNED" THEMSELVES TO THE FACT THAT THE ESTIMATED 100,000 BRITISH TROOPS THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE WITHDRAWN.

FIRST LEAD YALTA
BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, MARCH 19-(AP)-A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY BRITAIN "SHARED THE U.S.VIEW" THAT THE BIG THREE POTSDAM AGREEMENT SUPERSEDED ALL OTHER MAJOR POWER AGREEMENTS WITH REGARD TO GERMAN REPARATIONS.

THE SPOKESMAN MADE THE STATEMENT FOLLOWING SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT TO THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS THAT THE BIG THREE HAD CONCLUDED AN AGREEMENT AT YALTA, THE TEXT OF WHICH HAD BEEN SECRET HERETOFORE, UNDER WHICH GERMAN REPARATIONS WERE TO BE COLLECTED FROM HOST-WAR CURRENT PRODUCTION.

TASS, OFFICIAL RUSSIAN NEWS AGENCY, IN A VERBATIM REPORT OF MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT, SAID THE YALTA AGREEMENT WAS DISCLOSED IN PRESSING THE RUSSIAN CLAIM FOR $10,000,000,000 REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY, PART OF IT FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION. THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN, OPPOSING THE CLAIM, HOLD THE COST OF FEEDING THE GERMANS SHOULD BE THE FIRST CHARGE AGAINST CURRENT PRODUCTION.

THE VIEW THAT THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT SUPERSEDED THAT AT YALTA WAS EXPRESSED YESTERDAY AT MOSCOW BY U.S.SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL.

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE WAS MADE CLEAR JULY 27 OF LAST YEAR, WHEN NOTES WERE SENT TO RUSSIA, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES EMPHASIZING THAT THE BRITISH "NEVER ACCEPTED THE SOVIET'S $10,000,000,000 CLAIM FOR REPARATIONS" FROM GERMANY.

THIS NOTE, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, EXPRESSED THE VIEW AT THAT TIME THAT POTSDAM SUPERSEDED "ALL PREVIOUS AGREEMENTS AND DISCUSSIONS ABOUT REPARATIONS."

ASKED WHY IT TOOK MORE THAN A YEAR TO MAKE THE BRITISH ATTITUDE ON REPARATIONS PUBLICLY CLEAR, THE SPOKESMAN DID NOT REPLY.

HE SAID IN REPLY TO ANOTHER QUESTION THAT BRITAIN DID NOT EXCLUDE PAYMENT OF REPARATIONS TO RUSSIA OUT OF CURRENT PRODUCTION, AS A PRINCIPLE. BUT HE ADDED THAT BRITISH POLICY DEMANDED THAT THE FIRST CHARGE AGAINST CURRENT PRODUCTION SHOULD BE PAYMENT OF THE COUNTRY'S FOOD NEEDS.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID NE KNEW OF NO OTHER STILL-UNDISCLOSED CLAUSES IN THE AGREEMENT REACHED AT THE YALTA CONFERENCE, WHICH WAS ATTENDED BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL AND GENERALISSIMO STALIN.

TOSS QUOTED MOLOTOV AS SAYING THAT IT WAS NECESSARY TO CONSIDER THE CRIMEA (YALTA) AGREEMENT BECAUSE THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN DELEGATES WERE CLAIMING THAT THE BERLIN (POTSDAM) AGREEMENTS, WHICH MADE NO MENTION OF DOLLAR REPARATIONS, SUPERSEDED THE YALTA COMMITMENTS. 1 MS.

(AT MOSCOW YESTERDAY SECRETARY MARSHALL SAID "THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT REGARDING REPARATIONS IS THAT THE AGREEMENTS AT POTSDAM SUPERSEDE THE PRELIMINARY AGREEMENTS PREVIOUSLY REACHED AT YALTA. WE WILL NOT FOLLOW THE RETREAT OF MR.MOLOTOV FROM BERLIN TO YALTA.") (more)

30.24-8609

TASS QUOTED THAT PART OF MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT BACKING UP HIS DEMAND FOR REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION AS FOLLOWS:

"TO MAKE THIS UTTERLY CLEAR I SHALL HAVE TO MAKE PUBLIC THE DECISION OF THE CRIMEA CONFERENCE, WHICH HAS NOT BEEN PUBLISHED HITHERTO. THIS DECISION FOLLOWS:

"'PROTOCOL ON THE TALK BETWEEN THE HEADS OF THE THREE GOVERNMENTS AT THE CRIMEA CONFERENCE ON THE QUESTION OF GERMAN REPARATIONS IN KIND, THE HEADS OF THE THREE GOVERNMENTS AGREED AS FOLLOWS:-

" 1. GERMANY MUST PAY IN KIND FOR LOSSES CAUSED BY HER TO THE ALLIED NATIONS IN THE COURSE OF THE WAR. REPARATIONS ARE TO BE RECEIVED IN THE FIRST INSTANCE BY THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE BORNE THE MAIN BURDEN OF THE WAR, HAVE SUFFERED THE HEAVIEST LOSSES AND HAVE ORGANIZED VICTORY OVER THE ENEMY.

" 2. REPARATIONS ARE TO BE EXACTED FROM GERMANY IN THE THREE FOLLOWING FORMS:

"'A. BULK REMOVAL WITHIN TWO YEARS FROM THE SURRENDER OF GERMANY OR THE CESSATION OF ORGANIZED RESISTANCE FROM THE NATIONAL WEALTH OF GERMANY LOCATED ON THE TERRITORY OF GERMANY.

"'B. ANNUAL DELIVERIES OF GOODS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION AFTER THE END OF THE WAR FOR A PERIOD TO BE FIXED.

"'C. USE OF GERMAN LABOR.

" 3. FOR WORKING OUT ON THE BASIS OF THE ABOVE PRINCIPLES A DETAILED PLAN FOR THE EXACTION OF REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY, AN ALLIED REPARATIONS COMMISSION IS TO BE SET UP IN MOSCOW CONSISTING OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S.S.R., THE U.S.A. AND THE UNITED KINGDOM.

MAR 1947

A44

" '4. WITH REGARD TO THE FIXING OF THE TOTAL SUM OF REPARATIONS, AS WELL AS THE DISTRIBUTION OF IT AMONG COUNTRIES WHICH SUFFERED FROM GERMAN AGGRESSION, THE SOVIET AND AMERICAN DELEGATIONS AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

" 'THE MOSCOW REPARATIONS COMMISSION SHOULD TAKE IN THE INITIAL STAGES AS A BASIS FOR DISCUSSION THE SUGGESTION OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT THAT THE TOTAL SUM OF REPARATIONS, IN ACCORDANCE WITH POINTS A AND B OF PARAGRAPH 2, SHOULD BE $20,000,000,000 AND THAT 50 PERCENT OF IT SHOULD GO TO THE U.S.S.R.

" 'THE BRITISH DELEGATION WAS OF THE OPINION THAT PENDING CONSIDERATION OF THE REPARATIONS QUESTION BY THE MOSCOW REPARATIONS COMMISSION NO FIGURES OF REPARATIONS SHOULD BE MENTIONED. THE ABOVE SOVIET-AMERICAN PROPOSAL HAS BEEN PASSED TO THE MOSCOW REPARATIONS COMMISSION AS ONE OF THE PROPOSALS TO BE CONSIDERED BY THE COMMISSION.

" ' SIGNED BY CHURCHILL, ROOSEVELT, STALIN.' "

BEFORE READING THAT TEXT, TASS SAID, MOLOTOV STRESSED, IN HIS READING OF THE TEXT OF THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT, THAT IT BEGAN WITH THE WORDS:

"IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CRIMEA DECISION THAT GERMANY BE COMPELLED TO COMPENSATE TO THE GREATEST POSSIBLE EXTENT FOR THE LOSS AND SUFFERING SHE HAS CAUSED THE UNITED NATIONS, ETC."

LONDON, MARCH 19-(AP)-A HIGH GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID TODAY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAD APPROVED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CONGRESSIONAL CALL FOR IMMEDIATE AID FOR GREECE AND TURKEY "IN ALL ITS ASPECTS."

DURING THE COURSE OF A REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS YESTERDAY, NO MINISTER EXPRESSED FEARS THAT THE NEW UNITED STATES FOREIGN POLICY IN EUROPE WOULD LEAD TO WAR WITH COMMUNIST RUSSIA, HE ADDED.

SOME LABOR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT HAVE REPEATEDLY CLAIMED TOO-CLOSE BRITISH POLITICAL ALIGNMENT WITH AMERICA WOULD INVOLVE THEIR COUNTRY IN RUSSOA-AMERICAN CONFLICT.

THE INFORMANT DECLARED, ON THE OTHER HAND, THE TRUMAN DECLARATION WOULD NOT AFFECT BRITAIN'S INTENTION TO REVISE AND EXTEND HER ALLIANCE WITH SOVIET RUSSIA.

THE GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID IT WAS RECOGNIZED THAT A REVAMPED AMERICAN APPROACH TO MIDDLE EASTERN AFFAIRS LIKELY WOULD EMERGE FROM THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE AND THAT THIS APPROACH ULTIMATELY MIGHT AFFECT PALESTINE.

IN THIS CONNECTION, THE INFORMANT SAID, BRITAIN HAD RULED PALESTINE OUT OF ALL HER LONG-TERM STRATEGIC IMPERIAL PLANNING AND HAD ABANDONED HOPE THAT UNITED NATIONS ARBITRATION OVER THE HOLY LAND'S FUTURE WOULD BE AVOIDED.

THE SOURCE SAID MILITARY PLANNERS HAVE "RESIGNED" THEMSELVES TO THE FACT THAT THE ESTIMATED 100,000 BRITISH TROOPS IN PALESTINE WOULD HAVE TO BE WITHDRAWN.

LONDON, MARCH 19-(AP)-A HIGH GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID TODAY THE IMMEDIATE DANGER OF CIVIL WAR IN INDIA "APPEARS TO HAVE PASSED."

THE GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID REPORTS RECEIVED FROM INDIA BY THE BRITISH CABINET HAVE SHOWN THE PROSPECTS OF A MOSLEM - HINDU GET TOGETHER TO WRITE A CONSTITUTION BY JUNE 1948 WERE "REASONABLY GOOD."

"THE SITUATION INSIDE INDIA HAS IMPROVED ENORMOUSLY IN THE PAST FEW MONTHS DESPITE THE PUNJAB INTERLUDE" THE INFORMANT SAID. "IT APPEARS AS THOUGH THE IMMEDIATE DANGERS OF A CIVIL WAR ENGULFING THE SUBCONTINENT HAVE PASSED AWAY."

PARIS, THURSDAY, MARCH 20-(AP)-FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADERS WIDENED THE SPLIT IN PREMIER PAUL RAMADIER'S CABINET EARLY TODAY WITH A DECISION NOT TO VOTE FOR FUNDS FOR MILITARY OPERATIONS IN INDOCHINA AT THIS AFTERNOON'S SESSION OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

THE COMMUNISTS YESTERDAY DESERTED OTHER COALITION PARTIES IN ABSTAINING FROM VOTING ON A MOTION OF CONFIDENCE FOR RAMADIER'S GOVERNMENT.

THE COMMUNIST CENTRAL COMMITTEE ASSERTED IN A STATEMENT THAT "CONTINUATION AND DEVELOPMENT" OF THE FIGHTING IN INDOCHINA WOULD OBLIGE FRANCE TO CALL UPON "FOREIGN FINANCIAL AND MILITARY AID, THUS ALIENATING FRANCE'S NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE."

ALTHOUGH COMPLETE EFFECT OF THE COMMUNIST MOVE COULD NOT BE ASSESSED, MOST OF WEDNESDAY'S PARIS EVENING PAPERS ASSERTED THAT SUCH A DECISION, IF TAKEN, MIGHT PROVE MUCH MORE SERIOUS THREAT OT THE EXISTENCE OF THE RAMADIER GOVERNMENT THAN YESTERDAY'S ABSTENTION FROM VOTING.

VALENCIA, SPAIN, MARCH 19-(AP)-UNOFFICIAL REPORTS OF THE DISCOVERY OF A PLOT TO BLOW UP SPANISH POWER PLANTS CIRCULATED TODAY AS POLICE MOVED THROUGH TERUEL PROVINCE MAKING ARRESTS AND CONFISCATING ARMS AND ANTI-FRANCO LEAFLETS.

ALTHOUGH THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL INFORMATION ON THE SITUATION, ONE REPORT SAID THAT MAYORS OF SEVERAL SMALL VILLAGES AND A NUMBER OF CIVIL GUARDS WERE IMPLICATED IN THE PLOT.

PERSONS ARRESTED IN TERUEL PROVINCE SO FAR WERE SAID TO INCLUDE 10 MINERS FROM THE UTRILLAS COAL MINES, 96 MILES NORTHWEST OF VALENCIA. LAST NIGHT A GROUP OF MINERS WERE REPORTED HOLDING OUT AGAINST AUTHORITIES IN UNDERGROUND PASSAGES OF UTRILLAS.

ON THE STRENGTH OF INFORMATION PICKED UP FROM THE ARRESTED MINERS, POLICE WERE SAID TO HAVE DETAINED A "CONTACT MAN" WHO CAME FROM FRANCE AND A CAFE WAITER, BOTH OF WHOM CARRIED COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.

MEANWHILE IT WAS LEARNED THAT THREE BOMBS HAD EXPLODED SUNDAY IN THE RAILWAY STATION OF THE TOWN OF TERUEL, 70 MILES NORTHWEST OF VALENCIA. OTHERS DAMAGED A TRAIN BETWEEN TERUEL AND THE VILLAGE OF PUERTO ESCANDON. TRAFFIC WAS DELAYED FOR TWO HOURS ON THE VALENCIA-MADRID RAIL LINE BY THE EXPLOSION OF SMALL BOMBS.

TRIESTE, MARCH 19-(AP)-MARIA PASQUINELLI SOUGHT TODAY TO PLEAD GUILTY AT THE START OF HER TRIAL FOR THE ASSASSINATION OF BRIG.R.W.M. DE WINTON FEB. 10 AT POLA, ITALIAN NAVAL BASE AWARDED TO YUGOSLAVIA.

BUT BECAUSE THE CRIME WAS PUNISHABLE BY A POSSIBLE DEATH PENALTY, U.S.COL.JOHN W.CHAPMAN OF SANTA FE,N.M., PRESIDING OVER AN ALLIED MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT, DIRECTED THE ENTRY OF A PLEA OF INNOCENCE.

THROUGHOUT THE MORNING, HER LAWYER INTERPOSED NO OBJECTION TO THE FACTS OF THE SLAYING AS RECOUNTED BY A DOZEN PROSECUTION WITNESSES. HE DID NOT OPPOSE ADMISSION OF A CONFESSION THE WOMAN SIGNED AFTER HER ARREST, AND A LETTER FOUND ON HER PERSON WHEN SHE WAS SEIZED, STATING THAT SHE HAD GONE TO POLA ON THE DAY THE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY WAS SIGNED IN PARIS TO KILL THE MAN WHO HAD THE "MISFORTUNE TO REPRESENT THE BIG FOUR" IN THE CITY.

THE CONDUCT OF THE DEFENSE APPEARED TO BEAR OUT STATEMENTS THAT THE ATTORNEY, LUIGI GIANNINI, WOULD TRY TO ESTABLISH THAT THE ITALIAN WOMAN KILLED THE BRITISH BRIGADIER IN A "CRIME WITHOUT PASSION" TO PROTEST THE PROVISIONS OF THE ITALIAN TREATY WHICH AWARDED POLA AND MUCH OF VENEZIA GIULIA TO YUGOSLAVIA.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CHINESE (140)
BY HAROLD K.MILKS
NANKING, THURSDAY, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT TRIMPHANTLY ANNOUNCED THE CAPTURE OF THE COMMUNIST CAPITAL OF YENAN AND PROPOSED TODAY TO ARM CIVILIANS TO HELP HOLD SUCH SOIL WRESTED FROM RIVAL FORCES.
THE SUDDEN FALL OF YENAN WAS ANNOUNCED TO THE KUOMINTANG, THE GOVERNING PARTY, BY CHIANG KAI-SHEK. PSYCHOLOGICALLY, AT LEAST, IT WAS POSSIBLY THE GREATEST VICTORY OF THE CIVIL WAR.
WITH HIGH COMMUNIST LEADERS IN FLIGHT INTO THE HILLS, THE GOVERNMENT APPARENTLY FORESAW SOME DIFFICULTY IN MAINTAINING ITS POSITION SO DEEP IN COMMUNIST TERRITORY AGAINST GUERRILLA ATTACKS.
GEN.CHEN CHENG, CHIEF OF STAFF, PROPOSED TO THE KUOMINTANG THAT CIVILIANS IN TERRITORY SEIZED FROM THE COMMUNISTS BE GIVEN ARMS TO HELP REGULAR TROOPS DEFEND THE LAND. THE QUESTION WAS REFERRED TO A SUBCOMMITTEE.
THE GOVERNMENT X X X SECOND GRAF NIGHT LEAD.

OBSERVERS PREDICTED THE VICTORY LIKEWISE WOULD BE A GREAT MORALE BUILDER FOR THE GOVERNMENT'S ARMIES IN THE FAR MORE DIFFICULT TASK OF SWEEPING COMMUNIST TROOPS FROM STRATEGIC SHANTUNG PROVINCE AND MANCHURIA.
DESPITE THE CITY'S FALL, THE COMMUNIST RADIO CONTINUED TO TRANSMIT ITS NIGHTLY NEWS BULLETINS. TONIGHT'S AT 9:30 O'CLOCK, USED THE YENAN DATELINE. HOWEVER, IT SEEMED CERTAIN THE TRANSMITTER HAD BEEN REMOVED, PROBABLY TO THE SHENSI MOUNTAINS.

SHORTLY BEFORE THE CAPTURE OF YENAN WAS ANNOUNCED, PENG HSUEH-PEI, MINISTER OF INFORMATION, SAID THE CITY'S FALL MIGHT POSSIBLY EFFECT A CHANGE OF HEART AMONG COMMUNIST LEADERS, PRESUMABLY SICK OF CONTINUED MILITARY LOSSES.
HE ALSO SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD CONSIDER THE OCCUPATION OF YENAN THE TURNING POINT IN THE CIVIL WAR.
"AFTER THE FALL OF YENAN THE MILITARY SITUATION IN CHINA WILL HINGE ON COMMUNIST POLICY,) WHICH UP TO THE PRESENT HAS BEEN TO PLACE IMPLICIT FAITH IN ARMED FORCES," PENG SAID.
(FROM PEIPING, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENTS JOHN RODERICK, WHO SPENT SEVERAL MONTHS IN YENAN IN THE PAST TWO YEARS, RADIOED:
(THE NATIONALISTS IN ALL PROBABILITY ENTERED ONLY THE SHELL OF A CITY. ALL ORGANIZATIONS AND MOST OF THE POPULATION, INCLUDING FIVE AMERICANS AND EIGHT OTHER FOREIGNERS, HAD FLED TO THE HILLS. COL.JOHN K.TSELLS, AMERICAN LIAISON OFFICER WHO QUIT YENAN EIGHT DAYS AGO, SAID THE COMMUNISTS WERE BLOWING UP THEIR AIRFIELD.
(CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY SAID WITHOUT CONFIRMATION THE CAPTURE WAS PRECEDED BY HEAVY AERIAL BOMBARDMENT.
(SOME OBSERVERS IN PEIPING SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S RECENT STATEMENT, WHICH WAS INTERPRETED IN SOME QUARTERS AS A CHALLENGE TO WORLD COMMUNISM, MAY HAVE IMPELLED CHIANG TO TAKE THE STEP HE LONG HAD HESITATED OVER--SEIZE YENAN.
(THE CITY HAD BEEN A CITADEL OF CHINESE COMMUNISM MORE THAN 10 YEARS. IT IS MADE UP OF MORE THAN 10,000 CAVES DUG INTO YELLOW LOESS HILLSIDES. ITS WARTIME POPULATION OF 50,000 LIVED IN THEM AND TRADED IN A SMALL WOOD AND SHOPPING SECTION.

ONE DELEGATE SAID AFTER THE MEETING THAT HE WAS OPPOSED TO THE FIRST RUSSIAN DRAFT BECAUSE IT WOULD HAVE MEANT THAT THE COMMITTEES COULD NOT HAVE TAKEN UP ANY PHASE OF THE PROBLEM UNTIL THE MATTER OF A CONTROL AGENCY HAD BEEN SETTLED.

THE UNITED STATES INSISTS THAT ALL ATOMIC MATTERS THE WORLD OVER MUST BE SUPERVISED BY AN INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (CAPS). RUSSIA HAS COUNTERED WITH A PROPOSAL FOR INTERNATIONAL CONTROL WHICH, HOWEVER, IT MUST OPERATE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL. ITS POWERS WOULD BE STRICTLY DEFINED AND LIMITED UNDER THE RUSSIAN PLAN.

SOVIET RUSSIA, WHICH HAD LITTLE TO SAY IN THE COMMISSION MEETINGS LATE LAST YEAR AND WHICH REJECTED THE UNITED STATES PLAN IN A STINGING ATTACK IN THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL, WANTS A CONVENTION NOW TO BAN ATOMIC WEAPONS AND ANOTHER CONVENTION TO SET UP CONTROL ORGANS. RUSSIA ALSO HAS INSISTED ON RETAINING THE VETO RIGHT IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE CONSENSUS OF THE DELEGATES WAS THAT THE ATOMIC PROBLEM WOULD BE TURNED OVER TO THE COMMISSION'S WORKING COMMITTEE, WHICH IS IN EFFECT THE WHOLE COMMISSION SITTING AS A COMMITTEE, AND THAT ATTEMPTS TO RECONCILE THE RUSSIAN-U.S. DIFFERENCES WOULD BEGIN IN CLOSED SESSIONS.

MAR. 1947

THERE WAS SOME CONCERN WHETHER ANDREI A. GROMYKO, SOVIET DELEGATE AND COMMISSION CHAIRMAN, MIGHT ATTEMPT TO AMEND THE COMMISSION'S FIRST REPORT, APPROVED AT ITS LAST MEETING ON DEC. 30, WITH THE RUSSIAN PROPOSALS WHICH WERE PRESENTED TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN FEBRUARY.

THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE EXPECTED TO OPPOSE THIS IN THE COMMISSION OR IN ANY COMMITTEE MEETING. THE UNITED STATES, AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES HAVE SAID, WANTS TO GET DOWN TO SPECIFIC BUSINESS AND IS INCLINED TO PROPOSE THAT THE DELEGATES START WORK IMMEDIATELY ON WHAT KIND OF AN INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY SHOULD BE SET UP.

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 19-(AP)-WARREN R.AUSTIN, CHIEF OF THE UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS, EXPECTS TO GIVE PRESIDENT TRUMAN A REPORT LATER THIS WEEK ON U.N. REACTION TOWARD THE PROPOSED $400,000,000 AMERICAN AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY.

PLANNING TO LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON EARLY TOMORROW, AUSTIN SAID TODAY HE WOULD CERTAINLY DISCUSS THE GREEK-TURKISH QUESTION WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS AND THAT HE PROBABLY WOULD CONFER WITH THE PRESIDENT ON THIS AND OTHER UNITED NATIONS BUSINESS.

AUSTIN SAID HE WAS NOT MAKING THE TRIP SOLELY TO DISCUSS THE GREEK-TURKISH QUESTION, BUT THAT HE HAD A NUMBER OF U.N. MATTERS TO TAKE UP, INCLUDING ATOMIC CONTROL AND TRUSTEESHIP OVER THE JAPANESE-MANDATED ISLANDS IN THE PACIFIC.

THIS WILL BE HIS FIRST OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A PERSONAL REPORT ON THE IMPACT OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL ON THE VARIOUS DELEGATIONS AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS. WHILE AUSTIN HIMSELF DOES NOT FEEL THAT THE PROPOSAL DETRACTED FROM THE PRESTIGE OF THE U.N., THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT HE IS AWARE OF A PESSIMISTIC FEELING NOW PREVALENT HERE.

MOST OF THE DELEGATES HAVE INDICATED PRIVATELY THAT THE GREEK-TURKISH ISSUE IS TOO DELICATE TO DISCUSS ON THEIR LEVEL AND EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT ANY COMMENT WOULD HAVE TO COME FROM THEIR GOVERNMENTS.

SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE'S ASSOCIATES SAID HE WAS SERIOUSLY CONCERNED BOTH OVER THE GREEK-TURKISH QUESTION AND THE ATTACKS ON THE U.N. WHICH HAVE COME FROM CONGRESS AND THE AMERICAN PRESS.

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 19-(AP)-BYRON PRICE, CHIEF OF THE OFFICE OF CENSORSHIP DURING THE WAR, ARRIVED TODAY TO TAKE OVER AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN CHARGE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL SERVICES.

PRICE FORMERLY WAS EXECUTIVE NEWS EDITOR OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BEFORE ACCEPTING HIS NEW POSITION, HE WAS CONNECTED WITH THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY AS ASSISTANT TO ERIC JOHNSTON, PRESIDENT OF THE MOTION PICTURE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA AT A REPORTED SALARY OF $75,000 A YEAR. HE WILL RECEIVE $22,000, TAX FREE, FROM THE U.N.

"I AM HERE TO HELP AS MUCH AS I CAN," PRICE TOLD NEWSMEN. "I'M NOT ENTERING ON THIS RESPONSIBILITY IN THE SPIRIT OF A CRUSADER BUT BECAUSE THE HARD COMMON SENSE OF THE SITUATION REQUIRES EACH OF US TO DO WHAT HE CAN IN A PRACTICAL WAY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THIS TREMENDOUS UNDERTAKING."

PRICE'S IMMEDIATE PROBLEM WAS THE SETTLEMENT OF ISSUES RAISED BY SECRETARIAT PERSONNEL PROTESTS AGAINST WORKING CONDITIONS AND REDUCTION OF PER DIEM ALLOWANCES.

DISARMAMENT

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE SUGGESTION OF SENATOR TYDINGS (D-MD) THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALL AN IMMEDIATE WORLD DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE DREW BOTH DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN SUPPORT TODAY.

SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA) SAID HE LONG HAS HAD SUCH A PROJECT IN MIND HIMSELF.

MAR 1947

SENATOR COOPER (R-KY) TOLD A REPORTER HE "CERTAINLY AGREES" WITH TYDINGS' OBJECTIVE.

TYDINGS TOLD THE SENATE IN AN HOUR-LONG SPEECH YESTERDAY THAT THE WORLD FACES A CHOICE OF DISARMAMENT OR DESTRUCTION. HE SAID THE ALTERNATIVES ARE EQUALLY CLEAR FOR THE UNITED STATES:

"THE UNITED STATES MUST EITHER KEEP FULLY PREPARED IN ALL CATEGORIES, INCLUDING THE ATOMIC BOMB, OR WE MUST HAVE TOTAL DISARMAMENT, INCLUDING THE ATOMIC BOMB, FOR ALL NATIONS OF THE GLOBE, OURSELVES INCLUDED."

THE MARYLAND SENATOR SAID THE UNITED STATES SHOULD TAKE THE LEAD IN CALLING A DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE BECAUSE, HE SAID, HE DOES NOT CONSIDER THE UNITED NATIONS EQUIPPED TO CARRY IT OUT. THAT ORGANIZATION STILL IS IN ITS INFANCY, HE DECLARED, AND UP TO NOW HAS PROVED ITSELF TO BE ONLY "A HOLLOW SHELL--A GLORIFIED DEBATING SOCIETY."

TYDINGS ADDRESSED THE SENATE AFTER SPENDING THE MORNING AT A SESSION OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE WHICH BEGAN CONSIDERATION OF ARMY-NAVY MERGER LEGISLATION.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY FORRESTAL TOLD THE COMMITTEE THE UNIFICATION BILL WOULD GIVE THIS COUNTRY THE MILITARY FORCE IT NEEDS TO BACK UP ITS FOREIGN POLICY. SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON IS DUE TO APPEAR BEFORE THE COMMITTEE AT ITS NEXT MEETING TOMORROW.

TYDINGS MADE NO REFERENCE TO THE PENDING MERGER MEASURE, HOWEVER, WHEN HE SUGGESTED TO HIS COLLEAGUES THAT JAN. 1, 1950, SHOULD BE THE TARGET DATE FOR UNIVERSAL DISARMAMENT "ON LAND, ON SEA AND IN THE AIR."

HE PROPOSED THAT AFTER THAT TIME THE MANUFACTURE, STORAGE OR POSSESSION OF ANY WEAPONS EXCEPT LIMITED SMALL ARMS BE FORBIDDEN. THE LATTER WOULD BE PERMITTED SOLELY TO MAINTAIN ORDER.

PEPPER SUGGESTED A SLIGHT VARIATION OF THE TYDINGS PLAN.

"I THINK THE PRESIDENT SHOULD INVITE ALL THE NATIONS IMMEDIATELY TO STOP BUILDING ALL NEW ARMAMENTS," HE TOLD A REPORTER, "THEN CALL A CONFERENCE UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS TO START WHITTLING DOWN ON WHAT THEY ALL HAVE.

"THE PRODUCTION OF ALL NEW WEAPONS SHOULD BE STOPPED AT ONE TIME. THEN WE COULD PROCEED FROM THERE. THE BEST WAY TO START DISARMING IS TO STOP BUILDING NEW WEAPONS."

COOPER, A FIRST-TERMER, SAID HE DISAGREED WITH TYDINGS' CONCLUSION THAT THE U.N. IS JUST A DEBATING SOCIETY WITHOUT POWER TO INFLUENCE THE WORLD. BUT HE ADDED:

"I CERTAINLY SEE NO OBJECTION TO ANY ACTION WITHIN OR WITHOUT THE UNITED NATIONS WHICH WOULD MOVE TOWARD THE PURPOSE OF DISARMAMENT."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-A MILITARY COURT DECLINED TODAY TO ACQUIT COL.JACK W.DURANT OF LARCENY OF THE HESSE CROWN JEWELS NOW. IT RESERVED RULINGS ON OTHER DEFENSE MOVES TO FREE THE 38-YEAR-OLD AIR FORCES OFFICER.

DURANT'S ATTORNEYS, IN OPENING THEIR SIDE OF THE CASE, ASKED THE COURT MARTIAL TO ACQUIT HIM ON EVERY PENDING CHARGE INCLUDING THOSE OF EMBEZZLEMENT, SMUGGLING, AND MISAPPROPRIATING AN ARMY PISTOL.

HE IS ACCUSED OF STEALING THE FABULOUS HESSE FORTUNE VALUED AT BETWEEN $1,500,000 AND $7,000,000 FROM KRONBERG CASTLE, IN GERMANY, BRINGING THE JEWELS AND HEIRLOOMS TO THIS COUNTRY, AND THEN PROCEEDING TO SELL THEM.

FORMER WAC CAPTAIN KATHLEEN NASH, IN CHARGE OF THE CASTLE WHEN IT WAS OPERATED AS AN OFFICERS' REST CAMP, AND WHOM COL.DURANT MARRIED JUST BEFORE HE WAS ARRESTED, ALREADY HAS BEEN CONVICTED AS A CONSPIRATOR IN THE JEWEL THEFT.

DURANT'S PROSECUTOR, MAJ.JOSEPH ROBINSON, CONTENDS THAT HE AND CAPT.NASH TOGETHER WITH MAJ.DAVID F.WATSON, WHO ALSO HAS BEEN CONVICTED IN THE CASE, CONSPIRED TO STEAL AND DISPOSE OF THE FORTUNE.

CAPT.GLENN V.BRUMBAUGH, DEFENSE ATTORNEY, ASKED THE COURT TO ACQUIT COL.DURANT OF LARCENY ON THE GROUND THAT THE JEWELS WERE DUG FROM THE KRONBERG CASTLE'S BASEMENT AND TURNED OVER TO CAPTAIN NASH. HE REASONED THAT ANY LARCENY WOULD HAVE OCCURRED THEN.

BRUMBAUGH AND HIS COLLEAGUE, MAJ.JOSEPH BYRAN, ARGUED THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE SHOWING THAT COL.DURANT TOOK ANY OF THE JEWELS FROM THE CASTLE, NOR ENGAGED IN ANY CONSPIRACY WITH CAPT.NASH. COL.DURANT AND MAJ.WATSON WERE OFFICERS STATIONED NEARBY AT FRANKFURT.

CALLING ATTENTION TO THE WORDING OF THE ARMY'S CHARGES AGAINST COL.DURANT THAT THE STOLEN JEWELS BELONGED TO THE ANCIENT HESSE FAMILY, BAUMBAUGH DISPUTED THE HESSE OWNERSHIP AND MAINTAINED:

"ANYTHING THAT WAS IN THAT CASTLE BELONGED TO THE UNITED STATES. THE U.S.ARMY HAD A RIGHT TO TAKE IT AS THE CONQUERING ARMY."

REGARDING THE PISTOL, BRAUMBAUGH (CQ) ARGUED THAT IT HAD BEEN IDENTIFIED AS ONE MANUFACTURED FOR THE ARMY'S USE. BUT HE SAID THERE WAS NOTHING TO SHOW IT HAD EVER BEEN DELIVERED INTO AMY POSSESSION AND THUS COL.DURANT COULD NOT PROPERLY BE HELD GUILTY OF MISAPPROPRIATING AN ARMY WEAPON.

"WHEN FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS IN CONTROL OF INFORMATION DAY AFTER DAY, YEAR AFTER YEAR, CONCENTRATE ON THE ABNORMAL AND MALIGNANT ASPECTS OF AMERICA, WHILE EXCLUDING THE NORMAL AND THE BENIGN, THEN I THINK THOSE COUNTRIES CONSTRUCT A BARRIER TO STABILITY AND PEACE THAT CAN CONCEIVABLY PROVE INSURMOUNTABLE," HE SAID.

WITHOUT SPECIFICALLY NAMING RUSSIA AS TAKING PART IN "PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE," BENTON SAID SOVIET PROPAGANDA ABROAD IS BEING CONDUCTED BY "ENORMOUS AND EFFICIENT ORGANIZATIONS."

IN FRANCE, ASIDE FROM OFFICIAL SOVIET PUBLICATIONS, HE SAID THE COMMUNIST AND COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED PRESS COMPRISE 16 DAILY PAPERS AND 63 WEEKLIES ALONE.

IN ADDITION HE SAID THERE ARE 1,452 COMMITTEES AND OFFICES OF THE ORGANIZATION FRANCE-USSR DEVOTED TO DEVELOPING FRANCO-RUSSIAN FRIENDSHIP.

WALTER ISBRANDTSEN, AN OFFICIAL OF THE ISBRANDTSEN COMPANY, INC., WHICH OPERATES THE VESSEL UNDER CHARTER FROM THE U.S.MARITIME COMMISSION, SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE COMPANY BELIEVED THE SEIZURE OF THE SHIP AND CARGO WAS "AN ATTEMPT ON THE PART OF THE DUTCH TO SECURE INDONESIAN PRODUCTS WITHOUT PAY, WHICH THEY COULD NOT SECURE IN ORDERLY PROCESSES OF TRADE WITH THE INDONESIANS BECAUSE OF INDONESIAN ANTAGONISM."

ISBRANDTSEN COMMENTED ON ADVICES FROM BATAVIA THAT THE DUTCH WERE TRANSFERRING THE CARGO OF CINCHONA BARK AND RUBBER TO THE BRITISH SHIP PHRONTIS AND THE DUTCH SHIP BANDAM.

DISCUSSING SEIZURE OF THE BEHRMAN AND ITS $3,000,000 CARGO BY UNITS OF A DUTCH NAVAL BLOCKADE OUTSIDE THE NATIONALIST-HELD PORT OF CHERIBON, JAVA, ISBRANDTSEN SAID THAT IF "THIS ILLEGAL ACT" IS OVERLOOKED "THERE WILL BE CHAOS ON THE HIGH SEAS AND PIRACY MAY WELL BECOME THE RULE."

(ADVANCE)..NEW YORK, MARCH 19-(AP)-TALK ABOUT ATOMIC BOMBS THOUSANDS OF TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN THOSE ALREADY USED IS DISCOUNTED BY MOST SPECIALISTS SAYS DR.PHILIP MORRISON, ONE OF THE TOP ATOMIC SCIENTISTS, IN THE NEW REPUBLIC TODAY.

"THAT THE POSSIBILITY EXISTS," HE SAYS, "IS CERTAINLY TRUE; THAT ANY REALIZATION OF IT IS AT HAND SEEMS MOST UNLIKELY."

MORRISON DISCLOSES NUMEROUS ATOMIC POWER DETAILS IN MORE UNDERSTANDABLE WAYS THAT HERETOFORE TOLD. HE SAYS THAT A POWER PLANT MIGHT BE MADE WITH A PIECE OF PLUTONIUM NO BIGGER THAN YOUR HAND.

SUCH A PLANT, HE EXPLAINS, IS AT THE EXTREME LIMIT OF SAFETY. IT IS SOMETHING THAT WOULD EASILY EXPLODE IF CONTROL WAS LOST. IT IS ABOUT THE MINIMUM SIZE OF A PIECE OF PLUTONIUM THAT WOULD MAKE A REAL BOMB.

BUT, HE SAYS, THIS LITTLE MASS, IF PROPERLY COOLED, COULD GENERATE THOUSANDS OF HORSEPOWER. PRESUMABLY THE HEAT WOULD MAKE STEAM, TO DRIVE MACHINERY OR TO GENERATE ELECTRICITY.

BUT THERE STILL IS NO CHANCE OF USING THIS LITTLE PIECE OF PLUTONIUM TO DRIVE AN AUTO OR A PLANE, BECAUSE AT LEAST 50 TONS OF SHIELDING WOULD HAVE TO BE USED TO SHUT OFF ITS RADIOACTIVE RAYS.

MORRISON SAYS THAT A LABOR DROP AT ONE OF THE PLANTS FOR MAKING URANIUM 235 AT OAK RIDGE PROBABLY INDICATES THAT NEARLY ALL OF THIS KIND OF URANIUM IN THE UNITED STATES NOW IS PRODUCED BY A SINGLE PLANT. ORIGINALLY THERE WERE TWO BIG PRODUCERS. THE LABOR DROP IS AT THE ELECTRO-MAGNETIC PLANT. THAT LEAVES THE URANIUM TO BE PRODUCED MOSTLY IN THE GASEOUS DIFFUSION PLANT, THE GIANT OF ALL THE OAK RIDGE FACTORIES, WHERE THE BARRIERS STRAINING URANIUM GAS ARE 7,000 MILES LONG, IF PLACED END TO END.

FRANCE DEMANDS ACTION ON EXPORT OF GERMAN COAL

(N)

Bidault Tells Ministers He Must Have Guarantee on Fuel.

BRITAIN OBJECTS

Split Develops at Moscow on Use of Reich's Resources.

W. I. GALLAGHER

MOSCOW, March 20 — (AP) France and Great Britain split tonight on the future disposition of Germany's coal resources in the first serious disagreement among the western powers at the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault notified the council that France could not consent to economic reconstitution of Germany unless the other powers agreed to her demands for guarantees of German coal.

Bevin Rejects Proposal

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin replied curtly that he could not accept a proposal where one power blocked all negotiations until it gets its way on one point.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State George C. Marshall served notice that he would request that the four-power council summon the Austrian government to Moscow for consultation on the peace treaty for Austria.

The council will drop the German discussion for one day to hear a progress report from its deputies tomorrow on Austria after which Marshall will make his motion.

The adamant French stand, confronting the council with a virtual take-it-or-leave-it ultimatum, created what appears to be the worst split yet developed here among the western powers unless Britain and France can find a way to negotiate a compromise.

The situation found the Russians backing the French coal demands.

In the shortest session to date—it was barely three hours long—the ministers were given the French position which was confined to the coal issue.

Bidault Makes Statement

Bidault, answering Bevin's rejection last night of his request for coal guarantees, said today:

"I am directed by my government to state that we cannot be parties to an agreement on other problems raised—economic unity, level of industry, reparations—without previous settlement of the scheme for export of coal in a sense which is in conformity with our request.

"No different attitude could be adopted by any French government."

Bidault said that what France wants is a "flexible formula" for coal exports which would be "adaptable to the rate of production, and which would take into account the requirement of the German economy."

He urged Bevin to reconsider British objections to instituting the formula now and also writing it into the German peace treaty.

Bevin had said priority must be given to making Germany self-supporting so that she would not be a burden on occupying powers.

Bidault said France had no desire that Germany should continue to be a burden, adding:

"But we thing it possible both to balance foreign payment of Germany and satisfy the legitimate requirements of the Allied countries to import coal."

Coal Problem Essential

Declaring that he hoped Britain's attitude was not final, Bidault said that "Great Britain is aware that the coal problem is an essential one for France, and it is for a certain number of European countries.

"The recovery of their economy depends upon its solution. We cannot tolerate that coal, which is at the basis of all war industry, should be left in abundance at the disposal of Germany and that Germany should benefit by supplies in coal which are proportionately greater than those available to her victims."

Bidault also reemphasized, as he had stressed in his previous talks on German economic problems, French insistence on a separate regime for the Ruhr "for operation and control of the main activities of the Ruhr, both mines and industries."

Bidault reiterated his government's opposition to the Soviet proposal for boosting the German level of steel production to between 10,000,000 and 12,000,000 tons.

He suggested that France, Belgium and Luxembourg supply Germany with any more steel needed.

Suggests Work On Pact

Near the end of the meeting, Bevin suggested that a four-power pact for Germany be discussed tomorrow. Molotov asserted that this question "is far down on the agenda."

"I thought you would say that," Bevin replied. Molotov in the past has blocked discussion of the treaty.

The council also heard a progress report by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky on the work of their deputies on Germany.

During his report, Vishinsky mentioned the possible participation in the German peace treaty of the ex-enemy countries, Romania, Bulgaria and Italy, and Marshall asked him if Hungary had been omitted deliberately.

Vishinsky replied that there was more of a question about Hungary and Finland since they had not participated with their armed forces against Germany prior to the surrender.

Canada Might Abstain

Ottawa, March 20 (AP)—A source close to the Government said today that Canada, annoyed by failure of the Big Four to agree quickly to give small countries a full voice in framing the German peace treaty, was considering abstention from both the drafting and signing.

The attitude of the Big Four powers was represented as inconsistent with the part Canada and other smaller nations played in the war. The informant said Canada might await formation of a stable German government and make her own separate peace treaty.

Soviet Concept Of 'Democracy' Is Re-examined

Marshall's Definition Spurs Delegates to Study Red Version of Class Rule

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, March 20 (AP).—Secretary of State George C. Marshall's definition of the American conception of democracy stated on March 14 before the Council of Foreign Ministers, has brought this ancient Greek word under clinical examination here. Some persons have called for a Russian definition, suggesting that one of the great points of the peace-making depends on acceptance of a definition.

Mr. Marshall said: "To us a society is not free if law-abiding citizens live in fear of being denied the right to work or deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." He went on to stress the importance of free press, radio, cinema, theater and music, and civil liberties in the American idea of a democratic society.

Criticized in Press

The Soviet press on two consecutive days has mildly attacked the Secretary of State concerning this definition. Soviet newspapers have cited the situation in Greece and the position of the American Negro as examples of flaws in the way the American idea is carried out.

The Soviet Encyclopedia of 1936 uses 776 words in defining the Soviet idea of Democracy.

"Democracy with capitalism is capitalistic democracy, a democracy of an exploiting minority directed against a majority," this encyclopedia sets forth. "Soviet democracy is a super form of democracy, a real democracy. It is not a democracy in the texts of its constitution, but in the business of life. It does not exploit anybody, as does the 'democracy' of other classes, but with its dictatorship suppresses the exploiters smashed by the proletarian revolution."

The Soviet Encyclopedia says further that "a democracy is purely a class conception, undeniably connected with the dictatorship of one or the other class."

The encyclopedia adds that the only "concrete democracies" in history are the "slave owners (antique democracy), feudal, bourgeois which exist and exploit, and, on the other hand, Soviet democracy for the broad masses of workers exclusive of exploiters."

Party Chief Quoted

Early last December Georgi Alexandrov, propaganda chief of the central committee of the Communist party, gave a lengthy discussion of democracy. This address was being studied today by some delegates of the Foreign Ministers conference.

Among other things, he said:

"The contemporary form of democracy in Britain, France, the United States and Canada doubtless constituted a great achievement, a progressive achievement of the people. Bourgeois parliamentary democracy was a great step forward in the development of political life, causing a considerable amount of animation of public life and at least formally giving certain rights to the population. Marxists and Leninists have never denied this significance of bourgeois democracy."

"But many of the greatest problems of the epoch remain unsolved," he said, listing among these problems the right to work, relations between peoples within the state, "the political, moral and ideological unity of society," and the "spreading of culture, science and civilization among the entire population."

"The reason for this narrowness of bourgeois democracy is that, by its very nature, it is a democracy for the haves," he said.

Pravda Writer Attacks Bevin

Moscow, March 20—(AP)—Commentator M. Marinin accused British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin in Pravda today of trying to create a fog of uncertainty concerning the future of Germany's frontiers.

"It is well known," Marinin wrote, "that the Berlin (Potsdam) Conference introduced complete clarity into the most substantial questions connected with the future frontiers of Germany.

"What reason is there to complain of 'uncertainty' in respect to these countries or that they might hamper the reparation program?"

BRITAIN SEEKS REVISION OF SOVIET TRADE PACT

MOSCOW, March 20 — (AP) A British official spokesman said today British delegates had advised the Soviet Foreign office they were prepared to discuss revision of the 1942 Anglo-Russian pact outside the regular Foreign Ministers council.

The British said this notification was given Assistant Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, with a request that he advise as to the best method of taking up the matter.

The British spokesman denied reports that Foreign Secretary Bevin had sent a note to Stalin, on this subject or any other subject.

Laborite Tells Commons Two Join Against Russia

London, March 20 (AP)—Konni Zilliacus, Left-wing Labor member of Parliament and critic of British foreign policy, accused Britain and the United States tonight of teaming up against Russia.

His accusation after A. V. Alexander, Defense Minister, told the House of Commons during a debate on defense policy that the United Nations is still too weak for Britain to safely trim its armed forces below 1,772,000 men.

Zilliacus charged that Britain has entered into "an Anglo-American entente and an arms tie-up for a balance of power against the Soviet Union."

MAR 1947

Says U.S. Will Call Tune

Accusing the Government of "not genuinely and frankly basing its policy on the United Nations organization," he declared:

"America will supply the means and call the tune and we will have to supply the conscript cannon fodder for American purposes which are opposed to the principles of a Socialist government."

At the outset of the debate, Zilliacus and other labor "rebels" called for a review of military needs with a view toward releasing more men for labor-short home industries. The amendment was ruled out of order.

Declared Out Of Proportion

"If the Government based its policy on the United Nations organization and Charter and in equal confidence and friendship with both the Soviet Union and the United States," Zilliacus said, "then there is no sense whatever in our present military establishment and our defense arrangements which are out of all proportion to our necessities."

Alexander declined to discuss British commitments in Italy and Greece and other Middle East zones of occupation because "it is hoped that our troops will be out of these territories shortly — at any rate from all of them before the end of the financial year," on March 31, 1948.

He added that "in places like Hong Kong and Malaya British troops must continue to be located . . . to guarantee security and reconstruction."

LORDS CRITICIZE BRITISH EFFORT

LONDON, March 20—(AP) The overwhelmingly Conseravtive House of Lords rebuked the Labor government tonight, by 119 votes to 30, for the "inadequacy" of its efforts to pull Britain out of the current economic crisis.

Opposition peers declared Britain was "sinking into a helpless, hopeless coma" and facing "positice bankruptcy and famine" before out voting the government for the tenth time in 20 months.

Parliamentary observers foresaw no possibility of a government crisis, however. They said the defeat was relatively unimportant.

Lord Beveridge accused the government of "too much Micawberism" in trusting to luck, and added:

"Our standard of living and standards of work are in jeopardy, and they cannot be saved by going on as before. They can only be saved by a change in behavior."

He criticized the government's policy of spending 40 per cent of the American loan on films and tobacco and declared "it was not putting first things first" to place these items ahead of food imports.

The Lords vote did not come on any bill, but on a motion critical of the Labor government offered by Lord Rennell, a liberal.

However, the House of Commons already has overwhelmingly approved the government's economic program, which Hennell was criticizing, and passage of his motion will have no effect on government policy.

NEW ENVOY PLANS TOUR OF BRITAIN

E. CAMPBELL (N)

LONDON, March 20—(AP) U. S. Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas, expressing confidence Britain would surmount the assault of postwar economic stress, said today his first public action here might be a tour of the island's flood-stricken industrial and agricultural areas.

The new envoy to the Court of St. James told a news conference he already has launched inquiries regarding such a tour, but gave no indication when it might be made.

Douglas will not attain full official status until he presents his credentials at Buckingham Palace Tuesday.

Commenting on Britain's war legacy of economic troubles, which have been aggravated by an unusually severe winter, Douglas said:

"I have complete confidence and faith—though there may be a tedious period—that the sun will shine brightly again on this land and she will recover much of her traditional position in the world."

Anglo-American cooperation, the envoy said, was "not by-passing" the United Nations.

"Between ourselves, we can make the United Nations an instrumentality for the preservation of world peace," he added.

Douglas said that the question of another British loan "nor the necessity for it has not arisen, yet." Later, he said he had had no opportunity to "assess" the facts, and that his original answer did not "mean to imply that a loan might or might not be requested."

The ambassador said he hoped he would not be required to move his private residence from the present ambassadorial quarters in Princess Gate to sumptuous Winfield House, the Regent's Park mansion given the United States last year by Heiress Barbara Hutton. Winfield House will be ready for occupancy in June.

"It's lovely," Douglas said, "but it's too large for me. It would be out of character. One can't live simply there."

If he did not live in the house, Lewis said, he would "have to consider to what good purpose those lovely grounds and the house can be put.

Douglas will present his credentials at Buckingham Palace Tuesday to the Duke of Gloucester and the Princess Royal, the Countess of Harewood, who are members of Britain's Council of State in the absence of the King and Queen in South Africa.

He said he already had made inquiries concerning a tour of Britain's flood-stricken areas, but that details were not definite.

Douglas Prefers Old Embassy

(D)

Has No Liking for Mansion Given to U. S. by Barbara Hutton—'Too Big,' He Says.

London, March 20 (A. P.).—Lewis W. Douglas, new United States Ambassador to Britain, said today he hoped he would not be required to move his private residence to sumptuous Winfield House in Regents Park, which was given to the United States by Barbara Hutton last year.

"It's lovely but it's too large for me," Douglas told a news conference. "It would be out of character. One can't live simply there."

The present ambassadorial residence is in Princess Gate, Douglas said that, if he did not move to the Regents Park mansion, he would "have to consider to what good purpose those lovely grounds and the house can be put."

War Choice Of Alternate Pope In Neutral Nation Reported

London, March 20 (AP)—The Rome correspondent of the Catholic Fireside reported tonight that an alternate Pope in a neutral country was chosen during the war for fear the Nazis occupying Rome would kidnap Pope Pius XII. In Rome an informed Vatican source described the report as being without foundation.

The magazine, published in London, describes itself as "the Catholic magazine for the home." The name of the publisher was not printed in the publication.

"It was considered at one time highly probably that the SS (Elite Guard) would attempt to arrest the Holy Father," the correspondent, Augusta L. Francis, wrote.

Certain Prelate Appointed

"In view of this danger a certain prelate had been appointed by the Pope who would automatically have become pope in his place in case of his arrest.

"Thus the German SS men would have gone out against Pope Pius XII and would only have taken Father Eugenio Pacelli, a simple priest, into custody. His successor would already be reigning in a certain neutral country where he was in readiness."

The correspondent said the name of the alternate pope and his residence could "not be revealed."

The Vatican source, who was stationed at the Vatican throughout the Nazi occupation of Rome, said such a plan never even had been suggested. He added that the only way to replace a pope was by elections after a pontiff's death.

BRITAIN PRESSES INQUIRY

Sends Second Note to Russians on Hungarian Question

LONDON, March 20 (AP)—Britain has called again for an immediate four-power investigation into alleged Soviet "interference" in Hungary's internal political affairs, a Foreign Office spokesman said today.

In a new note delivered to the Russian representative on the Allied Council for Hungary, the Government reaffirmed its view that the arrest of Bela Kovacs by Soviet Army men should be investigated, together with charges that the Soviet occupation authorities were exercising pressure on Hungary's political parties. Mr. Kovacs is secretary of the Hungarian Smallholders party.

BRITISH TURN DOWN URGENT POLISH PLEA

LONDON, March 20.—(AP) Britain has refused an urgent request by Poland to stop deporting a group of former members of Lt. Gen Wladyslaw Anders' armies to Germany for demobilization, a foreign office spokesman said today.

Poland protested to Britain early this month when it became known that small parties of Anders' men were being sent to Osnabrueck, in the British zone of Germany, because they refused either to join the Polish Resettlement corps planned by the war office or to be repatriated.

The spokesman said the British note denied a charge that the action was being taken to force men into the Resettlement corps, planned as a prelude to their absorption into British industry or the Dominions.

Laborites Planning 400 New Papers

Will Combat Conservative Press in Small Towns

LONDON, March 20 (AP).—The Labor party announced today a plan to set up some 400 new Labor newspapers in provincial towns to combat the predominantly Conservative provincial press.

Morgan Phillips, party secretary, asked local units to sponsor weekly, twice-monthly or monthly publications, with the aim of reaching a paying audience of at least 1,000,000.

The party said the 200 Labor provincial papers now published have a combined circulation of about 250,000.

Conservative newspapers in the provinces outnumber Labor publications by "more than three-to-one," the party said.

INDO-CHINA STIRS CRISIS FOR FRANCE

Ramadier Said To Threaten To Quit If Not Supported

J. E. DYNAN (N)

Paris, March 20 (AP)—France was threatened tonight with a new Government crisis as Premier Paul Ramadier was reported to have declared he would resign unless the Communists support a vote of confidence on his Indo-Chinese policy.

The Communists alone of the four parties in his Government have opposed him on the question.

The National Assembly is scheduled to vote Saturday morning on the Premier's demand for a vote of confidence following its final ballot on military credits for the Indo-China campaign.

Foll ws Communist Move

The confidence request was introduced today after Jacques Duclos, Communist spokesman, announced his party would abstain from supporting the Indo-China military budget.

Faced with the showdown motion, the National Assembly recessed its discussion on military credits to Indo-China until Saturday.

Ramadier carried his ultimatum to President Vincent Auriol, who under French procedure would have the task of selecting a successor.

Auriol scheduled a series of meetings with party leaders beginning tonight and extending through Friday. These could be either a last attempt to achieve conciliation between the Communists and other parties, or the actual spadework on a new government.

New Offer Awaited

Simultaneously with a change in the Viet Nam foreign ministry, some Communist deputies said they were awaiting a new peace proposition from the pro-Communist insurgent leader.

Dispatches from Saigon quoted a Viet Nam radio announcement that Ho Chi-minh had relinquished the foreign affairs portfolio to his assistant, Hoang Minh-giam. Ho, it was said, retained the premiership.

President Auriol was reported anxiously seeking to establish some basis for agreement among the four parties to prevent a government rupture from taking an anti-Communist turn. This, it was felt, might lead to most serious results, even a general strike, because of Communist control of labor organizations.

The Communist central committee said continuation of military activity in Indo-China would oblige France to seek "foreign financial and military aid, thus alienating France's national independence."

Curtails Probe Power

Meanwhile, a bill was passed in the Assembly which would curtail Communist influence in the committee investigating prewar and wartime events in France. The committee, charged with a study of events from 1933 through the liberation, is composed of 60 members, mostly from Parliament and twenty from various resistance groups, mostly Communists.

After a dispute within the committee on the powers of nonparliamentary members, Maurice Violette, Radical-Socialist, introduced the bill to bar them from participation in committee votes. It was passed, 395 to 181, by the Assembly.

New Vote On Ramadier Regime Set

French Assembly To Ballot Saturday In Showdown

(D)

J. E. DYNAN

Paris, March 20—(AP)— Faced with a showdown motion of confidence in the Ramadier government, the French National Assembly today recessed its discussion of military credits in Indo-china until Saturday, when the vote will be taken.

An atmosphere of impending crisis hung over the assembly as the Communist floor leader, Jacques Duclos, defying Premier Paul Ramadier's call for unity, declared the Communists would abstain from voting on expenditures for the French campaign against Viet-Namese insurgents.

The Assembly recess was necessitated by a constitutional clause providing for a 24-hour "cooling off" period between a formal motion of confidence and the ballot on the motion. Ramadier sought to pin the Communists down on the issue by tying the confidence motion to the military budget question.

In a sudden unscheduled cabinet meeting this morning, attended by President Vincent Aurio Ramadier asked and obtained authority to seek a vote of confidence in the National Assembly.

The premier obtained a 421 to 0 vote of confidence on his Indo-China policies only yesterday, but the Communist delegation of some 150 members abstained from voting despite Ramadier's challenge that they take an unequivocal position either for or against the government.

Ramadier's new move today was in line with his insistence that he wants his policies backed by the entire nation—not merely by a majority.

Abstention or opposition of the Communists on the impending vote might precipitate the cabinet's fall—or at least result in a reshuffle of posts.

PARIS, March 20 (AP)—Dispatches from Indo-China today quoted the clandestine Viet Namese radio as saying President Ho Chi Minh had given up his portfolio as Minister of Foreign Affairs and that the duties had been taken over by Hoang Minh Giam.

Pierre Laval Fought Nazi Labor Demand

By MEL MOST

Paris, March 20—(AP)—Pierre Laval, Vichy chief executed after the liberation, was accused by his German masters of "sabotage of Germany's fight for life against Bolshevism" in a charge communicated to Adolf Hitler, according to a document disclosed here.

The paper, made available by usually reliable sources, is dated Aug. 9, 1943, and signed with the name of Fritz Sauckel, Nazi slave labor recruiter who was hanged at Nuernberg. The paper, represented as a report to Hitler, was communicated to the Versailles Court that sentenced Fernand De Brinon, Vichy collaborationist, to death two weeks ago.

It tells a tale of dissension behind the Nazi war effort as the retreat from Stalingrad and North Africa continued— a tale in which all the principal figures now are dead or condemned men—with Sauckel reporting that Laval had refused a demand for 500,000 more French slave laborers for Germany.

Although the document states that Laval had offered to make one million workmen produce for Germany inside France, it contains a letter from Sauckel to German Minister Schleier to Otto Abetz' embassy in Paris saying:

"I have lost all confidence in the good faith and good will of French Premier Laval. His refusal constitutes pure and simple sabotage of Germany's fight for life against Bolshevism."

Behind Laval's refusal, it said, was "a totally false notion of the military and domestic condition of the Reich." It also said that Laval was seeking dissolution of the French Fascist groups of Jacques Doriot and Marcel Bucard, described as favoring "unreserved collaboration with Germany."

Another passage said Laval told a Vichy cabinet meeting he opposed "at any price sending a single new French worker to Germany at any cost." The passage, apparently alluded to by the prosecution at the De Brinon trial, said De Brinon reported Laval's words to Krug Von Nidda, "ambassador of Germany to Vichy."

Von Nidda was German consul general and representative at Vichy of the Embassy in Paris.

Germans' All-Party Plan Is Protested by French

BERLIN, March 20 (AP).—General Joseph Pierre Koenig, French military governor for Germany, strongly protested in the Allied Control Council today the recent action of Germany's Christian Democratic Union in calling a conference of the country's political parties to form a "committee for national representation." He called the action "improper and illegal."

American and British representatives expressed strong disagreement. The Russians were understood to have sided with the French.

General Koenig's stand was consistent with French opposition to the establishment of German central administrative agencies or anything akin to them. He maintained that the activities of the German political parties should be restricted to a local basis.

Furthermore, General Koenig called the move initiated by the Christian Democrats improper "because the question of German unification and establishment of a central government is now under discussion by the Foreign Ministers' Council in Moscow."

British Representative Air Marshal Sir Sholto Douglas said he disagreed with General Koenig's contention that the Christian Democrats' proposal was improper and illegal. The American representative, Major General Frank A. Keating, said the United States favored the amalgamation of German political parties on a national basis.

Berlin Paper Criticizes France

BERLIN, March 20 (AP).—The conservative Christian Democratic Union through its official newspaper, today criticized as unwise and unacceptable one of the proposals for Germany's future made at Moscow by France's Foreign Minister, Georges Bidault. The Christian Democrats said the proposal for separation of the Ruhr, Rhineland and Saar from Germany violates the "natural right of a people to live together in national unity."

Life for German Food Thefts

BERLIN, March 20 (AP).—A law providing punishments ranging to life imprisonment or $500,000 fine for theft and unlawful use of rationed foodstuffs, consumer goods and ration cards was signed today by the Allied Control Council.

British to Scrap Biggest Cannon at Krupp Works

Berlin, March 20—(AP)—The biggest gun ever made—a cannon with a barrel 133 feet long and a caliber of 80 cm. (31.497 inches)—will be cut up for scrap at the Krupp works in Essen next week, British authorities said today.

Slav Execution Removed Witness On War Crimes

Neurnberg, Germany, March 20 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, chief United States war-crimes prosecutor, said today the swift execution in Yugoslavia of a German officer, Col. Gen. Alexander Leohr, had deprived his staff of a potentially important witness.

Leohr was sentenced to death in Yugoslavia for ordering senseless destruction of Belgrade. Taylor said he asked the Yugoslavs for permission to interrogate the General principally about his orders to invade Yugoslavia and about pillage planned in high German command levels.

The permission was granted and the death sentence was stayed on February 26. Two lawyers were sent to Yugoslavia soon afterwards.

Upon arrival, they found Leohr already had been shot. Yugoslav officials refused first to talk of the execution, but after three days acknowledged that Leohr was dead.

The lawyers said an apparent lack of co-ordination between the Yugoslav War Department and Foreign Office had resulted in the execution before the questioning.

Army To Free 60,000 German Employes

Frankfurt, Germany, March 20 (AP)—About 60,000 Germans now working for United States occupation forces will be released from their jobs May 31 in an effort to lessen the occupation costs, Army headquarters announced today.

At present about 235,000 Germans and 50,000 displaced persons are employed by American occupation forces. Their wages are charged against the German Government.

FIND ATROCITIES LINK

Nuernberg, March 20 (A. P.).—A team of American lawyers has just returned from Poland with evidence which they say show that I. G. Farben Industrie built a synthetic rubber plant alongside the Oswiecim concentration camp and sent people too ill to work to the Oswiecim crematorium.

The evidence, the lawyers say, links German industrialists with atrocities for the first time. They declared that twenty officials of Farben would be indicted as war criminals in a few weeks. The death penalty will be asked.

Until this evidence was uncovered the Oswiecim camp got its name only as a death camp with the purpose of eliminating Jews, Poles and Russians.

More Wives Can Sail

Frankfurt, Germany, March 20 (AP)—The United States European Command said today that wives whose army husbands have been overseas for four months and who have applied for accommodation in Frankfurt can sail in June.

Aid for German Children

Army to Give Summer Camp Vacations to 4,000,000

FRANKFURT AM MAIN, March 20 (AP).—American constabulary headquarters said today that United States Army leaders of the German youth program are planning to give 4,000,000 German children chances at summer camp and outdoor "democratic vacations."

Headquarters also said that for the first time Germany girls will be hired as hostesses for dances at Palmgarten, the big Red Cross club. Only girls of Allied nationalities previously have been allowed. The Germans will be carefully screened, the announcement said.

Army Court Convicts 20 Nazis

DACHAU, Germany, March 20 (AP).—Twenty Germans, former Gestapo agents and members of the S. S. (Elite guard), were convicted by an American war crimes court today of war-time mass murder and atrocities against American flyers. One defendant in the 100-day trial was acquitted. Sentences probably will be announced tomorrow.

4 U.S. Officers Found Guilty Of Selling Liquor

Heidelberg, Germany, March 20 (AP)—Four United States constabulary officers have been convicted by a court-martial of selling liquor to enlisted men at black market prices, constabulary headquarters said today.

It described the officers and their punishment as:

Capt. Frederick M. Trumps, Berkeley, Cal., sentenced to dismissal from service; Lieut. Francis D. Scott, Houston, Texas, fined $250 and reprimanded; Lieut. Paul R. Montgomery, Tacoma, Wash., fined $225 and reprimanded, and Lieut. John P. Downing, Bangor, Maine, fined $200 and reprimanded.

The enlisted men who purchased liquor from these officers usually resold it, the constabulary judge advocate said. Liquor is rationed in military stores in occupied Germany.

Nine Reported Killed In Spanish Disturbance

Valencia, Spain, March 20 (AP)—Disturbances were reported today to have been suppressed in the Utrilla coal mines, 95 miles northwest of Valencia, with 40 persons arrested and nine killed "while trying to escape." There was no official confirmation.

The disturbances were said to have started Sunday when police reported they discovered an alleged Communist plot to blow up a power plant at the mines. About 40 miners were said to have fled to the mountains to escape arrest and others resisted police within the mines.

ITALY TO SEND TROOPS TO EASTERN FRONTIER

ROME, March 20—(AP) Italy will place one army division on her eastern frontier after Allied troops withdraw from Venezia Giulia National defense Minister Luigi Gasparotto said in a newspaper interview tonight.

He did not disclose this unit's exact position, but told the Giornale d'Italia that another division would be sent to the lower Veneto region, presumably to back up the first.

WORLD HARMONY IS URGED BY POPE

Vatican City, March 20 (A. P.).—Pope Pius XII issued an encyclical letter today recalling the life of St. Benedict of Nursia, founder of western monasticism, and calling upon Catholics to emulate his example.

The encyclical—dated March 21, feast day of the saint who died March 21, 547, and whose fourteenth century is observed this year—also is a plea for the rebuilding of the noted abbey of Monte Cassino, destroyed during the war and of which the pontiff wrote:

"Practically nothing else survived from the destruction except the sacred crypt in which the relics of the holy patriarch are preciously kept."

The Pope's encyclical letter drew a parallel between the days "when the position and fate of civilization as well as of the church and of civil society was in danger of collapse," and "our age, troubled and anxious for the vast material and moral ruins."

The life of St. Benedict, the pontiff wrote, "was like a star in the darkness of night," and from him "needed remedies" can be borrowed today. From divine love "fraternal charity toward our neighbor should arise, which will lead us to consider all as brothers in Christ, of whatever stock or nation or culture."

"Thus," the encyclical continued, "from all nations and from all classes of a country there will arise a single Christian family whose members will not be divided by exaggerated personal interests but will co-operate with each other harmoniously."

Communist Is Slain In Salonika (AP)

Salonika, Greece, March 20 (AP)—Three slugs from an assassin's gun cut down John Zevgos, 40, former Communist Minister of Agriculture, as he stood on a busy corner in Salonika today, and police said a man who claimed to be a member of the Communist party's "execution squad" had confessed the slaying.

Observers saw in the killing another indication of a rift in Communist ranks. They recalled that the recent arrests of more than 500 suspected Communists in Athens were made on the basis of information supplied by Communists to the Minister of Public Order, Napoleon Zervas.

Zevgos, a member of the central committee of the EAM, Leftist political coalition, was struck by three bullets. One penetrated his heart.

Police Quote Butcher

Police quoted Christos Vlachos, 30-year-old butcher from Serres, as saying he killed Zevgos "for what I suffered in the mountains." They said he claimed to have been imprisoned at Bulkjes in Yugoslavia for six months "because I would not accept the Communist line against Greece."

Bulkjes, near Belgrade, has been used as a training center for Greek Guerrillas, the Greek Government has charged.

Police said that Vlachos claimed also to be a member of OPLA, the Communist party's execution squad, and ELAS, the armed branch of the EAM.

His statement, as quoted by police, indicated a personal motive was involved in the slaying.

Divorced His Wife

"When I returned to Serres I found my wife had been influenced by Communists to become professionally unfaithful to me and I divorced her," the statement said. "I believe Zevgos was responsible for all my troubles and imprisonment at Bulkjes."

Zevgos, who was Agriculture Minister in the Cabinet of George Papendredu in 1944, was slightly injured in January, 1945, when a mob attacked him and another member of the EAM central committee in Athens.

"Most Fanatic" Follower

He was known as chief of the Communist party in Salonika and a "most fanatic" follower of communism. Greek newsmen recalled that 48 hours before the opening of the abortive 1944 revolution he wrote a letter to a Communist newspaper in Athens saying "now is the time to use our smoke-blackened guns."

Zevgos was educated in Moscow and was a schoolteacher before the Nazis occupied the country. He was married to a Greek girl whom he met when both were students in Moscow.

GREEK COMMUNIST SLAIN IN SALONIKA

Salonika, March 20 (A. P.).—John Zevgos, who was Communist Minister of Agriculture in the Liberation Cabinet of George Papendreou in 1944, was shot to death by gunmen shortly after 1 P. M. on a street corner here today.

Police said that Christos Vlachos, 30, was arrested immediately and questioned. Police quoted him as saying he was a member of O. P. L. A., execution squad of the Communist party, and a former member of the Bullijes camp in Yugoslavia. The Greeks have charged that Bulkjes was a training center for Greek guerrillas.

Police said Vlachos told them he had been imprisoned at Bulkjes for six months "because I would not accept the Communist line against Greece" and that he believed Zevgos was "responsible for all my troubles and imprisonment at Bulkjes."

A butcher from Serres, Vlachos said that when he returned to his home town, "I found my wife had been influenced by Communists to become professionally unfaithful to me and I divorced her."

He said he was a member of the ELAS armed branch of the EAM, during the German occupation.

The slaying of Zevgos was seen here as an indication of a rift in the Communist ranks.

Zevgos, who was a member of the Leftist EAM Central Committee, has been described as the chief of the Communist party in Salonika.

Bias Against Greece In U. N. Report Charged

Salonika, Greece, March 20 (AP)—Alexis Kyrou, Greek Liaison Officer, formally protested in a letter to the United Nations investigating commission today a report sent to United Nations headquarters by Stanley Ryan, press officer, which Kyrou called "scandalously biased" against the Greek Government.

Kyrou said Ryan's cabled press release on a four-day trip by a commission team which failed to locate the guerrilla leader "General Markos," in the mountains of western Macedonia "in some cases succeeded in falsifying the truth in an underhanded way."

Official Greek sources said Kyrou's protest also complained that Ryan had failed to balance his report and had been inaccurate. They said this referred especially to Ryan's account of how Athanasios ZaZfarides, interpreter, left the commission and joined the guerrillas, saying Kyrou had threatened him with arrest.

The statement attributed to the interpreter about the threatened arrest was included in Ryan's account, Kyrou said, but his own denial was not.

Greek sources also quoted Ryan's report as saying the guerrilla headquarters at Kastanofiton were twenve hours from the Albanian frontier, while the actual distance is only twelve miles.

Greek Troops Launch Drive Against Rebels

Salonika, Greece, March 20—(AP)—Greek Government troops were reported ready to begin full-scale operations today against guerrillas in the neighborhood of Mount Grammos near the Albanian border.

Alexis Kyrou, Greek liaison officer with the United Nations Balkan Investigating Commission here, made a formal announcement of the planned drive last night.

The area selected is that in which Russian and Polish delegates on a commission team remained last Sunday when the rest of the team gave up a two-day effort to get in touch with rebel "Gen. Markos" and pulled out.

Official commission sources said that at last reports the Russia and Polish representatives were the plateau village of Kastanofito near Mount Grammos and north east of the Grevena Plain. Th delegates had announced their in tention to keep trying for a mee ing with "Markos."

Greek Army spokesmen mean while charged yesterday that th delegates' presence in guerrill country was interfering with go ernment troop operations aroun Asproklissia.

They said soldiers fighting guer rillas there held their fire on a group mounted on mules and wav ing a white flag for fear the group might be the Slavs from the commission.

Plan Direct Phone Link to U. S.

ATHENS, March 20 (AP).—The Ministry of Telegraphs announced today negotiations are in progress to established direct telephonic and telegraphic communication with America. Greece now communicates abroad only through London.

Greek Markets Rise On Truman Speech

Athens, March 20 (A. P.).—President Truman's congressional speech has greatly improved public morale. Whereas the market before the speech was consistently bearish, it is now bullish.

The 1914 loan jumped from 24,000 to 38,000 drachmas; Athens Electrical Company (British owned) from 24,000 to 44,000; the American owned water company, Ulen & Co., from 1,800,000 to 2,700,000. The gold pound has dropped in price from 143,000 to 133,000 drachmas.

Hungarians Avert Move

Budapest, March 20 (AP)—Small Holder party members of Parliament said tonight that Left-wing attempts to force the Hungarian Government to issue a statement deploring American "interference" in Hungarian affairs were forestalled at an interparty meeting today.

These informants said that the attempts had been under way ever since delivery of the first note from the United States criticizing Soviet moves in Hungary and asking, an inter-Allied investigation of the alleged plot to restore the régime of Admiral Nicholas Horthy.

They said Communist, Social Democrat and Peasant party leaders had sought to force Prime Minister Ferenc Nagy, Small Holder leader, to issue an official statement saying American support of the Small Holder party was harmful to the country's political situation.

[A Foreign Office spokesman in London said today that Britain had delivered a second note demanding a four-power investigation of alleged Russian "interference" in Hungary's internal political affairs. The second British note was delivered to Lieut. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, Russian representative on the Allied Control Council for Hungary and reaffirmed the contention that arrest of Small Holder Leader Bela Kovacs by the Soviet Army should be investigated, together with charges of Russian pressure on Hungary's political parties.]

Proposals of both the United States and British governments for investigation in Hungary have been rejected by Soviet representatives on the grounds that it would be "unwarranted interference" in Hungarian affairs.

300 OPPOSITIONISTS HELD

Rumanian Red Minister Tells Peasant Group of Arrests

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 19 (Delayed) (AP)—Teohari Georgescu, Communist Minister of the Interior, told a group of National Peasant opposition members of Parliament today that about 300 opposition leaders in Rumania were now under arrest.

M. Georgescu was replying to a delegation that had come to protest. He said the arrests were made on charges of inciting peasants to resist the Government's efforts to collect grain and stirring up anti-Soviet feeling. He promised, however, that those arrested would be tried by military or civil tribunals in their home towns.

Dr. Juliu Manui, Peasant leader, saw King Michael on the question today also.

Greek Ship that Hit Mine is Towed to Amsterdam

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, March 20—(AP)—The 4,355-ton Greek freighter Alexandria is being towed to Amsterdam today. She struck a mine yesterday off the West Frisian Islands.

She is listing heavily, but her crew is still aboard her.

The Alexandria sailed for Amsterdam from Baltimore on February 19 with a cargo of hides.

10,400 Poles Accept Offer Of Amnesty

Warsaw, March 20 (AP)—The Polish Government announced today that, so far, 10,400 members of underground bands had accepted its postelection amnesty offer and have surrendered large supplies of arms and supplies.

Wladyslaw Mikolajczyk said the majority of the members of his opposition Polish Peasant party who were arrested by security police preceding the elections January 19 had been released.

He had estimated that 50,000 to 100,000 members of his party were taken into custody, although the Government declared only 2,000 had been imprisoned, mostly on charges of being connected with the underground.

The former Vice Premier said the election commission had not yet acted on his petition for the January 19 elections to be declared invalid and new elections held.

Hague Court Names Officials

THE HAGUE, the Netherlands, March 20 (AP)—The International Court of Justice appointed six of its members today to handle summary procedure for a one-year term beginning May 3. Dr. Jose Gustave Guerrero of San Salvador was named president of the panel and Green H. Hackworth of the United States was appointed a substitute member.

Big Game Shipped to U. S.

Mombasa, Kenya, March 19 (A. P.).—The S. S. Robin Locksley left for New York today with the first post-war cargo of big game and other livestock consigned to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis Research and various United States zoos.

Arabs Reject Lie's Plan

CAIRO, Egypt, March 20 (AP)—The political committee formed of Premiers and Foreign Ministers of Arab states rejected today the proposal of Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations for the appointment of a four-power commission to investigate the Palestine situation.

Plot To Murder Arab Leader Is Denied

Jerusalem, March 20 (AP)—Palestine police said today reports from Cairo that a plot had been discovered here to kill El Sayed Jamal El Husseini, head of the Arabs' Palestine Executive, were "absolutely untrue."

Cairo dispatches yesterday said Jamal El Husseini had confirmed the report of the plot by Arabs co-operating with Zionists.

A bomb exploded in Sirkin street at Haifa tonight, injuring one person, it was announced officially tonight. No details of the incident were available.

Briton Killed In Bomb Blast

Jerusalem, March 20—(AP)— —A British policeman was killed and five other Britons were injured last night by a bomb explosion on the highway between Haifa and Tel Aviv.

An official announcement said the men were returning to their quarters near Hadera after visiting a motion picture theater when the blast occurred.

American Deported From Palestine

Jerusalem, March 20 (A. P.).—Albert L. Hirschkoff, free-lance American journalist, and Jacques Meyers, French newsman, who arrived in Palestine aboard the Jewish immigrant ship Abril two weeks ago, were deported to France today aboard the French steamship Providence. American seamen from the Abril still are detained at Haifa awaiting trial on charges of aiding and abetting illegal immigration.

Indian Troops to Leave Japan

NEW DELHI, India, March 20 (AP).—The Indian government has decided to withdraw 11,414 Indian occupation troops from Japan as soon as it can be arranged in consultation with the British government and other commonwealths concerned, Defense Secretary Sardar Baldev Singh told the Legislative Assembly today. He said no date could be given.

Casualty Total Is 3,000

LAHORE, India, March 20 (AP).—Known casualties in the rioting involving Moslems against Hindus and Sikhs which began March 4 in Punjab Province were officially reported today as 2,049 dead and 1,103 injured by noon yesterday. A communique said the province generally was quiet but that tension still persisted in some areas.

Dock To Be Towed 4,000 Miles

BOMBAY, March 20 (AP).—A $5,000,000 floating drydock capable of berthing a 50,000-ton ship started today a six-week trip from Bombay to an unannounced destination in the Mediterranean as part of the British Navy. Seven Admiralty tugs towed the drydock in two sections for the trip of about 4,000 miles. The Suez Canal will be the most difficult part of the journey, because at one point the bulky structure will have only fifteen inches leeway on each side.

American Plane Missing.

Tehran, March 20 (A. P.).—The Iranian gendarmerie information department said today that a two-engined American plane, No. 8,303, was missing on a flight from Razan, Iraq, toward Kerman, in southeast Iran, and was believed to have made a forced landing after running out of gasoline. The plane carried no passengers.

Jap Denies Blame For Mass Deaths

Singapore, March 20 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Takuma Nishimura denied responsibility today for the slaying of 5,300 Chinese at the opening of the defense in the Singapore massacre trials.

Nishimura said he was engrossed with plans to invade Sumatra with his imperial guards division and had turned over to his chief of staff the execution of an order from the 25th Army to screen and dispose of anti-Japanese elements.

Nishimura said he had not at that time been able to acquire detailed knowledge of existing conditions in Singapore and did not know whether the screening order was justified.

Lieut. Gen. Sabura Kawamura, a second defendant who commanded the dreaded "thought police," testified he believed the massacre was "an unavodable necessity for the peace, order and security of the Japanese army."

His orders, he added, allowed only three days for examinations to determine whether the Chinese, rounded up after the fall of Singapore, were anti-Japanese. Inexperienced in such work, he said he obtained help from Singapore police and "influential Chinese" in checking names on the list. He admitted he issued the orders and detailed the place and method of executions.

Seven Japanese are on trial before a British military tribunal for the wholesale executions, which were carried out from February to March of 1942. Most of the victims were machine-gunned.

CHINA EXPECTS 3 MONTH WAR

Communists Will Be Defeated By Then, Chen Says

Nanking, March 20 (AP)—The Chinese Government has embarked on a program of total war calculated to defeat the Communists within three months, the Government's army chief of staff declared today in discussing the sudden capture of Yenan, Communist capital.

Speaking at a press conference, Gen. Chen Cheng said, "this does not mean the end of all armed Communists—naturally there will be pockets left—but it does mean the enemy will cease to exist as a formal, armed opposition."

The capture of Yenan yesterday was accomplished by five Government divisions, he said, and was the first big objective in the three-month timetable for defeating the Communist forces.

Halfhearted In Past

"Fighting in the past has been halfhearted because peace negotiations were continuing at the same time," he said, but now the Government and its high command have decided the Communists are "in open rebellion" and force is the only way to settle with them.

Asked if he thought the Government could win without help from outside, he replied, "In our fight against the Communists we don't expect any help from abroad."

Chen confirmed that the Communists evacuated Yenan well ahead of the Government entry and said he only knew that they retreated northeastward.

"If they are seeking to unite with Communists in Manchuria, they are likely to have a hard time," he commented.

Asserting the easy fall of Yenan was a great morale factor, he said it should shorten the war considerably, contending the Communists were losing popular support.

For example, he said, 10,000 Communist soldiers were captured in the drive toward Yenan, and "substantial numbers" of these surrendered voluntarily.

The captors of Yenan will drive on north at least to the banks of the Yellow River, which incloses the Yenan area in a huge loop, he said, but the next important battles probably will be fought in Shantung province in the east coastal section.

Questioned On Dairen

Government armies around Tsinan and Tsingtao in Shantung still are on the defensive, Chen conceded, but reiterated, "I don't expect the war to last very long."

Asked when the Government planned to occupy Harbin and Dairen in Manchuria, he responded, "you'd better ask the Foreign Ministry."

Court May Curb Jap Testimony

Tokyo, March 20—(AP)— The International Military Tribunal trying 26 Japanese wartime leaders announced today that it is considering requiring all future witnesses to testify through affidavits previously submitted to the scrutiny of the judges.

Since the defense opened its case, Japanese witnesses have delivered lengthy statements, some of which Tribunal President Sir William Webb has ruled out as propaganda.

Webb acknowledged it might be argued that requiring advance affidavits would be "inconsistent with a fair trial."

He said the question arose over an application from the defense to place on the stand 30 Japanese witnesses who wanted to testify on Manchurian issues.

"It is my intention to require that their evidence be reduced to affidavit form and that copies be furnished to the judges three days in advance of the witnesses' appearance on the stand," Webb said.

"In other words, I intend to require a revision of procedure. It is an immense departure—a departure of vital importance. It may lead to our having to make a decision without having heard arguments."

Russian Fired First, U.S. General Finds

Seoul, Korea, March 20 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Harlan N. Hartness, investigating the killing of two Russian soldiers by Korean policemen Tuesday, quoted witnesses today as declaring that the shooting occurred in the American zone and that a Russian fired first.

Hartness, of Richmond, Va., assistant commander of the United States 7th Infantry Division, said participants and witnesses gave him this account of the incident near the Thirty-eighth parallel, which divides Korea into American and Russian occupation zones:

The Russians ordered farmers of the village of Ok Sim Dong to deliver a quantity of rice to the nearby village of San Jik Tong to be forwarded to the Russian zone.

Ok Sim Dong is definitely in the American zone and Korean police went to San Jik Tong in search of the rice. They learned that it apparently already had been moved into the Russian area, but they got into a discussion with the Russians as to jurisdiction over San Jik Tong.

A Russian lieutenant and two Korean policemen began scuffling. A Russian enlisted man fired at the squirming men and hit his lieutenant in the leg.

A Korean policeman then fired seven shots, killing both Russians.

Finds Shooting Was In U. S. Korean Zone

Seoul, March 20 (A. P.).—An American general said today he was told by participants and witnesses that the shooting of two Russian soldiers by South Korean police near the 38th parallel Tuesday occurred in American-occupied territory and that the Russians shot first.

Brig.-Gen. Harlan N. Hartness of Richmond, Va., assistant commander of the United States Seventh Division, who went to the scene to investigate, said he also was told that the rice involved in the incident came from South Korea and now presumably was in Russian-occupied North Korea.

Hartness said the American command has received no word concerning the incident from the Soviet Command in the north.

DUTCH SPLIT RESULTS ON INDONESIAN PACT

BATAVIA, Java., March 20 (AP)—A split developed in the Dutch Commission General for the Netherlands East Indies today as the Indonesian Cabinet was summoned into session for Saturday to decide whether to sign the Cheribon Pact and put a formal end to the nineteen-month-old Indonesian revolt.

The decision of the Netherlands Government to sign the pact immediately was believed to have promoted the resignation of Feike de Boer, one of the original members of the commission that has been negotiating with the Indonesians. Two members-designate said they would not accept appointment.

Mr. de Boer, considered to be a representative of Dutch commercial interests, said he was quitting because of the "unsatisfactory course of events both in the Netherlands East Indies and Holland" since the draft of the Cheribon Agreement was initialed last November.

Under the Cheribon Pact, the Dutch would recognize the sovereignty of the Indonesian Republic over Java, Sumatra and Madura as equal partner with the Netherlands under the Crown of Holland.

One action today tended to remove a problem for the meeting of the Indonesian Cabinet on Saturday called by Premier Sutan Sjahrir. The Netherlands Army said an agreement had been signed with the Indonesian Republic for joint administration of the Modjokerto area in eastern Java, which had been occupied by Dutch military forces.

Firm Demands Damages For Java Ship Seizure

Batavia, Java, March 20 (AP)—The Netherlands East Indies Government said tonight that the American Liberty ship Martin Behrman will be free to sail next week when the unloading of her confiscated cargo is completed.

The charterer's representative, James W. Ryan, promptly replied that the Isbrandsen Company still considers the ship was seized along with its cargo and is the responsibility of the Netherlands East Indies Government.

He said the decision on whether Capt. Rudy Gray would re-assume command and sail the ship from Batavia before the Netherlands East Indies Government agrees to pay damages rests with the company's New York office, but even if the ship sails a claim for $10,000,000 will be pressed.

STRAITS MINE RULING ASKED

Briton Calls On Council To Convict Albania

Lake Success, N.Y., March 20 (AP). Sir Alexander Cadogan, of Great Britain, called upon the United Nations Security Council tonight to convict Albania of responsibility for laying a minefield in Corfu channel which damaged two British destroyers and killed 44 sailors last October 22.

In the climax of a wordy tussle with Dr. Oscar Lange, of Poland, who suggested that Albania and Great Britain try to settle the dispute between themselves, Cadogan said:

"I have substantiated the charge."

Ascribed To Hatred

He turned down the Polish idea, reminding the delegates that his Government had attempted once before to settle the dispute before bringing it to the Security Council.

He said the "hatred of the Albanian Government for Great Britain" provided "motive enough" in the case.

Cadogan submitted a formal resolution, but the Council adjourned until tomorrow without acting on it.

Cadogan's resolution proposed that the Security Council "finds that an unnotified minefield was laid in the Corfu Strait by the Albanian Government or with its connivance, resulting in serious injury to his Majesty's ships and loss of life and injury to their crews."

As Settlement Basis

It recommended that the British and Albanian governments settle the dispute on the basis of the conviction of the Albanian Government and provided that, in the event of failure of such a settlement, either party might come back to the Security Council.

Dr. Eduardo Zuleta Angel, of Colombia, chairman of a subcommittee which went through the evidence, said he felt a minefield existed but that he was not ready to say that Albania laid it. He suggested that the case go to the International Court of Justice if the majority of the Security Council could not agree that Albania was responsible.

Austin To Report To Truman

Lake Success, N. Y., March 20—(AP)—The American UN delegate, Warren R. Austin, today carried a report direct to President Truman on United Nations reaction toward proposed American aid to Greece and Turkey.

As Austin faced a series of conferences with State Department and high administrative officials in Washington, the UN turned from atomic energy to lesser weapons of death in its far-reaching program for world disarmament.

The 12-nation Atomic Energy Commission, with the Soviet delegate, Andrei A. Gromyko, in the chair, voted unanimously to refer the report on atomic control back to its working committees in another attempt for agreement on basic issues where the United States and Russia still stand far apart. Committee work probably will begin next Tuesday.

Hardly had the commission adjourned its first meeting of this year when Secy.-Gen. Trygve Lie called the commission on conventional armaments into session for next Monday. This group will deal with all reduction plans outside the field of atomic energy and weapons of mass destruction.

Austin also will represent the United States on the new body and was expected to take up basic United States proposals on his Washington trip. Later Austin will name a deputy to sit through the long sessions anticipated in preparing an initial report on arms reduction by May 13.

The announcement of the first Arms Commission meeting followed by only a day a Senate resolution introduced by Sen. Tydings (D-Md) calling on President Truman to summon a world conference to consider total disarmament. Tydings labeled the UN "a glorified debating society" and said it was incapable of handling the problem.

As Austin entrained for Washington, the strongest Republican opposition to President Truman's Greek-Turkish program appeared to be developing around the argument that the problem belonged to the UN. Austin said he had no specific recommendations to offer on the question, but there was no doubt that he was conscious of a pessimistic feeling over the Truman proposal prevalent in many quarters here.

This trip gives Austin his first opportunity to report on the impact of the President's speech and also to talk over such other issues as the coming Arms Commission, the atomic question and the still-hanging Pacific island trusteeship plans.

Austin considered the jaunt so important that he requested and was granted postponement of Friday's Security Council meeting on the Japanese islands proposal.

Acheson's 'Secret' Data On Aid Plan Stirs Furor

Congressmen Demand Documents on Greece, Turkey Be Made Public.

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson predicted today that the Truman program to bolster Greece and Turkey will not lead to war with Russia, and he told before congressmen "secret" documents which promptly churned up a furor.

They were distributed to members of the House Foreign Affairs committee in the form of large loose-leaf notebooks for background on United States policies in the Mediterranean, and the congressmen protested the department's "secret" labels.

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) announced he will demand that the "secret" information be made public. Others joined in the demand, including Representatives Vorys (R-Ohio), Mundt (R-SD), Chiperfield (R-Ill) and Jonkman (R-Mich). Meanwhile Chiperfield returned his notebook, declining to read it.

Wants All Facts Public

"There is only one way to handle this and that is to make all the facts public," Eaton told newsmen. "I certainly intend to make it clear tomorrow that the document must be made available to the American people."

Acheson will return for more questions tomorrow and the committee members will have a chance then to thrash out the "secret" restriction with him.

In his testimony today, Acheson called for quick action to aid Greece and Turkey. He said that otherwise there may be a "chain reaction," unfavorable to the United States, among other nations struggling against Communist domination.

Crisis in Greece

Under a barrage of questions, he told the House Foreign Afairs committee that this country could not risk waiting for action by the United Nations—that Greece, wearily battling a Communist-led insurrection, has funds enough for only 14 days more of vital imports.

His testimony marked the preliminary round of a searching congressional examination of President Truman's request for $400,000,000 in money and material and "limited" military missions to the two Mediterranean countries.

With diplomatic caution, Acheson guardedly refrained from a direct reference to Russia. But there was no mistaking the implications when Representative Mansfield (D-Mont) asked his opinion on whether the Administration's program would lead to war.

A hush spread over the big, crowded committee room.

Acheson hesitated for a moment, rubbed his chin in thought.

Then, he solemnly declared:

"I was going to say—no possibility it would lead to war."

He paused again, and went on.

"I don't think it could lead to war."

His words were crisp, but calm.

"By strengthening the forces of democracy and freedom, you do a great deal to eliminate the friction between big powers."

30. 24-8623

Questioned on Security

Before this, Representative Merrow (R-NH) asked whether United States security would be imperiled if Greece and Turkey collapsed, fell under Communist control, and Russia became a Mediterranean nation.

Acheson sidestepped. He said he would prefer not to answer questions containing a direct reference to another power on the ground it "undoubtedly would be a source of embarrassment." If pressed, he said, he would answer in a private session.

Said Merrow: "The people of the country want to know whether we are going to call the bluff of the Soviet Union. That's why I made the statement."

Acheson: "It's one thing for you to make that statement. It's another thing for me."

Acheson obviously had in mind the aftermath of his testimony before a Senate committee considering confirmation of David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the Atomic Energy commission. Then, in response to questions, he termed Russia's policy "aggressive" and "expanding," drawing a Soviet protest. Secretary of State Marshall backed Acheson and informed Russia that Administration officials, under the American form of government, are required to answer queries from congressional committees. Now, with Marshall in Moscow, Acheson is acting secretary.

Acheson will resume his testimony tomorrow. But before he left the witness table, where he laid down the Administration's position in a 3,500-word statement and in answer to scores of committee queries, he had advanced these points:

1. Of the requested $400,000,000, between $275,000,000 and $300,000,000 would be used to meet Greek needs, the balance going to the Turks.

2. Some further funds will be necessary to maintain the present situation in southern Korea, occupied by U. S. troops. Northern Korea is occupied by the Russians. Acheson said no decision has been reached on how much money will be needed, and later told newsmen that a report the figure had been fixed at $500,000,000 "is absolutely untrue."

Plans No Election

3. The Administration has no plans to bring about a new election in Greece.

4. He agreed with Representative Bolton (R-Ohio) that the United States "is not trying to step into Britain's bootsteps, only to put on shoes of its own."

5. Aid to Greece and Turkey should not be considered "an extension of the Monroe Doctrine throughout the world." With representative Jarman (D-Ala), who put the query, he agreed that the proposed United States steps in Greece and Turkey are at the request of the two governments and should not be considered "intervention."

6. Nor, he said, should it be assumed that the same policy will be pursued in other countries. "There are other areas in which we may not be able to give help. There are countries in which we may give aid in a different way."

7. Collapse of Greece and Turkey would have an "enormous" effect upon countries to the east, "both from the point of view of economics and morale. It is not too much to say that the outcome in Greece and Turkey will be watched with deep concern throughout the vast area from the Dardanelles to the China sea."

8. The people of Europe also are watching with "deepest anxiety" while "struggling against great difficulties to maintain their freedom and independence as they repair the damages of war."

9. The military aid proposed "consists of supplies for the Greek army." Representative Jackson (R-Calif) had asked: "It is not intended that American military forces take the field against guerrilla forces?" Acheson replied: "No sir, that is not the intention."

10. The Administration does not consider the situation in China and Greece comparable. Acheson said that the Chinese Communists control a large area of China, maintaining their own government and army there.

G. O. P. Split 4 Ways on Greek-Turk Aid

MAR 1947

Washington, March 20—(AP)—The Republican majority in Congress was divided today into four factions on the subject of aid to Greece and Turkey. They are:

1. A group led by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Representative Eaton (R-NJ), head of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, in support of President Truman's program.

2. A substantial, and perhaps determining number of legislators who say they are keeping open minds until they have the full facts.

3. A faction of influential members, among them Representative Brown (R-Ohio), and Senator Hawkes (R-NJ), who would rather turn the headache over to the United Nations than see the United States accept sole responsibility for a cure.

4. A smaller, but extremely vocal, group whose members have been advocating a strict "hands off" policy.

Acheson's Statement on Plans to Aid Greece and Turkey

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, March 20—The statement made today by Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson before the House Foreign Affairs Committee:

Three weeks ago the British Government informed the Department of State that as of March 31 it would be obliged to discontinue the financial, economic and advisory assistance which it has been giving to Greece and Turkey.

A few days later we received from the Greek Government an urgent appeal for financial, economic and expert assistance. Assistance is imperative, says the Greek Government, if Greece is to survive as a free nation.

At various times during recent months the Turkish Government has applied to the United States for financial aid, but the Government has not had the facilities for responding to those requests. With the withdrawal of British aid, the needs of Turkey for assistance are greatly increased.

This, then, is the situation with which we have to deal. Greece and Turkey are in urgent need of aid and there is no other country to which they may turn. The President in his message to Congress on March 12 recommended that this Government extend the necessary assistance.

Difficulties Not New

The problem with which we are faced has a history and a background. Greece's difficulties are not new. But they have become acute as a result of special circumstances.

Long before the war, Greece had a hard time making ends meet. Her poverty of natural resources is so great that she has always needed more imports than she could pay for with exports. Only by hand-to-mouth contriving has she been able to maintain a precarious balance in her international economic position. In the past much of her export trade naturally went to Central European markets, particularly to Germany; during the Thirties she was forced into closer dependence on Germany through clearing agreements and other instruments of Nazi economic warfare.

And then came the Italian invasion, the German invasion, four years of cruel enemy occupation and the scorching of her earth by the retreating enemy. Perhaps no other country in the world has suffered greater destruction of its physical resources than Greece.

Conditions After Liberation

I should like to focus your attention upon four conditions which were found to exist at the time of Greece's liberation.

(1) Physical destruction had catastrophically impaired Greece's ability to produce, either for home consumption or for export;

(2) Greece's entire fiscal system had been destroyed;

(3) The Greek civil service and administrative system had been gravely impaired through starvation and by death, undermined by infiltration of undesirable elements, demoralized by inflation and the resultant scramble for existence; and

(4) The authority of the Greek state was threatened by several thousand armed men who defied, and continue to defy, it in certain areas of the country. This situation in part grew out of the arming of guerrilla forces during the war of liberation. Many of these people have retained their weapons and certain bands now use them fighting to resolve political differences that might otherwise be peaceably settled. The Greek Government has charged before the Security Council of the United Nations that the insurgent groups operating in northern Greece are assisted from outside Greece by supplies and training in neighboring countries. A commission appointed by the Security Council of the United Nations is now investigating these charges.

Outside Assistance Ending

In the period of more than two years since its liberation, Greece has received substantial relief assistance from the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. Great Britain has also extended very substantial aid to Greece in an effort to supplement the relief and reconstruction efforts of UNRRA and to organize and equip the Greek Army.

However, at the end of this current month outside assistance to Greece is scheduled to stop. UNRRA is going out of business in Greece and British assistance, for reasons of which you are aware, is to be discontinued.

The cessation of outside aid to Greece means immediate crisis. Unless help is forthcoming from some other quarter, Greece's economy will quickly collapse, very possibly carrying away with it the authority of the Government and its power to maintain order and the essential services.

Essential imports for civilians and for the army under the circumstances can continue for only a few weeks. Two weeks ago the dollar resources available to Greece were only $14,000,000—enough for one month's imports of food and other essentials from the United States and other countries. If imports should cease, the price of such goods as are available would very rapidly reach astronomical figures. This is inflation. Its result in a country so dependent upon imports would be paralysis of the Government and of economic life. It would also very probably mean the end of Greek freedom and independence.

The armed bands in the north, under Communist leadership, are already fighting, Greek against Greek. In the event of economic collapse and Government paralysis, these bands would undoubtedly increase in strength until they took over Greece and instituted a totalitarian government similar to those prevailing in countries to the north of Greece. The rule of an armed minority would fasten itself upon the people of Greece.

Purposes of Aid Listed

In this critical situation, Greece has urgently asked the United States for help. She requests financial assistance for the following purposes:

(1) To enable her to carry on essential imports of food, clothing and fuel necessary for the subsistence of her people;

(2) To enable her to organize and equip her army in such a way that it will be able to restore order throughout her territory; and

(3) To enable her to begin the process of reconstruction by putting her production facilities in order.

(4) Finally, Greece requests the aid of experienced American administrative, economic and technical personnel to assure the effective utilization of whatever financial aid may be extended her and to help her to begin the reconstruction of her own economy and public administration.

The situation in Turkey is substantially different, but Turkey also needs our help. The Turkish Army has been mobilized since the beginning of World War II and this has put a severe strain upon the national economy. During the war Turkey received substantial assistance from Great Britain and the United States, which helped her to carry this load.

Today the Turkish economy is no longer able to carry the full load required for its national defense and at the same time proceed with that economic development which is necessary to keep the country in sound condition. With some help from the United States, and further assistance which Turkey may be able to negotiate with United Nations financial organs, Turkey should be in a position to continue the development of her own resources and increase her productivity, while at the same time maintaining her national defenses at a level necessary to protect her freedom and independence.

U. N. Action Impractical

The crisis in Greece and Turkey confronts us with only two alternatives. We can either grant aid to those countries or we can deny that aid. There is no possibility of putting the responsibility for extending the aid which Greece has asked from the United States on some other nation or upon the United Nations.

This becomes clear when we consider the specific problems that confront Greece today and the specific kinds of assistance that Greece has requested from the United Nations on the one hand, and from the United States on the other.

Let us consider first the problem arising from outside Greece's borders. Greece has charged before the Security Council that armed bands operating within her territory are partly supplied, trained and given refuge in neighboring countries and are moving back and forth across the borders. Greece has asked the United Nations for help in dealing with this situation. This is peculiarly a United Nations problem and one with which the United Nations is dealing expeditiously and effectively. In this matter the United States is supporting the Security Council's action energetically.

The second problem confronting the Greek Government is the need for supplies and funds to enable it to meet its internal difficulties, namely, the restoration of order in the country and the averting of economic collapse. The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration and the British Government have been helping Greece with these particular problems, and the present crisis has arisen because those two supports must be withdrawn. To whom was Greece to turn? If Greece had applied to the United Nations or any of its related organizations, the essential element of time would have been lost and the end result, if any, would have been the same.

Future U. N. Aid Possible

The United Nations does not of itself possess funds. The Economic and Social Council is an advisory body that recommends economic, financial and social action to member states. The International Bank, which is just now completing its organization, is set up primarily to make self-liquidating loans for long-term reconstruction purposes. It has not yet made any loans whatsoever. The Economic Commission for Europe is still in its early organization stage.

It may be that at some future time the United Nations will be organized and equipped so as to render emergency aid to member states of the kind now needed in Greece and Turkey. But, as the President said, the United Nations and its related organizations are not now in position to extend help of the kind that is required. Even if some organ of the United Nations should decide to recommend assistance to Greece and Turkey, it would have eventually to turn primarily to the United States for funds and supplies and technical assistance. Even if the project were not blocked by the objections of certain members of the United Nations, much time would have been lost and time is of the essence.

The third problem confronting Greece is one of expert personnel. Greece has linked this problem, and we heartily concur, with the supply of funds. Greece is in the most serious need of expert advice and assistance. We believe, and we think Congress believes, that the expenditure of American funds in Greece and Turkey should be supervised by American experts.

These are the emergency aspects of the problem.

In the longer range, the United Nations may be able to take over various parts of the economic and financial problem in Greece and Turkey. We are giving serious study and consideration to ways in which the United Nations may take hold of this problem after the present emergency is past.

The Alternatives Considered

I have said that the two alternatives that are before us are to give the help requested, or to deny it. An essential step in considering the wisdom of any policy is to look at the alternatives. What are the probable consequences of not extending aid to Greece and Turkey?

I have already indicated what would more than likely happen in Greece. As the President said, however, it is necessary only to glance at the map to realize that the survival and integrity of Greece is of grave importance in a much wider situation. The inexorable facts of geography link the future of Greece and Turkey. Should the integrity and independence of Greece be lost or compromised, the effect upon Turkey is inevitable.

But the effect is even wider. Consider for a moment the situation of the countries to the east and south of Turkey. All of them are confronted with the accumulated problems of the past and of the war. Some of them are just emerging into statehood. These nations wish and should be able to develop and maintain free institutions and individual liberties, but untoward circumstances may force them in the other direction. Will these countries be able to solve the extremely difficult problems that confront them in ways compatible with free institutions and individual liberty? It is vital to our own interests to do all in our power to help them solve their economic difficulties in such a way that their choice will be in favor of freedom.

I need not emphasize to you what would more than likely be the effect on the nations in the Middle East of a collapse in Greece and Turkey, and the installation of totalitarian regimes there. Both from the point of view of economics and morale, the effects upon countries to the east would be enormous, especially if the failure in Greece and Turkey should come about as the result of the failure of this great democracy to come to their aid.

On the other hand, I ask you to consider the effects on their morale and their internal development should Greece and Turkey receive a helping hand from the United States, the country with which they closely associate the principles of freedom. It is not too much to say that the outcome in Greece and Turkey will be watched with deep concern throughout the vast area from the Dardanelles to the China Sea.

Nations on Verge of Tragedy

It is also being watched with deepest anxiety by the peoples to the west, particularly the peoples of Europe who, as the President said, are struggling against great difficulties to maintain their freedom and independence while they repair the damages of war.

As the President said, it would be an unspeakable tragedy if these countries, which have struggled so long against overwhelming odds, should lose that victory for which they sacrificed so much. Collapse of free institutions and loss of independence could be disastrous not only for them, but the world. Discouragement and possible failure would quickly be the lot of neighboring people striving to maintain their freedom and independence.

I have tried to outline to you the nature of the present crisis, and to describe some of its implications for the United States. The Secretary of War, Mr. Patterson, and the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Forrestal, will give you an appreciation of the problem from the point of view of their departments. The Under-Secretary of State, Mr. Clayton, and Ambassador Porter, who has just returned from an economic mission in Athens, will give you more facts about the present situation in Greece and an account of the preliminary reconstruction program we have worked out for Greece.

Our Ambassadors to Greece and Turkey, Mr. MacVeagh and Mr. Wilson, have been recalled for consultation. If the committee wishes to have the benefit of their views, I request that on account of the nature of their position and official duties, they be heard in Executive session.

U. N. MAY LATER BE ASKED TO AID

MAR 1947

Truman's Near East Plan Is Backed by Schwellenbach.

San Francisco, March 20 (A. P.).—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach said today that the United Nations eventually may be asked to "assume responsibilities in Greece and Turkey and in other countries finding themselves in a similar situation."

He declared that President Truman's proposal for direct American aid to the two countries to ward off Communist encroachment "in no way prejudices" any subsequent action which may be taken by the Security Council of the United Nations.

But meanwhile he told the Commonwealth Club "there is no time to be lost if the situation is to be saved."

Speaking with State Department sanction, the Labor Department chief said that the administration is giving "continued study and consideration" to ways and means for the United Nations to move in "as its various organs develop strength and resources."

Schwellenbach said this is the administration's reply to critics of the President's course, who contend he is "willfully by-passing the United Nations" in favor of a lone-hand approach to the problem.

Answers Other Criticism.

Taking up what he said were other adverse comments on Mr. Truman's plan, Schwellenbach made these points:

1. "The President was not challenging any foreign country. He was challenging the American people to face the grim facts that dominate the world today, and to accept their proper share of responsibility for world peace and security and freedom."

2. "For several years the United States has been gravely concerned about the maintenance of the freedom and independence of the countries in central and southern Europe and the Middle East. If there are any openings for further negotiations that have not been tried, the Government is not aware of them."

3. In Greece "we seek to help an imperfect democracy grow toward a more perfect democracy. Any other course would probably result in the complete disappearance of democracy."

4. "No course would so certainly lead to world annihilation in a third world war than that proposed by the bitter-end isolationists."

5. Extension of American technical advice "does not mean that the United States intends to take over Greece and Turkey as some foreign critics have insisted. We simply want to help them help themselves."

"Greece and Turkey may not be the only countries which might eventually require our assistance," Schwellenbach said. "But the need of Greece and Turkey is immediate and it is necessary to act fast if the freedom and independence of those countries are to be preserved."

Yugoslavia Rebuffed On Plea for U.S. Funds

Tito's Regime to Get No Relief Grants; Barred from Buying Grain.

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) Amid congressional debate over what aid the United States should extend to needy foreign nations, the State department today pointedly ruled out Yugoslavia from any share in the pending $350,000,000 relief appropriation.

The department also refused to let Marshal Tito's totalitarian regime buy some 100,000 tons of grain in this country.

The reasons given in both instances were lack of acceptable evidence that Yugoslavia really needed help, and suspicion that food already supplied had not been efficiently distributed.

The Yugoslav ambassador had inquired what his country might expect if Congress voted the $350,000,0000 relief appropriation. It has been tentatively earmarked for Greece, Italy, Poland, Hungary, Austria and China. The request for grain was forwarded from the embassy in Belgrade.

An announcement said the ambassador was told that "the United States is in position to grant free relief only to those countries having the greatest need." It noted that:

1. The official Yugoslav news agency has reported that Yugoslavia's bread ration was higher than that of France, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Switzerland, and has only recently been reduced.

2. Yugoslavia has shipped grain to Romania and Albania and has been negotiating for early food exports to other countries.

3. The peace treaties with Bulgaria and Hungary provide for reparations including farm products which help to meet Yugoslavia's requirements.

4. With "good administration" the Yugoslav government could have avoided the need for appealing now for outside help.

Of the plea for an allocation of grain through UNRRA, the State department said present stocks and commitments bar any allocation to Yugoslavia before May or June.

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)—Following is the text of the State Department's announcement today on Yugoslavia's request for grain:

The Yugoslav Ambassador has recently requested information as to the amount of relief which Yugoslavia might be granted if Congress approves the request of the President for the appropriation of $350,000,000 to meet urgent relief needs.

Yugoslav officials in Belgrade have also approached the United States Embassy requesting an immediate allocation of grain from the United States to be procured by UNRRA to meet alleged food deficits now existing in certain areas of Yugoslavia.

The United States position on these two requests has been communicated to the Yugoslav Government, as follows:

(1) Direct United States Relief

The Department of State has informed the Yugoslav Ambassador, in response to the latter's inquiry concerning possible free relief to Yugoslavia, that, while the United States desires to assist to the extent possible in relieving suffering in countries devastated by the war and while in line with this desire the President has recommended to the Congress the appropriation of $350,000,000 to assist in providing the basic essentials of life to countries urgently needing such assistance, the United States is in a position to grant free relief only to those countries having the greatest need.

After careful consideration of all available information, the United States Government cannot conclude that the needs of Yugoslavia for free relief are in the same category as those of certain of the other devastated countries. Accordingly, it is not contemplated that monies which might be appropriated by the Congress would be utilized for Yugoslavia.

The Yugoslav Government has already received through the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration some $375,000,000 worth of supplies, approximately three-fourths of which came from United States contributions. Over $135,000,000 of UNRRA's contribution consisted of food.

Statements have recently been made in Yugoslavia that with proper distribution and controls, domestic food supplies would be adequate during the present crop year. The bread ration in Yugoslavia, as recently confirmed by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency, has been higher in Yugoslavia than in France, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Switzerland and has only recently been reduced. Yugoslavia has shipped grain to Rumania and to Albania and has been negotiating for food exports to other countries for early delivery.

In addition, the armistices and peace treaties with Bulgaria and Hungary provide for current reparations including agricultural products to Yugoslavia which assist in meeting the need for relief supplies.

Together with other specific information available to the Department, these factors indicate that with good administration it would have been possible for the Yugoslav Government within its own resources to have avoided the necessity for now appealing for outside relief.

While reports recently received may, upon further investigation, indicate that, because of the inability of the Yugoslav Government to distribute supplies equitably throughout the country and because of the relatively high consumption earlier in the year as compared with available food supplies, some food imports might be needed prior to the next harvest for distribution in certain regions, nevertheless, even if such reports are confirmed, it does not appear that the volume of supplies which would be needed will be beyond the Yugoslav Government's ability to finance. Accordingly, no United States relief would be necessary.

(2) Availability of U. S. Grain for Purchase

As regards the availability of grain from United States sources for purchase by the Yugoslav Government or by UNRRA against the remainder of UNRRA's Yugoslav program, the present supply situation and allocations of United States grain to most urgently needy countries makes impossible the allocation to Yugoslavia of any grain from United States sources before May or June.

March and April shipping commitments already exceed the amount which the United States can move for export in those two months and the diversion of shipments to Yugoslavia during those months would necessitate reductions in amounts already determined to be of greater necessity to other countries.

Whether a small allocation from United States sources could be made in May or June would depend on a confirmed showing by the Yugoslav Government of a serious Yugoslav need in relation to other critically deficient countries and an urgent Yugoslav manifestation of determination to distribute domestic supplies to Yugoslav deficit areas, efficiently and without discrimination.

U.S. PREPARES AID FOR KOREA

MAR 1947

To Abandon Struggle To Win Russ Co-Operation

Washington, March 20 (AP)—The United States has decided, for the time being, to give up its struggle to obtain Russian co-operation in Korea, and is preparing a peacetime program for the southern Korea area wihch American troops occupy, officials said today.

The plan calls for expenditure of more money, Korean elections, and a Korean legislative assembly, which, while it will remain under American supervision, will enjoy a good deal of authority.

How much money is yet undecided.

Dean Acheson, Acting Secretary of State, said in response to questions today that reports he and other top officials are agreed on $500,000,000 are not true.

Other officials said, however, that while the figure had not been decided upon, it probably would approximate $500,000,000, spread over three years.

Months Of Stalemate

The decision to move ahead with an American program for the southern Koreans comes after months of stalemate in which American and Russian negotiators have failed to agree on any plan for the unification of the country, and for aid to return it to peacetime productivity. The move follows by half a year a similar British-American move in Germany, and the causes and objectives are about the same.

State Department advisers who are working on the plan say money will be needed to reconstruct needed industries. They may seek an increase in funds from an annual $140,000,000 to $200,000,000, and of course, the program is dependent on congressional approval. The drive, as in Germany, will be to get the Koreans on a self-supporting

U. S. Statement on Yugoslav Needs

30. 24-8625

basis.

Interim Assembly

Southern Korea now has an interim legislative assembly. No exact date has been set to replace it, but these are the plans:

1. The interim assembly will be asked to work out an election law granting universal suffrage.

2. Elections will be held, and a regular asembly convened.

3. Then, depending on how the Koreans show ability to work together, the assembly will be asked to form an executive department.

As the plan works out more authority will be passed from the American occupation officers to the Koreans, leaving nothing but supervisory duties for the Americans.

State Department feeling is that whatever money is turned over to the Koreans should be "firmly tied to American strings," to make certain that expenditures result in actual reconstruction.

U.S.-CHINA TREATY SENT TO SENATE

Truman Submits Pact Signed Nov. 4 For Ratification

Washington, March 20 (AP)—President Truman sent to the Senate today for ratification a treaty of "friendship, commerce and navigation" with China, signed last November 4 at Nanking.

The 10,000-word document supersedes nine previous pacts, including one drafted in 1844.

Among its provisions the treaty allows citizens, business firms and associations of one country to:

1. "Reside, travel and carry on trade" in all parts of the other country.

2. Operate "commercial, manufacturing, processing, scientific, educational, religious and philanthropic activities" within the limits of the laws of the other nation.

3. Buy or lease buildings and lands for these purposes.

4. Organize and participate in corporations in either country.

5. Merchant ships of each country have "freedom of commerce and navigation" in the territorial waters and ports of the other.

The treaty makes plain that it does not modify the United States immigrations laws, which sharply restrict the number of Chinese immigrants.

MARSHALL TO GET DATA ON PATENTS

Washington, March 20 (A. P.).—Representative J. Parnell Thomas (R.-N. J.) said today he will arm Secretary of State Marshall in Moscow with additional proof that Russia has obtained thousands of valuable German patents from America.

Thomas told a reporter the evidence is from the files of the House Committee on un-American Activities, of which he is chairman.

"Our antiquated patent laws provide the greatest way I know of," he said, "for giving away vital military information. It's a one way deal.

"I think an explanation is due Gen. Marshall from Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov, since they got all these patents from us, why Russia has refused to give us a single patent since 1927."

HOUSE G.O.P. ACTS TO REVISE TAX BILL WITH 30 PCT. CUT

20 Per Cent Slash Scheduled in Levy on Taxable Total Above $1,395.

COMMITTEE TO GET BILL

Debate Will Open New Week, with Vote Due Thursday.

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) A 30 per cent tax cut for some 20,000,000 "little fellows" and a 20 per cent slash for virtually all other income taxpayers was approved today by the House Republican high command.

The reductions would be retroactive to last January—if House and Senate approve. But Senator Taft (R.-Ohio) and others propose making any tax cuts effective July 1.

The House Republican Steering committee and G.O.P. members of the tax-framing Ways and Means committee, meeting in the office of Speaker Martin (R.-Mass.), revised the Knutson bill for a 20 per cent cut across the board in an effort to hush the cries of some critics that it was "a rich man's bill."

There are approximately 50,000,000 income taxpayers.

Approved by Leaders

The revision, proposed by Representative Kean (R.-N. J.) and approved by the G.O.P. leaders would give the small income group $386,000,000 extra relief, bringing the overall tax cut this year to $3,840,000,000.

The full Ways and Means committee — 15 Republicans and 10 Democrats—will consider the bill tomorrow. It will be taken up for debate in the House next Wednesday, with a vote due Thursday.

Here is how the revised bill would work:

1. A 30 per cent cut for persons with taxable income (gross income minus personal exemptions and deductions) of $1,000 or less. Kean said this would mean a 30 per cent reduction for a single person earning up to $1,650; married men with gross income up to $2,200; married couple with one child to $2,750; and married couple with two children, $3,300.

2. A 20 per cent cut for persons with taxable incomes above $1,395. But on income beyond $302,000, the cut would be only 10.5 per cent.

3. A provision by which each taxpayer with taxable income between $1,000 and $1,395 would get a flat $57 cut. This is the equivalent of a 30 per cent cut for the man with $1,000 taxable income. This was done to prevent inequity for persons with taxable income slightly above $1,000.

Extra Exemption

4. Persons over 65 years of age will get an extra $500 personal exemption, bringing the exemption to $1,000. But they would have to choose between taking this exemption, or using exemptions granted now on annuities, such as those paid under the railroad retirement act and the Social Security law, and those received by Army officers retired for disabilities.

Martin said the bill, bound to be approved by the Ways and Means committee, would go to the floor under a "closed" rule, barring amendments. The House would have to approve this bill or no bill at all. This is the usual procedure for tax bills, Martin said.

Kean described the revision as "a cost of living amendment," saying "such an amendment is fair on account of the high cost of living."

The speaker called a conference of all House Republicans for Monday to test their sentiment on the bill. The Republican leaders believe the revisions answer the criticism against the original bill by Ways and Means Chairman Knutson (R.-Minn) that would have given large and small taxpayers alike a 20 per cent reduction.

Critics Not Satisfied

However, Democrats and some Republicans opposing the Knutson bill indicated they still are not satisfied.

Representative Engel (R-Mich), who termed it "a rich man's bill," said he still plans to take his fight to the House floor.

"The revisions don't help much," he said. "They would give the little fellow just about enough tax relief to buy a carton of cigarettes. If we are going to have tax relief we should exempt the little fellow entirely. He needs these few dollars for bread and butter money."

Knutson's committee later will consider legislation to put all Federal income taxpayers on an equal footing in division of income between husbands and wives.

Knutson so informed Representative Landis (R-Ind) today, writing that it will be included in a study of "general tax revision, probably late in the spring."

In nine so-called "community property" states, married couples can split their income between them in whatever proportion they wish in making Federal income tax returns. This means lower tax rates for many of them.

Knutson Tax Bill Evokes Opposition

Rebellious GOP in House Supported in Drive for Revisions

Washington, March 20 —(AP)—Democrats and a group of rebellious Republicans today promised a stiff House fight against the Knutson Tax Cutting Bill despite a move toward revisions giving greater percentage relief to small taxpayers.

Rep. Engel (R-Mich), leading a party revolt against the measure by Rep. Knutson (R-Minn), slashing income taxes 20 per cent across the board, told reporters, "it still would be a rich man's bill" even with the proposed changes.

"I plan to take the fight to the House floor," he said.

Democratic members of the tax-framing Ways and Means Committee which Knutson heads indicated the revisions will not alter their opposition. President Truman has asked Congress to apply any treasury surpluses to debt reduction instead of tax cuts.

Republican Ways and Means members called a huddle today to discuss a plan to give more than a 20 per cent cut to persons with taxable income (gross income minus personal exemptions), up to $1,000 or perhaps $2,000. They are considering a possible cut of 23 or 26 per cent for these lower income brackets.

Knutson said the full committee's showdown vote will come tomorrow. The GOP leadership plans to call a conference of all House Republicans the same day to test out sentiment on tax cutting.

The bill probably will come to a vote in the House late next week.

Rep. Keating (R-NY), told reporters the proposed revisions "do not go far enough" in aiding small taxpayers, but said they probably would lessen some of the opposition in Republican ranks to a straight "across the board" cut.

Engel said if there is to be a tax cut the individual exemptions should be raised so as to drop small income earners from the tax rolls completely.

Under Knutson's 20 per cent across the board bill, he said, a man with a wife and a $1,200 income would have his tax cut from $38 to about $30. If the measure is revised to give such a man 26 per cent relief, Engel figured, "that would give just about enought more to buy a carton of cigarettes — if he smokes."

CIO Asks Strong Housing Action

Shortage is Called National Disaster

Washington, March 20—(AP)—The CIO described the housing shortage today as a national disaster.

Congress was told that the strongest measures are needed to cope with the situation.

Philip Murray, CIO president, and R. J. Thomas, chairman of the union's housing committee, made public a letter to Senator Tobey (R-NH), chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, pledging support to the Wagner-Ellender-Taft housing bill.

This measure aims to encourage the building of 15,000,000 city and rural homes in the next ten years through private enterprise and Federal aid. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and Fiorello LaGuardia, former mayor of New York, were invited to give their views on it at today's committee session.

Crowing Gets Worse

"Crowding and doubling up have grown worse during the past year," Murray and Thomas said. "The worst sufferers are those who have had to seek dwellings, notably war workers and veterans. Their plight is even more desperate than a year ago."

They suggested that the bill be amended to permit Federal insurance of 100 per cent of loans for private rental or co-operative projects at three per cent interest, and Federal loans covering 100 per cent of the starting costs for manufacturers who want to go in for prefabraciated housing.

Fiorello H. La Guardia, appearing in person before the committee, said chaos will set in unless building of homes is started at once.

La Guardia said he represents the National Fair Rent Committee and is "unauthorized spokesman of unorganized Americans."

Favors Rent Control

Turning to rent control, which is also before the committee, La Guardia pleaded:

"I beg of you to reassure millions of American families at the earliest possible moment so they will be protected from being dispossessed."

The former New York Mayor declared private capital is unable to build for low income groups and added:

"It's not a radical saying that. It's not Joe Stalin. It's the conservative senior Senator saying that."

SPEED URGED ON HOUSING IN SPITE OF COST

LaGuardia Tells Senate

Group Chaos Threatens In Lack Of Homes

Washington, March 20 (AP)—"In-laws just can't live together," Fiorello H. LaGuardia told the Senate Banking Committee today in urging speedy action on a long-range housing bill.

"Chaos will set in on this country unless we start building homes," said LaGuardia, former New York mayor. "There is nothing in this problem that money cannot cure. It will cost a lot, but it must be done."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., told the committee that a "guaranteed market for building-trade labor for ten years" would curtail union "restrictive practices."

Roosevelt, national housing chairman of the American Veterans Committee, agreed in answer to Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) that housing costs are partly due to such practices.

Union Restrictions Denied

However, Bors Shishkin, an AFL official, testified that he knew of no restrictive practices by the unions. He followed Roosevelt as a witness before the committee, which is studying long-range housing legislation by Senators Taft (R., Ohio), Ellender (D., La.) and Wagner D., N.Y.).

"We have found some situations where the individual worker or groups of workers have engaged in restrictive practices, but the policy is to eliminate them," Shishkin said.

McCarthy asked whether "forbidding the use of a paint brush beyond a certain width" would be a restrictive practice.

Chicago Contract Cited

Shishkin replied it would be considered so, but that such a charge had been made "day in and day out" and it was not a union practice.

McCarthy insisted such a provision was contained in a Chicago building contract, together with other restrictions.

Roosevelt, emphatically supporting the bill, said a guaranteed building market for ten years, if provided by it, "would go a long way to give security to the building trade unions and permit them to open their doors to new members, to reduce the average age of members by admitting younger men, giving employment to veterans in those unions and go a long way to reduce the restrictive practices they feel they must continue under the present circumstances."

15 Million Homes Goal

McCarthy asked: "If $1,000 of the $10,000 cost of a veteran's home is because of restrictive practices of building trade unions, and if we guarantee the cost, shouldn't we take steps to cut the cost to $9,000?"

Roosevelt replied: "Not without taking steps to eliminate other high costs. Don't single out labor."

"I'm not singling out labor," McCarthy said. "The men who are taking the beating on these costs are laborers themselves."

The bill is designed to encourage building of 15,000,000 homes in ten years by private and government funds. A similar bill passed the Senate unanimously last year but was pigeon-holed in the House.

11 FIRMS NAMED IN SUGAR FRAUD

Charged With Diverting Huge Supply To Black Market

Albuquerque, N.M., March 20 (AP). Indictments accusing the Dr. Petter Company and its associates in the soft drink business of conspiracy to divert a million and a quarter pounds of industrially rationed sugar into the black market were reported today by a Federal grand jury.

Fraudulent withdrawals and illegal use of the commodity were alleged in eight states from Wyoming to North Carolina. United States Attorney Everett N. Grantham said "probably the biggest sugar fraud in the nation" was involved.

Four Indictments Returned

In all there were four indictments making 11 corporations and 36 individuals, most of them heads of Dr. Pepper Bottling plants which a spokesman for the parent firm in Dallas described as independent units.

The indictments were delivered to United States District Judge Colin Neblett, who directed that the defendants be brought into his court at Santa Fe, N.M., for arraignment on May 5. Appearance bond of each individual and corporation was set at $1,000. Judge Neblett said the cases probably would be tried in June or July.

A. M. Bartlett, 37, owner of the Hobbs (N.M.) Dr. Pepper bottling works, was named as a defendant in all the indictments.

Climax Six-Months' Inquiry

The same grand jury billed him two months earlier on similar charges, along with Mrs. Trudy S. Edwards, former ration teller for the Lea County State Bank at Hobbs.

The Government charged Bartlett and Mrs. Edwards collaborated to make false ration deposits and withdrawals through which 1,244,094 pounds of sugar were obtained between August, 1945, and January 7, 1947.

Today's indictments, capping a six-month investigation, named three executives of the parent Dr. Pepper corporation, among others. They were E. M. Dosser, assistant to the president; George M. Carpenter, traffic manager, and George Orr, vending equipment division manager, all of Dallas, Texas.

Charge False Credits Booked

Grantham said this trio, prompted by the company's curtailed sugar supplies, "devised a plan for its own convenience in which Bartlett would deposit a million pounds in fraudulent sugar credits at the Lea county bank.

"The company then was to pay Bartlett for the spurious credits before they were converted into sugar or syrup and distributed. After the bottlers bought the credits, they paid regular ceiling prices for the sugar or syrup."

Other companies named in the indictments were Dr. Pepper bottling firms at Denver and Grand Junction, Col.; Fort Worth, Texas; Greensboro and Winston-Salem, N.C., and Albuquerque; and four wholesale grocery corporations, Walker-Smith Company, of Hobbs; Tyler-Simpson Company, of Fort Worth, and El Paso Wholesale Company and Empire Products Corporation, both of El Paso, Texas.

SUGAR HEARING SET BY G.O.P. SENATORS

WASHINGTON, March 20.—(AP)

The Senate G.O.P. Policy committee will hear arguments for and against sugar rationing and price ceilings in a meeting tomorrow which Chairman Taft (Ohio) hopes will speed a decision before present controls expire March 31.

The Senate Banking committee has approved a bill to continue the controls another year under the secretary of agriculture.

But Senator McCarthy (R-Wis), who with Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), has introduced a measure to end rationing immediately, told reporters he plans to appear at a conference of all Senate Republicans Saturday morning to seek unified backing for his own proposal. This bill would continue price controls.

Taft Would Keep Export Controls

Backs Truman Appeal for Continued Curbs

Washington, March 20—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio), threw his weight behind President Truman's appeal for continued export controls today.

The Senate Finance Committee is seeking to determine likely American commitments to the proposed International Trade Organization.

Taft told reporters that he agrees with the Chief Executive that the Government must keep a tight rein on goods shipped to foreign countries.

Mr. Truman said that power is needed now more than ever since this country has "become a nation with worldwide responsibilities."

"It seems to me that control over what can be shipped and where it can be sent will be particularly necessary if we are to step in to aid Greece and Turkey," Taft said.

Wants Some Curbs Dropped

But he cannot go along, Taft added, with the President's previous request—to continue wartime controls over many domestic commodities and services, through allocations and priorities. He mentioned sugar and rubber as exceptions, however.

"All these controls do in peacetime is to make a mess of things," Taft commented.

The support of Taft, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, diminished the possibility of a partisan fight on the export issue.

Opposite Directions

But Senator Millikin (R-Colo), chairman, said the Finance Committee wants to know, among other things, what effect keeping these controls will have on the International Trade Organization proposal. The group called William L. Clayton, Undersecretary of State for Economic Affairs, before it for testimony.

"It seems to me the two go in opposite directions," Millikin said in an interview. "The ITO program is pointed toward eliminating Government controls over trade, particularly imports, and the President's program is to retain our own authority over what can be shipped and where."

Beyond that, Millikin said, Senators intend to find out now just what commitments will have to be made by the United States if it joins the ITO, which is being proposed by 18 nations.

Millikin recently joined with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), in proposing a compromise—accepted in part by the President—designed to head off any action in this Congress to abolish the trade agreements authority under which the State Department can lower existing tariffs 50 per cent without consulting Congress.

ARMS MERGER HELD VITAL TO U.S. DEFENSE

Patterson Tells Senators Nation Otherwise Has No Overall Plan

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Secretary of War Patterson informed senators today that the United States lacks "any overall plan for defense of the nation" and will continue to lack one until Army, Navy and Air Forces are unified.

The Secretary told the Senate Armed Forces Committee that the Japanese sneak attack at Pearl Harbor was a "death blow" to the "old idea of voluntary co-operation" between the War and Navy departments.

Patterson asked congressional approval of the Administration bill for unification of the armed services under a single secretary of national defense.

Final Say With Congress

There would be individual Army, Navy and Air Force departments administered by separate subordinate secretaries.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) protested that the "super-deluxe" secretary of national defense might "put us behind the eight ball" and favor one branch of the services over the others.

Patterson replied that Congress had the final say on all money any Government agency got and how it was to be spent.

Senator Byrd (D., Va.) questioned Patterson upon the exact intent and powers in the legislation.

"I think the language is perfectly clear," Patterson replied.

He said the single secrtary would be an "executive" with detailed "administration" handled by the secretaries of Army, Navy and Air.

Previous Bill Harmful

Byrd said that as a member of the Naval Affairs Committee last year he was convinced that a previous Army-Navy merger bill would "be very harmful to the morale of the Navy and the Marine Corps."

Like Bridges, Byrd said he favored integration and co-ordination "but not subjugation that would destroy" one of the armed forces.

Patterson, in reply to questions, said he could not "guess" how much money unification would save but estimated such savings would not begin before two years.

W. Stuart Symington, Assistant Secretary of War for Air, supported the bill in a statement read by Eugene Zukert, Symington's assistant.

Army Wants Good Guided Missile

MAR 1947

Washington, March 20—(AP)—The Army doesn't want a base on Mars or even the moon; it will settle for just a good guided missile.

Ordnance and research officials who read the prediction today of Maj. James R. Randolph, a reserve officer, that a rocket race to build military outposts on neighboring planets might come sooner than expected, decided their own ideas sum up this way:

"The cold, practical people here are working just to get a guided missile. Any flights to the moon or Mars are so far in the future that we give them no study or attention. We are interested only in staying ahead of competitors in time and design.

Randolph, writing for the Army Ordnance Association Journal, a non-official publication, suggested that in Warld War III an attack launched from an outpost established on Mars would have "vastly greater opportunities for secrecy and surprise."

He urged peacetime studies of "these other worlds, sending expeditions to them, and devising equipment to meet their special needs."

Randolph, author of several other speculative articles on rocket travel, said the problem of space navigation was pegged to development of a multiple-unit rocket to produce the desired size and speed.

Writing in the same issue of the magazine, Lt. Col. Harvey Rivkins, chief of the Ordnance Department's Office of Technical Information, was considerably less enthusiastic about the prospects for inter-planetary travel.

Noting forecasts that it would take billions of dollars and years of research to perfect a rocket that would travel only as far as the moon, Rivkins added:

"The tremendous effort in time and money would at first result in putting a piece of metal the size of your fist on the moon (even though the rocket) would start off as a monster whose size would be almost impossible to handle."

Discussing with a reporter advances in the Army's V-2 rocket research, Rivkin said that "while we don't have a guided missile now, the V-2 has taken us along the path. There is the possibility that the prototype of a guided missile may appear within the next few months."

The rockets that have been test-fired by the government at the White Sands, N. M., Proving Ground have been without controls, except for a radio device to cut off the fuel supply. The ordnance expert's reference suggested that vertical and lateral guidance has been obtained, a step which would make it possible to steer a missile toward a target instead of merely to aim it from the lunching point as the Germans did.

As to talk of a space-traversing rocket, officials familiar with research done by this country with ican tests is about the expected ceiling for the V-2, without a load of instruments in the warhead, might be in the neighborhood of 200 miles.

By making the V-2s multi-stage (a series of expendible rockets attached to a warhead), greater altitude might be reached but this is not known with certainty. The present 114-mile record for America ntests is about the expected ceiling for a warhead with its usual load of scientific instruments and cameras.

The rocketeers estimate that with recently developed improved fuels and by lightening the "payload," the V-2s now used might be fired up to horizontal distances of from 250 to 300 miles.

But as for the 238,857 miles to the moon and the 40 million miles to Mars—they're not ready to make any guesses at all.

B-29 Provides Weather Report In Routine Flight Over North Pole

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP)

An Army Air forces B-29 flew over the North Pole this week, inaugurating what is expected to be routine weather reports from the top of the world, A.A.F. officials disclosed today.

The B-29, converted from a bomber into a weather observation plane, was commanded by Brig. Gen. Donald M. Yates, weather expert for the A.A.F. who arrived in Washington today to report to headquarters.

No effort was made to keep the flight over the polar cap secret, the airplane transmitting a weather report from the "position North Pole" in uncoded message available to all other nations listening in.

The B-29 left the Army air base near Fairbanks, Alaska, was in the air 16 hours and 30 minutes, returning to its field early Tuesday morning.

While there have been indications that the A.A.F. has steadily increased the range of its observation flights from Alaskan bases (the recent forced landing of a B-29 in Greenland was one such indication) this was the first definite word of operations at the pole.

From there, th edistance to the mainlands of all the continents is about equal.

Weather men emphasized the value of periodic weather studies at the pole. Hitherto this has been a blind spot in an area where air masses form to spill the weather down over the inhabited portions of the world.

The United States and Canada recently announced that a chain of seven weather stations will be built in northern Canada, operated jointly by the two nations as part of their weather and defense system.

House Passes Treasury Bill

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)—A bill continuing war-time authority of the Treasury to borrow money directly from Federal Reserve banks was passed by the House, 380 to 55, today and sent to the Senate. The present authority expires March 31. The bill would extend it to June 30, 1950, and allow the reserve banks to hold at any one time a maximum of $5,000,000,000 in government securities bought directly from the Treasury.

U. S. TO KEEP BASE IN NEWFOUNDLAND

MAR 1947

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) The Army Air forces disclosed plans tonight to make permanent one of its airfields in Newfoundland.

A building program of "several million dollars" will transform the temporary wartime installation at Harmon field "into peacetime permanency," an A.A.F. announcement said.

The base was one of those acquired under the pre-war 99-year lease agreement with Britain in exchange for American destroyers.

The construction plans include permanent family - unit dwellings for officers and men, engineering and ordnance shop facilities and other buildings.

While the Army declined to discuss details, an announcement last December on the establishment of a system of unified commands for overseas areas included creation of a "northeast command," which the joint Army - Navy announcement said would "include U. S. bases and forces in the northeastern approaches to the United States." Harmon field apparently is to become part of this offshore defense system.

Earlier in the day, the A.A.F. announced its former airfield at Kelflavik, Iceland, is being turned over to a commercial airline. An agreement for withdrawal from Iceland of American military personnel was reached by the two governments last year, to be completed by April 5.

The airport, called Meeks field by the A.A.F., was started in March 1943 and completed the following year. It includes four runways each 6,600 feet long and buildings.

The field is being turned over to a subsidiary of American Overseas Airlines.

A. A. F. GIVING UP FIELD IN ICELAND

Washington, March 20 (A. P.).—The Army Air Forces announced today that it is relinquishing control of its airfield in Iceland, an important stop-over on the northern air route to Europe, to the Iceland Government. This nation will retain stop-over rights for civilian and military aircraft, however.

The announcement said that with completion of the withdrawal of American military personnel from the island on April 5 operation of the 8,000-acre air field will be turned over to American Overseas Airlines, with the Iceland Government taking over as soon as Icelanders can be trained.

The airfield, known as Meeks Field while under Army control, has been renamed Keflavik airport by Iceland.

HOLDS U. S. 3D IN AIR

Indianapolis, Ind., March 20 (A. P.).—Senator Brewster (R.-Me.) implied today that both Russia and England surpass the United States in military aviation and said this raises a question whether cuts in President Truman's budget should be permitted to fall on the Air Force.

"We cannot afford to remain the world's third ranking air power," Brewster said in an address prepared for the first American Legion national aeronautics conference.

Bad weather forced Brewster to cancel his trip to Indianapolis, but he authorized the reading of his prepared address by John Dwight Sullivan of New York, a member of the Legion's aeronautics committee.

Brewster called attention to an official Russian statement that that country must have the most powerful air force in the world and to reports that the British air arms will be appreciably larger than the projected United States Army Air Forces.

Eisenhower Gets Sword of Honor

Inverchapel Also Decorate 20 Other U. S. Soldiers

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP) —Lord Inverchapel, British Ambassador to the United States, formally presented today to General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, a sword of honor from the City of London at a ceremony at the British Embassy.

The sword was originally "presented" to General Eisenhower in London on June 12, 1945, when he received the freedom of the city.

At that time, a sword which once belonged to the Duke of Wellington and was worn by him during the Battle of Waterloo was given to General Eisenhower as a token until the real sword of honor could be made. General Eisenhower later returned the Duke's sword.

At the same ceremony today twenty other American officers and enlisted men were decorated by Lord Inverchapel for heroism during the war.

Among the awards were:

Honorary companion of the Distinguished Service Order—Colonel John R. Allison, of the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, and Colonel Henry A. Mucci, of 1321 Norman Street, Bridgeport, Conn.

Distinguished Service Cross—Captain William Bromley Ammon, U. S. N., of Chevy Chase, Md., and Captain Erskine Austine Seay, U. S. N., of Washington.

Distinguished Flying Cross—Brigadier General Milton W. Arnold and Brigadier General Leon W. Johnson, both of Washington; Colonel Hunter Harris jr., of Alexandria, Va.; Colonel David C. Schilling, of Selfridge Field, Mich., and Lieutenant Colonel Earl C. Hedlund, of Langley Field, Va..

Military Medal—Staff Sergeant Curtis F. Shoup, posthumous award to father, the Rev. Curtis K. Shoup, of Stockton, N. Y.; Corporal Waldmer J. Isaac, of Canandaigua, N. Y.; Corporal Richard . Murren, of 322 East 141st Street, .e Bronx, and Technician Fifth Trade Alexander Kamin, of 178 East Seventy-seventh Street, New York.

Philadelphia Pilot Killed in Maneuvers

Philadelphia, March 20 (A. P.).—Marine Corps Pilot Evan L. Selsor crashed into the sea off Hawaii during Pacific fleet maneuvers and was killed, the Marine Corps today notified his father, William C. Selsfor Jr. Young Selsor, a first lieutenant, was a baseball and football star at Germantown Academy before entering service in 1942.

10 Per Cent of War Records to Be Saved

Washington (A. P.).—The National Archives reports that of the more than 10,000,000 cubic feet of records accumulated by Government agencies during the war, it is possible that only 10 per cent will have to be kept permanently.

If all the records of world war II were kept, the archives people say, buildings to house them permanently would cost at least $75,000,000.

U. S. GETS APPEAL TO FIGHT DELAY ON ATOM CONTROLS

CHICAGO, March 20.—(AP) The Bulletin of The Atomic Scientists said today the United States should request "no more delays or evasions" from the Soviet Union on the issue of world atomic control.

The Bulletin, published by many of the scientists who pioneered in the development of the atomic bomb, said that because of Russian criticism of the United States plan, "it is now up to the Soviet Union to present a scheme of inspection comprehensive enough to put at rest all fears of clandestine developments."

Andrei A. Gromyko, the Soviet delegate, told the United Nations Security council March 5 that the United States' proposal for unlimited control of atomic energy by an international authority would mean "unlimited interference" in the affairs of any country. He said, however, his country stood for inspections under control organizations set up within the framework of the Security council. He also demanded the immediate outlawing of atomic bombs.

Commenting on his position, The Bulletin said in an editorial:

"From outright rejection of international inspection, the USSR has progressed to bargaining about its scope; we must hope that from outright rejection of international management, the Soviet Union will advance to the consideration of how such a management can be set up without endangering her national economy.

"The negotiations are now down to the real issues—those of inspection and management. We cannot expect the Soviet Union to agree to our proposals as rapidly and completely as did other nations. But what we can request is no more delays or evasions. The issue is too urgent."

Envoy To Turkey Arrives

New York, March 20 (AP)—Edwin C. Wilson, American Ambassador to Turkey, arrived by plane tonight from Istanbul but told reporters, "as you can readily understand, there is nothing I can say at this time."

DURANT ACCUSED OF HIDING JEWELS

Washington, March 20 (A. P.).—The prosecution of Col. Jack W. Durant's military trial contended today that Durant has selected the main bulk "of the stolen Hesse jewels and hopes" some day to benefit from the ill-gotten loot.

Major Joseph Robinson, who has been pressing theft charges against the 37-year-old Air Forces officer, said only "a mere pittance" of the gems had been recovered by the Army. The jewels were stolen from a German castle used as a rest home by United States troops.

Robinson said that the jewels recovered are worth more than $1,000,000, but the "main bulk still is in possession of the accused," or he knows where it is hidden. The entire fortune has been valued at $1,500,000 to $7,000,000.

Major Joseph Bryan, defense counsel, protested Robinson's statements, but the eight-man court refused to strike the remarks from the record.

Robinson's statements were made in opposing defense motions for acquittal of Durant on all counts of the charges against him, including larceny, embezzlement and smuggling. The defense contended that the prosecution lacked proof to support the charges.

Durant's bride, a former WAC officer, and another Army officer already have been convicted and sentenced at earlier trials for conspiracy in the case.

U. N. Stepinatz Inquiry Urged

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)—Two New York members of Congress introduced resolutions today calling on the United Nations to inquire into the trial and imprisonment of Archbishop Aloysius Stepinatz of Yugoslavia. The resolutions, introduced by Representatives David M. Potts and Robert T. Ross, Republicans, asserted that the prosecution of the Archbishop was "a travesty on justice and offensive to democratic ideals of freedom and fair play."

ENVOY ON WAY TO U. S.

Shannon, Eire, March 20—(AP)—The U. S. ambassador to Turkey, Edwin C. Wilson, left Shannon at noon by plane for New York on his trip to Washington from Istanbul.

NEW INDICTMENTS ACCUSE TWO MEN IN GARSSON CASE

MAR 1947

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) A special grand jury returned new indictments today against Henry M. Garsson and Joseph F. Freeman, key figures in the $73,000,000 munitions combine case, charging them with perjury on two counts each.

They had previously been indicted along with former Representative Andrew J. May (D-Ky.), and Murray Garsson, brother of Henry, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with war contracts.

Henry Garsson issued a statement denying the perjury charges and declaring he is being "persecuted."

Today's indictment charges Freeman perjured himself by telling the regular grand jury—which returned the fraud indictments—that he understood that Edward D. Feldman of Los Angeles had sent $1,000 to May and that he only learned about it later during an FBI investigation.

"In truth and in fact," the indictment said, Feldman gave Freeman a $1,000 check Oct. 6, 1944, and Freeman had the check delivered to May. The check was made payable to R. V. May, a son of the former congressman. Feldman was identified as an officer of the Atlas Carbon and Clay corporation.

The indictment also charges Freeman lied when he told the grand jury he had never requested Feldman to contribute to May's campaign. Freeman was the Washington representative of the Garsson munitions firm.

The indictment said Henry Garsson, former president of Batavia Metal Products, Inc., and vice president of Erie Basin Metal Products, Inc., committed perjury by telling the grand jury he had not seen certain invoices from the Cumberland Lumber company to the Erie concern until late in 1945.

In fact, he had seen them about a year earlier, the indictment said.

The second count charges Garsson told the grand jury he had not delivered the Cumberland company invoices to Harry S. Glick, an employe of the Erie firm, and did not know who had delivered them. The indictment said Garsson personally made the delivery to Glick.

The fraud charges are scheduled to come to trial April 21.

Lord Aberconway on U. S. Ties

PHILADELPHIA, March 20 (AP).—A plea for continued amicable relations between this country and England was made today by Lord Aberconway, owner of the world-famous gardens of that name in North Wales. Guest speaker at the 120th anniversary luncheon of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society held in connection with the Philadelphia Flower Show, Lord Aberconway declared that success in winning the last war was due in a large part to relations between the United States and England.

Chicagoans Honor Anti-Nazi Bishop

Chicago, March 20 (A. P.).—Thousands of Chicago's 1,700,000 Roman Catholics today prepared to welcome Konrad Cardinal von Preysing, Bishop of Berlin and outspoken Nazi foe.

The German churchman, who will be a guest of Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, during a four-day visit, was to be feted tonight at a dinner at the Chicago Cardinal's residence. The bishops of Illinois will attend.

4,403,400 Tons Grain Left U.S. In 6 Months

Washington, March 20 (AP)—A total of 4,403,400 long tons of bulk grain was moved from United States ports to other parts of the world during the six months ended February 28, the Maritime Commission reported today.

The movement required use of 537 ships, of which 157 sailed under foreign flags. Grain shipments included those of UNRRA, the Army and foreign-import programs.

A monthly average of 1,465,540 long tons of coal was moved to Europe during the period, the commission said. There were 1,034 vessels employed in this movement, of which 316 sailed under foreign flags.

Darby Seaman Held in Ship Theft Plot

New York, March 20 — (AP) — Eight members of the crew of the Army transport Wilson Victory, including a Darby, Pa., man, were arraigned today after Army authorities reported discovery of a plot to sell cigarettes, radios and candy on the German black market for an estimated $114,675.

Sailing of the ship for Bremerhaven with a cargo of merchandise for post exchanges in Germany was delayed. Police and Army authorities said crewmen also had taken about 240 quarts and fifths of liquor which they planned to sell to returning soldiers at $30 a pint.

The candy, cigarettes and radios were stolen from the cargo, police said, while the crewmen bought the liquor from retail stores here.

Four men, charged with petit larceny in Brooklyn Magistrate Court were held in $1,000 bail each for trial.

They are Charles E. Clark, 25, of Lansdowne av., Darby, Pa.; John Mengelberg, 19, of Louisville, Ky.; Carl Marti, 44, and Ray Condon, 27, second officer of the ship, both of New York.

Police said that four others, all under 18, were charged with petit larceny and arraigned in adolescent court, were held in $500 bail each for hearing Monday.

Chilean Navy Receives 8 Amphibious Craft

Norfolk, Va., March 20 (AP)— Transfer from the American Navy to the Chilean Navy of eight amphibious craft this afternoon was termed by Rear Admiral E. P. Forrestal, USN, commandant of the Norfolk Naval Base, a step toward insuring "our South American friends freedom against further aggression."

Rear Admiral Fred D. Kirtland, USN, commander of the amphibious training command, also spoke at the transfer ceremonies at Annex 2, Amphibious Base, Little Creek.

In a colorful ceremony marked by the playing of the Chilean national anthem, the red, white and blue flags were lowered from the masts of the four LCI's and four LSM's and the Chilean flag raised. American bluejackets marched smartly from the vessels and Chilean crews marched aboard to take over the ships.

THIRD LEAD FOREIGN MINISTERS (200)

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

MOSCOW, MARCH 20-(AP)-SECRETARY MARSHALL SERVED NOTICE TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL TONIGHT THAT HE WOULD PROPOSE THAT AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES BE SUMMONED TO MOSCOW FOR CONSULTATION AS NEEDED IN DRAFTING THE AUSTRIAN PEACE TREATY.

THE AMERICAN STAND WAS MADE KNOWN AFTER A SESSION IN WHICH FRANCE CONTENDED SHE COULD NOT AGREE TO ECONOMIC RECONSTITUTION OF GERMANY UNLESS OTHER POWERS AGREED TO HER DEMANDS FOR GUARANTEES OF GERMAN COAL.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, IN THE FIRST APPARENT SPLIT BETWEEN THE WESTERN POWERS AT THE CONFERENCE, REITERATED HIS COUNTRY'S DEMAND THAT THE INDUSTRIALLY POTENT RUHR BE SEPARATED FROM GERMANY.

SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV BLOCKED AN ATTEMPT BY BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN TO PLACE ON THE AGENDA FOR TOMORROW A DISCUSSION OF THE PROPOSED FOUR-POWER PACT ON GERMANY.

MOLOTOV SAID THIS QUESTION WAS "FAR DOWN ON THE AGENDA."

BEVIN REPLIED "I THOUGHT YOU WOULD SAY THAT."

MOLOTOV IN THE PAST CONSISTENTLY HAS BLOCKED DISCUSSION OF THE PROPOSAL.

SHOULD MARSHALL'S COLLEAGUES AGREE TO HIS PLAN, THE AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD BE THE ONLY REGIME EXCEPT THE BIG FOUR POWERS REPRESENTED AT THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE.

THE COUNCIL SCHEDULED A PROGRESS REPORT FROM DEPUTIES DRAFTING AN AUSTRIAN TREATY FOR TOMORROW AND, AFTER IT IS HEARD, MARSHALL WILL MAKE HIS MOTION.

THE COUNCIL HEARD TODAY A PROGRESS REPORT BY RUSSIAN DEPUTY ANDREI I. VISHINSKY ON THE WORK ON A GERMAN TREATY.

DURING VISHINSKY'S REPORT, HE MENTIONED THE POSSIBLE PARTICIPATION IN THE GERMAN PEACE TREATY OF THE FORMER ENEMY COUNTRIES, ROMANIA, BULGARIA AND ITALY. MARSHALL ASKED HIM IF HUNGARY HAD BEEN OMITTED DELIBERATELY.

VISHINSKY REPLIED THAT THERE WAS MORE OF A QUESTION ABOUT HUNGARY AND FINLAND SINCE THEY HAD NOT PARTICIPATED WITH THEIR ARMED FORCES AGAINST GERMANY PRIOR TO THE SURRENDER.

FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT OF FRANCE, ANSWERING THE REJECTION OF HIS REQUEST FOR COAL GUARANTEES BY BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN LAST NIGHT, SAID:

"I AM DIRECTED BY MY GOVERNMENT TO STATE THAT WE CANNOT BE PARTIES TO AGREEMENT ON OTHER PROBLEMS RAISED--ECONOMIC UNITY, LEVEL OF INDUSTRY AND REPARATIONS--WITHOUT A PREVIOUS SETTLEMENT OF THE SCHEME FOR EXPORT OF COAL IN A SENSE WHICH IS IN CONFORMITY WITH OUR REQUEST.

"NO DIFFERENT ATTITUDE COULD BE ADOPTED BY ANY FRENCH GOVERNMENT."

RUSSIA AGREED YESTERDAY TO A LARGER SHARE OF GERMAN COAL FOR FRANCE.

MAR

THE WHOLE SUBJECT OF SMALL NATION PARTICIPATION AND FORMER ENEMY PARTICIPATION IN THE GERMAN TREATY MAKING WILL BE TAKEN UP AFTER THE DEPUTIES FOR GERMANY SUBMIT A WRITTEN REPORT. VISHINSKY SAID THIS WOULD REQUIRE TWO DAYS FOR PREPARATION.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, REPLYING TO BIDAULT'S STATEMENT THAT FRANCE WAS NOT PREPARED TO GO AHEAD WITH OTHER QUESTIONS UNTIL THE GERMAN COAL PROBLEM WAS SETTLED, SAID HE COULD NOT ACCEPT THE PROPOSITION THAT ONE CONDITION MUST BE ACCEPTED BEFORE THE DISCUSSION ON OTHERS. BEVIN SAID HE WAS STUDYING BIDAULT'S PROPOSAL AND HE HOPED THAT THE OTHER MINISTER'S WOULD STUDY BRITAIN'S.

BEVIN SAID THAT, AS FAR AS THE RUHR WAS CONCERNED, THE BRITISH STOOD FIRM IN THEIR PROPOSITION THAT GERMANY MUST BE AN ECONOMIC WHOLE BEFORE FOUR-POWER CONTROL OF THE RUHR BASIN COULD BE CONSIDERED.

MARSHALL PRESIDED AT THE MEETING, ONE OF THE SHORTEST OF THE GATHERING. THE SESSION CLOSED AFTER MARSHALL SUGGESTED THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS CONSIDER ADJOURNING THE DISCUSSION ON GERMANY AND THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL REPORT FOR TWO DAYS. DURING THAT INTERVAL, HE SAID THE FOUR POWERS COULD CIRCULATE PAPERS ON ANY FURTHER PROPOSALS THEY WISHED TO MAKE AND STUDY THE PROGRAMS OF OTHER NATIONS BEFORE ENTERING THE FINAL DISCUSSION.

MARSHALL'S SUGGESTION ON PROCEDURE ALONG WITH HIS AUSTRIAN PROPOSAL. THE MINISTERS ON SATURDAY ARE SCHEDULED TO DISCUSS A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT FOR GERMANY.

BIDAULT SAID FRANCE WANTED A "FLEXIBLE FORMULA" FOR COAL EXPORTS WHICH WOULD BE "ADAPTABLE TO THE RATE OF PRODUCTION AND WHICH WOULD TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE GERMAN ECONOMY."

HE URGED BEVIN TO RECONSIDER BRITISH OBJECTIONS TO INSTITUTING THE FORMULA NOW AND ALSO IN WRITING IT INTO THE GERMAN PEACE TREATY. BEVIN HAD SAID THAT PRIORITY MUST BE GIVEN TO MAKING GERMANY SELF SUPPORTING, SO SHE WOULD NOT BE A BURDEN ON THE OCCUPYING POWERS.

BIDAULT SAID FRANCE HAD NO DESIRE FOR GERMANY TO REMAIN A BURDEN, "BUT WE THINK IT POSSIBLE BOTH TO BALANCE FOREIGN PAYMENTS OF GERMANY AND SATISFY THE LEGITIMATE REQUIREMENTS OF THE ALLIED COUNTRIES TO IMPORT COAL."

THE FRENCH STAND, CONFRONTING THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS WITH A VIRTUAL TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT ULTIMATUM, CREATED WHAT APPEARED TO BE THE WORST SPLIT YET TO DEVELOP AMONG THE WESTERN POWERS, UNLESS FRANCE AND GREAT BRITAIN FOUND A WAY TO COMPROMISE.

BIDAULT ALSO REEMPHASIZED FRENCH INSISTENCE ON A SEPARATE REGIME FOR THE RUHR "FOR THE OPERATION AND CONTROL OF THE MAIN ACTIVITIES OF BOTH THE MINES AND THE INDUSTRIES."

HE SAID THIS SHOULD BE SET UP AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

BIDAULT REITERATED FRENCH OPPOSITION TO THE RUSSIAN PROPOSAL FOR INCREASING THE LEVEL OF GERMAN STEEL PRODUCTION TO BETWEEN 10,000,000 AND 12,000,000 TONS ANNUALLY.

HE QUOTED RUSSIAN FIELD MARSHAL VASSILY D. SOKOLOVSKY AS HAVING SAID IN BERLIN IN DECEMBER OF 1945 THAT "TO LEAVE GERMANY AN ANNUAL CAPACITY OF 9,000,000 TONS OF STEEL WILL MEAN WAR WITHIN A FEW YEARS."

BIDAULT SUGGESTED THAT FRANCE, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG SUPPLY GERMANY WITH ANY ADDITIONAL STEEL NEEDED.

OF COAL, BIDAULT SAID HE HOPED THE BRITISH ATTITUDE WAS NOT FINAL. HE CONTINUED:

"GREAT BRITAIN IS AWARE THAT THE COAL PROBLEM IS AN ESSENTIAL ONE FOR FRANCE AND IT IS FOR A CERTAIN NUMBER OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. THE RECOVERY OF THEIR ECONOMY DEPENDS UPON ITS SOLUTION. WE CANNOT TOLERATE THAT COAL, WHICH IS THE BASIS OF ALL WAR INDUSTRY, SHOULD BE LEFT IN ABUNDANCE AT THE DISPOSAL OF GERMANY AND THAT GERMANY SHOULD BENEFIT BY SUPPLIES IN COAL WHICH ARE PROPORTIONATELY GREATER THAN THOSE AVAILABLE TO HER VICTIMS."

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS DEPUTIES WERE REPORTED TO HAVE AGREED THAT ALL ALLIED BELLIGERENTS AND ALL FORMER ENEMY STATES WHICH TURNED AGAINST GERMANY WITH ARMS SHOULD, AT SOME FUTURE TIME, HAVE A CHANCE TO EXPRESS THEIR VIEWS ON THE GERMAN TREATY.

THIS IS ONE OF THE FEW MAJOR POINTS AGREED UPON IN THE DEPUTIES' STUDY OF THE GERMAN QUESTION, ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL INFORMANTS WHO HAVE FOLLOWED THE DEBATES IN LONDON AND MOSCOW.

THE AGREEMENT WAS DESCRIBED AS COMING AT THE LAST MINUTE, BEFORE THE DEPUTIES WERE TO SUBMIT THEIR RECOMMENDATIONS AND THEIR VARIOUS OPEN DISPUTES TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS THEMSELVES.

SOVIET DEPUTY ADNREI Y.VISHINSKY CONTENDED THAT PARTICIPATION BY THE ALLIED STATES IN MAKING THE GERMAN TREATY SHOULD BE HELD TO THE POTSDAM FORMULA, UNDER WHICH ONLY STATES "DIRECTLY INTERESTED" WOULD TAKE PART. U.S. DEPUTY ROBERT MURPHY AND BRITISH DEPUTY SIR WILLIAM STRANG URGED BROADER SMALL-NATIONAL PARTICIPATION.

VISHINSKY MADE IT CLEAR THAT AMONG THE DISAGREEMENTS TO BE PASSED ON TO THE COUNCIL WOULD BE THE STATUS OF ALBANIA IN THE SMALL-NATION PARTICIPATION. RUSSIA PROPOSES HER ADMISSION. THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE OBJECTED

THE AGREEMENT THE DEPUTIES ARE REPORTING TO THE COUNCIL PROVIDES FOR THE COMMITTEE SYSTEM FOR FUTURE WORK ON THE GERMAN TREATY, AN INFORMATION AND CONSULTATION CONFERENCE OF SMALLER NATIONS, AND HEARINGS FOR ALLIED AND FORMER ENEMY STATES INTERESTED. THESE STATES WERE NOT NAMED, BUT AN OFFICIAL SAID ITALY EVIDENTLY WOULD BE QUALIFIED ALONG WITH OTHERS UNDER THIS PROVISION.

FRENCH DEPUTY MAURICE COUVE DE MURVILLE URGED THAT THE INFORMATION AND CONSULTATIONCONFERENCE BE STARTED IMMEDIATELY, SO THAT 18 SMALLER NATIONS COULD BE KEPT INFORMED OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL HERE. THE 18 NATIONS ARE CERTAIN TO INCLUDE CHINA, BRAZIL, INDIA, THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES AND EUROPEAN NATIONS WHICH ORIGINALLY FOUGHT HITLER, SUCH AS BELGIUM, NORWAY AND POLAND.

MAR 1947

M[redacted] 20 (AP) -AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID TODAY THAT MOSCOW'S OFFICIAL REACTION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S GREEK-TURKISH PROPOSALS SEEMED TO BE TRENDING TOWARD THE VIEW THAT THE UNITED STATES IS DEVELOPING AN OUT-AND-OUT ANTI-SOVIET POLICY.

FIRST INKLINGS OF THE OFFICIAL RUSSIAN LINE WERE REACHING AMERICAN EARS INFORMALLY TODAY AND ROUSED IMMEDIATE SPECULATION AS TO WHAT EFFECT, IF ANY, SUCH A VIEW WOULD HAVE ON THE PROSPECTS FOR REACHING AGREEMENT IN THE CURRENT NEGOTIATIONS ON THE FUTURE OF GERMANY.

SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V. M. MOLOTOV AND U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL AGREED AT LAST NIGHT'S SESSION OF THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS THAT IT WAS ENTIRELY POSSIBLE FOR THE BIG FOUR TO COMPROMISE THEIR DIFFERENCES AND REACH AN ACCORD ON CRITICAL GERMAN ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

MOLOTOV APPEARED TO BE IN A PARTICULARLY CONCILIATORY MOOD, BUT ASIDE FROM THE AGREEMENT THAT DIFFERENCES COULD BE RECONCILED THERE WAS SCANT PROGRESS TOWARD WRITING A GERMAN PEACE TREATY.

WHILE THE RUSSIANS HAVE DONE NOTHING IN COUNCIL SESSIONS THUS FAR TO INDICATE THEIR REACTIONS TO THE AMERICAN PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION FOR FINANCIAL AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY, INFORMAL CONTACTS HAVE BROUGHT OUT THEIR VIEW THAT THE MOVE WAS UNFRIENDLY TO RUSSIA AND THAT THEY DISTINCTLY DON'T LIKE IT.

AN AUTHORITATIVE AMERICAN ESTIMATE OF THE SITUATION HERE IS THAT THE POLICIES OF BOTH SIDES ARE BOUND TO STIFFEN AS THE APPARENT POWER POLITICS STRUGGLE BETWEEN THE WORLD'S TWO MOST POWERFUL NATIONS DEVELOPS. THERE WAS MUCH SPECULATION AS TO HOW SUCH A COURSE WOULD AFFECT THE OUTCOME OF EFFORTS TO LAY DOWN SOME SWEEPING PROGRAM FOR THE RECONSTITUTION OF A WHIPPED GERMANY.

TWO AUTHORITATIVE RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS--IZVESTIA, THE GOVERNMENT ORGAN, AND PRAVDA, THE ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY--ALREADY HAVE SPOKEN UNFAVORABLY ABOUT TRUMAN'S MARCH 12 SPEECH TO CONGRESS, BLASTING IT AS "INTERFERENCE" AND "IMPERIALISM."

(THE PRESIDENT DID NOT SPEAK OF RUSSIA BY NAME IN HIS SPEECH, BUT HE DID MENTION COMMUNISM AND HIS REFERENCE TO RUSSIA WAS UNMISTAKABLE.)

IN ANY EVENT, SEASONED OBSERVERS IN THE AMERICAN DELEGATION FEEL THAT THE ESSENCE OF THE BIG FOUR NEGOTIATIONS IS THAT THE WESTERN POWERS AND THE SOVIET UNION EACH ARE SEEKING TO CREATE THE KIND OF GERMANY WHICH EACH SIDE FEELS WILL FALL MOST READILY UNDER ITS CONTROL.

TO THE EXTENT THIS HYPOTHESIS IS TRUE, THE DIFFICULTIES STILL IN THE PATH OF THE MOSCOW CONFERENCE ARE MAGNIFIED, DESPITE THE FRIENDLY AND HOPEFUL STATEMENTS MADE LAST NIGHT BY MARSHAL AND MOLOTOV.

MOSCOW, MARCH 20-(AP)-WHAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL DID TODAY:

SECRETARY MARSHALL ANNOUNCED HE WOULD PROPOSE THAT AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES CONSULT IN MOSCOW WITH THE COUNCIL ON THE AUSTRIAN TREATY. THE COUNCIL SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW A PROGRESS REPORT FROM THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS DRAFTING THE AUSTRIAN PACT.

FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT DECLARED FRANCE'S DEMANDS FOR GUARANTEES OF GERMAN COAL DELIVERIES MUST BE MET BEFORE FRANCE WOULD AGREE TO ECONOMIC RECONSTITUTION OF GERMANY.

MOSCOW, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER IZVESTIA DECLARED TODAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSALS TO AID GREECE CONTRASTED STRANGELY WITH THE DEFINITION OF AMERICAN DEMOCRACY WHICH SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL GAVE THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL LAST FRIDAY.

"IT IS WELL-KNOWN," ASSERTED AN ARTICLE BY COMMENTATOR R. MORAN, "THAT DISCUSSIONS ON DEMOCRACY OFTEN SERVE MERELY AS A PRETTY FACADE CONCEALING FRANK NEGLECT FOR THE INTERESTS OF DEMOCRATIC PEOPLES.

"AS A FRESH EXAMPLE THE PRESENT SITUATION IN GREECE MAY BE POINTED TO. HERE THE UNITED STATES IS SUPPORTING A POLICY AGAINST WHICH THE MAJORITY OF THE GREEK PEOPLE ARE FIGHTING WITH ALL THEIR STRENGTH IN THE NAME OF DEFENDING DEMOCRACY."

LONDON, MARCH 20-(AP)-TASS (SOVIET NEWS AGENCY) DISTRIBUTED TODAY ~~A TEXT OF~~ RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT YESTERDAY TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL WHICH CONTAINED THE FOLLOWING REFERENCES TO THE POSSIBILITY OF A COMPROMISE ON GERMAN TREATY PROBLEMS:

"WE ALL AGREE ON THE NECESSITY OF THE ECONOMIC UNITY OF GERMANY. SO FAR EACH ONE OF US MAINTAINS HIS OWN VIEWPOINT. NEVERTHELESS, I GATHER THAT NO SUCH CONSIDERATIONS WERE PROPOUNDED HERE WHICH WE WOULD NOT BE ABLE, IF WE SO DESIRED, TO COORDINATE AS REGARDS BASIC POINTS. IN ANY CASE WE SHOULD ENDEAVOR TO FIND WAYS FOR THEIR COORDINATION."

MOLOTOV SAID THE USSR COULD NOT AGREE TO ECONOMIC UNITY OF GERMANY WITHOUT PAYMENT OF REPARATIONS, BUT ADDED:

"IF, HOWEVER, WE AGREE THAT THE MATERIALIZATION OF THE ECONOMIC UNITY OF GERMANY, FAR FROM CONTRADICTING PAYMENT OF REPARATIONS, MUST CERTAINLY INCLUDE THE SOLUTION OF THE REPARATIONS PROBLEM, IT SHOULD NOT BE VERY DIFFICULT TO REACH AGREEMENT CONCERNING OTHER THINGS.

"THE MAIN POINT FOR US IS TO DECIDE THE PROBLEM OF REPARATIONS WHILE DECIDING THAT OF ECONOMIC UNITY OF GERMANY."

WITH MOSCOW

LONDON, MARCH 20-(AP)-SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M. MOLOTOV CITED RUSSIAN STENOGRAPHIC RECORDS OF THE POTSDAM CONFERENCE TO BACK UP HIS ACCUSATIONS IN MOSCOW YESTERDAY THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL HAD BEEN GUILTY OF NEARLY TWO YEARS OF INACTION ON THE RUHR QUESTION, A TASS VERSION OF HIS SPEECH SHOWED TODAY.

PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN AGREED TO A BRITISH PROPOSAL AT POTSDAM, MOLOTOV SAID THE RECORD SHOWED, THAT THE RUSSIAN PROPOSAL TO LEAVE THE RICH RUHR AS PART OF GERMANY UNDER FOUR-POWER ALLIED CONTROL SHOULD BE REFERRED TO THE COUNCIL.

"THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT BELIEVES THAT WE SHOULD AT THE PRESENT TIME AT LEAST CONSIDER WHAT WAS DESIGNED FOR CONSIDERATION AS FAR BACK AS JULY, 1945," TASS QUOTED MOLOTOV AS SAYING.

A PARTIAL TEXT OF THIS PORTION OF HIS REMARKS, AS DISTRIBUTED BY TASS, FOLLOWS: (ABOUT 400)

"CLEARLY, THE SOVIET UNION, JUST AS THE OTHER ALLIES, IS PARTICULARLY CONCERNED WITH THE PROBLEM OF THE RUHR.

"THIS IS THE BASIS OF GERMAN MILITARISM, BECAUSE IT IS THERE THAT THE FOUNDATION OF GERMAN WAR POTENTIAL IS LOCATED. IT WOULD BE VERY RISKY FOR ANY SINGLE POWER TO ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONTROL OVER THE RUHR REGION. IT WOULD BE MUCH MORE CORRECT TO DIVIDE THIS RESPONSIBILITY AMONG THE FOUR ALLIED POWERS.

"THE FOUR ALLIED POWERS MUST EXERCISE CONTROL OVER THE ENTIRE ECONOMY OF GERMANY AND CONSEQUENTLY OVER THE ENTIRE GERMAN INDUSTRY. WE OUGHT TO STRIVE FOR THIS AT THE PRESENT CONFERENCE. AT THE SAME TIME WE SHOULD REACH AGREEMENT TO THE EFFECT THAT SPECIAL CONTROL OF THE FOUR ALLIES BE ESTABLISHED IN THE RUHR INDUSTRIAL AREA, WHICH IS OF PARTICULAR IMPORTANCE FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF GERMANY'S WAR POTENTIAL.

"I WILL HAVE TO QUOTE A SHORT PIECE OF HISTORIC INFORMATION IN ORDER TO RECALL HOW THE DISCUSSION OF THIS QUESTION PROCEEDED AT THE BERLIN (POTSDAM) CONFERENCE. THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT PROPOSED THEN THAT THE RUHR INDUSTRIAL REGION BE REGARDED AS PART OF GERMANY, AND THAT FOUR-POWER CONTROL BE ESTABLISHED OVER THE

THEN THAT THE RUHR INDUSTRIAL REGION BE REGARDED AS PART OF GERMANY, AND THAT FOUR-POWER CONTROL BE ESTABLISHED OVER THE RUHR REGION, FOR WHICH PURPOSE IT WAS PROPOSED THAT THE CONTROL COUNCIL BE ESTABLISHED, COMPRISING REPRESENTATIVES OF GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, THE U.S.A. AND THE SOVIET UNION.

ABSENT. THIS IS AN IMPORTANT QUESTION OF PRINCIPLE AND THE FRENCH ARE VERY CLOSELY CONCERNED WITH IT.'

"I SHALL READ ANOTHER QUOTATION FROM THIS RECORD CONCERNING FURTHER DISCUSSION OF THE ABOVE QUESTION:

"STALIN: 'PERHAPS WE SHOULD NOW POSTPONE THE QUESTION OF CONTROL OVER THE RUHR REGION. BUT THE IDEA THAT THE RUHR REGION REMAINS PART OF GERMANY--LET US REFLECT THIS IDEA IN THIS DOCUMENT.'

"TRUMAN: 'NO DOUBT, IT IS PART OF GERMANY.'

"THE CONCLUDING SECTION OF OUR RECORD READS AS FOLLOWS:

"BEVIN: 'CANNOT AGREE TO THIS NOW BECAUSE I HAVE NOT GOT HERE THE RECORD OF THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION OF THIS QUESTION WITH OUR REPRESENTATIVE. I KNOW THERE WAS AN IDEA OF INTERNATIONALIZING THE RUHR IN ORDER TO REDUCE GERMANY'S WAR POTENTIAL. THAT IDEA HAS BEEN DISCUSSED. I AGREE THAT THE RUHR SHOULD REMAIN SUBJECT TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE CONTROL COUNCIL PENDING FURTHER DISCUSSION. BUT I WOULD LIKE TO HAVE A CHANCE TO DISCUSS IT WITH MY GOVERNMENT IN ORDER TO MAKE THIS QUESTION PERFECTLY CLEAR. I WOULD BE WILLING TO REFER THIS MATTER TO THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS IF THIS WOULD ALLOW TIME FOR ME TO STUDY THIS QUESTION THOROUGHLY'.

"STALIN AND TRUMAN AGREED WITH THIS PROPOSAL.

"IT WILL BE SEEN FROM THE ABOVE THAT AGREEMENT WAS REACHED AT THE BERLIN CONFERENCE TO THE EFFECT THAT THE PROBLEM OF CONTROL OVER THE RUHR INDUSTRIAL REGION BE CONSIDERED BY THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS. THIS WAS NOT DONE, HOWEVER, ALTHOUGH THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT MADE SUCH A PROPOSAL.

"ON THE OTHER HAND, WE KNOW THAT ONE OF THE ALLIED POWERS IS PUTTING VERY IMPORTANT MEASURES INTO EFFECT IN A UNILATERAL MANNER. (THIS PROBABLY WAS A REFERENCE TO BRITAIN.)

"THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT BELIEVES THAT WE SHOULD AT THE PRESENT TIME AT LEAST CONSIDER WHAT WAS DESIGNED FOR CONSIDERATION AS FAR BACK AS IN JULY, 1945. THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT THEREFORE AGAIN RECALLS ITS PROPOSAL TO THE EFFECT OF ESTABLISHING QUADRIPARTITE ALLIED CONTROL OVER THE RUHR INDUSTRIAL REGION."

LONDON, MARCH 20-(AP)-GOVERNMENT SOURCES REPORTED TODAY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WAS CONSIDERING SCRAPPING PLANS FOR NATIONWIDE FUEL RATIONING IN FAVOR OF A CAMPAIGN FOR VOLUNTARY DOMESTIC ECONOMIES WITH GAS AND ELECTRICITY.

HOUSEHOLDERS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED KINGDOM, UNDER THE THREAT OF PROSECUTION, NOW ARE REQUIRED TO USE NO ELECTRICITY FOR FIVE HOURS DAILY. THE DOMESTIC BLACKOUT WAS INSTITUTED AT THE HEIGHT OF THE COAL CRISIS LAST MONTH. GAS PRESSURES HAVE BEEN REDUCED.

HOUSEHOLD COAL HAS BEEN RATIONED SINCE THE EARLY WAR YEARS.

PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE AND HIS "COAL CABINET," ORGANIZED TO DEAL WITH THE FUEL FAMINE MAY APPEAL TO THE NATION, AS A PATRIOTIC GESTURE, NOT TO USE MORE THAN SPECIFIED AMOUNTS OF FUEL OR POWER, THE INFORMANTS SAID.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE GROUP HAD CONSIDERED THE QUESTION OF IMPORTING AMERICAN COAL. THERE WAS NO CONFIRMATION, HOWEVER, OF REPORTS THAT ORDERS FOR 3,000,000 TONS HAVE BEEN PLACED IN THE UNITED STATES.

AT PRESENT ALL AVAILABLE AMERICAN COAL EXPORTS ARE IN DEMAND FOR FUEL-SHORT EUROPE AND THE SUPPLIES ARE ALLOCATED BY THE EUROPEAN COAL ORGANIZATION, MADE UP OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 17 COUNTRIES.

FOR THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS RATIONING OF FUEL TO DOMESTIC USERS WAS CONSIDERED INEVITABLE. RATION SCHEMES WERE DRAWN UP BY DEPARTMENTAL EXPERTS. PREDICTING THEY WOULD BE TOSSED ASIDE FOR VOLUNTARY ECONOMIES, THE INFORMANTS SAID THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN DIFFICULT TO ENFORCE.

THE LONDON STAR REPORTED--WITHOUT MINISTRY OF FUEL AND POWER CONFIRMATION--THAT LONDON HOUSEHOLDERS WOULD RECEIVE ONLY 450 POUNDS OF COAL FOR THE MONTHS OF MARCH AND APRIL INSTEAD OF THE PERMITTED 900 POUNDS, DUE TO DIVERSION OF DOMESTIC SUPPLIES TO POWER STATIONS DURING THE ELECTRICITY CRISIS.

LONDON, MARCH 20-(AP)-DEFENSE MINISTER A.V.ALEXANDER SAID TODAY THAT, PENDING UNITED NATIONS SETTLEMENT OF THE PALESTINE PROBLEM, BRITISH TROOPS WOULD REMAIN IN THE HOLY LAND TO PRESERVE LAW AND ORDER.

"SINCE THE MANDATE FOR PALESTINE IS OURS, THAT IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY," ALEXANDER TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, ADDING:

"OUR ARMED FORCES AT THE PRESENT TIME HAVE TO REMAIN STRONG ENOUGH TO ASSERT THE AUTHORITY OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE SAFETY OF OUR NATIONALS AND THEMSELVES AND OF THOSE PALESTINE NATIONALS WHO ESCHEW THE METHODS OF BARBARITY AND TERRORISM."

ALEXANDER ALSO SERVED NOTICE THERE WOULD BE NO WHOLESALE SLASHING OF BRITAIN'S ARMED FORCES, EITHER AT HOME OR IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD.

ASKING FOR APPROVAL OF DEFENSE PLANS, HE TOLD CRITICS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CONSCRIPTION PROGRAM, THAT THE UNITED NATIONS WAS STILL TOO WEAK FOR BRITAIN SAFELY TO TRIM HER ARMED FORCES BELOW 1,072,000 MEN.

PARIS, MARCH 20-(AP)-PREMIER PAUL RAMADIER DEMANDED A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE ON HIS INDO-CHINESE POLICY TODAY AND WAS REPORTED TO HAVE TOLD HIS CABINET HE WOULD RESIGN UNLESS ALL FOUR PARTIES IN HIS GOVERNMENT SUPPORTED HIM ON THE ISSUE.

THE COMMUNISTS ALONE OF THE FOUR PARTIES HAVE OPPOSED HIM ON THE QUESTION. #

PARIS--FIRST ADD FIRST LEAD FRENCH (A69) X X X BUDGET QUESTION.

MANY MEMBERS OF THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES PREDICTED THAT RAMADIER WOULD BE SUPPORTED BY VIRTUALLY ALL DEPUTIES OUTSIDE COMMUNIST RANKS ON THE CONFIDENCE QUESTION, A SITUATION WHICH IN ITSELF MIGHT JEOPARDIZE THE PRESENT FOUR-PARTY COALITION GOVERNMENT.

THESE DEPUTIES SAID RADICAL-SOCIALISTS OR POPULAR REPUBLICANS MIGHT RESIGN THEIR POSITIONS IN THE CABINET IN PROTEST AGAINST KEEPING THE COMMUNISTS IN. SUCH RESIGNATIONS WOULD WRECK THE RAMADIER GOVERNMENT. THE THREE PARTIES HAVE FIVE MEMBERS EACH IN THE GOVERNMENT. INS: (PARIS)-(Day)

THE INTERVAL BETWEEN NOW AND SATURDAY, HOWEVER, PROBABLY WILL BE SPENT IN INTER-PARTY NEGOTIATIONS IN AN EFFORT TO PRESERVE THE COALITION AT LEAST FOR THE DURATION OF THE MOSCOW FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE.

ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER PIERRE HENRI TEITGEN OF THE POPULAR REPUBLICANS (MRP) SAID THE CABINET THIS MORNING UNANIMOUSLY DECIDED TO RETAIN FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT AS CHIEF OF RANCE'S DELEGATION IN MOSCOW REGARDLESS OF ANY GOVERNMENT CHANGES. OFFICIALS SAID BIDAULT, AN MRP MEMBER, COULD BE RETAINED AS A "TECHNICIAN" IN MOSCOW EVEN IF SOME OTHER PARTY TOOK HIS PORTFOLIO.

FOLLOWING THE CABINET MEETING THE ASSEMBLY ADOPTED THE MILITARY CREDITS ITEM BY ITEM WITHOUT A ROLL CALL, BUT DELAYED THE DECISIVE VOTE ON THE CREDITS AS A WHOLE UNTIL SATURDAY. SO FAR AS COULD BE OBSERVED THE COMMUNISTS ABSTAINED FROM VOTING ON THE ITEMS.

EARLIER DUCLOS DECLARED THE COMMUNISTS OPPOSED RAMADIER'S "POLICY OF FORCE" IN INDOCHINA AND DEMANDED NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE VIET-NAMESE REGIME OF HO CHI-MINH.

RAMADIER SAID "IF YOU INSIST ON ABSTAINING, YOU WILL DIVIDE FRANCE INTO TWO PARTS, COMMUNIST AND ANTI-COMMUNIST, SOMETHING WE HAVE DONE EVERYTHING TO AVOID."

POLICE TODAY ARRESTED DUONG BAC MAI OF THE VIET-NAMESE DELEGATION IN FRANCE ON A CHARGE OF "ACTIONS AGAINST THE FOREIGN SECURITY OF THE STATE." THE ARREST OF DUONG BAC MAI, WHO AT ONE TIME HAD OFFICIAL STANDING WITH THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT, CONSTITUTED A BLOW TO THOSE WHO WANTED NEGOTIATIONS LEFT OPEN.

NIGHT LEAD GERMANY (200)
BY RICHARD KASISCHKE

BERLIN, MARCH 20-(AP)-WITH RUSSIA BLOCKING JOINT FOUR-POWER ACTION, GREAT BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT INTERNATIONAL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH SERVICE FOR THE GERMAN CIVIL POPULATION IN THEIR ZONES WOULD BE REESTABLISHED APRIL 1.

THE SERVICE WILL APPLY TO ALL COUNTIRES EXCEPT SPAIN, JAPAN AND THEIR DEPENDENCIES, WHICH ARE ALSO EXCLUDED FROM POSTWAR GERMANY'S INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICE.

THERE WILL BE NO LIMITATIONS ON INCOMING SERVICE, BUT GERMANS WHO MAKE OUTGOING TELEPHONE CALLS OR SEND TELEGRAMS MUST OBTAIN AUTHORIZATION FROM THE JOINT EXPORT-IMPORT AGENCY FOR THE COMBINED BRITISH AND AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONES. APPLICANTS MUST CONVINCE THE AGENCY THAT THEIR CALLS WILL "BENEFIT GERMAN ECONOMY."

CONTENTS OF TELEGRAMS AND SUBJECT MATTER OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS MUST BE LIMITED TO THE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION AND ASCERTAINING FACTS. CLOSING BUSINESS DEALS AND CONTRACTS WILL BE PROHIBITED. NO MESSAGES RELATING TO GERMAN EXTERNAL ASSETS EVEN OF SIMPLE INFORMATIONAL CHARACTER WILL BE PERMITTED.

THE RUSSIANS AGREED IN THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL IN JANUARY TO THE PRINCIPLE OF REESTABLISHING INTERNATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATIONS IN ALL ZONES OF GERMANY BUT WHEN THE FOUR-POWER COMMITTEES GOT DOWN TO DISCUSSING RULES AND REGULATIONS, IT WAS LEARNED, THE RUSSIANS BALKED ON THE METHODS.

THE FRENCH WERE UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE SIDED WITH THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS AND WERE EXPECTED TO JOIN IN THE SERVICE LATER.

A MISTRIAL WAS DECLARED AND THE DEFENDANTS, ACCUSED OF KILLING A GERMAN POLICEMAN, WERE REMANDED TO JAIL.

MAR 1947

THE DEFENSE COUNSEL WAS EARL CARROLL OF SAN BRUNO, CALIF., FORMER AIR CORPS OFFICER WHO IS KNOWN IN THE EUROPEAN THEATER AS A CRITIC OF THE MILITARY JUSTICE SYSTEM. HE RETURNED TO GERMANY LAST FALL AS A CIVILIAN AND HAS BEEN DEFENDING MANY CASES, MOST OF WHICH HAVE BEEN ENLIVENED BY HIS CHARGES OF UNFAIR PROSECUTION TACTICS.

CARROLL SAID "I DON'T THINK THIS CASE CAN EVER BE TRIED AGAIN BECAUSE IF IT IS, THESE PEOPLE WILL HAVE BEEN PLACED TWICE IN JEOPARDY. THIS CASE JUST REVERSED THE USUAL PROCEDURE, WHICH MAKES IT LIKE 'MAN BITES DOG,' USUALLY THE COURT DISQUALIFIES THE COUNSEL, BUT THIS TIME IT DISQUALIFIED ITSELF."

BERLIN, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNMENTS ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT INTERNATIONAL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH SERVICE WOULD BE REESTABLISHED APRIL 1 FOR GERMAN CIVILIANS IN THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH ZONES WITH ALL COUNTRIES EXCEPT SPAIN, JAPAN AND THEIR DEPENDENCIES.

THE RUSSIANS IN THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL BLOCKED FOUR-POWER ACTION TO REESTABLISH SERVICE THROUGHOUT GERMANY, OBJECTING TO PROPOSED RULES AND REGULATIONS. THE FRENCH WERE REPORTED TO HAVE SIDED WITH THE AMERICANS AND BRITISH, WHO ACTED ON A BI-ZONAL BASIS, AND WERE EXPECTED TO ESTABLISH THE SERVICES LATER.

NO LIMITATIONS WILL BE APPLIED TO INCOMING TELEPHONE CALLS AND TELEGRAMS. ONLY GERMANS AUTHORIZED BY THE JOINT EXPORT-IMPORT AGENCY FOR THE AMERICAN-BRITISH ZONE WILL BE ALLOWED TO USE THE OUTGOING SERVICE, BECAUSE OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESTRICTIONS. APPLICANTS FOR OUTGOING SERVICE MUST CONVINCE THE AGENCY THAT CALLS ARE FOR "THE BENEFIT OF GERMAN ECONOMY."

NUERNBERG, GERMANY, FEB.20-(AP)-FIELD MARSHAL ERHARD MILCH ACKNOWLEDGED AT HIS WAR CRIMES TRIAL TODAY THAT HIS OATH TO ADOLF HITLER MEANT MORE TO HIM THAN THE WELFARE OF THE GERMAN PEOPLE.

"JUST WHAT DID YOU DO ABOUT IT IF YOU KNEW THE GERMAN PEOPLE WERE BEING DRAWN TO DESTRUCTION?"

"I HAVE ASKED MYSELF THAT MANY TIMES IN THE LAST TWO YEARS OF BITTER CAPTIVITY--WHAT COULD I DO ABOUT IT?" MILCH REPLIED.

WHEN THE JUDGE SUGGESTED HE COULD HAVE RESIGNED, MILCH SAID:

"THAT WAS IMPOSSIBLE. EVEN THOUGH I KNEW OF THE DESTRUCTION THAT WAS HAPPENING TO THE GERMAN PEOPLE, I HAD SWORN MY OATH TO HITLER."

"TELL ME ONE THING YOU DID TO SHORTEN THE WAR SINCE YOU BELIEVED HITLER WAS RUINING THE COUNTRY," MUSMANNO REJOINED.

NEW DELHI, MARCH 20-(AP)-NEWS DISPATCHES TELLING OF BLOODY EVENTS OF THE LAST TWO WEEKS IN THE PUNJAB AND NORTHWEST FRONTIER PROVINCES HAVE BEEN SERIOUSLY DELAYED IN MANY CASES AND STOPPED ENTIRELY IN OTHERS BY CENSORSHIP IMPOSED BY THE TWO PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS.

(A DISPATCH FROM LAHORE, PUNJAB CAPITAL, SAID THAT RIOTING SINCE MARCH 4 HAD RESULTED IN 2,040 KNOWN DEAD AND 1,103 INJURED.)

CENSORSHIP, WHICH EXTENDS TO BOTH TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE, WAS RELAXED IN BOTH PROVINCES ON DISPATCHES SENT OUTSIDE INDIA AFTER FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS PROTESTED.

DISPATCHES DISTRIBUTED WITHIN INDIA ARE CENSORED BEFOREHAND, EXCEPT IMXYWQXEKKE

DISPATCHES DISTRIBUTED WITHIN INDIA ARE CENSORED BEFOREHAND, EXCEPT IN INSTANCES WHERE THE NEWS AGENCIES MAKE THEMSELVES RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY VIOLATIONS. ALL NEWSPAPERS WITHIN THE TROUBLED PROVINCES MUST BE PRE-CENSORED.

IN BOTH PROVINCES THE CENSORS, WHO MAY BE THE LOCAL TELEGRAPH OFFICE MANAGERS, NEED MERELY TAG A STORY "OBJECTIONABLE" TO PREVENT TRANSMISSION. THE CORRESPONDENT IS NOT NOTIFIED UNLESS HE INQUIRES, AND THERE IS LITTLE HE CAN DO ABOUT IT.

THE CRITERION FOR CENSORSHIP IS USUALLY WHETHER THE CENSOR IS OF THE OPINION THE STORY IS LIKELY TO CAUSE FURTHER TROUBLE BETWEEN RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES BY LISTING CASUALTIES AS HINDUS, SIKHS OR MOSLEMS, OR BY TELLING WHAT MOSLEMS DID TO SIKHS OR WHAT SIKHS DID TO MOSLEMS.

ON A VISIT TO THE PUNJAB THIS CORRESPONDENT HAD PERMISSION TO MAKE TELEPHONE CALLS TO HIS HEADQUARTERS IN NEW DELHI, BUT IT WAS ALMOST A DAILY BATTLE TO KEEP THE PRIVILEGE UNTIL A.A.MACDONALD, HOME SECRETARY IN THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT, FINALLY GAVE THE PERMISSION IN WRITING.

MACDONALD MADE IT CLEAR HE DID NOT CARE ABOUT DISPATCHES SENT TO A FOREIGN ADDRESS.

IN THE NORTHWEST FRONTIER PROVINCES PREMIER DR. KHAN SAHIB OF THE CONGRESS PARTY AND INFORMATION MINISTER MEHR CHAND KHANNA TOLD CORRESPONDENTS THEY WERE AGAINST CENSORSHIP. HOWEVER, THEY WERE BLOCKED FOR A TIME BY THE BRITISH CHIEF SECRETARY OF THE PROVINCE, LT. COL. D.G.H. DE LA FARGUE.

I APPLIED IN WRITING TO KHANNA FOR PERMISSION TO MAKE TELEPHONE CALLS WITH THE REQUEST THAT ACTION BE EXPEDITED. THE INFORMATION MINISTER INFORMED ME 24 HOURS LATER, WHEN I INQUIRED, THAT HE HAD PASSED THE REQUEST ON TO DE LA FARGUE. I ASKED DE LA FARGUE WHAT HE HAD DONE WITH MY APPLICATION, AND HE SAID, "I THREW IT IN THE WASTEBASKET."

KUROSE SAID JAPANESE TROOPS WERE DEMORALIZED AND EXHAUSTED BY THEIR CAMPAIGN DOWN THE MALAY PENINSULA AND THE EXISTENCE OF UNDERGROUND OPPOSITION IN SINGAPORE "AGGRAVATED THE NERVOUS STRAIN ON THE TROOPS."

HE ADDED THAT DURING THE MALAYAN CAMPAIGN, JAPANESE FORCES CONSTANTLY WERE HARASSED BY CHINESE COMMUNISTS, SECRET SOCIETIES AND VOLUNTEER FORCES.

NANKING, MARCH 20-(AP)-CHIEF OF STAFF CHEN CHENG SAID TODAY THE SEIZURE OF YENAN, CAPITAL OF RED CHINA, ACHIEVED THE FIRST BIG OBJECTIVE ON A GOVERNMENT TIMETABLE FOR DEFEATING THE MAIN COMMUNIST FORCES WITHIN THREE MONTHS.

THE GENERAL TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD DECIDED THE COMMUNIST "OPEN REBELLIONG" LEFT MILITARY ACTION AS THE ONLY MEANS OF SETTLING CHINA'S STRIFE.

"FIGHTING IN THE PAST HAS BEEN HALF-HEARTED BECAUSE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WERE CONTINUING," CHEN CHENG SAID. "UNDER THE PROGRAM OF TOTAL WA WE EXPECT TO ACHIEVE DEFEAT OF THE MAIN COMMUNIST STRENGTH WITHIN THREE MONTHS. THIS DOES NOT MEAN THE END OF ALL ARMED COMMUNISTS -- NATURALLY THERE WILL BE POCKETS LEFT -- BUT IT DOES MEAN THE ENEMY WILL CEASE TO EXIST AS FORMAL ARMED OPPOSITION."

ASKED IF IT WERE POSSIBLE TO DEFEAT THE COMMUNISTS WITHOUT MILITARY SUPPORT FROM ABROAD, CHEN CHENG REPLIED:

"IN OUR FIGHT AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS WE DON'T EXPECT ANY HELP FROM ABROAD. THE SITUATION NOW IS LIKE THE EARLY DAYS OF THE JAPANESE WAR. WE FOUGHT WITHOUT SUPPORT FROM ANYONE.

"THE COMMUNISTS' DEFEAT," HE ADDED, "WILL BE ACHIEVED NOT BECAUSE OUR GUNS ARE BETTER, BUT BECAUSE THEY HAVE LOST THE SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE."

CHEN CHENG SAID THE GOVERNMENT USED FIVE DIVISIONS IN ITS FIVE-DAY YENAN CAMPAIGN CLIMAXED WITH CAPTURE OF THE CITY YESTERDAY. THE CAMPAIGN, HE SAID, "GAVE A SURPRISING DEMONSTRATION OF THE LACK OF MORALE AND QUALITY OF THE COMMUNIST DEFENDERS" WHO, HE SAID, TOTALED MORE THAN 160,000.

THE ARMY COMMANDER SAID GOVERNMENT TROOPS PUSHING BEYOND YENAN WOULD CONTINUE TO DRIVE AT LEAST TO THE BANKS OF THE YELLOW RIVER.

CHEN CHENG SAID THE GOVERNMENT HIGH COMMAND HAD NO EXACT KNOWLEDGE OF THE LOCATION OF COMMUNIST PARTY HEADQUARTERS, WHICH FLED YENAN AHEAD OF NATIONALIST ENTRY, EXCEPT THAT "THEY RETREATED NORTHEASTWARD."

CAPTURE OF THE CAPITAL THE COMMUNISTS OCCUPIED FOR 13 YEARS WAS EXPECTED TO SHORTEN THE CIVIL WAR CONSIDERABLY, THE CHIEF OF STAFF SAID.

THE NEXT IMPORTANT BATTLES PROBABLY WILL BE FOUGHT IN SHANTUNG PROVINCE, ON THE EAST, WHERE GOVERNMENT ARMIES STILL ARE ON THE DEFENSIVE IN TSINAN AND TSINGTAO, CHEN CHENG SAID.

YOKOHAMA, FRIDAY, MARCH 21-(AP)-RAVING PRISONERS WERE GIVEN BUT ONE TABLESPOON OF WATER IN THREE DAYS, WITH THE RESULT THAT MANY WENT MAD ON THE HELL SHIP ORYOKU MARU CARRYING THEM FROM THE PHILIPPINES TO JAPAN, THE EIGHTH ARMY MILITARY TRIBUNAL WAS TOLD TODAY.

"SOME OF THE UNFORTUNATES FAILED TO GET EVEN THAT MUCH IN OUR HOLD," SAID LT. COL. AUSTIN J.MONTGOMERY OF SHERMAN OAKS,CALIF., TESTIFYING AT THE TRIAL OF NINE JAPANESE ACCUSED OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE DEATHS OF 1,300 MEN ON THAT TERRIBLE VOYAGE.

ALL NINE ARE ACCUSED VARIOUSLY OF FIRING MACHINEGUNS INTO THE HOLDS, STARVING THE MEN OR REFUSING WATER, BAYONETING THEM AT THE GRAVESIDE OR SHOOTING THEM AS THEY FLED VARIOUS PRISON SHIPS AFTER THE VESSELS WERE HIT BY ALLIED BOMBERS.

AN AFFIDAVIT OF FORMER MAJOR ROBERT E. CONN, 4870 WEST LAKE HARRIET BOULEVARD, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., DECLARED THE VOYAGE WAS "BEYOND THE POWER OF IMAGINATION."

BATAVIA, JAVA, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE DUTCH COMMISSION GENERAL FOR THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES SPLIT WIDE OPEN TODAY, APPARENTLY AS A RESULT OF THE HAGUE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO SIGN IMMEDIATELY THE CHERIBON PACT TO END THE 19-MONTH-LONG INDONESIAN REVOLUTION.

ONE OF THE THREE ORIGINAL MEMBERS OF THE FIVE-MAN COMMISSION--FEIKI DEBOER, WHO GENERALLY IS CONSIDERED REPRESENTATIVE OF DUTCH COMMERCIAL INTERESTS--ANNOUNCED HE WAS QUITTING AND TWO MEMBERS-DESIGNATE--PROF. S. O. POSTHUMA, FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC ADVISER, AND J. H. W. VERZIJL, POLITICAL-LEGAL ADVISER--SAID THEY WOULD REFUSE TO ACCEPT APPOINTMENT TO THE COMMISSION.

THIS LEFT ONLY WILLIAM H. C. SCHERMERHORN OF THE LABOR PARTY AND MAX VAN POLL OF THE CATHOLIC PARTY ON THE COMMISSION. BOTH OF THEM FAVOR IMMEDIATE SETTLEMENT WITH THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

PRESIDENT SOEKARNO OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC SUMMONED HIS CABINET FOR A SESSION SATURDAY TO DECIDE WHETHER TO ACCEPT THE NETHERLANDS DECISION TO SIGN THE AGREEMENT IMMEDIATELY. PREMIER SUTAN SJAHRIR SAID YESTERDAY THE QUESTION OF DUTCH OCCUPATION OF MODJOKERTO WOULD HAVE TO BE SETTLED--PERHAPS BY THE PAYMENT OF INDEMNITIES--BEFORE THE INDONESIANS WOULD SIGN.

THE DUTCH ANNOUNCED TUESDAY THAT THEY HAD OCCUPIED MODJOKERTO, AND IMPORTANT CITY IN EAST JAVA.

THE NETHERLANDS ARMY SAID AN AGREEMENT HAD BEEN SIGNED WITH THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC FOR JOINT ADMINISTRATION OF THE MODJOKERTO AREA. THE DUTCH HALTED MILITARY OPERATIONS AFTER COMPLETING THE OCCUPATION OF THE DELTA REGION, WHICH THEY CHARGED REPUBLICAN TROOPS HAD FLOODED.

A DUTCH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID A "GOOD PART" OF THE LARGE AMOUNTS OF REPUBLICAN ARMY MATERIAL CAPTURED IN THE DRIVE WAS "OF BRITISH ORIGIN." HE SAID AN INDIAN AND TWO BRITISH DESERTERS SERVING WITH THE INDONESIANS WERE CAPTURED.

THE DUTCH SAID THE SHIP HAD BEEN MOVED TO ANOTHER QUAY IN BATAVIA IN ORDER TO SPEED UP THE UNLOADING TO 500 TONS DAILY. RYAN CALLED THE MOVEMENT OF THE SHIP, IN WHICH THE CREW REFUSED TO ASSIST, "ANOTHER ACT IN VIOLATION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW." HE RENEWED CHARGES THAT THE CONFISCATED CARGO WAS BEING RELOADED ON DUTCH AND BRITISH VESSELS FOR SHIPMENT TO EUROPE. ADD-BATAVIA-(SHIP SEIZURE)-XXX PRESSED

A HIGHLY PLACED DUTCH SOURCE SAID THAT IT WAS NECESSARY TO SEND THE MARTIN BEHRMAN'S CARGO TO EUROPE BECAUSE THE ISBRANDTSEN COMPANY UNDOUBTEDLY WOULD FILE LAWSUITS IF IT WENT TO THE UNITED STATES.

THE INFORMANT SAID THE DUTCH WOULD SHIP EQUIVALENT AMOUNTS OF RUBBER, CINCHONA (QUININE BARK) AND SISAL TO AMERICA SO THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD NOT LOSE THE CRITICAL MATERIALS BECAUSE OF THE SEIZURE OF THE VESSEL'S CARGO. HE ADDED THAT NO LEGAL CHARGES WOULD BE PRESSED AGAINST GRAY OR THE CREW.

THE MARTIN BEHRMAN LOADED A $3,000,000 CARGO AT CHERIBON, A PORT CONTROLLED BY THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN REGIME. SUBSEQUENTLY RYAN CHARGED THAT A DUTCH DESTROYER TOOK THE MARTIN BEHRMAN UNDER FORCED ESCORT FROM CHERIBON TO BATAVIA.

IN CONFISCATING THE CARGO THE DUTCH CLAIMED THAT IT HAD BEEN "LOOTED" FROM DUTCH ESTATES NOW IN INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN HANDS.

NEW YORK, MARCH 20-(AP)-IF DUTCH SEIZURE OF THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER MARTIN BEHRMAN IS NOT RECTIFIED, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE OWNER SAID, "THERE WILL BE CHAOS ON THE HIGH SEAS AND PIRACY MAY WELL BECOME THE RULE."

THE STATEMENT WAS ISSUED LATE YESTERDAY BY WALTER ISBRANDTSEN, WHOSE FATHER, HANS ISBRANDTSEN, IS HEAD OF ISBRANDTSEN COMPANY, INC., WHICH OPERATES THE BEHRMAN UNDER CHARTER FROM THE U.S. MARITIME COMMISSION.

AT THE SAME TIME, CAPT. CHARLES T. ATKINS, VICE-PRESIDENT OF LOCAL 88, MASTERS, MATES AND PILOTS UNION (AFL), SAID THAT IF ACTION IS NOT TAKEN BY WEDNESDAY TO REMEDY MANHANDLING DECK OFFICERS OF THE BEHRMAN, HE WOULD ASK THAT SEAMEN REFUSE TO SERVICE SHIPS TRADING WITH DUTCH HOME OR COLONIAL PORTS.

PROTESTS TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAVE BEEN SENT BY THE COMPANY AND BY CAPT. RUBY GRAY, THE BEHRMAN'S SKIPPER, AND JAMES RYAN, THE COMPANY'S ADMIRALTY LAWYER WHO NOW IS IN BATAVIA, ISBRANDTSEN ANNOUNCED.

THE BEHRMAN, WHICH HAD TAKEPLON A $3,000,000 CARGO OF SUGAR,

SISAL, RUBBERLNFGBCHINCHONA, SOURCE OF QUININE, AT CHERIBON, A JAVA PORT CONTROLLED BY THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC, WAS BOARDED MARCH 1 BY THE CREW OF A DUTCH GUNBOAT AND ORDERED TO PROCEED TO BATAVIA.

ISBRANDTSEN SAID CAPT. GRAY AND RYAN MESSAGED THAT ITS CARGO WAS BEING TRANSFERRED TO THE BRITISH SHIP PHRONTIS AND THE DUTCH SHIP BANDAM.

THE SEIZURE OF THE SHIP AND CARGO, ISBRANTSEN SAID, WAS "AN ATTEMPT ON THE PART OF THE DUTCH TO SECURE INDONESIAN PRODUCTS WITHOUT PAY, WHICH THEY COULD NOT SECURE IN ORDERLY PROCESSES OF TRADE WITH THE INBONESIANS BECAUSE OF INDONESIAN ANTAGONISM."

THE DUTCH COLONIAL GOVERNMENT HAD EXPLAINED THE SEIZURE ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE CARGO LOADED AT CHERIBON WAS FROM PLANTATIONS SEIZED FROM DUTCH OWNERS BY THE INDONESIANS. THE BEHRMAN OBTAINED PERMISSION FOR THE VOYAGE BEFORE JAN.2, WHEN THE DUTCH DECREED A BAN ON EXPORT OF PRODUCE FROM INDONESIAN PLANTATIONS. ISBRANDTSEN SAID THE COMPANY, NEVERTHELESS, HAD ATTEMPTED TO OBTAIN AN EXPORT LICENSE WHILE LOADING.

MANILA, MARCH 20-(AP)-BRIG.GEN.ERNEST H.BURT, FORMER MEMBER OF AMERICAN AMBASSADOR PAUL V.MCNUTT'S STAFF, HAS LOST IN A COURT TEST THE RIGHT TO PURCHASE THE EXTENSIVE BUENA VISTA ESTATE IN CENTRAL LUZON FROM A CATHOLIC MISSION ORDER.

THE BULACAN PROVINCE COURT ORDERED VALIDATION OF DEEDS MADE IN FAVOR OF THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT, WHICH PLANS TO SELL THE LANDS TO TENANTS. THE COURT RULED THAT BURT WAS NOT A PURCHASER IN GOOD FAITH. BECAUSE HE KNEW BEFOREHAND OF THE EXISTENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CLAIM IN THE FORM OF A LEASE WITH OPTION TO PURCHASE.

THE CASE WAS CITED BY OPPONENTS OF THE RECENTLY-ADOPTED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT GRANTING ECONOMIC PARITY TO AMERICANS AS AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT AMERICANS MIGHT DO IF PERMITTED TO BUY PHILIPPINE LAND. PRESIDENT ROXAS REPLIED THAT WHEN THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT TOOK STEPS TO CANCEL THE SALE "THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT UTTERED NOT A SINGLE WORD OF COMPLAINT, BUT RATHER SUPPORTED US IN OUR PROGRAM."

THE REPORT OF A THREE-NATION COMMITTEE, WHICH STUDIED THE CASE NEARLY TWO WEEKS WITHOUT REACHING ANY CONCLUSIONS, RESTS ON THE TABLE.

THE BRITISH HAVE INDICATED THEY WILL RENEW THEIR DEMANDS THAT ALBANIA BE FOUND GUILTY IN THE INCIDENT LAST OCT. 22 WHEN TWO ROYAL NAVY SHIPS STRUCK MINES IN THE CORFU CHANNEL WITH A LOSS OF 44 LIVES.

IT WAS DOUBTFUL ON THE BASIS OF PREVIOUS POSITIONS TAKEN BY OTHER COUNCIL MEMBERS WHETHER SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN COULD MUSTER SUFFICIENT SUPPORT AT THIS STAGE. RUSSIA WAS REPRESENTED AS WANTING THE CASE THROWN OUT ENTIRELY, CONTENDING THAT THE SOVIET-SPONSORED ALBANIAN GOVERNMENT HAD NOT BEEN PROVEN GUILTY.

POLAND PLANNED TO ASK THAT THE COUNCIL URGE THE TWO COUNTRIES TO ATTEMPT A BI-LATERAL SETTLEMENT, BUT WAS READY TO COMPROMISE ON ANY SUGGESTION TO REFER THE CASE TO THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE. ADD-LAKE SUCCESS-(AUSTIN)-XXX PROPOSAL

BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 20-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HOPES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO PUT GREECE IN CONDITION TO APPLY FOR LOANS FROM THE UNITED NATIONS, AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID TODAY.

THIS MAJOR POINT EMERGED AS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON DECLARED IN WASHINGTON THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WAS STUDYING WAYS IN WHICH THE U.N. COULD TAKE OVER THE GREEK PROBLEM AFTER THE PRESENT EMERGENCY.

AT THE SAME TIME IT WAS STATED HERE THAT IT WOULD BE AT LEAST TWO YEARS BEFORE THE U.N. COULD PROVIDE ANY MILITARY ASSISTANCE.

THESE SOURCES SAID THE AMERICAN COURSE NOW WAS BEING LAID DOWN WOULD:

1- THROUGH GENEROUS GRANTS ENABLE GREECE TO GAIN THE FINANCIAL STABILITY NECESSARY TO QUALIFY FOR LOANS FROM THE INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT, AN ORGAN WHICH SHORTLY WILL COME INTO AFFILIATION WITH THE U.N.

2- SUPPORT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SEMI-PERMANENT BORDER COMMISSION WHICH WOULD KEEP INDEPENDENT OBSERVERS STATIONED ALONG GREECE'S TROUBLED NORTHERN FRONTIERS.

3- IN THE EVENT OF A WAR EMERGENCY AND IN THE ABSENCE OF ANY MARKED PROGRESS ON AN INTERNATIONAL MILITARY FORCE, INVOKE ARTICLE 106 OF THE CHARTER WHICH PROVIDES THAT THE FIVE MAJOR POWERS MAY CONSULT AMONG THEMSELVES AND WITH THE OTHER 50 MEMBERS ON JOINT ACTION IN BEHALF OF THE U.N. TOWARD MAINTENANCE OF PEACE.

ON THE THIRD POINT, A PERSON HIGH IN U.N. CIRCLES, WHO DECLINED USE OF HIS NAME, SAID THAT THE WORLD COULD HOPE FOR LITTLE MILITARY SUPPORT FROM THE U.N. FOR AT LEAST TWO YEARS.

THE MILITARY STAFF COMMITTEE, A SECURITY COUNCIL ORGAN, HAS BEEN IN SESSION FOR A YEAR AND STILL IS CONCERNED WITH RULES OF PROCEDURE AND BASIC PRINCIPLES SURROUNDING ESTABLISHMENT OF A GLOBAL FORCE. THE COMMITTEE MUST REPORT TO THE COUNCIL BY APRIL 30 AND WHILE THIS PUBLIC AIRING MAY INDUCE SOME PROGRESS, PERSONS CLOSE TO THE GENERALS AND ADMIRALS AGREED THAT THE U.N. NEVER WOULD HAVE A FORCE UNTIL THE PEACE TREATIES WERE SIGNED AND SOME OF THE MAJOR PROBLEMS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA SETTLED.

IN VIEW OF THE GENERAL SITUATION BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST, LITTLE HOPE WAS PLACED IN ARTICLE 106, EITHER, IN THAT ANY MAJOR STEPS TAKEN WOULD HAVE TO CARRY THE CONSENT BOTH OF RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS.

THE WORLD BANK IS CURRENTLY THE ONLY PLACE WHERE THE U.N. COULD STEP INTO THE FIELD OF INTERNATIONAL CREDIT. FUNDS COMING FROM THIS SOURCE COULD GO ONLY TO GOVERNMENTS CONSIDERED A GOOD RISK FOR LOANS AND IT IS ON THIS POINT THAT THE UNITED STATES HOPES BOLSTER GREECE.

THE UNITED STATES IS RESPONSIBLE FOR PUTTING UP 47 PERCENT OF THE BANK'S CAPITAL, BUT HERE OF COURSE THE MONEY WOULD BE IN THE FORM OF A LOAN AND NOT A GRANT AS ACHESON SUGGESTS OUR DIRECT AID TO ATHENS SHOULD BE. RUSSIA IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE BANK.

MEANWHILE, SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE HAS BEEN KEEPING MUM ON THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL AND ITS DRASTIC EFFECT ON THE U.N. HE IS SCHEDULED TO DELIVER A MAJOR SPEECH AT THE OPENING OF THE 10-NATION TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY AND MAY TOUCH ON THE SITUATION THEN.

WILL COME UP FOR FULL-SCALE AIRING IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL WITHIN A FEW WEEKS WITH RECEIPTS OF THE REPORT FROM AN 11-NATION SECURITY COUNCIL INVESTIGATING COMMISSION WHICH HAS BEEN TOURING THE NORTHERN GREEK BORDERS.

RECENT WORD FROM THE COMMISSION WAS THAT IT HOPED TO RETIRE TO GENEVA EARLY NEXT MONTH TO WRITE A REPORT. THE BODY WAS SET UP AFTER THE GREEK GOVERNMENT CHARGED THAT ALBANIA, YUGOSLAVIA AND BULGARIA WERE FOMENTING BORDER UNREST AND SUPPLYING GUERRILLAS FIGHTING

HADDOCK MADE PUBLIC A LETTER TO THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE SAYING THAT "BEFORE ONE CENT OF AMERICAN AID IS AUTHORIZED THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE THE RIGHT TO FULL DISCLOSURE OF ALL THE FACTS."

THE COMMITTEE IS CONSIDERING PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST FOR $400,000,000 FOR GREECE AND TURKEY.

"THE PURPOSE OF THESE SUBSEQUENT TRANSFERS IS TO EVADE THE PAYMENT OF TAXES TO THE GREEK GOVERNMENT, AND TO DEPRESS SAFETY AT SEA AND MARITIME LABOR STANDARDS. THE EVENTUAL EFFECT IS A CHAOTIC SHIPPING INDUSTRY WITH DISASTROUS EFFECTS ON THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE.

(ADVANCE) CHICAGO, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH COUNCIL'S COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY ASSERTED TODAY THAT ANY INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC AGREEMENT WOULD "NOT FOREVER BANISH THE POSSIBILITY" OF ATOMIC WARFARE AND RELEASED DETAILS OF A STUDY FOR REDUCING THE VULNERABILITY OF THE UNITED STATES TO ANY SUCH ATTACK.

THE STUDY COVERED TWO PHASES--STEPS WHICH COULD BE TAKEN IN THE EVENT AN INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT IS REACHED BANNING THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC WEAPONS AND POSSIBLE PROTECTIVE STEPS IF ATOMIC ARMAMENTS ARE UNLIMITED BY AGREEMENT IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

A CONDENSATION OF THE STUDY, PREPARED BY ANSLEY COALE, PRINCETON, N.J., COMMITTEE SECRETARY, APPEARED IN THE BULLETIN OF THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS, WHICH IS PUBLISHED BY MANY OF THE SCIENTISTS WHO PIONEERED IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE ATOMIC BOMB.

THE REPORT CONTENDED THAT MEASURES FOR REDUCING THE VULNERABILITY OF TARGETS OF GREAT STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE, SUCH AS THE NATIONAL CAPITAL AND THE NATION'S MILITARY POTENTIAL, "WOULD THUS BE A USEFUL ADJUNCT TO (ANY) AGREEMENT ITSELF, IN REDUCING THE PROBABILITY TO ATOMIC AGGRESSION."

IT ADDED THAT VULNERABILITY REDUCTION SHOULD BE LIMITED TO "MEASURES WHICH COULD BE FREELY RECOMMENDED TO ALL SUBSCRIBING POWERS."

IN GENERAL, THE REPORT CITED POSSIBLE STEPS FOR PROTECTING ACTIVE COMBAT FORCES AND THEIR EQUIPMENT, FOR PRESERVING "THE CAPACITY OF THE NATION FOR UNIFIED ACTION" AND FOR INSURING THE PRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF WAR MATERIALS.

THE REPORT PREFACED THE POSSIBLE STEPS WITH THESE OBSERVATIONS:

"THE PRIOR EXISTENCE OF AN EFFECTIVE AGREEMENT WOULD NOT PREVENT THE USE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS IN WARFARE. RATHER, THE AGREEMENT WOULD ELIMINATE THE POSSIBILITY OF LARGE-SCALE ATTACK AND COUNTER-ATTACK IN THE OPENING DAYS OF THE WAR.

"THERE WOULD THUS BE TWO PHASES IN A POST-AGREEMENT WAR; A FIRST PERIOD OF UNCERTAIN DURATION DURING WHICH ATOMIC BOMBS WOULD BE UNAVAILABLE FOR LARGE-SCALE USE, AND A SECOND WHEN ATOMIC WEAPONS MIGHT BE EMPLOYED ON A LARGE AND PERHAPS EVER-RISING SCALE."

IF NO TREATY LIMITATION IS PLACED ON ATOMIC ARMAMENT, THE STUDY SAID, "ANY WAR FOLLOWING THE MULTILATERAL ACCUMULATION OF THOUSANDS OF ATOMIC BOMBS WOULD QUITE POSSIBLY OPEN WITH RECIPROCAL ATTACKS OF TERRIBLE MAGNITUDE. X X X REDUCTION OF VULNERABILITY MUST HAVE BEEN COMPLETED AT THE TIME WAR STARTS, AND PROTECTION MUST HAVE BEEN PROVIDED AGAINST A VERY LARGE-SCALE ATTACK. X X X

"IN VIEW OF THE PROBABLE DECISIVE MAGNITUDE OF THE EARLY ATTACKS, THE PRIMARY METHOD OF PROTECTION FOR THE PRODUCTION OF MILITARY MATERIAL WOULD BE TO COMPLETE THAT PRODUCTION IN ADVANCE OF THE WAR X X X"

MARSHALL ASKS FOR PROVISIONAL GERMAN REGIME

Seeks Speedy Action as First Step Toward Federalizing Reich. (N)

BRITAIN BACKS PLAN

Bevin Warns Russia Against Any Move to Set Up a 'One Party' System.

W. GALLAGHER

MOSCOW, March 21—(AP) Secretary of State Marshall asked the Council of Foreign Ministers today to authorize the Germans to establish immediately a provisional government as the first step toward creating a federalized Germany.

Marshall's request was included in a proposed three-point plan or procedure for setting up a German government which he said should be started "at once so there will be properly constituted German authorities" to carry out the terms of the peace settlement being drafted here.

Britain Warns Russia

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin earlier had submitted a similar proposal but in much greater detail, and warned Russia that Britain would not stand for any "one party" system in Germany.

Although not mentioning Communism by name, Bevin declared that the British "do not believe Germany should merely change from the Nazi party to another party, nor Nazi ideology to some other ideology."

The inference was clear, since the Russians in the eastern zone of Germany insisted on, and created, a one party system called the Social Unity party by a forced merger of the Communists and Socialists.

Bevin's stand took special significance in view of French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault's disclosure that Prime Minister Stalin in a recent interview had criticized the French stand for a federalized and decentralized Germany and urged a strong central administration.

The British foreign secretary said that his country felt that the creation of a one party system in Germany along with a decentralized government which any one party could seize was incomparable with British security.

One-Party System Hit

Bevin mentioned the evils of a one party system several times in proposing a federal government with strong state powers for Germany, modeled along the general lines of U. S. governmental functions.

Bevin proposed that the ultimate German central government should be composed of a president and two chambers, one representing the nation as a whole and the other separate states. The chamber representing the nation would be popularly elected. The chamber representing the states would be elected on the basis of equal representation from each state.

The British plan provides also for the establishment of a supreme court to safeguard the constitution.

Earlier the council agreed to a proposal by Marshall to invite here immediately representatives of the Austrian government to be available for consultation with the ministers and their deputies on the peace treaty for Austria.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov said he had already assured Austrian Foreign Minister Karl Gruber at Vienna that a visa would be issued for the representatives who are to be assigned to come to Moscow.

Reds Offer Plan Today

Just how far the British and American ideas will go in agreeing with Soviet and French ideas for a German government was not clear at once, since Molotov and Bidault will introduce their plans tomorrow. However, the French position was reported to go more toward federalization than the American or British plans.

The Russians have been talking about a tightly centralized German government.

Bevin, Marshall Propose Federal Rule In Reich (D)

Moscow, March 21 (AP)—United States Secretary of State Marshall called on the Council of Foreign Ministers today to set plans for the creation of a German government in motion at once and both he and Britain's Foreign Secretary, Ernest Bevin, presented programs for the organization of a federalized German nation.

The council, in a brief session, agreed to invite representatives of the Austrian Government here immediately for discussion of the Austrian peace treaty.

V. M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, said he had already assured Foreign Minister Karl Gruber, of Austria, that visas would be issued for the Austrians assigned to come to Moscow.

The action on Austria came after Marshall had urged the Council to break the Austrian treaty impasse on what constitutes German assets in that country and had expressed hope that the treaty would be completed in the Moscow meeting.

Bevin Has 6-Step Plan

He said that it was for this purpose—completing the treaty—that the Austrian Government representatives should be called into consultation.

Bevin laid before the Council a six-step plan for the creation of a federalized government structure intended to make Germany a self-governing, democratic state.

How far the British and American ideas will go in agreeing with Soviet and French ideas for Germany was not at once clear. Molotov and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault will introduce their plans tomorrow. The Russians have been talking about a tightly centralized German Government.

Marshall laid down a three-point plan of procedure for setting up a German government.

British Reparations

Bevin revealed at one point that the United Kingdom had received reparations of more than $91,960,000 from Germany since the end of the war.

These reparations, according to Bevin, were divided as follows:

1. From industrial capital equipment, 4,400,000 reichsmarks at the 1938 (40-cent) value.
2. From shipping, 350,000 tons of vessels valued at $25,400,000.
3. From German external assets seized in the United Kingdom under the January (1946) agreement at Paris, from $60,000,000 to $80,000,000.

185.

Charter Of German Origin

Marshall laid down a three-point plan of procedure for setting up a German government.

First, he said, there should be "establishment of a provisional German government composed of the heads of the governments of the now existing states and Länder, including Berlin, and clothed with necessary powers to create and operate central administrative agencies."

To this end, he said, the Länder, or state governments, should be completed "throughout Germany at an early date."

Second, Marshall called for "a drafting and acceptance of a constitution which shall be German in origin and which shall be consistent with democratic principles and the decentralization of government authority." All powers not assigned the central government would remain in the state governments.

Will Submit Proposal

Third, Marshall said there should be the assumption of the government authority by the central government created by the constitution and by the state authorities recognized by the constitution.

"I will submit a proposal embodying these ideas," he said. "I feel that the process outlined above should be gotten under way at once, so that there will be properly constituted German authorities which can carry out the terms of the peace settlement on which we are now working."

In introducing his three-point program, Marshall said that "the time has now come to authorize the Germans to establish a provisional government to deal with matters of nation-wide concern which the states cannot adequately handle."

Hits Hitler-Type System

He said that "no German government can function unless the basic essentials on which German economic unity depends are agreed upon and implemented by all four powers and unless effective guarantees exist for the safeguards of the fundamental freedoms in all parts of Germany."

Bevin, in introducing his proposal for a German government, warned that the Council of Foreign Ministers does not want to see the creation of a system which can be dominated by one party or authority—the kind of thing, he said, that did so much to help Hitler to the top.

He declared that if the Council of Foreign Ministers could agree on principles of government, economic arrangements and the American-sponsored four-power German disarmament treaty, then they should be able to hold Germany in check until satisfied that it had become a democratic and peaceful nation.

The subject of Austria came up at the beginning of the meeting when Gen. Mark W. Clark reported for the Council of Foreign Ministers' deputies on the progress they had made toward drafting an Austrian treaty. The Ministers agreed that the deputies should turn in a complete report on their work by March 29.

Marshall on Austria.

Marshall then made this brief statement on Austria:

"It is the view of the United States delegation that if it is the intention of the Council, and we hope it is, to make every effort to complete an Austrian treaty here, we should ask the Austrian representative to come here for consultations without delay.

"So far as the United States is concerned we do not regard Austria as an enemy country. We should not put the treaty in final form before we give Austria an adequate opportunity to present her views on the proposed clauses of the treaty.

"I hope that my colleagues will agree that Austria be invited at once to send representatives to Moscow to be available for consultation with the Council and the deputies on the Austrian treaty."

Marshall's proposal was accepted instantly. 185.

Britain's views on the government structure for Germany were set forth in a 600-word paper. It called for creation of a two-house legislature along the lines of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, a president without executive powers and strong State rights.

Informants said that the British plan envisioned a lower legislative chamber elected according to population and an upper chamber elected on the basis of a fixed number of representatives from each of the leander (States).

This central organization for Germany would have power over foreign policy and such external matters as the export-import program, while the states would retain most of the executive rights.

Statements by Marshall and Bevin

MOSCOW, March 21 (AP)—The text of the statement on a provisional German government by United States Secretary of State Marshall before the Foreign Ministers Conference today:

As the result of the defeat of the German armed forces, the German Government and administrative machinery were completely destroyed. The totalitarian system of Hitler disappeared, but there still remained more than 65,000,000 Germans within occupied Germany. The victorious Allied powers were forced to take over the responsibilities of the shattered German state. But this represented only a temporary solution.

The Control Council is not, nor can it ever be, a substitute for a German government. Nor did the United States intend to deny to the German people the right to manage their own affairs as soon as they were able to do so in a democratic, peaceful way with genuine respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms.

Under the Potsdam protocol the Allies undertook to decentralize the structure of the German state and to develop local responsibility. Accordingly, the United States within its zone has sought to give vitality to local and municipal governments and to endow the appropriate Laender [states] authorities with a larger measure of autonomy in accordance with a constitution ratified by the people. Other occupation authorities, we understand, have taken somewhat similar action.

The time has now come to authorize the Germans to establish a provisional government to deal with matters of nation-wide concern which the states cannot adequately handle. No German government can function unless the basic essentials on which German economic unity depends are agreed upon and implemented by all four powers and unless effective guarantees exist for the safeguarding of fundamental freedoms in all parts of Germany. That is the indispensable basis without which no German government, be it provisional or permanent, can be constituted.

Offers Three-Point Program

The process of building a German government should be accomplished, in our opinion, in the following three stages:

(1) The establishment of a provisional German government composed of the heads of governments of the now existing states and Laender, including Berlin, and clothed with the necessary powers to create and operate central administrative agencies. In order that the provisional government may be truly representative, the establishment of Laender constitutions and elected Laender governments should be completed throughout Germany at an early date.

(2) The drafting and acceptance of a constitution which shall be German in origin, and which shall be consistent with democratic principles and the decentralization of government authority. By decentralization we mean that the central government shall be one of limited and carefully defined powers in matters where nation-wide action is required. All residual powers shall be retained by the Laender. It should, of course, be understood that the constitution will be subject to provisions of the peace settlement.

(3) The assumption of governmental authority by the central government created by the constitution and by the Laender authorities recognized by the constitution.

I will submit a proposal embodying these ideas. I feel that the process outlined above should be gotten under way at once, so there will be properly constituted German authorities which can carry out the terms of the peace settlement on which we are now working.

Statement by Bevin

The text of British Foreign Secretary Bevin's statement in support of a federalized Germany:

In pursuance of the policy of decentralizing the political structure and developing the local responsibility in Germany, as laid down in Paragraph 9 of the Potsdam principles, there should eventually be established in Germany a constitution based on the rule of law and providing for the division of powers between the Laender and the central government.

The division of powers should be on the following principles:

(A) All powers should be vested in the Laender except those expressly delegated to the central government, as set out in (B) below and subject to certain reservations contained in (C) below. The Laender should as far as possible be charged with the execution within their territories of legislation enacted by the central government.

(B) The central government should have legislative and executive responsibility in subjects essential to secure:

(1) Political unity, especially in nationality, naturalization, immigration, emigration and extradition, foreign affairs and the implementation of treaties in as far as these deal with matters which are within the competence of the central government;

(2) The necessary legal unity, especially the fundamental principles of criminal, civil and commercial law; copyrights, patents and trademarks, negotiable instruments, bills of lading and other documents of title to goods;

(3) The necessary economic unity, especially of customs and foreign trade, import and export control, maintenance of German nationally important communications by road, rail, water, posts and telegraphs; weights and measures.

Outlines Government Principles

(4) The necessary financial unity, especially the issue of currency coinage, certain powers for the coordination of banking and the national public debt; certain powers of taxation to be agreed; foreign exchange control.

(C) There are certain powers in the economic field which must, for the time being, be exercised centrally for the whole of Germany under the supervision of the Allied controlling authority. As soon as the economic situation permits, the Control Council, after consultation with a German advisory body, should decide by what German bodies those powers will be exercised if they still must be exercised at all.

The following principles should govern the ultimate form of the central German government:

There should be a president and two chambers, one representing the nation as a whole and the other the separate Laender. The rights and duties of the president should be limited to those exercised by the constitutional head of the state without independent executive authority. The chamber representing the nation as a whole should be popularly elected and should be responsible for initiating central legislation and passing it. The chamber representing the Laender should be elected on the basis of equal representation for each of the Laender. Its main concern will be to insure that legislation takes fully into consideration the interests of the Laender.

It shall have the power of absolute veto on constitutional matters and suspensory veto on other legislation. A supreme court shall be established to safeguard the constitution.

Would Assure Human Rights

We intend to establish the rule of law and democratic development in Germany. The following rights must, under this system, be freely and immediately exercised by all Germans throughout Germany, subject only to such restriction as may be decided by agreement within the Control Council:

Freedom of speech, freedom of press and radio, freedom of assembly, freedom of movement and communication, freedom in religious affairs, freedom of association for lawful purposes, freedom of the judiciary, freedom from arbitrary arrest and imprisonment.

The constitutions of the Laender (and as necessary, the constitution of the central government) should be framed so as to safeguard these rights.

It is necessary for the constitutional democracy to be established in stages.

Firstly, central administrations would be established to give effect to the principles contained in the Potsdam agreement and to any decisions which may be taken at the present conference.

Secondly, steps should be taken to frame a constitution for Germany, with the preparation of which the German people should be associated.

Thirdly, to effect this, steps would be taken for (a) framing and introduction of the provisional constitution, which should be approved by the Control Council; (b) the holding of elections under this provisional government.

Fourthly, the provisional constitution would be given a trial for a reasonable period, at the end of which it would be subject to amendment.

Fifthly, the final constitution would be drawn up and ratified by the German people.

Sixthly, fresh elections would be held and a new government formed which would work under the constitution as finally settled.

The Control Council should reserve to themselves the following subjects:

(a) Demilitarization and disarmament, (b) denazification, (c) cartelization, (d) security, (e) reparations, (f) restitution, (g) prisoners of war and displaced persons, (h) war criminals, (i) immunities and requirements of occupying forces and of the control authority, (j) foreign relations, (k) foreign exchange receipts.

Soviet Magazine Attacks Truman

Moscow, March 21 (AP)—The Soviet foreign policy magazine New Times said today President Truman had laid down an "open declaration of the policy of power in the field of international relationships."

The magazine's principal editorial, the sharpest and most direct comment thus far in Moscow on the President's program of aid to Greece and Turkey, was read with interest by delegates to the four-power Foreign Ministers Conference.

"This course by itself is nothing new," the editorial said. "After the end of the war and the death of President Roosevelt, this policy more clearly took the upper hand in American foreign policy. What is actually new is the fact that the policy of expansion and power were for the first time openly proclaimed with full voice from an official tribune.

"Even a person such as Eleanor Roosevelt, who is far removed from any suspicion of radicalism, expresses a legal perplexity over the fact that if actually 85 per cent of the Greeks are supporting the Greek Government, as asserted by President Truman, then why cannot the Greek Government hold itself in power without foreign aid?"

Marriages Of Russians And Foreigners Barred

Moscow, March 21 (AP)—The Soviet Government has banned any future marriages between Russian citizens and foreigners, it was declared today.

A tersely worded official announcement said the action had been taken through a decree of the Supreme Soviet (Russian Parliament). No reason was given.

During the war several scores of Soviet girls married foreigners, particularly Americans and Britons.

Most of these Russian wives have been granted Soviet exit visas, but some are still here while their husbands are abroad.

Russ-Foreign Marriage Ban

Moscow, March 21 (AP)—The Journal of the Supreme Soviet, the Parliament of Russia, published today a decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet forbidding marriages between citizens of the U.S.S.R. and foreigners.

The same announcement said authorization had been given to the sixteen republics of Soviet Russia to pass corresponding laws.

STEEL IN MOSCOW

Moscow, March 21 (A. P.).—Johannes Steel, former radio news commentator in the United States, has arrived in Moscow in the midst of the Foreign Ministers Conference, for which American correspondents were limited to thirty-six.

Steel said he "just happened" to be here on a European tour and was not reporting the conference. He said he made arrangements with the Russians in Paris last August to visit the Soviet Union. He arrived here on Wednesday and is staying at the National Hotel.

Michael J. McDermott, United Press officer at the conference, expressed surprise at Steel's presence. McDermott said Steel would be welcome at regular press briefings on the conference, although the commentator was not among the quota of accredited correspondents.

BRITISH CONTINUE GREEK AID 'UNTIL U.S. HELP ARRIVES'

MAR 1947

LONDON, March 21—(AP) Government informants declared today that Britain was helping the Greek government plan a spring offensive against guerrillas in the north and will continue limited military and economic aid until the arrival of anticipated American assistance.

In Athens authoritative sources said Britain already had notified the government that such help would be forthcoming.

The British informants said that the decision to extend aid to Greece was based on assurances received in London that the U. S. Congress was certain to approve the request of President Truman for $400,000,000 to aid both Greece and Turkey.

Plan "Interim" Aid

British assistance will continue beyond the previously announced deadline of March 31, "provided it is not of a substantial nature," a foreign office spokesman said.

The spokesman recalled the statement of Minister of State Hector McNeil earlier this week to the House of Commons that Britain could not accept further "substantial" obligations in Greece.

Government informants said the "interim" aid would include helping to finance and equip the Greek army. They said it was understood that British officers were aiding Greek armed forces plan their next move against the lefist guerrillas in the north but emphasized there was no intention to use British troops.

McNeil told the parliament that he "did not know" whether British officers were participating in preparations to subdue the guerrillas.

Britain Furnishes Arms

The informants said the Greek government still was receiving large supplies of military equipment from Britain, including Spitfire aircraft, landing craft used during the war by British Commandos and even tanks.

Alexander A. Pallis, spokesman for the Greek embassy in London, said deliveries have been completed on 90 Spitfires and added "they certainly will be used" in the spring offensive against the guerrillas.

Interim Aid Promised

London, March 21 (AP)—Informed Government sources said today that Britain would continue some economic and military assistance to Greece until aid from the United States became effective.

Authoritative sources in Athens said they had been advised that Britain would undertake to cover the expenses and equipment of the Greek Army until the aid proposed by President Truman had been acted upon by Congress.

The British previously had notified the Greek and American governments that Britain would be unable to continue her commitments to Greece after March 31.

Informants added that Britain's aid would be "economic and financial" to cover expenses of the Greek Army and that British officers were helping the Greek Government plan its spring offensive against guerrillas.

The Greeks still are receiving large supplies of military equipment from Britain, including Spitfire aircraft, landing craft and tanks. Delivery of 90 Spitfires has been almost completed.

London To Develop South Bank Of Thames

London, March 21 (AP)—War-scarred London is going to have her face lifted.

The Town Planning Committee of the London County Council disclosed today a multi-million dollar plan for developing the south bank of the Thames River from London Bridge to Westminster Bridge, an area embracing a heavily-bombed working class district.

National Government buildings, a cultural center and a National theater will be constructed. It has not been decided when the work will start.

Britain Remains Silent On Chile's Looting Hint

London, March 21 (AP)—The Foreign Office declined comment tonight on a Chilean report implying that Britons, not Chileans, looted American installations on British-claimed Stonington Island, in the Antarctic.

Stonington is in the Falkland Island group to which Britain, Chile and Argentina have laid claim.

A spokesman said he had no information beyond an earlier statement that Britain believed crews of Chilean vessels raided the United States base and radio transmitter established on the island in 1941.

In Santiago, however, the Chilean Defense Ministry denied the London report and issued a message from the commander of the Chilean Antarctic expedition saying that the commander was "witness to use by Englishmen in Margarita Bay of cigarettes and other articles from the American base."

Hope Abandoned For 5 Missing In Plane Crash

London, March 21 (AP)—Royal Air Force authorities said tonight they had abandoned hope of finding any more survivors of an RAF Lancaster plane which crashed into the sea 50 miles off the Irish coast last night with nine crewmen aboard.

Four of the nine were picked up today by navy vessels, but two later died of injuries.

The plane was one of six on naval co-operation exercises operating from a base in Northern Ireland.

The Air Ministry said the wrecked plane—based in Northern Ireland—was one of six four-engined Lancasters engaged in the maneuvers. Full details of the crash, the announcement said, were not available.

Ulster To Resist Dublin 'Aggression'

Enniskillen, Northern Ireland, March 21 (AP)—Sir Basil Brooke, Ulster Premier, said today Northern Ireland would resist what he called "a policy of aggression emanating from Dublin."

Replying to a St. Patrick's Day broadcast to the United States by Premier Eamon de Valera of Eire, who asked Irish-Americans to "lend support" in uniting Ulster and Eire, Sir Basil declared:

"Our unalterable resolve is to remain under the British crown, which Eire has banished from its constitution, and the British flag, which Eire scorns."

Reds Protest, Quit Probe Studying Fall Of France

Paris, March 21 (AP)—Communist members of a parliamentary committee investigating events leading to the fall of France walked out today in protest against a new Assembly law trimming their strength within the committee.

Communist Deputy Alfred Malleret, who was known in the underground resistance as "General Joinville," led the walkout when the committee majority demanded that his election as chairman be invalidated in accordance with the measure adopted by the Assembly yesterday.

The majority then set new elections for tomorrow.

The law, adopted over Communist opposition, bars nonparliamentary members from committee votes and elections. The committee, of some 60 members, includes 20 representing various resistance groups, most of them Communist. The rest of the group was selected among Assembly deputies.

Private Gets 10 Years For Killing French Girl

Paris, March 21 (AP)—A United States Army court-martial today convicted Pfc. Truman A. Keen, 20, of Durant, Miss., of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced him to ten years in prison and a dishonorable discharge for the fatal shooting of a French girl at Strasbourg February 8.

Witnesses testified that Keen fired at the girl, Louise Beck, with a pistol after she had chatted with Algerian soldiers at a café.

China to France Air Line.

Paris, March 21 (A. P.).—The French Foreign Ministry announced arrangements had been completed with the Chinese Government for weekly Air-France air service from Paris to Shanghai via Saigon. The service will begin March 30.

RUSSIA ACCUSED OF VIOLATING PACT ON ZONE TRADE

L. HEIZERLING

BERLIN, March 21—(AP) The Americans and British suspended indefinitely today iron and steel shipments into the Soviet zone of Germany on the grounds the Russians had failed to live up to a $21,000,000 trade agreement with the merged British-American zone.

In a formal letter to the German economics executive committee for administration at Minden, the American and British authorities ordered an embargo on export of pig iron and steel and standard iron and steel products to the Soviet zone.

Standard products include the bulk of shipments such as rails, slabs and H-bars. Non-standard items unaffected would include those prepared to particular specifications for use in the Soviet zone.

Soviet Zone Delinquent

The Soviet zone had become progressively delinquent in its promised deliveries during January and February, although the U. S. and British zones had shipped to the Russian zone 95 per cent of their agreed commitments of steel, a joint U. S.-British announcement said.

Specifically the Russians did not make good on promised monthly deliveries of 10,700 tons of wheat and rye, 2,700 tons of oats, 50,000 tons of brown coal briquettes, 50,000 cubic meters of coal mine pit props, 500 tons of chemical pulp, 500 tons of newsprint, 27 tons of cording for tires, 200 tons of technical paper and 30 tons of buna (synthetic) rubber, the announcement said.

An international trade agreement between the British and Soviet military governments was signed on Dec. 23, 1946, and provided for exchange of specific quantities of iron and steel products, standard and non-standard, from the British zone for foodstuffs and other material from the Soviet zone.

Pact Signed

When the economic interests of the British and American zones were merged on Jan. 1 this agreement was incorporated in the trade program of the German economics executive committee, and a new pact was signed with the Russians.

Both sides contracted to deliver specific tonnages of specified products for the first quarter of the year, with specific tonnages promised for each of the three months. The agreement was to be modified as conditions warranted at the beginning of each subsequent quarter.

At the time of the signing of the agreement at Minden last Jan. 19 representatives of all three zones joined in expressing hopes that the agreement might be a forerunner to the abolition of interzonal trade barriers. It was pointed out, however, that the agreement could not be interpreted as a preliminary move to Russia's joining in an economic merger of all three zones.

The British-American zone also has negotiated a trade agreement with the French zone for exchange of $6,600,000 in goods and materials for the first quarter of 1947.

U.S., Britain Reduce Steel Shipments To Red Zone

Berlin, March 21 (AP)—A joint British-American announcement said today that British and American authorities had sharply reduced shipments of German iron and steel to the Soviet zone and were considering a total embargo because the Russian zone has failed to fulfill terms of a trade agreement.

The joint statement said the Soviet zone was lagging far behind its commitments under the agreement with the combined American-British zone to deliver foodstuffs and various other materials in exchange for steel and iron.

On the other hand, the statement said, deliveries of iron and steel up to the end of February had fulfilled 95 per cent of the British-American commitment.

"This failure (of the Russians) has placed the United States-British zone in an extremely difficult position," the statement asserted.

Embargo Report Unconfirmed

A report from Minden, headquarters of the British-American Economic Control Group for the two western zones, said an embargo on all shipments of pig iron, steel and standard iron and steel products to the Russian zone had been ordered effective today.

But this report could not be confirmed officially until further conferences were held between British and American officials.

The Minden report said the embargo on all standard products would cover the bulk of shipments such as rails, slabs and H-bars.

Munich, March 21 (AP)—Plans for admission of so-called "democratic" parties in Germany's four occupation zones into a self-styled Germany-wide "democratic" party were announced today after a conference of party representatives in Rothenburg, Bavaria.

The regional parties represented were right-wing groups opposing socialism and favoring free enterprise and, in most cases, ranking third or fourth in strength in their respective districts.

Though the Allied Military Government has not yet authorized political parties organized on a nation-wide basis, the conference planned a co-ordinating committee for liaison among all the factions pending ultimate nationalization if possible.

Powers Split On Issue

Berlin, March 21 (AP)—The Big Four Allied Control Council for Germany was reported split today over the issue of nation-wide operation of German political parties.

Lieut. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig, the French military governor, was said to have protested yesterday a recent call of the Christian Democratic Union for a conference of German political parties to set up a "committee for national representation."

He declared, said informants, that the action was illegal and was improper because the Foreign Ministers in Moscow had not yet disposed of the question of a central government for Germany.

Call Gets U.S. Okay

The Soviet Union was understood to have backed him up. But the United States and Britain, informants said, disagreed, and Maj. Gen. Frank A. Keating, American Deputy Military Governor, even indorsed the party's call and said German parties should be organized nationally.

The Control Council at the same time, however, solidly against the German black market, signed a severe law setting up penalties ranging up to a $500,000 fine or life imprisonment for theft and unlawful use of rationed food, other consumer goods and ration cards. The text of the law is to be made public March 25.

Party Merger Plans Made In Germany

Clarke Adviser in Germany

BERLIN, March 21 (AP)—Bertrand Clarke of Flushing, Queens, former vice president of the United States Trust Company of Kansas City, Mo., and later president of the Industrial Rayon Corporation, has been appointed industrial adviser for the Joint Export-Import Agency of the United States and British zones of Germany, it was announced today.

SS GENERAL WILL DIE FOR KILLING U.S. FLIERS

DACHAU, Germany, March 21 (AP)—Jurgen Stroop, former SS general, and twelve other Germans were sentenced by a United States Military Government Court today to be hanged on charges of having murdered captured United States fliers.

Stroop smiled at his wife as he heard the judgment. Despite the death sentence, he will be extradited to Poland to face trial on a charge of having led Warsaw ghetto massacres that cost 50,000 lives.

Seven other defendants were sentenced to prison terms ranging from fifteen to three years. One defendant, Wilhelm Goehrendt, was acquitted.

BADEN BADEN, Germany, March 21 (AP)—Fifteen Germans convicted by a French military court of concentration camp atrocities were executed today by a French firing squad. The execution of four others was delayed, pending new proceedings.

Swiss Gets 4 Years For Selling War Data

Lausanne, Switzerland, March 21 (AP)—A Swiss citizen accused of espionage for the United States, France and Germany is under sentence of four years in prison.

Alter Bosshard, 37, former communal president of Zurich, was sentenced in Criminal Court yesterday upon conviction of providing forbidden political and military information service in the war, to the detriment of foreign countries and Switzerland.

Evidence indicated Bosshard had received 200,000 Swiss francs (about $47,000) from Germany and 30,000 francs (about $7,000) from American representatives.

France, Italy Sign Labor Agreement

Rome, March 21 (AP)—France and Italy signed today a new labor agreement which will admit 200,000 Italian industrial and agricultural workers to France during 1947.

Labor Minister Ambroise Croizat signed for France in a ceremony at the Italian Foreign Ministry. Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza signed for Italy.

The treaty provides for the establishment of recruiting centers in Italy and France. Recruiting will be at the rate of about 17,000 monthly.

Workers will be allowed to transfer 20 per cent of their salaries to Italy if they are accompanied by families and 40 per cent if their families are in Italy or if they are bachelors.

Italian Frontier Guards Seize 130 From Austria

Rome, March 21 (AP)—Italian frontier guards have seized 130 Jews who attempted to cross the border from Austria into Italy at Passo di Resia, north of Bolzano, Ansa reported today.

The dispatch said the Jews, men and women, "are believed to have tried to get into Italy in order subsequently to go to Palestine."

Pope Receives Naval Officer

Vatican City, March 21 (A. P.).—Pope Pius XII received Capt. William F. Fitzgerald of New York city, chief-of-staff to the commander of United States naval forces in the Mediterranean, in a private audience today.

AIR GROUP, ARTILLERY KILL MANY

Foes Of Athens Strafed And Machine-Gunned; Band Of 100 Slain

Athens, March 21 (AP)—Press dispatches from Larisa said tonight that the Greek Army's 15th Division, supported by artillery and an air group, launched a large-scale offensive early Thursday on Mount Grammos, near the Albanian border, against Greek guerrilla forces.

Aircraft taking off from Larisa and Salonika airfields strafed and machine-gunned the guerrillas, inflicting heavy losses, the dispatches said.

Other reports said units of the 8th Division wiped out a band of more than 100 guerrillas at Hospsi on Mount Tzoumerka in Epirus, southeast of Mount Grammos and also within a few miles of Albanian territory.

Delegates Delay Drive

The offensive on Mount Grammos was to have started earlier, but was delayed by the presence of Russian and Polish delegates of the United Nations Balkan Investigation Commission in the region.

Greek military authorities earlier this week claimed that the presence of the Russian and Polish delegates, who remained in the area after other members of the commission returned to Salonika, was impeding Government military operations.

Before the offensive was launched, the commission was notified formally by Alexis Kyrou, Greek liaison officer.

Liaison Officers Booed

News dispatches printed in Athens said Balkan liaison officers who remained in Macedonia with the Polish and Russian delegates were booed and hissed by an angry crowd at Trikkala today and had to be taken to the town hall by police for safety.

The new dispatches said the crowd of about 5,000, mostly refugees fleeing from guerrillas, surrounded the building and pelted it with stones.

The Soviet delegate told local authorities that the Balkan liaison officers were under his protection in carrying out duties under order of the United Nations investigating commission and demanded complete protection by police. The liaison group is awaiting first opportunity to leave for Larisa.

32 Reported Dead At Prison

Thirty-two Communist convicts were killed in an attack on a prison at Ghythion in the southern Peloponnesus which was staged by neighboring villagers as reprisal for the murder of a rightist band chieftain, P. Katsareas, the Ministry of Public Order reported tonight.

The report was followed by a Government statement expressing "indignant disapproval" of the Ghythion slayings and declaring that severe punishment would be imposed on the attackers.

The Minister of Public Order, now touring eastern Macedonia, has been instructed to make a personal investigation and to go to Ghythion tomorrow.

The ministry announcement said the prison's 25 guards were overpowered by approximately 200 armed residents of near-by villages.

Observer Urged Temporarily For Greece

Salonika, Greece, March 21 (AP)—David Windle, representing Britain, proposed today that a subcommission remain in Salonika until the United Nations Balkan Inquiry Commission completes the writing of its report in Geneva.

The proposal, made at a private meeting of the commission, was supported by Mark Ethridge of the United States and was interpreted by some observers as a first step toward a recommendation by the commission for permanent border observers under auspices of the Security Council.

The commission will continue discussion of the proposal. One point is whether the subcommission could be created under the Security Council's resolution setting up the commission.

It was announced that two committees, one on facts and another on conclusions and recommendations, would be charged with writing the report in Geneva beginning April 7. Each committee would be composed of a representative from each delegation on the commission.

The commission's schedule calls for it to sit in Sofia, Bulgaria, March 24, and to leave there March 29 for meetings in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, from March 30 to April 2. Teams will make side trips to Spoplje and Bulkjes, in Yugoslavia, and along the Bulgarian boundary.

'Chetnik' Radio Attacks Tito

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 21 (AP)—Shortwave radio listeners have been astounded the past two days by a strong Serbian voice of opposition to Premier Marshal Tito's regime, calling "for king and country."

The illegal broadcasts apparently originate inside Yugoslavia, where all regular radio stations and newspapers are controlled by the Government.

Chetniks Held Responsible

From the nature of the broadcasts it is apparent the radio is operated by underground remnants of Gen. Draja Mihailovic's Chetniks. Mihailovic has been executed.

Promptly at 6.45 A.M. a brief musical phrase has announced the beginning of the broadcast on the shortwave 49-meter band, and a man's voice has said:

"This is radio Ravna Gora, of free mountain Yugoslavia — for king and country."

Ravna Gora is a large mountain in western Serbia where Mihailovic had his headquarters during the war and where he was captured by Tito's men.

Fight Summarized

The broadcast today gave a historical summary of the struggle between the Chetniks and Tito's Partisans in 1941 and 1942, then started giving news of the United Nations inquiry commission in Greece, but was drowned out by a heavy buzzing. Apparently this was mechanical interference.

It was the first voice of public opposition heard inside the country since the Communist-controlled regime came into power.

Abdullah to Join Naval Cruise

BAGHDAD, Iraq, March 21 (AP)—King Abdullah Ibn Ul-Hussein of Trans-Jordan has accepted a British invitation to make a fifteen-day voyage with units of the British Fleet in the Red Sea, starting April 6, the Trans-Jordan Minister to Baghdad said today.

BALKS BLAST AT U. S.

Budapest, March 21 (A. P.).—Smallholder party parliamentarians claimed today that Leftist attempts to force Prime Minister Ferenc Nagy to issue a statement assailing alleged United States "interference" in Hungarian affairs was blocked last night at an inter-party conclave.

The informants said pressure had been exerted by the Leftists ever since the United States sent its first note criticizing Russian motives in Hungary and asking for inter-allied investigation of an alleged plot to restore the regime of Admiral Nicholas Horthy.

Soviet representatives have turned down demands by both the United States and Britain for investigation in Hungary, claiming it would be "unwarranted interference" in Hungarian affairs.

Sweden Reassures U. S. On Import Restrictions

STOCKHOLM, March 21 (AP).—In carrying out its policy of import restrictions announced last Saturday, the Swedish government intends to operate in accordance with the Swedish-American trade agreement of 1935, thus guaranteeing "fair treatment" of American export interests, a government spokesman said.

The statement was made after disclosures in Washington that an American note to Sweden was expected, questioning the Swedish government about possible conflict between the new restrictions and the equal treatment promised to American exporters under the 1935 agreement.

Sweden issued the import ban mainly because of diminishing dollar reserves.

Malaya Rubber Exports For January Are Listed

SINGAPORE, March 21 (AP).—Malaya's rubber exports in January were 67,504 tons, of which 17,751 tons went to the United States and 19,640 tons to the United Kingdom.

January production in the Malayan Union was 52,570 tons, the third successive monthly total above 50,000. The post-war high was set last November with 54,175 tons, the registrars of statistics said.

Stocks in the country at the end of January totaled 161,348 tons, including 19,406 tons on estates, 113,275 tons held by dealers and 28,667 tons in ports awaiting shipment.

Production during the month had been augmented by 26,776 tons imported, chiefly from The Netherlands East Indies.

CHIANG REPORTED EXPECTING U.S. AID

Quoted As Saying He's Confident Of Financial Help

Nanking, March 21 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek was reported reliably to have told his party leaders today that he confidently expected financial aid from the United States and that it would be spent for national reconstruction and not to fight the Communists.

[Last December President Truman said a united, democratic China was of "utmost importance to world peace" and he hoped a half-billion dollar credit to China had not been endangered. None of this money ever has been passed on to China.

[This dispatch did not state Chiang's reasons for optimism, but his rising military fortunes and the sharpening United States attitude towards communism were apparent factors.]

Reference To Yenan's Fall

In an indirect reference to the capture Wednesday of Yenan, Chinese Communist capital, Chiang told his Kuomintang (Government party) Executive Committee that recent events showed the Communists could be beaten despite eight years of preparations for war against his Government.

The report on Chiang's 75-minute speech was relayed by a high Kuomintang official, who said the Generalissimo did not mention his future plans concerning the war.

This informant said Chiang stressed his Government's foreign policy, which he said was "perfectly correct" toward the Soviet Union.

This was in reply to Rightist party elements which had charged Wang Shih-chieh, Foreign Minister, with a "weak-kneed, impotent policy toward Russia."

Frank, Honest Criticism

"It is desirable to maintain friendly relations with other countries at all times," Chiang was quoted in dismissing the subject with a final remark that he wanted frank, honest criticism from party members "but not slanderous attacks."

Only news from the war fronts was a Government Central News Agency dispatch that the national flag was formally raised Thursday over Yenan and that the main Communist forces of Gen. Ho Lung had fled northeastward across the Yellow River into Shansi province.

The Communist radio, broadcasting from "North Shensi" province, conceded the loss of Yenan but said it was a planned evacuation.

The Communist broadcast alleged that Chiang had planned to take Yenan before the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference opened March 10 "to support the big stick policy of American imperialism and help (Secretary of State) Marshall tide over difficulties in Moscow," but that the defense had "foiled" this scheme.

Chiang Defends China's Russ Policies

Nanking, March 21 (AP)—A high Kuomintang (Government party) official said today that Chiang Kai-shek, answering charges that China's policy toward Russia was "weak-kneed," told the Kuomintang executive committee that it was "desirable to maintain friendly relations with other countries at all times."

The official gave this summary of the generalissimo's 75-minute address:

In reply to charges by Rightist Kuomintang members that Foreign Minister Wang Shih-chieh had adopted "a weak-kneed, impotent policy toward Russia," Chiang said the foreign policy China was pursuing toward the Soviet Union was "perfectly correct."

Work Reviewed

Chiang reviewed the Government's work in the diplomatic, economic, military and political fields, pointing out its merits and its failings.

China's economy, he said, was no longer in danger of collapse. He was looking forward confidently, he said, to American financial aid.

Chiang assured the 300 party members that an American loan would be used for national reconstruction, and not in the war against Communists.

Can Win, He Says

He said the Communists had been preparing for war against the Government for eight years, but that recent events proved the Reds could be beaten. He apparently referred to Government capture of Yenan, Communist capital.

The Kuomintang, Chiang went on, "heartily welcomes other parties to join in reorganization of the Government. We are not inviting other parties as if we were hosts, but are inviting them on an equal basis to expedite fulfillment of our desire to return the Government to the people."

Push Beyond Yenan

In the fighting, the Government's Central News Agency reported that Nationalist troops pushing out from captured Yenan, advanced eight miles to the northeast—the direction fleeing Communists had taken.

Main forces of Red General Ho Lung, routed from the Communist capital Wednesday, were reported to have crossed the Yellow River into Shansi province. The agency said Communist leaders had fled to Wayaopao and Suitem, respectively 50 and 90 miles northeast of their fallen capital.

Airfield Repaired

Nationalist troops repaired the Yenan's only airfield. Central News said the Communists had dug seven deep ditches across the field to prevent Government planes from landing.

A dispatch in Hsin Sheng Pao, Peiping newspaper owned by Gen. Tu Li-ming, commander of Nationalist forces in Manchuria, said a number of paratroop units took part in the capture of Yenan.

Meanwhile, eight leaders of the Democratic Socialist party and five of the Young China party were en route to Nanking to confer with Chiang on reorganization of the Government, in which both minority groups have promised to participate.

To Submit Candidates

The two groups were expected to submit candidates for the State Council and later for the Executive Yuan, both of which are now exclusively Kuomintang organizations.

Communist participation was out of the question, and the Democratic League this week proclaimed itself an opposition party.

Yenan's Fall Laid To 'Big Stick' Policy

San Francisco, March 21 (AP)—The Chinese Communist radio declared today that "internationally, the attack on Yenan is to support the 'big stick' policy of American imperialism" and to help United States Secretary of State Marshall "tide over difficulties" at the Moscow conference.

The Red radio, broadcasting from north Shensi province following Government capture of the Red capital Wednesday, asserted that Chiang Kai-shek's aim had been to take Yenan before the Moscow conference opened.

In capturing Yenan, the radio added, the Government "only got one empty town and suffered heavy losses." Central organs of the Communist party were evacuated intact from the capital and will direct the war from northern Shensi province, the broadcast said.

Jap's Fear Of Russ Censored

Tokyo, March 21 (AP)—Premier Shigeru Yoshida's contention that the United States should not leave Japan after a peace treaty is signed, because of a Communist menace, has been censored from the Japanese press by United States Army authorities.

Brig. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby, head of the section embracing censorship, acknowledged that he had prohibited publication under regulations forbidding criticism by the Japanese of an allied power.

Yoshida, in an interview Wednesday, said that "we have a very dangerous enemy on our north" in arguing "you Americans have got to remain in Japan after the peace treaty if the United States is going to insure world peace." He added that "we are having our battles with the Communists, too."

Effort To Split Allies Seen

Publication or broadcast within Japan of the entire article was prohibited, but the censor passed another American interview with the Premier in which he said Japan was ready to shoulder the responsibilities of a formal peace.

Commenting on the interview, Willoughby said: "It looks as if Yoshida were exploiting an opportunity to be adverse against an ally (Russia). We have been protecting our allies, for better or worse, since they have been in Tokyo.

"While the occupation is in full swing it is composed of Allied interests. We impartially eliminate or modify those items . . . which might adversely affect the interests of the Allied powers."

U.S.-MANILA PACT SIGNED

MAR 1946

McNutt Leaves Philippines By Plane For U.S.

Manila, Saturday, March 22 (AP)—With a five-year military assistance pact signed, Ambassador Paul V. McNutt bade farewell to the Philippines today and left by plane with his party for the United States.

McNutt, retiring from the diplomatic service, had delayed his departure in order to sign yesterday the agreement by which the Philippines are integrated in United States plans for defending the Western Pacific.

President Manuel A. Roxas and other high Filipino and United States officials were at the airport to say good-by to McNutt, who was the last commissioner to the Philippines and the first Ambassador.

Of McNutt's departure Roxas said: "He has done much to help our country, and I regret to see him leave."

Roxas said the agreement was retroactive to July 4, 1946, and could be renewed or terminated five years from that date at the request of the Philippines.

While the agreement makes available to the Philippines arms, munitions and technical advice, American negotiators succeeded, despite Filipino protests, in retaining a phrase enabling the United States to retain title to all equipment.

$18,000,000 Authorized

The United States Congress last year authorized expenditure of $18,000,000 for supplies needed by the Philippine Army if these could not be supplied from American surpluses.

"Should our forces require supplies which the United States Army and Navy do not possess in sufficient quantity, the United States Army and Navy will make the necessary purchases for us," Roxas stated.

The President said many aspects of the military-assistance plan already were in operation under a 58-man mission headed by Maj. Gen. Albert M. Jones. A Philippine Government spokesman said concrete plans for the new defense establishment would be worked out at conferences starting next week.

To Maintain Security

In signing, Roxas stressed that the American aid would enable his Government to maintain both external and internal security. This led observers to believe that at some future time an all-out campaign would be started against the Hukbalahap guerrillas who long have plagued the Government in central Luzon.

Roxas also remarked that 83 ships would be turned over to the Philippines for expanding the present army offshore patrol into a small navy.

Pact Is Signed For Military Aid To Philippines

Roxas and McNutt Complete Agreement That Furthers Defense Plans in Pacific

MANILA, March 21 (AP).—A five-year military assistance agreement which makes American arms, munitions, technical advice and training available to the Philippine armed forces was signed today by President Manuel A. Roxas and American Ambassador Paul V. McNutt.

The pact, complementing the agreement providing for American bases in the Philippines which was signed a week ago, makes the new republic an integral part of American defense plans in the Western Pacific.

Mr. McNutt said the agreement "completes the framework of intimate co-operation between our two countries and establishes a pattern unprecedented in history." The pact, he said, binds America to undertake, "without exacting a single obligation on the part of the Philippine government, to aid and assist national defense forces of the Philippines." Its value to the United States will be in "the advancement of our completely identical ideals and purposes in international affairs," he added.

A government spokesman said President Roxas, as chairman of the Council of National Defense, would summon members to a meeting to discuss the ground work for the new defense establishment. Filipino officials and an American military mission headed by Major General Albert M. Jones are to hold conferences to coordinate the Philippine plan with the over-all Pacific pattern.

President Roxas said the military agreement, effective from July 4, 1946, could be terminated or renewed in 1951 at the request of the Philippines.

Many aspects of the agreement already are in operation, Mr. Roxas said, with a fifty-eight-man mission headed by General Jones at work and the Philippine Army using American equipment. He said the Philippines will be able to send students to American military schools, and that transfer of eighty-three ships to the republic will mean that the present offshore patrol of the Philippine Army can become a small navy.

The pact provides that the Philippines shall not accept the services of any government other than the American government "for duties of any nature connected with the Philippine armed forces, except by mutual agreement of the two governments."

Mr. Roxas commented: "For a land like ours, which is starting out on its career as a free, independent nation, this grant of both materiel and training of personnel from the United States armed forces is a boon without price."

The signing of the agreement was the last official act here by Mr. McNutt, who will leave tomorrow to return to the United States via Europe.

Jap Defense Chides War Department

Tokyo, March 21 (A. P.).—American defense attorneys complained today of a lack of co-operation by the United States War Department, which employed them to assure a fair trial for twenty-six Japanese wartime leaders before the International Military Tribunal.

The complaints involved the texts of Japanese Government telegrams to its Kwantung Army in Manchuria at the time of the Mukden incident in 1931. A Japanese attorney told the court he had found the texts in a Japanese translation of a prosecution document never introduced in evidence. The texts, he said, were not included in an English version furnished American defense attorneys.

Defense Attorney Alfred Brooks told the tribunal the originals, seized by occupation forces, had been sent to Washington. He said the defense had made every effort to obtain them from the War Department.

Many Japs Still Follow Oldtime Superstitions

Tokyo, March 21 (AP)—Thousands of Japanese still plot their lives according to superstitions and their days according to the ancient lunar calendar.

A survey conducted by the Education Ministry's scientific education department showed today that villagers, farmers and fishermen still pay close heed to such ancient customs as lucky days and lucky years. And a surprising number of urban residents also observe old folklore.

Forty-five per cent of those answering questionnaires distributed through 138 national schools said they still use the lunar calendar, based on moon cycles.

Many said they believe a woman born in the Year of the Horse will be unlucky and unable to obtain a husband. The horse is one of twelve animals in a Nipponese-style zodiac.

Dutch Defend Arrests

LONDON, March 21 (AP)—A Dutch Embassy spokesman said today the Netherlands Government, replying to British protests, had defended the Dutch "arrests" of British ships carrying cargoes to and from Indonesian ports.

"The Netherlands Government acted in accordance with international law and existing regulations governing Netherlands Indies waters," the spokesman quoted the note as having said.

Hector McNeil, British Minister of State, disclosed last week that Dutch vessels had halted eleven British ships at the three-mile limit of Indonesian territorial waters, escorted them to Dutch-controlled ports and examined their cargoes.

Seized Ship Crew's Return Sought

Batavia, Java, March 21 (AP)—Capt. Rudy Gray formally requested United States Consul General Walter Foote today to repatriate the officers and crew of the Liberty ship Martin Behrman to the United States as distressed seamen.

He indicated that he would refuse a Dutch offer to permit the United States crew to sail the empty ship away next week—as soon as her confiscated $3,000,000 cargo is unloaded.

Gray and James A. Ryan, representative of the charterers, the Isbrandtsen Company, reiterated their claim that the Behrman was seized by Dutch authorities on March 7 and has been their responsibility since. They contend the seizure was accomplished when civil police forcibly prevented crewmen from carrying out Gray's order to lift the gangplank. The captain immediately walked off the ship and has not returned.

Not Seized, Dutch Contend

The Dutch maintain, on the other hand, that the ship was not seized, but merely detained pending unloading of a cargo which the Dutch say the Behrman had no right to carry.

Earlier, Gray announced that his 38-man crew had cabled the National Maritime Union, asking that all Dutch shipping to the United States be blacklisted in retaliation for the treatment accorded the Behrman and her crew in The Netherlands East Indies.

He said the crew voted unanimously to send the cable at a union meeting aboard ship.

The Netherlands East Indies Government said last night that the Behrman would be permitted to sail next week, as soon as the unloading of the cargo of rubber, cinchona (quinine bark) and sisal is completed.

Indonesian Republic's Claim

The cargo was loaded at Cheribon, a port controlled by the Indonesian Republic, and the Dutch maintained that the cargo comprised "looted" property from Dutch estates in the hands of the republic. For that reason the Dutch ordered the vessel to Batavia and confiscated the cargo.

A highly placed Dutch source said the Dutch would ship equivalent amounts of rubber, cinchona and sisal to the United States, so it would not lose the critical materials as a result of the seizure. He said no legal charges would be pressed against Gray or his crew.

Ryan said, however, that the Isbrandtsen Company still considers the Behrman was seized and that even if Gray reassumes command and decides to sail before the Indies Government decides to pay damages the company will press a claim for $10,000,000 against the Government.

Holland To Let American Ship Sail With Duplicate Of Cargo

Washington, March 21 (AP)—The Netherlands Government has agreed to let the American merchant ship Martin Behrman sail from Batavia with a duplicate of the cargo she previously was forced to unload, the State Department said tonight.

The settlement also provides "fair compensation" to the Isbrandtsen Company, the ship's operators, and reimbursement for the delay.

$10,000,000 Claim Expected

The Martin Behrman's cargo of sugar and other commodities from Indonesian-held territory in Java was seized by Netherlands authorities. The ship was taken under naval escort from Cheribon, Java, to Batavia and the cargo unloaded there.

The cargo included rubber, cinchona (from which quinine is derived) and sisal valued at $3,000,000. The Dutch contended that the cargo comprised property "looted" from Dutch estates now in the hands of the Indonesian republic.

A dispatch from Batavia said the company would claim $10,000,000 from the Netherlands for damages.

"Acted Within Legal Rights"

The State Department announcement said it considers that the Netherlands Government "acted within its legal rights" but that the settlement was made "in the spirit of the traditionally cordial relations between our two peoples."

Hans Isbrandtsen, president of the Isbrandtsen Company, said in a statement that if the duplicate cargo "means that the Dutch are simply tendering us some other freight in Batavia and we are to permit the original cargo to be taken peremptorily by the Dutch, then our answer is clear. The Dutch offer is unacceptable to us.

"If, on the other hand, the Dutch are placing the original Indonesian freight they have taken off the Martin Behrman back on the ship, that offer will be considered."

Jilted, He'll Try Again

Brisbane, Australia, March 21 (AP)—Lloyd Alfred Chappat, 23-year-old ex-GI, stowed away aboard a Swedish liner out of his home town of San Francisco and worked his passage to Australia to marry an Australian girl he met during the war.

Brisbane newspaper men, after hearing his story, went to see the girl, Dulcie Spencer, 23, a Brisbane typist. Dulcie was a little surprised.

"I'm going to marry an Australian ex-service man, Pat McGarry, Easter Monday," she said.

When Chappat heard the news he brooded for a week, then called in newsmen and told them:

"That's all finished now. I'm in love with a Sydney girl, and the only guy who will ever know her name apart from me will be the parson who marries us."

He said that during the week he brooded, telegrams, letters and phone calls had "poured" into his hotel room from eligible Queensland girls.

U.S. Corfu Request

Lake Success, N.Y., March 21 (AP). The United States tonight asked the United Nations Security Council to bring in a finding that Albania "had knowledge" of the laying of a mine field in the Corfu Channel last October 22.

Delegate Herschel V. Johnson, modifying a British demand that Albania be held responsible for laying the mines which damaged two Royal Navy warships with the loss of 44 lives, said the United States was not able to support such an outright accusation.

However, he declared that he was convinced "that the mines could not have been laid without the knowledge of the Albanian Government."

Gromyko Would Drop Case

Johnson accepted another portion of the British resolution which directed the British and Albanian governments to settle the dispute on the basis of the findings and further calling for the Security Council to retain the question on its agenda until settlement was reached.

Johnson came forward with the compromise after Hysni Kapo, Albanian representative, and Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate, had denied all the British accusations and suggested that the Security Council drop the case.

Calling for "a pure and simple rejection" of British claims, Kapo said not a single fact had been advanced to serve as a foundation for the accusations.

Gromyko used virtually the same words and further contended that British ships were "lording it in this area (the Corfu Channel)."

Sir Alexander Cadogan asked for time to study the American modifications and the next meeting was set for Tuesday.

Affirmative Votes Needed

As delegates paused for the week-end recess, the situation stood this way:

Belgium, Colombia and Australia said they would go as far as the United States version of the resolution; Poland and Russia want the case thrown out. Albania, as a non-member, and Britain, as the complaining party, have no vote.

Seven affirmative votes are needed for passage and even then the motion may be vetoed by any member of the Big Five.

Several delegations have indicated they favored as second choice reference of the complaint to the International Court of Justice for opinion on legal points. Such an alternative was considered likely if the revised American version fails to carry, but here again Russia would have the option of a veto.

Albania To Rebut Corfu Charges

Lake Success, N.Y., March 21 (AP). Hysni Kapo, Albanian representative, asked for the floor in the Security Council today to deliver a final rebuttal to British charges that Albania mined, or was responsible for mining, the Corfu Channel last fall.

Also to be heard from again as the Council convened was Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate, who has made it plain that he wants the case dismissed.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, of Great Britain, summed up his country's case yesterday with a renewed appeal that Albania be judged responsible and be forced to negotiate settlement with the London Government for mine damage to two destroyers and the deaths of 44 seamen.

Council delegates indicated that the session would be prolonged in efforts to wind up the case this week.

OneDay'sPayPlan To 'Save Children'

Lake Success, March 21 (AP)—Contributions of one day's pay from every working man and woman in the world will be sought by the United Nations to keep an estimated 20,000,000 children from slow starvation.

The voluntary contributions will be collected on a special "save the children" day to be designated by Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general.

The United Nation's Economic and Social Council, meeting today as a committee of the whole on social affairs, approved the relief collection plan as part of the program of the international children's emergency fund.

The fund's executive board, in a report to the Council, estimated at least 60,000,000 children today lack sufficient food for healthy growth and a third of this number desperately need another meal a day to keep them well and alive. The cost was estimated at $400,000,000 for one year.

The fund was created by the United Nations last December to meet this emergency growing out of the war.

Any Red Regime Imperils U.S.: Acheson

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Under Secretary of State Acheson said today the existence of "Communist-dominated governments" any place in the world is "dangerous to the security of the United States."

Acheson made that reply when Representative Judd (R., Minn.) asked whether a Communist-dominated Government of China would be a danger to United States security.

For the second straight day, Acheson testified before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on President Truman's request for authority to use $400,000,000 plus military advice and materials to help Greece and Turkey resist Communist aggression.

Cites Unanimity Of Reds

Before Judd's question, Acheson said that a Communist-dominated government in Greece would be considered dangerous to this country's security.

A moment later, he commented that "Communist organizations throughout the world appear to act with a high degree of discipline and unanimity which is beyond the probability of coincidence."

Judd had asked whether the State Department knew of any "Communist government" in the world that is "not Soviet dominated."

At that point, Representative Merrow (R., N.H.) interjected that he favored a "show down" with the Communists. He added:

"Mr. Stalin and his associates won't stop their program of aggressive expansion until the United States takes a firm stand."

Sees Test In Eyes Of World

Merrow asked whether the United States would be abandoning its world leadership by denying aid to Greece and Turkey.

Acheson replied: "If the United States will not accede to the requests made on it, there will be a strong conviction throughout the world that a great deal of our professions are merely words."

At the outset of today's testimony, Acheson quickly settled one issue which had developed between him and the lawmakers.

He said he would arrange to make public later secret "background" documents concerning the situation in Greece and Turkey.

"Secret" In Big Letters

Copies of the documents were given members of the committee yesterday with "secret" stamped on them in big letters.

Suggesting they be made public, Chairman Eaton (R., N.J.) said committee sentiment was that the public should have whatever information is given the Congress on the momentous foreign-policy issue.

From that point, the lawmakers plied him with questions on all the broad implications of Mr. Truman's proposal.

Acheson's Answers

Some of the answers they got:

The Administration has "no secret plans up its sleeve" for helping other countries with aid similar to that planned for Greece and Turkey. The question came from Representative Mansfield (D., Mont.).

Acheson does not consider that the United States, by aiding Greece and Turkey, was "advocating a return to the balance of power policy." The question came from Representative Richards (D., S.C.).

Greece's request for help from the United States does not indicate "failure of the United Nations." This also was asked by Richards.

Monarchy Up To Greeks

"The question of a monarchy (in Greece) is one for the people of Greece to decide." Representative Bolton (R., Ohio) had asked whether the intention was to "preserve the status quo."

Despite his statements concerning the dangers from Communist-dominated governments, Acheson detoured around many questions which brought up Russia directly.

At one point, Representative Smith (R., Wis.) asked:

"Is this bill a blow at Russia? Is it a blow at Communism? Or is it a blow at the armed guerrillas in Greece?"

"It is not a blow at anyone except the forces of disintegration," Acheson responded.

Out To Stop "Pressures"

He added that the "pressures" forcing disintegration were threatening free institutions of free peoples.

Later, Representative Jonkman (R., Mich.) asked him:

"Is it not true that this is ideological warfare in which we are showing Russia that we are going to help countries to the south of her, with which she has been waging a war of nerves?"

Acheson referred Jonkman to an earlier statement that "we are helping Turkey withstand 'external pressures.'"

Representative Helen Gahagan Douglas (D., Cal.) told Acheson the United States should take the case of any "outside pressure" on Turkey to the United Nations Security Council.

Turk Defense Questioned

"If X-country is going to march across Turkey's border," Mrs. Douglas declared, "then 700,000 troops won't stop it."

[The Turks are reported to have more than 700,000 men under arms.]

Representative Fulton (R., Pa.) suggested it should be made clear that the United States had no intention of restricting inspection of its aid in Turkey and Greece.

"Certainly not," snapped Acheson, "we have no intention of keeping anyone out. That's up to the Greek Government. The Greeks can invite in the whole United Nations Assembly if they want."

Later, in response to a query from Representative Javits (R., N.Y.), Acheson declared:

"If we allow Greece to go to pieces, we'll have a commissar in charge of the place in short order."

Aid Asked By Both Countries

Acheson testified, under questioning by Representative Mundt (R., S.D.), that Soviet insistence on participation in the defense of the Dardanelles Straits is one of the "external pressures" on the Government of Turkey.

Mundt asked whether the aid to the two Mediterranean countries is "the first step to stop expansion of communism into countries that are free and democratic."

Acheson recalled that President Truman had said Greece and Turkey asked for United States aid.

He added: "The President did not state at any time that this is a crusade against an ideology."

Report To U.N. Possible

Acheson also had another tentative date today—this one with Warren Austin, chief American delegate to the United Nations. Austin has been reported deeply disturbed over the possible effect this country's decision to go it alone in the case of Greece and Turkey may have on small-nation members of the world organization.

Speculation was rife on Capitol Hill that Austin might urge upon President Truman a face-saving gesture for the United Nations. This possibly would be a formal report of the situation to Secretary General Trygve Lie with the explanation that the United Nations was bypassed only because it is not yet equipped for action.

Conforms with Purposes of World Body, Senate Is Told.

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) A declaration that the proposed United States action in Greece and Turkey conforms with "the principles and purposes" of the United Nations was introduced in the Senate today by Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Connally (D-Tex).

The two leaders of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee offered the declaration in the form of a preamble to the bill authorizing aid to Greece and Turkey to bolster them against Communism. The senator's aim is to meet criticism here and abroad that President Truman's proposal would snub the UN.

UN Actions Cited

The preamble notes that the UN security council already "has recognized the seriousness of the unsettled conditions" on the Greek frontiers. It recalls that the UN food and agriculture mission "recognized the necessity that Greece receive financial and economic assistance and recommended that Greece request such assistance" from the UN and from the United States and Britain.

It then declares that the UN "is not now in a position to furnish to Greece and Turkey the financial and economic assistance which is immediately required" and concludes:

"The furnishing of such assistance to Greece and Turkey by the United States will contribute to the freedom and independence of all members of the United Nations in conformity with the principles and purposes of the charter."

The bill to which the preamble would be affixed is now in the House Foreign Affairs Committee. If the preamble is not adopted in the House, Vandenberg and Connally are confident they have enough influence to win its acceptance in the Senate.

Some congressmen said that the UN charter requires the United States to notify the international agency of its action. They reported that this would be done by means of a letter from Warren R. Austin, the American delegate, to Trygve Lie, the UN secretary.

Charles G. Ross, White House press secretary, told newsmen no such letter has been prepared by Mr. Truman. But the congressmen understood the state department either has drawn one up or plans to draw it up, for the president's approval.

Other Developments

There also were these developments:

1. Undersecretary of State Acheson agreed to strip the "secret" label off background documents given to house committee members on Mediterranean policy. Several of the legislators here insisted the documents should be published. Mechanical difficulties at the state department in making copies, however, delayed the publication until tomorrow.

2. British government informants said in London that Britain is helping the Greek government plan a spring offensive against the guerrillas in the north and will continue limited military and economic aid until the United States steps in. The informants said the decision to continue British aid was based on assurances received in London that Congress will approve Mr. Truman's proposal.

3. A resolution to put Congress on record as favoring creation of a United States of Europe within the framework of the UN was introduced in the Senate and House.

4. Senator Kem (R-Mo) suggested that no American products under export controls should be shipped to Russia and countries dominated by Moscow. He suggested writing such a ban into legislation to continue export controls.

Acheson, quizzed for a second day by the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said the administration has "no secret plans up its sleeve" and that the program for action in Greece and Turkey is not designed as "a blow at anyone except the forces of disintegration."

Preamble on Loan

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—Following is the text of the preamble Senators Arthur H. Vandenberg and Tom Connally have proposed for the Greek-Turkish loan legislation:

Whereas the Governments of Greece and Turkey have sought from the Government of the United States immediate financial and other assistance which is necessary for the maintenance of their survival as free nations; and

Whereas the national integrity and survival of these nations are of importance to the security of the United States and of all freedom-loving peoples and depend upon the receipt at this time of assistance; and

Whereas the Security Council of the United Nations has recognized the seriousness of the unsettled conditions prevailing on the border between Greece on the one hand and Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia on the other, and, if the present emergency is met, may subsequently assume full responsibility for this phase of the problem as a result of the investigation which its commission is currently conducting; and

Whereas the Food and Agriculture Organization mission for Greece recognized the necessity that Greece receive financial and economic assistance and recommended that Greece request such assistance from the appropriate agencies of the United Nations and from the Governments of the United States and the United Kingdon; and

Whereas the United Nations is not now in a position to furnish to Greece and Turkey the financial and economic assistance which is immediately required; and

Whereas the furnishing of such assistance to Greece and Turkey by the United States will contribute to the freedom and independence of all members of the United Nations in conformity with the principles and purposes of the Charter;

Now, therefore, be it enacted, etc. * * *

RAIL MEN OPPOSE TRUMAN

Say U. N. Should Handle Greek and Turkish Situation

CLEVELAND, March 21 (AP)—Leaders of the nation's two most powerful railroad brotherhoods supported tonight President Truman's proposal to give the Greeks food and clothing relief but opposed United States military assistance to either Greece or Turkey. They said the United Nations should handle the latter phase.

A statement by Alvanley Johnston, Grand Chief Engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and A. F. Whitney, President of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said: "We advocate dispatching immediate relief in the form of food and clothing for the suffering people of Greece, with the provision that distribution should be supervised by United States personnel.

On the subject of the President's military request, the brotherhood heads asserted: "The challenge of Russia as a powerful nation, threatening the independent existence of surrounding states, is not one which the United States should meet alone. For that reason we are opposed to the proposal that the United States send military assistance to either Turkey or Greece."

SOUTH AFRICA PAYS HALF LEND-LEASE

Hands U.S. Check For $50,000,000 For War Aid

Washington, March 21 (AP)—South Africa handed the United States a check for $50,000,000 today to pay off half her debt for lend-lease goods supplied her during wartime.

Dean Acheson, Acting Secretary of State, received the check from H. T. Andrews, the South African Minister.

It was the largest single cash payment received in the windup of the lend-lease arrangement by which the United States supplied Warld War II Allies with goods which cost originally more than $50,000,000,000.

It was also one of the final official actions of the lend-lease administration, which goes out of business tomorrow.

Russia Settlement

The State Department henceforth will carry on liquidation of outstanding accounts and thus faces such problems as trying to reach a settlement for more than $11,200,000,000 lend-lease supplied Russia. Thus far, Moscow has failed even to reply to this Government's suggestion of a settlement.

South Africa is to pay a second $50,000,000 cash in six months. The total of $100,000,000 was agreed upon to settle for supplies costing $169,000,000 which were shipped directly to South Africa.

In addition, South Africa received indirectly lend-lease goods which cost $704,000,000. These were supplied mostly through the British to South African troops under British command, and were largely written off in the settlement with Britain.

HUNGARY TO GET GRAIN

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—The State Department announced tonight an allotment of 40,000 tons of grain to Hungary, whose government the United States has sought to protect from what it calls Soviet Russian "interference."

The action followed by a day a rejection of a request for 100,000 tons from Marshall Tito's authoritarian regime in Yugoslavia.

The grain for Hungary will come from United States sources and help Hungary maintain its bread ration, which recently was reduced. for the rest of the crop year. The remainder of 5,000 tons is seed wheat.

The allocation was made by the emergency food council. All is expected to be shipped before the end of April.

The State Department said that the action was "in accord with the U. S. government's desire to aid Hungary in its present difficult economic situation."

Food Situation Worse Than '44, Yugoslav Says

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Sava N. Kosanovic, Yugoslav Ambassador, issued a statement today saying the food situation in Yugoslavia "is worse even than during the winter of 1944-45."

"The ration in Yugoslavia today is a ration of hunger," he said, adding that the people of his country had never received as large rations as international organizations such as UNRRA decided they should have.

Kosanovic made no mention of the State Department's announcement yesterday that no American relief is planned for Yugoslavia and no grain can be sold it at this time.

The State Department noted that the Communist-dominated Yugoslav Government had shipped grain to Romania and Albania. The Department also said the official Yugoslav news agency had claimed that country's bread ration was larger than that of France, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Switzerland.

Senator Proposes Ban On Exports To Russia

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Senator Kem (R., Mo.) proposed today a ban on the export of all American goods to Russia and countries dominated by Moscow. He would write such a provision into pending legislation to continue export control.

Another development in the international field was the introduction in the Senate and House of identical resolutions to put the United States on record as favoring creation of a United States of Europe. The move was fathered in the Senate by Senators Fullbright (D., Ark.) and Thomas (D., Utah) and in the House by Representative Boggs (D., La.).

KOREAN SHIFT PREDICTED

But State Department Disagrees With Rhee's Forecast

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—Dr. Syngman Rhee, South Korea independence leader, said today that an "interim independent government" will be established there within thirty to sixty days. He said a civilian high commissioner would replace the American military governor.

A State Department spokesman commented that the statements "are simply suppositions put forward by Dr. Rhee."

BILL WOULD GIVE 30 P.C. CUT TO LOW PAY GROUP

MAR 1947

House Speaker Says Peoples' Burden Can Be Eased, Debt Reduced.

DEMOCRATS PROTEST

Doughton Urges Delay, Citing Uncertainty of U.S.'s World Commitments.

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) Republicans shoved their $4,000,000,000 income tax cut through the House Ways and Means Committee today, 16 to 9, and Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said the House "definitely will pass" it next week.

Martin called upon the Republicans to rally behind the bill, issuing a statement that:

To "Keep Promise"

"The Republicans have clearly recognized for a long time the dangers of excessive taxation and the absolute necessity for tax cuts. We promised the nation lower taxes—and we shall keep faith with the American people.

"These tax cuts are entirely practicable while at the same time payments are made on the debt.

"People in the lower income brackets must have relief from crushing taxation and unbearably high prices. Government economies and more and more production constitute the answer to both problems. x x x

"Venture capital must have a chance for a reasonable return as an incentive to invest, in order to make more good jobs at good wages, increase production, improve quality, and bring down prices for all the people.

"If the government ever took over the financing of business and control of jobs and wages, we would have Communism or state socialism before we knew it. Therefore, venture capital must have incentive tax cuts."

Engel to Fight Bill

Notwithstanding Martin's statement, Rep. Engel (R-Mich), who has termed the legislation "a rich man's tax bill," said he will carry to the House floor his fight against it.

The bill would give a 30 percent tax cut to persons with income (gross income minus personal exemptions and deductions) of $1,000 or less, and a 20 percent cut to persons with taxable income above $1,395. For those in between, the cut would range from a flat $57 to $53 a year.

(Persons with a taxable income of $1,001 would get the $57 reduction, those with $1,395 would get $53).

Rep. Dingell (D-Mich), a committee member, told reporters the Democrats "shelled the Republicans into submission and retreat to force a revision of the bill that would give a better break to the little man." but he said "the bill still still smells bad to me."

Doughton Loses Delay Move

Rep. Doughton (D-NC) who was chairman of the committee when the Democrats held control, moved to delay any tax cut, remarking that "with the dark clouds now hanging over the world, we don't know what our commitments and expenses will be."

His motion was beaten on a strict party-line vote—the 10 Democrats for it, the 15 Republicans against it.

Then the reduction bill was approved, with Rep. West (D-Tex) joining the 15 Republicans in favor.

"I voted to postpone consideration," West said. "I thought the sensible thing to do would be to wait until we get the budget committee report. When the postponement motion was defeated I voted to report the bill. It is not what I wanted, but I favor a reduction in taxes."

The tax slash, if approved by House and Senate and signed by the President, would be retroactive to Jan. 1. Withholdings from wages and salaries would drop June 1 and all taxpayers would get refunds of overpayments between those two dates, at the new rates.

Ways and Means Chairman Knutson (R-Minn), author of the measure, told reporters that we won't have much trouble putting it through the House." He said he believes the revision giving small income persons an extra $386,000,000 reduction has erased much of the opposition in Republican ranks.

Doughton conceded the Republicans "probably have the votes to put this through the House," adding: "But I don't know what is going to happen when the bill gets over to the Senate."

Rep. Rayburn (D-Tex), former speaker and now the Democratic floor leader, took a stand against the bill, supporting President Truman's plea that congress use any treasury surpluses this year to begin payment on the debt instead of cutting taxes.

SUGAR RATIONING EXTENSION VOTED

House Sets October 31 Date; Senate Group Would Retain Rent Control.

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) The house voted 286 to 54 today for legislation extending rationing and price control of sugar until October 31, 1947, and sent the measure to the senate.

Simultaneously, a Senate Banking Subcommittee voted unanimously in favor of a bill continuing rent controls through Feb. 29, 1948, without a general increase in rent ceilings.

Passage of the sugar control legislation was by a roll-call vote at the insistence of Democrats who demanded a record tally in an evident move to get Republicans "on the record" in favor of continued controls.

Sugar Control Extended

The measure also extends allocation powers over sugar until March 31, 1948. They were scheduled to expire at the end of this month.

Without the legislation, price control and rationing of sugar would end next June 30.

The House approved an amendment by Rep. Gamble (R-NY) to permit the importation of jams, jellies and syrups in consumer-sized packages without a ration stamp—provided they are made from sugar not originally intended for importation to this country.

Senate action on rent and sugar controls bogged down when the Senate Republican Policy Committee failed to reach agreement on whether controls should be continued, changed or dropped. The issue will be referred to a meeting of all Senate Republicans tomorrow.

Argues for 10 P. C. Hike

Senator Hawkes (R-NJ) argued in the policy committee for a blanket 10 per cent rent increase if controls are continued, but it was this provision that killed an earlier bill.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) contended that sugar controls should be dropped because of an estimated 650,000-ton increase in Cuban production this year.

Congressional delay in settling the rent-control issue brought criticism from Morgan L. Fitch, of Chicago, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. He declared in a statement:

"The congress knows there can be no end to the housing shortage, no stability in the real estate market, no economic balance of supply and demand, no eradication of the vicious black market in rental contracts so long as rent control and bureaucratic bungling freeze one set of tenants in and another set out.

"And yet the senate leaders continue to toss the ball around the infield long after the folks in the stand are ready for the game to start."

Under the bill approved by the Senate banking subcommittee, state governors would be authorized to set up advisory rent committees in each of the 600-odd rent control areas which the OPA established. Individual states could take over their own controls by showing the government they have set up an adequate control program.

The measure further provides for removal of rent ceilings on new houses, on dwellings that rent for $225 a month or more, on accommodations not rented between Feb. 1, 1946, and Jan. 31, 1947, and on hotels and motor courts.

Authority for Local Boards

Local advisory boards would have authority to recommend outright removal or increases in rent ceilings on an area basis and special adjustments in "hardship" cases.

The subcommittee next will tackle the question of how the rent program will be carried out after OPA shuts down on June 30.

In his blast against congressional delay, Fitch charged that the issue is being "sidetracked until after a municipal election in Chicago."

"Homeless veterans and houseless citizens are being victimized by political manipulations of U. S. senate leaders.

"Now we find the entire nation subverted because of an ill-gotten theory that rent control relief may injure the chances of a Republican candidate for mayor of Chicago, who himself has foredoomed all prospects of his election by his endorsement of rent control at the local level."

U. S. Extending Wheat Exports Through May

Department of Agriculture HadContemplatedHalting Shipments After April

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP).—The Agriculture Department announced today it will permit exports of wheat in May.

Earlier, it had contemplated halting such shipments after April until the 1947 crop became available late in the spring.

The department set aside 203,000 long tons, or 7,579,00 bushels, of wheat for May export. It also set export allotments of 1,093,000 tons, or about 50,000,000 bushels, for other grains, including corn, grain sorghums, oats and barley.

Officials explained that a review of the wheat situation makes possible additional shipments in May.

Wheat under government purchase contracts at this time will be sufficient, they said, to cover April and May allocations.

The largest single wheat allotment for May was 45,000 tons for the American-British zones of Germany, with United States zones in the Pacific second with 27,000 tons, Mexico third with 20,000, and the United Kingdom and France and French North Africa next with 18,000 each.

The May allocations, for all grains and flour, included:

United Kingdom, 45,000 tons; India, 81,000; France and French North Africa, 100,000; Belgium, 40,000; The Netherlands, 56,000; Finland, 12,000; Switzerland, 11,000; Portugal, 20,000; Eire, 4,000.

Romania, 18,000; United States-United Kingdom zones in Germany, 330,000; French zones in Germany, 38,000; United States zones in the Pacific, 174,000; Mexico, 25,000; Hungary, 8,000; Austria, 29,000; China, 9,000; Greece 38,000; Italy, 145,000; Poland 49,000, and all others, 64,000.

PRICE BOOSTED ON NEWSPRINT

Canadian Company Increases Cost By $6 A Ton

Montreal, March 21 (AP)—Canadian International Paper Sales Company, Inc., today announced an increase of $6 a ton in the price of newsprint.

The company sent the following telegram to all its United States and Canadian customers:

"Referring to our contract with you, our standard price for newsprint will be increased by $6 a ton, effective April 1, 1947.

"As you know, International Paper Company has spared no effort or expense in order to turn out the greatest possible volume, all of which has been devoted to the needs of our traditional customers."

Other Firms Expected To Follow

New York, March 21 (AP)—Newsprint quarters today predicted that the $6-a-ton increase in newsprint announced by Canadian International Paper Sales Company would be followed in the immediate future by other domestic and Canadian producers.

The advance indicated a delivered price in New York City of $90 a ton. Normally the local price is $1 below quotations in many other ports of entry.

At the start of 1946 newsprint, then under OPA control, was priced at $67 a ton. This level held until Canada revalued its currency to par with the United States dollar in July, which resulted in a boost of $6.80 a ton, to $73.80.

Boosted To $84 By OPA

When OPA was revived, following the July lapse, the price went back to $67. In late August OPA authorized a $7 increase, to $74, and another $10 raise to $84 in October.

Today's announcement followed testimony before a Senate small business subcommittee investigating newsprint supplies that small publishers had been offered newsprint at prices ranging up to $250 a ton.

Severe weather in Canada, which tangled transportation already hampered by inadequate rolling stock, recently forced many domestic publishers to limit space for advertising and curtail the size of editions to make the available supplies of newsprint go as far as possible.

Canada supplies the United States with about 80 per cent of its newsprint.

Lilienthal Held Nearly Certain Of Approval

Washington, March 21 (AP)—David E. Lilienthal has the present support of a majority of the Senate, an Associated Press checkup showed today.

Hence his confirmation as chairman of the Atomic Control Commission is almost certain unless some senators change their minds during debate.

Of 74 members willing to say how they would vote on the controversial nomination, 49—a clear majority of the 95 qualified members—said they intend to support the nomination. Senator Taft (R., Ohio) said debate on the issue probably will start Monday.

Six "Yes" Voters Withhold Names

Forty-three senators, including Senator Capper (R., Kan.), who had been undecided until today, have announced publicly their support of Lilienthal. Six others said they intend to vote "yes," but do not want their names used before they announce their stand in the Senate.

Twenty-five senators are listed as opposed to confirmation. Five of these, however, are withholding publication of their names until they can tell their colleagues in Senate speeches why they do not want to see the former TVA chieftain continue at the helm of the Atomic Commission. Lilienthal has been serving under a recess appointment since last January 1.

21 Not Saying

With the Lilienthal nomination and those of his commission colleagues likely to be debated all of next week, 21 senators had not made up their minds or declined to say even privately how they would vote.

In this group are five Democrats and sixteen Republicans, including several GOP first termers who may present a fairly solid front against confirmation. Most observers believe that a majority of the 21 will go against confirmation, thus providing a relatively close count on the final vote.

Eight-Vote Margin Predicted

Democratic strategists who have been polling the membership said they believe the nominee can be confirmed by a minimum margin of eight votes, allowing for the absences which usually occur even on such controversial tests.

However, Taft—who openly opposes Lilienthal as being "too soft" toward communism—said he thinks the outcome still hangs in the balance and will not be determined until all the debate is concluded.

The Ohio Senator, chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, said he thinks recent international developments which caused President Truman to ask aid for Turkey and Greece to block communism out of those two countries "have not been a help to Lilienthal."

McKellar Charges Discounted

Senator McKellar (D., Tenn.) has charged that Lilienthal permitted Communists to infiltrate the TVA organization while he headed it, but members of the Senate Atomic Committee apparently found little basis for these charges in voting 8 to 1 to support the nomination.

What the Senate does about the Lilienthal appointment is held likely to guide its action on the nominations of four other commission members and of Carroll L. Wilson, named as general manager of the atomic setup.

U. S. OFFICIAL'S OUSTER IS ASKED

House Group Would Drop Labor Department Executive on Red Charges.

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) The House Appropriations Committee voted today to take Edgar L. Warren, a high labor department official off the government payroll on the grounds that he had belonged to "Communist-inspired" organizations.

Five of Warren's ex-associates from the War Labor Board promptly replied that "he is a loyal and devoted citizen."

The vehicle for the proposed ouster is a $1,685,586,780 bill to finance the Labor Department and the Federal Security Agency for the year beginning July 1.

In submitting it, the committee wrote in a provision to deny any funds to the office of the director of the conciliation service, which is Warren's job. The provision likewise affects the offices of some 100 other executives and employes of the service.

The conciliation service is the labor department's main tool in trying to settle labor-management disputes.

The committee reported to the House:

"Mr. Warren admitted that he has been a member of the American League for Peace and Democracy, and the Washington Bookshop, and attended meetings. Both of these organizations are Communist-inspired fronts and have been so certified by the Committee on un-American Activities.

"Mr. Warren contended that he does not now have any radical beliefs. He admitted that in 1944, or perhaps 1943, he made a speech to an inter-departmental group of government employes in which he held to the philosophy that government employes should be entitled to the right to strike. Mr. Warren now claims that he has changed his mind on this subject.

"The situation confronting our country is too grave to permit employment in such an important place of anyone whose background may be subject to question."

In New Haven, Conn., where he was attending a management-labor conference at Yale university, Warren said: "the action of the House Appropriations Committee is not surprising. There were articles in the press to the same effect recently. If this (the bill) were to pass it would seriously damage the effectiveness of the conciliation service. I refer particularly to the possible refusal of funds for 100 persons.

Five former members of the War Labor Board came to Warren's defense. The five, Lloyd K. Garrison, William H. Davis, George W. Taylor, Frank P. Graham and Edwin E. Witte, joined in a statement saying:

"We knew and worked with Edgar Warren throughout the war period and found him at all times to be a fine and loyal American."

Two French Indicted As Heroin Smugglers

New York, March 21 (AP)—A Federal grand jury today filed three indictments against two French seamen charging them with the attempted smuggling of nearly $1,150,000 worth of pure heroin earlier this week.

The men, Cesar Negro and Rene Brouchard, seamen on the French freighter St. Tropez, are in the Federal House of Detention in lieu of bail of $100,000 each fixed by United States Commissioner Isaac Platt.

New Yorker Described As Soviet Spy Leader

House Group Told Josephson Is More Important In Communist Moyement Than Eisler

Washington, March 21 (AP)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities unfolded today a world-ranging story that a Soviet fake passport and spy ring has centered around Leon Josephson, of New York.

Liston M. Oak and Fred Beal, both of New York and both admitted former Communists, testified under oath that Josephson is a member of the Russian secret police.

Oak, managing editor of the New Leader magazine, said Josephson may be "more important" in the Communist movement than Gerhart Eisler.

Not Available For Comment

The committee has called Eisler the "supreme" Communist authority in America. It has charged that Eisler got a false passport in 1934, for which, it said, Josephson penned the application.

Josephson was not available for comment in New York but his attorney, Samuel Neuberger, characterized the testimony before the House Committee as "nonsense" and "without basis in fact."

Neuberger said that since Josephson returned in 1935 from Germany—where he said his client had worked in the underground — he had not engaged in political activity, because of ill health.

Beal said Josephson, and Mrs. Edith Miller also, obtained fake passports for seven defendants convicted of slaying the chief of police of Gastonia, N.C., during a textile strike in 1929.

Soured On Russia

Beal, now a New York textile worker, was one of the defendants. He said Mrs. Miller was the wife of another. He said all seven skipped to Russia, under the urging of Communist leaders, while they were out on bail and an appeal was pending.

After souring on Russia and communism, Beal said he came back to America and served four years of a twenty-year sentence before being paroled.

Representative J. Parnell Thomas (R., N.J.) chairman of the committee, announced that the committee will draw up a contempt citation against Josephson on Monday. He refused to testify at hearings held by a subcommittee in New York.

Backing up the testimony of Oak and Beal was that of a committee investigator, Louis Russell, and Alwyn Cole, Treasury Department expert on forged papers — plus documents from State Department files.

Various Persons Named

The story jumped about from New York, to Copenhagen, Gastonia, Barcelona, Washington and to Dayton, Ohio.

Figuring in it in one way or another were the names of:

1. Ruth Bryan Rohde, daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, former member of Congress and former United States Ambassador to Denmark.

Russell said it was reported to him that Josephson claimed she entertained him "rather royally" in Copenhagen and that they became "close friends" later in this country.

2. Represenattive Vito Marcantonio (A.L., N.Y.).

Russell said Josephson was working for the International Labor Defense when he made trips to Europe in 1929, 1930 and 1931, that the ILD is a "Communist front" organization, that Marcantonio was its president.

New York Night Club Named

3. Barney Josephson, a brother with whom Leon lives in New York.

Russell said Barney Josephson is one of the incorporators of two New York night clubs, Café Society Uptown and Café Society Downtown. He said Harry Kaplan, proprietor of the American House Hotel in Trenton, N.J., at one time employed Barney. He said Kaplan had stated that he believed, but could not prove, that Barney stole a passport he, Kaplan, obtained in 1934.

4. George Mink.

Oak said Mink also was a member of the Russian secret police, offered him "an assignment in this passport racket" in Barcelona, Spain, in 1937.

Russell said that Mink, Leon Josephson and a Nicholas Sherman were arrested in Copenhagen in 1935 and charged with espionage and having false passports. He said all three were operating in the "Communist underground" in Eurpoe.

Telephone Calls Checked

He said four American passports were found by Danish Police in Mink's possession, one in the name of Harry Kaplan, another in the name of Al Gotlieb.

Cole testified that he was sure Josephson wrote the application for the Gotlieb passport.

As for Josephson's present affairs, Russell said "supposedly" he is in the building business, and that he goes frequently to Dayton, Ohio.

He said long-distance telephone slips for 1946 and 1947 show numerous calls to the Housing Development Corporation in the Cooper Building in Dayton. He said the firm is being investigated.

In addition, Russell said, Josephson called Sol Ravkin in Washington. He described Ravkin as having been a member of "four Communist front organizations" and an employé of the Government in the Bureau of Labor Statistics, National Labor Relations Board, Justice Department and finally OPA. He said so far as he has learned, Ravkin still works for the Government.

Start Of A New Bund In N.Y. Reported

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Representative McDowell (R., Pa.) said today he saw in New York last week what he considers the start of a new German-American bund.

Acting on a tip to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, of which he is a member, McDowell attended a meeting as an unknown.

"It turned out to be what we think is the beginning of a new bund," McDowell said. "We have decided we'd better look into the entire situation."

Chicago Link Hinted

He said there may be similar activity in Chicago and that hearings may be held there and in New York later. He said what he found out in New York was a big factor in the creation of a new Un-American Activities subcommittee, of which he is chairman, to investigate Fascist organizations in America.

The lawmaker would not say where the New York meeting was held or how the committee got wind of it.

There were no uniforms or stiff-armed salutes as were used by the old bund.

The "Old Movement"

But McDowell said he heard frequent references to the "old movement" and that apparently a skeleton organization of it survived.

The old bund disappeared after its leader, Fritz Kuhn, was deported to Germany.

A former newspaper man, McDowell reported that some 100 men and women of all ages, mostly of German origin, gathered in New York in a rented hall.

He said he had no trouble getting in. He said a leader ran the meeting in forum style, encouraging speeches from the audience.

"The general line they appear to be developing is a just peace for Germany," he said.

Referred To Slave Labor

He added that those present referred to slave labor brought into Germany during the war as "a horde of foreigners eating up German food and raping German women."

"What they apparently are trying to do," he said, "is to make people believe these slave laborers voluntarily went to Germany during the war to cash in on high wages and now are stripping the country.

"Their purpose, of course, is to create sympathy for Germany and absolve her of her terrible war crimes."

They talked in both English and German, McDowell said. Since he does not know German, he said, he complained to a neighbor that his father never had had time to teach him the language and "they very obligingly conducted the rest of the meeting in English."

Fleet Maneuvers Revealed Subs' Flaws, Says Admiral

GROTON, March 21—(AP) Rear Admiral John Wilkes, commander of the Atlantic submarine fleet, told a press conference here today the recent "very strenuous" fleet exercises in mid-Atlantic from which he had just returned, pointed up the "weakness" of our present type submarines in contrast to a far more speedy type of sub which the Germans had developed just as the war ended.

These German subs, he said, were capable of submerge speeds almost twice that of ours and the Germans had a proposed model estimated to be two and a half times more speedy.

Experimenting With U-Boats

In the division of the German fleet after the war, Wilkes said, we acquired two experimental U-boats while others went to various other allies including Russia. The admiral said that our two experimental subs were now being used experimentally while a third ship, the U.S.S. Corporal, an American sub, was being refitted to adapt it to German lines.

In answer to a question at the conference which was held at the submarine base here, the admiral said that the maneuvers "had not envisaged atomic bomb attacks" but he commented that the navy already knew that the only present defense against fleet attack by the bomb lay in dispersal.

Asked if submarines themselves could be used to launch atomic bomb attacks, he said, "we don't know" but later said that he viewed "a torpedo with an atomic warhead a possibility."

"The atomic bomb," he continued, "is very likely to increase the usefullness and effectiveness of the submarine in any future war." He did not elaborate but earlier he had said that "with the ability to reach greater depths through advancements looked forward to in welding processes of high grade steels now available, the submarine will have more time to maneuver."

50 Per Cent Deactivated

Wilkes said that the sub fleet was 50 per cent deactivated and added that "at a rough guess" the navy as a whole was only 25 per cent intact as compared with its wartime power.

The score:

"Over a period of 15 to 20 years," he added "we will be equipped with the best ships of the line," but to a question, "does that time remain?" he only smiled.

Asked what he knew about what other nations were doing to increase depth submersion and submerged speeds of their sub fleets, the admiral said: "While I have, of course, no definite knowledge, we can assume they also are experimenting."

One of the chief technical problems, the admiral said, was not merely to increase submerged speeds but to learn how to control them. Submarines travelling at high speed under water, he explained, had a tendency to roll and become unmanageable.

Emphasizing that submarines were inherently more dangerous to operate in peace times than other naval craft because of their vulnerability in case of collision, the admiral said: "We must be willing to accept operational casualties in order to attain a realistically trained submarine force."

The admiral said he was making a "frank appeal" for public support of the Navy's appropriation program which he described as requiring "fabulous sums" for research. He referred particularly to a bill now pending in Congress calling for construction of two experimental submarines at a cost of $30,000,000.

In discussing the recent maneuvers, Wilkes said their strenuousness was best illustrated by the fact that at various times submarines were required to remain submerged as long as 18 hours.

Theoretical losses suffered by the sub fleet, he thought, were not disproportionate when the number of hits on surface ships was considered, particularly those scored on the carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt and the battleship Missouri.

One helicopter was used in the exercises and Wilkes said it performed in half an hour the fleet messenger work which a destroyer formerly took five or six hours to do.

DAILY WEATHER FLIGHTS OVER POLE PLANNED

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—The Army Air Forces said today that it plans daily B-29 weather observation flights over the North Pole.

The first of the flights was made last Tuesday, when a B-29 with Brig. Gen. Donald M. Yates, chief of the weather service aboard, made a trip of 3,600 miles from Ladd Field, Alaska, to the pole and back. Most of the flight was at a 10,000 foot altitude.

Information obtained from the flights will be made available to all weather forecasting agencies "of this and other countries," the announcement said.

Initially, flights are being made every few days, "but later this spring daily flights will begin to obtain meteorological reports over an extended period."

Atom-Waste Danger Cited

Cambridge, Mass., March 21 (AP). The biggest "headache" in setting up plants for producing atomic energy is radioactive "waste," which may endanger lives of persons living nearby, according to a Massachusetts Institute of Technology scientist.

Dr. Lyle B. Borst told a gathering of M. I. T. faculty members and graduate students last night that science "easily" envisions a cyclotron producing atomic energies of 10,000,000,000 volts, but the waste from such plants "is a headache like nobody ever heard of."

City Proximity A Problem

"We prepare radio-active substances and we can't make them go away," he said. "We've got to figure out how we can handle these things near large cities.

"We must be able to assure any person living near such a plant that his life will not be endangered or affected in any way."

Dr. Borst, on leave from M.I.T., was one of four members of the physics department of the Brookhaven National Laboratory of Associated Universities, Inc., who described the project to the faculty and students.

The new laboratory, located at Camp Upton, L.I., on land taken over from the Army, is government-supported and privately operated by nine Eastern universities.

Truman for Joining World Health Group

Asks Congress to Act as Soon as Posible

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP).—President Truman told Congress today that he considers it "important that the United States join the World Health Organization as soon as possible."

Mr. Truman sent to Capitol Hill a proposed joint resolution providing for this country's membership, and asked that it get "the early consideration of Congress." He inclosed an indorsement from Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

"I have been impressed by the spirit of international good will and community of purpose which have characterized the development of the constitution of this organization," the brief Presidential message said.

"I am sure that it will make a substantial contribution to the improvement of world health conditions through the years.

"In view of the significance and urgency of international health problems, I consider it important that the Unted States jon the World Health Organization as soon as possible."

The World Health Organization is one of the separate agencies planned for work with the United Nations. It will develop information on health and standards for reports. Its major contribution would be in helping to prevent the spread of epidemic diseases.

Marcantonio Upholds Communists' Rights

New York, March 21 (AP)—Representative Vito Marcantono (Dem., A.L.P., N.Y.) says that if the rights of Communists had been protected in Italy and Germany, Mussolini would not have marched on Rome, Hitler "would not have succeeded and there would not have been a world war."

The Congressman urged "democratic defense of the rights of Communists in these United States" last night at a rally sponsored by the Civil Rights Congress of New York, of which Dashiell Hammett, detective fiction writer, is president.

Drive Begun For Eisler

The rally launched a drive for funds to defend Gerhart Eisler, self-described former Communist worker in Germany who now is awaiting deportation as an undesirable alien. He recently refused to testify in Washington before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and was cited by the House for contempt.

Marcantonio said President Truman, in advocating aid for Turkey and Greece, had opened a "political phase of war" in a pattern set by Hitler and Mussolini. He said this "imperialist program" involves "Red-baiting, a Red scare, a so-called anti-Communist crusade and 'Save the World from Communism.'"

Rose To Adopt 25 DP's, Paper Says

New York, March 21 (AP)—Billy Rose, the Broadway showman, and his swimming star wife, Eleanor Holm, are planning to adopt 25 European orphans, the New York Times said today.

Through a secretary, Rose said he did not wish to discuss the Times story which said he would go to Europe within a month to select the children, 4 to 6 years old and listed in the displaced persons category.

The article added that the youngsters would be brought up on the 125-acre estate of the late Orlando Weber, in Mount Kisco, N.Y., which was purchased by Rose in June and adjoins his 57-acre country estate, Walken Farm.

U.S. To Admit Them

State Department officials were said to be co-operating in the plan by promising admission and visas for the children under the quota system.

Rose was quoted as having told the State Department that he considered the plan his "own notion of what a good American is" and that he and his wife "would get a big kick" out of being parents to the homeless children.

The Times said Rose declined to discuss the project and declared he did not want publicity for his plan to befriend the youngsters.

M'MAHON URGES ENTRY FOR VICTIMS OF NAZIS

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) Senator McMahon introduced legislation today to allocate unused German immigration quotas to countries which were overrun by Nazi armies.

McMahon, in a statement accompanying his bill said: "It is my information that the German quota of 25,957 is not being fully used at the present time. It seems to me the German quota should be made available to the nationals of the countries which the Nazis despoiled. This might make an additional 12,000 to 15,000 quota numbers available to the unfortunate peoples of those countries."

The present quota for Poland, he said, is 6,524; for Italy, 5,802; Hungary, 869, and Greece, 307.

Fraulein, Baby, Here To Wed Vet

New Rochelle, N.Y., March 21 (AP)—A tall blond German girl, who arrived here yesterday with her 7-month-old daughter, and a United States Army veteran she was not permitted to marry in Germany, intend to "marry as soon as possible," the veteran's family said today.

Ruth Marianne Meyer, 23, arriving with her child, Irene Louise, was warmly greeted at LaGuardia Field by William Rosch, 27, of New Rochelle.

"I am very happy to be here," she said in fluent English. "We did not marry in Germany because there was a ban at that time. We did not have the chance. We will be married as soon as possible."

Rosch, a former army master sergeant, patiently untangled red tape to get his prospective bride here.

His family declined to discuss the couple's plans except to say that they would not live in New Rochelle and were trying to be married "as soon as possible."

Schuschnigg Talk Is Canceled

PHILADELPHIA, March 21 (AP).—A talk scheduled by Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg, former Austrian Chancellor, for March 26 at Temple University will not be given, Dr. Robert L. Johnson, Temple president, announced tonight after the Temple Veterans Club urged withdrawal of the invitation. A special Veterans Club committee reported Dr. Schuschnigg had conducted the government of Austria in a manner which the committee termed undemocratic. Also protesting were some members of the American Veterans Committee, the executive board of the Secondary Education Department Students Organization, the American Youth for Democracy and the One World League.

Ugh! The Things We Ate During the War!

Worms in Candy Bars, Mineral Oil on Popcorn Revealed in Report

Washington, Mar. 21 (AP)—Many of the nation's youngsters ate a lot of worms and laxative during the war in the form of candy bars and popcorn.

This was related to the House Appropriations Committee by officials of the Food and Drug Administration.

They told, also, how adults ate things they didn't suspect.

Many thousands of gallons of mineral oil were sold to the public under the guise of food oil, said Dr. Paul B. Dunbar, head of the Food and Drug Administration.

"One of the most outstanding cases," he said, "was popped corn, ordinarily coated with either butter or an edible vegetable oil, and then salted. This popcorn was put up in four-ounce packages. There was enough mineral oil in each of those packages to give a medicinal dose of mineral oil to a youngster."

Some operators, Dunbar said, colored mineral oil, which they bought for 65 cents a gallon, and sold it as olive oil at $14 a gallon.

"Here is the sort of things we found in peanuts," he said, holding out another sample.

"An average of one worm per candy bar," observed Rep. Keefe (R-Wis.) after examining the sample.

Dunbar told the committee his office prosecuted all the cases. The 3,221 legal actions instituted during 1946 resulted in fines of $166,746 and 14 jail sentences, he said.

German Agency

GOVERNMENT IN LAYING DOWN A THREE-POINT PLAN OF PROCEDURE FOR SETTING UP A GERMAN GOVERNMENT, SAID FIRST THERE SHOULD BE THE "ESTABLISHMENT OF A PROVISIONAL GERMAN GOVERNMENT COMPOSED OF THE HEADS OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE NOW EXISTING STATES AND LAENDER, INCLUDING BERLIN, AND CLOTHED WITH NECESSARY POWERS TO CREATE AND OPERATE CENTRAL ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES."

TO THIS END HE SAID THE LAENDER OR STATE GOVERNMENTS SHOULD BE COMPLETED "THROUGHOUT GERMANY AT AN EARLY DATE."

SECOND, MARSHALL CALLED FOR "A DRAFTING AND ACCEPTANCE OF A CONSTITUTION WHICH SHALL BE GERMAN IN ORIGIN AND WHICH SHALL BE CONSISTENT WITH DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND THE DECENTRALIZATION OF GOVERNMENT AUTHORITY." ALL POWERS NOT ASSIGNED THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT WOULD REMAIN IN THE STATE GOVERNMENTS.

A227

THIRD, MARSHALL DECLARED THAT THERE SHOULD BE THE ASSUMPTION OF THE GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT CREATED BY THE CONSTITUTION AND BY THE STATE AUTHORITIES RECOGNIZED BY THE CONSTITUTION. HE ADDED:

"I WILL SUBMIT A PROPOSAL EMBODYING THESE IDEAS. I FEEL THAT THE PROCESS OUTLINED ABOVE SHOULD BE GOTTEN UNDERWAY AT ONCE SO THAT THERE WILL BE PROPERLY CONSTITUTED GERMAN AUTHORITIES WHICH CAN CARRY OUT THE TERMS OF THE PEACE SETTLEMENT ON WHICH WE ARE NOW WORKING."

MARSHALL SAID THAT "THE TIME HAS NOW COME TO AUTHORIZE THE GERMANS TO ESTABLISH A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT TO DEAL WITH MATTERS OF NATIONWIDE CONCERN WHICH THE STATES CANNOT ADEQUATELY HANDLE."

HE DECLARED THAT "NO GERMAN GOVERNMENT CAN FUNCTION UNLESS THE BASIC ESSENTIALS ON WHICH GERMAN ECONOMIC UNITY DEPENDS ARE AGREED UPON AND IMPLEMENTED BY ALL FOUR POWERS, AND UNLESS EFFECTIVE GUARANTEES EXIST FOR THE SAFEGUARDS OF THE FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN ALL PARTS OF GERMANY."

DURING THE COUNCIL SESSION, BEVIN ALSO REVEALED THAT BRITAIN HAD RECEIVED FROM ALL SOURCES REPARATIONS OF MORE THAN $91,960,000 FROM GERMANY SINCE THE END OF THE WAR.

BEVIN EMPHASIZED THAT NO REPARATIONS HAD BEEN TAKEN BY THE BRITISH

MARSHALL URGED THAT THE MINISTERS CONSULT CLARK TO TRY TO BREAK THE DEADLOCK ON THE PROBLEM OF GERMAN ASSETS IN AUSTRIA. MOLOTOV SAID HE WANTED MORE TIME TO THINK OVER THE DEPUTIES' PROGRESS REPORT.

IT WAS THEN THAT MARSHALL SUGGESTED THAT THE COUNCIL INVITE AUSTRIA IMMEDIATELY TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES HERE TO BE AVAILABLE FOR CONSULTATIONS WITH THE COUNCIL AND THE DEPUTIES ON THE AUSTRIAN TREATY.

A228

MARSHALL SAID HE HAD CIRCULATED EARLIER TODAY A MEMORANDUM ON GERMAN ASSETS IN AUSTRIA. THE INABILITY OF THE DEPUTIES TO AGREE ON THIS SUBJECT, HE SAID, WAS ONE OF THE CHIEF OBSTACLES TO WRITING A TREATY. HE ADDED THAT THE DEPUTIES HAD REACHED AN IMPASSE ON THE TECHNICAL ISSUE OF LEGAL TITLE TO GERMAN ASSETS ACQUIRED BY THE ALLIES.

THE AMERICAN SECRETARY SUGGESTED THAT THEY PASS OVER THIS TO GET AT WHAT HE SAID HE CONSIDERED THREE IMPORTANT POINTS:

A DEFINITION OF GERMAN ASSETS;

THE STATUS OF GERMAN ASSETS IN AUSTRIA UNDER AUSTRIAN LAWS

NIGHT LEAD BIDAULT (AP)

MOSCOW, MARCH 21-(AP)-FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT DISCLOSED TODAY THAT PREMIER STALIN HAD EXPRESSED TO HIM SOVIET OPPOSITION TO FRENCH INSISTENCE THAT THE FUTURE GERMAN NATION BE A LOOSE FEDERATION RATHER THAN THE HIGHLY CENTRALIZED STATE RUSSIA WANTS.

BIDAULT SAID STALIN TOOK THIS POSITION WHEN HE HAD A 95-MINUTE TALK WITH THE RUSSIAN LEADER LAST MONDAY.

THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER DESCRIBED HIS MEETING WITH STALIN AT A SPECIAL NEWS CONFERENCE FOR FRENCH CORRESPONDENTS. HE SAID IT WAS A "LONG AND CORDIAL TALK" INVOLVING DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RUSSIA AND FRANCE ON THE FUTURE OF GERMANY.

ASKED WHETHER HE HAD ANY PLANS TO SEE STALIN AGAIN--AS HAD BEEN RUMORED HERE--BIDAULT REPLIED THAT HE HAD NO SUCH PLANS ALTHOUGH OBVIOUSLY IF INVITED TO RETURN TO THE KREMLIN HE CERTAINLY WOULD DO SO. THUS FAR HE IS THE ONLY ONE OF THE VISITING FOREIGN MINISTERS TO HAVE SEEN STALIN.

REGARDING THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING IN WHICH FRANCE IS DEADLOCKED WITH BRITAIN OVER THE FUTURE OF GERMAN COAL, BIDAULT SAID HE WAS STRONGLY PERSUADED THAT "WE ARE GOING TO ARRIVE AT SOME SOLUTION."

QUESTIONERS WANTED TO KNOW WHAT PRESSURE FRANCE MIGHT USE TO MAKE HER ARGUMENTS CARRY WEIGHT. BIDAULT REPLIED IN GENERAL:

"IF, IN THE PRESENT STATE OF THE WORLD, THE INTERESTS OF FRANCE DO NOT SEEM TO OTHERS TO BE WORTH TAKING INTO ACCOUNT, THEN WE ARE IN A BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS. BUT I DO NOT THINK WE ARE IN THAT SITUATION."

HE MADE IT CLEAR THAT HE WAS STANDING FIRM ON HIS COAL POSITION AS WELL AS DEMANDS ON THE RUHR.

MOSCOW, MARCH 21-(AP)-GEORGES BIDAULT, FRANCE'S FOREIGN MINISTER, TOLD FRENCH CORRESPONDENTS TODAY THAT HIS "LONG AND CORDIAL TALK" WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN MONDAY NIGHT INVOLVED DISCUSSION OF THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RUSSIA AND FRANCE CONCERNING GERMANY'S FUTURE.

HE INFORMED THE FRENCH NEWSMEN AT A SPECIAL NEWS CONFERENCE THAT STALIN HAD EXPRESSED SOVIET OPPOSITION TO FRANCE'S INSISTENCE THAT THE FUTURE GERMAN NATION BE A LOOSE FEDERATION RATHER THAN A HIGHLY CENTRALIZED STATE, AS RUSSIA WANTS IT TO BE.

(THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN ALSO FAVOR A LOOSELY FEDERATED GERMAN NATION.)

ASKED WHETHER HE HAD ANY PLANS TO SEE STALIN AGAIN, AS HAS BEEN RUMORED HERE, BIDAULT SAID HE HAD NO SUCH IDEA IN MIND, BUT THAT, OBVIOUSLY, IF INVITED TO RETURN TO THE KREMLIN HE WOULD CERTAINLY GO. HE IS THE ONLY ONE OF THE THREE VISITING FOREIGN MINISTERS TO SEE STALIN THUS FAR.

SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL AND BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN HAVE BEEN HERE ALMOST TWO WEEKS NOW AND THERE IS NO KNOWN EVIDENCE TO INDICATE THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ASKED OR HAVE ASKED TO SEE THE SOVIET LEADER.

BIDAULT'S PRESS CONFERENCE WAS EXCLUSIVELY FOR FRENCH CORRESPONDENTS, BUT EVEN SO, IT WAS EVIDENT FROM A FIRST-HAND ACCOUNT OF THE GIVE AND TAKE THAT HE DISCUSSED HIS 95-MINUTE TALK WITH STALIN WITH GREAT

AS FOR THE GENERAL COAL DEADLOCK, BIDAULT SAID THAT HE BELIEVED THAT "WE ARE GOING TO ARRIVE AT SOME SOLUTION." HE WAS ASKED WHAT PRESSURE FRANCE MIGHT USE TO LEND WEIGHT TO HER ARGUMENT, AND REPLIED, IN GENERAL:

"IF IN THE PRESENT STATE OF THE WORLD THE INTERESTS OF FRANCE DO NOT SEEM TO THE OTHERS TO BE WORTH TAKING INTO ACCOUNT, THEN WE ARE IN A BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS, BUT I DO NOT THINK WE ARE IN THAT KIND OF SITUATION."

HE MADE IT DEFINITELY CLEAR THAT HE WAS STANDING FIRM ON HIS POSITION REGARDING GERMAN COAL, AS WELL AS ON HIS DEMANDS CONCERNING THE RUHR AND HIS OBJECTION TO ANY BIG INCREASE IN THE LEVEL OF GERMAN STEEL PRODUCTION.

HE SAID HE HAD NO PLANS TO RETURN TO PARIS IN CONNECTION WITH CURRENT POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS RESULTING FROM PREMIER PAUL RAMADIER'S DEMAND FOR A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN A SHOWDOWN WITH FRENCH COMMUNISTS.

MOSCOW, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE SUSPICION BEGAN CIRCULATING THROUGH THE RANK AND FILE OF DELEGATES TO THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS TODAY THAT THEY ARE GETTING DANGEROUSLY CLOSE TO BECOMING A BORE.

THE MUSCOVITES ARE USED TO THEM BY NOW. THEY HAVE ADJUSTED THEMSELVES TO THE COSTUMES OF THE BRITISH--WHO CLING TO THEIR ARCTIC GREATCOATS AND FUR HATS DESPITE A RUSSIAN THAW.

NO LONGER DOES AN AMERICAN GIRL CLERK WEARING A HANDKERCHIEF TO COVER HER HAIR, WHICH SHE IS SURE LOOKS VERY RUSSIAN, GET ANY GLANCES FROM THE RUSSIANS. NO MORE DO THE BAGGY, FLAPPING SLACKS OF THE FRENCH GIRLS GET MORE THAN A CURSORY SNEER FROM THE PEOPLE ALONG THE STREETS, WHO BELIEVE PANTS ARE FOR MEN, OR WOMEN WHEN THEY SKI.

YAWNS ARE BECOMING AS COMMON AMONG THE DELEGATES AS VODKA AND CHAMPAGNE HANGOVERS. YOU EVEN HEAR PEOPLE SAYING THEY ARE GETTING TIRED OF CAVIAR.

DECKS OF CARDS ARE BEING BROKEN OUT, AND LAST NIGHT THERE WAS A DEFINITE REPORT OF A PHRASE--"UP A DIME"--BEING HEARD ON ONE OF THE FLOORS OF THE MOSKVA HOTEL, ECHOING HERETOFORE WITH PONDEROUS OBSERVATIONS ABOUT REPARATIONS.

THE BIGGEST NEWS, HOWEVER, IS STILL THE NEWS THAT HASN'T HAPPENED--THE CONTEMPLATED MEETINGS OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN WITH SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL AND FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN.

LONDON, MARCH 21-(AP)-BRITAIN'S HARASSED LABOR GOVERNMENT TOOK A COUPLE OF MORE SLAPS LAST NIGHT.

THE OVERWHELMINGLY CONSERVATIVE HOUSE OF LORDS REBUKED THE GOVERNMENT, 119 TO 30, FOR THE "INADEQUACY" OF ITS EFFORTS TO COMBAT THE NATION'S ECONOMIC CRISIS.

KONNI ZILLIACUS, LEFT-WING LABOR PARTY MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS AND PERSISTENT CRITIC OF BRITISH FOREIGN POLICY, ACCUSED THE GOVERNMENT OF TEAMING UP WITH THE UNITED STATES AGAINST RUSSIA.

HE CHARGED THAT BRITAIN HAD ENTERED AN "ANGLO-AMERICAN ENTENTE AND AN ARMS TIE-UP FOR A BALANCE OF POWER AGAINST [redacted] RUSSIA AND ACCUSED THE GOVERNMENT OF "NOT GENUINELY AND FRANKLY BASING ITS POLICY ON THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE HOUSE OF LORDS, BEFORE VOTING FOR THE TENTH TIME IN 20 MONTHS AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT, HEARD OPPOSITION PEERS DECLARE THAT BRITAIN WAS "SINKING INTO A HELPLESS, HOPELESS COMA" AND FACING "POSITIVE BANKRUPTCY AND FAMINE" BECAUSE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S "INADEQUACY."

PARLIAMENTARY OBSERVERS SAID THE ADVERSE VOTE WOULD NOT PRECIPITATE A GOVERNMENT CRISIS, SINCE THE HOUSE OF LORDS IS VIRTUALLY POWERLESS, AND THE DEFEAT WAS REGARDED AS RELATIVELY UNIMPORTANT.

ZILLIACUS' ACCUSATION FOLLOWED A SPEECH BY DEFENSE MINISTER A. V. ALEXANDER, IN WHICH HE TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT THE UNITED NATIONS WAS STILL TOO WEAK FOR BRITAIN TO REDUCE HER ARMED FORCES BELOW A STRENGTH OF 1,772,000.

"IF THE GOVERNMENT BASED ITS POLICY ON THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION AND CHARTER AND IN EQUAL CONFIDENCE AND FRIENDSHIP WITH BOTH THE SOVIET UNION AND THE UNITED STATES," ZILLIACUS SAID, "THEN THERE IS NO SENSE WHATEVER IN OUR PRESENT MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AND OUR DEFENSE ARRANGEMENTS ARE OUT OF ALL PROPORTION TO OUR NECESSITIES.

"A BALANCE OF POWER IS NOT ONLY A CRVL POLICY END

"A BALANCE OF POWER IS NOT ONLY A CRIMINAL POLICY ENDING IN WAR, BUT FROM BRITAIN'S POINT OF VIEW IT IS A MUG'S GAME. (ADVANCE)-LONDON, MARCH 21-(AP)-BRITAIN'S COAL MINERS, THE NUMBER ONE MEN IN THE NATION'S DRIVE FOR ECONOMIC RECOVERY, PRODUCED MORE COAL LAST MONTH THAN THEY DID IN FEBRUARY, 1946, DESPITE THE WORST WINTER WEATHER IN MORE THAN 50 YEARS.

AVERAGE WEEKLY OUTPUT FROM BOTH DEEP SHAFT AND STRIP MINES LAST MONTH, THE MINISTRY OF FUEL AND POWER REPORTED TODAY, WAS 3,777,300 TONS, COMPARED WITH AN AVERAGE WEEKLY PRODUCTION OF 3,606,600 TONS IN FEBRUARY, 1946.

PRODUCTION LAST MONTH ALSO TOPPED THAT FOR JANUARY, THE FIRST MONTH OF NATIONAL OWNERSHIP OF THE MINING INDUSTRY, BY 704,000 TONS, THE REPORT SAID.

THE MINISTRY ESTIMATED WEEKLY LOSSES DUE TO THE WEATHER AVERAGED 121,500 TONS.

AT THE RATE OF PRODUCTION IN FEBRUARY, WHEN SNOW AND COLD SNARLED RAIL TRANSPORT AND FORCED MANY MINERS INTO IDLENESS, TOTAL OUTPUT FOR THE YEAR WOULD BE ONLY ABOUT 300,000 TONS SHORT OF THE 200,000,000 TON GOAL SET BY THE GOVERNMENT.

PROVISIONAL FIGURES FOR THE WEEK ENDED MARCH 15, HOWEVER, INDICATE PRODUCTION DROPPED TO 3,706,000 TONS.

THE GOVERNMENT'S GOAL IS AN EXPORT RATE OF 140 PERCENT BY THE END OF 1947, WITH AN ULTIMATE TARGET OF 175 PERCENT, DEEMED NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN THE BRITISH STANDARD OF LIVING. IN RECENT MONTHS THE PERCENTAGE HAS RANGED BETWEEN 110 AND 115.

A BOARD OF TRADE SPOKESMAN SAID THE FACT THAT FEBRUARY IS A SHORT MONTH ACCOUNTED FOR TWO THIRDS OF THE DECLINE FROM THE JANUARY PERCENTAGE OF 112.

"ALTHOUGH TRANSPORT AND SHIPPING WERE AFFECTED BY BAD WEATHER IN FEBRUARY, THE FALL IN PRODUCTION DUE TO THE FUEL CRISIS IS NOT YET REFLECTED IN THE FEBRUARY EXPORT FIGURES OWING TO THE TIME LAG WHICH OCCURS BETWEEN MANUFACTURE AND FINAL SHIPMENT," THE BOARD SAID.

THE FIGURES ALSO SHOWED THAT DURING FEBRUARY IMPORTS TOTALLED $450,000,000, WHICH WAS $35,600,000 LESS THAN THE JANUARY TOTAL. THUS, BECAUSE FEBRUARY WAS A SHORTER MONTH, THE DAILY RATE OF IMPORTS LAST MONTH WAS HIGHER THAN IN JANUARY.

NIGHT LEAD FRENCH (350)

BY JOSEPH E.DYNAN

PARIS, MARCH 21-(AP)-HOPE FOR A SOLUTION TO THE BUDDING FRENCH GOVERNMENTAL CRISIS SOARED TONIGHT FOLLOWING A CONFERENCE BETWEEN SOCIALIST PREMIER PAUL RAMADIER AND COMMUNIST LEADER MAURICE THOREZ.

THE CONFERENCE WAS HELD ON THE EVE OF TOMORROW'S MEETING OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TO CONSIDER RAMADIER'S REQUEST MILITARY BUDGET FOR OPERATIONS IN INDOCHINA, AND A MOTION OF CONFIDENCE IN HIS CABINET.

REGARDLESS OF COMMUNIST ACTION BOTH WERE VIRTUALLY CERTAIN TO PASS BY LARGE MAJORITIES, BUT RAMADIER HAS DECLARED HE WILL QUIT THE GOVERNMENT IF ALL PARTIES DO NOT SUPPORT THE CABINET'S POLICIES.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE DECLARED THEY WILL ABSTAIN FROM VOTING ON THE MATTER OF MILITARY CREDITS, AND PRESUMABLY ON THE VOTE OF CONFIDENCE. THOREZ WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE DISCUSSED A POSSIBLE COMPROMISE WITH RAMADIER AT TONIGHT'S MEETING.

RAMADIER TOLD HIS OWN PARTY MEMBERS THAT HE WAS ATTEMPTING TO REACH AGREEMENT WITH THE COMMUNISTS. "ALL BRIDGES ARE NOT YET BURNED," HE SAID.

THE COMMUNIST PARTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE WAS SCHEDULED TO MEET LATE TONIGHT AND POLITICAL INFORMANTS SAID A DECISION MIGHT BE REACHED WHICH WOULD EITHER PLUNGE THE NATION INTO A LONG DOMESTIC WRANGLE OR PRESERVE AN OUTWARD SHOW OF UNITY DURING THE FOUR POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE IN MOSCOW.

THE COMMITTEE GIVES DIRECTIONS TO ITS MEMBERS IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. IT HAD DECIDED EARLIER TO ABSTAIN FROM SUPPORTING RAMADIER'S INDOCHINA POLICIES, CONSIDERING THAT STEP A CONCESSION IN THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE NOT VOTING AGAINST RAMADIER.

WILD RUMORS OF IMPENDING CIVIL STRIFE CIRCULATED IN PARIS, LENDING A FEELING OF URGENCY TO PRESIDENT VINCENT AURIOL'S EFFORTS TO BRIDGE THE GAP BETWEEN THE COMMUNISTS AND OTHER PARTIES ON THE INDOCHINA PROBLEM.

ONE UNVERIFIED REPORT WAS THAT ALL RESERVE OFFICERS HAD BEEN CAUTIONED AGAINST UNNECESSARY JOURNEYS AND TO STAND READY FOR SUMMONS AT ANY TIME. OTHER RUMORS OF A COMMUNIST UPRISING WERE FOUNDED APPARENTLY ON POLICE DISCOVERY OF A CACHE OF ARMS IN SUBURBAN GENNEVILLIERS, A HEAVILY COMMUNIST DISTRICT.

THE SOCIALIST PARTY NATIONAL COUNCIL ADOPTED A SERIES OF RESOLUTIONS INTERPRETED AS CONCILIATORY TO THE COMMUNISTS.

THESE COINCIDED WITH A NEW "PEACE OFFER" FROM VIET-NAMESE QUARTERS CALLING FOR PROMPT MUTUAL CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES IN INDOCHINA AND NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE "MOST REPRESENTATIVE" ELEMENTS WITHIN THE VIET-NAM REPUBLIC.

MAR 1947

NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE "MOST REPRESENTATIVE" ELEMENTS WITHIN THE VIET-NAM REPUBLIC.

THIS LATEST PROPOSAL CAME FROM TRAN NGCOC-DANH, CHIEF OF THE SEMI-OFFICIAL VIET-NAMESE DELEGATION IN PARIS, WHO ASKED "INDEPENDENCE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE FRENCH UNION."

AT SAIGON, A HIGHLY PLACED VIET-NAMESE LEADER SAID THE INDOCHINA NATIONALISTS WERE "NATURALLY DISPOSED TO NEGOTIATE WITH FRANCE" AND THAT THE LETTER CIRCULATED AMONG MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT BY TRAN NGCOC-DANH WAS AN AUTHENTIC PROPOSAL FROM VIET-NAM PRESIDENT HO CHI MINH.

JACQUES DUCLOS, COMMUNIST PARTY SECRETARY AND LEADER OF COMMUNIST DEPUTIES IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, REPEATED TONIGHT THE COMMUNIST DEMAN FOR NEGOTIATIONS WITH HO CHI MINH IN A SPEECH AT MONTELIMAR.

"AS FAR AS WE ARE CONCERNED," HE SAID, "WE WANT A NEGOTIATION POLICY, WHICH IS THE ONLY ONE CAPABLE OF SAFEGUARDING THE INTERESTS OF THE FRENCH UNION. IT IS THIS DESIRE THAT WE WILL EXPRESS TOMORROW DURING THE VOTE ON MILITARY CREDITS FOR INDOCHINA."

BATAVIA, JAVA, MARCH 21-(AP)-COURT PROCEEDINGS AT PORTS IN EUROPE AND AMERICA TO RECOVER THE $3,000,000 CARGO OF THE AMERICAN LIBERTY SHIP MARTIN BEHRMAN WERE RECOMMENDED TODAY TO THE SHIP'S OPERATORS, THE ISBRANDTSEN COMPANY OF NEW YORK, BY ITS ATTORNEY HERE, JAMES RYAN.

RYAN SENT A CABLE TO NEW YORK SAYING THE BEHRMAN'S CARGO WAS BEING RELOADED ON DUTCH, BRITISH AND AMERICAN SHIPS SAILING FROM THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES. HE URGED THE COMPANY TO CLAIM IT AT ITS VARIOUS PORTS OF DESTINATION ON THE GROUND THAT IT WAS ILLEGALLY SEIZED BY DUTCH AUTHORITIES HERE AFTER IT HAD BEEN PLACED ABOARD THE BEHRMAN.

THE BEHRMAN, LOADED WITH RUBBER, SUGAR, CHICHONA BARK (QUININE), SISAL (HEMP) AND OTHER JAVANESE PRODUCTS AT THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC CONTROLLED PORT OF CHERIBON, WAS BROUGHT TO BATAVIA UNDER ARMED ESCORT BY THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES NAVY SEVERAL WEEKS AGO AND THE CARGO REMOVED.

RYAN SAID HE HAD DEFINITE INFORMATION THAT THE CARGO TAKEN FROM THE BEHRMAN HERE IN WHAT HE TERMED "ILLEGAL CONFISCATION" WAS BEING RELABELED "PRODUCE OF THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES" AND BEING SHIPPED ABROAD IN SMALL LOTS TO PREVENT ITS IDENTIFICATION AS PART OF THE BEHRMAN'S CARGO AND MAKE RECLAMATION IMPOSSIBLE.

HE RECOMMENDED THAT LEGAL ACTION BY THE ISBRANDTSEN COMPANY COVER ALL SUCH CARGOES CARRIED FROM THE EAST INDIES BY SHIPS SAILING ON OR AFTER MARCH 7.

CREW MEMBERS OF THE ISTHMIAN LINE FREIGHTER BUCYRUS VICTORY TOLD HIM, RYAN SAID, THAT PART OF THE BEHRMAN CARGO HAD BEEN PLACED ABOARD THEIR VESSEL FOR SHIPMENT TO SAN FRANCISCO.

INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN GROUPS WHO CONSIGNED THE CARGO FROM CHERIBON CLAIMED IT WAS NATIVE PROPERTY AS IT HAD BEEN PRODUCED DURING AND SINCE THE WAR, BUT DUTCH AUTHORITIES CONTENDED IT WAS "LOOTED" FROM PLANTATIONS IN JAVA STILL LEGALLY OWNED BY EUROPEANS.

THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT ALSO DEFENDED SEIZURE OF THE CARGO ON THE GROUND THAT THE DUTCH ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR EXPORT FROM THE INDIES OF PRODUCTS SUCH AS RUBBER AND SUGAR WHICH ARE INTERNATIONALLY CONTROLLED.

GUATEMALA, GUATEMALA, MARCH 21-(AP)-JAMES A.FARLEY, FORMER UNITED STATES POSTMASTER GENERAL, SAID IN A RADIO INTERVIEW HERE TODAY THAT HE DID NOT FEAR WAR WITH RUSSIA BECAUSE RUSSIA WAS NOT IN A POSITION TO FIGHT NOW.

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HE BELIEVED THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' COUNCIL MEETING AT MOSCOW WAS THE LAST CHANCE FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ENDURING PEACE.

FARLEY, NOW ON A LATIN AMERICAN TOUR DURING WHICH HE IS INTERVIEWING BOTH POLITICAL LEADERS AND BUSINESSMEN, SAID HE BELIEVED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ADMINISTRATION WAS CARRYING OUT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY EFFICIENTLY BUT THAT IT COULD BE AMPLIFIED.

THE FORMER NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CHAIRMAN SAID HE DID NOT CONSIDER MR.TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL OF AMERICAN AID FOR GREECE AND TURKEY A CHANGE OF FOREIGN POLICY, BUT A STRENGTHENING OF EXISTING POLICY.

TURNING TO UNITED STATES DOMESTIC AFFAIRS, FARLEY ASSERTED THAT MR.TRUMAN COULD BE THE DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE IN 1948 IF HE CHOSE TO SEEK RE-ELECTION. HE SAID IT WAS TOO EARLY TO PREDICT ACCURATELY THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE, BUT HE THOUGHT THE REPUBLICANS WOULD NAME GOV. HE OBSERVED THAT ALTHOUGH A UNITED STATES PRESIDENT NEVER HAD BEEN VOTED OUT OF OFFICE DURING A PERIOD OF PROSPERITY, THE OPPOSITION'S GAINING CONTROL OF CONGRESS IN A PRECEDING ELECTION USUALLY FORESHADOWED THE OPPOSITION'S VICTORY IN THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. U.N.

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 21-(AP)-ONE OF THE GREATEST OBSTACLES FACED BY THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY IN THE FIELD OF LONG-RANGE ECONOMIC PLANNING IS THE RELUCTANCE OF SOVIET RUSSIA TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SPECIALIZED AGENCIES DESIGNED TO COORDINATE AND IMPROVE WORLD ECONOMY.

SOME DELEGATES TO THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL STATE FRANKLY IN PRIVATE CONVERSATION THAT THIS EVENTUALLY MAY BE AS IMPORTANT TO THE FUTURE OF THE U.N. AS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST TO CONGRESS FOR $400,000,000 DIRECT AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY.

THEY POINT OUT THAT RUSSIA'S POSITION HAS ATTRACTED VERY LITTLE NOTICE, SINCE IT HAS DEVELOPED OVER A LONG PERIOD OF TIME, BUT THAT HER RELUCTANCE TO TAKE PART FULLY IN WORLD ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES IS SERIOUSLY HANDICAPPING MANY ORGANIZATIONS.

ON THE OTHER HAND, IT WAS SAID, THE UNITED STATES IS PLAYING AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN ALL OF THESE ORGANIZATIONS DESPITE FEARS EXPRESSED IN SOME QUARTERS THAT THIS COUNTRY IS VEERING TOWARD ECONOMIC NATIONALISM.

RUSSIA HAS REFUSED TO JOIN SUCH KEY ORGANIZATIONS AS THE INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT, THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, THE FOOD AND AGRICULTURAL ORGANIZATION AND THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION.

SHE ALSO HAS REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PRELIMINARY WORK TO SET UP A WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION, WHICH WOULD HAVE JURISDICTION OVER SUCH MATTERS AS TARIFFS, INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT, RESTRICTIVE BUSINESS PRACTICES AND INTERNATIONAL COMMODITY ARRANGEMENTS.

THE UNITED STATES IS NOT ONLY A MEMBER OF ALL THESE ORGANIZATIONS, BUT HAS TAKEN THE LEADERSHIP IN SETTING THEM UP AND FINANCING THEIR ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.

WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS ITSELF, IN SUCH ORGANIZATIONS AS THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL AND THE ECONOMIC AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION, RUSSIA HAS TAKEN AN ACTIVE ROLE, BUT NO MAJOR PROPOSAL IN THE ECONOMIC FIELD HAS YET BEEN INITIATED BY A SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE IN ANY OF THESE BODIES.

THE UNITED STATES HAS ORIGINATED MANY PROPOSALS.

IT WAS THE UNITED STATES, FOR EXAMPLE, ALONG WITH BRITAIN, WHICH PRESSED HARDEST FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ECONOMIC COMMISSION TO AID IN THE RECONSTRUCTION OF THE WAR-DEVASTATED AREAS OF EUROPE. THE UNITED STATES ALSO SUPPORTED CREATION OF A SIMILAR COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST.

SINCE THE UNITED STATES WILL BE A MEMBER OF BOTH COMMISSIONS IT WILL NOT ONLY TAKE AN ACTIVE PART IN REHABILITATING THE WAR-DAMAGED COUNTRIES, BUT EVENTUALLY WILL HAVE A SAY IN THE LONG-TERM ECONOMIC PLANNING FOR THOSE REGIONS. AS THE CHIEF BACKER OF THE INTERNATIONAL BANK, SHE ALSO WILL HAVE A BIG VOICE IN FINANCING RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS.

LAST SUMMER RUSSIA VIGOROUSLY OPPOSED EFFORTS TO CREATE AN ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE ON THE GROUNDS THAT IT PLACED TOO MUCH EMPHASIS ON LONG-TERM PLANNING AND NOT ENOUGH ON THE IMMEDIATE PROBLEM OF RECONSTRUCTION. SHE FINALLY AGREED TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMISSION, HOWEVER, AFTER THE COUNCIL DECIDED EARLY THIS MONTH THAT THE COMMISSION SHOULD CONCENTRATE FOR THE PRESENT, AT LEAST, ON RECONSTRUCTION. SHE ALSO AGREED TO THE CREATION OF A SIMILAR COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST.

SOME DELEGATES PROFESSED TO SEE THIS REVERSAL OF SOVIET POSITION AS AN INDICATION THAT RUSSIA MIGHT YET TAKE A MORE ACTIVE PART IN U.N. ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 21-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS PRESS DIVISION, A PART OF THE SECRETARIAT, DENIED TONIGHT A GREEK LIAISON OFFICER'S CHARGES THAT A REPORT CABLED HERE BY U.N. PRESS OFFICER STANLEY RYAN SHOWED BIAS AGAINST THE GREEK GOVERNMENT.

THE PRESS DIVISION EXPRESSED "UTMOST CONFIDENCE" IN RYAN, WHO WAS SENT BY THE SECRETARIAT TO HANDLE PRESS ACCOMMODATIONS FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL COMMISSION INVESTIGATING GREEK BORDER STRIFE AND TO CABLE HIS ON DISPATCHES FOR RELEASE HERE.

ALEXIS KYROU, IN A LETTER TO THE COMMISSION IN GREECE, CHARGED THAT RYAN WAS "SCANDALOUSLY BIASED" AND "IN SOME CASES SUCCEEDED IN FALSIFYING THE TRUTH IN AN UNDERHANDED WAY."

THE STATEMENT ISSUED HERE BY GEORGE BARNES, DIRECTOR OF THE PRESS DIVISION, SAID:

"THE UNITED NATIONS HAS RECEIVED NO OFFICIAL COMPLAINT FROM ANY SOURCE REGARDING MR.RYAN OR HIS WORK.

"IN CONNECTION WITH NEWS REPORTS FROM SALONIKA, HOWEVER, A CAREFUL REVIEW OF THE CABLES RECEIVED FROM MR.RYAN REVEALS NO EVIDENCE WHATEVER TO SUPPORT CHARGES OF PARTIALITY OR BIAS ON HIS PART.

"DURING THE PAST YEAR, MR.RYAN HAS DISTINGUISHED HIMSELF BY THE OBJECTIVITY OF HIS REPORTS ON THE WORK OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, THE COMMITTEE ON SPAIN, AND OTHER BODIES DEALING WITH MATTERS OF A HIGHLY CONTROVERSIAL NATURE. NO QUESTION OF HIS IMPARTIALITY HAS EVER BEEN RAISED; ON THE CONTRARY, CORRESPONDENTS REGULARLY COVERING THE UNITED NATIONS HAVE REPEATEDLY EXPRESSED THEIR APPRECIATION OF HIS ACCURACY AND OBJECTIVITY.

"I HAVE THE UTMOST CONFIDENCE IN MR.RYAN'S OBJECTIVITY AND FAIRNESS AS AN INTERNATIONAL CIVIL SERVANT AND IN HIS ABILITY TO REMAIN IMPARTIAL."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 21-(AP)-UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WAS QUOTED ERRONEOUSLY TODAY AS SAYING THAT A COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT ANYWHERE WOULD ENDANGER THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES.

THE MISUNDERSTANDING AROSE DURING HIS QUESTIONING BY REP.JUDD (R-MINN) AT THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE HEARING. THE QUESTIONING WENT THUS:

JUDD: "I UNDERSTAND OUR MAJOR REASON FOR PROPOSING AND ADOPTING THIS LEGISLATION (AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY) IS OUR BELIEF THAT IT WOULD BE DANGEROUS TO THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES TO HAVE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENTS DEVELOPING IN GREECE AND TURKEY, IS THAT CORRECT?"

ACHESON: "THAT IS CORRECT."

JUDD: "WELL, WOULD IT OR WOULD IT NOT BE DANGEROUS TO THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES TO HAVE A COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT ON THE PACIFIC IN CHINA?"

ACHESON: "I THINK WE SHOULD NOT LOOK WITH FAVOR UPON THAT."

IT WAS AT THAT POINT THAT SOME REPORTERS UNDERSTOOD ACHESON TO REFER TO COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENTS ANYWHERE, BUT EXAMINATION OF THE TRANSCRIPT ESTABLISHED OTHERWISE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT, TOO, LATER ISSUED A DENIAL.

(350) NIGHT LEAD EUROPE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 21-(AP)-A RESOLUTION DESIGNED TO GIVE OFFICIAL AMERICAN ENCOURAGEMENT TO A PLAN FOR A "UNITED STATES OF EUROPE" PATTERNED AFTER THE GOVERNMENT OF THIS COUNTRY WAS INTRODUCED TODAY IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

SENATORS FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) AND ELBERT THOMAS (D-UTAH) AND REP. BOGGS (D-LA) SPONSORED IT. THE RESOLUTION WOULD PUT CONGRESS ON RECORD AS FAVORING "THE CREATION OF A UNITED STATES OF EUROPE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE RESOLUTION MAKES NO PROPOSALS AS TO HOW THE PLAN SHOULD BE BROUGHT ABOUT OR AS TO WHAT THE ROLE OF RUSSIA OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY SHOULD BE. NEITHER WOULD IT COMMIT THE UNITED STATES TO ANYTHING BEYOND THE EXPRESSION OF CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL.

FULBRIGHT TOLD AN INTERVIEWER HE ASSUMES RUSSIA WOULD NOT BE INTERESTED IN JOINING THE PROPOSED FEDERATION BUT THERE IS NO INTENT TO EXCLUDE THE SOVIETS. HE NOTED THAT RUSSIA HAD MADE IT CLEAR IN UNITED NATIONS DEBATES THAT IT WOULD NOT AGREE TO ANY INFRINGEMENT OF ITS SOVEREIGNTY.

PROPOSALS FOR A UNITED STATES OF EUROPE HAVE BEEN ADVOCATED FOR YEARS. THE IDEA WAS FORMALLY ADVANCED BY THE LATE FRENCH PREMIER ARISTIDE BRIAND AT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN 1929 BUT NOTHING CAME OF IT. PRESENT-DAY ADVOCATES INCLUDE WINSTON CHURCHILL, WARTIME BRITISH PRIME MINISTER.

BOGGS SAID THAT "A FEDERATED EUROPE MAY ONCE HAVE SEEMED AN IDLE DREAM BUT TODAY IT IS IDLE TO DREAM OF ANY OTHER SOLUTION" TO CURRENT PROBLEMS. HE QUOTED AN EDITORIAL FROM THE NEW ORLEANS ITEM URGING THE PROPOSAL AND DECLARING THAT THE POLICY OF "MERELY OPPOSING RUSSIAN EXPANSION" IS "NEGATIVE" AND "OFFERS NO PERMANENT RELIEF."

"ALL THROUGHTFUL AMERICANS AGREE," BOGGS SAID, "THAT EUROPE MUST BE RECONSTITUTED, AND RECONSTITUTED AS A UNIT IF THE WORLD IS TO HAVE PEACE."

FULBRIGHT TOLD NEWSMEN HE HAD NOT DISCUSSED THE PROPOSAL WITH SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS LEADERS NOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT BUT "IT IS APPROPRIATE FOR THE CONGRESS AND THE PEOPLE TO CONSIDER IT FOR MANY OF THE SAME REASONS THAT WE ARE CALLED UPON TO SPEND BILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN GERMANY, IN GREECE, IN TURKEY AND LEND BILLIONS IN OTHER LANDS".

HE SAID A "FEDERATION OF EUROPEAN STATES IS ONE OF THE ESSENTIAL CONDITIONS" FOR ENDING SUCH EXPENDITURES AND OBTAINING PEACE.

CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL, FULBRIGHT SAID, "WOULD NOT MEAN THAT WE SHALL UNDERTAKE TO IMPOSE FEDERATION UPON EUROPE," BUT WOULD "GIVE ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE FORCES ALREADY AT WORK IN EUROPE STRIVING TO BRING AN END TO THE SUSPICION, THE HATRED AND THE CONFUSION."

YUGOSLAVIA (210)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS INFORMED YUGOSLAVIA IT WILL NEITHER SHARE IN A PENDING $350,000,000 RELIEF PROGRAM FOR EUROPE AND CHINA NOR BE PERMITTED TO BUY 100,000 TONS OF GRAIN IN THIS COUNTRY.

THE DEPARTMENT CITED AS ITS REASONS DOUBTS THAT YUGOSLAVIA (1) HAS A GENUINE NEED OF HELP OR (2) WOULD DISTRIBUTE SUPPLIES EFFICIENTLY AND WITHOUT POLITICAL DISCRIMINATION.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT CAME IN ANSWER TO A REQUEST BY THE YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR FOR INFORMATION ON WHAT MARSHAL TITO'S COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT MIGHT EXPECT TO RECEIVE FROM THE RELIEF FUND IF IT IS APPROVED BY CONGRESS. THE GRAIN INQUIRY CAME BY WAY OF THE U.S. EMBASSY IN BELGRADE.

THE RELIEF MONEY HAS BEEN EARMARKED FOR GREECE, ITALY, POLAND, HUNGARY, AUSTRIA AND CHINA.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ADVISED THE AMBASSADOR YESTERDAY THAT "THE UNITED STATES IS IN POSITION TO GRANT FREE RELIEF ONLY TO THOSE COUNTRIES HAVING THE GREATEST NEED."

IT SAID THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV NEWS AGENCY HAS REPORTED THAT NATION'S BREAD RATION IS HIGHER THAN IN FRANCE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, PLLAND AND SWITZERLAND; YUGOSLAVIA HAS SHIPPED GRAIN TO ROMANIA AND ALBANIA AND NEGOTIATED FOR FOOD EXPORTS ELSEWHERE AND YUGOSLAVIA WILL RECEIVE FARM PRODUCTS AS REPARATIONS UNDER PEACE TREATIES WITH BULGARIA AND HUNGARY.

THE DEPARTMENT CONCLUDED THAT WITH "GOOD ADMINISTRATION" OF THE FOOD IT HAS, YUGOSLAVIA WOULD HAVE NO NEED OF OUTSIDE HELP.

AS FOR THE GRAIN, THE DEPARTMENT SAID PRESENT U.S.STOCKS AND COMMITMENTS DO NOT PERMIT ANY SHIPMENTS TO YUGOSLAVIA FOR THE NEXT TWO OR THREE MONTHS.

"IT IS OUR INTENTION TO PUBLISH THE FULL TEXTS OF THE YALTA AND POTSDAM AGREEMENTS WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS."

NO MENTION WAS MADE OF TEHRAN.

MUNDT, MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, HAS BEEN PRESSING ACHESON FOR TWO DAYS FOR THE "FULL TEXTS" OF THE THREE AGREEMENTS. (400) WASHINGTON,MARCH 21-(AP)-FRANCIS B.SAYRE, U.S.HIGH COMMISSIONER TO THE PHILIPPINES WHEN THE JAPANESE ATTACKED IN 1941, TODAY URGED CONGRESS TO COMPENSATE CIVILIAN AMERICANS THERE WHO SUFFERED PERSONAL INJURY AT THE HANDS OF THE INVADERS.

SAYRE SENT A LETTER TO THE HOUSE INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE COMMITTEE WHICH IS CONSIDERING LEGISLATION TO ASSIST THESE AMERICANS. SAYRE SAID IN SUPPORT OF HIS REQUEST THAT NO OFFICIAL NOTICE WAS GIVEN TO THEM TO LEAVE BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF WAR AND THAT AS A RESULT "AMERICAN CIVILIANS FOUND THEMSELVES ENTRAPPED IN THE PHILIPPINES WITH NO WAY OF ESCAPE."

SAYRE SAID THAT DURING THE MONTHS IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE JAPANESE ATTACK ON PEARL HARBOR, "I SERIOUSLY DEBATED IN MY OWN MIND THE ISSUING OF SUCH A NOTICE, BUT MY ADVICE FROM WASHINGTON WAS NOT TO DO SO."

"MANY AMERICAN CIVILIANS THUS TRAPPED BY THE JAPANESE SUFFERED PITIABLY AT THEIR HANDS," SAYRE STATED. "I URGE THAT CONGRESS TAKE SUCH ACTION AS IS APPROPRIATE FOR THE RELIEF OF THOSE AMERICAN CIVILIANS STILL IN DISTRESS AS A RESULT OF THEIR INJURIES AND LOSSES SUFFERED IN THE PHILIPPINES."

HIS LETTER WAS READ TO THE COMMITTEE BY POWELL R.DANNER, AMERICAN BUSINESSMAN IN MANILA WHO WAS AMONG THE AMERICANS TRAPPED THERE BY THE JAPANESE.

THE COMMITTEE IS CONSIDERING A BILL BY REP.HINSHAW (R-CALIF) TO CREATE A ENEMY PROPERTY COMMISSION TO COMPENSATE CIVILIAN CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES WHO SUFFERED LOSS, DAMAGE OR INJURY FROM THE JAPANESE IN ALASKA, GUAM, PHILIPPINES OR WAKE ISLAND. IT WOULD DRAW ON FUNDS AND ASSETS OF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT OR ITS NATIONALS HELD IN THIS COUNTRY.

ANOTHER WITNESS WAS ROY C.BENNETT, EDITOR OF THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, MANILA DAILY BULLETIN, AT THE TIME THE JAPANESE ENTERED MANILA.

BENNETT WAS ARRESTED WITHIN THREE HOURS AFTER THE JAPANESE ENTRY THERE.

IN URGING THAT AMERICAN CIVILIANS SUCH AS HIMSELF BE GRANTED COMPENSATION FROM JAPANESE ASSETS IN THE U.S., BENNETT SAID:

"I WAS A POLITICAL PRISONER FOR SIXTEEN MONTH, 389 DAYS OF THAT TIME SPENT IN A CELL OF TORTURE. MAGNUSON HAD ASKED THE GENERAL IF THE ARMY WOULD AID IN KEEPING THE CUTOFF OPEN IF IT IS CLOSED MARCH 25 BY THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT.

THE CUTOFF, BUILT BY THE ARMY, RUNS FROM HAINES, ALASKA, THROUGH CANADA TO THE ALASKA HIGHWAY, WHICH LEADS TO THE INTERIOR OF THE TERRITORY.

"AS YOU KNOW, THE ALASKA HIGHWAY WAS BUILT TO PROVIDE AN OVERLAND ROUTE OF SUPPLY TO ALASKA DURING A PERIOD WHEN SEA ROUTES TO THAT TERRITORY WERE THREATENED BY ENEMY ACTION", EISENHOWER WROTE TO THE SENATOR.

"IN ORDER TO UTILIZE THE PROTECTED INSIDE PASSAGE WATER ROUTE IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ALASKA HIGHWAY THE WAR DEPARTMENT CONSTRUCTED A PORT AT HAINES, ALASKA, WITH A CONNECTING ROAD TO THE ALASKA HIGHWAY, KNOWN AS THE HAINES CUT-OFF.

"THE OVERALL VALUE OF SUCH AN ALTERNATE ROUTE OF COMMUNICATION DURIN WORLD WAR 11 JUSTIFIED ITS CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE.

"IN PEACETIME, HOWEVER, THE INTEREST OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT IN HAINES CUT-OFF IS CONCERNED SOLELY WITH ITS STRAGETIC VALUE.

"CONSIDERING THIS VIEW POINT ONLY, I AM SORRY TO INFORM YOU THAT THE WAR DEPARTMENT WOULD NOT FEEL JUSTIFIED AT THIS TIME IN PARTICIPATING IN THE MAINTENANCE OF THE HAINES CUT-OFF ROAD."

THE SOURCE OF THE REPORT WAS NOT GIVEN.

THE TIMES' STORY, WRITTEN FROM WASHINGTON BY JAMES RESTON, SAID THE IMMEDIATE MILITARY OBJECTIVE OF THE ARMED BANDS WAS TO ESTABLISH A CORRIDOR FROM THE ALBANIAN BORDER EAST TO THE MOUNT OLYMPUS AREA ON THE AEGEAN SEA. THE REPORT SAID THAT "ESTABLISHMENT OF SUCH A CORRIDOR WOULD CUT GREECE PROPER IN HALF, WOULD PERMIT RELATIVE FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT FOR THE BANDS AND WOULD SEVER THE GREEK GOVERNMENT'S LINES OF COMMUNICATIONS."

"REPORTS OF MANY ATROCITIES HAVE BEEN RECEIVED AND INVESTIGATED, WITH THE RESULTING CONCLUSION THAT SUCH ATROCITIES DEFINITELY WERE COMMITTED BY THE BANDS DURING THEIR BATTLES," THE UNNAMED SOURCE SAID. "MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN HAVE BEEN KILLED."

ANOTHER SECTION OF THE REPORT SAID:

"ARMED BANDS COPERATING IN GREECE ARE OF TWO DIFFERENT TYPES. THE MOST EXTENSIVE ACTIVITY IS CARRIED ON BY BANDS TAKING ORDERS FROM THE GREEK COMMUNIST PARTY, OR KKE, WHOSE STATED PURPOSE IS X X X TO DISPLACE THE GREEK CIVIL AND MILITARY AUTHORITY WITH A COMMUNIST SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT. ACTIVITIES OF KKE BANDS ARE PRINCIPALLY CONFINED TO GREECE ITSELF, ALTHOUGH THERE IS SOME EVIDENCE THAT THEIR OPERATIONS ARE DIRECTED FROM OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY.

"ANOTHER TYPE OF ARMED BAND IS THAT CONTROLLED BY THE NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT, OR NOF, WITH HEADQUARTERS OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY. THIS IS A COMMUNIST-DOMINATED ORGANIZATION, OSTENSIBLY COMPOSED SOLELY OF DISPLACED GREEKS, WHOSE STATED AIM IS TO 'LIBERATE' GREEK MACEDONIA AND TO COMBINE THAT AREA WITH SECTIONS OF YUGOSLAV MACEDONIA, AND POSSIBLY OF ALBANIAN AND BULGARIAN MACEDONIA, TO FORM A 'FREE MACEDONIAN STATE,' WHICH, IN ALL PROBABILITY, WOULD BE A YUGOSLAV FEDERATED MACEDONIAN STATE.

"X X X INFORMATION INDICATES THAT THE TWO ORGANIZATIONS HAVE 'TEAMED UP' AND ARE WORKING IN HARMONY UNTIL THEY ARE VICTORIOUS IN GREECE. WHEN THAT TIME COMES, THEY HOPE TO SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES."

REFERRING TO BRITISH TROOPS, THE REPORT SAID THEY "TAKE NO ACTION TO ENGAGE ANY OF THE BANDS OR ASSIST THE GREEKS BY FURNISHING TROOPS TO DISTURB THE DISTURBERS. THIS ATTITUDE OF THE BRITISH HAS RESULTED IN A SLIGHT LOWERING OF THEIR PRESTIGE IN GREECE X X X ."

SAN FRANCISCO,MARCH 21-(AP)-A SURPRISE ATOM BOMB ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES WOULD BRING DEATH TO THE AGGRESSOR THROUGH RETALIATION, AND ALL-OUT ATOMIC WAR COULD POISON THE EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE AND SEAL THE DOOM OF HUMANITY, DR.STAFFORD WARREN, TOP AUTHORITY ON RADIOLOGICAL SAFETY, ASSERTED TODAY.

THE AGGRESSOR WOULD HAVE TO EXPECT A FURIOUS COUNTERATTACK UNLESS HE WERE LUCKY ENOUGH TO KNOCK OUT THIS COUNTRY IN THE FIRST FEW MINUTES, WHICH IS UNLIKELY, DR.WARREN SAID.

HE ADDED THAT BOMBS OF BOTH AGGRESSOR AND VICTIM WOULD IMPREGNATE THE AIR WITH RADIOACTIVE FISSION PRODUCTS WHICH WOULD CONTAMINATE BUILDINGS, WATER SUPPLIES AND CROPS. THIS DEATHLY DEW WOULD RAIN SLOWLY DOWN UPON THE EARTH FOR GENERATIONS.

FOOD AND WATER WOULD BE UNFIT FOR USE. PERSONS WHO CONSUMED THEM WOULD BE LIABLE TO DEATH THROUGH DESTRUCTION OF THEIR BLOOD CELLS, OR THE HUMAN RACE WOULD BE IN DANGER OF DYING OUT BECAUSE OF STERILITY CAUSED BY THE RADIOACTIVE PARTICLES.

DR.WARREN, WHO WAS CHIEF OF RADIOLOGICAL SAFETY FOR THE MANHATTAN PROJECT AND FOR THE TESTS AT BIKINI, MADE THESE STATEMENTS IN AN ADDRESS TO THE FACULTY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA MEDICAL SCHOOL. HE URGED THE MEDICAL PROFESSION TO PREPARE ITSELF, AS FAR AS POSSIBLE, FOR TAKING CARE OF THE ARMED FORCES AND THE CIVILIAN POPULATION IN THE EVENT OF ATOMIC CONFLICT.

RADIOACTIVE PARTICLES FROM THE FIRST ATOM BOMB EXPLOSION IN NEW MEXICO MORE THAN A YEAR AND A HALF AGO HAVE BEEN WAFTED AROUND THE WORLD SEVERAL TIMES AND STILL ARE DETECTIBLE IN THE AIR, WARREN REPORTED. SHIPS RECENTLY BROUGHT BACK FROM BIKINI STILL ARE RADIOACTIVE AFTER MORE THAN A YEAR.

ALL-OUT ATOMIC WAR COULD INTENSIFY THIS CONTAMINATION TO THE DANGER POINT AND POSSIBLY TO A DEGREE FROM WHICH THE HUMAN SPECIES NEVER WOULD RECOVER, DR.WARREN ASSERTED.

HE EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT THE UNITED STATES COULD LOSE 100,000,000 OF ITS PEOPLE IN AN ATOM BOMB ATTACK AND STILL SURVIVE AS A NATION, PROVIDING ITS RESOURCES DID NOT BECOME CONTAMINATED.

Truman Orders Sweeping Purge Of All Communists in U. S. Jobs; FBI Ordered to Check Workers

MAR 1947

DIRECTS AGENCIES TO 'CLEAN HOUSE' OF SUBVERSIVES

Government Tests Broadened to Determine Loyalty of Employes.

BLACKLIST PLANNED

Attorney General Ordered to Draft Report on All Anti-American Groups.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(AP) President Truman tonight ordered a purge of all government employes where there are "reasonable grounds" to doubt their loyalty and set up sweeping new standards to test it.

His executive order directed a "loyalty investigation" of everyone who applies for a job in the executive departments and agencies, without exception, where now only questionable applicants are tested.

F.B.I. to Make Check

And it instructed the agencies to submit the names of all their present employes to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a check wherever this has not already been done.

NIGHT

The attorney general is ordered to make a list, and keep it up to date, of all subversive organizations. A person's membership in or "sympathetic association with" one of them will be ground for stamping him disloyal.

This blacklist is to include all "totalitarian, fascist, Communist, or subversive" groups; all that advocate or approve force to deny persons their constitutional rights; and all that seek to change the form of the government "by unconstitutional means."

Moreover, a "central master index" was ordered set up of all persons whose loyalty has been investigated since Sept. 1, 1939. It may be referred to by all government agencies.

Not Witch Hunt, Official Says

A White House official said that "this will not be a witch hunt—I can't immagine that any great number of firings will result."

The order does not apply to the judicial or legislative branches of the government, he emphasized, nor does it involve changes in present security rules of the armed forces.

Supplemental appropriations for the Civil Service commission and FBI probably will be asked. They may amount to $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Each agency head, Mr. Truman ruled, must be "personally responsible" for cleaning his own house.

The establishment of one or more "loyalty boards" in every department and agency was directed. Their rulings may be appealed to a top "loyalty review board" to be set up in the Civil Service commission.

Accused employes may summon witnesses and counsel at each step of the hearings.

No Legislation Asked

The chief executive directed that the agencies, in their checkups, may call on any government investigative agency, including the FBI and military intelligence, for data. The latter agencies, he specified, may withhold the names of "confidential informants" from their reports where necessary.

Mr. Truman acted under provisions of the Hatch Act which is designed to "prevent pernicious political activity." He asked no legislation, and made his executive order effective at once, or as soon as Congress votes the funds where increased outlays are necessary.

The presidential action broadens the government's tests for determining worker loyalty. An assortment of standards has prevailed among the agencies, but all were based generally upon whether the person advocated overthrow of the government by violence.

Now, the order rules:

"The standard for the refusal of employment or the removal from employment in an executive department or agency on grounds relating to loyalty shall be that, on all the evidence, reasonable grounds exist for belief that the person involved is disloyal to the government of the United States."

Various Grounds Cited

It cited various grounds for adducing "reasonable doubt," including commission of sabotage or treason, advocacy of force in altering the form of government, deliberate disclosure of confidential documents "under circumstances which indicate disloyalty," and performance of official duties in such a way as to "serve the interests of another government in preference to the interests of the United States."

Then, in the paragraph under which most cases are held likely to arise, Mr. Truman specified this criterion:

"Membership in, affiliation with or sympathetic association with any foreign or domestic organization, association, movement, group or combination of persons, designated by the attorney general as totalitarian, fascist, Communist, or subversive, or as having adopted a policy of advocating or approving the commission of acts of force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the constitution of the United States, or as seeking to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means."

Action Result of Report

The President acted on the basis of a 40-page report from a "temporary commission on employe loyalty" but did not go as far as the commission recommended.

Mr. Truman named the commission last November at the suggestion of the House Civil Service committee. It was composed of one representative each from five cabinet departments and the civil service commission and headed by A. Devitt Vanech, assistant attorney general.

The action now comes amid congressional demands for a domestic housecleaning of Communists in connection with the proposal for action in Greece and Turkey to contain Communist expansion.

And it follows closely upon a Supreme court ruling which gives the government firm legal grounds for discharges based on "reasonable" doubt. The court last Monday refused to interfere in the case of Morton Friedman of New York, discharged from the War Manpower commission in 1944 on grounds of sympathy with Communism. His dismissal was based on a Civil Service commission finding of reasonable doubt growing out of Friedman's connection with the American Peace Mobilization.

The loyalty commission said it was unable to determine the extent of Communism or other subversive activity in government.

Loyalty Check Order Praised By Legislators

Some Members of Congress Call It Long Overdue; Reds Called Target

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP).—Members of Congress in both parties were quick with praise tonight for President Truman's "loyalty in government" order. Some added that it was long overdue and its worth would have to be proved by strict enforcement.

One of the latter, Senator Alexander Wiley, Republican, of Wisconsin, said: "The real test of the President's order will be in how well it is executed. Too often in the past, fellow travelers in key positions in the government and pussyfooting administrators have checkmated attempts to weed out subversive elements in high places."

NIGHT

The commission which drew up the recommendations on which Mr. Truman acted was proposed by the House Civil Service Committee in the last Congress.

House Speaker Joseph K. Martin, Republican, of Massachusetts, commented today: "It is good to see that he (the President) has finally awakened to the truth of what we have been telling him for the last few years."

Other comment:

Representative Karl E. Mundt, Republican, of South Dakota: "If the President's mandate is carried forward faithfully it will tremendously strengthen the security of the United States. The President's program is almost precisely that which the House Committee on un-American Activities has been advocating for at least four years."

Senator Allen J. Ellender, Democrat, of Louisiana: "I'm hopeful every effort will be made to rid not only our government but the whole country of men and women who are in any wise connected with any movement or any group whose aim is to overthrow our form of government."

Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, Republican, of Wisconsin: "The President's order certainly is definitely needed now since over the past number of years there has been a tremendous number of Communistically inclined employees on the Federal pay roll."

Representative E. E. Cox, Democrat, of Georgia: "That is one of the smartest things he has ever done. He is acting realistically and is taking notice of the fact that the people of the country are aroused over these Communists and subversives."

Representative John E. Rankin, Democrat, of Mississippi: "We should lose no time. We must get rid of them any way possible. There are still a lot of them on the pay roll."

Representative Frank B. Keefe, Republican, of Wisconsin: "I am extremely happy to notice that the President is now assuming a role which many of us assumed a long time ago when we were called Red baiters."

Covers 2,200,000 Jobs

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 22—President Truman's order for elimination of disloyal persons from Government employment covers about 2,200,000 executive branch positions.

Affected are the White House, the ten departments of Cabinet rank—State, Treasury, War, Justice, Postoffice, Navy, Interior, Agriculture, Commerce, Labor—and the multitude of independent agencies.

On an individual basis the order conceivably could affect everybody in the executive branch from the President to the janitor in a small-town postoffice.

The order does not apply to Congress and its employes nor to the courts and their employes. President Truman acted only as the head of the executive branch of the Government.

Text of Truman's Order to Test Loyalty of U. S. Employes

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 22—Following is the text of a Presidential Executive Order "prescribing procedures for the administration of an employes' loyalty program in the Executive Branch of the Government":

Whereas each employe of the Government of the United States is endowed with a measure of trusteeship over the democratic processes which are the heart and sinew of the United States; and

Whereas, it is of vital importance that persons employed in the Federal service be of complete and unswerving loyalty to the United States; and

Whereas, although the loyalty of by far the overwhelming majority of all Government employes is beyond question, the presence within the Government service of any disloyal or subversive person constitutes a threat to our democratic processes; and

Whereas maximum protection must be afforded the United States against infiltration of disloyal persons into the ranks of its employes, and equal protection from unfounded accusations of disloyalty must be afforded the loyal employes of the Government:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the United States, including the Civil Service Act of 1883 (22 Stat. 403), as amended, and Section 9A of the act approved Aug. 2, 1939 (18 U.S.C. 61l), and as President and Chief Executive of the United States, it is hereby, in the interest of the internal management of the Government, ordered as follows:

PART I

Investigation of Applicants

1. There shall be a loyalty investigation of every person entering the civilian employment of any department or agency of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government.

A. Investigations of persons entering the competitive service shall be conducted by the Civil Service Commission, except in such cases as are covered by a special agreement between the commission and any given department or agency.

B. Investigations of persons other than those entering the competitive service shall be conducted by the employing department or agency. Departments and agencies without investigative organizations shall utilize the investigative facilities of the Civil Service Commission.

2. The investigations of persons entering the employ of the Executive Branch may be conducted after any such person enters upon actual employment therein, but in any such case the appointment of such person shall be conditioned upon a favorable determination with respect to his loyalty.

A. Investigations of persons entering the competitive service shall be conducted as expeditiously as possible; provided, however, that if any such investigation is not completed within eighteen months from the date on which a person enters actual employment, the condition that his employment is subject to investigation shall expire, except in a case in which the Civil Service Commission has made an initial adjudication of disloyalty and the case continues to be active by reason of an appeal, and it shall then be the responsibility of the employing department or agency to conclude such investigation and make a final determination concerning the loyalty of such person.

3. An investigation shall be made of all applicants at all available pertinent sources of information and shall include reference to:

A. Federal Bureau of Investigation files.

B. Civil Service Commission files.

C. Military and Naval Intelligence files.

D. The files of any other appropriate government investigative or intelligence agency.

E. House Committee on un-American Activities files.

F. Local law-enforcement files at the place of residence and employment of the applicant, including municipal, county and state law-enforcement files.

G. Schools and colleges attended by applicant.

H. Former employers of applicant.

I. References given by applicant.

J. Any other appropriate source.

4. Whenever derogatory information with respect to loyalty of an applicant is revealed, a full field investigation shall be conducted. A full field investigation shall also be conducted of those applicants, or of applicants for particular positions, as may be designated by the head of the employing department or agency, such designations to be based on the determination by any such head of the best interests of national security.

PART II

Investigation of Employes

1. The head of each department and agency in the Executive Branch of the Government shall be personally responsible for an effective program to assure that disloyal civilian officers or employes are not retained in employment in his department or agency.

A. He shall be responsible for prescribing and supervising the loyalty determination procedures of his department or agency, in accordance with the provisions of this order, which shall be considered as providing minimum requirements.

B. The head of a department or agency which does not have an investigative organization shall utilize the investigative facilities of the Civil Service Commission.

2. The head of each department and agency shall appoint one or more loyalty boards, each composed of not less than three representatives of the department or agency concerned, for the purpose of hearing loyalty cases arising within such department or agency and making recommendations with respect to the removal of any officer or employe of such department or agency on grounds relating to loyalty, and he shall prescribe regulations for the conduct of the proceedings before such boards.

A. An officer or employe who is charged with being disloyal shall have a right to an administrative hearing before a loyalty board in the employing department or agency. He may appear before such board personally, accompanied by counsel or representative of his own choosing, and present evidence on his own behalf, through witnesses or by affidavit.

B. The officer or employe shall be served with a written notice of such hearing in sufficient time, and shall be informed therein of the nature of the charges against him in sufficient detail, so that he will be enabled to prepare his defense. The charges shall be stated as specifically and completely as, in the discretion of the employing department or agency, security considerations permit, and the officer or employe shall be informed in the notice (1) of his right to reply to such charges in writing within a specified reasonable period of time, (2) of his right to an administrative hearing on such charges before a loyalty board, and (3) of his right to appear before such board personally, to be accompanied by counsel or representative of his own choosing, and to present evidence on his behalf, through witness or by affidavit.

3. A recommendation of removal by a loyalty board shall be subject to appeal by the officer or employe affected, prior to his removal, to the head of the employing department or agency or to such person or persons as may be designated by such head, under such regulations as may be prescribed by him, and the decision of the department or agency concerned shall be subject to appeal to the Civil Service Commission's Loyalty Review Board, hereinafter provided for, for an advisory recommendation.

4. The rights of hearing, notice thereof, and appeal therefrom shall be accorded to every officer or employe prior to his removal on grounds of disloyalty, irrespective of tenure, or of manner, method, or nature of appointment, but the head of the employing department or agency may suspend any officer or employe at any time pending a determination with respect to loyalty.

5. The loyalty boards of the various departments and agencies shall furnish to the Loyalty Review Board, hereinafter provided for, such reports as may be requested concerning the operation of the loyalty program in any such department or agency.

PART III

Responsibilities of Civil Service Commission

1. There shall be established in the Civil Service Commission a Loyalty Review Board of not less than three impartial persons, the members of which shall be officers or employes of the commission.

A. The board shall have authority to review cases involving persons recommended for dismissal on grounds relating to loyalty by the loyalty board of any department or agency and to make advisory recommendations thereon to the head of the employing department or agency. Such cases may be referred to the board either by the employing department or agency, or by the officer or employe concerned.

B. The board shall make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this order, deemed necessary to implement statutes and executive orders relating to employe loyalty.

C. The Loyalty Review Board shall also:

(1) Advise all departments and agencies on all problems relating to employe loyalty.

(2) Disseminate information pertinent to employe loyalty programs.

(3) Coordinate the employe loyalty policies and procedures of the several departments and agencies.

(4) Make reports and submit recommendations to the Civil Service Commission for transmission to the President from time to time as may be necessary to the maintenance of the employe loyalty program.

2. There shall also be established and maintained in the Civil Service Commission a central master index covering all persons on whom loyalty investigations have been made by any department or agency since Sept. 1, 1939. Such master index shall contain the name of each person investigated, adequate identifying information concerning each such person, and a reference to each department and agency which has conducted a loyalty investigation concerning the person involved.

A. All executive departments and agencies are directed to furnish to the Civil Service Commission all information appropriate for the establishment and maintenance of the central master index.

B. The reports and other investigative material and information developed by the investigating department or agency shall be retained by such department or agency in each case.

3. The Loyalty Review Board shall currently be furnished by the Department of Justice the name of each foreign or domestic organization, association, movement, group or combination of persons which the Attorney General, after appropriate investigation and determination, designates as totalitarian, Fascist, Communist or subversive, or as having adopted a policy of advocating or approving the commission of acts of force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the Constitution of the United States, or as seeking to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means.

A. The Loyalty Review Board shall disseminate such information to all departments and agencies.

PART IV

Security Measures in Investigations

1. At the request of the head of any department or agency of the Executive Branch an investigative agency shall make available to such head, personally, all investigative material and information collected by the investigative agency concerning any employe or prospective employe of the requesting department or agency, or shall make such material and information available to any officer or officers designated by such head and approved by the investigative agency.

2. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirement, however, the investigative agency may refuse to disclose the names of confidential informants, provided it furnishes sufficient information about such informants on the basis of which the requesting department or agency can make an adequate evaluation of the information furnished by them, and provided it advises the requesting department or agency in writing that it is essential to the protection of the informants or to the investigation of other cases that the identity of the informants not be revealed. Investigative agencies shall not use this discretion to decline to reveal sources of information where such action is not essential.

3. Each department and agency of the Executive Branch should develop and maintain, for the collection and analysis of information relating to the loyalty of its employes and prospective employes, a staff specially trained in security techniques, and an effective security control system for protecting such information generally and for protecting confidential sources of such information particularly.

PART V

Standards

1. The standard for the refusal of employment or the removal from employment in an executive department or agency on grounds relating to loyalty shall be that, on all the evidence, reasonable grounds exist for belief that the person involved is disloyal to the Government of the United States.

2. Activities and associations of an applicant or employe which may be considered in connection with the determination of disloyalty may include one or more of the following:

A. Sabotage, espionage, or attempts or preparations therefor, or knowingly associating with spies or saboteurs;

B. Treason or sedition or advocacy thereof;

C. Advocacy of revolution of force or violence to alter the constitutional form of Government of the United States;

D. Intentional, unauthorized disclosure to any person, under circumstances which may indicate disloyalty to the United States, of documents or information of a confidential or non-public character obtained by the person making the disclosure as a result of his employment by the Government of the United States;

E. Performing or attempting to perform his duties, or otherwise acting, so as to serve the interests of another government in preference to the interests of the United States.

F. Membership in, affiliation with or sympathetic association with any foreign or domestic organization, association, movement, group or combination of persons, designated by the Attorney General as totalitarian, Fascist, Communist, or subversive, or as having adopted a policy of advocating or approving the commission of acts of force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the Constitution of the United States, or as seeking to alter the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means.

PART VI

Miscellaneous

1. Each department and agency of the Executive Branch, to the extent that it has not already done so, shall submit to the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, either directly or through the Civil Service Commission, the names (and such other necessary identifying material as the Federal Bureau of Investigation may require) of all of its incumbent employes.

A. The Federal Bureau of Investigation shall check such names against its records of persons concerning whom there is substantial evidence of being within the purview of Paragraph 2 of Part V hereof, and shall notify each department and agency of such information.

B. Upon receipt of the abovementioned information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, each department and agency shall make, or cause to be made by the Civil Service Commission, such investigation of those employes as the head of the department or agency shall deem advisable.

2. The Security Advisory Board of the State-War-Navy Coordinating Committee shall draft rules applicable to the handling and transmission of confidential documents and other documents and information which should not be publicly disclosed, and upon approval by the President such rules shall constitute the minimum standards for the handling and transmission of such documents and information, and shall be applicable to all departments and agencies of the Executive Branch.

3. The provisions of this order shall not be applicable to persons summarily removed under the provisions of Section 3 of the Act of December 17, 1942, 56 Stat. 1053; of the Act of July 5, 1946, 60 Stat. 453, or of any other statute conferring the power of summary removal.

4. The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to the Coast Guard, are hereby directed to continue to enforce and maintain the highest standards of loyalty within the armed services, pursuant to the applicable statutes, the Articles of War, and the Articles for the Government of the Navy.

5. This order shall be effective immediately, but compliance with such of its provisions as require the expenditure of funds shall be deferred pending the appropriation of such funds.

6. Executive Order No. 9300 of February 5, 1943, is hereby revoked.

SAYS BRITAIN CURBS REDS

Leader of Civil Service Clerks Hits Exclusion From Jobs

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—L. C. White, secretary of the British Civil Service Clerical Association, said today that British military intelligence agents had banned "certain people" from entering the civil service because they were or had been members of the Communist party. NIGHT

The persons barred were otherwise qualified for the jobs, he told the annual meeting of the National Council on Civil Liberties.

"I regard this as a very serious infringement of the civil liberty and political freedom of a person," he declared, "and I hope this council will take very serious action to stop this."

Laborites Move to Curb 'Revolt' on Conscription

LONDON, March 22 (AP).—Labor leaders marshaled their disciplinary forces this week end to put down a new rank-and-file Parliamentary "revolt."

Seventy members among the so-called back benchers of the House of Commons, have lined up in opposition to the government's bill for peace-time military conscription, which is expected to send more than 1,000,000 young men into uniform during the next five years. Objectors to the entire theory of peace-time conscription have been joined by a vocal group which insists that the prospective recruits are more needed in labor-short British industry.

The Labor "rebels" seem to have slight chance of defeating the measure.

In general the Conservatives agree with the immediate need for conscription. Observers say, however, that many Conservatives may join any Labor dissent if there is a prospect of unseating the government. [400]

U.S. Gift For Devon Village

Pinhoe, England, March 22 (AP)—General Sir Walter Venning told residents of this Devon village today that Mrs. Sidney de Larue, of Washington, D.C., had promised to start raising a $20,000 fund for a town hall because of hospitality shown to American troops during the war.

Turks Taking Over 8 U. S. Warships

Plymouth, England, March 22 (A. P.).—Four hundred and twenty officers and men of the Turkish Navy have arived here to take over eight American minesweepers, sold to Turkey by the United States Government.

The vessels served in the British Navy under lend-lease terms during the war and later were berthed at Devonport Dockyard pending final disposition. They will be taken to Turkey late next week after trials in British waters with Turkish crews.

French Cabinet Given Big Vote Of Confidence

Paris, March 22 (AP)—The French National Assembly, by an overwhelming 411-to-0 vote, declared its confidence today in Premier Paul Ramadier's Indo-China policies. The Communist deputies abstained from voting.

The five Communist Cabinet members voted with the Government for the motion of confidence and the 34-billion franc ($285,600,000) appropriation for continued military operations in Indo-China.

Ramadier immediately called a Cabinet meeting for later in the day to decide the future of his coalition government. He had declared earlier that he would quit unless all parties in the Assembly backed him. DAY

Expected to Stay On

The vote by the Communist Cabinet members was in accord with a Communist party directive by which it sought to compromise a budding Cabinet crisis.

Most observers predicted that Ramadier, who is a Socialist, would be satisfied with the vote and with passage of the military appropriation measure and would not resign.

In a statement to the Assembly before it voted, the Premier asked for an Assembly majority and solid support from all his Cabinet ministers. In the balloting, he got both.

Had Asked Still More

This position represented a retreat from his previous demand for active parliamentary support from all parties represented in the Cabinet, and appeared to be a compromise worked out in a special Cabinet meeting this morning.

The Communist party central committee, in a special meeting just before the Legislature went into its final discussion of the controversial military budget, directed the five Communist Cabinet ministers to vote with Ramadier.

The committee said it did not want to disrupt Cabinet solidarity and Communist floor leader Florimond Bonté said "the Communist party does not want to provoke a government argument that might jeopardize our negotiations in Moscow on German issues."

Viet Nam "Peace Offer"

The French general staff reported from Hanoi today that a move to crush Viet Namese military resistance north of the Rouge River delta in Tonkin, China, was proceeding favorably, even as a new "peace offer" was received in Paris from Tran Ngcoc-danh, chief of the semi-official Viet Namese delegation in Paris.

Dispatches from Hanoi also reported several clashes in the area near the Chinese frontier at Dinh Lpa, where Viet Namese forces are reported to have taken the offensive.

Saigon dispatches quoted a highly placed Viet Nam leader as saying that the Indo-China Nationalists were "naturally disposed to negotiate with France." He described the Tran Ngcoc-danh peace offer as an authentic proposal from Viet Nam President Ho Chi-minh.

to bolster resistance against the Germans in his dealings with the American Government and with Vichy.

Charges against Chautemps concern his alleged Vichy "mission to America" shortly after the fall of France.

The former Premier, who remained in Washington throughout the war, is accused of sabotaging Free French movements through his influence with American officials. In the document, Chautemps is sending a detailed denial of these charges.

Taken To White House

In his statement, Welles declared that Chautemps got in touch with him immediately after arriving in December, 1940, to say he had come as a private French citizen to keep the French fleet and colonies out of Germany's hands.

A few days later, Welles related, President Roosevelt asked him to bring Chautemps to the White House for an interview and this was done.

Welles To Aid Defense In Trial Of Chautemps

Paris, March 22 (AP)—Former Premier Camille Chautemps, who goes on trial in absentia March 25 before the French High Court of Justice on his wartime activities, will call upon former Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles to testify in his defense, also in absentia.

The testimony from Welles is contained in a 50-page statement to the court that Chautemps's son, Jean, has just brought from the United States for presentation on his father's behalf. Chautemps himself will not appear. He is remaining in America, in Chevy Chase, Maryland. NIGHT

Mission For Vichy

Welles, according to this document, went to Chautemps's defense in a series of answers last June to Chautemps's attorney, stating that Chautemps at all times sought

Germans Protest Homes' Loss

BERLIN, March 22 (AP).—Three Hundred and fifty Germans carrying banners reading, "We want our homes," demonstrated today in Duesseldorf against recent requisitioning of homes, a British announcement said.

U.S. Occupation Favored In Poll

Berlin, March 22 (AP).—The American Military Government said today ap ublic opinion poll indicated that the majority of German leaders in the United States zone wanted Americans to occupy Germany for at least ten years to help combat Communism and prevent war.

The poll was conducted by the United States information control division. Interviewers sampled opinion of German leaders in 180 towns and villages and the United States sector of Berlin.

76% For Continuance

A total of 76 per cent of those interviewed favored continuance of the American occupation. Principal reasons given were to help in "combatting Communism, keeping peace and order, watching political developments and preventing war and insuring peace," the control division said.

"Those who did not want the Americans to stay as long as ten years felt that Germany could control itself, that costs of occupation were too great and that responsibility could be well turned over to the Germans now to achieve economic unity," a report said.

Most Important Events

Two thirds of those interviewed felt Germany had learned a lesson and would not support a new German drive for world power, and 77 per cent said they considered economic unfication more important than political unification.

Asked to name the two most important events since the end of the war, either inside or outside Germany, 40 per cent to be specified the Nuernberg trials, and 30 per cent mentioned the Stuttgart speech by James F. Byrnes, then United States Secretary of State.

Yanks Face Strict Drinking Rules

Frankfurt, Germany, March 22 (AP)—United States Army headquarters today announced the imposition of strict controls on liquor consumption by American occupation forces in Germany and Austria as part of "a general tightening of discipline to improve Americans' morale and conduct in occupied territory." DAY

Beginning April 1, American and Allied troops and civilians will be authorized to purchase only three bottles of hard liquor monthly through Army stores or clubs and the importation of liquor outside official army channels will be strictly prohibited.

Better Control Sought

Denying that the move was prompted by excessive drinking on the part of American troops, an army spokesman said it was designed not so much to reduce drinking as to provide a better control over it and curtail black marketing.

The amount of the ration will be about the same as at present, the spokesman said, but by reducing bottle sales and halting private importation, consumption will be guided into "normal social drinking at authorized clubs."

The restrictions will not apply to wines and beer, but only to hard liquor.

DENAZIFYING AIDE SLAIN IN GERMANY

Police Doubt Friends' Claim Motive Was Revenge— Think Robbery Was Aim

STUTTGART, Germany, March 22 (AP)—Two masked gunmen broke into the bedroom of Rheinold Hub, 41 years old, a Communist, in Oehringen today and shot him to death in the first slaying of a German denazification official in the United States occupation zone.

Herr Hub, known as a man with "many friends and many enemies," died a half hour after the shooting in the arms of his wife, Lina, who said it was "political" murder. The gunmen were still at large tonight.

Police Inspector Otto Oster declared, however, that the case had many earmarks of a slaying perpetrated during a robbery. Frau Hub said the gunmen had gone directly into the bedroom and had shot her husband, but Herr Oster asserted that the Hubs had been warned to stay in bed and that Hub had been shot only when he had tried to get up.

The inspector said the gunmen's method of entering the Hub's apartment by removing windowpanes indicated they were "professional burglars." United States military police were investigating this theory.

Friends of Herr Hub were inclined to believe he was slain by the Nazi underground. He was public prosecutor for the denazification board in industrial Oehringen, which had a reputation of being the strictest in the Wuerttemberg-Baden area. Herr Hub was said to have been especially zealous in his work and a bitter anti-Nazi.

Orlando W. Wilson, chief of the public safety branch of the Military Government in Berlin, said he could express no opinion on whether the slaying was political until he had received additional details. He said he knew of no conditions in Oehringen "which would bring about a political murder of this type."

Frau Hub disclosed that her husband had received two unsigned letters threatening him with violence in recent months.

Herr Hub, a carpenter by trade, was a leader in the trade union movement. He was a member of the Social Democratic party prior to Adolf Hitler's rise. He was arrested by the Gestapo in 1935.

Since the end of the war he had been a leading Communist in the Oehringen area.

The police, who had been summoned to the apartment by neighbors who had heard the shooting, said the gunmen had escaped apparently in the direction of Bretzfeld, where an intensive search was launched.

Authorities disclosed that locks on all doors of the Oehringen denazification office had been damaged recently by unknown persons.

2 Masked Gunmen Slay Foe Of Nazis In U.S. Zone

Stuttgart, Germany, March 22 (AP)—Rheinhold Hub, Communist member of the de-Nazification board in the near-by town of Oehringen, was shot to death in his bed today by two masked gunmen believed to be members of the Nazi underground. DAY

German police said the slayers were seen fleeing in the direction of Bretzfeld, where a search was under way.

The motive for the shooting was believed to be Hub's anti-Nazi activity. Prior to the rise of iHtler, Hub was a member of the Social Democratic party. The de-Nazification board of which he was a member had the reputation of being the toughest in Wuerttemberg province.

Wife Relates Events

Hub, 41, had received two threatening letters in the last few months because of his bitter anti-Nazi attitude.

His wife, Lena, told this story:

"Two masked men entered our apartment by smashing the bathroom window. They went straight to the bedroom.

"One man said, 'Shoot.' My husband jumped from the bed and, as he did so, a bullet hit him in the left side.

"The two men fled, leaving behind a sack containing various pieces of clothing and a briefcase with foodstuffs."

Would Be First Such Killing

Hub, a carpenter by trade, was described by one of his friends as a "man with many friends and many enemies" because of his political convictions. He was arrested by the Gestapo in 1935.

If the slaying was the result of his anti-Nazi beliefs, it would be the first such killing in the United States occupation zone, although the Nazi underground has bombed de-Nazification offices in the zone on several occasions.

Though their plans differed widely, Molotov and Marshall were in agreement that a provisional German government should be established at an early date.

Foreign Secretary Bevin, in reply to Molotov, declared immediately that the Weimar Republic provided many bad features, including the power of the president to suspend the constitution, which Marshall Proposes Setting Up of Provisional Government of Heads of States.

J. Hightower

Moscow, March 22 (A. P.).—The Soviet Foreign Minister, V. M. Molotov, proposed tonight that the new German Government be created along the lines of the pre-Hitlerite Weimar Republic. "We take the Weimar Constitution as a basis on which to work," he declared, and his proposal met with immediate opposition from France and Britain.

At the twelfth session of the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers, the French Foreign Minister, Georges Bidault, leaned across the conference table and declared: "The ghost of the Weimar Republic will not find favor with the French people."

Elaborating on the fundamental principles he had laid down yesterday, Secretary of State Marshall proposed a re-created Germany of from ten to eighteen States headed at first by a pro-

Proportional Representation.

Molotov proposed that Germany be governed by a bi-cameral parliament, elected by direct proportional representation.

[In a broadcast picked up at London, the Moscow radio declared that the Molotov proposal calls for a bi-cameral German Parliament, a President elected by Parliament and separate legislatures for the German provinces. The future German State should have the secret ballot with elections based on a "universal, equal and direct electoral law," and freedom of speech, of the press, of religion and of public meeting should be guaranteed, Molotov was quoted as saying.]

What France Proposes.

Bidault at once proposed a decentralized, loosely federated government structure for Germany, but warned that France would oppose the rapid development of even a provisional regime. He said the French position was that the establishment of any provisional government for Germany was premature.

On behalf of France he proposed that virtually all power in Germany be vested in the States, and that, for the nation as a whole, a unicameral parliament be authorized, its members to be chosen by the States. On the other hand, he said that his delegation had found the American was one of the stepping stones of Adolf Hitler's rise to power.

Marshall Deplores Catchwords.

In his turn Marshall deplored the use of "slogans" and said that the substance was the main thing on which to concentrate.

Molotov's proposal would be interpreted by the United States as "federal," since it would divide central and State powers, Marshall declared. He also said he did not feel that a very wide area of disagreement existed among the four-Power proposals, and felt they should be reconciled.

"My impression at this stage of the discussion," he said, "is that there is much in common in the four views presented. I am sorry, however, Mr. Molotov spoke so strongly against federalization in Germany as I hoped we may be able to avoid arguing over words to which each of us may attach a different meaning. The proposals of Mr. Molotov, for example, would be regarded in America as suggesting a federal form of government as we understand the term.

"It seems to me important we should avoid debate confused by slogans. We should concentrate on realty and seek agreement on the substance of proposals and avoid disagreement about words."

Molotov Attacks Federalization.

Molotov opened his proposal, which was the first official inkling given the world on Russian plans for the political structure of Germany, with an attack on the "federalization" plans of the Western Powers. He described these western plans as a plot to "dismember Germany."

To support his argument for a centralized government, he referred to Japan, where the Japanese, he said, have their own Government under the direction of occupation authorities.

Molotov suggested that the Russians might agree to a plebiscite for the Germans to decide for themselves, adding: "If the German people decide on federalization, the occupying Powers must accept this." He repeatedly emphasized that a German provisional government is needed in order to fulfill Germany's obligations to the Allies.

Molotov's points included:

1. A decentralized system like that in force before Hitler came to power should be re-established and the Landtag (State Parliament) system and the old bicameral German Parliament should be revived.

2. The German provisional Government should assume responsibility for fulfilling Germany's obligations to the Allies.

3. The first step should be to set up German central departments of finance, industry, transport and foreign trade, to be formed under the terms of the Potsdam pact.

4. The Allied Control Council should draw up a provisional, democratic constitution enlisting the aid of the democratic parties, trade unions and other anti-Nazi organizations.

5. Elections should be held in accordance with the constitution thus provided, and a provisional government be formed as a result of these elections.

6. A permanent constitution for Germany should be approved by the German people.

7. Germany should be re-established as a single peaceful state with a bicameral Parliament.

8. The President of the Republic should be elected by Parliament.

9. All German constitutions adopted by Parliament should come in force throughout Germany along with Lander (State) constitutions.

10. Constitution and Lander constitutions should ensure freedom of formation and activity to all Democratic parties and trade unions.

11. The Constitution should guarantee all citizens freedom of speech, press, religious worship and assembly.

12. Parliament and landtag assemblies should be elected by universal, equal and direct suffrage, with a secret ballot and proportional repesentation.

13. Local self-government bodies should be eelcted on the same basis as State assemblies.

How Plans Differ.

Differences between the Soviet and western plans for a future German government included:

1. The Soviet proposes the proportional representation voting system, where the vote would be for party "lists." The "list" voting system has been termed unacceptable by the United States and Britain.

2. The Soviet proposes that both houses be elected by direct suffrage on a population basis. The American and British plans envisage one of the two houses elected on a State basis, as is the United States Senate. The French propose only one house, com-State constitutions be made to conform to a central constitution. This would destroy most of the constitutions now in force in the American and British zones.

Coal Guaranties.

Earlier today Bevin offered the council what appeared to be a compromise to the French demand for guaranteed German coal exports. Bevin said: "The posed of four representatives from each State.

3. The Russians propose putting power in the hands of a central administration which delegates power to the States. The Western nations want the States to retain the main powers and delegate certain authority to the Federal Government.

4. The Sovit proposes that all rehabilitation of German industry shall be effected on a progressive plan, having regard for the necessity of exporting coal to liberated countries." (France is one of the liberated coutries.) "In particular, the rate at which steel production is increased shall be determined in relation to the need for coal export, provided that the burden of the cost on occupying Powers is not increased as a result of this consideration."

Also today an authoritative British spokesman said that a meeting between Bevin and Premier Stalin was in the wind for this week end, but added that it may take place somewhat later. It was learned that the British have indicated that Bevin would be glad to see Stalin but have made no specific request for such a conference. Political seers predicted earlier that Stalin might see both Bevin and Marshall this week end—"if somebody isn't giving somebody else the silent treatment."

Molotov Plan for Germany

LONDON, March 22 (AP).—The complete text of Soviet Foreign Minister Viacheslav M Molotov's proposal regarding the form of the future German government, as broadcast by the Moscow radio and reported by the Soviet government's listening agency in London:

On the form and scope of the provisional political organization of Germany:

The task of creating a provisional political organization of Germany must be solved on the basis of the following proposals: that the decentralization of the bers.

A. The political system of Germany must have a democratic character, and the organs of power must be formed on the basis of democratic elections.

B. The Hitlerite centralization of the state administration which destroyed the landtags and the autonomous administration of the Lands (Laender, or states), must be liquidated so that the decenertlization of the administration will be restored which existed before the establishment of the Hitler regime, with the restoration of the landtags and two all-German chambers.

C. Such a provisional government must be set up as could, while insuring the political and economic unity of Germany, simultaneously assume responsibility for the fulfillment of Germany's obligations to the Allied states.

On the basis of the above it is proposed:

Firstly, as a first step toward the formation of a provisional German government, to establish central German administrative departments on finance, industry, transport, communications and foreign trade in accordance with the decisions of the Potsdam conference;

Secondly, to charge the Allied Control Council with working out a provisional democratic constitution, drawing into the work the democratic parties, the free trade unions and other anti-Nazi organizations and representatives of the Lands;

Thirdly, to hold elections in accordance with the provisional German constitution, after which the provisional German government should be formed;

Fourthly, in accordance with the provisions of the Potsdam conference, to charge the German government as one of its basic tasks with the eradication of the remnants of German militarism and Fascism, through democratization of Germany and realization of measures for the restoration of German economy as well as unconditional fulfillment of the obligations to the Allied states;

Fifthly, a permanent constitution of Germany must be approved by the German people.

On the state structure of Germany:

1. Germany is restored as a single peace-loving state, a democratic republic, with an all-German Parliament consisting of two chambers and an all-German government, while insuring the constitutional rights of the lands comprising the German state.

2. The President of the German republic is elected by Parliament.

3. On the whole territory of Germany an all-German constitution established by Parliament will operate, and in the Lands the constitutions of the Lands established by the Landtags.

4. The German constitution, as well as the constitutions of the Lands, will be based on a democratic foundation. This should strengthen the development of Germany as a democratic and peaceful state.

5. The all-German constitution and the constitutions of the Lands will insure the free formation and activity of all democratic parties, and also trade unions and other public democratic organizations and institutions.

6. All citizens of Germany, without distinction of race, sex, language and religion, are insured democratic rights, including freedom of speech, the press, religion, public meetings and (word inaudible) by the all-German constitution and the constitutions of the Lands.

7. The Parliament and the Landtags of the Lands will be elected on the basis of a universal, equal and direct electoral law with secret voting and the proportional system.

8. The local government organs, district and communal councils, will be elected on the same democratic basis as the Landtags of the Lands.

Russian Plan Is Attacked By Marshall

Bevin and Bidault Join in Condemning Molotov's Proposal

Call It Pre-Hitler

U.S. Secretary, However, Thinks Ministers Are Not Too Far Apart

(By The Associated Press)

Moscow, March 22.—Russia proposed to the council of foreign ministers tonight that the future German government be based on the defunct Weimar Republic which Adolph Hitler used to climb to power and then destroyed.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall, expressing the opinion that the Russian view was not as far from those of the U. S., Britain and France as had been expected, declared that the Russian proposals would be regarded in America as suggesting a federal form of government as the term is understood by Americans.

In general, both the United States and Britain support the idea of a federalized Germany, while France is for a loose and decentralized regime. The Russian proposals were subjected to an immediate attack by Britain and France.

Includes Two-Chamber Parliament

The long-awaited Russia proposals, which were made public for the first time by Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, included a two-chamber Parliament elected by proportional representation through a list voting system.

Molotov's outline for Germany was the top feature of the day, which saw the French stand by their plan for a loose federation of German states and a British statement on economic principles for Germany with a 10,000,000-ton annual steel level and a conciliatory gesture toward the French demand for coal.

Striking differences between the Russian and western plans for a future German government included:

1. The Russians proposed proportional representation voting system where the vote would be for party "lists." The "list" voting system has been denounced by America and Britain as unacceptable.

Election by Direct Vote

2. That both houses be elected by direct suffrage on a population basis. The American and British plans envisage one of two houses elected on a state basis such as the United States Senate, while the French propose only one house composed of representatives from each state.

3. The Russians propose putting powers in the hands of a central administration which delegates power to the states. The western powers want the states to retain the main powers and delegate certain authorities to the federal government.

4. The Russian proposal that all laender (state) constitutions be made to conform to a central constitution would destroy most constitutions now in effect in the American and British zones of Germany.

The Russians have had under fire for some time the state constitutions in the U. S. zones which have been approved by the German people, particularly clauses which make it necessary for political parties to get 10 percent of the vote to stay on the ballots. This provision has been placed in the constitution to block formation of scores of small-splinter political parties which spelled the downfall of the Weimar Republic.

Marshall's Statement

MOSCOW, March 22 (AP).—The complete text of Secretary of State George C. Marshall's statement to the Council of Foreign Ministers tonight:

THE FORM AND SCOPE OF THE PROVISIONAL POLITICAL ORGANIZATION OF GERMANY.

Without prejudice to any position the United States may take under 2—3 (B) of the agenda of the Council of Foreign Ministers, the United States delegate proposes the following directive:

The Allied Control Council is instructed to:

1. Complete at an early date the establishment of elected governments of the Laender (States)—which term as used herein will include the city of Berlin.

2. Take the following action in connection with the establishment and operation of a provisional German government:

(A) Establish at an early date a German National Council as a provisional government, to be composed of the heads of the present Laender governments. Subject to such affirmative action as may be taken, or such directions as may be given by the Allied Control Council by a majority of its members, the German National Council shall be given control over the German central administrative agencies which may be established by the Allied Control Council to function in stated fields to the extent that nation-wide action is required. To the fullest extent possible, the decisions of the German National Council shall be carried out by and through the Laender governments.

(B) In the exercise of its authority the Allied Control Council shall refrain from direct operation or detailed supervision of provisional government activities. The zone commander in his relationship to the provisional government and its agences shall be limited to acting as an agent of the Allied Control Council except where a direct threat to the security of occupation forces is involved.

Democratic Constitution

3. Instruct the provisional government to prepare a democratic constitution, calling a constitutional convention elected by the people according to the electoral laws adopted by the several Laender, and submit a draft constitution to the convention for debate, revision and adoption. The provisional government should thereupon submit the constitution to the Allied Control Council for final approval, and after obtaining that approval, should submit the constitution to the people for ratification not later than one year after the establishment of the provisional government. Such ratification shall require the majority of the total votes cast as well as the majority of those voting in each of a majority of the Laender.

4. Direct the provisional government to submit to the Allied Control Council for approval of any modifications in the territorial composition of the provisional Laender necessary to form a German federal state composed of not less than ten nor more than eighteen Laender. In determining the final composition of the Laender, historic, economic and cultural considerations shall be taken into account. Enclaves and arbitrary deviations made on account of the present zones of occupation should be eliminated.

5. Inform the provisional government of the following conditions:

(A) That Germany be a democratic state in the sense that:

1. All political power is recognized as originating with the people and subject to their control.

2. The people have the opportunity to exercise that control through popular elections held at frequent intervals.

3. Elections are conducted under conditions in which freely competing parties submit their programs and candidates to a vote of the people at frequent intervals.

4. Political parties are voluntary associations of citizens, and no political party enjoys any privileged status.

5. The basic rights of the individual, including free speech, freedom of religion, freedom of assembly and association and other equally basic rights of man are recognized and guaranteed.

6. Individuals are protected from arbitrary arrest, search and seizure and are guaranteed equality under the law.

(B) That the German government be one of limited powers and to insure this:

1. Each state or Land shall determine election methods and the control of the electoral processes.

2. There shall be an independent judiciary which shall have the authority to settle disputes among states and between the states and the central government and to protect the constitutional rights of the individual.

3. In the distribution of functions between the state and the central governments, it shall be provided that the central government is one of limited and carefully defined powers in matters where nation-wide action is required; all residual powers shall remain in the states; such powers as police, internal security, culture, education and religious affairs shall not be delegated to the Federal government. Authority and means of states to raise appropriate revenues shall not be impaired. Neither Federal nor state governments shall have the right to maintain any military establishment whatsoever.

4. Wherever possible, the administration of the Federal government jurisdiction should be delegated to the states.

(C) That the constitution include a clause providing that the authority of the Federal government and the Laender shall be exercised in accordance with and subject to the powers reserved by the Allied Control Council.

(D) That the constitution of each Land be democratic in character as that term is defined in paragraph 5-A above.

Compromise Plan On Coal Offered By Bevin

J. Smith

London, March 22 (AP)—The Moscow radio said Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov today proposed formation of a provisional German Government with the same degree of decentralization that existed before the Hitler regime.

His plan, presented before the Council of Foreign Ministers, called for a Parliament of two houses, a president elected by the houses, and separate legislative chambers for the German provinces, which he said previously were "autonomous."

The radio quoted Molotov as saying the future German state should have secret ballot elections on the basis of a "universal, equal and direct electoral law" and that freedom of speech, the press, religion and public meetings should be guaranteed.

No Time Set

The text of the plan as broadcast by Moscow did not set any specific time for undertaking the establishment of a German government.

[In Moscow, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, laying down Britain's economic reparations and level-of-industry plan for Germany, offered the Council of Foreign Ministers today what appeared to be a compromise to the French demand for guaranteed German coal export.

[Bevin proposed that the "rehabilitation of German industry shall be effected on a progressive plan having regard for the necessity of exporting coal to liberated countries."

[Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France proposed today a decentralized, loosely federated government structure for Germany, but warned that France opposed rapid establishment of even a provisional regime.

System Under Hitler

The Moscow broadcast, recorded by the Soviet monitor here, quoted Molotov as saying:

"The Hitlerite centralization of the state administration, which destroyed the Landtags (provincial diets) and the autonomous administration of the Länder (states) must be liquidated, so the decentralization of the administration will be restored which existed before the establishment of the Hitler regime, with the restoration of the Landtags and two all-German chambers."

French officials had previously urged decentralization and the United States and Britain suggested federalization.

There had been widespread belief in the Western capitals that Russia favored a strongly centralized German Government and this was foreseen as a major issue of the Moscow conference.

"Must Be Democratic"

Molotov was quoted as saying that "the political system of Germany must have a democratic character and the organs of power must be formed on the basis of a democratic election."

"Such a provisional German government must be set up as could, while insuring the political and economic unity of Germany, simultaneously assume responsibilities for the fulfillment of Germany's obligations to the allied states," the radio quoted him.

Molotov proposed that the German Government include "central German administrative departments on finance, industry, transport, communications and foreign trade," the broadcast reported.

Anti-Nazi Groups

He suggested that the Allied Control Council in Berlin work out a provisional democratic constitution for German with the help of "the democratic parties, the free trade-unions and other anti-Nazi organizations."

His plan, as broadcast, proposed that elections be held "in accordance with the provisional German constitution, after which a provisional German government should be formed."

The prime task of the provisional government, he said, should be eradication of "the remnants of German militarism and fascism" in accordance with the Potsdam agreement.

"A permanent constitution of Germany must be approved by the Allied people," he added.

"On the whole territory of Germany, an all-German constitution established by parliament will operate and in the Laender the constitutions of the Laender established by Landtags."

Molotov was quoted as proposing that the parliament and the Landtags be elected "on the basis of a universal, equal and direct electoral law, with secret voting and the proportional system."

Stalin-Bevin Talk Seen Soon

E. Gilmore

Moscow, March 22 (AP)—An authoritative British source said today that a meeting between Prime Minister Stalin and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was "in the wind" for this week end, but added that it might take place "somewhat later."

It was learned that the British have indicated Bevin would be glad to see the Soviet leader, but made no specific request for such a conference.

Or Else: "Silent Treatment"

Political forecasters predicted earlier that Stalin might see both

Bevin and Secretary of State George C. Marshall this week end —"if somebody isn't giving somebody else silent treatment."

The United States Secretary has been here thirteen days and the British secretary fourteen days—for the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference—without getting any known invitation from Stalin. In two previous Moscow conferences, Stalin has seen the United States and British diplomats long before this.

Russ Seem On New Track

Heretofore always protocol conscious, the Russians, furthermore, seem to have taken another tack this time. For while Marshall and Bevin have heard nothing from him yet, Stalin saw French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault last Monday night.

But in considering the past the fact should be kept in mind that at the time of the previous conferences President Truman had made no Greece-Turkey speech.

Finally, there have been cases of persons who came to Moscow to see Stalin and never were able to do so.

Austrians Read the News Of Bid to Moscow Talks

VIENNA, March 22 (AP).—Vienna newspapers published today on their front pages news that the Big Four Foreign Ministers had decided yesterday to invite Austrian representatives to Moscow for peace-treaty consultations.

Though the government still was waiting for the official text of the ministers' invitation, a spokesman said Dr. Karl Gruber, Foreign Minister, and Dr. Peter Kraulain, Minister of Property Protection and Economic Planning, were expected to leave for Moscow Tuesday.

This spokesman said no decision yet had been made as to other members of the delegation. Political quarters reported, however, that Chancellor Leopold Figl may go to Moscow later and take with him Heinz Schmidt, Minister at London, and three party representatives, Vinzenz Schumy, of the People's party; Adolf Schaerf, Socialist, and Communist Ernst Fischer.

Russian Press Is Silent On Inter-Marriage Ban

MOSCOW, March 22 (AP).—The Russian press made no mention today of yesterday's announcement in the official gazette of the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) forbidding marriages between Russians and foreigners. No official explanation for the decree has been advanced.

There are a number of theories about it here, among which the most popular is that numerous marriages of this kind and subsequent requests for exit visas cause too much trouble. The Russians long have held the view that many Soviet girls who married foreigners did so only to escape the hard days of war sacrifices in Russia.

An American source said the decree was designed to prevent marriages between foreign women and Russian soldiers and officers in occupied areas.

Intermarriages have brought many exchanges and much correspondence between embassies and the Soviet Foreign Ministry, and even the Kremlin. Prime Ministers and Foreign Ministers have, on more than one occasion, intervened in such problems.

Italy Opens 5-Year War On Malaria

Rome, March 22 (AP)—A double-barreled, five-year war on malaria has begun in Italy under the combined direction of UNRRA and the Rockefeller Foundation.

In the island of Sardina at present, an expert said, "There are so many cases that accurate figures are impossible." From 50,000 known cases before the war, Italy had 300,000 in 1944.

The fight against the mosquito which carries malaria began in February. It will be carried out, under administration of the Italian Government, through the use of part of an estimated $333,330,000 fund created from sale of UNRRA-imported goods in Italy.

This giant kitty amounts to nearly 60 per cent of the total value of UNRRA imports. Under combined Italian Government-UNRRA supervision it will be spent on housing, baby feeding, clothing, increase of food production, and other health projects.

Two big-scale anti-malaria programs are in progress.

One, on the Italian mainland and in Sicily, is under UNRRA technical guidance. The second, in Sardina, is supervised by Rockefeller Foundation technicians, to whom UNRRA has supplied money, materials and transport.

ITALIAN REDS TELL WHO KILLED DUCE

Rome, March 22 (A. P.).—The Italian Communist party identified the slayer of Benito Mussolini today as Walter Audisio, 37 years old, a bookkeeper and member of the anti-Fascist underground, and recommended that Italy award him the highest military honors. The announcement said that Audisio, known to the underground as "Col. Valerio," had killed Mussolini "under orders of his superiors."

Audisio, a member of the Communist party since 1931, will describe the execution, which occurred in Dongo on April 28, 1945, to the public in a Rome theater tomorrow, the statement said. Audisio carried out his mission with "decision, certainty and audacity," the announcement continued. It praised him for having kept his identity a secret up to now at the advice of his party, and said that all Italian Democrats and anti-Fascists would back the recommendation for an award.

Poland Recovers Fraction Of Its Radium from Reich

Warsaw, March 22 (A. P.).—Representatives of the war reparations office handed over to Dr. Tadeusz Michejda, newly appointed minister of health, a consignment of 303 milligrams of radium, recovered from Germany.

The radium, valued at $450,000, was found in Kiel, in the British zone of occupation. It was part of the radium supply taken by the Germans during the war from the Curie-Sklodowska institute in the University of Lublin.

Before the war, Poland possessed a total of four grams of radium.

Czechs Ease Auto Barrier

Warsaw, Poland, March 22 (AP)—The semi-official newspaper Rzeczpospolita says Czechoslovakia has eased restrictions on motor car travel from Poland into that country. Customs officers are issuing carnets de route valid for ten days for single motor trips to Czechoslovakia.

Chile To Repatriate Citizens In Germany

Rotterdam, March 22 (AP)—One hundred Chilean men, women and children still in Germany since before war will return to their homeland.

The Chilean Government chartered the 9,300-ton steamer Alphard of the Rotterdam-South African Line (Van Nieveld Goudriaan) to transport them. The vessel, which now is being especially accommodated to this transport, normally carries some 80 passengers, but children under 12 will sleep in pairs in one cabin bed and all hundred Chileans can be transported at one time.

Consul General Eugenio Palacios, Chilean chargé d'affaires, recently in Germany, investigated some 1,000 Chileans there.

Information about when the other 900 may sail was not available.

ROMANIA MAKES STALIN A CITIZEN

Bucharest, March 22 (A. P.).—Premier Stalin today became an honorary citizen of Romania and the Soviet Foreign Minister, V. M. Molotov, an honorary citizen of Kluj, the capital of Transylvania.

King Michael conferred the Grand Cross of the Order of Carol on the Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, in recognition of his support of Romania's plea to be heard in conferences on the German peace treaty.

The Romanian Cabinet issued the proclamation honoring the Russian leaders on the second anniversary of the return of Transylvania to Romania.

Greek Zone Is Put Under Martial Law

Athens, March 22 (AP)—The Greek Cabinet imposed martial law throughout the prefecture of Laconia at the southern tip of the Greek mainland tonight as a result of the tense situation created by the massacre of 32 Communist convicts Friday in a prison at Ghythion.

The cabinet decided also to take measures against civil and military auhorities in the area where the mass slaying occurred, to hold military trials for those responsible for the massacre and to have the prefecture cleared of armed bands.

The attack on the prison was made by neighboring villagers in reprisal for the murder of the leader of a Rightist band, the Ministry of Public Order said.

Greek Army Drives on Rebels

Spring Offensive, Aided by Artillery and Planes, Is Launched in the North.

Athens, March 22 (A. P.).—The Greek Army's promised spring offensive against anti-Government guerrillas in the north was reported under way today on Mount Grammos, near the Albanian frontier.

Larisa dispatches last night said that the Fifteenth Division, with artillery and air-group support, began a large-scale drive on the Grammos guerrillas early Thursday. The reports said flyers from Larisa and Salonika bases inflicted severe losses among the anti-Government forces with machine gun fire.

Southwest of Mount Grammas, Eighth Division units were said to have wiped out a band of guerrillas at Hospsi on Mount Tzoumerka in Greek Epirus, not far from Albania.

Press reports said today that in another Epirus action, Greek troops killed twenty guerrillas and wounded fifteen in a three-hour battle near Konitsa. Other dispatches reported that far to the East near the Bulgarian border, the Xanthe Brigade virtually wiped out a leftist band of about 200 in the vicinity of Thermai. These dispatches said fifty guerrillas were killed, seventy wounded and seven captured and the remnants fled into Bulgaria, leaving many supplies behind.

In Greece's southern peninsula of the Peloponnesus inhabitants of nearby villages broke into a prison at Ghythion and killed thirty-two Communist convicts to avenge the killing of P. Katsareas, right wing band chieftain.

Penalties Promised.

The Ministry of Public Order, which announced the lynching, said that it was carried off by some 200 armed villagers, who overcame twenty-five prison guards. The Government, voicing "indignant disapproval," promised stern penalties and ordered the Minister of Public Order, lately on tour in Eastern Macedonia, to go to Ghythion to investigate.

A United Nations Commission has been in Greece almost two months inquiring into a Greek charge that the northern guerrillas had been supplied and encouraged from across the Albanian, Yugoslav and Bulgarian borders.

Alexis Kyrou, Greek liaison officer, notified the commission on Wednesday night of plans for the current Mount Grammos offensive. Greek military officials earlier had complained that the Army was being delayed because Russian and Polish delegates to the commission were then still in the mountain area.

Those delegates stayed behind to wait for "Gen. Markos," guerrilla leader, last Sunday when the rest of a commission team sent to interview him gave up the mission and left.

U. N. Delegate Tells of Seeing 'Gen. Markos'

Pole on Balkans Inquiry Team Back in Salonika From Guerrilla Region

SALONIKA, Greece, March 22 (AP).—A member of the missing Slav delegation of the United Nations Balkans Investigating Commission arrived here today and said he had interviewed the much-sought "General Markos," commander in chief of Greek guerrilla forces.

Alexei Grauer, one of the Polish representatives on the commission, said he had brought back a 200-page memorandum from the guerrilla leader giving views on the turbulent border situation.

Mr. Grauer and other Slav members remained in guerrilla territory after other representatives on the U. N. commission's field team had waited in vain for two days for an interview with "General Markos."

The Polish representative said he met the "general" at the guerrilla chief's headquarters at an unidentified village in western Macedonia at noon on Thursday.

Another member of the delegation said that the missing group, including Mr. Grauer and French and Yugoslav newspaper men, were not in guerrilla territory. Until they arrived today at Salonika their whereabouts and fate were unknown.

The Polish representative scheduled a news conference for 7:30 tonight, but just before it was to start Mr. Grauer was summoned to another hotel by chief Soviet delegate A. A. Lavrischev. Tass correspondent Leonide Velichanski later announced that Mr. Grauer had been forced to postpone the conference because of "heavy duties."

A commission spokesman said the group's contact with "General Markos" was unofficial and that acceptance of his memorandum would be decided by the commission.

Trieste Boundary Group Fired On

TRIESTE, March 22 (AP)—An Allied Information Service report said today that Venezia Giulia police escorting the Venezia Giulia Boundary Commission at work yesterday were fired upon from concealed positions. The police fired back and wounded and captured one of the ambushers, but he later escaped, the report said. His companions also fled. None of the police or commission members was injured.

Church of Nativity Robbed of Jewelry

Jerusalem, March 22 (A. P.).—Jewelry and statues were stolen last night from the grotto of the Church of the Nativity, which is built over the supposed birthplace of Christ. A glass case containing a statue of the Virgin Mother was smashed. The police said the value of the stolen items was not yet known.

BRITISH SEIZE 5 TERRORISTS

Search Is In Syrian Orphanage Area Of Jerusalem

Jerusalem, March 22 (AP) — Five known terrorists, "two of them believed to be big boys," were arrested by British authorities in a combined army-police search in the Syrian orphanage area of Jerusalem today, an army spokesman announced tonight.

The spokesman declined to identify the men arrested, but he denied a report that Menahem Beigin, Irgun Zvei Leumi "chief of staff," was among them.

The search resulted in discovery of a quantity of ammunition and explosives, including 7 homemade bombs, 40 sticks of gelignite, a detonating set, 3 pounds of homemade explosives, 233 rounds of ammunition and 1 grenade.

Jew Shot To Death

A reliable unofficial source said tonight that Joseph Viniarsky, 34, former Polish building contractor now believed to be a member of the Stern Gang, "high command," had been caught in a police raid on Thursday. Viniarsky is one of the eighteen "known terrorists" pictured on military posters displayed throughout Palestine. Official spokesmen have said he was believed to be Jerusalem commander of the Stern Gang.

Tonight, off-duty military intelligence and criminal investigation division officers were suddenly summoned to their offices. No explanation was given to newsmen.

A bomb was tossed into the unoccupied ground floor of a home in Tel Aviv and a 71-year-old Jew was found shot to death in nearby Petah Tiqva.

Bullets Pierce Taxi

The bomb did some damage but caused no casualties. Police said the body of Lion Yehuda Meshia was found in an orange grove near his home with bullet wounds in the chest and head. No motive was advanced by authorities.

Bullets pierced a taxi in Jerusalem. The police said that two unidentified persons "alleged to be soldiers" fired the shots.

The search, in which 24 mine detecting squads were used, fanned out from the orphanage now used as a military depot and pay corps headquarters. It was attacked ten days ago by terrorists who blasted a hole through a wall and planted explosives which killed one soldier and injured eight others.

Last night jewelry and ikons were stolen from the Grotto Church of the Nativity, believed to be the location of the birthplace of Christ. A glass case contaiing a statue of the virgin was smashed. Value of the stolen goods was not yet known, police said.

Ship Cargo Row Settled, Dutch Announce

The Hague, March 22 (AP)—The Netherlands Government said today an agreement has been reached in the case of the United States freighter Martin Behrman, whose $3,000,000 cargo was seized by Dutch authorities in Batavia.

"Continuous friendly discussions between the Netherlands Government and the United States Government led to this result," a communique said.

The Martin Behrman, chartered by the Isbrandtsen Company, of New York, was ordered to Batavia by Dutch naval craft after she loaded sugar, sisal, rubber and other products at the Republican port of Cheribon in Java.

To Provide "Similar Cargo"

Netherlands East Indies officials said the cargo was seized because the products were grown on estates, now in Indonesian hands, which rightfully belonged to Dutchmen.

"The Netherlands Indies Government," said the communiqué issued here, "has declared itself prepared to provide the Martin Behrman with a similar legal cargo so that there will be no financial loss for the ship.

"Moreover, the N.E.I. Government is willing to compensate the company for financial losses caused by the order to the Martin Behrman to sail from Cheribon to Batavia. This compensation may be determined by arbitration if necessary.

Asks Promise By Ship Line

"It will be taken into account that the ship was already on its way to Cheribon before the Netherlands Indies import and export regulations were announced." (These regulations provide for a Dutch licensing system.)

The communiqué said, however, the N.E.I. Government was "prepared to meet the Isbrandtsen line's wishes" only if the latter promised not to take legal action in regard to the cargo once the authorized shipment arrived in the United States.

"In the latter case," the document declared, "the N.E.I. Government will only provide cargo destined for Europe."

Promises Goods of Indies

BATAVIA, Java, March 22 (AP).—Hubertus J. Van Mook, Acting Governor General of the Netherlands East Indies, said today that the United States would be able to obtain "large quantities" of raw materials from Indonesia as soon as the Cheribon draft agreement is signed.

Mr. Van Mook predicted the agreement would be signed soon by officials of the Netherlands and the Indonesian Republic. The pact would give Indonesia a partnership along with the Netherlands under the Dutch crown.

He said American ships would receive a "fair share" of the raw materials, which include an estimated 1,000,000 tons of sugar and large quantities of rubber, sisal (hemp) and cinchona bark. These which quinine is derived). These materials have been bottled up within this rich island for the last nineteen months while the Indonesians have been fighting for independence.

"Within a very short period considerable quantities of export goods which are needed in the world markets will become available," the Dutch official said. "The American people, whose industry can make such an important contribution to the reconstruction of our destroyed factories, will naturally obtain large quantities of our exports," he added.

NANKING RENEWS BID TO PEACE TALK

But Kuomintang Chiefs Doubt That Communists Will Agree to Their Terms for Parley

NANKING, March 22 (AP)—With the Communists retreating northeastward from their fallen capital of Yenan, the Government made new tentative peace overtures today but anticipated that they would be rejected.

Gen. Wu Te-chen, secretary of the Kuomintang [Government party], told the party's executive committee that the Government was prepared to resume political negotiations with the Communists provided they would agree to aid in a nationwide restoration of communications and in a merger of armed forces. Members of the committee said they did not believe the Communists would be willing to talk peace under any conditions.

The latest reports from the front said Government troops had cleaned out all Communists within seven miles of Yenan and were pushing toward Tsingkien, fifty miles to the northeast.

[The Chinese Communist radio, which went off the air Saturday in the midst of a broadcast, resumed transmission early Sunday, "somewhere in north Shensi," according to The Associated Press. The unexplained interruption had led to speculation that Government troops might be pressing close to Communist fugitives after the fall of Yenan.]

Government press dispatches said families of the fleeing Communists had reached Hsinghsien, 200 miles northeast of Yenan, after crossing the Yellow River into Shansi Province. Yenan fell Wednesday after the Communists evacuated it.

There were many rumors in Nanking that prominent Communists had fallen into Government hands and that they included Gen. Ho Lung, commandant of the Yenan defense forces, but a Government military spokesman said there was no confirmation.

China Peace Offer Depends On Reds

Nanking, March 22 (AP)—A Government party official said today the Government was prepared—under certain conditions—to resume peace talks with Chinese Communists. High party members said, however, that they were sure the Reds would not resume negotiations under any conditions.

Kuomintang (Government party) Secretary General Wu Teh-chen told the party's central executive committee the Government was prepare dto begin new negotiations under two conditions:

1. That the Communists agree to assist in restoration of communications on a nation-wide scale, and

2. That the Communists agree to an army reorganization plan drafted under the leadership of Gen. George C. Marshall, now United States Secretary of State.

Recall Demanded

The executive committee, which was expected to end its plenary sessions tomorrow, adopted a resolution demanding the immediate recall and severe punishment of Formosa's governor general, Chen Yi. The resolution charged Chen Yi with responsibility for conditions which led to bitter rioting throughout the island.

Informed sources said the close of the committee session would be followed by a shakeup in the Chinese Cabinet. Chiang Kai-shek, they said, would revamp his Cabinet in preparation for continued war against the Communists.

Petitions Ask Recall Of Formosa Governor

Nanking, March 22 (AP)—Formosan communities in Shanghai and Nanking petitioned the Kuomintang (Government party) convention today to recall Gen. Chen Yi, governor of that troubled island province, immediately.

The petition also demanded the release of "large numbers" of Formosans still under arrest for taking part in recent riots and demonstrations.

MOUNTBATTEN IN NEW DELHI

Arrives To Assume Tasks As Perhaps Last Viceroy

New Delhi, March 22 (AP)—Admiral Lord Mountbatten arrived in New Delhi today to assume his tasks as the 26th and perhaps last viceroy of this huge, troubled subcontinent of 400,000,000 people.

Rumblings of the political dissention that has taken thousands of lives in India were plainly heard as 46-year-old wartime commander prepared to take over from Lord Wavell.

Tomorrow the Moslem League will observe "Parkistan Day" in celebration of the seventh anniversary of its demands for an independent Moslem state. Mahomed Ali Jinnah, league president, urged his followers to keep peace but admonished them to "be ready to carry on our grim struggle and face all dangers and eventualities" in achieving an independent Moslem state.

50,000 Strike In Calcutta

In Calcutta, where 50,000 persons were on strike, British troops were alerted to guard against any outbreaks. Wage increases were the main issues in the strikes, said by som eto be Communist inspired.

From the restive Punjab came the latest estimate of casualties in communal disturbances which have plagued the area since March 4. A. A. MacDonald, Punjab Home Secretary, said the total number of known casualties since that date was 2,060 killed and 1,104 injured.

Lord and Lady Mountbatten were greeted at theairport by Lord Wavell. They were introduced to Jawaharlal Nehru, All-India Congress head of the interim government, and Liaquat Ali Khan, head of the Moslem League contingent in the cabinet.

Tomorrow Wavell and his family will return to England, and on the next day Mountbatten will be sworn in as Viceroy by the Chief Justice of India. Britain has announced its intention to leave India by June, 1948. Mountbatten will administer the liquidation of British obligations during that period.

British Troops Alerted in Calcutta

Calcutta, March 22 (A. P.).—A Bengal police official said today that every possible precaution was being taken to prevent any communal disturbances in this riot-torn Province tomorrow, when the Moslem League celebrates Pakistan Day.

British troops, which helped to quell last August's riots, have been alerted for the occasion.

Burma Can't Meet Rice Quota

RANGOON, March 22 (AP).—Owing to wide-scale race looting in Burma's rice bowl—the Irrawaddy Delta—Burma will be unable to meet its rice quota of 750,000 tons this year, Ukyaw Nyein, Home Judicial Minister stated today. He said it was probable that only half this tonnage would be exported.

Troops To Watch Jap Vote

Tokyo, March 22 (AP) — United States 8th Army Military Government teams and tactical troops will observe local and national elections in Japan next month, checking as many as possible of the 50,000 polling places to forestall violations.

'Miss Occupation' Chosen In Japan

Tokyo, March 22 (AP)—Blonde Lillian Nicolich, of Seattle, 21-year-old secretary in the public relations office of an air force unit in Japan, today was proclaimed "Miss Occupation of 1947."

Five anonymous editors of Pacific Stars and Stripes chose Miss Nicolich from among several scores of entrants in a photo contest. Then they printed four photographs of her to show why she won.

Miss Nicolich's measurements, as set forth by the Army publication: Weight, 135; height, 5 feet, 3¼ inches; bust, 37 inches; waist, 26 inches; hips, 36 inches.

New Zealand Troops In Japan Commended

Kure, Japan, March 22 (AP)—New Zealanders of the occupation forces, who landed in Japan one year ago, today were commended in a special order of the day for efficient performance of duty.

The order was issued by Fred Jones, New Zealand Defense Minister, now on a visit here; Major General Weir, chief of the New Zealand general staff, and Brig. L. Potter, commander of New Zealand forces here.

The troops were praised for upholding "the good name of our country" and for performance of occupation duties. "The task is an important one," the order added. "It is essential to insure that the victory of arms is made secure and that the threat of aggression in the Pacific is removed."

Japanese Gets Five Years

Guilty in Sale of Poisoned Liquor Which Killed U. S. Soldier

YOKOHAMA, March 22 (AP).—A Japanese found guilty of selling poisoned liquor which caused the death of Technician 5th Class John Phillips, of Hogansville, Ga., was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and fined 75,000 yen ($1,500) today by the 8th Army provost court.

Keiichi Uwakodo was given the maximum punishment permitted in such courts. Toshitomo Kawaji, who was involved in the sale, was sentenced to three years and fined 50,000 yen.

Americans Wed in Japan

YOKOHAMA, March 22 (AP).—Miss Betty Reser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Reser, of Miami, was married to Major George J. Krause, son of Mrs. May D. Krause, of Jackson Heights, Queens, N. Y., at an American Consulate ceremony here.

Manila May Raise Army Of 100,000

Manila, March 22 (AP)—The Philippine Army, which now numbers 37,000 officers and men, is expected to expand into a citizen army of 100,000 under impetus of the military assistance accord signed with the United States yesterday.

Induction of 100,000 young men for military training has been stalled by a shortage of supplies and a lack of capable officers to train draftees. The United States military advisory group, headed by Maj. Gen. Albert M. Jones, is expected to give first attention to training command officers, establishing camps and expediting use of surplus American army supplies by the Philippine Army.

Of the 37,000 men now in the Philippine Army, 24,000 are engaged in the pacification campaign against Hukbalahap armed peasants.

Hidden Huk HQ On Luzon Captured

Cabanatuan, the Philippines, March 22 (AP)—A complete, hidden town used by the Hukbalahaps as a headquarters and indoctrination center for their armed peasants has been captured in the Sierra Madre Mountains 20 miles southeast of this central Luzon city.

Filipino military police, who announced the discovery today, said the stronghold was stormed and captured under intense mortar and mountain gun fire from the insurgents.

Major Burgosino Fausto, one of the officers in charge of the campaign, asserted the town was "complete with all departments of a Soviet-patterned civil administration and army."

Other Firms May Adopt One's $6 Newsprint Hike

Montreal, March 22 (AP)—Canadian paper quarters hinted, and United States sources flatly predicted, today that paper companies both here and in the United States soon would follow the lead of a big Canadian dealer who boosted the price of newsprint $6 a ton yesterday, to the highest level since 1920.

Company officials said yesterday that Canadian International Papers Sales Company and its parent, Canadian International Paper Company, would put their newsprint price up April 1 to $86 a ton in Montreal and Toronto and, adding the customary $4 international differential, $90 a ton in New York.

Elsewhere in Canada and the United States, prices would differ in accordance with freight charges and contractual obligations. The 1920 average Canadian-United States price was $112.

Pegged At $50 In War

In the Montreal area, officials of the other big companies, admittedly surprised at International's move, said their own companies would reconsider their positions at once. New York newsprint quarters, going further, forecast a like increase soon by other United States and Canadian paper firms.

Newsprint in Canada, with United States prices generally fluctuating at a level $4 higher, reached a depression low of $40 a ton in 1934 and 1935 but later rose to a basic price of $50, at which it remained pegged from 1938 through the war. Since 1945, there have been several increases.

The last year's trend in the United States, which gets 80 per cent of its newsprint from Canada, has been affected by Office of Price Administration regulations and United States-Canadian currency relations.

$67 Under OPA In Early '46

The United States basic price of $67 a ton under OPA at the beginning of 1946 went up to $73.80 when Canada revalued her currency to par with the United States dollar in July; back to $67 when OPA controls returned after their July lapse; up to $74 by OPA authorization in late August, and up to $84 the same way in October.

A United States Senate Small Business subcommittee looking into newsprint supplies recently was told that newsprint had been offered to small publishers at up to 250 a ton.

Last winter, newsprint deliveries were curtailed by a shortage of railroad rolling stock and bad weather in Canada, and some United States publishers had to reduce the size of their papers and reject some advertising to spread out their supplies.

Bill Killing OPA Signed By Truman

Rent Agency and OTC Must Close Up by June 30

CPA Ends March 31

President Hopes Congress Will Continue Rent, Sugar Controls

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, March 22.—President Truman today signed a $179,645,668 deficiency appropriation bill, which calls for complete liquidation of the Office of Temporary Controls—including the OPA—by June 30.

The bill requires the liquidation of the Civilian Production Administration by June 30, along with OPA, and requires CPA to rescind $2,400,000 in previously appropriated funds.

Since this will cut off CPA's activity in support of the veterans' emergency housing program by March 31, Mr Truman announced he is issuing an order immediately transferring CPA's controls over building materials and commercial construction to Housing Expediter Frank R. Creedon.

"These few but essential controls will be maintained by Creedon as long as they are necessary and will be fully enforced," Mr. Truman said.

The measure signed by Mr. Truman gives OPA a little more than $7,000,000 to pay off terminal leave obligations to employees.

Mr. Truman said it was not the intent of Congress to cripple rent control and sugar rationing before congressional policy on extension of these programs had been determined.

"Accordingly, I have requested the temporary controls administrator to continue these programs on an effectivt basis," Mr. Truman said, "with the expectation that the Congress will take timely action on rent control and sugar rationing."

The House has passed a bill to continue sugar rationing until Oct. 3 but vest it in the Agriculture Department. Senate Republicans are split on the issue of continuing sugar rationing, with one group demanding that rationing be allowed to die March 31 and the other backing an extension until March 31, 1948.

Neither chamber has acted on rent contral, which is scheduled to expire June 30. A Senate banking subcommittee has approved a bill to continue rent control until March 31, 1948. The House banking committee is holding hearings on other proposals.

Truman's Statement on O.T.C.

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP).—The complete text of a statement issued by President Truman in connection with the signing of an urgent deficiency appropriation bill:

I have today approved the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, 1947 (H. R. 1968). This bill provides deficiency funds that I requested for such critically important activities as the Veterans Administration, the Office of Defense Transportation and the Division of Disbursement of the Treasury. It also includes rescissions of funds for a number of agencies.

The bill also contains certain provisions affecting the functions of the Office of Temporary Controls and two of its constituent agencies—the Office of Price Administration and the Civilian Production Administration. In signing the bill I am mindful of its effect upon the rent-control and sugar-rationing programs which are so important to the welfare of the American people. I believe that a brief explanation of the bill is necessary so that the country may be fully aware of the danger in which it places these programs and what needs to be done to protect the public interest.

The urgent deficiency bill requires the complete liquidation of the Office of Temporary Controls, which is now administering these programs, by June 30, 1947. The Congress has not, however, decided that rent control and sugar rationing are to end by that date. On the contrary, the Congress is now considering legislation to extend sugar rationing beyond March 31 and rent control beyond June 30, 1947.

Although I believe that the establishment of the Office of Temporary Controls was a prudent method of carrying through to the end these war-time controls and of effecting their rapid liquidation through keeping them in a temporary agency, my principal concern at this time is not what agency of the government shall be intrusted with the administration of these programs. My present concern is that these programs be continued effectively until such time as they are no longer necessary.

I have already directed that the utmost economies be made in the administration of these programs, but I know it is not the intent of the Congress to cripple rent control and sugar rationing before the policy of the Congress is determined with regard to the extension of these programs. Accordingly, I have requested the Temporary Controls Administrator to continue these programs on an effective basis, with the expectation that the Congress will take further timely action on rent control and sugar rationing. Legislation to authorize continuation of these programs is now before the Congress and prompt action is urgently needed to insure continuity. If the programs are to be maintained with full effectiveness, the legislation should include authorization to make available to the new administering agencies for operating purposes such amounts as are necessary out of funds already appropriated.

The urgent deficiency bill rescinds $2,400,000 from the appropriations to the Civilian Production Administration and requires the liquidation of that agency by June 30, 1947. In the light of this action it is necessary for that agency to terminate its important activities in support of the veterans' emergency housing program by March 31, 1947. These functions include the limitations of nonresidential construction and increasing the production of critical building materials.

It is of the utmost importance that an effective housing program be continued. Moreover, it is clear that the Congress did not intend that these important functions be discontinued. Accordingly, I am issuing an order today transferring these functions to the Housing Expediter, who is authorized under existing law to carry them out. These few but essential controls will be continued by him as long as they are necessary and will be fully enforced.

Proposed Greek Aid Bill Tries To Placate U.N.

Washington, March 22 (AP)—A bipartisan congressional drive got under way today to notify the world that the plan to shore up Greece and Turkey against communism conforms with United Nations "principles and purposes."

Chairman Vandenberg (R., Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Senator Connally (D., Texas) offered that declaration as a formal preamble to a measure authorizing President Truman to send the two southern European countries $400,000,000 in aid.

The plan, obviously intended to meet head-on charges in Congress and foreign capitals that this country is snubbing the international organization, was advanced even as the Administration was reported weighing a plan for reaffirming its support in the United Nations.

U.N. Statements Quoted

Vandenberg and Connally cited in their proposed preamble evidence that the United Nations Security Council itself had recognized "the seriousness of the unsettled conditions" on the Greek frontier.

A recognition by the United Nations food and agriculture mission of "the necessity that Greece receive financial and economic assistance," and its recommendation that the Greeks "request such assistance" from the United Nations and from this country and Britain were quoted.

Repeating the contention of President Truman and Under Secretary of State Acheson, the proposed preamble points out that the United Nations "is not now in a position to furnish Greece and Turkey the financial and economic assistance which is immediately required."

Smaller Nations Concern

"The furnishing of such assistance to Greece and Turkey by the United States," it adds, "will contribute to the freedom and independence of all members of the United Nations in conformity with the principles and purposes of the charter."

This was seen as part of a twin move to ease the concern of the smaller nations over this country's lone hand in Greece and Turkey since Britain declared her own financial straits would force her to cast off some Mediterranean commitments.

Congressmen reported the State Department had drafted for President Truman's approval a letter for United States Delegate Warren Austin to give Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, outlining this country's position.

Other Developments

White House Press Secretary Charles Ross said no such letter had been prepared by Mr. Truman himself. However, it is known that Austin, disturbed over the reaction of the United Nations membership, came to Washington two days ago for "consultations."

Meanwhile, there were these other developments:

1. The House Foreign Affairs Committee suspended until Monday its examination of the aid measure. Then it hopes to hear Under Secretary of State Will Clayton review the program's economic aspects, and later to quiz Secretary of War Patterson and Navy Secretary Forrestal.

2. The State Department planned to release for publication tomorrow background documents given committee members on the Mediterranean situation. Under committee pressure, Acheson agreed yesterday to remove the "secret" classification of the papers.

Texts To Be Published

3. Representative Mundt (R.-S.D.) said Acheson had notified him that the "full" texts of the Yalta, Tehran and Potsdam agreements would be made public tomorrow. Mundt, a committee member, has claimed that they are essential to a study of the aid problem. At least part of this textual matter has already been published generally.

30. 24 - 8673

4. The State Department announced an allotment of 40,000 tons of grain to Hungary, whose Government the United States has sought to protect from what it terms Soviet Russian "interference." The action came only a day after denial of a request for 100,000 tons from Marshal Tito's Communist- dominated regime in Yugoslavia.

5. From London came a report quoting British Government informants as saying that Britain was helping Greece plan a spring offensive against guerrillas, and will continue limited military and economic aid until the United States steps in.

DEWEY BACKS TRUMAN PLAN TO AID GREECE

Asserts Program Should Have 'Full Support Of Americans'

Albany, N.Y., March 22 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today indorsed President Truman's proposal of United States aid to Greece and to halt the spread of communism in Europe and said the program should have "the full support of the American people."

Dewey, a possible candidate for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination, described the Greeks as "a brave bulwark against tides of oppression which would engulf the world."

He said American help was "necessary" to assist the Greeks in "resisting the forces of armed and ideological aggression . . . endeavoring to create chaos and disruption among them."

NIGHT

Mention of Turkey

The statement came in a routine proclamation designating Tuesday as "Greek War Relief Day" in New York.

Dewey made no mention of Turkey but James C. Hagerty, executive assistant, said last week "the Governor has expressed himself strongly to a number of people that we must do all in our power to prevent the collapse of the free countries of Europe."

The 1944 Republican presidential candidate did not mention communism specifically in his proclamation nor did he refer to the amount of financial assistance. President Truman has proposed $400,000,000 in aid to Greece and Turkey.

"A Brave Bulwark"

Dewey touched on "cultural and spiritual ties" between Greece and the United States, and said:

"At a grave hour in world affairs, the Government of the United States has proposed to bring its great strength to the aid of the stricken people of Greece. This help is necessary in order to help them in their epic struggle to recover from the desperate ravages of war, meanwhile, resisting the forces of armed and ideological aggression which are, at this moment, endeavoring to create chaos and disruption among them.

"Once again the Greek people are standing as a brave bulwark against tides of oppression which would engulf the world, and our nation should and, I am sure, will give them the assistance with the full support of the American people."

Second Similar Action

Dewey's support of the Washington program to aid Greece marked the second time within six months that he has aligned himself with the national Administration on a major foreign policy question.

President Truman called last October for the admission of 100,000 Jews to Palestine. Two days later, Dewey said the influx of Jews to the Holy Land "must be an immigration not of 100,000, but of several hundred thousand."

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, last month said President Truman had "spoiled" Britain's negotiations on Palestine by insisting on issuing his statement during the United States congressional election campaign.

Bevin told the British House of Commons he had "begged" James F. Byrnes, then United States Secretary of State, "that the statement should not be issued." He said "I was told that if it was not issued by Mr. Truman, a competitive statement would be issued by Mr. Dewey."

Acheson 'Red Peril' Quotes Clarified

Washington, March 22 (AP)—Under Secretary of State Acheson was quoted erroneously yesterday as saying that a Communist-dominated government anywhere would endanger the security of the United States.

The misunderstanding arose during his questioning by Representative Judd (R., Minn.), at the House Foreign Affairs Committee hearing. The questioning went thus:

Judd—I understand our major reason for proposing and adopting this legislation (aid to Greece and Turkey), is our belief that it would be dangerous to the security of the United States to have Communist-dominated governments developing in Greece and Turkey, is that correct?"

Acheson—That is correct.

Judd—Well, would it or would it not be dangerous to the security of the United States to have a Communist-dominated government on the Pacific in China?

Acheson—I think we should not look with favor upon that.

It was at that point that some reporters understood Acheson to refer to Communist-dominated governments anywhere, but examination of the transcipt established otherwise.

The State Department, too, later issued a denial.

PARLEY ON BUDGET ENDS IN DEADLOCK

House Conferees Reject Senate Compromise Plan for $5,250,000,000 Cut.

WASHINGTON, March 22—(AP) A confident attempt by Republican leaders to end Senate-House differences over slashing government costs, reducing taxes and making payments on the debt blew up today.

NIGHT

Although Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) and other Republicans said they had worked out a compromise ahead of time, a one-hour session of the official conference committee, which includes Democrats, produced only further deadlock.

Reject Compromise Figure

Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), chairman of the conferees, told newsmen that the House spokesmen unanimously rejected a compromise by Senate conferees for a $5,250,000,000 slash in President Truman's budget.

"We thought we had an agreement but it failed," said Bridges, head of the Senate conferees and chairman of the Senate Appropriations committee.

Senators who would not permit their names to be used reported the deadlock today arose from demands by House members that the senators support the income tax reduction bill now pending in the House. The measure calls for a 30 per cent cut for the smallest taxpayers and 20 per cent for most others and would cost $3,800,000,000.

"We are not going to agree to anything like that until the Senate has had a chance at the tax bill," said one influential senator.

Amid the deadlock, Rep. Engel (R-Mich.), who opposes the measure as "a rich man's bill," reported efforts by some wealthy men to get him to change his position.

ments are made on the debt."

Representative Engel (R., Mich.), who has termed the measure "a rich man's bill," announced he still intends to oppose it during the House debate. Representative Keating (R., N.Y.) said the bill gives too large a cut for high incomes and not enough for the "little man."

Former Speaker Rayburn, of Texas, now House minority leader, called on Democrats to make a united stand against the bill.

House Offered 'This Tax Cut Or None'

Washington, March 22 (AP)—Senate and House Republican leaders were reported to have agreed today to pledge a $5,250,000,000 cut in President Truman's budget, a $2,000,000,000 debt reduction and a "substantial" cut in taxes.

Washington, March 22 (AP)—Republican leaders will put their $3,840,000,000 tax-slashing bill before the House next Wednesday under a procedure requiring members to vote for this cut or none.

No amendments from the floor will be allowed and the showdown vote will come on Thursday. Speaker Martin (R., Mass.), said the bill "definitely will pass."

Democratic leaders quickly took a "no cut at all" stand, backing up President Truman's contention that any Treasury surpluses this year should be used for payments on the national debt.

Cut Graduated 30-20

The legislation, approved 16 to 9 by the House Ways and Means Committee yesterday, would lower by 30 per cent the taxes of more than 20,000,000 "little men" and give a twenty per cent cut to most of the other 26,000,000 income taxpayers.

The cuts would be retroactive to January 1. Wage and salary withholding rates would drop June 1 and rebates would be given on overpayments since the first of the year.

Representative Halleck, of Indiana, the GOP floor leader, predicted that "We will pick up more Democratic votes than we lose Republican votes." The Republicans have a 245 to 188 majority in the House.

Martin Rallies GOP

Speaker Martin issued a rallying call for Republicans, saying:

"The Republicans promised lower taxes—and we shall keep faith with the American people. These tax cuts are entirely practicable while at the same time pay-

G. O. P. SENATORS SCAN CONTROLS

Agree on Rubber Extension, Not on Rent and Sugar.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—Senate Republicans decided today to support the extension of rubber controls, but failed to reach agreement on rental and sugar regulations. Senator Young (N. D.), secretary of the Republican conference, said that sugar and rents were discussed, but that no action was taken.

Young said efforts would be made to settle differences regarding sugar between a group headed by Senator McCarthy (Wis.), who wants all controls lifted, and another led by Senator Flanders (Vt.), who wants them retained. Senator Hawkes (N. J.) urged his colleagues to keep an open mind on his proposals to continue rental controls with a 10 per cent increase in ceilings, but no agreement on rents was reached. A Senate banking sub-committee bill proposes the extension of controls, with no general increase in ceilings, until next February 29.

DAY

Bill Is Reported.

The Banking Committee yesterday reported favorably a House-approved bill extending rubber regulations one year to March 31, 1948. The G. O. P. Senators agreeing to support this, discussed the possibility of another measure later to require rubber manufacturers to use a certain percentage of synthetic rubber to keep that industry going.

Senator Wiley (Wis.), chairman of the Judiciary Committee, urged the conference to support a three-month extension of the second war powers act while a further study is made of various controls. Young said that there was no immediate support for this proposal.

The Republicans agreed generally to back a plan to centralize selective service records in each State after June 30, Young said. The selective service records bill and a resolution pledging American membership in the proposed International Refugee Organization are scheduled to come before the Senate on Monday. Young said that this probably would delay until Tuesday the start of debate on the nomination of David E. Lilienthal to become chairman of the Atomic Control Commission.

PLEDGES AIRING ON FLYING BOAT

Brewster Says Senate Body Will Investigate Plan.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—Senator Brewster (R.-Me.), chairman of the Senate War Investigating Committee, promised today a public airing of all details concerning a huge experimental flying boat that already has cost the Government $20,000,000 and never has flown.

Brewster said that contract for the mammoth craft, still under construction near Los Angeles, went to the Kaiser-Hughes Corporation, formed by Henry Kaiser and Howard Hughes.

The flying boat "was supposed to have been completed four years ago. We are determined to find out why this contract was let after it had been rejected by everybody in the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Production Board," Brewster told reporters.

DAY

The decision for public hearings, which may begin in two weeks, was reached at a closed committee session at which Merrill C. Meigs, Government consultant on aircraft procurement during the war, testified.

Brewster said the original contract was for $18,000,000, but "the Government has dumped in another two or three million dollars."

Brewster Quotes Hughes.

Hughes, aircraft company and motion picture executive, already has testified at a closed committee session and the Maine Senator quoted him as saying the huge craft "will fly or sink."

The Senator added that Kaiser, head of many wartime industries, withdrew from the flying boat contract, which has been carried on by a subsidiary of the Hughes Tool Corporation.

He described the ship as constructed of plywood and materials not required for other aircraft, weighing 400,000 pounds, having eight engines, four times larger than any similar craft when started and expected to carry 700 troops.

Brewster said that Meigs has turned over to the committee a diary he kept on details regarding the contract let by the defense plants corporation, a wartime subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. That was in 1941-42 when Meigs was with the War Production Board.

"Another of the strange things" was that the contract was let although John Snyder, present Secretary of the Treasury, "was violently opposed to it," Brewster said. Snyder then was head of defense plants.

CONTEMPT CITATION SET FOR JOSEPHSON

Man Named at House Inquiry as in Russian Secret Police Had Refused to Testify

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Representative J. Parnell Thomas of New Jersey, chairman of a House committee investigating an alleged New York passport ring, says a contempt citation will be drawn up Monday against Leon Josephson of New York City for refusal to testify.

Mr. Josephson was named yesterday by two former admitted Communists in testimony before Mr. Thomas' Committee on un-American activities as a member of the Russian secret police.

A committee investigator, Louis Russell, testified that Mr. Josephson now was "supposedly" in the building business, and that he went frequently to Dayton, Ohio.

The testimony linking Mr. Josephson with the Russian secret police was given under oath by Liston M. Oak and Fred Beal, both of New York. Mr. Oak, managing editor of the New Leader magazine, told the committee that Mr. Josephson might be "more important" in the Communist movement than Gerhart Eisler.

Eisler has been called the "supreme" Communist authority in this country by the committee. It has charged that Eisler obtained a false passport in 1934, for which, the committee said, Mr. Josephson wrote the application.

Gasoline Rise Investigated by Anti-Trust Unit

U. S. Acts on Complaints; Reports Two Increases in Some Areas Recently

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP).—Motorists' complaints over widespread increases in gasoline prices during the last two weeks have started an inquiry by the Justice Department's anti-trust division.

The department said it has received many complaints about the increases which, reports from representative cities show, range generally from a half cent to a cent and a half a gallon. In some areas the advances were the second in recent weeks.

Douglas W. McGregor, Acting Attorney General, told reporters: "We are studying the situation and have been doing so for some time through the anti-trust division."

Two Governors, Mon C. Wallgren of Washington, and Earl Warren of California, joined in criticizing the increase and in asking an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In New York the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey), which announced increases of .8 of a cent a gallon for gasoline and .7 of a cent for kerosene, effective immediately, attributed the action to a recent advance in crude oil prices.

Columbus, Ohio, reported that Standard and other oil companies there had increased gasoline prices 1½ cents a gallon ten days ago. Motor fuel prices went up a cent a gallon in recent days in Washington, Baltimore, Roanoke, Va., Memphis, New Mexico, Salt Lake City and Oklahoma City. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia reported advances of a half cent to one cent a gallon.

In Buffalo a .7 of a cent advance sent gasoline to 23 cents a gallon, the highest there in twenty years. New Haven reported gasoline prices, ranging from 20.6 on regular to 23 cents on high test, were highest there since 1927, with Gulf and Atlantic preparing to announce a hike of .7 of a cent.

New Mexico, where gasoline went up a cent a gallon last week, had a similar increase last December. A Rhode Island increase of .7 of a cent followed a .4 of a cent boost three weeks ago.

Gasoline price boosts of a half-cent to a cent in Oklahoma came two weeks after a 25-cents-a-barrel increase in crude oil prices.

Tank Car Scarcity Is Called Critical

O.D.T. Allocation Defended at House Hearing

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP).—A critical shortage of tank cars for the transportation of liquid petroleum gas was pictured for a House subcommittee today by government officials and industry representatives.

At issue was an order of the Office of Defense Transportation of Feb. 28 directing the allocation of 423 surplus Army tank cars to companies which had operated them for the government.

H. Emerson Thomas, of Westfield, Conn., appearing for a group of liquid petroleum gas distributors, told a House executive expenditures subcommittee that if the surplus cars had been sold on the open market "some of them would have gone to Mexico and some to Cuba."

The shortage of liquid gas tanks cars is "so great" this would have had a serious effect upon the industry in this country, Mr. Thomas said.

"I believe that the Office of Defense Transportation under trying conditions have done the best they possibly could do," he added.

O. D. T. officials explained to the subcommittee that the allocation of the 423 cars was made to various companies on the basis of the number they operated on June 1, 1946, taking into account new cars which have been delivered to the companies since then.

The new car factor in the allocation formula brought a protest from the Phillips Petroleum Company. Because that company received a considerable number of new cars, the O. D. T. allocated it only twenty-four surplus cars in the sale, as against the 189 it has been operating under lease.

A similar protest was made by C. W. Guy, vice-president of the General Gas Corp., of Baton Rouge, La. He told the committee that because his company had received ten new tank cars, the O. D. T. did not give it an opportunity to purchase five surplus cars which it had leased.

National Broadcasters Staff At Full Strength

Washington, March 22 (AP)—The National Association of Broadcasters today announced the appointment of three new departmental directors, bringing its staff to full strength for the first time since the start of World War II.

The new appointees:

Robert K. Richards, native of Urbana, Ohio, and now editorial director of Broadcasting Magazine, director of public relations.

Harold Fair, native of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and now program director of radio station WHO, Des Moines, Iowa, director of the program department.

Royal V. Howard, native of Roseburg, Ore., and now chief engineer, radio station KSFO, San Francisco, director of engineering.

New Army Bomber Has Own 'Subway'

Washington, March 22 (AP)—The Army's new bomber, the XB-36, is so big that it contains a "subway" with a four-wheel scooter to carry crew members between the pilot cabin and the waist section.

The Army Air Forces said tonight the communication tunnel is 85 feet long, compared with the B-29's 34 feet. The tunnel provides a passageway along one side of the bomb bay. At high altitudes it is pressurized like the other compartments to allow the crew to move about without oxygen masks and cumbersome air supply tubing.

GI Loans For Buying Homes Reach 605,000

Washington, March 22 (AP)—GI loans for home purchases numbered 605,000 through February 25, the Veterans Administration reported tonight.

"VA consistently has cautioned veterans against hasty use of their loan guaranty privilege in the current high-priced real estate market," the statement said, "reminding them that their loan benefits remain available to them for ten years after the official end of the war."

GI loans for the purchase of farms numbered 24,500, and for business purposes 56,000.

U.S. Meetings Of Council Year Old

Lake Success, N.Y., March 22 (AP).—The United Nations was getting set today to observe with a splurge of work the first anniversary of the Security Council's sessions in the United States.

The anniversary is Tuesday, March 25, a year from the day the Council opened its American meetings at Hunter College in the Bronx with a bitter but almost forgotten debate on the Russian-Iranian case.

Around that date United Nations will undertake two new efforts to cure the ills of the world through substitution of a postwar style trusteeship system for the old League of Nations mandates and institution of the first down-to-earth arms-reduction talks undertaken by the organization.

The first meeting of the conventional Arms Commission, set up on recommendation of the General Assembly and implemented by the Security Council, is scheduled for 3 P.M. Monday. Its members are identical with those of the eleven-nation Security Council but the advisory groups backing them up have a military character.

The ten-nation Trusteeship Council, last of the major organs set up by the United Nations, meets Wednesday for the first time to take over League of Nations mandates submitted voluntarily by United Nations members.

Lie To Speak

Secretary General Trygve Lie will open the Trusteeship Council with a speech which may touch on a variety of subjects, including President Truman's decision to propose American aid for Greece and Turkey without referring the question first to the United Nations.

The Security Council last night adjourned the debate on Albania after United States Delegate Herchel V. Johnson proposed a modification of Britain's demand that Albania be held responsible for laying mines that damaged two British destroyers and killed 44 British seamen in Corfu Channel last October 22. Johnson offered an amendment stating that the mines were laid with "Albania's knowledge." Debate will resume Tuesday.

Radiological War Warning Issued

San Francisco, March 22 (AP)—The nation's top authority on radiological safety today sounded a somber warning that an all-out atomic war could mean humanity's doom.

Dr. Stafford Warren, chief of radiological safety for the Manhattan Project, which developed the atomic bomb, declared one or two well-placed bombs could make the average big city untenable and require its evacuation within two hours if survivors of the blast were to escape death from radioactive poisoning.

Radioactive particles contaminating buildings, crops and water supplies would rain death slowly upon the earth for generations after any atomic war, Warren told the University of California Medical School faculty in a talk yesterday.

Death To Aggressor

He said a surprise atom-bomb attack on this country would bring death to the aggressor, who could only expect a furious counter-attack unless he were lucky enough to knock the United States out in the first few minutes. That, he added, would be unlikely.

He said radioactive particles from the first atom-bomb explosion near Alamogordo, N.M., July 16, 1945, have been carried around the world several times and are still detectable in the air.

As an aftermath of an atom-bomb explosion, radioactive forms of oxygen, nitrogen, carbon and other elements become parts of living things, such as plants and animals, even entering the walls of buildings, clothing, growing crops or ships.

After an atomic war, said Dr. Warren, food and water would be unfit for use. Persons who consumed them would risk death through destruction of their blood cells. Or the human race would be in danger of dying out because of sterility caused by the radioactive particles.

Dr. Warren, dean of the new Medical School of the University of California at Los Angeles, said he believed the United States could lose 100,000,000 of its people in an atom-bomb attack and survive as a nation—providing its resources did not become contaminated.

But radioactive poisoning of its food, water, houses and industrial plants would mean the end, he said.

Submarine Future

Groton, Conn., March 22 (AP)—"The atomic bomb is very likely to increase the usefulness and effectiveness of the submarine in any future war," according to Rear Admiral John Wilkes, USN, commander of submarines, Atlantic fleet.

Rear Admiral Wilkes did not elaborate on that statement yesterday at a press conference held at the United States Navy submarine base here. He answered, "We don't know," when asked if submarines themselves could be used to launch atomic-bomb attacks, but later said that he viewed "a torpedo with an atomic warhead a possibility."

Just returned from what he termed "very strenuous" fleet exercises in the mid-Atlantic, Rear Admiral Wilkes declared that the maneuvers disclosed the "weakness" of the Navy's present type submarines as compared with faster underwater craft developed by the Germans just before the cessation of hostilities.

TO AID FOREIGN TEACHERS

Parent-Teachers Group Plans to Ship 3,000 Supply Kits

CHICAGO, March 22 (AP)—A program designed to provide 3,000 teachers in war-devastated countries with the essential supplies to reopen classrooms was announced today by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Under the plan, 3,000 kits will be filled with supplies sufficient to meet the personal and classroom needs of that number of teachers for a year. The kits will be assembled by P. T. A. State boards, district councils, study groups and local associations and shipped through facilities of the American Junior Red Cross.

The congress said gift boxes of school and health items previously had been sent to students in war-torn lands, but added that it believed this was the first American-sponsored project to help teachers.

The kits will include chalk, pen-cils, paper, pen points, powdered ink, combs, soap, needles, pins, toothbrushes, razors, blades, cold cream, towels, washcloths, hair-pins, darning needles, socks, gloves, sweaters and thread.

LOYALTY RECOMMENDATIONS TEXT

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE TEXT OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS IN THE REPORT, RELEASED TODAY, OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S COMMISSION ON GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES' LOYALTY:

A. EACH DEPARTMENT AND AGENCY SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR PRESCRIBING AND SUPERVISING ITS OWN LOYALTY PROCEDURES, IN ACCORDANCE WITH GENERALLY APPLICABLE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS HEREINAFTER RECOMMENDED.

B. A CENTRAL MASTER CARD INDEX SHALL BE MAINTAINED IN THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION COVERING ALL PERSONS ON WHOM LOYALTY INVESTIGATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE BY ANY DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY SINCE SEPTEMBER 1, 1939. THE MASTER FILE SHALL CONTAIN THE NAME, ADEQUATE IDENTIFYING INFORMATION AND AN INDICATION THAT A REPORT CAN BE FOUND IN THE APPROPRIATE DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY. THE INVESTIGATIVE REPORT IN EACH CASE SHALL REMAIN IN THE INVESTIGATING AGENCY.

C. (Q) AT THE REQUEST OF THE HEAD OF ANY DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY AN INVESTIGATIVE AGENCY SHALL MAKE AVAILABLE TO SUCH HEAD, PERSONALLY, ALL INVESTIGATIVE MATERIAL AND INFORMATION COLLECTED BY THE INVESTIGATIVE AGENCY ON ANY EMPLOYEE OR PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYEE OF THE REQUESTING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY, OR SHALL MAKE SUCH MATERIAL AND INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO ANY OFFICER OR OFFICERS DESIGNATED BY SUCH HEAD AND APPROVED BY THE INVESTIGATING AGENCY.

(2) NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING REQUIREMENT, HOWEVER, THE INVESTIGATIVE AGENCY MAY REFUSE TO DISCLOSE THE NAMES OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMANTS, PROVIDED IT FURNISHES SUFFICIENT INFORMATION ABOUT SUCH INFORMANTS ON THE BASIS OF WHICH THE REQUESTING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY CAN MAKE AN ADEQUATE EVALUATION OF THE INFORMATION FURNISHED BY THEM, AND PROVIDED IT ADVISES THE REQUESTING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY IN WRITING THAT IT IS ESSENTIAL TO THE PROTECTION OF THE INFORMANTS OR TO THE INVESTIGATION OF OTHER CASES THAT THE IDENTITY OF THE INFORMANTS NOT BE REVEALED. IT IS NOT INTENDED THAT INVESTIGATIVE AGENCIES SHOULD USE THIS DISCRETION TO DECLINE TO REVEAL SOURCES OF INFORMATION WHERE SUCH ACTION IS NOT ESSENTIAL.

B70WX (Q)

D. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL SHALL CURRENTLY FURNISH INFORMATION TO THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION ON ALL ORGANIZATIONS DESIGNATED BY HIM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CRITERION ESTABLISHED IN SUBPARAGRAPH VI OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS UNDER PARAGRAPH 3D OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 9806. THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION SHALL DISSEMINATE THIS INFORMATION TO ALL DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES TOGETHER WITH ANY OTHER CURRENT INFORMATION ON RELATED LOYALTY PROBLEMS. IT SHALL BE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD, HEREINAFTER PROVIDED, UPON REQUEST, TO ADVISE ANY DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY ON LOYALTY MATTERS.

E. THE OYALTY BOARDS OF THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES, HEREINAFTER PROVIDED, MAY BE CALLED UPON BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION OR THE LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD FOR REPORTS TO INDICATE THE NUMBER OF LOYALTY CASES ON WHICH A DETERMINATION HAS BEEN MADE DURING A GIVEN PERIOD.

F. EACH DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LOYALTY INVESTIGATION OF ANY OF ITS EMPLOYEES WHENEVER IT IS DEEMED NECESSARY. THOSE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES NOT HAVING INVESTIGATIVE ORGANIZATIONS WILL USE THE INVESTIGATIVE FACILITIES OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

G. (1) THERE SHALL BE A LOYALTY INVESTIGATION OF ALL PERSONS ENTERING THE EMPLOY OF ANY DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY. ALL INVESTIGATIONS OF PERSONS ENTERING THE COMPETITIVE SERVICE SHALL BE CONDUCTED BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, EXCEPT IN SUCH CASES AS ARE COVERED BY A SPECIAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMMISSION AND ANY GIVEN DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY. THE INVESTIGATION OF ALL PERSONS ENTERING THE EMPLOY OF ANY DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY, OTHER THAN THOSE ENTERING THE COMPETITIVE SERVICE, SHALL BE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE EMPLOYING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY.

(2) THE INVESTIGATION SHALL BE CONDUCTED EITHER BEFORE OR AFTER A PERSON GOES ON THE PAYROLL. IN THE CASE OF A PERSON ENTERING THE COMPETITIVE SERVICE, IF THE INVESTIGATION CONTINUES AFTER THE DATE HE GOES ON THE PAYROLL AND IS NOT COMPLETED WITHIN 18 MONTHS FROM THAT DATE, THE CONDITION THAT HIS EMPLOYMENT IS SUBJECT TO INVESTIGATION SHALL EXPIRE EXCEPT IN A CASE WHERE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION HAS MADE AN ADJUDICATION OF DISLOYALTY AND THE CASE CONTINUES TO BE ACTIVE BY REASON OF AN APPEAL.

(3) A FULL FIELD INVESTIGATION SHALL BE CONDUCTED OF THOSE APPLICANTS DESIGNATED BY THE HEAD OF THE EMPLOYING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY, SUCH DESIGNATION TO BE BASED ON WHAT HE CONSIDERS TO BE IN THE BEST INTEREST OF NATIONAL SECURITY.

(4) AN INVESTIGATION SHORT OF A FULL FIELD INVESTIGATION SHALL BE MADE ON ALL OTHER APPLICANTS AT ALL AVAILABLE PERTINENT SOURCES OF INFORMATION, SUCH AS:

A. THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACTING UPON INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS SHALL BE LEFT TO THE RESPECTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES AND NOT TO A CENTRAL AGENCY OR COMMITTEE.

B. THE HEAD OF EACH DEPARTMENT AND AGENCY SHALL APPOINT A LOYALTY BOARD OR BOARDS OF NOT LESS THAN THREE MEMBERS EACH FOR THE PURPOSE OF HEARING LOYALTY CASES.

C. THERE SHALL BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION A LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD WITH POWER:

I. TO ADVISE ALL DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES ON ALL PROBLEMS RELATED TO EMPLOYEE LOYALTY;

II. TO DISSEMINATE ALL INFORMATION PERTINENT THERETO;

III. TO COORDINATE THE EMPLOYEE LOYALTY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES OF THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES;

IV. TO MAKE ANY RULES AND REGULATIONS DEEMED NECESSARY TO IMPLEMENT APPLICABLE STATUTES AND EXECUTIVE ORDERS;

V. TO MAKE REPORTS AND SUBMIT RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE PRESIDENT FROM TIME TO TIME WHENEVER SUCH ACTIONS ARE DEEMED NECESSARY TO THE MAINTENANCE OF THE EMPLOYEE LOYALTY PROGRAM.

VI. EXCEPT IN CASES ARISING IN A DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY WHICH IS AUTHORIZED TO REMOVE AN EMPLOYEE SUMMARILY FOR SECURITY REASONS (AS NOW PROVIDED FOR IN PUBLIC LAW NO. 808 AND UNDER THE MCCARRAN RIDER), THE LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD SHALL HAVE POWER TO REVIEW CASES INVOLVING SUBVERSIVE OR DISLOYAL PERSONS AND TO MAKE ADVISORY RECOMMENDATIONS THEREON TO THE HEAD OF THE EMPLOYING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY. CASES WHICH ARE SUBJECT TO REVIEW MAY BE REFERRED TO THIS BOARD FOR ADVISORY RECOMMENDATIONS EITHER BY AN EMPLOYING AGENCY OR DEPARTMENT OR BY AN EMPLOYEE IN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT WHO HAS BEEN ADJUDGED TO BE DISLOYAL OR SUBVERSIVE.

V. LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT FILES AT THE PLACE OF RESIDENCE OR EMPLOYMENT, SUCH AS MUNICIPAL, COUNTY AND STATE;

VI. SCHOOL AND COLLEGE;

VII. FORMER EMPLOYER OR EMPLOYERS;

VIII. REFERENCES;

IX. ANY OTHER SIMILAR CHECKS AS MAY BE APPROPRIATE.

IF ANY OF THESE SOURCES REVEAL DEROGATORY INFORMATION, THERE SHALL THEN BE A FULL FIELD INVESTIGATION.

H. EACH DEPARTMENT AND AGENCY TO THE EXTENT THAT IT HAS NOT ALREADY DONE SO, OR THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, SHALL SUBMIT LISTS OF THE NAMES OF ALL OF ITS INCUMBENT EMPLOYEES (AND SUCH OTHER NECESSARY IDENTIFYING MATERIAL AS THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION MAY REQUIRE) TO THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, WHICH SHALL CHECK SUCH LISTS AGAINST ITS RECORDS OF PERSONS CONCERNING WHOM THERE IS SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE OF BEING WITHIN THE PURVIEW OF PARAGRAPHS (I) TO (VI) OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS HEREIN MADE UNDER PARAGRAPH 3D OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 9806. AFTER SUCH CHECK IS MADE EACH DEPARTMENT AND AGENCY SHALL MAKE, OR CAUSE TO BE MADE BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, SUCH OTHER INVESTIGATION OF ITS EMPLOYEES AS THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY SHALL DEEM ADVISABLE, AS INDICATED BY THE AFORESAID CHECK.

I. THAT THE PRESIDENT DIRECT THE SECURITY ADVISORY BOARD OF THE STATE-WAR-NAVY COORDINATING COMMITTEE TO DRAFT UNIFORM MINIMUM RULES APPLICABLE TO THE HANDLING OR TRANSMISSION OF ALL CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS, OR OTHER DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION WHICH SHOULD NOT BE PUBLICLY DISCLOSED, AND UPON APPROVAL BY THE PRESIDENT, SUCH RULES SHALL APPLY TO ALL DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT.

--DASH--

A. AN EMPLOYEE WHO IS CHARGED WITH BEING DISLOYAL SHALL HAVE A RIGHT TO AN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING BEFORE A LOYALTY BOARD IN THE EMPLOYING DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY. HE MAY APPEAR PERSONALLY, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL OR REPRESENTATIVE OF HIS OWN CHOICE, WITH WITNESSES, AND PRESENT ANY EVIDENCE, INCLUDING AFFIDAVITS, IN HIS BEHALF. EACH DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY SHALL PRESCRIBE REGULATIONS FOR THE CONDUCT OF THESE HEARINGS.

B. THE EMPLOYEE SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT TO REPLY IN WRITING TO THE CHARGES SO MADE AND EACH AGENCY SHALL SERVE A WRITTEN NOTICE ON SUCH EMPLOYEE CONTAINING:

I. A STATEMENT OF THE CHARGES PREFERRED AGAINST HIM, THE SPECIFICATION OF SUCH CHARGES TO BE AS COMPLETE AS SECURITY CONSIDERATIONS PERMIT;

II. A STATEMENT THAT HE HAS A RIGHT TO REPLY TO THE CHARGES IN WRITING WITHIN A REASONABLE PERIOD OF TIME, TO BE SPECIFIED;

III. A STATEMENT AS TO HIS RIGHT OF HEARING, IF HE SO DESIRES, AT WHICH HE MAY PERSONALLY APPEAR WITH COUNSEL OR REPRESENTATIVE OF HIS OWN CHOICE, AND WITNESSES, AND PRESENT EVIDENCE, INCLUDING AFFIDAVITS, IN HIS OWN BEHALF.

B73WX (Q)

C. WHEN A LOYALTY BOARD RECOMMENDS REMOVAL THERE SHALL BE, PRIOR TO REMOVAL, A RIGHT OF APPEAL UNDER PROVISIONS PRESCRIBED BY THE HEAD OF EACH DEPARTMENT OR AGENCY.

D. THE RIGHTS OF HEARING, NOTICE AND APPEAL SHALL BE ACCORDED TO ALL EMPLOYEES, IRRESPECTIVE OF TENURE OR MANNER, METHOD OR NATURE OF APPOINTMENT.

--DASH--

THE UNDERLYING STANDARD FOR EITHER THE REFUSAL OF EMPLOYMENT OR REMOVAL FROM EMPLOYMENT IN LOYALTY CASES SHALL BE THAT, ON ALL THE EVIDENCE, REASONABLE GROUNDS EXIST FOR BELIEVING THAT THE PERSON INVOLVED IS DISLOYAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES. INDIVIDUAL EMPLOYEE ACTIVITIES AND ASSOCIATIONS WHICH MAY BE CONSIDERED IN THIS CONNECTION INCLUDE ONE OR MORE OF THE FOLLOWING:

I. SABOTAGE, ESPIONAGE, OR ATTEMPTS OR PREPARATIONS THEREFORE, OR KNOWINGLY ASSOCIATING WITH SPIES OR SABOTEURS;

II. TREASON OR SEDITION OR ADVOCACY THEREOF;

III. ADVOCACY OF REVOLUTION OR FORCE OR VIOLENCE TO ALTER OUR CONSTITUTIONAL FORM OF GOVERNMENT;

IV. INTENTIONAL, UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE TO ANY PERSON OF DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION OF A CONFIDENTIAL OR NON-PUBLIC CHARACTER OBTAINED BY THE PERSON MAKING THE DISCLOSURE AS A RESULT OF HIS EMPLOYMENT BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES;

V. PERFORMING OR ATTEMPTING TO PERFORM HIS DUTIES, OR OTHERWISE ACTING, SO AS TO SERVE THE INTERESTS OF ANOTHER GOVERNMENT IN PREFERENCE TO THE INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES;

VI. MEMBERSHIP IN, AFFILIATION WITH OR SYMPATHETIC ASSOCIATION WITH ANY FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC ORGANIZATION, ASSOCIATION, MOVEMENT, GROUP OR COMBINATION OF PERSONS, DESIGNATED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AS TOTALITARIAN, FASCIST, COMMUNIST, OR SUBVERSIVE, OR AS HAVING ADOPTED A POLICY OF ADVOCATING OR APPROVING THE COMMISSION OF ACTS OF FORCE OR VIOLENCE TO DENY OTHERS THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS, OR AS ONE WHICH SEECFFNV

RIGHTS, OR AS ONE WHICH SEEKS TO ALTER OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT BY UNCONSTITUTIONAL MEANS.

--DASH--

A. THAT THE TEMPORARY LEGISLATION BY WHICH THE SECRETARIES OF THE WAR, NAVY AND STATE DEPARTMENTS CAN PRESENTLY REMOVE ANY EMPLOYEE SUMMARILY FOR SECURITY REASONS, BE MADE PERMANENT BECAUSE OF THE SENSITIVE NATURE OF THE OPERATIONS OF THESE THREE DEPARTMENTS, AND THAT PERMANENT LEGISLATION OF THE SAME CHARACTEER BE ENACTED TO GRANT SIMILAR POWER TO THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION.

B74WX (Q)

B. THAT ALL OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS CONTAINED IN THIS REPORT BE EFFECTUATED BY THE PROMULGATION OF AN EXECUTIVE ORDER WHICH WILL SIMULTANEOUSLY PROVIDE FOR THE ABROGATION OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 9300, DATED FEBRUARY 5, 1943.

IN CONCLUSION, THE COMMISSION RECOMMENDS THAT THIS REPORT, TO-GETHER WITH ANY EXECUTIVE ORDER WHICH THE PRESIDENT MAY ISSUE, BE SUBMITTED TO CONGRESS FOR CONSIDERATION.

LONDON, MAR 22-(AP)-THE COMMITTEES OF THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT CONFERENCE WILL START MONDAY TO FRAME DETAILS OF THE PROPOSED WORLD AGREEMENT WHICH INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY WAS STILL DEPENDING ON THE ANSWER ARGENTINA WOULD GIVE TO THE QUESTION OF MAXIMUM PRICES.

ARGENTINE SOURCES SAID THE EXPECTED INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE BUENOS AIRES GOVERNMENT HAD NOT YET ARRIVED. EVEN AFTER DIFFERENT AUTHORIZED CIRCLES HAD SAID THEY EXPECTED ARGENTINA TO REJECT THE IDEA OF A CEILING OF 135 OR, AT THE UTMOST, 180 UNITED STATES CENTS PER BUSHEL.

WHILE CANADAIAN AND UNITED STATES DELEGATES SAID THAT AN AGREEMENT COULD BE REACHED EVEN IF ARGENTINA BALKED AT THE PRICES QUESTION, OTHER SOURCES REPORTED THAT ANY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT WOULD BE INOPERATIVE IF ARGENTINA, ONE OF THE FOUR BIG WHEAT EXPORTERS, DID NOT SUBSCRIBE TO IT.

THE CONFERENCE'S FIRST WEEK WAS SPENT IN FORMAL STATEMENTS BY SOME OF THE 41 DELEGATIONS AND IN THE ORGANIZATION OF THE COMMITTEE WORK, BUT THE CONSENSUS WAS THAT IF AN AGREEMENT OF PRICES WAS NOT REACHED ALL OTHER ITEMS IN THE PROPOSALS BEFORE THE MEETING WOULD BE VALUELESS.

CONFERENCE SOURCES DISMISSED THE ARGUMENT THAT RUSSIA, AN EXPORTER OF WHEAT BEFORE THE WAR, AS WELL AS RUMANIA, WERE NOT REPRESENTED IN THE MEETING. THEY STATED THAT RUSSIA WOULD NOT BE IN A POSITION TO UNDERSELL OTHER WHEAT EXPORTERS FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS.

THE QUESTION OF PRICES, WHICH DOMINATED ALL SPECULATIONS ON THE OUTCOME OF THE CONFERENCE, HINGED ON THE FACT THAT THE WORLD MARKET WAS NOW ABSORBING ALL EXPORTS AT THE PREVAILING QUOTATIONS OF THREE DOLLARS BUSHEL--WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE ANGLO CANADIAN CONTRACT WHICH COMMITTED APPROXIMATELY 80 PERCENT OF THE CANADIAN CROP FOR SALE TO THE UNITED KINGDOM AT 175 CENTS A BUSHEL.

WITH THE INTEREST OF DELEGATES CENTERED ON ARGENTINA'S EXPECTED REACTION TO THE PRICES QUESTION, OBSERVERS SPECULATED ON OTHER QUESTIONS AS WELL.

ONE WAS THE POSSIBLE REACTION OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO THE POSSIBILITY OF HAVING TO SUBSIDIZE UNITED STATES WHEAT EXPORTS.

ANOTHER OBSERVER SAID THAT THE REPORTED DISSATISFACTION OF CANADIAN FARMERS OVER THE ANGLO-CANADIAN CONTRACT MIGHT BE HEIGHTENED BY AN AGREEMENT WHICH BOUND CANADA TO SELL WHEAT MUCH UNDER THE CHICAGO PRICES FOR A PERIOD OF FOUR YEARS.

"THIS BEING A SELLERS' MARKET", ONE OBSERVER SAID, "THE IDEAS OF IMPORTING COUNTRIES DO NOT SEEM TO COUNT MUCH IN THE PRESENT DISCUSSIONS AND SPECULATIONS. THE ONLY HOPE FOR THE IMPORTERS, IN THIS CONFERENCE, IS THAT THE EXPORTERS MAY REALIZE THAT IN A FEW YEARS' TIME WHEAT PRODUCTION COULD GO UP AGAIN AND IT WOULD BE A WISE IDEA TO HAVE AN AGREEMENT ASSURING THEM OF A MINIMUM PRICE, AS WE NOW WANT A CEILING PRICE."

LONDON, MARCH 22-(AP)-BRITISH COLONIAL OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THERE WAS NO PROSPECT THAT BRITAIN WOULD CEDE PART OR ALL OF BRITISH HONDURAS TO THE UNITED STATES.

THE GUATEMALAN LEGATION HERE HAD PROTESTED TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE THE SUGGESTION, RAISED BY A LABORITE MEMBER IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST MONTH, THAT BRITAIN MIGHT PAY FOR AMERICAN GOODS BY GIVING UP HER POSSESSIONS IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

HONDURAS WAS NOT MENTIONED SPECIFICALLY IN THE SUGGESTION.

A COLONIAL OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID THERE WAS NO INTENTION AT PRES-

ENT OF GIVING AWAY ANY BRITISH POSSESSIONS IN THE HEMISPHERE, EITHER FOR GOODS OR FOR THE PAYMENT OF DEBTS. THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT A SUGGESTION BY AN INDIVIDUAL MEMBER OF THE HOUSE IN NO WAY INDICATED THE DIRECTION OF BRITISH FINANCIAL OR COLONIAL POLICIES.

BIRMINGHAM, ENG., MARCH 22-(AP)-CAPT. RAYMOND BLACKBURN, YOUNG LABOR MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, DECLARED TONIGHT THAT SOCIALISM IN BRITAIN WAS LARGELY DEPENDENT UPON THE SUCCESS OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.

IN A SPEECH WARNING THAT BRITAIN WAS "STILL HEADING FOR DISASTER," BLACKBURN SAID:

"AN ENTIRELY NEW APPROACH IS NEEDED. WE IN THE LABOR MOVEMENT MUST REALIZE THAT THE EXPORT TRADE IS IN THE HANDS OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE. WHERE PRIVATE ENTERPRISE IS DOING A GOOD JOB, WE MUST HELP IT ALL WE CAN.

"IT IS AN ODD PARADOX THAT THE SUCCESS OF SOCIALISM IN BRITAIN DEPENDS IN LARGE DEGREE UPON THE EFFICIENCY OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE."

LABOR LEADERS CONSEQUENTLY HAVE SCHEDULED A PARTY CAUCUS FOR MONDAY. IT WAS PREDICTED THAT THE "REBELS" WOULD BE LECTURED SEVERELY AND, AFTER A PRIVATE AIRING OF GRIEVANCES, MUCH OF THE STEAM WOULD DISAPPEAR. THE LEADERSHIP HOLDS IN ABEYANCE A "STANDING ORDER"--A PARTY RULE--REQUIRING ABSOLUTE LOYALTY ON ALL GOVERNMENT PROPOSALS. IT WAS NOT USED IN THE MORE SERIOUS "REBELLION" AGAINST FOREIGN POLICY LAST FALL AND IS NOT EXPECTED TO BE USED NOW.

A SECOND REVOLT, REPORTEDLY INVOLVING MORE THAN 100 LABOR MEMBERS, WAS FORMING ON THE QUESTION OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

NORTHERN IRELAND GOVERNS ITSELF AT PRESENT UNDER DELEGATED POWERS, INCLUDING SPECIAL POLICY AUTHORITY, AND HAS A STRONGLY CONSERVATIVE REGIME. ADD LON (Conception) XXX gov't (Campbell)

CRITICS WILL ASK THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TO REFUSE TO EXTEND THE POWERS OF THE NORTHERN IRELAND PARLIAMENT UNTIL THAT SUBORDINATE GROUP SO ADMINISTERS ITS PRESENT AUTHORITY "AS TO PROVIDE DEMOCRATIC LIBERTY AND EQUALITY FOR THE PEOPLE OF NORTHERN IRELAND."

BRITISH POLITICAL WRITERS PREDICTED THIS PROTEST ACTION WOULD BE DEBATED HOTLY, BUT WOULD NOT BE BROUGHT TO A VOTE. CRITICS APPARENTLY FEEL DISCUSSION IN LONDON WOULD BRING CHANGES IN BELFAST WITHOUT THE NECESSITY FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION.

MAJOR DEBATE NEXT WEEK WILL BE MONDAY'S ARGUMENT ON EXPORT AND IMPORT TRADE WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO IMPERIAL PREFERENCE AND THE FORTHCOMING GENEVA INTERNATIONAL TRADE CONFERENCE.

NIGHT LEAD FRENCH

BY JOSEPH E.DYNAN

PARIS, MARCH 22-(AP)-PREMIER PAUL RAMADIER WON A 411 TO 0 VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TODAY ON HIS POLICY TO STAMP OUT THE INDOCHINESE REVOLUTION, BUT THERE WERE SIGNS HIS FOUR-PARTY GOVERNMENT MIGHT FACE EVEN STRONGER TESTS.

COMMUNIST DEPUTIES ABSTAINED FROM THE VOTING, ALTHOUGH RAMADIER HAD SAID HE WOULD RESIGN UNLESS ALL FOUR PARTIES SUPPORTED HIS BUDGET OF $285,000,000 FOR CONTINUED MILITARY OPERATIONS IN INDOCHINA.

COMMUNIST MEMBERS OF THE CABINET, HOWEVER, BACKED THE APPROPRIATION, AND THE PREMIER LET IT BE KNOWN HE WAS SATISFIED WITH THIS MEASURE OF SUPPORT.

THE CABINET IN A MEETING TONIGHT NOTED THE VOTE OF CONFIDENCE AND DECIDED TO SPEND NEARLY ONE-FOURTH OF THE $285,000,000 DURING THE SECOND QUARTER OF THIS YEAR.

COMMUNIST LEADER AND VICE PREMIER MAURICE THOREZ DID NOT ATTEND THE CABINET SESSION, BUT OFFICIALS SAID THIS WAS MERELY BECAUSE HE HAD TO LEAVE ON A TRIP. THE OTHER COMMUNIST MINISTERS WERE PRESENT.

FURTHER UPHEAVALS WITHIN THE CABINET WERE THREATENED BY DISSENTION IN THE OTHER THREE PARTIES, ALL OF WHICH HAVE STRONG FACTIONS OPPOSED TO CONTINUED COLLABORATION WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

THE LEADERS OF THESE THREE PARTIES--THE SOCIALISTS, POPULAR REPUBLICANS (MRP) AND RADICAL-SOCIALISTS--MET DURING THE AFTERNOON, AND MOTIONS TO WITHDRAW FROM THE GOVERNMENT WERE KILLED BY NARROW MARGINS.

THE RADICAL-SOCIALISTS, IN ONE OF THE ODDEST SESSIONS IN RECENT FRENCH POLITICAL HISTORY, ACTUALLY VOTED 28 TO 26 TO WITHDRAW. THEN, AFTER REFLECTION, THE MAJORITY CHANGED ITS MIND AND VOTED TO SIDE WITH THE MINORITY.

LEADERS OF RAMADIER'S OWN SOCIALIST PARTY VOTED 30 TO 20 TO REMAIN IN THE COALITION. THE POPULAR REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT DEFEATED, 70 TO 25, A MOTION TO QUIT UNLESS THE COMMUNISTS AGREED FULLY TO SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT.

WITHDRAWAL OF ANY ONE OF THE GROUPS WOULD AUTOMATICALLY SHATTER THE GOVERNMENT AND THROW THE NATION INTO ANOTHER PROGRLONGED POLITICAL WRANGLE. NONE OF THE PARTIES, INCLUDING THE COMMUNISTS, WANTS TO TAKE THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR SUCH A MOVE WHILE THE FOUR-POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS ARE ENGAGED IN CRUCIAL NEGOTIATIONS ON THE GERMAN QUESTION.

A3

OBSERVERS AGREED THAT RAMADIER'S CABINET WAS SAVED TODAY ONLY BY THE COMMUNIST CENTRAL COMMITTEE'S PERMISSION TO ITS CABINET MEMBERS TO BREAK THE PARTY LINE AND SUPPORT THE PREMIER'S PROGRAM.

FLORIMOND BONTE, COMMUNIST FLOOR LEADER OF THE NATINAL ASSEMBLY, SAID RAMADIER HAD AGREED TO A COMPROMISE UNDER WHICH THE COMMUNIST DEPUTIES ABSTAINED FROM VOTING WHILE THE CABINET MEMBERS VOTED FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

"THE COMMUNIST PRTH DOES NOT WANT T

"THE COMMUNIST PARTY DOES NOT WANT TO PROVOKE A GOVERNMENT ARGUMENT WHICH MIGHT JEOPARDIZE OUR NEGOTIATIONS IN MOSCOW ON GERMAN ISSUES," HE SAID.

OPTIONAL SECOND LEAD FOREIGN MINISTERS

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

MOSCOW, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE FOUR-POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS MET IN THEIR 12TH SESSION LATE TODAY WITH THE PRESENTATION OF RUSSIAN AND FRENCH PLANS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF GERMANY ATOP THE AGENDA.

(THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID FOREIGN MINISTER VYACHESLAV M. MOLOTOV PROPOSED THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PROVISIONAL GERMAN GOVERNMENT WITH THE SAME DEGREE OF DECENTRALIZATION "WHICH EXISTED BEFORE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE HITLER REGIME." CONFERENCE OBSERVERS GENERALLY HAD EXPECTED THE RUSSIANS TO DEMAND FORMATION OF A STRONG CENTRAL GOVERNMENT, AS CONTRASTED WITH THE WISHES OF THE WESTERN POWERS FOR LESS CENTRALIZATION OF AUTHORITY.)

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT WOULD PRESENT TO THE COUNCIL A GOVERNMENTAL PLAN FOR GERMANY ENVISAGING A LOOSE FEDERATION OF STATES WITH A SINGLE HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT.

FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, OF BRITAIN, OFFERED THE COUNCIL WHAT APPEARED TO BE A COMPROMISE TO THE DEMAND VOICED BY FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, OF FRANCE, FOR GUARANTEED GERMAN COAL EXPORTS.

THE BRITON PROPOSED THAT THE "REHABILITATION OF GERMAN INDUSTRY SHALL BE EFFECTED ON A PROGRESSIVE PLAN HAVING REGARD FOR THE NECESSITY OF EXPORTING COAL TO LIBERATED COUNTRIES." (FRANCE IS ONE OF THE LIBERATED COUNTRIES.)

BEVIN CONTINUED:

"IN PARTICULAR, THE RATE AT WHICH STEEL PRODUCTION IS INCREASED SHALL BE DETERMINED IN RELATION TO THE NEED FOR COAL EXPORT, PROVIDED THAT THE BURDEN OF THE COST ON OCCUPYING POWERS IS NOT INCREASED AS A RESULT OF THIS CONSIDERATION."

THE BRITISH SECRETARY PROPOSED THAT GERMANY BE PERMITTED A STEEL INGOT CAPACITY OF 10,000,000 TONS ANNUALLY, WHICH ALSO WOULD BE THE PRODUCTION LIMIT FIGURE.

BEVIN ALSO AGAIN PROPOSED ECONOMIC UNITY AND A NATIONAL POOLING OF ALL GERMAN RESOURCES, ALONG WITH EXPORT-IMPORT PLANS.

BEVIN ADVOCATED SOCIALIZATION OF "CERTAIN INDUSTRIES" AS ONE METHOD OF BREAKING TRUSTS AND FOR SHARING THE COMPLETE BURDEN OF OCCUPATION COSTS, "PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE," AMONG THE OCCUPYING POWERS. HE ALSO SPECIFIED THAT OCCUPATION COSTS BE PRESENTED AS THE FIRST CHARGE AGAINST GERMAN PRODUCTIONS.

A119

HE OFFERED RUSSIA NO EVIDENCE OF ENCOURAGEMENT IN HER DRIVE FOR REPARATIONS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION. MOREOVER, THE RUSSIANS ARE NOT EXPECTED TO LIKE HIS SUGGESTION FOR SHARING OCCUPATION COSTS.

BEVIN'S COAL PROPOSAL FELL SHORT OF A DEMAND BY BIDAULT FOR SPECIFIC, IMMEDIATE GUARANTEES OF COAL EXPORTS, AND THE WRITING OF SUCH GUARANTEES INTO THE PEACE TREATY.

HOWEVER, BEVIN'S PLAN OFFERED A BASIS OF FURTHER DISCUSSION BETWEEN BEVIN AND BIDAULT ON THE COAL ISSUE.

IN THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS' SESSION ON THE AUSTRIAN TREATY, SOVIET DEPUTY FEODOR T.GOUSEV BLOCKED VIRTUALLY ALL PROGRESS. HIS ATTITUDE GAVE RISE TO SPECULATION THAT THE RUSSIANS MIGHT BE DEVELOPING A NEW APPROACH TO THE AUSTRIAN PROBLEM.

GOUSEV'S HANDLING OF THE SITUATION SUGGESTED THE POSSIBILITY EITHER THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE REVIEWING ALL AUSTRIAN TREATY ISSUES OR WERE SAVING UP ISSUES FOR A FINAL ROUND OF BARGAINING PRIOR TO COMPLETION OF THE PACT.

THE BIDAULT PLAN FOR A DECENTRALIZED GERMANY WAS OUTLINED BY AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES BEFORE THE COUNCIL CONVENED. #

THESE INFORMANTS SAID MEMBERS OF THE UNICAMERAL PARLIAMENT WOULD BE NAMED BY STATE LEGISLATURES FOR TERMS OF FOUR YEARS, UNDER THE FRENCH PLAN, WHICH IS AT WIDE VARIANCE WITH THE PROPOSALS PUT FORWARD FOR GERMANY'S FUTURE BY SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL AND BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN YESTERDAY.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT BIDAULT WAS MAINTAINING HIS POSITION ON ~~EXTREME FEDERALIZATION FOR GERMANY DESPITE PRIME MINISTER STALIN'S~~ REPORTED OPPOSITION, WHICH IS BELIEVED TO BEEN COMMUNICATED TO THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER IN AN INTERVIEW LAST MONDAY NIGHT.

BIDAULT IS SCHEDULED TO PRESENT THIS FRENCH VIEW AS THE FIRST SPEAKER AT THIS AFTERNOON'S COUNCIL SESSION.

BD548AES

CONFERENCE SEPARATE (WEEKEND RDP)

MOSCOW, MARCH 22-(AP)-TOP AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS HAS A FAIR CHANCE OF ROLLING BACK THE SOVIET AREA OF INFLUENCE IN GERMANY FROM THE ELBE TO THE ODER OR BEYOND AND DESCRIBED THIS AS A PRIME OBJECTIVE OF THE U.S. POLICY HERE.

THIS ESTIMATE OF CONFERENCE PROSPECTS AFTER TWO WEEKS OF MEETINGS CAME AS IT WAS LEARNED THAT FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT WOULD PRESENT THE COUNCIL WITH A PLAN FOR A GERMAN GOVERNMENT WHICH PROVIDES CREATION OF A LOOSE FEDERATION OF STATES DESIGNED TO PREVENT THE RECREATION OF A STRONG GERMAN CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

BIDAULT'S PROPOSAL ASSURED A TWO-WAY SPLIT IN THE COUNCIL OVER GERMAN GOVERNMENT POWER SINCE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV WAS SCHEDULED TO FOLLOW HIM WITH A DEMAND FOR A HIGHLY CENTRALIZED GERMAN GOVERNMENT AS REPORTEDLY URGED ON BIDAULT BY PRIME MINISTER STALIN LAST MONDAY NIGHT.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE MARSHALL PRESENTED PLANS FOR A GERMAN FEDERATION WITH RELATIVELY POWERFUL CENTRAL GOVERNMENTS AT LAST NIGHT'S SESSION.

MEANWHILE, IT APPEARED THAT BEVIN MIGHT SEE STALIN THIS WEEKEND. A BRITISH SOURCE SAID BEVIN HAD INDICATED INFORMALLY A READINESS TO TALK WITH THE SOVIET LEADER, PRESUMABLY ON GERMANY AND THE BRITISH-SOVIET ALLIANCE.

THERE WAS NO WORD YET OF ANY MARSHALL MOVE TO SEE STALIN AND IT WAS BELIEVED HE PREFERS MEETING THE LATTER IN CONFERENCE WHEN HE MAY HAVE DEADLOCKS ON HAND OVER THE CRITICAL GERMAN ISSUES. THUS THE REAL U.S.-SOVIET SHOWDOWN ON GERMANY MAY COME IN THE EXPECTED MARSHALL-STALIN MEETING. THIS IS THE PROSPECT UNLESS STALIN UNEXPECTEDLY CALLS MARSHALL TO THE KREMLIN IN THE NEXT DAY OR SO, IN WHICH CASE THE SECRETARY MAY SEE HIM AT LEAST TWICE DURING HIS MISSION HERE.

BEST-INFORMED AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THAT THE PROGRESS OF THE MEETINGS TO DATE STILL LEFT GREAT UNCERTAINTY AS TO WHETHER ANYTHING CONCRETE WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED HERE, BUT THE OUTLOOK NOW IS GENERALLY BETTER THAN AT THE BEGINNING FOR BOTH THE AUSTRIAN TREATY AND SOME AGREEMENTS ON GERMANY.

A76

THE U.S. VIEW IS THAT THE SOVIETS ARE MORE ANXIOUS TO OBTAIN SUBSTANTIAL REPARATIONS FROM GERMANY THAN ANYTHING ELSE AND THIS HAS RAISED THE QUESTION ON WHAT THE U.S. MOST WANTS. ALONG WITH A UNIFIED, PEACEFUL GERMANY THIS INCLUDES CERTAINLY A DESIRE TO ROLL BACK THE AREA OF EUROPE WHICH THE SOVIETS CONTROL.

HOPE IS NOW MUCH STRONGER THAT THIS BOUNDARY CAN BE PUSHED BACK FROM THE ELBE OR THE EASTERN FRONTIER OF THE SOVIET ZONE TO THE ODER-NIESSE OR THE POLISH BOUNDARY AND THE PROBABILITY IS VERY GREAT THAT EFFORTS WILL BE MADE EVEN TO PUSH BACK THE POLISH FRONTIER.

MOSCOW, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE FOREIGN MINISTERS AGREED TODAY TO ADJOURN UNTIL TUESDAY (CORRECT) IN AN EFFORT TO TRY TO CATCH UP ON WHAT THEY HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THUS FAR AND GET A LOOK AT THE PROBLEMS AHEAD.

DURING THIS TIME THE COMMITTEE OF THE MINISTERS' COUNCIL IS SCHEDULED TO GO OVER THE STACK OF THE PROPOSALS FOR GERMAN ECONOMIC UNITY, REPARATIONS, DENAZIFICATION AND FORMATION OF A NEW GERMAN GOVERNMENT. THE COMMITTEE WILL LIST POINTS OF AGREEMENT AND DISAGREEMENT. MEMBERS ARE LT.GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, SOVIET DEPUTY MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY, FRENCH DIRECTOR OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS HERVE ALPHAND AND BRITAIN'S EDMUND L.HALL-PATCH.

MOSCOW, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE TEXT OF SECRETARY MARSHALL'S COMMENT ON THE SOVIET PROPOSAL FOR A GERMAN GOVERNMENT: (120)

"MY IMPRESSION AT THIS STAGE OF THE DISCUSSION IS THAT THERE IS MUCH IN COMMON IN THE FOUR VIEWS PRESENTED. I AM SORRY, HOWEVER, MR. MOLOTOV SPOKE SO STRONGLY AGAINST FEDERALIZATION IN GERMANY AS I HOPED WE MAY BE ABLE TO AVOID ARGUING OVER WORDS TO WHICH EACH OF US MAY ATTACH A DIFFERENT MEANING. THE PROPOSALS OF MR. UNDATED GERMAN

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE MOSCOW BROADCAST ANNOUNCING A RUSSIAN PROPOSAL FOR A GERMAN GOVERNMENT SIMILAR TO THAT WHICH EXISTED BEFORE HITLER RECALLED TODAY THAT THE WEIMAR REPUBLIC'S CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION HAD AUTHORITY OVER DEFENSE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS.

FOREIGN SECRETARY V.M.MOLOTOV, ACCORDING TO THE BROADCAST, LISTED ONLY FINANCE, INDUSTRY, TRANSPORT, COMMUNICATIONS AND FOREIGN TRADE AS THE DEPARTMENTS WHICH SHOULD BE CENTRALLY CONTROLLED.

THE GERMAN REPUBLIC WAS FEDERALIZED BEFORE HITLER ABOLISHED STATES' RIGHTS AND SWEPT AWAY THE PROVINCIAL DIVISION OF GERMANY IN 1933.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT WOULD PERMIT THE HANDLING OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS BY THE CENTRAL REGIME. LIKE MOLOTOV, NEITHER MADE PROVISIONS FOR A DEFENSE SETUP.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL SAID YESTERDAY HE WOULD SUBMIT LATER HIS IDEAS ON THE MATTER OF A GOVERNMENT CLOTHED "WITH THE NECESSARY POWERS TO CREATE AND OPERATE CENTRAL ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES."

IN GENERAL BOTH BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES SUPPORT THE IDEA OF A FEDERALIZED GERMANY. FRANCE IS FOR A LOOSE AND DECENTRALIZED REGIME.

THE WEIMAR REPUBLIC'S CONSTITUTION, PROMULGATED AFTER WORLD WAR 1 AND IN EFFECT UNTIL HITLER ASSUMED POWER, GAVE THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AUTHORITY OVER FOREIGN RELATIONS, DEFENSE, CUSTOMS, TAXATION AND RAILWAY SERVICE.

THE CONSTITUTION CALLED FOR A REICHSTAG (NATIONAL ASSEMBLY) AND REPRESENTATION OF THE FEDERATION'S COMPONENT STATES IN THE REICHSRAT (STATE COUNCIL).

EACH STATE IN THE COMMONWEALTH HAD ITS OWN REPUBLICAN CONSTITUTION.

E1123OPES

THIS PROVISION HAS THREATENED THE LIFE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN SOME WESTERN AREAS SINCE IT DID NOT RECEIVE 10 PERCENT OF THE VOTE AND CONSEQUENTLY AROUSED SOVIET IRE.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER MOLOTOV HAD PRESENTED THE SOVIET PROPOSALS, MARSHALL DECLARED:

"MY IMPRESSION AT THIS STAGE OF THE DISCUSSION IS THAT THERE IS MUCH IN COMMON IN THE FOUR VIEWS PRESENTED. I AM SORRY, HOWEVER, THAT MR.MOLOTOV SPOKE SO STRONGLY AGAINST FEDERALIZATION IN GERMANY, AS I HOPED WE MAY BE ABLE TO AVOID ARGUING OVER WORDS TO WHICH EACH OF US MAY ATTACH A DIFFERENT MEANING.

"IT SEEMS TO BE IMPORTANT THAT WE SHOULD AVOID DEBATE CONFUSED BY SLOGANS. WE SHOULD CONCENTRATE ON REALITY AND SEEK AGREEMENT ON THE SUBSTANCE OF PROPOSALS AND AVOID DISAGREEMENT ABOUT WORDS."

IN ATTACKING THE SOVIET PROPOSALS, FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT DECLARED THAT "THE GHOST OF THE WEIMAR REPUBLIC WILL NOT FIND FAVOR WITH THE FRENCH PEOPLE."

MOLOTOV HAD PROPOSED THAT "WE TAKE THE WEIMAR CONSTIUTION AS A BASIS ON WHICH TO WORK."

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN POINTED OUT IMMEDIATELY THAT THE WEIMAR REPUBLIC PROVIDED MANY BAD FEATURES, INCLUDING THE POWER OF THE PRESIDENT TO SUSPEND THE CONSTITUTION, WHICH WAS ONE OF THE STEPPING STONES OF HITLER'S RISE TO POWER.

MOLOTOV OPENED HIS PROPOSAL WITH A SEVERE ATTACK ON "FEDERALIZATION"

A168

MOLOTOV OPENED HIS PROPOSAL WITH A SEVERE ATTACK ON "FEDERALIZATION" PLANS OF THE WESTERN POWERS. HE DECLARED THEY WERE A PLOT "TO DISMEMBER GERMANY."

TO SUPPORT HIS ARGUMENT FOR A CENTRALIZED GOVERNMENT, THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER REFERRED TO JAPAN, WHERE HE SAID THE JAPANESE HAVE THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES.

MOLOTOV SUGGESTED THAT THE RUSSIANSMIGHT AGREE TO A PLEBIS-

CITE FOR THE GERMANS TO DECIDE FOR THEMSELVES, SAYING "IF THE GERMAN PEOPLE DECIDE ON FEDERALIZATION THE OCCUPYING POWERS MUST ACCEPT THIS."

HE REPEATEDLY STRESSED THAT A GERMAN PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT IS NEEDED IN ORDER TO FULLFIL OBLIGATIONS TO THE ALLIES, PRESUMABLY MEANING REPARATIONS.

BIDAULT HAD WARNED EARLIER, HOWEVER, THAT FRANCE WAS OPPOSED TO ANY RAPID ESTABLISHMENT OF ANY GOVERNMENT FOR GERMANY, EVEN A PROVISIONAL REGIME.

POINTS MADE BY MOLOTOV ON THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE INCLUDED:

1. A DECENTRALIZED SYSTEM WHICH WAS IN FORCE BEFORE HITLER CAME TO POWER SHOULD BE REESTABLISHED AND LANDSTAG (STATE ASSEMBLY) SYSTEM AND THE OLD TWO-CHAMBER SYSTEM BE REVIVED.

2. THE GERMAN PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT SHOULD ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY FOR FULFILLING OBLIGATIONS TO THE ALLIES.

3. THE FIRST STEP SHOULD BE TO SET UP GERMAN CENTRAL DEPARTMENTS OF FINANCE, INDUSTRY, TRANSPORT AND FOREIGN TRADE WHICH WOULD BE FORMED ACCORDING TO THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT.

4. THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL SHOULD DRAW UP A PROVISIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTION ENLISTING THE AID OF DEMOCRATIC PARTIES, TRADE UNIONS AND OTHER ANTI-NAZI ORGANIZATIONS.

5. ELECTIONS SHOULD BE HELD IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CONSTITUTION THUS PROVIDED AND A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT FORMED AS A RESULT OF THESE ELECTIONS.

A169 MAR 1947

6. A PERMANENT CONSTITUTION FOR GERMANY SHOULD BE APPROVED BY THE GERMAN PEOPLE.

7. GERMANY SHOULD BE REESTABLISHED AS A SINGLE PEACEFUL STATE WITH A TWO-CHAMBER PARLIAMENT.

8. THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC SHOULD BE ELECTED BY PARLIAMENT.

9. ALL GERMAN CONSTITUTIONS ADOPTED BY PARLIAMENT SHOULD COME INTO FORCE THROUGHOUT GERMANY ALONG WITH LAENDER (STATE) CONSTITUTIONS.

10. THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION AND LAENDER CONSTITUTIONS SHOULD ENSURE FREEDOM OF FORMATION AND ACTIVITY OF ALL DEMOCRATIC PARTIES AND TRADE UNIONS.

11. THE CONSTITUTION SHOULD GUARANTEE ALL CITIZENS FREEDOM OF SPEECH, PRESS, RELIGIOUS WORSHIP AND ASSEMBLY.

12. PARLIAMENT AND LANDSTAG ASSEMBLES SHOULD BE ELECTED BY UNIVERSAL, EQUAL AND DIRECT SUFFRAGE, WITH A SECRET BALLOT. AND PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION.

13. LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT BODIES SHOULD BE ELECTED ON THE SAME BASIS AS STATE ASSEMBLIES.

NEW DELHI, MARCH 22-(AP)-COINCIDING WITH MOSLEM CELEBRATIONS OF "PAKISTAN DAY," THE ASIAN RELATIONS CONFERENCE OPENS HERE TOMORROW IN AN EFFORT TO WELD ASIA AND NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES INTO AN INTEGRATED SOCIAL, CULTURAL AND ECONOMIC GROUP.

THE MOSLEM LEAGUE HAS ANNOUNCED IT WILL BOYCOTT THE CONFERENCE, CLAIMING IT WAS ORGANIZED BY THE PREDOMINANTLY HINDU ALL-INDIA CONGRESS PARTY WITHOUT COOPERATION OF THE LEAGUE.

WHILE UPWARD OF 200 DELEGATES FROM TWO DOZEN COUNTRIES GATHER FOR THE INITIAL SESSION, MOSLEMS THROUGHOUT INDIA WILL RAISE THEIR CRY FOR PAKISTAN, AN INDEPENDENT MOSLEM STATE.

THE OPENING SESSION, IN THE 15TH CENTURY MOGUL FORT NEAR THE HOLY JUMNA RIVER, WILL BE ADDRESSED BY JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, CONGRESS PARTY HEAD OF INDIA'S INTERIM GOVERNMENT.

THE 10 DAY CONFERENCE IS DESIGNED TO BE NON-POLITICAL. ITS INTENTION IS TO DISCUSS ONLY CULTURAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL AFFAIRS. NEVERTHELESS, OBSERVERS ARE CONFIDENT THERE WILL BE BACKROOM DISCUSSIONS AMONG DELEGATES ABOUT SUCH TOPICS AS COOPERATIVE ACTION AGAINST COLONIALISM, PRESENT OR POTENTIAL.

DELEGATES WERE ARRIVING FROM A NUMBER OF COUNTRIES EXTENDING FROM EGYPT ON THE WEST TO AUSTRALIA AND THE PHILIPPINES ON THE EAST. SEVERAL ASIAN SOVIET REPUBLICS ARE SENDING OBSERVERS, AS ARE THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN.

THE LARGEST DELEGATIONS WERE LISTED FROM INDONESIA, MALAYA AND INDIA.

JAPAN WILL NOT BE REPRESENTED, REPORTEDLY ON ACCOUNT OF OBJECTIONS OF OCCUPYING AUTHORITIES. TURKEY IS SENDING AN OBSERVER RATHER THAN AN OFFICIAL DELEGATE. NO REASON FOR THE TURKISH ACTION WAS GIVEN, BUT IT WAS ASSUMED THE INTENTION WAS TO FOLLOW THE LEAD OF THE LATE KEMAL ATATURK, WHO INSISTED THAT TURKEY WAS A EUROPEAN NATION LOOKING TO THE WEST, NOT THE EAST.

SUBJECTS FOR DISCUSSION INCLUDE NATIONAL MOVEMENTS FOR FREEDOM IN ASIA, RACIAL PROBLEMS WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO RACIAL CONFLICTS, INTERASIAN MIGRATION AND STATUS AND TREATMENT OF IMMIGRANTS, TRANSITION FROM COLONIAL TO NATIONAL ECONOMY, LABOR PROBLEMS AND SOCIAL SERVICES IN ASIA, AGRICULTURAL RECONSTRUCTION AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IN ASIAN COUNTRIES, CULTURAL PROBLEMS, AND THE STATUS OF WOMEN.

THE CONFERENCE WAS INITIATED BY THE INDIAN COUNCIL OF WORLD AFFAIRS, HEADED BY NEHRU.

NEHRU EXPRESSED HOPE FOR FORMATION OF AN INTER-ASIAN POLICY WHICH WOULD BE "AGAINST NOBODY, AGAINST NEITHER EUROPE, AMERICA NOR RUSSIA."

THE CONFERENCE WILL HOLD GROUP MEETINGS FOR SPECIAL SUBJECTS, AND FROM THESE GROUPS WILL COME REPORTS FOR ACTION AT THE OPEN SESSION OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION. IT IS NOT INTENDED THAT ANY FORMAL RESOLUTIONS BE ADOPTED, BUT THE INDIAN DELEGATION INDICATED IT WOULD NOT GET IN THE WAY OF ANY NATIONAL GROUP WHICH WISHED SUCH ACTION TAKEN.

FOR MORE THAN 30 YEARS THIS WILY LITTLE CHIEFTAIN AND HIS DAGGER-WIELDING FOLLOWERS LED AUTHORITIES ON A BITTER CHASE THROUGH THEIR RUGGED HOMELAND AROUND COTABATO. THE WAR MEANT NOTHING TO THESE MEN OF THE MOSLEM FAITH EXCEPT A BETTER CHANCE TO CAPTURE CHRISTIANS WHO HAD FLED FROM THE CITIES.

ITH THE END OF THE WAR, HOWEVER, THE NEW GOVERNMENT SET OUT AFTER THEM IN EARNEST. MAMPAO ALWAYS GOT AWAY, BUT HE HAD INCREASINGLY NARROW ESCAPES, AND THE OLD GAME OF HARE AND HOUNDS LOST ITS SAVOR.

LAST NOVEMBER 600 POLICEMEN CORNERED HIM IN A COTTA (STONE DEFENSE WORK). MAMPAO CUT HIS WAY OUT IN A SAVAGE 24-HOUR BATTLE, BUT HE LEFT BEHIND NINE DEAD FOLLOWERS--SMALL RECOMPENSE, UNDER THE MORO CODE, FOR THREE SLAIN POLICEMEN.

AGAIN A MONTH AGO THE POLICE WERE CLOSING IN, AND AGAIN HE GOT AWAY, BUT HUNGER FINALLY DID WHAT DIRECT ASSAULT COULD NOT. THE DATU (CHIEF) ARRANGED TO SURRENDER THROUGH THE LOCAL SULTAN, SA RAMAIN, TO FACE CHARGES OF SEDITION AND MURDER.

WHAT HIS FATE WILL BE IS UNCERTAIN, BUT WHEN HE CAME IN TO DANSALAN LAST WEEK HE WAS PROUD AS EVER. HE DRESSED HIMSELF IN HIS BEST WESTERN-STYLE CLOTHING, BUT HIS ALMOND EYES STILL GLITTERED UNDER AN ELABORATE SILK TURBAN. HUNGER HAD MADE HIS HIGH CHEEK-BONES SEEM MORE PROMINENT.

BESIDE HIM WAS HIS FEZ-WEARING SON AND HEIR, KOLANGKA. WHETHER HIS HENCHMEN FOLLOWED THE OLD MAN'S LEAD THE POLICE DID NOT SAY, BUT THEY WERE OPTIMISTIC THAT THEIR COMBINED CAMPAIGN OF HARASSMENT AND PERSUASION WOULD RESULT IN MORE SURRENDERS AND MORE LIBERATIONS OF ENSLAVED CHRISTIANS.

AS A TYPICAL CASE OF ENSLAVEMENT, POLICE CITED THE EXPERINENCES OF BEATRIZ PIMENTAL, AN ATTRACTIVE YOUNG WOMAN OF CAGAYAN IN MISAMIS ORIENTAL PROVINCE, MINDANAO:

SHE AND HER FAMILY FLED TO WILD BUKIDNON PROVINCE TO ESCAPE THE JAPANESE. THEY WERE CAPTURED JULY 3, 1943, BY MOROS UNDER THE SULTAN SA RAGAT. A MORO NAMED BARATAMO DREW HER AS HIS SHARE OF THE LOOT, BUT TRADED HER TO ANOTHER MORO FOR A RIFLE.

SHE WAS SOLD TWICE, ONCE FOR 280 PESOS ($140) AND ONCE FOR 380 PESOS ($190) BEFORE A POLICE PATROL FREED HER IN THE LANAO HILLS LAST SEPTEMBER. THE REST OF HER FAMILY IS STILL MISSING.

MEXICO CITY, MARCH 22-(AP)-PRESIDENT MIGUEL ALEMAN WAS UNDERSTOOD TONIGHT TO BE PLANNING TO TAKE WITH HIM TO VISIT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN WASHINGTON NEXT MONTH SEVERAL CABINET MEMBERS PREPARED TO PRESENT MEXICO'S HOPE OF BIG LOANS FROM THE U.S. TO IMPROVE AND INDUSTRIALIZE MEXICO.

ALEMAN'S PLANS FOR HIS SIX-YEAR ADMINISTRATION CALL FOR IRRIGATION, ELECTRIFICATION, INDUSTRIALIZATION, ROAD BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENT OF HARBORS, WATERWAYS AND COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE EXPENDITURE OF HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF PESOS. HE FREQUENTLY HAS SAID HE FELT SURE THE U.S. EXPORT-IMPORT BANK OR OTHER FINANCIAL POWERS WOULD MAKE LARGE SUMS AVAILABLE, ESPECIALLY BECAUSE HE INTENDS MANY OF THE MEXICAN PROJECTS TO BE SELF-LIQUIDATING.

AN EXAMPLE IS THE "PAPALOAPAN PROJECT," MEXICO'S PARALLEL TO THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY, ON WHICH IT IS PLANNED TO SPEND $200,000,000 IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE 200-MILE PAPALOAPAN RIVER VALLEY FROM OAXACA STATE NORTH TO THE RIVER'S MOUTH ON THE GULF OF MEXICO NEAR VERACRUZ.

THE PROJECT INCLUDES OPENING OF THE RIVER TO NAVIGATION BY OCEAN-GOING VESSELS, CONSTRUCTIONS OF DAMS FOR HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER AND IRRIGATION AND THE BUILDING OF PORTS, ROADS AND RAILWAYS.

A COMMISSION TO SURVEY THE PROJECT WITH AN INITIAL GRANT OF $600,000 WAS SET UP BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE MARCH 14.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT PUBLISHED TONIGHT FURTHER DOCUMENTATION OF THE "DELIBERATELY CALCULATED HORROR" BY WHICH THE NAZI REGIME ROSE AND KEPT ITSELF IN POWER THROUGH ITS STATE POLICE SYSTEM OF THE GESTAPO AND SCHUTZSTAFFELN (ELITE GUARD).

THE PATTERN OF THE NAZI CRIMES WAS REVEALED IN THE NUERNBERG WAR CRIMES TRIAL. THE VOLUME OF TESTIMONY AND EXHIBITS ISSUED TONIGHT, THE SEVENTH OF AN EIGHT-VOLUME SERIES, ASSEMBLES THE CASE AGAINST THE POLICE ORGANIZATIONS AND PRESENTS GRISLY DETAIL.

THE DOCUMENT SAYS THIS OF THE TWO ORGANIZATIONS WITH WHICH IT IS IMMEDIATELY CONCERNED:

"IN THE EVIDENCE OF THE CONSPIRATORS' PROGRAM FOR AGGRESSIVE WAR, FOR CONCENTRATION CAMPS, FOR THE EXTERMINATION OF THE JEWS, FOR ENSLAVEMENT OF FOREIGN LABOR AND ILLEGAL USE OF PRISONERS OF WAR AND FOR THE DEPORTATION AND GERMANIZATION OF INHABITANTS OF CONQUERED TERRITORIES, IN ALL THIS EVIDENCE THE NAME OF THE SS RUNS LIKE A THREAD.

"THE GESTAPO AND SD (ANOTHER OF THE POLICE AGENCIES), CARRIED OUT MASS MURDERS OF HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF CIVILIANS OF OCCUPIED COUNTRIES AS PART OF THE NAZI PROGRAM TO EXTERMINATE POLITICAL AND RACIAL UNDESIRABLES."

WHAT THOSE AGENCIES DID IS SUGGESTED IN MERE TURNING OF THE PAGES OF EVIDENCE, LIKE THIS:

"THE GESTAPO CLEARED EUROPE OF THE JEWS AND WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR SENDING 4,000,000 JEWS TO THEIR DEATHS IN ANNIHILITATION CAMPS."

FROM THE AFFIDAVIT OF A GROUP LEADER AT THE VILLAGE OF DUBNO, UKRAINE: "MOENNIKES AND I WENT DIRECTLY TO THE EXCAVATION (WHERE A MASS MURDER WAS IN PROGRESS.) . . . I WATCHED A FAMILY OF ABOUT EIGHT PERSONS . . . AN OLD WOMAN WITH SNOW WHITE HAIR HELD THE ONE-YEAR OLD CHILD IN HER ARMS AND SANG FOR IT AND TICKLED IT. THE CHILD WAS SQUEAKING FROM JOY. THE COUPLE LOOKED ON WITH TEARS IN THEIR EYES. THE FATHER HELD THE HAND OF A BOY ABOUT TEN YEARS OLD AND SPOKE TO HIM SOFTLY; THE BOY WAS FIGHTING HIS TEARS. THE FATHER POINTED TOWARD THE SKY, FONDLED HIS HAND, AND SEEMED TO EXPLAIN SOMETHING TO HIM . . . CLOSELY PRESSED TOGETHER THE PEOPLE WERE LYING ON TOP OF EACH OTHER SO THAT ONLY THEIR HEADS WERE VISIBLE. SEVERAL OF THE PEOPLE SHOT STILL MOVED. SOME LIFTED THEIR ARMS AND TURNED THEIR HEADS TO SHOW THEY WERE STILL ALIVE. THE EXCAVATION WAS ALREADY TWO-THIRDS FULL. I ESTIMATED IT CONTAINED ABOUT 1,000 PEOPLE. I LOOKED FOR THE MAN WHO DID THE SHOOTING. I SAW AN SS MAN WHO SAT AT THE RIM OF THE NARROW END OF THE EXCAVATION, HIS FEET DANGLING INTO THE EXCAVATION. ON HIS KNEES HE HAD A MACHINE PISTOL AND HE WAS SMOKING A CIGARET."

FROM A REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER GENERAL OF WHITE RUTHENIA TO THE REICH COMMISSIONER FOR THE EASTERN TERRITORIES: "PEACE AND ORDER CANNOT BE MAINTAINED IN WHITE RUTHENIA WITH METHODS OF THAT SORT. TO BURY SERIOUSLY WOUNDED PEOPLE ALIVE WHO WORKED THEIR WAY OUT OF THEIR GRAVES AGAIN IS SUCH A BASE AND FILTHY ACT THAT THE INCIDENTS AS SUCH SHOULD BE REPORTED TO THE FUEHRER AND REICHS MARSHAL."

FROM A NAZI REPORT ON AN EXPERIMENT WITH POISONED BULLETS: "THE BULLETS X X X WERE FILLED WITH THE POISON IN CRYSTAL FORM. EACH SUBJECT OF THE EXPERIMENTS RECEIVED ONE SHOT IN THE UPPER PART OF THE LEFT THIGH, WHILE IN A HORIZONTAL POSITION. IN THE CASE OF TWO PERSONS, THE BULLET PASSED CLEAN THROUGH THE UPPER PART OF THE THIGH. EVEN LATER NO EFFECT FROM THE POISON COULD BE SEEN. THESE TWO SUBJECTS WERE THEREFORE REJECTED . . . THE SYMPTOMS SHOWN BY THREE CONDEMNED PERSONS WERE SURPRISINGLY THE SAME. AT FIRST NOTHING SPECIAL WAS NOTICEABLE . . . . AFTER 40 TO 44 MINUTES A STRONG FLOW OF SALIVA APPEARED. THE POISONED PERSONS SWALLOWED FREQUENTLY, LATER THE FLOW OF SALIVA IS SO STRONG THAT IT CAN NO LONGER BE CONTROLLED BY SWALLOWING . . . . THEN A SENSATION OF CHOKING AND VOMITING STARTS . . . TWO OTHER SUBJECTS . . . ROLLED THEIR EYES AND MADE AIMLESS MOTIONS WITH THEIR HANDS AND ARMS. AT LAST THE DISTURBANCE SUBSIDIED, THE PUPILS WERE ENLARGED TO THE MAXIMUM, THE CONDEMNED LAY STILL." #

(250) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-SENATOR ELBERT D.THOMAS (D-UTAH) URGED TONIGHT THAT THE GERMAN RUHR BE PLACED UNDER UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP.

HE ADVANCED THE IDEA IN NBC'S NATIONWIDE BROADCAST ON "OUR FOREIGN POLICY" AS ONE LONG STEP TOWARD MAKING THE TRUSTEESHIP PRINCIPLE A VEHICLE FOR LASTING PEACE.

"IF THE WORLD HONESTLY WANTS PEACE," THOMAS SAID, "IT HAS GOT TO DEVELOP SOME TECHNIQUES OF PEACE.

"ONCE YOU REALLY ACCEPT THE THEORY OF A TRUE COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS SETTING THE STANDARDS FOR INDIVIDUAL NATIONS, THEN TRUSTEESHIP SHOULD BE DEVELOPED ALONG THESE LINES.

"I WOULD MAKE ALL OF THE RUHR A TRUSTEESHIP FOR THE BENEFIT, NOT ONLY OF GERMANY BUT FRANCE AND THE SURROUNDING COUNTRIES. I WOULD MAKE TRIESTE A TRUSTEESHIP, RATHER THAN A FREE CITY.

"WHAT I'M TRYING TO SAY IS THAT THE TRUSTEESHIPS THEMSELVES MUST BE MODELED AROUND CONCEPTS OF A WORLD COMMUNITY."

AFTER THE BROADCAST THE SENATOR TOLD A REPORTER THAT HE BELIEVES

THE PROGRAM HE ADVOCATED FOR THE GERMAN ARSENAL AREA AND THE DISPUTED TERRITORY BETWEEN ITALY AND YUGOSLAVIA SHOULD BE EXTENDED TO CONTESTED SPOTS IN GENERAL, TO MAKE THEM CONTRIBUTORS TO THE WELFARE OF THE WORLD AND STOP THEM FROM BEING TROUBLE BREEDERS.

ONE OF THE THINGS HOLDING UP A GERMAN PEACE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN FRENCH INSISTENCE THAT THE RUHR BE DETACHED FROM GERMANY.

ON THE PROGRAM WITH THOMAS WAS FRANCIS B.SAYRE, U.S.REPRESENTATIVE ON THE U.N.TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL WHICH HOLDS ITS FIRST MEETING NEXT WEDNESDAY AT LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y.

BOTH SPEAKERS SAW IN APPLICATION OF THE TRUSTEESHIP PRINCIPLE A SOLUTION FOR WHAT SAYRE CALLED "ONE OF THE CANCEROUS CAUSES OF WAR--THE PRACTICE OF GOVERNING SUBJECT PEOPLES UPON THE BASIS OF EXPLOITATION."

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-SENATOR ELBERT D. THOMAS (D-UTAH) DECLARED TONIGHT THAT THE UNITED STATES' SECURITY INTERESTS IN THE PACIFIC CAN BE PROTECTED UNDER A SYSTEM OF PLACING THE FORMER JAPANESE MANDATED ISLANDS UNDER AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION IN THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL.

BUT HE EMPHASIZED THAT THE TRUSTEESHIP IDEA "OF COURSE" WILL FAIL AS FAR AS THE ISLANDS ARE CONCERNED IF THE UNITED STATES IGNORES THE UNITED NATIONS AND ADMINISTERS THEM SINGLE HANDEDLY AS JAPAN DID.

THOMAS AND FRANCIS B. SAYRE, U.S. REPRESENTATIVE ON THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL, WERE ON THE WEEKLY NBC RADIO PROGRAM ENTITLED "OUR FOREIGN POLICY."

THE UNITED STATES HAD ALREADY PROPOSED TO THE U.N.SECURITY COUNCIL THAT THE PACIFIC ISLANDS WRESTED FROM JAPAN DURING THE WAR BE PLACED UNDER THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL WITH THE U.S. AS ADMINISTRATOR. RUSSIA HAS SUPPORTED THE U.S.MOVE.

REFERRING TO THE FORMER JAPANESE ISLANDS, THOMAS STATED THAT "AMERICA'S INTERESTS ARE NOT ONLY TO PROTECT AMERICA BUT TO SEE THAT ANOTHER NATION IS NOT IN A POSITION TO ATTACK AMERICA."

"THAT CAN BE DONE," HE ADDED, "WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE TRUSTEESHIP AND HONEST ADMINISTRATION CAN BE FOLLOWED."

SAYRE POINTED OUT THAT AMERICAN SECURITY IN THE PACIFIC IS ALSO SAFEGUARDED BY PROVISIONS IN THE U.N.CHARTER WHICH WOULD ALLOW THE UNITED STATES, AS ADMINISTRATOR, TO CLOSE OFF SPECIAL ZONES AS STRATEGIC AREAS.

HE CONCEDED THE UNITED STATES COULD MAKE THE WHOLE GROUP OF ISLANDS A CLOSED AREA. THIS IS UNLIKELY, HE ADDED, SAYING THE "LIBERAL FORCES IN THIS COUNTRY WOULD LINE UP AGAINST SUCH A STEP." #

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-A RADAR NAVIGATIONAL SYSTEM WILL BE INSTALLED SOON ALONG THE STORM-DOTTED AIRWAY IN ALASKA FOR USE OF CIVILIAN AND MILITARY PLANES.

THE ARMY AIR FORCES ANNOUNCING THIS TONIGHT, SAID THE SYSTEM, KNOWN AS "RACON" IS A MODIFICATION OF THE ORIGINAL RADAR TRACKING DEVICE, AND HAS BEEN USED ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC AIR ROUTE FOR A YEAR AND A HALF.

IT DIFFERS SOMEWHAT FROM THE STANDARD GROUND CONTROL APPROACH EQUIPMENT, BEING INSTALLED AT A NUMBER OF AIRPORTS, WITH WHICH A GROUND CONTROL POINT "TALKS" THE PILOT OF A PLANE DOWN ALONG THE CORRECT APPROACH TO A FIELD. RACON CAN BE USED ONLY BY AIRCRAFT EQUIPPED WITH RADAR UNITS. THE GROUND BEACON IS ACTUATED ONLY WHEN THE AIRPLANE'S EQUIPMENT PICKS IT UP BY AN ELECTRONIC IMPULSE.

THE UNITS WILL BE INSTALLED AT SHEMYA, ADAK, ANCHORAGE, LADD FIELD, NOME, FORT RANDALL AND POINT BARROW.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN TO AN ATOMIC ROCKET FIRED INTO THE INTENSELY POWERFUL COSMIC RAY ZONE OF THE OUTER SPACES TODAY INTRIGUED MILITARY SCIENTISTS.

WOULD THE CHARGE BE DETONATED HARMLESSLY? WOULD IT PRODUCE SOME SORT OF NEUTRALIZING EFFECT, SPOILING THE NUCLEAR PROPERTIES OF THE BOMB'S CHARGE, OR WOULD IT HAVE NO EFFECT?

AN ARMY AIR FORCES-NAVY SCIENTIFIC GROUP DISCLOSED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THEY WILL TRY TO GET THE ANSWER TO THOSE QUESTIONS THROUGH STUDIES BY STRATOSPHERE FLYING B-29 PLANES AND BY V-2 ROCKETS.

DR. ALLAN T. WATERMAN, CHIEF CIVILIAN SCIENTIST FOR THE NAVY GROUP SAID THAT "IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND THE ATMOSPHERE IN WHICH WE ARE GOING TO BE MOVING MORE AND MORE" IT IS NECESSARY TO LEARN IMMEDIATELY AS MUCH BASIC INFORMATION AS POSSIBLE.

"IF MAN IS TO TRAVEL THERE AND TO SEND HIS MACHINES THERE," HE ADDED, "HE MUST KNOW SOMETHNG ABOUT HIS PROBABLE OPERATING EFFICIENCY UNDER SUCH CONDITIONS, AS WELL AS THAT OF HIS MACHINES."

AS TO COSMIC RADIATION, HE POINTED OUT THAT RESEARCH FAR UP IN THE AIR, BY PLANE AND ROCKET, GIVES BETTER OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY THE SUN. IT, HE COMMENTED, IS THE SOURCE OF COSMIC RADIATION AND THEREFORE A LABORATORY FOR STUDY OF NUCLEAR FISSION.

COL. BENJAMIN C.HOLZMAN, AAF RESEARCH SCIENTIST AND WEATHER EXPERT, WAS AKSED BY REPORTERS HOW COSMIC RADIATION COULD BE RELATED TO MILITARY PROBLEMS. IN ANSWERING, HE CITED AS AN EXAMPLE THE CASE OF A SPACE-TRAVERSING ROCKET, EQUIPPED WITH AN ATOMIC WARHEAD. THE PROBABLE EFFECT OF THE IMMENSE ENERGY OF THE COSMIC RAYS ON THE NUCLEAR FISSION MATERIAL OF THE WARHEAD IS UNKNOWN AND THEREFORE PROPERLY BECOMES OF THE MANY QUESTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH PURE SCIENCE STUDY, HE EXPLAINED.

SOME SCIENTISTS HAVE ESTIMATED THAT THE ENERGY OF THE RAYS IN THE OUTER SPACES, BEFORE THEY HAVE BEEN FILTERED BY THE EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE, MAY BE 10,000 TIMES THAT RELEASED BY THE NUCLEAR FISSION OF AN ATOMIC BOMB.

WHAT THIS FANTASTIC FORCE MIGHT DO TO THE LOAD OF AN ATOMIC WARHEAD, TRAVELING ALONG THE INTERSTELLAR WAR PATHS OF THE FUTURE, IS ONE OF THE QUESTIONS TO BE EXPLORED, THE COLONEL SAID.

THE NEWS CONFERENCE HELD AT THE NEARBY AAF BASE AT ANDREWS FIELD, MD., WAS ATTENDED BY MILITARY AND CIVILIAN SCIENTISTS OF THE TWO SERVICES, INCLUDING REAR ADMIRAL PAUL S.LEE, CHIEF OF NAVAL RESEARCH.

A B-29, EQUIPPED WITH INSTRUMENTS FOR MEASUREMENT FOR COSMIC RAY INTENSITY, "SKY BRIGHTNESS," THE WEATHER AND RELATED SUBJECTS, WAS READY TO LEAVE FOR THE NAVY BASE AT INYOKERN, CALIF., WHERE ONE PHASE OF THE STUDY IS BEING CONDUCTED. THE B-29 RESEARCH IS CONCERNED WITH THE LOWER LEVEL EXPLORATIONS, THE VERY HIGH ALTITUDE PHASE BEING CARRIED OUT-THROUGH THE V-2 FIRINGS BY THE ARMY ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT AT WHITE SANDS, N.MEX. #

WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-CONGRESS SHOULD NOT ACT IN HASTE ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL TO AID GREECE AND TURKEY, REP. ELLSWORTH (R-ORE), SAID TODAY.

THE PLAN, ELLSWORTH SAID IN A STATEMENT, INVOLVES A CHOICE "BETWEEN A FURTHER POLICY OF APPEASEMENT AND ULTIMATE TOTAL FAILURE, OR A GIGANTIC GAMBLE THAT WE CAN BACK THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT DOWN WITH FIRMNESS."

MOST MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, ELLSWORTH SAID, FEEL THEY MUST HAVE FURTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE NEED OF SENDING TROOPS AND AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY BEFORE THEY VOTE. HE SAID THE PRESIDENT'S REQUEST FOR HASTE WAS "UNWISE AND UNFAIR" BECAUSE A QUICK DECISION MIGHT LEAD "TO A BAD DECISION."

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE WAS NO SURPRISE TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE PRESIDENT AS IT HAS BEEN BUILDING FOR MONTHS, HE SAID, AND IF HARM COMES FROM DELAY "LAY THE BLAME AT THE DOOR OF THE PRESIDENT."

ELLSWORTH SAID THAT AFTER THE CONCLUSION OF THE SHOOTING WAR THIS GOVERNMENT THOUGHT IT COULD ACHIEVE PEACE BY NEGOTIATION AIDED BY THE FORMATION OF A UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION, AND CONTINUED:

"UNFORTUNATELY OUR POLICY UNTIL ONLY RECENTLY HAS BEEN AN EFFORT TO ACHIEVE OUR OBJECTIVES ON THE BASIS OF APPEASEMENT, THE WHOLE PICTURE IN EUROPE BEING DEADLY SIMILAR TO WHAT IT WAS JUST PRIOR TO GERMANY'S MARCH INTO POLAND.

"WE MUST NOW CHOOSE BETWEEN A FURTHER POLICY OF APPEASEMENT AND ULTIMATE TOTAL FAILURE, OR A GIGANTIC GAMBLE THAT WE CAN BACK THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT DOWN WITH FIRMNESS, PROPERLY SUPPORTED WITH MONEY AND MEN. CAN WE AFFORD TO MAKE THE BIG WAGER--THAT IS BY PROPER SHOW OF DETERMINATION AND FORCE, CAN WE ACHIEVE THE FINAL VICTORY? THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT WILL KNOW WHETHER OR NOT WE CAN AND WILL SUCCESSFULLY BACK UP WHAT APPEARS TO BE A BLUFF. WE MUST BE PERFECTLY CERTAIN IN OUR OWN MINDS BEFORE WE TAKE THE RISK."

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED TODAY A SPECIAL MISSION IS BEING SENT TO THE ISOLATED MOUNTAIN KINGDOM OF NEPAL, ON THE NORTHEASTERN BORDER OF INDIA, TO ESTABLISH COMMERCIAL AND DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

THE SEVEN-MAN MISSION, WHICH WAS INVITED BY THE NEPALESE GOVERNMENT, WILL BE HEADED BY JOSEPH C.SATTERTHWAITE OF TECUMSEH, MICH. HE IS A VETERAN FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICER.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE GROUP WILL ALSO DISCUSS THE POSSIBILITY OF DEVELOPING NEPAL'S NATURAL RESOURCES TO RAISE THE COUNTRY'S STANDARD OF LIVING AND EXPAND TRADE WITH THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER COUNTRIES.

THE PARTY WILL HAVE TO TRAVEL OVER AN OVERLAND ROUTE FROM INDIA AND MAKE PART OF THE TRIP ON FOOT OR HORSEBACK TO REACH THE CAPITAL OF KATMANDU. SATTERTHWAITE WILL LEAVE WASHINGTON AT THE END OF THIS MONTH. ++

WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES AND WORLD PEACE CAN BE MAINTAINED ONLY, REP. MEYER (R-KAS), SAID TODAY, IF THIS GOVERNMENT "FULLY INFORMS THE AMERICAN PEOPLE OF EVERY IMPLICATION INVOLVED IN ADOPTING" THE PROPOSED NEW FOREIGN POLICY.

HE SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN, IN ASKING CONGRESS TO FURNISH AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY, HAD RECOMMENDED ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW POLICY OF BLOCKADING COMMUNIST AGGRESSION AND POLITICAL INFILTRATION WITH GREECE AND TURKEY BECOMING THE FRONT LINE OF THE BLOCKADE.

CONTENDING THAT "WE MUST GET OUR OWN HOUSE IN ORDER IF OUR HOUSE CLEANING ABROAD IS TO BE EFFECTIVE, MEYER SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"THE SECURITY OF THE U.S. AND THE PEACE OF THE WORLD CAN ONLY BE MAINTAINED IF OUR GOVERNMENT FULLY INFORMS THE AMERICAN PEOPLE OF EVERY IMPLICATION INVOLVED IN ADOPTING THIS NEW FOREIGN POLICY; MAKES IT PLAIN TO RUSSIA THAT WE STAND FIRMLY BEHIND OUR FOREIGN POLICY AND THAT THE PERIOD OF APPEASEMENT IS OVER AND TAKES IMMEDIATE STEPS TO IMPLEMENT THIS BLOCKADE AGAINST COMMUNIST INFILTRATION ACTIVITIES ABROAD BY STAMPING IT OUT IN AMERICA X X X."

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-AN IMPROVED FLOW OF MATERIALS IS HELPING SHORTEN THE TIME REQUIRED FOR BUILDING HOUSES, THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS REPORTED TODAY, NOTING THAT 59,300 NEW HOMES WERE COMPLETED IN JANUARY.
